Matt Botsford, ranked ninth nationally among active Division I coaches in career winning percentage, was named UCF volleyball's 10th head coach by UCF Vice President and Director of Athletics Terry Mohajir in December 2024.

In his first season in charge, Botsford led the Knights to historic growth throughout 2025. Increases in overall wins (9 to 17), Big 12 wins (4 to 8), and final RPI (204 to 63) highlighted the transformational culture instilled during his inaugural campaign.

The RPI growth was the fourth most by a DI team and ranked second among Power Four programs. Botsford became the first coach to secure two top-25 wins in his first season in charge, as UCF defeated No. 17 BYU in Provo and swept No. 24 Iowa State on Senior Night in Orlando. The top-25 triumphs marked the eighth and ninth in program history and just the second season the Black and Gold have secured multiple.

Botsford's balanced squad ranked among the top of the Big 12 in kills per set (sixth, 13.39), hitting percentage (seventh, 0.239), blocks per set (seventh, 2.34), opponent hitting percentage (third, 0.183), and paced the conference in aces per set (1.74) behind the NCAA leader Skylar English's 0.71 aces per set.

The new-look Knights placed multiple student-athletes on postseason awards lists. Avah Armour was tabbed to the All-Big 12 First Team and named the Big 12 Scholar Athlete of the Year, while freshman standout Alexa Haley landed on the All-Big 12 Rookie Team, each being first's for the program.

Armour, Haley, and Reagan Thompson tallied a combined four Big 12 Player of the Week honors, with Thompson securing a pair of Defensive Player of the Week honors and Haley becoming the first freshman to receive the honor since 2021. Armour later went on to secure an AVCA All-America honorable mention recognition, becoming the ninth Knight in program history to receive the honor. The Colorado native was also named to the AVCA All-Southeast Region First Team, along with CSC Academic All-America and All-District honors, emphasizing the importance of both on-court success and efforts in the classroom under Botsford.

Botsford spent the past 11 seasons at Florida Gulf Coast, where he led the Eagles to four consecutive Atlantic Sun Conference Championships, including four consecutive, and five NCAA tournament appearances. He also guided the Eagles to their first NCAA First Round win (in their first appearance) in 2018.

In Botsford's tenure as a head coach at FGCU, he has accumulated a 263-78 (.771) career record and was recently named the 2024 America Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Southeast Region Coach of the Year. He has taken the FGCU program to heights it has not seen in the Division I era (2007-present), registering at least 20 wins in nine of the past 10 seasons (excluding COVID 2020) and at least 10 wins in conference play every year.

The Eagles finished the 2024 season with a 27-5 record and ranked third in the NCAA for aces per set (2.11). Botsford's squad tallied 263 aces throughout the season, which ranked sixth in the nation.

FGCU made its fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament after cruising through ASUN conference play with a 15-1 record. His squad led the conference in nearly every statistic, including kills per set (13.66), hitting percentage (.263) and opponent hitting percentage (.168).

In his 11 seasons at FGCU, he garnered three ASUN Coach of the Year honors and mentored a total of 61 players that have earned ASUN All-Conference awards, including seven players tabbed ASUN Player of the Year. Additionally, seven have earned AVCA All-Region selections and three All-America honors.

In 2017, Botsford's first recruit, Amanda Carroll, became the program's first AVCA First Team All-Region selection, while also garnering First Team All-ASUN, ASUN Co-Player of the Year, ASUN Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year and CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition. Snowy Burnam, who also played beach volleyball, became just the second player in NCAA history to be named her conference's freshman of the year in both indoor and beach volleyball.

Botsford, who played at Tri-State University (now Trine University) from 1995-98, has served as an assistant coach at five different collegiate institutions, with the most recent occurring at Colorado State University from May 2012 to February 2014. While there, he helped lead the Rams to two consecutive conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths. On top of that, the program also recorded a program-best 27 consecutive wins in 2013.

Before his time at Colorado State, Botsford was the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach at Notre Dame and Miami, in addition to stints at IUPUI and the University of Indianapolis. Furthermore, he served as an interim head coach at his alma mater at the age of 21 and has international and national coaching experience.

Botsford was the lead recruiter at Notre Dame from February 2008 until July 2011, and his 2010 and 2011 classes were ranked 13th and 15th, respectively, nationally by media outlets. The Fighting Irish advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2009 after winning the Big East title and going undefeated through the conference schedule (14-0). In total, he coached two All-Americans and six All-Big East performers - including the 2010 Big East Freshman of the Year Andrea McHugh - during his time in South Bend.

Prior to his three plus years at Notre Dame, Botsford cultivated relationships with players and coaches throughout Florida, as he served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Miami for nearly four years from June 2004 to February 2008. He helped solidify two of the highest-ranked recruiting classes in the relatively short history of the program, signing at least one top-100 rated player in each of his final three years and the first top-50 recruit for the Hurricanes.

During his time with Miami, Botsford coached two All-Americans and five All-ACC players. In addition, he recruited Lane Carico, who was named the 2011 ACC Player of the Year. Carico supplemented a core group of starters Botsford recruited who led Miami to three straight appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

Botsford got his start in coaching by serving as the interim head coach for both the men's and women's volleyball programs at Tri-State from November 1998 through June 1999. He parlayed his experience in those roles into an assistant position at the University of Indianapolis where he was for one year (June 1999 - May 2000). His final stop before heading to the University of Miami was as an assistant at IUPUI from May 2001 until June 2004, coaching two-time Mid-Continent Conference Player of the Year Rebekah Pallikan.

Outside of the collegiate landscape, Botsford also has a vast array of experience. In the year between his stints at Notre Dame and Colorado State, he was the head coach of Lindesberg Volley as part of Sweden's Elite Series, leading the club to a first-ever league title and automatic representation in European Cup play. While with Lindesberg Volley from August 2011 through May 2012, he coached four players who went on to play for Sweden's National Team.

The foray into Sweden wasn't the first for Botsford as he played professionally with the Vingaker Volleyball Club in the country in 2002-03, the final of his three professional stints. In the collegiate offseason, he also played from 1998-2003 on beach tours with both the MPVA and the EVP, the latter of which named him the league's Rookie of the Year in 2000.

Botsford was selected as an assistant coach for the 2007 USA Select Program, which trains elite volleyball players in preparation for the U.S. National Team. In his one year as part of the program, Botsford guided his team to a bronze medal in the HP Global Championships as the head coach of the USA Silver team.

Botsford was a two-year captain at Tri-State and graduated with a degree in social studies education and a minor in general science. Botsford was a two-year captain who graduated and was the program's all-time leader in kills, digs and blocks when he graduated. He was named an All-American Scholar Athlete as a senior and was inducted into the Tri-State Hall of Fame in 2006. He received a master's degree in business administration from the University of Indianapolis in 2004.

Botsford and his wife, Lindsey, have a daughter, Harper and a son, Cache.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

2024-pres.	UCF	Associate Head Coach
2020-24	FGCU	Associate Head Coach
2017-20	Mercer	Assistant Coach

Kate Morrell, a former professional volleyball player with nine years of coaching experience, enters her second season as associate head coach at UCF.

During her first campaign in Orlando, Morrell was instrumental in the Knights' success under first-year head coach Matt Botsford. The team increased its win total by eight (9 to 17), secured four more Big 12 wins, and boasted the fourth-highest year-over-year RPI growth (+141) in the nation, finishing the season 63rd in the nation after being 204th a season ago.

Morrell led the charge in a UCF attack that ranked sixth in the Big 12 with 13.39 kills per set and seventh with a 0.239 hitting percentage, both massive improvements from 2024. Under the direction of Morrell and Botsford, junior Avah Armour became the program's ninth AVCA All-American in program history and first All-Big 12 First Team honoree.

Morrell joined the Knights after completing a five-year standout run as FGCU's associate head coach alongside Botsford. Together, the duo produced 120 program wins with four NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2023, Morrell contributed to the team's 26-7 record with a 15-1 conference mark. She also helped the Eagles clinch both the regular season and conference titles, allowing the squad to qualify for the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in program history.

Prior to FGCU, Morrell served as an assistant coach for three years at Mercer University where she worked with both the beach and indoor programs. There, she held coaching responsibilities for the beach program while also training and recruiting indoor players. In her time recruiting, two of Morrell's players earned Southern Conference all-freshman team honors in 2018 eventually both earning a spot on the 2019 Southern Conference all-tournament team.

Before becoming a coach, Morrell played as an outside hitter at UAB after a one-year stint at Hutchinson Community College. In her time at UAB, she was a member of both the school's indoor and beach programs, a three-year letterwinner, and in 2012-13 was named team captain and then named to the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll. Morrell followed up her collegiate career with a successful professional career that allowed her to compete in places such as the Philippines, Switzerland and the Netherlands.

Sean Kiracofe, a 10-year head coaching veteran, enters his second season as assistant coach at UCF.

During his first season in Orlando, the Knights ranked seventh in the Big 12 in blocks per set (2.34) and third in opponent hitting percentage (0.183).

He spent the previous 10 seasons as the head coach at Northwestern State, where he was the longest-tenured coach in volleyball history. During the 2022 season, he became the program record holder for career wins and earned his 100th career victory in a 3-0 sweep of Grambling on Sept. 12, 2023.

The Demons recorded their fifth season with a .500 or better record during conference play under Kiracofe in Southland Conference play during the 2023 season, the most by one coach in program history. They earned their seventh trip to the Southland Conference Tournament in nine seasons that year.

Kiracofe-coached players now account for eight of the top 13 best single-season block totals in program history.

Kiracofe became the 14th head coach in NSU program history on April 7, 2015. He brought a decorated resume to the position, having coached at SMU, UNLV, Montana State and UTEP in a career that has spanned more than a decade.

A native Texan, Kiracofe helped lead SMU to a 48-14 record in his final two seasons in Dallas and coached a pair of first-team all-conference middle blockers. Under his direction, SMU's Caroline Young was a three-time, first-team all-conference selection and an honorable mention All-American.

Kiracofe is a 1999 graduate of Texas Tech with a bachelor of arts in political science and a minor in history. He was a four-year starter and a two-year captain for the Red Raiders club team, which he helped lead to top-25 rankings in 1998 and 1999.

He and his wife, Kerri, have two children – a son, Walker, and a daughter, Reese.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

2024-pres.	UCF	Assistant Coach
2022-24	Virginia	Assistant Coach

Trevor Kennan, who spent the first three seasons with the Virginia volleyball program, enters his second season as assistant coach at UCF.

During his first campaign in Orlando, Kennan assisted all areas of the program, working consistently with freshman standout libero Alexa Haley, who was named to the Big 12 All-Rookie Team after taking over starting duties at the beginning of conference play.

Kennan started his coaching career with UVA in the 2022-23 season as a volunteer assistant coach and not long after was promoted to assistant coach in August 2023. During his time with the Cavaliers, the program won 44 matches. Most recently he helped guide the team to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship in the 2024-25 season, after compiling a 21-11 record.

A three-sport athlete in high school, Kennan pursued an athletic career in volleyball with George Mason. After four years with the team, Kennan graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports management and a minor in coaching in 2022.

The Redington Beach native finds himself back in the Sunshine State to continue his collegiate coaching career.
