KNIGHT NOTES

FULKS TABBED TO BIG 12 STARTING FIVE - WEEK 11

- UCF's Themus Fulks was named to the Big 12 Starting Five, as announced by the conference Monday.
- The fifth-year guard earned the honor after helping UCF secure its first Big 12 road win of the season and scoring a career-best 30 points against No. 1 Arizona.
- Fulks totaled 13 points and 12 assists in an 82-73 win at Kansas State, becoming the first Knight with five double-digit assist games in a season.
- He is the first UCF player this century with three point-assist double-doubles in a season and the first in program history with back-to-back games of 10+ assists.
- Against Arizona, he tallied 30 points, eight assists and five rebounds to become the fourth DI player in the last 30 years to have at least 30 points, five rebounds and five assists against a No. 1 opponent, joining Boston College's Ky Bowman, Oklahoma's Buddy Hield and Clemson's Greg Buckner.

HISTORY WITH COLORADO

- This will be UCF's fifth time facing the Buffaloes, with the Knights heading to Boulder for the third time in the matchup's history.
- A win in Boulder would mark UCF's first time winning on the road against Colorado, dropping the previous two appearances.
- UCF is 2-0 against Colorado at home, beating the Buffalos in conference play last season, and winning a home NIT game.

BIG 12 ROAD WOES NO MORE | KNIGHTS BEST KANSAS STATE 82-73

- This will be UCF's fifth time facing the Buffalos, with the Knights heading to Boulder for the third time in the matchup's history.
- A win in Boulder would mark UCF's first time winning on the road against Colorado, dropping the previous two appearances.
- UCF is 2-0 against Colorado at home, beating the Buffalos in conference play last season, and winning a home NIT game.

KNIGHTS HOLD OFF CINCINNATI AT HOME

- In a game where neither team led by double digits, No. 25 UCF men's basketball survived a late surge from Cincinnati to earn a 73-72 victory Sunday night inside Addition Financial Arena.
- The Black and Gold shot 57.7% from the field, their best mark against a Big 12 opponent since joining the conference ahead of the 2023-24 season.
- A 6-0 run by the Bearcats put them up by one with less than two minutes remaining, but a Fulks jumper gave UCF the lead with 13 seconds remaining. The Knights held on defensively to secure the one-point victory.
- Riley Kugel led the game in scoring with 19, with Jamichael Stillwell adding 15 of his own, and Jeremy Foumena tailed 12 points with a season-high eight rebounds.
- Themus Fulks' 12 assists is his fourth 10-plus assist performance on the season.

RISING THROUGH THE RANKS

- UCF men's basketball debuted at No. 25 in the Week 9 Associated Press Top 25, marking its first appearance in the poll since 2019.
- The ranking comes during the best start of head coach Johnny Dawkins' tenure, as the Knights enter Week 9 with a 12-1 record.
- UCF earned the ranking after a statement 81-75 win over then-No. 17 Kansas this past weekend.
- This marks just the sixth week UCF has appeared in the AP Top 25 since the program began in 1969, and the second time under Dawkins.
- As of Jan. 21, UCF ranks 38th in the NCAA NET, climbing as high as 30th, its best NET ranking since joining the Big 12. They have shown far more movement than in their first two seasons, when they sat 78th at this point in 2025 and 75th in 2024.
- The Knights are also 43rd in KenPom, nearing the program's all-time best of No. 34, last reached in 2019.

A WIN WOULD...

- Be better than a loss
- Snap a two-game losing streak
- Improve the record to 15-4 on the season and 4-3 in Big 12 play
- Be the Knights first win in Boulder and improve the all-time record vs. Colorado to 3-2

IT'S UCF...NOT CENTRAL FLORIDA

A warm Sunshine State hello to all our new conference-mates in the Big 12 and to others we may not have crossed paths with before. The 2025-26 season is our third in our new conference, and we'd like to make sure we are referred to correctly on all accounts. Please refer to the University of Central Florida as "UCF," not "Central Florida," on all references. Also, we are not the "Golden Knights," instead, we are simply known as the "Knights."

- ◆ UCF's 9 quad 1-3 wins as of Jan. 15 are tied for the fifth most in Division I.
- ◆ UCF's remaining schedule includes seven quad 1 games and six quad 2 games. The Knights are 2-2 in quad 1, having swept Texas A&M in a home-and-home series and beating No. 17 Kansas at home, while dropping two games to Vanderbilt and on the road against Oklahoma State.
- ◆ Dawkins' 2018-19 team finished nonconference play ranked 46th in the NCAA NET Rankings, though they climbed as high as 26 before ending their season in the tournament's second round.

KUGEL NAMED BIG 12 STARTING FIVE - WEEK NINE

- ◆ Riley Kugel was named to the Big 12 starting five, released on Jan. 5.
- ◆ The senior paced the Knights in a statement 81-75 victory over then-No. 17 Kansas on Jan. 3, scoring 19 points on 8-of-17 shooting. His performance was highlighted by a game-sealing and-one in the closing moments.
- ◆ Kugel has reached double figures in nine games this year, with his standout outing coming against Vanderbilt. In that contest, he poured in a career-high 25 points on 4-of-5 shooting from beyond the arc, while adding four assists and five rebounds.

KNIGHTS TOPPLE NO. 17 KANSAS IN BIG 12 OPENER

- ◆ With the game tied at 72 and under a minute remaining, Jordan Burks delivered when it mattered most. UCF and Kansas had battled every second, each team vying to start the Big 12 season 1-0. But Kansas' hopes were dashed as Burks pulled up from the long range in the final moments, sinking a clutch three-pointer to lift the Knights to an 81-75 upset at Addition Financial Arena.
- ◆ This is the second consecutive season the Knights have won their conference opener, and the first time they've beaten a ranked opponent since last year's season home opener against then No. 13/15 Texas A&M. Dawkins, as a player and coach, is now a combined 7-3 in meetings against either Kansas or Bill Self, or a combination of both.
- ◆ The Knights committed just six turnovers all evening while forcing 12 from the Jayhawks, who normally average 10.8 turnovers per game and force 9.46 themselves.
- ◆ A trio of Knights scored in double digits as Riley Kugel led the way with 19 points followed by Themus Fulks with 16 and Burks added in 14.

NOW YOU'RE DAWKIN: KNIGHTS START 12-1

- ◆ Since head coach Johnny Dawkins took the helm in 2016, the Knights have never opened a season quite like this, as their electrifying 12-1 start stands as the best of his tenure. Their win over No. 17 Kansas on Jan. 3 also pushed their streak to 11 straight victories, the longest ever by a Dawkins-led team and the longest since the 2010-11 season when the squad opened the season on a 14-0 tear.
- ◆ UCF was one of three teams in the Big 12 with just one loss as they entered conference play, joined by Oklahoma State, No. 8 Houston and No. 19 BYU, while No. 1 Arizona and No. 3 Iowa State stepped into Big 12 play undefeated.
- ◆ Beyond Dawkins' own record-breaking start, his group has already left its mark in the program record book, as the Knights set a new single-game record with 19 made three-pointers in their Dec. 20 win over FGCU, surpassing the previous mark of 17 set against Tulsa on Feb. 11, 2023.
- ◆ Dawkins has his core group locked down early, as the Knights have yet to lose with Riley Kugel, Themus Fulks, Jamichael Stillwell, Jordan Burks, and John Bol in the starting lineup.

FULKS CONTROLS THE FLOW

- ◆ Milwaukee transfer Themus Fulks has quickly established himself as UCF's floor general, ranking second in the Big 12 and seventh nationally with 7.2 assists per game (130 assists) across 18 games. He delivered his most impressive performance in the Knights' win over Quinnipiac on Nov. 25, dishing out 13 assists, the most by a UCF player in more than a decade. That effort left him just one shy of the program's single-game record of 14, held by Kingsley Edwards and Cory Perry.
- ◆ Should Fulks maintain a seven-assist per game average across the regular season, he'd shatter the previous program single-season assist record of 183 set in the 1991-92 season by Sinua Phillips.
- ◆ Fulks is one of only two players in the Big 12 with at least five games with 10 or more assists, Texas Tech's Christian Anderson has reached the feat six times this season.
- ◆ Fulks has directly contributed 246 points himself and another 307 through his assists, giving him responsibility for 553 of UCF's 1,506 total points. That means he has accounted for an impressive 36.7 percent of the Knights' total scoring production this season
- ◆ Fulks has recorded two point-assist double-doubles this season: 11 points and 10 assists against Oakland, and an impressive 24 points and 12 assists in the win over FAU, and was stellar in the road win at Kansas State. Fulks is the first Knight to ever have three point-assist double-doubles in a single season.
- ◆ The Winston-Salem native poured in a career-best 30 points against No. 1 Arizona, tying with Auburn's Thaad Pettiford for the most points by an Arizona opponent this season.

THE 4 FACTOR

- ◆ Number four, Jamichael Stillwell, who transferred from Milwaukee alongside Fulks, has become a dominant two-way presence for the Knights, already recording five double-doubles across 17 games. Unsurprising for the senior who averaged 13 points and 10.7 rebounds last season. He ranks third in the Big 12 and 29th nationally with 3.41 offensive rebounds per game, highlighted by a career-best 10 in the win over VMI, which ties him for second all-time in program history for offensive boards in a single game.
- ◆ Stillwell is on pace to surpass UCF's single-season double-double record of 12, set by Tacko Fall during the 2016-17 season. Notably, Stillwell recorded 16 double-doubles last season at Milwaukee.
- ◆ Fall also set UCF's single-season offensive rebounding record in 2016-17 with 129, another benchmark Stillwell could challenge if he maintains his production on the offensive glass throughout the season.
- ◆ It is worth noting that Fall was a true center, but no forward has surpassed 100 offensive rebounds in a single season, a benchmark that Stillwell is already almost halfway towards.
- ◆ Stillwell's five double-doubles tied him for fifth-most in the Big 12 at the conclusion of non-conference play, and ranking him third in program history for double-doubles during non-conference competition, trailing only 2012-13 Keith Clanton (7) and 2016-17 Tacko Fall (8).

BENCH BRIGADE

- ◆ Depth has been a defining trait for the 2025-26 roster, with six different players leading the team in scoring through 18 games. A balance that has translated to one of the Big 12's most productive benches, as the Black and Gold are averaging 25.5 points per game from their reserves, fifth-best in the conference, highlighted by a 51-point bench performance in the win over Florida A&M on Nov. 11.
- ◆ The Knights' bench reached a program high in 2010-11, scoring 828 points at an average of 25.5 per game. So far, the 2025-26 reserves have amassed 441 points, hinting that this year's bench could emerge as one of the most efficient in recent history.
- ◆ Among the UCF's bench contributors are key sharpshooters like Carmelo Pacheco, who has scored 75 of his 87 points this season from beyond the arc. Pacheco ranked fourth in NCAA Division I in three-point field goal percentage last season at 46.4 percent and is looking to match that again, currently maintaining a strong 36.5 percent.
- ◆ Beyond scoring, the bench has contributed 217 rebounds so far, echoing Coach Dawkins' 2023-24 unit, which set a program record with 475 rebounds, a mark this year's group is already more than a third of the way toward.

- ◆ A program record night from the three-point range and a balanced scoring effort that saw five Knights reach double figures, as the Knights rolled past FGCU, 102-80, on Saturday, December 20.

The Nashville native was nearly perfect from the field, knocking down 6-of-7 attempts, including a perfect 4-of-4 from the three-point line.
- ◆ Chris Johnson (12) and Themus Fulks (21) added to the quintet of double digits scorers. Fulks and Johnson also directed the offense throughout the night, each handing out five assists.
- ◆ John Bol made an impact on the glass, pulling down a career-high nine rebounds.

BEATING FLORIDA FOES

- ◆ UCF has found success against in-state opponents under head coach Johnny Dawkins, going 31-11 against teams from Florida since his arrival. The Knights swept the Florida foes this season, as they faced Florida A&M, FGCU and Florida Atlantic adding three wins to Dawkin's record against Florida teams.
- ◆ UCF added two tallies to the win column last season with the 100-94 win over Florida Atlantic on Nov. 12 and the 86-66 victory over Jacksonville on Dec. 21.
- ◆ The Knights have topped Florida, Florida State, Miami, South Florida, Stetson, FIU, Jacksonville, Bethune-Cookman and Florida A&M during Johnny Dawkins' tenure as UCF's head coach and added Florida Atlantic to that list last season.

STILLWELL TABBED TO BIG 12 STARTING FIVE

- ◆ From there, the Black and Gold never looked back, surrendering only 19 points until the final minute. They piled up 15 defensive rebounds and forced five turnovers in the second half to seal a 102-91 victory

ON POINT FROM THE LONG RANGE

- ◆ UCF broke a program record with 19 three-pointers in the game against FGCU (12/20), the previous record was 17 against Tulsa (2/11/23)
- ◆ The Knights are currently ranked 42nd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12 with a 36.9 three-point percentage.
- ◆ Transfers George Beale Jr. and Carmelo Pacheco shot the three-ball above 40% last season.
- ◆ Both Beale Jr. Pacheco averaged 6.3 three-point attempts per game on their two previous teams, respectively.
- ◆ UCF earned 10 or more three-pointers for the 14th time last season against Oregon State, hitting 10 or more threes in four of its last five games after not doing so for the entire month of February. The streak included tying a season-high 14 made threes vs. Kansas in the second round of the Big 12 Championship. To put in perspective the shooting capability of this year's team, the Knights hit 10 or more three pointers just twice last season. Additionally, UCF has five games where they've shot 50% or better from the floor after doing that four times in the previous campaign.
- ◆ The Black and Gold have knocked down a program record 328 three pointers last season, reaching the milestone during the College Basketball Crown first round. The mark tops the 295 made triples during the 2022-23 season.
- ◆ The Knights averaged 8.9 made three pointers per game, beating the previous record during Dawkins' tenure at 8.8 during the 2021-22 campaign. The high clip has helped UCF to its highest scoring offense under Dawkins as well.

1K POINT CLUB

- ◆ Riley Kugel recorded his 1,000th career point against Oakland on Nov. 17.
- ◆ Kugel tallied 18 points in the game, marking his fifth consecutive game with double digits in points.

- ◆ The Knights dug their way out of a 14-point hole in the second quarter, mounting a 15-7 run powered by back-to-back threes from Jordan Burks to pull within striking distance at 61-59 with 7:42 remaining. Burks finished the night with a career-high 21 points, shooting 7-of-11 from the field and 5-of-7 from beyond the arc, also a career-best for made three-point shots in a single game.
- ◆ UCF erased an 11-point deficit with seven minutes to go to come from behind to beat No. 13/15 Texas A&M 64-61 last season in the home opener on Nov. 4, 2024.
- ◆ Texas A&M was the third ranked opponent UCF has played on opening night in the program's D-I history, joining tilts against No. 16 Florida State (11/25/88) and No. 25 Miami (11/19/99). Neither of those resulted in a win.

- ✦ The six teams tie for the most in Big 12 history and has happened in back-to-back years. With three teams in the top 10 it marks the most by any conference this year.
- ✦ The Black and Gold are set to face three of the opponents at home with No. 10 Texas Tech, #13 Arizona and #19 Kansas. The Knights travel to the other three schools starting with No. 2 Houston, #8 BYU and #16 Iowa State.
- ✦ Four of the last six national championships have featured a Big 12 school, including Houston's appearance in the game last season. The run is highlighted by back-to-back national championships by Baylor in 2021 and Kansas in 2022.
- ✦ The Big 12 has been the top ranked Conference in NET/RPI (prior to 2019) in nine of the past 12 seasons.
- ✦ The league boasted the nation's top winning percentage in the 2025 NCAA Tournament (66.7%)
- ✦ Every Big 12 team had an AP Top 25 win last season, the only league to accomplish the feat.
- ✦ The Big 12 has produced a first-round selection in each of the last 26 NBA Drafts

SINGLE SEASON RECORD IN POINTS - 24-25 SEASON

- ✦ With the win over Oregon State, UCF has secured the program's single season points record with 2,693, topping the previous best of 2,617 accomplished in 1979-80. The mark is UCF's highest point total in a season in the program's Division I era, as UCF's last year in Division II was the 1983-84 campaign.

- ✦ Darius Johnson will go down as one of the best to ever suit up in a Knights uniform. With his outing at TCU, Johnson cracked into the top 10 in career points at UCF. He is also third in career assists at UCF and second in steals for the Black and Gold, achieving more than 400 and 200, respectively, reaching both milestones at Kansas on Jan. 28, making him one of four Knights to accomplish the feat. He boasts the most steals in UCF's Division-I history and is one of the program's 21 1,000 point scorers.
- ✦ Johnson, one of the most tenured Knights, finished his career third in the record book for games played in Black and Gold with 125.
- ✦ Johnson broke his own UCF Division I record of steals, accomplishing the feat against Utah in the Big 12 Conference Championship first round. His previous best was 73 and finished his career at 79. He ranked 14th in the nation, averaging 2.32 steals p/g during the 2024-25 season. He finished last season 18th nationally and 2nd in the Big 12 in steals per game at 2.21.
- ✦ Johnson was a marksman from deep last season, hitting 40.5% of his threes, improving on his 39.4% from last season, which was a 12.5% improvement over his sophomore season. The campaign saw him tally 12 games with a trio of three-point makes, including three instances of five or more. He made eight threes in a game, going 8-for-10 behind the arc against Milwaukee (Nov. 27) accounting for eight of UCF's 11 threes that day. At the time of achieving the feat, Johnson was tied for the most made threes in game for a Power Four team on the season.
- ✦ Johnson is in nine different career top 10 lists in UCF's program record book.

FEAR THE FRONDS

"The Most Florida Free Throw Distraction"

A storm, in multiple senses of the word, created a new tradition for Knight Nation in attendance at UCF men's basketball games. The legend goes that the night prior to the Black and Gold's first home conference game as a member of the Big 12, a massive storm rolled through campus. The wind blew down plenty of palm fronds across campus, and students picked them up and brought them into the game to use as a free throw distraction. It ended up working, as No. 3 Kansas shot just 6-for-11 from the free throw stripe in the second half in front of the student section. The fronds gave UCF that extra edge to top the Jayhawks 65-60, winning by as many points as Kansas had missed second half free throws.

Now, that's not exactly how one of college basketball's newest traditions was born. UCF's Brand Experience team wanted to create a unique experience for the team's first season in the Big 12. Director of brand experience Tim Connor (UCF alumna 2017) and assistant director of brand experience Lexi Campagna (UCF alumna 2022) created and executed the idea. Knight Nation immediately took to the new tradition and the country took notice. The pair were named as one of nine finalists in NACMA's "Best Of" Awards in the People's Choice - Student Engagement category.

As the flagship Big 12 institution in The Sunshine State, nothing says Florida like palm trees. Design elements incorporated on social media, uniforms and even the lane on the court, all included palm trees and fronds. Leaning into that element wound up creating the most Florida free throw distraction imaginable.

Not only was the new free throw distraction perfectly on brand, but it actually worked. The palm fronds caused opponents to miss nearly 10% of their second half free throws in Big 12 play and the postseason. Visiting teams made 75% of their first half free throws while making just 66.4% in the second half, accounting for a total of 44 misses.

As the final buzzer sounded on UCF's upset over No. 3 Kansas, the team's first conference win as a Big 12 member, fans stormed the court with palm fronds in hand. The Knights had topped the highest ranked opponent in program history (previously No. 4 UConn, a 68-63 neutral site win on Nov. 25, 2011).

UCF went on to beat a total of three ranked opponents during the 2023-24 Big 12 slate, all at home in front of the frond-waving faithful. The win against No. 3 Kansas was the first, followed by a 74-63 win over No. 23 Oklahoma on Feb. 3 and a 75-61 triumph over No. 23 Texas Tech on Feb. 24.

With two seasons of the "Fear the Fronds" mantra in the students section they are here to stay as a long standing tradition at men's basketball games.

POSTSEASON PURSUIT

- Under head coach Johnny Dawkins, the Knights have made a postseason appearance in five of his nine seasons, including three straight postseason appearances.
- UCF experienced immediate postseason success by making the NIT in the first year under Dawkins' new leadership, reaching the NIT semifinal in Madison Square Garden in 2016-2017.
- The Black and Gold returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2005 when they earned an at-large bid into the 2019 bracket as a No. 9 seed. Dawkins led the Knights to their first NCAA Tournament victory in program history, beating VCU 73-58 in the first round. The Black and Gold narrowly defeated in the next round, falling to top-seeded Duke 77-76.
- UCF returned to the postseason by making the NIT in 2022-23 and earning a first round victory over in-state foe Florida. The Knights were the only team to hold Florida below 50 points during 2022-23 while the 49 Gator points were the least they've scored at home since Jan. 13, 1962 when they beat Auburn 43-40.
- The Black and Gold earned a spot in the 2024 NIT bracket as a No. 4 seed in their second straight trip to the tournament.
- This past season, the Knights were invited to compete in the inaugural College Basketball Crown in Las Vegas to play for a share of a pool of NIL prize money. After wins against Oregon State and conference-foe Cincinnati, the Knights would find themselves in a thrilling semi-final game against Villanova. UCF won 104-98 in overtime, earning a guaranteed $100,000 of the NIL prize money pool.
- The Knights have been to five NCAA DI Tournaments and four NITs, totaling 11 postseason appearances (one CBI and one College Basketball Crown).

TREND SWAPS

- Prior to last season, UCF hung its hat on winning games on the defensive side of the ball. Last season, it was on the offense.
- In Dawkins' previous eight seasons at the helm of the Black and Gold, the Knights averaged 68.9 points per game with the best clip in points per game sitting at 72.3 back in 2018-19, the last time UCF made the NCAA Tournament. This season, the offense has erupted, averaging 79.2 points per contest with 17 games of 80 or more points this season (54 total in JD era).
- The Knights' defense has allowed an average of 65.8 points per game over the previous eight seasons under Dawkins and has allowed 80.0 on the current campaign. The previous season-high never eclipsed 69.4 points per game (2020-21).
- UCF's defense allowed 90 points five times across Dawkins' first eight seasons and has allowed nine 90+ point games this season.

DAWKINS' DECADE

- Johnny Dawkins enters his 10th season with UCF during the 2025-26 season, he has built a particularly glossy college basketball playing and coaching catalogue—most recently including a 2025 induction to the Washington D.C. Hall of Fame and the 2023 induction into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame and selection of a UCF player in the first round of the 2023 NBA Draft.
- Dawkins has continued to rewrite UCF's history books, as he is responsible for nine of UCF's 11 total wins over ranked opponents. Prior to his arrival, the program had won two total games against ranked foes from 1984-2016.
- UCF had never won two games against ranked teams in a single season, and Dawkins has now accomplished the feat twice. It first happened during the 2018-2019 campaign, taking down No. 6 Houston and then No. 19 Cincinnati in Orlando in a span of five days in March. Now, the Knights have wins over three top-25 teams in 2023-2024, beating No. 3 Kansas in January while topping No. 23 Oklahoma and No. 23 Texas Tech in February.
- Dawkins picked up win No. 100 as UCF's head coach in the Knights' win over N.C. A&T on Dec. 11, 2022, becoming just the third coach in UCF history to reach the milestone. Dawkins has a .583 winning percentage since starting with the Knights in 2016, which is the second best of any UCF coach in program history (Torchy Clark, .754 from 1969-83).
- Dawkins is the fastest coach to earn 100 wins in program history in the Division I era, needing only 162 games to do so. At one point during the contest, the Knights had compiled a 20-2 run, dating back to Hall's three prior to halftime.
- Dawkins had his squad off to a 4-0 start to begin the 2024-2025 season, tying the 2021-22 and 2017-18 season for his best starts to a season at UCF.
- Dawkins led UCF to its first NIT Final Four (2017), first at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament (2019), and first NCAA Tournament win (2019). Additionally, he has led the Knights to three straight postseason appearances, including a championship appearance in the inaugural College Basketball Crown last season.
- Associate head coach, Robbie Laing has stayed beside Dawkins throughout his tenure at UCF.
- Laing was responsible for leading the charge in the recruitment of Taylor and Tyler Hendricks, both of whom joined the team's roster in the 2022-23 season.
- Taylor went on to lead the team in scoring, blocks and a multitude of other categories in a phenomenal freshman campaign, one that led to him becoming the program's first one-and-done, as well as first lottery pick in the NBA draft. Taylor was selected ninth overall in the 2023 NBA Draft to the Utah Jazz, the second of UCF's selections in the modern draft era.

DAWKINS' LONGSTANDING SUCCESS VS. KANSAS AND BILL SELF

- UCF's 81-75 victory over No. 17 Kansas on Jan. 3, 2026, continued head coach Johnny Dawkins' storied history of success against the Jayhawks and Bill Self, improving his home record against Kansas in Big 12 play to 2-1.
- Prior to Kansas' Jan. 5, 2025 win in Lawrence, Dawkins had never lost to either Kansas or Bill Self as a player or coach, a streak

ADDITION FINANCIAL ARENA

The UCF men's and women's basketball programs have called the beautiful 10,000-seat Addition Financial Arena its home since the start of the 2007-08 season. Located in the heart of Knights Plaza on the expansive north side of campus, the state-of-the-art facility opened in the fall of 2007 to packed crowds at multiple events. Under the current configuration, the capacity for basketball games sits at 9,400.

Addition Financial Arena's unique design provides an intimate atmosphere for all students, alumni, fans and supporters, while creating an intimidating environment for opponents. With a raucous student section, dubbed the "Knightmare," Addition Financial Arena has quickly become one of the more formidable basketball facilities in the entire southeast. The design offers perfect sight lines for all fans, giving every spectator a spectacular view.

UCF's first year in the Big 12 Conference saw record attendance for the men's basketball teams, hosting a total of 134,000 fans over the 2023-24 season that saw the Knights host 19 home games, averaging just over 9,000 fans per league home contest. The inaugural Big 12 campaign also saw the introduction of palm fronds as a free throw distraction in the student section. The terms "Fear the Frond" and "Frond Warning" were born as Knight Nation helped cause opponents to make 10% less of their second-half free throws in Big 12 and postseason play.

The venue has sold out twice for UCF men's basketball games, the first being the Black and Gold's 2017 NIT Quarterfinal contest against Illinois, filling the seats with 10,011 fans. The second was the Knights' Big 12 Conference home opener against No. 3 Kansas on Jan. 10, 2024, as 9,469 fans piled through the turnstiles. Most of those fans piled out of the stands as both games ended in court stormings. UCF's 65-60 victory over the Jayhawks was the highest-ranked opponent that the Knights had defeated in program history.

Approximately 7,000 seats make up the lower bowl of Addition Financial Arena, with an additional 3,000 seats situated in the upper level. Club level seating is on the east side of the Arena, with exclusive access to the regal Black and Gold Club before, during and after each game. The addition of a courtside club on one of the baselines subtracted 600 seats from the lower bowl, making the current configuration for men's and women's basketball games a 9,400-fan capacity. The area, located floor-level in front of sections 101-103, offers great views of game action as well as access to top-notch food and beverage options.

The facility features 16 luxury boxes and suites, a club lounge, open concourse areas and numerous concession options. Fans benefit from a state-of-the-art audio and video system. The scoreboard located at center court features four video screens that show replays and player information with an LED ribbon board stretching around the bottom.

Patrons enter the building through a spacious lobby that has conveniently located concession and apparel stands.

Addition Financial Arena sits on the northern side of campus and is nestled in with UCF's other athletics facilities, including FBC Mortgage Stadium, The Venue, John Euliano Park and the UCF Soccer/Track Complex. FBC Mortgage Stadium also opened up during the same September week in 2007.

The arena is the centerpiece of an area that includes apartment-style dormitories with 2,000 total beds and about 100,000-square feet of retail space. Before and after games, fans can dine and shop at establishments like Barnes & Noble Bookstore, Burger U, Gringos Locos, Domino's, The Pop Parlour, Dunkin', Jimmy John's, Subway and Knightro's.

The neighboring retail area has room for 24 shops.

Addition Financial Arena also hosts premiere concerts along with UCF commencement ceremonies. The Central Florida Crusaders, expansion members of the National Indoor Soccer League, began fielding men's and women's teams in the venue for the 2022-23 season. The Orlando Valkyries of the Pro Volleyball Federation began playing their games in the arena in Jan. 2024.

The arena is located directly in front of UCF's old home, The Venue, which re-opened following a year of massive renovations to create a new home for the women's volleyball program as well as dedicated practice facilities for both the men's and women's basketball programs. The Knights played in the former 5,100-seat building from 1991-2007.

Construction on the new facility began in November of 2005. The arena was designed by HOK Sports and constructed by KUD International.

The arena officially opened on Sept. 8, 2007, with a Reba McEntire concert. The first UCF event at the new arena occurred on Sept. 28, 2007, when the UCF volleyball team hosted East Carolina. The first UCF men's basketball game was a 63-60 victory over Nevada on Nov. 11, 2007 while the first women's contest was on Nov. 9, 2007, in 72-57 loss to Texas Tech.

Johnny DAWKINS

Head Coach / 10th Season at UCF

Hall of Fame and the 2023 induction into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame and selection of a UCF player in the first round of the 2023 NBA Draft.

Dawkins' resume showcases:

- ◆ 17 seasons as a major-college head coach (the last nine at UCF), including 10 postseason berths and a pair of National Invitation Tournament titles
- ◆ Extensive player development, highlighted by Taylor Hendricks' selection in the first round of the 2023 NBA Draft after only a single season at UCF
- ◆ 10 additional previous seasons of experience as an assistant coach at Duke, including NCAA Championship appearances every year, an NCAA title in 2001 and seven Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament crowns
- ◆ A nine-year NBA career that included a career double-figure scoring average
- ◆ A collegiate playing career at Duke that featured national player-of-the-year recognition as a senior as the school's all-time top career scorer, later culminating with his 2023 National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame selection and 2025 Washington D.C. Sports Hall of Fame induction

In nine seasons at UCF, Dawkins has led the program to unprecedented heights, in the only eight-year stretch with four or more postseason appearances during the Division I era. He led the Knights to their first NCAA Championship victory in 2019. He's also responsible for producing UCF's first lottery pick after Taylor Hendricks was selected by the Utah Jazz with the ninth overall pick in the 2023 NBA Draft. In the deepest, most challenging league in college basketball, Dawkins led the Knights to seven victories in their inaugural season as members of the Big 12 Conference in 2023-24, earning a program record three ranked wins during the campaign.

Dawkins boasts nine wins over ranked opponents in his time at the helm of the Knights, accounting for over 80% of the team's wins over Associated Press top-25 teams in the program's history. The Knights led off the 2024-25 season with a win over #13 Texas A&M, marking the first of three tries in a season opener. UCF made a statement in its inaugural home Big 12 game on Jan. 10, 2024, beating No. 3 Kansas by five after trailing by 16 at one point during the contest. The Knights went on to earn additional ranked wins over No. 23 Oklahoma and No. 23 Texas Tech during the inaugural Big 12 slate, joining the 2018-19 season as the only other campaign with multiple wins over ranked opponents in a single season.

The Knights also earned a host of other impressive wins against top-25 foes, beating 15th-ranked Florida State in Tallahassee in 2020, the program's first victory over the Seminoles. The Knights recorded consecutive victories over No. 6 Houston and No. 19 Cincinnati during the 2018-19 regular-season run to the NCAA Championship, solidifying themselves in the field of 68. UCF defeated No. 24 Alabama in December 2017, after earning the first ranked win under Dawkins on Feb. 26, 2017, beating No. 15 Cincinnati 53-49. UCF cracked the AP poll on Mar. 4, 2019, for the first time since 2011, earning a ranking of 25th late in the regular season. It was the latest into a season that the Knights had been ranked. The home finale against Cincinnati in 2019 marked the first matchup of ranked teams at Addition Financial Arena.

The 2019 NCAA Championship Run

The 2018-19 season was one to remember for Dawkins and the Knights, as he guided UCF to a No. 9 seed in the NCAA Championship, its highest seed in five all-time NCAA Championship appearances, and defeated eighth-seeded VCU 73-58 in first-round action.

UCF then came inches away from upsetting top overall seed Duke in the second round, ultimately falling 77-76 to fellow Hall of Famer and his former college coach Mike Krzyzewski, Zion Williamson and RJ Barrett as BJ Taylor's floater rimmed out and Aubrey Dawkins' tip-in barely missed at the buzzer.

The Knights were stellar down the stretch to secure their at-large NCAA Championship berth, winning on the road at No. 6/8 Houston to snap the Cougars' 33-game home win streak and topping No. 19/20 Cincinnati in Orlando. It marked the first time UCF had earned multiple victories over ranked opponents in the same season, and the Knights did it in back-to-back games.

Dawkins led UCF back to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2005, and the first time as an at-large selection (with the previous four NCAA Championships as champions of the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament in 1994, 1996, 2004 and 2005). He helped three individuals earn all-conference accolades from the American Athletic Conference in 2018-19, as UCF led the league with three honorees. BJ Taylor became the first Knight to earn first-team AAC honors, while Aubrey Dawkins was named second team and Tacko Fall added third-team honors. It marked just the second time that the Knights put multiple student-athletes on the AAC all-conference teams and the ninth time in the program's Division I history that multiple Knights earned all-conference honors in the same season (dating back to the 1993-94 season). With two players on the three all-conference teams, only Houston had more players earn all-conference honors.

Following the end of the 2018-19 regular season, Dawkins was named a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award and the Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year Award.

UCF finished the year 24-9, tied for the fourth most wins in a season in program history. The Knights' 23 regular-season wins marked a record in UCF's Division I era. The team went 13-5 in AAC play, the team's most league wins since joining that conference, and earned the No. 4 seed in the conference tournament for the second time in three seasons.

Dominant Defense

Known for their defense under Dawkins, the Knights ranked 11th in the nation in field-goal percentage defense, holding opponents to just 39.4 percent shooting in the 2018-19 NCAA Championship run. UCF was also 27th in scoring defense, allowing 64.5 points per game that season.

Defense always has been a priority with UCF teams, as four of Dawkins' nine seasons with the Knights have seen the team finish inside the top 50 nationally in scoring defense, including two top-10 finishes. UCF ranked third in the nation in scoring defense in 2017-18, holding teams to 61.7 points per game and 40.1% shooting, slotting the team at the No. 10 spot in the country. Dawkins' first season with UCF in 2016-17 saw the team finish No. 1 in field-goal percentage defense, limiting foes to 36.5% from the field, and No. 6 in scoring defense, with opponents averaging 61.2 points per contest.

Despite making the jump to one of the nation's toughest leagues in college hoops, UCF held its own on the defensive side of the ball. The Knights led the Big 12 in blocks per game, averaging 5.0 per game, a top 20 mark nationally throughout the year. UCF also ranked in the top 25 in steals per game at 8.7 per contest. Although they finished just outside of the top 50 national rankings for scoring defense, the Knights often held opponents well below their season averages. UCF also posted its second-highest turnovers forced per game clip during the team's first run through the Big 12, finishing in the top 40 with a mark of 14.21.

Highly-Touted Hendricks

Taylor Hendricks qualified as UCF's top recruit in program history upon his arrival prior to the 2022-23 season. He came into college as a top-100 player in two of the three major recruit rankings, as ESPN pinned him No. 54 and Rivals had him at No. 87. Hendricks lived up to the hype on opening night, dropping a team-best 23 points in his collegiate debut and finishing the season with averages of 15.3 points and 6.9 rebounds.

Through plenty of work and coaching throughout the season, Hendricks quietly began to creep into mock drafts across the country. At season's end, Hendricks had achieved two career-high marks of 25 points and recorded five double-doubles. He was the nation's only player to make 60 or more three-pointers, tally 55 or more blocks and record 35 or more dunks. He was honored with a unanimous selection to the American Athletic Conference All-Rookie Team and was named second-team All-AAC.

Hendricks announced his intent to enter the NBA Draft on March 22, 2023, making him UCF's first one-and-done player. The freshman phenom later went on to become the Knights' first lottery pick as well as a first-round selection, going ninth to the Utah Jazz in the 2023 NBA Draft.

Enshrined in the College Basketball Hall of Fame

Dawkins was honored Aug. 30, 2023, as an inductee in the 18th class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame. He was joined by former Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski, who was officially honored in the class of 2023 after initially being among the Hall of Fame's Founding Class in 2006.

Dawkins was inducted for his playing days as a Blue Devil and is one of the most decorated players in Duke history. He is regarded as a key early figure in the program's ascent to becoming a national power. From 1982-86, Dawkins piled up 2,556 points – a mark that stood as the school's scoring record until 2006 and remains second all-time. He was a two-time consensus All-American, a four-time All-ACC selection – and was recipient of the 1986 Naismith National Player of the Year award.

As a senior, Dawkins led Duke to the ACC regular-season and tournament titles, and an appearance in the NCAA National Championship game. The 10th overall pick by the Spurs in the 1986 NBA Draft, Dawkins saw action in nine professional seasons with the Spurs, 76ers and Pistons. He averaged 11.1 points and 5.5 assists through 541 career NBA games.

The Washington D.C. native was selected to be a part of the Washington D.C. Sports Hall of Fame Class of 2025. He was inducted for his playing days at Mackin Catholic High School, Duke and the NBA. He is considered one of the greatest players at the District's Mackin Catholic High School, where he earned All-America recognition before joining Duke.

The Washington D.C. Sports Hall of Fame marked the third Hall of Fame induction for Dawkins. His jersey was retired in 1996 as he was inducted into the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2023, he was an inductee in the 18th class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame.

UCF Player Honors

Multiple players have earned conference and national honors under Dawkins' tenure. Tacko Fall earned a spot on the Lefty Driesell Defensive All-America team in 2016-17 and was named the American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year. B.J. Taylor earned first-team All-AAC and NABC first-team All-District honors in 2018-19.

Seven nods to the All-AAC Team were awarded while the Knights were members of that league. An additional three All-Rookie Team honors were earned, all over the last three seasons. Taylor Hendricks earned second-team All-Conference honors as well as a unanimous nod to the All-Rookie Team in 2022-23, as well as tallying a record nine conference rookie-of-the-week accolades. Darius Johnson and Isaiah Adams preceded Hendricks in earning All-Rookie Team nods in 2021-22 and 2020-21, respectively. Aubrey Dawkins (2018-19) and Taylor (2016-17) are the other Knights who received All-AAC second-team honors, while Darin Green Jr. (2021-22), Brandon Mahan (2020-21), Darius Perry (2020-21) and Fall (2018-19) all were members of an AAC third team.

Johnson added to his decorated career as a Knight with an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honor in UCF's first season in the Big 12 (2023-24). He was joined by fellow junior guard Jaylin Sellers and fifth-year forward Ibrahim Diallo on the honorable mention list.

Keyshawn Hall and Johnson were both honored by the Big 12 Conference at the end of the 2024-25 season. Hall was named to the All-Big 12 Second Team and All-Newcomer Team while Johnson was tabbed as All-Big 12 Honorable Mention for the second consecutive season.

Postseason Pushes

On top of the NCAA Championship run in 2018-19, the Knights have punched three tickets to the NIT under Dawkins' direction, as he has led UCF to the postseason in five of his nine seasons at the helm of the Black and Gold. That number of postseason appearances is more than half of the SEC, ACC and Big Ten combined over that stretch.

The Black and Gold participated in the inaugural College Basketball Crown (2025), a 16-team tournament hosted in Las Vegas for a share of a pool of NIL prize money. Dawkins and company led the Knights to the championship game as they fell just short of earning a title, falling 77-66 to Nebraska.

UCF's most recent NIT bid saw the squad earn a No. 4 seed. In 2023, the Knights traveled to Gainesville, Florida, and handily beat Florida 67-49, UCF's first road victory against the Gators in program history. The Knights were the only team to hold Florida under 50 points all season. It was the sixth time that season UCF limited an opponent to 50 points or fewer. The Knights' run came to an end in their inaugural meeting with top-seeded Oregon in Eugene.

The 2016-17 season took UCF to New York's Madison Square Garden in Dawkins' first year at the helm of the Knights. UCF hosted its first NIT game, defeating Colorado for the program's first postseason win in an NIT or NCAA game. The Knights went on to defeat top-seeded Illinois State on the road, before coming home to the first sellout crowd at Addition Financial Arena and winning 68-58 over Illinois to earn a spot in the NIT semifinals. Under Dawkins' leadership, UCF led all NCAA Division I teams in defensive field-goal percentage, holding opponents to just 36.5 percent from the floor. The Knights were also sixth in the nation, allowing only 61.2 points per game, and gave up 45 or fewer points in four games over the course of the year. Dawkins was a finalist for both the Jim Phelan and Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year awards in his first season at UCF. Matt Williams set UCF records for three-pointers in a career, season and game, before signing a professional contract with the Miami Heat.

Notable Notes

In UCF's Dec. 11, 2021, win over North Carolina A&T, Dawkins picked up his 100th victory with the Knights, becoming the fastest coach in program history and just the third one to do so. He earned his 300th career victory in the Black and Gold's 74-63 win over No. 23 Oklahoma. Following the end of the 2023-24 season, Dawkins stands 148-103 all-time as head coach of the Knights, a winning percentage of .590, currently the second highest in program history and first during the Division I era, trailing only Torchy Clark's .755 mark.

In nine years, Dawkins has done a similarly successful job with his players in the classroom. With Dawkins at the helm, the Knights men's basketball program recorded an average semester team grade-point average over 3.0 for the first time in recorded history in 2018. Then the Knights did it again, setting a program record with an average semester GPA of 3.03 in spring 2019. Under Dawkins' watch, more than 45 nods have been earned by Knights on the AAC All-Academic team.

When Dawkins took over at UCF, the Knights had gone 12-18 the season before and hadn't finished above .500 since 2012-13. He led UCF to a 24-12 record in his first season at the helm, the sixth-best turnaround in the nation. With just seven scholarship players due to transfers and injuries, the Knights earned the fourth seed – their highest ever – in the American Athletic Conference Tournament, eventually falling to league champion SMU in the semifinals.

Stanford Stint

Stanford put together four 20-win seasons in Dawkins' tenure as head coach. He is only the second coach in Stanford history with at least four 20-win seasons. Stanford's success on the court came against some of the toughest schedules in the nation. During the 2015-16 season, the Cardinal faced the sixth-most difficult slate in the country—with a nation-leading 17 of Stanford's 30 games against RPI top-50 squads. Stanford's strength of schedule was rated in the top 50 each of his final four seasons, including two in the top 20, with an average rank of 27.75.

The Cardinal basketball program also excelled in the classroom during Dawkins' tenure, earning at least three Pac-12 All-Academic selections for five consecutive seasons and producing back-to-back Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year recipients (2014, 2015). Stanford also received annual national academic recognition, with three players earning National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Honors Court status in 2015. The Cardinal were one of 20 NCAA Division I teams to earn a NABC Team Academic Excellence Award in 2016.

In 2012, Dawkins mentored Chasson Randle to become the consummate student-athlete. Randle finished that season as Stanford's all-time leading scorer and earned the program's initial first-team Academic All-America selection since 2006. Under Dawkins, Stanford recorded back-to-back perfect Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores of 1,000 in both the 2012-13 and 2013-14 reports.

Player development was also markedly improved at Stanford under Dawkins' tutelage. Four Cardinal players were selected in the NBA Draft following their collegiate careers—including 2014 first-round pick Josh Huestis.

Learning from a Legend

The Washington, D.C., native coached for 10 years under the legendary Mike Krzyzewski at Duke. During Dawkins' decade as a coach at Duke, the Blue Devils won a national championship (2001), tallied six ACC regular-season championships, recorded seven ACC Tournament titles and posted a 330-60 (.846) record. In four consecutive seasons from 1999-2002, Duke finished the regular season ranked No. 1 in both national polls, a first in college basketball history. Duke reached a No. 1 national ranking in seven of 10 seasons with Dawkins on the coaching staff.

While at Duke, he also served as the player personnel director for the USA Basketball Senior National Team from 2006-08.

Decorated at Duke

Following a prolific high school career at Mackin Catholic High School in Washington, D.C. (McDonald's All-American and third-team Parade All-American), Dawkins made his way to Duke, where he would become one of the most decorated players to set foot in Durham, North Carolina.

He played for the Blue Devils from 1982-83 through 1985-86, earning consensus All-America honors twice (1985, 1986). Dawkins was also voted the 1986 Naismith National Player of the Year and named a Freshman All-American in 1983. During his collegiate career, he helped lead Duke to three NCAA Championship berths, including an NCAA title-game appearance in 1986. He was an All-ACC honoree all four seasons as a Blue Devil. Dawkins helped Duke win the 1986 ACC Tournament title in his senior season, claiming the MVP award in the process.

Dawkins finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer and held that honor until 2006 when J.J. Redick surpassed his mark of 2,556 points. He recorded double-figure point totals in 129 of 133 collegiate games. Dawkins led the Blue Devils in scoring all four years, recording the fourth-highest season point total in school history with 809 in 1986. Dawkins remains Duke's career record-holder in field goals (1,026) and field goals attempted (2,019) while also setting the school's single-season mark for field goals (331) during the 1986 campaign.

Dawkins was inducted into the Duke Sports Hall of Fame in September 1996. His jersey number 24 was retired by the school.
