THE LYNN BRIA FILE

A four-time ASUN Conference champion and Stetson women's basketball's all-time winningest head coach, Lynn Bria enters her 18th season at the helm of the Hatters.

Over the past 17 seasons, Bria has built the Hatters into a force in the ASUN. She has guided the team to three conference championships, two NCAA Tournament appearances, five WNIT bids, eight winning seasons and 12 trips to postseason play.

Bria hit her 300th win at Stetson with a 70-56 win on the road over Morgan State.

In the topsy-turvy COVID season of 2020-21, Bria's Hatters made their 10th postseason appearance in 11 years and won just their third-ever NCAA postseason game, a 49-45 win over Loyola-Chicago in the WBI. Newcomer Yazz Wazeerud-Din earned three weekly awards from the ASUN and was named second team all-conference following the regular season.

Bria currently serves as chair of the NCAA Division I women's basketball rules committee, a role she has held since August of 2020.

In 2018-19, Bria earned her 200th victory with the Hatters in a 69-52 win over Liberty on Jan. 8. She also guided the Hatters to a second place finish in the ASUN and the team's fifth WNIT appearance. Senior McKenna Beach earned first team all-conference honors in a season where she posted a 37-point game against Kennesaw State and recorded a triple-double vs. Lipscomb.

Bria broke the program record for coaching victories with her 185th triumph on Dec. 21, 2017 when the Hatters defeated Texas State 61-54. Earlier, on Nov. 22, she led Stetson to its first win over the Florida Gators since 1988, a 85-71 victory in Savannah.

In a historic 2016-17 season, Bria guided the Hatters to 26 wins and the program's first-ever ASUN regular season championship with a 13-1 league record. Stetson ended FGCU's 75-game ASUN home court win streak on Feb. 25 to clinch the ASUN title and capture the No. 1 seed for the ASUN tournament. The Hatters also made their seventh straight postseason appearance with a berth in the WNIT.

Stetson set single-season school records for highest win pct. (.788), best free throw percentage (.791), and best scoring defense (57.5). The Hatters were also recognized with votes in the USA Today Coaches poll and a No. 10 ranking in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major poll.

Bria earned ASUN Coach of the Year honors for her efforts in 2016-17. In addition, Brianti Saunders was named ASUN Player of the Year and Sarah Sagerer the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year. Saunders finished her illustrious career as Stetson's all-time scoring leader with 1,975 points.

In 2015-16, Stetson won 20 games for the sixth year in a row despite not having any seniors on the squad. The Hatters also qualified for the WBI and earned their second NCAA postseason victory with a 89-54 win over McNeese State.

Saunders set the school single-game record with 40 points vs. Georgia State, and came within 11 points of tying the single-season scoring record. She was named first team all-conference, while Breana Bey was named second team all-conference and A-Sun Tri-Newcomer of the Year. McKenna Beach was named A-Sun Freshman of the Year.

Stetson posted its fifth-straight 20-win season in 2014-15, compiling a 23-8 record overall. The Hatters won 11 non-conference games for the first time ever, and the 23 wins overall tied for the third-winningest season in school history. Three Hatters were named First-Team All-Conference for the second year in a row, including the league's Defensive Player of the Year Amber Porter.

In 2013-14 and for the third year in a row, the Hatters set a school record for most victories in a single-season with 27. Stetson also won a school-record 16 conference games and won a school record 16 consecutive contests during the regular season. The Hatters also earned their second-ever bid to the WNIT and the program's first-ever NCAA postseason victory, a 70-63 win at Miami on March 20. Stetson had three players named First Team All-Conference, including A-Sun Freshman of the Year Amber Porter.

The 2012-13 season was one for the history books as the Hatters set numerous team records for success and captured their second A-Sun title in the past three seasons. Bria helped lead the Hatters to a school-record 24 wins overall, a 12-1 record at home, a school-record 14 wins in conference play, and winning streaks of 11-straight overall and 16 in a row at home. In the A-Sun Championship game, Stetson rallied from a 15-point second-half deficit to defeat top-seeded and previously undefeated FGCU 70-64, and then earned their highest-ever NCAA Tournament seed (14) and an appearance in the Columbus, Ohio, regional against UCLA.

In 2011-12, the Hatters won a school-record 23 games and advanced to the postseason for the second year in a row, participating in the WNIT for the first time in school history. Three players earned All-Atlantic Sun honors including A-Sun Player of the Year and All-Tournament Team selection Victoria McGowan, who led the nation with three triple-doubles. Also honored were Second Team All-Atlantic Sun forward Sasha Sims and A-Sun All-Freshman Team forward Cherisse Burris.

Bria's 2010-11 Hatters won 20 games for the first time in 10 seasons, captured their third Atlantic Sun Conference tournament championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in school history and the first time since 2005.

WHAT IS A HATTER?

The unlikely combination of a famous hat manufacturer and a university produced a novel nickname for Stetson University. The athletic teams are called "Hatters," reflecting the university's association with John B. Stetson, maker of the well-known Stetson hats. It all began in 1883 when Henry DeLand founded the DeLand Academy. Three years later, after a disastrous freeze affecting the citrus industry left DeLand in financial distress, Stetson, who had a winter home in DeLand, became interested in the school. At DeLand's request, Stetson was made chairman of the Board of Trustees in 1889 and the university was renamed in his honor. Stetson University fielded the first football team in Florida in 1901. The name "Hatter" was used then and is still in use today.

Mary McMillan returns for another season while Aleah Sorrentino and Rose Caso join Stetson as transfers.
