FIRST SERVE

Setting the Stage

The Knights are set to open their 2026 campaign at The Venue, welcoming Robert Morris, Stony Brook and NC State for the three-day Black & Gold Classic. The lone home tournament for UCF this season, the Knights went 5-1 across a pair of tournaments last season and boast an overall record of 12-3 in home non-conference matches dating back to 2023. UCF is 31-19 in season openers all-time. At home, the Knights are 22-9 in season openers and boast an 11-1 record to commence the season since 2014.

Botsford: Season 2 Premier

Head coach Matt Botsford embarks on his second season leading the Knights after a transformational 2025 campaign, where the Knights rose from 204 in the final RPI of 2024 to 63 by seasons end, marking the second-most growth of a Power Four team and fourth-most of anyone in the nation. Botsford also became the first coach in program history to defeat two top-25 opponents in his first season in charge, defeating No. 17 BYU and No. 24 Iowa State at The Venue.

A Knight in Shining Armour

Avah Armour returns for her senior season after boasting one of the most historic campaigns in program history in 2025. She became the fourth AVCA All-American in program history, receiving an honorable mention nod, and the 12th player to be named to the AVCA Southeast Region First Team. In the Big 12, she was named to the First Team and garnered Scholar Athlete of the Year recognition. As she enters her fourth season, Armour was named to the Big 12 Preseason Team as one of eight unanimous athletes.

Dynamic Duo

Along with Armour, both her and Abby Schomers will be starting as one of the premier setter-hitter in the nation for the fourth-consecutive season. Each are closing in on milestones, as Schomers sits just 81 assists away from 3,000 in her career, along with being 246 assists away from passing Marie Reiterova for fourth all-time, while Armour is 40 kills away from 1,000. The tandem came on their recruiting visit together back on September 25, 2021.

NOTES

The Road Ahead

The Knights will embark on a 10-match non-conference schedule which includes four contests against Power Four opponents, marking the most since 2023. UCF will become well accustomed to the ACC, with tilts against NC State (Aug. 30), Wake Forest (Sept. 5) and Virginia (Sept. 12). UCF has played at least one ACC opponent in every season dating back to 2021, tallying a 5-2 record in that span. Along with the east-coast units, the Black and Gold will venture to No. 9 Purdue for the first of six ranked matchups of the season, last having played the Boilermakers in 2023. The lone Sunshine State opponent will be Stetson, as both programs will meet for the 74th time. This season marks the fewest number of in-state opponents in program history.

Familiar Faces

Unlike a season ago, the Knights welcome back the majority of their production from 2025, returning their starting setter (Schomers), outside (Armour), libero (Haley), and top middles (Chapman and Cohen). Three of the four players in the back-row room return (Haley, Mendoza, Moore), a pair of outsides (Stewart and Hart) and Mikayla Porter, who will continue growing alongside Schomers at setter. Overall, the Knights return 68% of kills (959 of 1,406), 96% of assists (1,228 of 1,275), 60% of aces (110 of 183), 76% of digs (1,062 of 1,404), 67% of blocks (165.5 of 245.5) and 67% of points (1,234.5 of 1,834.5). UCF's leader in kills (Armour, 457), assists (Schomers, 893), digs (Haley, 319) and points (Armour, 513).

2025 Season Recap

In the first year of the Botsford era at UCF, the Knights made historic growth en route to a 17-12 record and 8-10 clip in Big 12 play. After the Knights finished 2024 ranked 204th in RPI, Botsford led the Black and Gold to a resurgence, jumping all the way to 63rd at the conclusion of 2025. That growth ranked second in the Power Four and fourth overall among Division I teams. The Knights defeated two top-25 teams in a single season for just the second time in program history, as Botsford became the first head coach to achieve the feat in his first year in charge. Their win over No. 24 Iowa State was the second time the Knights have swept a ranked opponent in program history. The Knights improved their win total from nine in 2024 to 17, along with a six-win increase in Big 12 play. Along with team recognitions, Avah Armour, Reagan Thompson and Alexa Haley each took home UCF's first Big 12 Player of the Week honors, winning four combined weeks to be one of six teams in the conference to win four or more. After the season, Avah Armour became the first Knight to be named both Big 12 Scholar Athlete of the Year and to the All-Big 12 First Team, while Alexa Haley became the first Knight to be named to the All-Big 12 Rookie Team.

Knight in Shining Armour (Continued)

After continued progression through her freshmen and sophomore seasons, Armour became one of the most prolific players in the nation throughout 2025. Last season, the Colorado native paced the Knights with a career-high 457 kills and 513 points, along with career marks in digs (208) and blocks (46). She became the 12th player in program history to eclipse the 500-point mark in a single season. Armour rose to the occasion in Big 12 play, ranking fourth in the conference with 3.75 points per set, while her 4.35 kills per set ranked seventh in the Big 12 and 32nd nationally. Playing in all 29 matches, Armour recorded 10 or more kills in 26 contests, including a stretch of 14 from Sept. 19 to Nov. 8. In front of her friends and family at Colorado, she produced a career performance, totaling 30 kills and 34.5 points as the Knights fell just short in a five-set thriller. During Big 12 play, Armour recorded three straight matches with 25 kills or more against Houston (28), Texas Tech (27) and BYU (25).

TEAM IMPACT

Austin Clark | Winter Spring, Florida

This season, in association with Team Impact, the UCF volleyball program welcomes a special addition to the 2026 squad, Austin Clark. Austin will serve as a key member for the Black and Gold for seasons to come, as her story and perseverance have already made an impact on the entire program. Nearly a year ago, Austin, aged six at the time, was diagnosed with severe aplastic anemia, a serious bone marrow disorder that prevents the production of enough red and white blood cells, along with platelets. After multiple tests, experts at the Orlando Health Arnold Palmer Hospital for Children decided she would need a transplant. After finding a donor, she underwent the operation before having to go through radiation and chemotherapy.

Head Coach Matt Botsford on the Signing

We are so excited to officially welcome Austin to the program! She is one of the top talents in the nation, so keeping her here in Orlando with the hometown team is a big win for the Knights!

OPPONENT BREAKDOWN

ROBERT MORRIS COLONIALS

HEAD COACH

Danny Doherty Kent State
Career Record 34-83
at Robert Morris 34-83

NOTES

Following a 9-20 record that included a four-game losing streak to finish the 2025-26 season, the Colonials are looking to put that season in the past and start fresh. One highlight from the past season was their 16 digs per set average, which ranked first in the Horizon and 16th in the nation. Most of those came from Libero Jasmine Purakal, who led the team and conference with 5.24 digs per set. Purakal is not returning to the team this upcoming season, so Robert Morris will have to rely on this season's liberos, include Iowa Western Community College transfer Cat Smith. The Australian native recorded 239 digs and 17 service aces, averaging 2.37 digs per set.

New Knights

Head coach Matt Botsford and staff brought in seven new Knights to the program, headlined by three transfers and four freshmen. Last spring, the Black and Gold signed UCLA transfer Kiki Horne and Eastern Florida State transfer Emma Cook, as the pair joined the squad in January. Botsford also signed reigning AVCA Two-Year College Player of the Year Chloe Albiez ahead of the summer, as the junior amassed 892 kills across two seasons at Feather River College. SPACEU FACTS AND STATS

With the university's origins directly tied to supporting the U.S. space program in the 1960s, it's easy to understand why the Space Game means so much to the university, its athletics program and its fans. For more than 60 years, UCF has partnered with NASA to advance space exploration and technology, and it even partners with the U.S. Space Force. UCF is ranked among the top 10 most innovative public universities in the nation, according to U.S. News & World Report. The bold spirit that founded UCF continues to drive its commitment to space today. Space is no longer a distant horizon, it's the future, and UCF is helping define it. UCF Volleyball played its first Space match in 2022, boasting an all-time record of 9-3.
