KNIGHTS CURRENLTY RECEIVING VOTES FOR TOP 25

✦ UCF enters Thursday's match just outside the top 25 and currently receiving votes in the IWSOC/United Soccer Coaches Week 4 Top 25 Poll. The Black and Gold spent the last two weeks nationally ranked, as they were ranked 14th on Aug. 25 and 13th on Sept. 1.

✦ The Knights hold a 1-1-0 record on the season when nationally ranked with a 3-1 victory over UAB and a 7-0 setback to Brown.

YOUR BIG 12 LEADER

The Parker, Colorado, native registered all three goals in the Knights' 3-1 win, notching her first career hat trick and UCF's first since Sept. 30, 2018. Clark set the early tone by scoring in the game's 27th second, before breaking a 1-1 tie in the 71st minute with a strike to give UCF the lead. She then added some insurance with a goal in the 79th minute off a corner kick to cap off the Knight victory.
✦ The senior's six goals through UCF's five games are good enough to lead the Big 12 Conference in both goals (6) and goals per game (1.20). When factoring in her two assists on the year, she also leads the league in both points (14) and points per game (2.80) She also ranks in the top five nationally in both goals per game and points per game, as she's currently fourth in both categories. She is also 13th in total goals and 16th in both points and shots on goal per game (2.20).

KNIGHT KICKS

ABOUT UCF

✦ In what is scheduled as the team's final non-conference game of the season, the Knights will enter Thursday with a 4-1-0 record. UCF is just outside the top 25 this week, as it is receiving votes for this week's IWSOC/United Soccer Coaches Top 25 Poll.
✦ The Black and Gold won their first four matches to open a perfect 4-0 before having last Thursday's contest at FIU postponed due to heavy rain and unplayable field conditions in Miami. The Knights then dropped their first match of 2026 on the road to Brown University of the Ivy League by a score of 7-0 last Sunday.
✦ In the program's first trip to the state of Rhode Island, the Bears jumped out to an early lead and didn't look back by scoring just 90 seconds in. The Knights looked to answer as Naomi Clark had a couple of shots over the next 20 minutes, but Brown went on to add three more goals over the first half to take a 4-0 lead into the break.
✦ The Bears then put the game away with a trio of more goals in the second half to go on to win by a final tally of 7-0.
✦ The 4-0-0 start prior to Sunday's result was UCF's best start to a season since last year when the Black and Gold opened with the program's best start at the Division I level with a 5-0-0 record.
✦ With the program's first hat trick on Aug. 27 since 2018, senior Naomi Clark has now scored six goals five matches matches to lead the squad and the Big 12 Conference. COACH TIFFANY ROBERTS SAHAYDAK

Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak

Head Coach - 14th Season

An Olympic gold medalist, World Cup champion and two-time NCAA champion, Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak was named head women's soccer coach at UCF in May 2013.

A four-time American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Roberts Sahaydak has wasted no time in putting her stamp on UCF's successful program. Under her guidance, the Knights have earned five NCAA Tournament bids and four American Athletic Conference championships while boasting 18 Conference Player of the Year awards and 67 all-league and tournament selections.

An integral member of the 1999 United States World Cup winning squad, Roberts Sahaydak returned to the fold as an assistant coach under Vlatko Andonovski in 2022. At the 2023 FIFA World Cup in Australia and New Zealand, Roberts Sahaydak became the first champion as a player to transition into a coaching role with the team, propelling the USWNT to knockout round qualification for the ninth consecutive edition. She is again a current assistant coach for the USWNT ahead of the 2027 Women's World Cup in Brazil.

After losing more than half of her squad following the 2024 season, Roberts Sahaydak and the Knights shattered expectations in 2025, claiming the six seed in the Big 12 Conference tournament and advancing to the NCAA Tournament Second Round for the first time since 2022. The 13th-year head coach led her squad to a 12-4-5 (5-1-5 Big 12) record, finishing with a top-40 RPI ranking for the third time in four years. UCF claimed victories over multiple ranked foes for the first time since 2019, defeating No. 17 Arizona State 3-2 and No. 16/10 Baylor 2-1, and posted only one conference loss before embarking on a nine-game unbeaten streak in Big 12 play.

Under Robers Sahaydak's tutelage, forward Liz Worden's individual efforts saw her become the first Knight to record five goals and at least 10 assists for the first time since Tatiana Coleman in 2014. Five Knights took home individual awards during the season, highlighted by Worden's All-Big 12 First Team selection. On the national level, Worden heard her name called for the United Soccer Coaches All-Midwest Region Second Team, as did Honoka Hamano for the third team, and Rajanah Reed for the fourth team. After the conclusion of the season, Worden, Reed and Perez Watson became Roberts Sahaydak's 50th, 51st and 52nd players to sign professional contracts under her guidance, with Worden joining Racing Power FC in Portugal, Reed joining Angel City FC in the NWSL, and Perez Watson signing with Atlético Madrid of Spanish Liga F.

The Knights' sophomore season in the Big 12 saw Roberts Sahaydak lead the squad to defeat No. 24 Georgia, 2-0, to claim UCF's first ranked win at home since Sep. 5, 2021, and its first clean sheet at home against a ranked opponent since Oct. 31, 2019. With her Big 12-leading 11 goals, forward Chloe Netzel earned UCF's first-ever All-Big 12 First Team selection. UCF finished the season with a 3-6-6 (1-5-4 Big 12) clip.

Ushering in a new era in the Big 12, the Knights' inaugural campaign as a member of one of the nation's premier conferences was historic, resulting in a trip to the Big 12 Championships semifinals. Under the guidance of Roberts Sahaydak, UCF secured a 10-7-1 (5-4-1 Big 12) record and the second-most wins of any conference newcomer. In Austin, Texas, the Knights defeated the 2022 conference runner-ups, TCU, 3-2 to garner UCF Athletics its first postseason win in the Big 12. In the program's inaugural conference home match at the UCF Soccer Complex, the Knights defeated reigning champions, West Virginia, 4-2. Following the squad's sixth-place finish in conference play, Dayana Martin earned second-team honors on the Big 12 All-Conference team. Martin would also be named to the United Soccer Coaches All-Midwest Region Third Team. For the second consecutive season, Roberts Sahaydak and her staff produced an NWSL draft pick as Talia Garbarra was selected by the Orlando Pride with the 14th pick in the fourth round.

In their final season in the AAC, the Knights boasted a 9-2-7 (7-0-1 AAC) record, going undefeated in conference play and picking up nine clean sheets along the way to becoming AAC Regular Season Champions. With the first victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 100th win at UCF as a head coach. The Black and Gold collected a bid to the NCAA Tournament and advanced past NC State in the first round to face eventual national champion UCLA, where they fell in penalty kicks. Kristen Scott picked up Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Caroline DeLisle earned her second-straight Goalkeeper of the Year award. Scott would later be drafted by the Orlando Pride with the 41st overall pick in the 2023 NWSL draft.

In 2021, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to an 8-7-1 (3-4-1 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a six seed. With the Knights sixth victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 150th career win as a collegiate head coach. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Caroline DeLisle earned conference Goalkeeper of the Year and Darya Rajaee also earning Midfielder of the Year.

In an unconventional 2020-21 campaign due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Roberts Sahaydak led the Black & Gold to picking up five all-league selections as the Knights finished the spring season with a 2-4-1 mark. Four Knights picked up honors, with 2024 Olympic Bronze medalist Sarai Linder (Germany) representing the Knights on the First Team All-Conference and All-Rookie Teams.

In 2019, Roberts Sahaydak led the Knights to a 11-4-4 (5-2-2 American Athletic Conference) and earned a No. 3 seed to the American Championship. The Knights posted a six-game unbeaten streak and climed to as high No. 21 in the United Soccer Coaches Polls. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Konya Plummer was named First Team All-Region by the United Soccer Coaches Association, as well as the AAC Defensive Player of the Year. In total, six student-athletes were recognized by the Conference coaches.

The Knights finished the 2018 campaign at 10-7-1 (6-3 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a the third seed. Under Roberts Sahaydak, three Knights earned All-Southeast Region honors - Stefanie Sanders earned second team all-region, while Vera Varis and Carrie Lawrence collected third team all-region recognition. Vera Veris was named conference Goalkeeper of the Year.

In 2017, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to a 13-2-3 record, the most wins since the 2014 campaign. UCF climbed as climbed as high as No. 6 and finished the regular season ranked eighth. The Knights posted a 16-match unbeaten streak, the longest since the 2013 campaign, captured the American Athletic Conference regular season championship and made their 21st NCAA Tournament appearance.

Under Roberts Sahaydak's tutelage, five members of the team received All-Southeast Region recognition and goalkeeper Vera Varis was named to the United Soccer Coaches Association All-American Third Team. In addition, five of her starters were recognized as American AAC Players of the Year, including Morgan Ferrara (Offensive), Kathellen Sousa (Co-Defensive), Vera Varis (Goalkeeper), Kayla Adamek (Midfielder), and Dina Orschmann (Rookie). A total of seven Knights were placed on the All-American Athletic Conference Teams, and three were recognized on the all-tournament team.

In 2016, four student-athletes were named to the All-American Athletic Conference Teams. Saga Fredriksson was named to the All-Northeast Region Team and recognized as the American Athletic Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Off the field, the Knights earned recognition for their academic success as they received the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Team Academic Award.

Roberts Sahaydak tackled the 2015 season with team that featured more newcomers (14) than returners (12) and lost three key members due to injury for the year before the season-opening weekend was in the books. Eight of their starters, including their American Athletic Conference Offensive Player, Defensive Player and Goalkeeper of the Year, had moved on from the year before. But the Knights earned a berth to their ninth-straight NCAA Tournament (20th overall) and nabbed a hosting gig for the first round for the fifth straight season. In addition, Carol Rodrigues was named the American's Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2014, she guided the Knights to their second NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in four years and the American regular season title. Under her direction, three Knights were recognized as conference Players of the Year: Tatiana Coleman (Co-Offensive); Carleigh Wiliams (Defensive); and Connie Organ (Goalkeeper). UCF posted its first undefeated home slate (11-0) since 1999, matched the school record for wins in a season (18) and was nationally ranked through much of the year.

In her first season (2013), she led UCF to a school-record unbeaten streak (18 matches), an NSCAA national standing through much of the year, and the program's first undefeated conference season since 1999. In addition, UCF made history as the first program to win an American Athletic Conference Championship. Roberts Sahaydak came to Orlando after serving six seasons at VCU alongside her co-head coach, husband, and current UCF associate head coach Tim Sahaydak.

Roberts Sahaydak spent a decade with the U.S. National Team from 1994-2004, earning 110 caps (with 60 starts). Her career was highlighted by three women's World Cups - among them, the unforgettable 1999 championship - and a gold medal with the 1996 Olympic team.

After retiring from the USWNT, she has served as an ambassador for U.S. Soccer with the U.S. Department of State Sports Envoy Program since 2007, promoting the power and benefit of sport internationally. With the program, she has visited Indonesia, Uganda, the Philippines, Thailand, Namibia, Brazil and France. In 2014, she was appointed to President Barack Obama's Presidential Delegation to the Federative Republic of Brazil at the opening of the FIFA World Cup in Brazil.

She is a native of San Ramon, Calif., and was selected as the 1994 California High School Player of the Year. She was a three-time Parade High School All-American, a three-time NSCAA All-American and was the two-time National Girl's High School Player of the Year. She debuted for the Stars and Stripes in 1994 when she was only 16 as one of the youngest players ever to suit up for the National Team. She played in her first FIFA Women's World Cup a month after her 18th birthday and won Olympic gold before she was out of her teens (USSoccer.com).

As a collegian, Roberts Sahaydak was a standout midfielder for North Carolina (1995-98) as a three-time All-ACC First Team selection. She led the Tar Heels to two NCAA titles (1996, 1997) during her tenure, was voted the 1998 ACC Tournament MVP and finished third in voting for collegiate soccer's highest honor, the Hermann Trophy. She still ranks among the top five for career starts in UNC's record book.

She was a two-time captain for the Carolina Courage in the first fully professional U.S. women's league (Women's United Soccer Association). She helped the Courage win the 2002 title after finishing last in the team's inaugural campaign one year prior.

Roberts Sahaydak took over VCU's program in 2007 and led the Rams to three conference championship game appearances. She was voted as the 2011 Colonial Athletic Association Co-Head Coach of the Year, along with her husband Tim. The duo mentored two CAA Defenders of the Year, one CAA Rookie of the Year and 20 all-conference players, including six first-team honorees. The Sahaydaks reside in Orlando with their two daughters, Layla and Evie.
