WHY WE BOUNCE

CELEBRATING 20 SEASONS OF THE BOUNCE HOUSE

20 seasons ago, we took a daring step. We built our house. They called it risky, we called it a launch pad.

That step launched us from hopeful to hungry. From contenders, to champions. From dreaming about the big time, to living in it.

The bounce house didn't just change Saturdays, it changed the trajectory of a community.

But this place its more than wins, more than rankings, more than trophies. This place is where Orlando comes together. And where the world discovers UCF.

And now, 20 years later, we build again. The New Roth Tower will add a level of excitement to gameday. It stands as a symbol of where we are today. Stronger, larger and unmistakable. A new frontier that not just expands a stadium, but expands expectation.

All season long, Knight Nation will relive the moments, feel the energy and create new memories in the Bounce House.

Because this isn't just a celebration. It's the next chapter.

Visit ucfknights.com/why-we-bounce for more on UCF's celebration of the 20th season playing football in Acrisure Bounce House, the Knights' on-campus stadium.

NEW ROTH TOWER

Located on the northeast corner of campus, the Bounce House received a major upgrade ahead of the 2026 season as an expanded Roth Tower was completed. The refreshed space saw a 256% increase in square footage of usable club space for gameday and non-gameday events, jumping from 4,400 square feet to 15,650. The renovation included loge seating, 42% more club seats and 28 luxury suites that are 38% larger than the previous ones. New experiences were installed throughout the tower, including 34 outdoor sky suites. Roth Tower includes four levels and provides substantially more shade across the stadium bowl than before. The addition of Roth Tower added 1,700 seats, raising the seating capacity to 45,906.

Roth Tower was the first project from Orange County's 2023 Tourist Development Tax (TDT) funding cycle to receive funding, break ground and open. The facility was made possible through the support of Orange County and the region's tourism and hospitality community, whose investment is helping strengthen sports, entertainment and economic development opportunities in the area.

We know this place is special. Sometimes it's good to take a moment to stop and reflect on where we've been and how we got here. Founded in 1963, and fielding the first football team in 1979, UCF is the school in a Power 4 conference. But just because our tenure is short, doesn't mean we haven't had our share of big moments along the way.

As we advance up the ranks of college athletics, we know that this is just the beginning.

We haven't been around for as long as the others, but we've already made the college football world pay attention. A National Championship, New Year's Six Bowl victories, conference domination and an on-campus stadium guided the way to our invite from the Big 12 Conference.

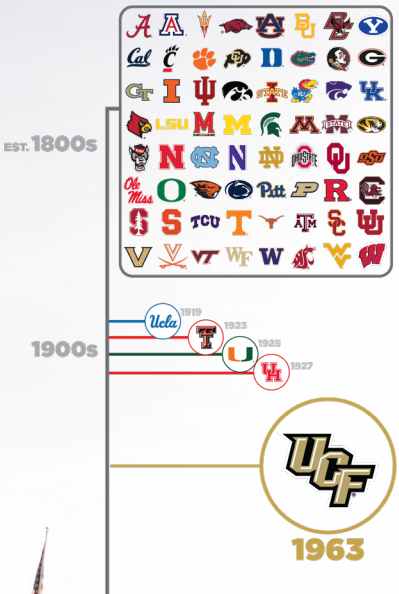

We've stayed true to who we are, believing in each other when others wouldn't. Our rise was never supposed to happen, especially at the pace of a space-bound rocket. We're a program that built success without legacy advantages. With a chip on our shoulder, we earned our way into the spotlight.

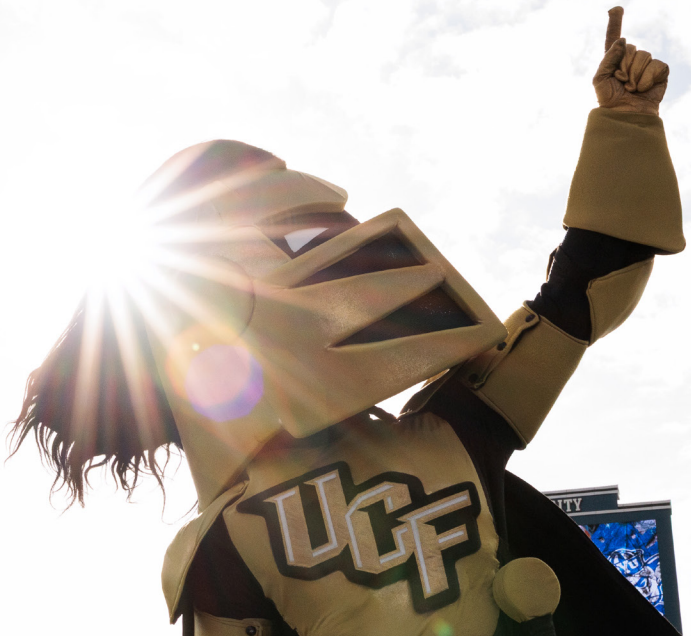

Our brief history is rich with moments that attribute to our meteoric rise. Now, as part of a conference, the next chapter of UCF football won't be about proving we belong, it'll be about showing how far we can go while driving high-performance culture and organizational excellence. At UCF, we weren't given a seat at the table, so we earned one. We don't chase the past, we build what comes next. We challenged the status quo and embraced the spotlight, elevating the UCF brand every step of the way.

UCF is built to Charge On.

VICTORY #300

UCF, by far the youngest program in any of the Power 4 conferences, earned its 300th win on Aug. 28, 2025. The Knights became the second-fastest power school in Florida to reach the milestone, needing just 542 games to reach victory number 300. That mark was faster than Miami and Florida. Additionally, UCF reached the mark quicker than eight current Big 12 programs.

Head Coach Scott Frost, in his first game of his second stint with UCF, encourages captains (left to right) Paul Rubelt, Malachi Lawrence and Keli Lawson prior to kickoff of what went on to be win #300 in program history.

BIG 12 DEBUT

A landmark moment for anyone ever associated with UCF, the Knights officially joined the Big 12 Conference July 1, 2023. The Black and Gold capitalized on a decade of success in football and other sports into a power conference invite. At the time of accepting the invitation on Sept. 10, 2021, UCF football had won 42 of its last 50 games, collected four conference titles, made three appearances in New Year's Six Bowls and posted a perfect season resulting in a national championship in 2017.

Big 12 Conference Commissioner Brett Yormark visited UCF in 2022 ahead of UCF's official start as league members. On his tour of UCF's facilities, the commissioner stopped to take in the view from the end zone cabanas in Acrisure Bounce House.

College football legend Lee Corso (pictured right) donned the full "Knightro" suit for his famous headgear pick segment when College Gameday came to Orlando Nov. 17, 2018. Corso of course, picked correctly as UCF won 38-13 over Cincinnati.

The 2018 UCF team celebrates with a group photo after winning its second-consecutive American Athletic Conference championship, a victory that ended up being the final one of the 25-0 run.

UCF put together a winning streak of 25 straight victories over the course of two seasons, going a perfect 13-0 in 2017 and sitting at 12-0 heading into the 2018 Fiesta Bowl. The run was just the fourth of 25 consecutive wins or more since the turn of the century and was the 25th longest winning streak in FBS history at the time. ESPN's College Gameday stopped by during the 2018 season to witness UCF's rise firsthand. Each of the 25 contests saw UCF score 30 points or more, which was the longest streak in the AP Poll era, an 81-year span. The remarkable run also landed UCF back-to-back 12-win seasons, marking the third time in a seven-year period doing so. The 25 straight victories propelled UCF onto the national stage, making way for a power conference invite.

2017
13-0, NATIONAL CHAMPS

"National Champs! Undefeated!" The phrase was boldly proclaimed by then-Athletics Director Danny White on the field after UCF's 2018 Peach Bowl victory over No. 7 Auburn, capping the Knights' first perfect season at 13-0. The Black and Gold were the lone team to finish the 2017 campaign unblemished and topped an Auburn team that beat both Alabama and Georgia, the two teams competing for the national championship that season. The 2017 UCF team was the first to put pressure on the College Football Playoff committee in its four-team era after being left out with a perfect résumé. UCF's national title claim was supported by the Colley Matrix who had the Knights ranked No. 1 at season's end. The NCAA recognized the claim and has UCF listed alongside Alabama in the record book as national champions. The Knights finished the year ranked No. 6 in the AP poll with four first-place votes.

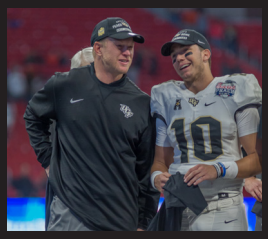

The extraordinary 2017 run goes deeper than just being a perfect season. It marked the quickest turnaround in college football, going 13-0 just two seasons after finishing 0-12 in 2015. Head Coach Scott Frost was at the helm of the turnaround, taking a winless team to 6-7 in year one, making way for the perfect 2017 season. The year marked the first time UCF hosted a Space Game, a tradition that still stands. Hurricane Irma threatened the area, causing UCF to cancel a game against Georgia Tech and shift around the schedule. But in the end, UCF won each game put in front of them. Among the most memorable were the wild ending to the War On I-4 against No. 22 South Florida and the thrilling overtime victory over No. 16 Memphis in The American title game, both in Orlando.

Mike Hughes broke a 42-42 tie with under two minutes to play in UCF's War On I-4 against #22 South Florida, taking a kickoff to the house to lift the Knights to victory, sealing a title game berth.

McKenzie Milton scampers to the one-yard line before UCF took a 62-55 lead in double-OT against Memphis in the AAC title game.

BACK-TO-BACK AAC CHAMPS

UCF earned two trophies in as many years as it had been members of the American Athletic Conference, earning a second consecutive trophy in improbable fashion. Trailing 30-26 after surrendering a 26-9 lead, UCF's sophomore quarterback Justin Holman tossed one final heave to the end zone as time expired, finding junior wide receiver Breshad Perriman at the one-yard line before stepping into the end zone untouched for the win. Known as the "Hail Perriman," the play secured UCF's second straight conference title, as The American didn't host a title game in 2013 or 2014.

The Knights started the season in Ireland against Penn State, dropping a close 26-24 contest. After losing at No. 20 Missouri to start 0-2, the Knights finally opened the home slate on Sept. 20 and ripped off five-straight wins to get on track, including a 31-24 overtime win over future Big 12 conference-mate BYU. The Black and Gold won their final four games of conference play to finish 7-1 in the league for a three-way split of the title with Cincinnati and Memphis.

FIRST FIESTA

In a brand-new conference, UCF thrust itself onto the national stage in 2013, posting a 12-1 record and earning the program's first New Year's Six victory in the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The Knights beat a Bryce Petty-led No. 6 Baylor squad as Blake Bortles and UCF never trailed in the 52-42 win. The season was filled with moments that caught the eyes of many in the college football world. The Knights went into Happy Valley and topped Penn State 34-31. UCF tallied another road upset a month later, taking down Teddy Bridgewater and No. 8/6 Louisville via a Bortles passing touchdown with 23 seconds left for a 38-35 victory. UCF capped a perfect 7-0 conference slate with wins against Rutgers, South Florida and SMU in the final three contests, finishing off an 11-1 regular season. Bortles went on to be selected third overall in the 2014 NFL Draft, the highest pick in program history and at the time, just the second Knight to be a first-round selection.

The Fiesta Bowl was the first of two that UCF had played in before the CFP expanded. It was arguably one of the more pivotal games in program history, one that showed the Knights belonged with teams in power conferences. By the time the Black and Gold reached their second Fiesta Bowl at the end of the 2018 season, UCF was more than proving they could compete with the best of the best.

BOUNCING ON CAMPUS

UCF President John C. Hitt and several prominent UCF supporters saw the vision of what an on-campus stadium could be. They believed the football program and a stadium could help elevate the university and its brand. They were right. The on-campus venue hosted No. 6 Texas for its first game on Sept. 15, 2007. Trailing 3-0, UCF's offense marched down the field, setting up star running back Kevin Smith to score from two yards out to give the Knights the lead. No one was prepared for what happened next. The stadium literally began to bounce as fans jumped up and down to celebrate the first touchdown scored in the new on-campus facility. The first tradition was created, and the Bounce House was born.

Since its opening, the Bounce House has allowed UCF to showcase one of the country's fastest-growing universities. It was one of the most important moments in program history, as it has become a symbol of what UCF was, is and will always be. UCF is a place where you do what others say can't be done, a place where doers can achieve greatness and a place that always welcomes family home.

FIRST BOWL GAME

The Knights reached their first bowl game in UCF's 10th season at the FBS level. The bowl debut ended in heartbreak, suffering a 49-48 defeat to Nevada in overtime at the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl. One of UCF's most accomplished Knights in the NFL, Matt Prater, missed the game-tying point wide right to secure the Wolfpack's victory. Prater wasn't the only future NFL player wearing Black and Gold that day as Brandon Marshall caught a 16-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 42 with 55 seconds remaining in regulation. Offensive lineman Josh Sitton was also on the 2005 squad before getting drafted to the NFL in 2008. UCF Hall of Famer Kevin Smith had 202 rushing yards and three touchdowns; he eventually became the Knights' first consensus All-American thanks to a stellar 2007 campaign.

The defeat put an end to what was a momentum-building season for the Knights. Earlier in the campaign, UCF snapped a 17-game losing streak with a victory against Marshall, en route to an 8-5 record to end 2005 after an 0-11 2004 slate.

Kevin Smith, Conference USA's Freshman of the Year, scored on a 78-yard run, the second longest run from scrimmage in UCF history at the time. It also marked the longest run in Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl history.

Brandon Marshall was named UCF's MVP of the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl after posting 11 receptions for 210 yards and three touchdowns vs. Nevada.

Senior kicker Matt Prater made all three field goal attempts in the contest to move into sole possession of second place in UCF history with 50 career field goals at the time; heading into 2026, Prater is tied for the third most made field goals for the Knights.

FIRST FBS CONFERENCE

UCF's first conference didn't make much sense geographically, but it made all the sense in the world for jumpstarting the football program at the FBS level. The Knights joined the Mid-American Conference (MAC) at the start of the 2002 season after Conference USA had tabled plans for immediate expansion. The move was for football only, as UCF's other athletic teams remained in the Atlantic Sun Conference.

An independent since rising to the FBS level in 1996, the Knights finally had a bowl tie in and semblance of a consistent schedule with conference opponents. UCF spent time pitching the SEC, ACC, Big East, Conference USA and MAC for a potential invite. The MAC came calling when Marshall decided to return to the MAC, expanding the league to two divisions of seven teams.

UCF had to reorganize its schedule with its new conference. Money games at Penn State, at Arizona State and home games against Syracuse and then-FCS program Liberty remained on the schedule while other games against LSU, Tulane and Florida Atlantic were either rescheduled or canceled.

The Knights went 7-5 in 2002, including a 6-2 record in the MAC, finishing second in the East division.

FBS DEBUT

After posting winning seasons in each of its six campaigns at the FCS level, UCF made the move to FBS on Sept. 1, 1996. It made the Knights the first college football team to play in all four divisions, rising to FBS just 19 years after the program's first football season.

The move was a few years in the making as UCF President John C. Hitt announced in 1992 that he intended for the football program to reach the FBS ranks by 1996. That's exactly what happened, as four years later the Knights arrived as independents to the top tier of college football.

Then-head coach Gene McDowell led UCF through three different levels of football competition, starting with Division II in 1985. He led the Knights to three playoff appearances in 1987, 1990 and 1993, earning the nickname "Father of UCF Football" based on growing the program on and off the field. He is credited with pulling UCF from the brink of extinction due to financial woes and served a dual role as football coach and athletics director in late 1980s. McDowell helped obtain the first $1 million donation for football from Wayne Densch. After posting an 86-61 record, McDowell resigned following the 1997 season after back-to-back 5-6 campaigns to begin UCF's FBS era.

Despite suffering a losing season in the Knights' FBS debut, one of the greatest to wear a UCF uniform began to turn heads. Just a sophomore, Daunte Culpepper finished 16th in the nation in passing offense, eventually becoming UCF's first first-round selection at the NFL Draft in 1999. He went on to become a UCF Hall of Famer and threw for over 24,000 yards in the NFL.

Daunte Culpepper laid the foundation for UCF as it transitioned from the FCS level into an FBS program, quarterbacking the program to new heights.

UCF finished the regular season with an 8-3 record, including a five-game winning streak in which the Knights outscored their opponents 242-67. UCF's resume was good enough for its first bid to the Division II playoffs. At the time, the Black and Gold were in their ninth season of football as a program and the fifth at the Division II level. The Knights hosted and defeated Indiana University of Pennsylvania 12-10 in the first round but fell to eventual national champion Troy in the semifinals. In front of 15,043 fans in Orlando, UCF's defense limited IUP to eight completions and 169 yards of total offense to secure the program's first postseason victory. Following the season, wideout Bernard Ford and kicker Ed O'Brien earn All-America First Team honors from several outlets.

PLAYOFF BOUND IN FIRST DECADE

Gene McDowell, tabbed as "The Father of UCF Football" was instrumental in getting the UCF football program started and saved it from extinction early on.

The Knights became the first school in history to qualify for the FCS playoffs in their first season of eligibility. UCF posted an 8-3 record in the regular season, earning a No. 18 ranking heading into the playoffs via the NCAA Division I-AA football rankings. The Knights visited No. 2 Youngstown State in the first round, handing the Penguins their lone loss of the season before hosting and thumping William & Mary 52-38 in the quarterfinals. UCF's impressive FCS debut campaign came to an end in the semifinals at the hands of eventual national champion Georgia Southern.

After winning six games to finish above .500 in each of the next two seasons, UCF returned to the FCS playoffs in 1993 after another 8-3 regular season. The Knights couldn't prevail over the eventual national champions of Youngstown State, falling 56-30 in the first round. The Knights won 13 games over their final two seasons at the FCS level, going 44-25 throughout its six-season slate.

During the tenure, UCF hosted its first FBS squad, facing East Carolina at the Citrus Bowl. Six Knights were selected in the NFL Draft during the FCS era. Linebacker Bob Spitulski earned the honor of being the highest draft pick for the Knights over that period, selected in the third round of the 1992 draft with the 66th overall pick to the Seattle Seahawks.

INSTANT FCS SUCCESS

UCF Hall of Famer Mark Giacone rushed for 301 yards and two touchdowns over UCF's first two FCS Playoff games against Youngstown State and William & Mary (pictured above), helping punch the Knights' ticket to the semifinals.

The first UCF touchdown in the program's first game, a 21-0 win on the road against St. Leo in a muddy cow pasture.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME

During his inaugural address, UCF President Trevor Colbourn announces that the school will "explore the possibility of developing a football program." Later, Colbourn and director of athletics Jack O'Leary approve a decision to form a football team to begin play in the fall of 1979 as an NCAA Division III program. Former professional football player Don Jonas becomes the school's first coach on a volunteer basis. On Aug. 28, 148 prospective players participate in the program's first practice. Less than one month later on Sept. 22, UCF traveled to St. Leo for its first game and wins 21-0. Bobby Joe Plain scores the school's first touchdown on a 13-yard pass reception from Mike Cullison in the first quarter. The following week, UCF plays its first home contest at the Tangerine Bowl and posts a 7-6 victory over Fort Benning in front of 14,188 fans.

1968
FIRST CLASSES HELD

UCF, then known as Florida Technological University, opened for classes on October 7, 1968. During a morning convocation and dedication ceremony, President Charles Millican welcomed 1,948 students who became responsible for upholding the university's motto of "Reach for the Stars." These students pursued studies to fulfill the region's high demand for scientists, engineers, business professionals and teachers. The campus consisted of just seven buildings to start: a library, a science building, an auditorium, a village center, a utility plant and two residence halls. Five founding colleges made up the curriculum: Business Administration, Education, Humanities & Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, and Engineering & Technology.

1982
ON THE RISE: D-III TO D-II

New AD Bill Peterson announced that UCF will compete as a Division II program during the year. With the move to D-II, the school begins awarding athletics scholarships. Following the season, New York Yankees president and former Buffalo Bills head coach Lou Saban is named UCF's head coach. A year later, UCF records its first win against an FCS opponent, beating Austin Peay 10-7 on Oct. 29, 1983.

RENAMED AS UCF

On Dec. 6, 1978, FTU changed its identity to the University of Central Florida after Governor Reubin Askew signed legislation to approve the new name. President Trevor Colbourn felt the name better recognized the diversification and growth of UCF's academic programs that were added on following its strictly technological and scientific beginnings.

Early photos from before classes began at Florida Technological University, now University of Central Florida.

Following President John F. Kennedy's "We choose to go to the Moon" speech in September 1962. With his speech setting the goal of accomplishing a crewed space flight to the Moon by the end of the decade, the space program grew in importance in Central Florida due to its proximity to Cape Canaveral. Florida legislature recognized the need to increase access to higher education surrounding the Space Coast. With the help of former state senate president William A. Shands and Senator Beth Johnson, on June 10, 1963, the legislature passed and Governor Farris Bryant signed into law Senate Bill No. 125, which authorized the Florida Board of Regents to create a new state university in East Central Florida.

A 1,225-acre tract of remote forest and pasture along Alafaya Trail in northeast Orange County was chosen for the school that locals dubbed "Space University." Most of the land was acquired from Frank Adamucci, a New Jersey building contractor who donates 500 acres and sells another 500 acres for $500,000. Local residents donated another 227 acres (92 hectares), and raised more than $1 million in funds to secure the land acquisition.

Credentials

All credential requests can be made online at www.ucfknights.com/fbcred26

UCF enforces a credential approval policy designed to best allocate working media credentials in order to maximize coverage in a safe, professional working environment. Unfortunately, it is not possible to accommodate all requests. All credentials are issued at the discretion of the designated sports information director and reserves the right to deny or revoke media credentials at all times.

If approved, credentials can be picked up on gameday at media will call, which is now at Gate 2, a new location ahead of the 2026 season.

Credentials will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis.

Closed Practices

Practices are not open to the media during the season.

Weekly Press Conference

The UCF football team will hold a Monday press conference with head coach Scott Frost and select student-athletes each week at noon in the Steve and Brenda Sloan Media Room at Acrisure Bounce House. The press conference will be streamed on ESPN+.

Postgame Interviews

Coach Frost and selected student-athletes will meet the media following the game in the Steve and Brenda Sloan media room for home games and will use a designated location for road games. UCF's locker room is closed to the media.

Interview Policy

All interviews must be coordinated through the UCF Athletics strategic communications office. Please do not attempt to contact players, coaches or other team personnel directly by any means of communication, including personal phone numbers, email and social media accounts.

UCF Football on the Radio

Longtime UCF radio play-by-play veteran Marc Daniels is in his 32nd season in the role for 2026. He's also UCF's director of broadcasting. Analyst Gary Parris (a former Florida State player) is in his 31st season in that position. They are joined by Scott Adams (pregame host and sideline reporter in his 25th season) and Frank Louvre (engineer, in his 35th season).

Pregame coverage begins two hours before kickoff and features a preview of the game with interviews from UCF players and coaches--including coach Scott Frost and athletics director Terry Mohajir. All games and radio shows can be heard on 96.9FM/740AM--and UCF fans can access all broadcasts from anywhere with the iHeart app (search 96.9 The Game).

COACHING STAFF

Scott FROST

Head Coach / Second Season, Fourth Season Overall at UCF

After an unforgettable two-year run that saw the UCF football program rise to national prominence, Scott Frost is coming back home. Known for sparking the "Charge On" spirit and guiding UCF to its first perfect season, Frost was re-introduced as the program's next head coach by UCF Vice President and Director of Athletics Terry Mohajir on Dec. 8, 2024.

Frost originally served as UCF's head coach from 2016 to 2017, culminating in a historic 13-0 season, an AAC championship and a national championship that captured the nation's attention. In his final game, Frost guided UCF to a victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2018 Peach Bowl, securing the program's first undefeated season in school history.

Frost posted the greatest two-year turnaround in college football history at UCF, inheriting a 0-12 team in 2015 and taking the Knights to a perfect season in his second and final year, when he was named the national coach of the year.

"I'm deeply honored to return to UCF, a school that has always held a special place in my heart," Frost said. "The foundation we built here has only grown stronger, and I am thrilled to continue shaping this program's legacy. As we prepare for year three in the Big 12 Conference, I look forward to working alongside our dedicated student-athletes, talented staff, and passionate fans to reach new heights together."

Frost went a combined 19-7 in his first two seasons at UCF, helping turn an 0-12 team into a 13-0 squad in just two years. In Frost's first season, he took the Knights to a bowl game and finished with a 6-7 record. The turnaround was historic, as Frost became the only first-year coach in FBS history to make a bowl game with a team that was winless the previous season. UCF led the nation with a six-win improvement in 2016 and exceeded that mark in 2017 as the nation's only undefeated team. The Knights put together the first undefeated regular season in UCF and AAC history in 2017, posted the longest winning streak in school history at the time of his departure (13 games), achieved the highest in-season ranking in program history (10th), highest final ranking (6th) and set an AAC record with 16 all-conference selections.

UCF was led by its high-powered offense and improved defense under Frost. The Knights led the nation in scoring at 48.2 points per game and were the only FBS team to score at least 30 points in every game in 2017. Defensively, UCF improved its scoring defense by 65 spots in Frost's two seasons.

In addition to being the unanimous choice as the 2017 AAC Coach of the Year, Frost was honored as the national coach of the year by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Lombardi Award and FCA in addition to winning the Home Depot, Paul "Bear" Bryant and Eddie Robinson coach-of-the-year awards.

Called back to UCF by memories of what once was and hope for what could be again, Frost looked to bring that "Charge On" spirit back to the program in 2025, the first season of his second stint in Black and Gold. Welcoming 63 new players to a roster of 112, Frost piloted the Knights to an additional win from the previous campaign while getting re-situated at the helm. Frost guided the Knights to a 34-9 win over UNC and over his mentor from his playing days, Bill Belichick, in front of a sold out crowd at Acrisure Bounce House. Additionally, Frost and company were a perfect 5-0 against coaches in their first season with their new programs. The Knights constructed a pair of comeback efforts to bookend the home slate, earning a comeback victory for program win number 300 against Jacksonville State on opening night, before doing the same against Oklahoma State on Senior Knight. UCF's pass defense was a bright spot of the season, as the Knights allowed just 185.1 yards per game through the air, the third lowest clip in the team's FBS history. Following the campaign, defensive end Malachi Lawrence became UCF's fifth first round pick in the NFL Draft, selected by the Cowboys 23rd overall.

Frost began his coaching career at Northern Iowa in 2007 as a linebackers coach and was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 2008. That season, his defense excelled, tying for third in the FCS with 40 takeaways and ranking ninth in scoring defense, allowing just 17.7 points per game. The 12-3 Panthers also led the Missouri Valley Football Conference in both rushing defense (107.1 yards per game) and scoring defense.

In 2009, Frost joined the Oregon coaching staff as the wide receivers coach under head coach Chip Kelly and offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich. Frost helped Oregon post a 79-14 record in his seven seasons, during which time the Ducks won four conference titles and twice played for the national championship.

Oregon never ranked lower than eighth nationally in scoring offense during Frost's seven seasons on staff, and the Ducks led the nation in scoring in 2010. Frost was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2013, and Oregon ranked in the top five nationally in both scoring and total offense each of his three seasons calling plays. The Ducks scored 681 points in 2014, the second-highest total in NCAA history. Oregon made it to the College Football Playoff Championship Game that year, when Frost was one of five finalists for the Broyles Award, presented annually to the nation's top assistant. Frost's quarterback, Marcus Mariota, won the Heisman Trophy and was the No. 2 overall pick in the 2015 NFL Draft.

After Kelly left for the Philadelphia Eagles, Oregon promoted Mark Helfrich to head coach and named Frost offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2013. In this role, Frost guided Marcus Mariota to a Heisman Trophy win and a berth in the national championship game. During Frost's tenure as offensive coordinator, Oregon recorded a 33–8 record and consistently ranked among the nation's top teams in scoring and total offense. His standout performance in 2014 earned him a finalist spot for the prestigious Broyles Award, recognizing the nation's top assistant coach.

Following his two years at UCF, Scott Frost served as the head football coach at the University of Nebraska for four-plus seasons from 2018 to 2022, coaching the first three games of the 2022 season. Frost posted a 16-31 record with the Cornhuskers. His tenure was defined by close losses, as 23 of his 31 losses were by single digits, including each of his final 13. Nebraska lost 22 one-score games during Frost's career, including 12 games by five or fewer points.

Prior to returning to UCF in 2025, Frost had been serving as a coaching consultant for Sean McVay and the Los Angeles Rams in 2024.

Pete ALAMAR

Special Teams Coordinator / Second Season

Pete Alamar, who has more than 40 years of experience as an assistant coach and 20 years working with special teams units, was named UCF's special teams coordinator and senior analyst by head coach Scott Frost in January 2025.

"I'm incredibly grateful to Coach Scott Frost for this opportunity to join his coaching staff as special teams coordinator," said Alamar. "My goal is to develop and lead the best special teams units in the Big 12 and nationally and I cannot wait to get to work with our players and coaches."

Alamar made a big impact in year one with the Black and Gold. Multiple areas of his special teams unit performed at a high level throughout the campaign. Kicker Noe Ruelas was named All-Big 12 Third Team and made history in his lone season in Orlando becoming the first Knight in UCF's FBS history to make three field goals from beyond 50 yards, hitting from 54 to tie his career long as well as from 53 and 51. He finished the regular season with the best field goal percentage in the Big 12 and the 15th best in the nation at 88.2%, making 15-of-17 field goals. Ruelas earned a nod as a Lou Groza semifinalist.

The return game was also a bright spot in 2025 for Alamar's unit, as Jaden Nixon housed the opening kickoff return against North Carolina A&T on Sept. 6, the first UCF kickoff return for a touchdown since 2017. Antione Jackson finished 17th in yards per punt return, averaging a clip of 11.8, the best mark for a Knight since 2019.

Alamar was most recently the associate head coach and special teams coordinator at Rice, serving as the Owls' interim head coach for the final four games. He led Rice to a pair of wins as the interim coach, headlined by a 24-20 victory against Navy, which finished the season 10-3 overall with only two losses in conference play, and a 35-28 win against South Florida on senior day.

His 2024 kickoff return unit ranked ninth nationally, averaging 26.22 yards per return. Under his guidance, Quinton Jackson broke the program record for the longest kickoff return with a 100-yard return at UConn to eclipse the previous mark (99), which stood for 50 years. Jackson was named the American Athletic Conference (AAC) Special Teams Player of the Week following that performance and he finished the season with 589 kick return yards to rank fifth in the nation. Jackson was the first Rice player to return a kickoff for a touchdown since 2012.

In 2023, Alamar's kickoff return defensive unit was 15th nationally, limiting opponents to just 16.39 yards per return. That year, Rice blocked two field goals and also blocked a punt. In contrast, the Owls did not have a kick or punt blocked by the opposition.

He took over as the Owls' special teams coordinator prior to the 2023 season, after spending the previous 11 years at Stanford (2012-22) as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. He also served in that role at Fresno State for two years (2010-11) and Cal (2003-09).

Alamar's specialists and special teams units have consistently ranked among the nation's best during his career. He has coached on eight teams that won at least 10 games -- two at Arizona, two at Cal and four at Stanford -- and has been a part of 18 bowl teams.

With Alamar's instruction, Stanford kicker Joshua Karty was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award after the 2022 season, finishing 18-for-18 on field goals with 13 of those from 40 or more yards and three from 50+, highlighted by a school-record 61-yarder. He was the nation's only kicker without a miss during the season.

Karty was a two-time All-American and two-time All-Pac 12 selection before being selected in the 2024 NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Rams.

The Cardinal's 2022 kickoff return defensive unit led the Pac 12 with just 17.09 yards per return.

In 2021, Alamar's unit continued to be a bright spot for Stanford. Nathaniel Peat led the conference with 663 kickoff return yards, averaging 24.6 yards per return, and was named to Phil Steele's All-Pac-12 first team on special teams. Punter Ryan Sanborn continued his impressive career with a junior season that saw him average 43.3 yards per punt off 63 punts. The kickoff return defensive unit was fourth in the nation and paced the league, yielding 13.8 per kickoff. His punt return unit was also 10th (13.85) that season.

Jet Toner finished his kicking career at Stanford in 2020 with a school-record 113 consecutive PATs made, while his 280 career points scored were the third most in program history.

The Cardinal ranked sixth nationally in 2019 with four blocked kicks, including one that went for a touchdown. In 2018, Stanford's special teams were at the top of the Pac-12 Conference, led by punter Jake Bailey and kicker Toner. Bailey, who was drafted in the fifth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots, finished as Stanford's all-time career leader in punting average (43.81). Toner led the league and was No. 2 in the nation in field goal percentage as he made 14-of-15 and all 34 extra-point attempts. Both specialists took second-team All-Pac-12 honors.

In 2016, Alamar's work with Conrad Ukropina made him one of the most prolific kickers in Cardinal history. Ukropina and the Cardinal set single-season team records for field goals made (22) and extra-point percentage (1.000). He set individual career school records for field goal percentage (.824), consecutive extra points made (108), and individual single-season school records were set for field goals made (22), field goal percentage (.900), extra points made (67) and extra point percentage (1.000).

Under Alamar's tutelage, Christian McCaffrey won the 2015 Jet Award as the nation's top kick returner, becoming the third Cardinal with more than 1,000 kickoff return yards (1,070) in a season. McCaffrey was second nationally in combined kick returns (1,200).

Alamar was named Phil Steele's Special Teams Coach of the Year following the 2013 season when Stanford's kickoff return unit ranked second nationally in return average at 27.4 yards/return. Ty Montgomery returned two kickoffs for touchdowns, going 99 yards on the opening kickoff against Washington and a school-record 100 yards at Utah. The kickoff coverage unit was equally as good, allowing just 18.1 yards/return to rank 10th nationally.

He coached All-America punt returner DeSean Jackson during his time at Cal, who led the nation with an average of 18.2 yards per return and set a pair of Pac-10 records with four touchdown returns in 2006. Sporting News rated Cal's special teams as the best in the Pac-10 following the year.

Alamar earned three letters as an offensive lineman at Western Oregon (1) and Cal Lutheran (2), and played on two national playoff teams, one at each school.

A native of Thousand Oaks, California, he earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal Lutheran in 1983. He and his wife, Tina, have three daughters -- Alicia, Alexandra and Amanda.

Steve COOPER

Offensive Coordinator / Second Season

Steve Cooper, who spent four seasons with new UCF head coach Scott Frost at Nebraska, enters his second season as the Knights' offensive coordinator in 2026.

Cooper joined the Black and Gold following one season as an offensive analyst at Boise State, helping the Broncos earn a spot in the inaugural 12-team College Football Playoff and win the Mountain West Conference Championship.

"First off, I want to express my deepest appreciation to Coach Frost for believing in me and offering this incredible opportunity to join Knight Nation as offensive coordinator," said Cooper. "I'm beyond excited to contribute to this program's rich tradition of offensive innovation and success. The energy, the passion, and the culture here are unmatched, and I can't wait to get to work with these talented student-athletes and the amazing Knight community."

Cooper was the offensive coordinator as well as tight ends coach in his first year with UCF in 2025. Tight end Dylan Wade was a bright spot, leading the Knights in receiving touchdowns with five and finishing second in receiving yards with 523. Those numbers, along with his 43 receptions, stand as the most for a UCF tight end in a single season in the program's history. Cooper helped the Knights compile 578 yards of offense in UCF's 45-13 Homecoming victory over West Virginia, the sixth highest offensive output in a Frost-led UCF squad over his three years in Black and Gold.

With Cooper's assistance, Boise State compiled a 12-1 record and earned the No. 3 seed and a first-round bye in the College Football Playoff. Boise State's running back Ashton Jeanty was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy and finished second in voting. Jeanty finished the 2024 season leading the nation in rushing yards (2,601) and rushing touchdowns (29). The Broncos ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense (37.3 points per game) and eighth nationally in rushing offense (240.4 yards per game).

Cooper spent the 2023 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Maine, leading the Black Bears to the 10th-ranked passing offense in FCS with 3,081 yards. Under his direction, quarterback Derek Robertson finished the season ranked ninth nationally with 25 passing touchdowns. He ranked seventh in FCS with 2,993 passing yards and set a school record with 503 passing yards against Campbell.

His time at Maine followed four years at Nebraska (2018-22) where he served in various roles including senior offensive analyst (2022), interim quarterbacks coach (2021) and offensive quality control (2018-21).

In that span, Cooper mentored Nebraska quarterback Adrian Martinez. Under Cooper's guidance, Martinez's 295.1 passing yards per game ranked first among FBS freshmen and 15th overall in the country. His 7,404 total yards marked the fourth highest on Nebraska's all-time list for total yards, while his 64.2 completion percentage was second in Nebraska history.

In 2021, Cooper served as interim quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator where he was responsible for the game plan against Wisconsin and Iowa. During those games, Nebraska averaged 390 yards of offense against a Wisconsin team with the No. 4-ranked total defense and the Hawkeyes, who ranked 13th in total defense.

Cooper spent eight years (2010-17) in various full-time coaching capacities at his alma mater, Portland State. He started as the tight ends coach in 2010 before shifting over to coach the receivers (2011-14) where he guided Kasey Closs to all-conference honors, ranking 13th in FCS in receiving yardage (1,167 yards on 63 receptions).

During his final three years (2015-17) at Portland State, Cooper was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Vikings where his offense scored the second-most points in school history in 2015. That season, he led a dynamic Portland State offense that recorded the largest margin of victory by an FCS school over an FBS program in a dominant 66-7 victory against North Texas. He also mentored quarterback Alex Kuresa to Big Sky Conference Newcomer of the Year honors.

Cooper graduated from Portland State with a Bachelor of Science degree in Philosophy and was a two-time letterwinner at wide receiver for the Vikings, taking part in the top-ranked passing offense in FCS for the 2007 and 2008 seasons. He was also a two-year member of Oregon State's football team in 2005-06.

Alex GRINCH

Defensive Coordinator & Safties / Second Season

Alex Grinch, a four-time nominee and two-time Broyles Award semifinalist, enters his second season as UCF football's defensive coordinator. Grinch joined the Knights for the 2025 campaign after spending the 2024 season as the co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Wisconsin.

"I'm honored and excited to join UCF as the defensive coordinator," said Grinch. "I want to thank Coach Frost for the opportunity to be part of this outstanding program. UCF has a tradition of explosive, high-energy football, and I look forward to building a defensive unit that matches that identity with speed, toughness, and relentless effort.

"We're going to play fast, physical, and disciplined football, and I can't wait to get to work with these players and coaches to help us compete at the highest level."

Nationally recognized among his peers, Grinch was a semifinalist for the Broyles Award (presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach) in 2019 at Oklahoma and 2017 at Washington State as the defensive coordinator at both places.

Grinch's pass defense was the highlight of his first season with the Knights in 2025. UCF surrendered just 185.1 passing yards per game, the third lowest clip since the Black and Gold became an FBS program in 1996 and the lowest since the 2001 season. The clip ranked 22nd in the nation and third in the Big 12. The Knights allowed just 13 passing touchdowns, eight fewer than the year prior to Grinch's arrival. Safety Phillip Dunnam set a program record with three interceptions in one game, including returning one for a pick-six. Two of UCF's All-Big 12 honorees in 2025 came from the defense, as Malachi Lawrence earned a First Team nod while Cole Kozlowski was named Third Team. Lawrence was later selected No. 23 in the 2026 NFL Draft, becoming the highest drafted Knight on the defensive side of the ball in the program's history.

His Sooners defense improved drastically in nearly every statistic from the year prior to his arrival in Norman. Oklahoma jumped more than 100 spots in third-down conversion percentage, leaping from 118 (46.4%) in 2018 to 17 (32.2) in 2019. The Sooners led the Big 12 Conference in rushing defense and ranked among the top 35 nationally after ranking outside the top 50 the previous year.

In 2019, OU won the Big 12 Championship and earned a spot in the four-team College Football Playoff where they fell to eventual national champion LSU. The Sooners led the conference and ranked 17th nationally in tackles for loss per game with 7.4.

Grinch's 2017 Washington State defense finished among the nation's top 10 in third-down conversion percentage (4th: 28.5), passing yards allowed (9th: 170.9) and team tackles for loss (9th: 7.9) to earn him a spot on the Broyles Award semifinalists. WSU ranked 16th in the country in total defense, yielding 323.2 yards per game to opponents.

Under Grinch's direction, Washington State recorded 28 turnovers to rank ninth nationally.

PLAYING CAREER

1998-2001	Mount Union College	D-III

He joined the Wisconsin Badgers in February 2024 following defensive coordinator stints at USC (2022-23) and Oklahoma (2019-21). UW finished among the top 15 FBS programs in fewest passing yards allowed in 2024, checking in at No. 14 with 177.7 per game. Under his guidance, senior safety captain Hunter Wohler led the Badgers in tackles with 71, the fifth most among Big Ten Conference defensive backs to claim honorable mention all-conference honors. According to Pro Football Focus (PFF) advanced metrics, Wisconsin ranked 18th nationally in pass coverage as a team at 89.7.

In 2022 at USC, Grinch's defensive unit led the nation in turnover margin (1.57) after the Trojans ranked No. 74 nationally in 2021 prior. USC ranked No. 3 nationally with 19 interceptions by 11 different players.

At Oklahoma, the 2020 season was another strong season for Grinch's defensive unit. The Sooners ranked top 10 nationally in interceptions, third down defense, sacks, passing efficiency defense and rushing defense while allowing only 21.7 points per game. Oklahoma claimed the 2020 Big 12 title and earned a trip to the Cotton Bowl.

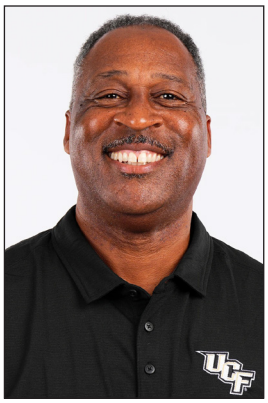

Grinch spent the 2018 season at Ohio State as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach. That year, the Buckeyes ranked sixth nationally with four defensive touchdowns. Before his season in Columbus, Grinch was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Washington State (2015-17) and the safeties coach at Missouri (2012-14).

He broke into the SEC as a full-time assistant in 2012 for a three-season stint at Missouri. Grinch coached the Tigers' safeties and Mizzou won SEC East Division titles in 2013 and 2014 and claimed a Cotton Bowl victory in 2013.

Grinch was a safety at Mount Union (1998-2001), as the Purple Raiders went 54-1, won three NCAA Division III championships (1998-2000-01) and four Ohio Athletic Conference titles. He earned All-America third team honors and was an Academic All-League first team selection as a 2001 senior.

The Grove City, Ohio, native received his bachelor's degree in sport management from Mount Union and earned a master's degree in educational leadership and policy analysis at Missouri.

Sean BECKTON SR.

Associate Head Coach & Wide Receivers / Third Season, 22nd Season Overall at UCF

UCF Hall of Famer Sean Beckton Sr. was named associate head coach and wide receivers coach by head coach Scott Frost in December 2024.

"I'm honored to join Coach Frost's staff, especially at a place that means so much to me. I'm excited to contribute to the program's exciting history with such a talented group of players and coaches. UCF is home to me, and I'm thankful for the chance to help carry forward its proud legacy."

During his time as coach with the Black and Gold, Beckton has helped the Knights win four of the six conference championships in UCF history and claim the program's two New Year's Six bowl wins. Additionally, numerous players have earned all-conference accolades under his guidance.

Beckton was a part of the historic 2017 National Championship campaign when the Knights went a perfect 13-0, highlighted by a victory over Auburn in the Peach Bowl. It marked the greatest two-year turnaround in NCAA history with both seasons (2016 & 2017) during Frost's first stint with the Black and Gold.

As a player, Beckton concluded his career as UCF's all-time leader in receptions (196) and receiving yards (2,493). Those marks currently rank third and fifth, respectively, in the UCF record books. He still owns the program record for consecutive games with a reception (42), punt returns in a single game (8) and punt return yardage (158) in a single game.

He was one of the first two football players inducted into the UCF Athletics Hall of Fame, as he was enshrined alongside Mark Giovanetti in 2000.

Beckton remains on the UCF staff in his fourth stint with the Knights, after rejoining the program as an analyst in July 2024. He served on staff from 2009-2017 as the Black and Gold's tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator (2016-17), wide receivers (2012-15) and defensive backs coach from 2009-11. He was also wide receivers coach from 1996-2003, after working as a graduate assistant from 1992-93.

Originally from Daytona Beach, Florida, Beckton served as tight ends coach at Nebraska for five years. He coached one of Nebraska's best tight ends while in Lincoln with Frost from 2018-22, as Austin Allen set the Huskers' season tight end records with 38 receptions and 602 yards. He also set a school single-game record with 143 receiving yards at Wisconsin. Allen earned first-team all-conference honors and was the Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year.

Beckton led the Knights in receiving yards in three consecutive years as a player, highlighted by 1,030 yards as a sophomore in 1988. As a senior against Texas Southern, Beckton scored a touchdown four different ways (passing, rushing, receiving and punt return). He threw a 33-yard touchdown pass, rushed for an 11-yard TD, caught a 17-yard TD and returned a punt 60 yards for a touchdown.

Beckton earned his degree from UCF in liberal studies in 1993. He and his wife, Zorana, have one son, Sean Jr., and one daughter, Zaria. Sean Beckton Jr. is an assistant director of sports performance for the football program, and Zaria earned her degree from Nebraska in May 2022.

Cooper Bassett joined the UCF coaching staff as Tight Ends Coach in January 2026 ahead of the 2026 season. Bassett is a versatile coach with plenty of experience on both sides of the ball. A senior captain at Oklahoma State in his playing days, the Tuttle, Okla. native played tight end and defensive line for the Cowboys from 2009-12. With 13 years of coaching experience, Bassett has been part of two divisional championship teams and has coached in four bowl games.

Most recently, Bassett was with Oklahoma State in 2025 as the offensive line coach. Prior to that, he served as the co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for a Utah State offense that finished the regular season ranked No. 7 in the nation in total offense with an average of 467.7 yards per game. The USU offense also ranked No. 22 nationally in both passing offense (269.1) and rushing offense (198.6). In his first year at Utah State in 2023, Bassett helped the Aggies to six wins and an appearance in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The Aggies led the Mountain West and ranked 25th in the nation in total offense (438.6 ypg). USU was also 26th nationally in scoring offense (33.2 ppg), 30th in rushing offense (184.4 ypg) and 43rd in the nation in passing offense (254.2 ypg).

Bassett came to Utah State after spending the 2022 season as the offensive line coach at Sam Houston State, where the Bearkats rushed for an average of 162.3 yards per game (4.4 yards per attempt) and allowed just 18 sacks. They finished first in the Western Athletic Conference in sacks allowed and second in rushing offense. Bassett also coached Jordan Boatman to second-team all-conference honors.

Prior to Sam Houston State, Bassett spent the 2021 season directing the offensive line at Southeast Missouri, where his unit helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in Geno Hess. Bassett also coached a pair of offensive linemen to all-conference accolades in Nate Korte and Zack Gieg. In 2020, Bassett's offensive line paved the way for a West Texas A&M offense that ranked 14th in the nation in rushing at 207.6 yards per game. The Buffs led the Lone Star Conference in third down (41.4 percent) and fourth down (58.3 percent) conversion percentage, as well as first downs (99). The 99 first downs also ranked eighth nationally.

The offensive line produced 363 yards in total offense per game during the 2019 campaign. Under Bassett's tutelage, the Buffs rushed for 31 touchdowns to mark their most in a season in over a decade. West Texas A&M ranked first in the LSC and 15th in the nation in sacks allowed that year. In 2018, Bassett coached a pair of All-Lone Star Conference performers in Parker Hanna and Travis Vornkahl. His offensive line also paved the way for All-Lone Star Conference rusher Duke Carter IV.

Before WT, Bassett was on staff at as an offensive graduate assistant at Missouri and Maryland. He spent three seasons at Missouri from 2013-15 and one season at Maryland in 2016. Missouri finished 23-5 and won back-to-back SEC East Division titles during his stint, and he worked primarily with the offensive line during at Maryland.

A native of Tuttle, Okla., Bassett was a four-year letterman from 2009-12 and senior captain at Oklahoma State, where he played tight end and defensive line. The Cowboys went 40-12 during his time as a player. He earned his bachelor's degree in science from OSU in 2012 and master's in education from Missouri in 2015.

Bassett and his wife, Samantha, have three sons, Bowen, Briar and Briggs.

Jimmy BEAL

Running Backs / Second Season

COACHING EXPERIENCE
2005-07	Rocky Mountain College	Wide Recievers Coach
2008	Rocky Mountain College	Running Backs Coach
2009	Texas State	Graduate Assistant
2010-15	Northern Arizona	Running Backs Coach

2023	San Diego State	Running Backs Coach
2018-22	Utah State	Running Backs Coach
2025-pres.	UCF	Running Backs Coach

Jimmy Beal is in his second season as the Knights' running backs coach in 2026. Beal brings nearly two decades of collegiate coaching experience to UCF, along with a strong reputation for developing dynamic rushing attacks. Beal joined UCF following a successful stint as the running backs coach at Utah State in 2024, helping the Aggies rank among the top 5 in the Mountain West in rushing with just under 200 yards per game. The ground game was led by Rahsul Faison, who rushed for 1,109 yards and eight touchdowns.

Prior to Utah State, Beal served as the running backs coach at San Diego State in 2023, where the Aztecs averaged 154.3 rushing yards per game.

Prior to his time at San Diego State, Beal spent three years (2020-22) at his alma mater, Montana State. During his two active seasons there (Montana State did not compete in 2020 due to COVID-19), the Bobcats ranked second in FCS in yards per carry (5.8), third in total rushing yards (7,662), and third in rushing yards per game (262.4). Montana State rushed for over 200 yards in 20 of their 29 games, winning all 20, and surpassed 300 rushing yards in 10 contests, including a standout 439-yard game against rival Montana and a 549-yard effort versus Cal Poly.

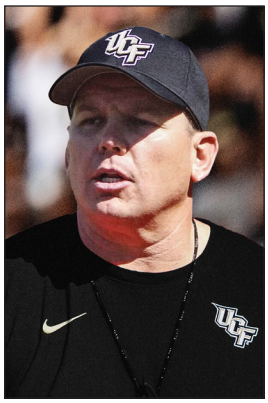

In 2022, Beal helped Montana State to a 12-2 record, a Big Sky Conference championship, and a trip to the FCS semifinals. The Bobcats led the nation with 311.9 rushing yards per game despite starting five different running backs throughout the season. The previous year, Montana State finished 12-3 and advanced to the FCS Championship game, ranking seventh in FCS with 220.9 rushing yards per game. Beal also coached Isaiah Ifanse to second-team All-America honors in 2021 after Ifanse rushed for 1,623 yards and 10 touchdowns on 280 carries (5.8 yards per rush).

From 2010 to 2018, Beal coached running backs at Northern Arizona, where his players earned all-Big Sky honors in eight of his nine seasons. Zach Bauman, one of his standout players, became a three-time All-American (2011-2013) and set the NAU career rushing record with 5,132 yards. Beal also helped guide Northern Arizona to FCS playoff appearances in 2013 and 2017.

Beal began his collegiate coaching career at Rocky Mountain College, working with wide receivers (2005-07) and running backs (2008). He later served as a graduate assistant at Texas State and also coached sprinters for the MSU Billings track & field team from 2007-09.

Over the course of his 19-year collegiate coaching career, Beal has coached in five Football Championship Series (FCS) playoff games and contributed to one conference championship team.

As a player, Beal started his college football career at Montana State in 2002, transitioning to cornerback in 2004. He completed his playing career at Rocky Mountain College, earning team MVP and most valuable running back honors as a senior in 2006. Beal holds a degree in art education with a minor in coaching from Montana State and a master's in sport management from MSU-Billings.

AJ BLAZEK

Offensive Line / First Season

AJ Blazek joined the UCF staff in December 2025 ahead of the 2026 football season.

Blazek has been an offensive line coach at the Power 4 level since 2021 and has more than two decades of coaching experience. He joins the Knights after two seasons with Wisconsin and was at Vanderbilt for three campaigns prior to that. All told, Blazek has 24 years of coaching experience under his belt with other stops including Rutgers, Iowa, North Dakota State and more.

A former All-Big Ten Center, Blazek helped Wisconsin's offensive front to an impressive season in 2024, allowing just 13 sacks which was fewest in the Big Ten and 10th at the FBS level. The Wichita, Kan. native won a national championship with North Dakota State in 2019. The Bison set a school-record with 4,601 rushing yards that season while going 16-0 to capture their eighth FCS title in a nine-year span.

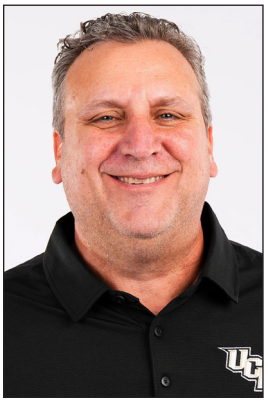

Blazek began his playing career by earning All-America and Academic All-America honors at Butler Community College. He spent the 1997 and 1998 seasons there before spending the following two at Iowa. A two-year letter winning center with the Hawkeyes, Blazek earned All-Big Ten Conference honors his senior season and earned a pair of Academic All-Big Ten Conference honors. He was a co-captain during his 2000 campaign. Before beginning his journey as a coach, Blazek played two seasons for the Chicago Rush of the Arena Football league, earning the 2001 Walter Payton Award for community service.

Blazek earned a degree in health, leisure and sport studies in 2002 and added a graduate degree in recreation and sport administration in 2004, both at Iowa.

Mark D'ONOFRIO

Linebackers / Second Season

Mark D'Onofrio, who has more than 20 years of experience coaching at the FBS level, was named UCF's linebackers coach by head coach Scott Frost in January 2025. D'Onofrio joins the Knights after spending the previous two seasons working with the inside linebackers at Stanford.

"I'm thrilled to join Scott Frost's staff at UCF," said D'Onofrio. "It's an incredible opportunity to be part of a program with a strong vision and commitment to excellence. I'm deeply grateful to Coach Frost and Alex Grinch for trusting me with this responsibility, and I can't wait to get to work!"

In addition to his expertise coaching linebackers, D'Onofrio has also coordinated defenses with 12 years as a defensive coordinator at three different schools. He has coached and recruited numerous all-conference selections and NFL Draft picks, including 10 players that were taken in the first three rounds of the draft, most notably Los Angeles Chargers linebacker Denzel Perryman, who he coached at Miami, and Cleveland Browns tight end David Njoku, who he recruited to Coral Gables.

A pair of players from his linebacker room led the team in tackles his first year with UCF. Cole Kozlowski, who earned All-Big 12 Third Team honors, finished second on the squad with 82 tackles; Lewis Carter finished first with 92 total. Together, the pair accounted for 11.5 tackles for loss and four sacks.

At Stanford (2023-24), D'Onofrio was responsible for all defensive run-game planning, helping the Cardinal improve from 126th nationally in rushing defense (224.4 yards per game) prior to his arrival to 40th (132.9 ypg) by 2024 — the program's best run defense since 2014. Under his leadership, linebacker Gaethan Bernadel led the team in tackles two consecutive seasons, earning Pac-12 All-Conference honors in 2023 and a spot on the 2024 Preseason Butkus Award Watch List. Stanford also ranked 21st nationally in forced fumbles in 2024, significantly improving its turnover production.

In 2022, D'Onofrio helped Wisconsin rank 10th nationally in total defense (303.5 ypg), eighth in rushing defense (99.2 ypg), and fourth in yards per rush attempt (2.91). Linebacker Maema Njongmeta flourished under his coaching, earning third-team All-Big Ten honors after leading the Badgers with 95 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss, and 3.5 sacks.

During his time at Houston, his defense ranked second in the American Athletic Conference in scoring defense (23.8 points per game) despite facing multiple high-powered offenses. Houston also ranked second in rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, and red zone defense. Inside linebacker D'Juan Hines earned first-team all-conference honors, finishing third in the AAC with 110 tackles.

At Miami, D'Onofrio coached and recruited standout linebacker Denzel Perryman, a two-time Dick Butkus Award semifinalist and 2015 AP All-American who became an NFL Pro Bowler. His Miami defenses consistently ranked near the top of the ACC in takeaways, total defense, and rushing defense, forcing 25 turnovers in 2015 and holding multiple opponents under 100 rushing yards.

At Temple, D'Onofrio transformed a defense that ranked last nationally into a top-20 unit by 2010, helping the Owls reach bowl eligibility in back-to-back seasons for the first time in program history.

A former standout linebacker at Penn State from 1988-91, D'Onofrio was a team captain as a senior and was selected in the second round of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers. He earned a starting role as a rookie before an injury ended his playing career.

Mike DAWSON

Defensive Run Game Coordinator & Edge / Second Season, Fourth Season Overall at UCF

After spending the 2016 and 2017 seasons at UCF, Mike Dawson returned to Orlando as the Knights' defensive run game coordinator and edge coach in 2025. Dawson was a member of Frost's staff during his stint with the program during UCF's 2017 National Championship run.

"I'm incredibly excited and grateful for the opportunity to join Coach Frost's staff," said Dawson. "Having previously worked with him at Nebraska and UCF, I've seen firsthand the passion, leadership, and commitment he brings to the game, and I have a tremendous amount of respect for Scott.

"I'm looking forward to contributing to the success of this program, working with an outstanding group of coaches, and helping our players grow both on and off the field."

Dawson made an instant impact upon returning to the program in 2025 as he helped Malachi Lawrence become the highest drafted defensive player in program history, selected 23rd overall in the 2026 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. Lawrence led the Knights with seven sacks and 11 tackles for loss, tallying 28 total tackles in the process. On the other edge was Nyjalik Kelly, who added 7.5 tackles for loss and a trio of sacks. Together, the edge rushing duo caused four forced fumbles on the campaign.

Dawson rejoined the Knights following a year as a senior defensive analyst for Kansas in 2024 and a season at Ohio State in a similar capacity in 2023. He spent a total of four seasons on Nebraska's coaching staff with Frost as well. Dawson coached Nebraska's defensive line in 2018, before spending the 2019 season as the outside linebackers coach for the New York Giants. He returned to Lincoln to coach the outside linebackers in 2020 and 2021 and the defensive line/edge rushers in 2022.

His defensive line featured a pair of All-Big Ten performers in his first year at Nebraska and he helped key a Cornhuskers unit that moved up 27 spots in the national scoring defense rankings from the 2017 season. The line helped Nebraska total 25 sacks, 11 more than the Huskers recorded the previous season. In addition to the pressure created by the defensive line, the unit also helped the Huskers post the ninth-most pass breakups in school history (58). In 2020, Dawson's outside linebackers helped Nebraska rank among the top of the Big Ten Conference in total defense and lower its opponent rushing yards per attempt. Outside linebacker JoJo Domann led the team with 58 tackles and 6.5 tackles for loss en route to earning All-Big Ten honors.

Dawson played a key role in the continued improvement of the Nebraska defense in 2021. Nebraska allowed 22.7 points per game, the fewest points allowed in 11 seasons. The Huskers also allowed their fewest yards per game in five seasons at 366.0 per game.

Individually, Dawson oversaw the continued development of outside linebackers Caleb Tannor and Garrett Nelson. Tannor finished the season with a career-high 5.5 tackles for loss, while Nelson led Nebraska in TFLs (10.5) and sacks (5) ranking among the Big Ten leaders in both categories.

In 2022, Dawson coached Nebraska's defensive line and edge rushers. Nelson again led Nebraska in TFLs (9.0) and sacks (5.5) while former walk-on Colton Feist had a career year in his first season as a starter with 46 tackles and 7.0 tackles for loss. On the season, 34.5 of Nebraska's 60 TFLs came from Dawson's players as did 15 of the Huskers' 21 sacks.

In his previous two seasons at UCF in 2016 and 2017, he helped turn around the Knights' defense. UCF improved by more than 12 points per game in scoring defense during Dawson's tenure, and the defense forced 58 turnovers and scored nine defensive touchdowns in his two seasons. UCF ranked third nationally in turnovers forced in Dawson's two seasons at the school, and his defensive line played a key role in that area by helping the Knights recover 23 fumbles.

With Dawson on the staff, UCF's defense saw incredible success in 2016. UCF led the American Athletic Conference in five defensive statistical categories, ranked second in the nation in red zone defense and third in the nation with five defensive touchdowns.

The Knights also ranked ninth in the nation with 7.9 tackles-for-loss per game and 17th overall with 2.92 sacks per game. Noseguard Jamiyus Pittman was named to the All-American Athletic Conference Second Team after recording 28 tackles, 4.5 tackles-for-loss, two sacks and two fumble recoveries.

In 2017, the defensive line was the strength of the UCF defense. The Knights successfully rotated up to nine defensive linemen into virtually every game, keeping the front three fresh and leading to successful defense. Dawson coached senior defensive end Jamiyus Pittman to first team all-conference honors, while sophomore Trysten Hill was named to the league's second team.

Former Eagles head coach and current San Francisco 49ers head coach Chip Kelly hired Dawson in January 2013 to be a defensive quality control coach. That year, the organization tied for third in the NFL in games holding their opponents to 21-or-fewer points, and tied for third in the league with 31 takeaways. Philadelphia won the NFC East title in 2013 with a 10-6 record.

Dawson served as assistant defensive line coach from 2014-15, with the 2014 team completing the year fifth in the NFL by holding opponents to just 3.7 yards per rush. The Eagles also tied for the second most sacks with 49.

Before joining the Eagles, Dawson was away from the coaching ranks when he agreed to be the athletic director at North Middlesex High School in Massachusetts in January 2012. That was the same school Dawson served as a football captain when it went undefeated in 1992, while he also played for the hockey team.

From 2009-11, Dawson worked as Boston College's special teams coordinator. In 2010, freshman kicker Nate Freese went 22-for-25 in field-goal attempts, while punter Ryan Quigley collected 26 punts inside the 20. A year earlier, kicker Steve Aponavicius took over as the Eagles' all-time leading scorer with 290 points, and he finished his career ranked first in school history in field-goal percentage and extra points made.

In his first full-time assistant coaching position at the FBS level, Dawson was in charge of the linebackers at Akron from 2006-08. Brion Stokes paced the team in tackles in 2007, and he was among the Mid-American Conference's top-10 in tackles for loss and sacks. Stokes went on to be an All-MAC Second Team pick that year, and he capped off his career as a Zip with 38.5 tackles for loss, good for second on Akron's all-time list.

Dawson began a six-year stint at New Hampshire as a linebackers coach in 2000 before ultimately climbing to be the defensive coordinator from 2004-05. The 2005 Wildcats reached the FCS quarterfinals as the defense helped UNH lead the nation in takeaways with 45. New Hampshire combined for a 21-5 record from 2004-05.

Starting his coaching career, Dawson first served as a defensive line coach in the spring of 1998 for UMass-Lowell, then joined Maine as a defensive assistant (1998-99) and Pittsburgh as a graduate assistant (fall 1999).

Dawson was a three-year starter at linebacker and defensive end from 1994-96 at UMass-Amherst where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports management in 1997.

A native of Pepperell, Mass., Dawson and his wife, Jodi, have a son, Frankie.

Orlando native Kenny Martin, UCF's defensive tackles coach, has figured prominently in the Knights' defensive turnaround over the last five campaigns with tackles Lee Hunter and Ricky Barber leading that charge. In 2024, Hunter was named a second team All-Big 12 selection after tallying 45 tackles with 9.5 tackles for loss. According to Pro Football Focus' (PFF) advanced metrics, Hunter graded out at 77.0, which was the second best in the Big 12 for a defensive tackle and ranked among the nation's best.

Barber had a stellar final year for the Knights and received consideration for the conference's defensive lineman of the year award. He had 34 tackles, including six tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks.

Hunter claimed honorable mention All-Big 12 Conference recognition after making more regular-season tackles in 2023 (64, including 10.5 tackles for loss) than any defensive tackle in the nation (according to Pro Football Focus). Barber battled injuries yet still started nine games for the Knights. UCF also received key assistance at tackle from true freshman John Walker, who added 24 tackles (five for loss).

Martin's charges played noteworthy roles in 2022 with veteran Anthony Montalvo (43 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss, 6 QB hurries) adding experience with his 35 career starts in a Knight uniform and Ricky Barber (49 tackles, 9 TFL, 3 sacks, team-high 12 QB hurries) claiming honorable mention All-America honors from Pro Football Network. Barber was a first-team All-American Athletic Conference pick by both the league's coaches and PFN.

The Knights' defensive tackles assisted the UCF defense in leading the country in red-zone defense much of the year, ultimately finishing fifth. Meanwhile Martin's charges helped UCF reach the nine-victory mark for a second consecutive year as the Knights advanced to the AAC Championship Game for the first time in four years and qualified for a bowl game for the seventh straight season.

As UCF won six of its final seven games to close the 2021 season (capped by a Gasparilla Bowl win over Florida), the Knight defense permitted only 11.8 points per game in those six combined victories. UCF averaged 8.1 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks in those six games—and finished the regular season ranked seventh nationally in pass efficiency defense (110.73) and 26th in tackles for loss (6.8 per game).

Among Martin's charges at tackle in 2021 were Western Kentucky transfer Barber (29 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss), Montalvo (34 tackles) and sophomore Keenan Hester (24 tackles). That group helped the UCF defense improve 70 spots in NCAA total defense rankings—averaging 122.5 fewer total yards per game allowed in 2021 compared to the previous season.

Martin previously was defensive tackle coach from 2018-20 for Western Kentucky defenses that ranked among the most productive in the country. He joined Gus Malzahn's UCF football staff on Feb. 23, 2021, and is in his third year with the Knights in 2023.

A former defensive lineman for the Hilltoppers, Martin first returned to his alma mater in 2016 and worked with the defensive tackle position group for five seasons, the first two as a graduate assistant coach.

In 2020 Martin helped the Western Kentucky defense rank eighth in the nation in passing yards allowed (177.3), 28th in total yards allowed (348.7) and 41st in points allowed (25.3) per game. Among the defensive tackle group, redshirt freshman Barber was named a Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-American. His 58 total tackles tied for fifth among all Football Bowl Subdivision defensive linemen regardless of class. Phil Steele tabbed Barber as an All-Conference USA second-teamer and Jeremy Darvin, the other starting tackle, as a third-teamer.

In 2019 Martin helped mentor his group into one of the most solid positions on the field. Darvin and Jaylon George earned All-Conference USA honorable mention recognition, while Barber was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team. Western Kentucky allowed only 20.1 total points per game, the lowest mark for the program since 2004, to rank 22nd nationally. The Hilltoppers held opponents to a 29.7% rate (51 of 172) on third down (sixth in the FBS) and ranked third in the FBS with only 82 missed tackles. Western Kentucky was 24th in total defense at 335.5 yards allowed per game.

In 2018 Martin's work developed George into one of the top defensive tackles in Conference USA as an all-league selection by Pro Football Focus. In 2017, senior Chris Johnson earned All-Conference USA honorable mention accolades after leading all defenders in quarterback hurries from his tackle position.

In 2016, Martin helped senior Keith Brown set a single-season record for total tackles with 131 en route to earning All-Conference USA first-team honors along with PFF second-team All-America recognition. The Hilltoppers finished the campaign with the second-ranked rushing defense, surrendering just 97.2 yards per game. Western Kentucky also led the conference in scoring defense as it won a second consecutive league championship (under head coach Jeff Brohm, now at Purdue) and third consecutive bowl game.

A four-year letterman for Western Kentucky (the last three under current Florida Atlantic coach Willie Taggart), Martin started 42 games from 2009-12 (74 career tackles) and was a member of the Hilltoppers' first FBS bowl team in the 2012 Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl.

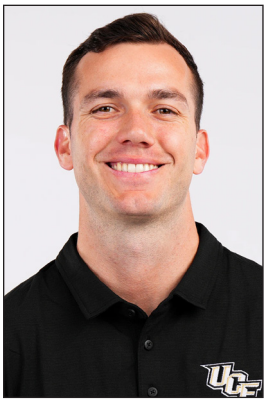

As a coach, Martin helped Western Kentucky participate in the 2016 Boca Raton Bowl (won 51-31 over Memphis), 2017 Cure Bowl, 2019 First Responder Bowl (won 23-20 over Western Michigan) and 2020 LendingTree Bowl—as well as the 2021 Gasparilla Bowl (a 29-17 triumph over Florida) once he came to UCF.

Prior to returning to Western Kentucky, Martin was the defensive line coach at the University of Virginia-Wise in 2015. Martin also served as the defensive coordinator at Warren Central High School in Bowling Green, Kentucky, in 2014. He got his start in coaching as the co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at his former high school, Ocoee High School, in Orlando in 2013.

Martin is a 2012 Western Kentucky graduate with a degree in sociology.

He and his wife, the former Tasha Babb, have a daughter Khloe and two sons Tre and Lucas.

McKenzie MILTON

Quarterbacks / Second Season

COACHING EXPERIENCE
2023-24	Tennessee	Offensive Analyst
2025-pres.	UCF	Quarterbacks Coach

McKenzie Milton, one of the most iconic players to don a UCF uniform, returned to Orlando as the Knights' quarterbacks coach in December 2024.

A former two-time American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year, earning the honor under Frost during his first stint at UCF in 2017, Milton led the Black and Gold to a 27-6 overall record as the starter under center and led the Knights to two AAC Championships and consecutive New Year's Six bowl games.

"I'm beyond excited to be back in Orlando and part of the UCF family once again," Milton said. "UCF holds such a special place in my heart, and to return as quarterbacks coach is truly an honor. I couldn't be more excited to work alongside Coach Frost, who has been such a pivotal figure in my career.

"I can't wait to help develop the next generation of Knights and build on the incredible tradition of success we've established here at UCF. Charge On!"

Milton joined the Knights following two seasons as an offensive analyst at Tennessee, helping the Volunteers compile a 10-2 record in 2024 and earn a spot in the inaugural 12-team College Football Playoff.

A native of Kapolei, Hawaii, Milton threw for 8,683 yards and 72 touchdowns during his time in a UCF uniform. His 9,761 yards of total offense rank third in program record books. He was responsible for 92 touchdowns and owned a 61.8 completion percentage, the sixth best in program history.

Milton enjoyed an historic 2017 National Championship campaign to lead the Knights to a perfect 13-0 season, highlighted by a victory over Auburn in the Peach Bowl. He set UCF single-season program records for passing yards (4,037) and passing touchdowns (37). He ranked in the top 10 nationally in both statistics, finishing fourth in passing TDs and seventh in passing yards.

Additionally, he was second in passing efficiency with a 179.3 mark and ninth in passing yards per game (310.5) in 2017. Milton was fourth in the country in total offense, averaging 357.7 total yards per game.

Milton was named the winner of the 2017 Touchdown Club of Columbus Archie Griffin Award. The award, named for the Ohio State football legend and only two-time Heisman Trophy winner, is the only nationally-recognized award presented at the conclusion of all bowl games and represents college football's Most Valuable Player for the entire season.

Following the 2018 season, Milton finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting and was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. He passed for 2,663 yards with 25 touchdowns and was a semifinalist for the Maxwell, Walter Camp and Davey O'Brien Award. Milton finished the regular season ranked third nationally in passing yards per completion (15.57) and ninth in passing efficiency (161.0).

After suffering a major injury in 2018, Milton made his return to the field in 2020 and earned the 2021 Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year.

Milton earned his undergraduate degree from UCF in sport and exercise science in December 2019 before completing a master's degree in educational leadership in May 2022.

2025	Dallas Cowboys	Secondary/Cornerbacks
2026-pres.	UCF	Cornerbacks

David Overstreet II joined the UCF coaching staff in March 2026 ahead of the 2026 football season. Overstreet brings eight seasons of NFL experience to the Knights, most recently serving on staff with the Dallas Cowboys.

A Dallas native, Overstreet coached with the Cowboys this past season as the secondary/cornerbacks coach.

Prior to 2025, Overstreet spent three seasons with the Chicago Bears, starting as the assistant defensive backs coach in 2022 before exclusively coaching the nickel position in 2024. The Bears snagged 47 interceptions during his tenure, the sixth-most in the NFL during that time. While in Chicago, Overstreet coached budding cornerback Jaylon Johnson to two Pro Bowl nods. Johnson snatched four interceptions in 2023 and earned Second Team All-Pro honors. The 2022 version of the Bears' roster was the youngest in the league; Overstreet helped guide them to top 10 rankings in completions allowed (323) and interception yards (201).

Before Chicago, Overstreet broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the Indianapolis Colts. He began as a defensive quality control assistant in 2018 before rising to assistant defensive backs coach in 2021. The Colts nabbed 64 interceptions during Overstreet's three seasons, tied for third most over that time. Indianapolis tallied 19 of those picks in 2021, good enough for a tie for third in the league that season.

Prior to jumping to the NFL, Overstreet spent two seasons at Garden City Community College in Kansas, serving as the defensive passing game coordinator and cornerbacks coach. He helped pilot the program to the NJCAA National Championship in 2016. The following season saw Garden City record 18 interceptions, the sixth-best in the NJCAA in 2017.

Overstreet began his coaching career in 2015 by coaching cornerbacks at Holmes Community College in Mississippi. He owned a marketing and sales firm before jumping back into football.

A four-year starter at safety for Missouri from 2002-06, Overstreet earned First Team All-Big 12 honors twice. He earned his bachelor's degree in graphic design in 2006.

JUNIOR (2025)
- Named All-Big 12 Honorable Mention
- Hauled in 43 catches for 523 yards and five touchdowns on the season, all career highs
- His receptions, yards and touchdowns stand as the most for a UCF tight end in a single season in the program's FBS history (since 1996) as of the end of the 2025 slate
- His five touchdowns led the UCF receiving core in 2025
- Was UCF's second-leading receiver in 2025 in both receptions and yards
- Played in 11 of UCF's 12 games on the campaign
- Posted his most impressive stat line of his career in UCF's 17-14 comeback win over Oklahoma State (Nov. 22), hauling in a pair of touchdowns on four catches for 145 yards; one catch was an 83-yard touchdown reception on the first play after halftime, the longest reception of his career and tied for the sixth-longest reception in UCF's history; he also posted a 50-yard reception on the drive that eventually led to the game winning-field goal
- Caught the first UCF touchdown of the 2025 season, a 39-yard completion to tie the game at 10 against Jacksonville State on Aug. 28, an eventual 17-10 win for the Knights
- Added touchdowns at No. 6 Texas Tech (Nov. 15) and at No. 11 BYU (Nov. 29)
- Tallied five or more catches in five games, including a season-high six against Houston (Nov. 7) and at No. 6 Texas Tech (Nov. 15)

- Career-day vs. Rutgers (11/16), hauling in seven receptions for a team-high 92 yards, including a career-long 44
- Two receptions for 28 yards at Minnesota (10/26)
- Four catches for 26 yards with a long of 16 vs. USC (10/19)
- 17-yard grab on third down vs. Northwestern (10/11)
- Caught highlight-reel TD pass off a tipped pass at Indiana (9/28), finished the game with three catches for 15 yds
- Set a new career-high in long reception with a 37-yard grab vs. Villanova (9/21)
- Two catches for 44 yards, including career-long 36 yard reception, at Virginia (9/14)
- Caught a 28-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the fourth quarter in career-day vs. Michigan State (9/7)
- Drew first career start vs. UConn (8/31), caught two passes for a career-high 38 yards with a career-long 25 yard reception

FRESHMAN (2023, AT MARYLAND)
- Appeared in 10 games
- Tallied four receptions for 21 yards and two touchdowns
- Caught a touchdown to make it 21-0 at the end of the first quarter of the TransPerfect Music City Bowl (12/30)
- Caught a touchdown on first career reception in win over Indiana (9/30)

HIGH SCHOOL
- Helped Jones go 11-3 and made the state semifinals of the Sunshine State's new 3M playoffs in 2022
- Carried the ball 49 times for 255 yards and 8 TD while catching 15 passes for 147 yards and 2 TD in 2022, while 34 tackles and 3 sacks to go along with an interception and a fumble recovery on defense
- Caught 25 passes for 331 yards (13.2 yards per catch) and three touchdowns in 2021, while recording 11 tackles, two tackles for loss, and one sack as an edge rusher
- Also played basketball and did shot put in track and field

Knights Earn 300th Program Win with a Triumph over Jacksonville State

JACKSONVILLE STATE	0	0	3	7	-	10
UCF	0	0	3	14	-	17

Aug. 28, 2025 | Acrisure Bounce House | Orlando, Fla. | 7 p.m. ET | 43,043 | ESPN+

ORLANDO - In a game that stretched across more than five hours, two quarterbacks, and a two-hour, seven-minute weather delay, the Knights defeated a determined Jacksonville State squad to open the second Scott Frost era with a gutsy 17-10 victory Thursday night at Acrisure Bounce House.

UCF leaned on depth and timely execution to grind out its first win of the season and give Frost a successful return to the program. The Knights totaled 422 yards of offense and held Jacksonville State to 322, making key plays on both sides of the ball when it mattered most.

UCF quarterback Tayven Jackson, stepping in early in the second quarter after starter Cam Fancher exited with an injury following the weather delay, delivered an efficient and composed performance. He completed 17 of 24 passes for 282 yards and two touchdowns, providing the offense with rhythm and stability in his first action as a member of the Black and Gold.

"I'm happy that we got out of it and that we got out of it with a win. That's all that mattered, a win is a win." - Tayven Jackson

Running back Myles Montgomery was a consistent force throughout the night, totaling 150 yards with 79 rushing yards on 21 carries while adding 71 through the air on three catches. His ability to extend drives and break off chunk plays helped UCF stay in control of the possession for most of the game.

After both teams traded early field goals, Jacksonville State found the end zone for the first time on a 10-yard rush by Andrew Paul with 12:01 left in the game.

UCF immediately responded, however, when Jackson connected with Dylan Wade on a 40-yard catch-and-run touchdown pass in with 9:30 left to tie the game at 10-10. Jackson found Wade all alone over the middle after sneaking out from his tight end position and darted down the right side for UCF's first TD of the season.

Then with just under two minutes to go and JSU driving into UCF territory, defensive back Jayden Williams stuffed Gamecock's running back Cam Cook on a fourth-down, hurry-up play to turn the ball over on downs to the Knights.

"Jayden got a game ball," Frost said. "He's one of a number of new guys around here, but he's played a lot of football and is very savvy. When they handed it off it looked liked they dented our line a little and I thought it was a first down ... but he just shot in there and knifed and that was probably the biggest play of the game."

Then, starting at their own 36-yard line, UCF marched 64 yards in six plays to take the lead late and seal the win. After two incompletions, Jackson took off on a 15-yard scramble on third down to the JSU 34-yard line. Then, when many thought UCF would play it safe and inch closer for a go-ahead field goal on 3rd and 9, Jackson hit wide receiver DJ Black on a naked bootleg in stride over the middle for a 33-yard score and the lead with just over a minute remaining.

"We were sitting there and kinda said, 'let's win this thing'," Frost said. "I think a lot of people were probably expecting us to call something and kick a field goal. But we still had a couple bullets in the chamber, and we hit one."

"It was a great play call by Coach Frost," Black said. "The offensive line held up real well. D Wade made a good block on the edge and Tayven threw me a great ball and it landed right in the pocket."

The UCF defense held strong the rest of the way, limiting big plays and forcing a key fourth-down stop late in the fourth quarter.

The win marked the 300th in program history and extended UCF's streak to 10 straight opening game victories. It also marked the Knights' 11th consecutive Thursday night win, the third most such wins in all of FBS history.

Frost's season-opening win was his 20th career victory with the Knights and extended his winning streak to 14 games in Black and Gold.

Sep. 6, 2025 | Acrisure Bounce House | Orlando, Fla. | 7 p.m. ET | 44,009 | ESPN+

ORLANDO - An hour and twelve minutes of stormy suspense delayed Saturday evening's kickoff, but when the skies finally cleared, Jaden Nixon wasted no time reigniting head coach Scott Frost's signature #UCFast philosophy to take down North Carolina A&T in a convincing 68-7 win.

"We've been talking to him, as fast as he is, he just needs to run through the smoke." - Head Coach Scott Frost on Jaden Nixon's performance

And Nixon delivered exactly that, blazing 96 yards on the game's opening kickoff, to become the first player in over a decade to take it back to the house from play one. The last player to manage that feat was Quincy McDuffie, who took one 95 yards to the end zone against Tulane on Nov. 20, 2010. Some may also remember a similar spark from Mike Hughes in 2017, the last player to score on a kickoff of any kind until tonight, which helped catapult that magical 2017 season.

The offense didn't miss a beat after Nixon's burst. Quarterback Tayven Jackson orchestrated back-to-back touchdown drives, each under three minutes, and capped both with rushing scores—his first career multi-rushing touchdown performance.

From the defensive end of the ball, UCF struck late in the first quarter. Edge rusher Nyjalik Kelly recorded a strip-sack, and redshirt sophomore Rodney Lora capitalized, scooping up the loose ball in the end zone for his first career touchdown.

This first-quarter frenzy marked a rare trifecta of touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams. UCF last accomplished that in a full game on October 28, 2017, against Austin Peay. Doing it all within the first quarter? That hadn't happened since October 1, 2016, when Frost's first UCF squad pulled off a score in all three categories against East Carolina, although the defensive score was a safety.

From that moment on, the Knights never looked back. They held the Aggies scoreless until the final three minutes of regulation, when A&T finally broke through for its lone touchdown of the night.

As for Nixon, he cleared the smoke and made the night one for the history books, becoming the first player in UCF's FBS era to record both a kickoff return and a rushing touchdown in the same game—and just the fourth to combine a kickoff return score with any type of offensive touchdown.

His second of three touchdowns was an 87-yard sprint that tied for the third-longest run from scrimmage in program history, further cementing his breakout performance. In all, Nixon touched the ball five times on the night and registered three scores. He tallied 156 yards on the ground on four carries, while housing his lone kickoff return for 96 yards.

"What I did all week was go at it hard, just taking cuts and making hits that I haven't been really making as much as I used to. Coach Frost pushed me all week, and I feel like that's what really motivated me to go out here and play the game I did." - Jaden Nixon

UCF chalked up 560 yards on offense, averaging exactly a first down on each play, finishing the contest with 10 yards per offensive snap. The entire offense was humming throughout the night, as Jacurri Brown secured a pair of touchdowns of his own while Stacy Gage closed out UCF's tab for the night, earning his first career score on a 23-yard scamper.

In addition to the strip stack for a score, Jayden McDonald snagged an interception while Antione Jackson recovered a fumble, resulting in three takeaways, securing an all-around team victory.

UCF Improves to 3-0 with 34-9 Victory Over North Carolina

NORTH CAROLINA	0	3	6	0	-	9
UCF	10	10	7	7	-	34

Sep. 20, 2025 | Acrisure Bounce House | Orlando, Fla. | 3:30 p.m. ET | 44,206 | FOX

ORLANDO – In a game defined by control and execution, UCF's steady offense and disruptive defense turned a much-anticipated showdown into a 34-9 statement win over North Carolina Saturday at Acrisure Bounce House in front of a sellout crowd and nationally-televised audience on FOX.

The win moves UCF to 3-0 on the young season heading into their Big 12 opener next Saturday at Kansas State.

"I just have fun coaching here. There's pressure like anywhere else, but it's not the same. It allows me to be better because I can be free to care about the athletes and try to put them in the best position to be successful." - Scott Frost, UCF Football Head Coach

Quarterback Tayven Jackson delivered a stellar performance, setting two personal bests. The redshirt junior steadied the offense while completing an efficient 25 of 32 passes for 223 yards. His 25 completions marked a new career high while also leading the team in rushing with a career-high 66 yards on the ground.

The Knights wasted no time setting the tone, continuing their trend of opening-drive excellence. Jackson orchestrated a 13-play, 75-yard march, accounting for 67 yards himself and finishing it off with a 13-yard rushing touchdown. It marked the second straight game the Black and Gold reached the end zone on their first possession.

On UNC's opening drive, defensive tackle Horace Lockett swatted a pass from quarterback Gio Lopez at the line of scrimmage, and the deflection hung in the air just long enough for senior edge rusher Nyjalik Kelly to snag it one-handed, giving the Knights an early takeaway that led to a field goal. UCF's defense has now held opponents scoreless on their opening possession in all three games this season.

"The play was caught, Horace Lockett was great with the pressure, slapped it and it just landed in my hands. I knew I had to catch it for a big play to get the offense back on the field to possibly get points." - Nyjalik Kelly, EDGE

The interception marked Kelly's first career pick and set up kicker Noe Ruelas, who converted a 36-yard field goal to match his season long. Minutes later, he topped that with a 41-yarder, pushing the Knights' lead to 13-0.

The defense remained dominant in the opening half, keeping the Tar Heels out of UCF territory until just 7:30 remained in the second quarter. When UNC finally threatened, advancing to the Knights' 12-yard line, the secondary held firm. Defensive back Braeden Marshall intercepted a tipped pass by Jayden Bellamy, his first of the season, to deny the Tar Heels again.

UCF capitalized quickly. Just over a minute later, Jackson, who hit nine different receivers on the night, connected with sophomore Kylan Fox for a 17-yard touchdown — the first of Fox's collegiate career. The 83-yard drive, aided by timely Tar Heel penalties, capped a 1:04 burst and sent the Knights into halftime with a commanding 20-3 lead.

And the Knights stayed sharp after the break. Running back Myles Montgomery powered in his first touchdown of the season from close range, stretching the margin to 27-3.

The defense held strong well into the second half, maintaining its streak of not allowing a first-half touchdown this season. North Carolina finally broke through with 1:06 left in the third quarter, their lone touchdown on the afternoon.

UCF answered one last time by closing the game with its most impressive possession of the year when Jaden Nixon capped an 18-play, 93-yard drive — the Knights' longest of the season — with a touchdown that consumed 10 minutes and 26 seconds, sealing the 34-9 victory.

The win marks the third straight season UCF has opened 3-0 under Head Coach Scott Frost. The victory also extends Frost's winning streak at UCF to 16 consecutive games, a run that ranks among the longest active streaks in college football.

Knight Nation, donning their black and gold, packed the stands to support the Hometown Team as tonight's attendance marked a sellout crowd of 44,206. The last sellout was last season's match up against Colorado with an attendance of 45,702.

UCF Football Falls at Kansas State in Big 12 Opener

UCF	0	7	10	3	-	20
KANSAS STATE	0	17	14	3	-	34

Sep. 27, 2025 | Bill Snyder Family Stadium | Manhattan, Kan. | Noon ET/11 a.m. CT | 53,013 | FS1

MANHATTAN, Kan. - UCF football dropped its first conference game of the season after losing to Kansas State, 34-20, at Bill Snyder Family Stadium Saturday afternoon.

Entering the game as one of the nation's top pass defenses, UCF (3-1, 0-1 Big 12) tallied 402 yards of total offense but had three turnovers and six penalties, which proved to be the difference. Kansas State (2-3, 1-1) compiled 434 yards with 168 through the air and 266 on the ground, while going four-for-four on red zone attempts.

"I don't think this team will ever give up... You've got to go through some success and some hard stuff to come together as a group. And there's no doubt now that this team has been through some tough things, but I think because of that, we can only get better." - Head Coach Scott Frost

UCF's defense came out strong with Demari Henderson intercepting a Kansas State pass on the opening drive, marking his fourth career interception and first since the 2023 Gasparilla Bowl against Georgia Tech. Henderson's snag marked the Knights' first interception on an opponent's opening possession since former Knight, Deshawn Pace, picked off Shedeur Sanders on the third play of the game against Colorado on September 28, 2024.

The stop was part of a continued first-quarter trend, as UCF has now held opponents to just 210 total yards and zero points across all four opening quarters this season. The Wildcats wouldn't be deterred that easily, though, as running back Joe Jackson would find the end zone late in the second quarter to take the first touchdown off UCF's defense in a first half this season.

With Tayven Jackson going down early in the second quarter, Jacurri Brown entered at quarterback for the Black and Gold. Despite throwing an interception on his first pass of the game, Brown would shift offensive momentum back around quickly, connecting with DJ Black for an impressive 82-yard touchdown to put the Knights on the board.

The play marked career-longs for both players (pass and reception) and was good enough to take the spot of the eighth-longest reception in program history. It was also the first 75+ yard touchdown catch by a Knight since November 11, 2023, and the longest scoring grab for the program since Javon Baker's touchdown against Oklahoma State on October 21, 2023. K-State managed to sneak in one more touchdown with under a minute remaining in the first half, extending their lead to 17–7 at the break.

The Wildcats maintained control coming out of the locker room, despite Noe Ruelas jumpstarting the Knights' second-half scoring with a field goal. The 53-yard field goal, just a yard short of his career-long set during his freshman year, marks the longest for a Knight since Colton Boomer's 55-yarder on Sept. 9, 2023, and ties for the third longest in program history.

Although the Wildcats stretched their lead to as much as three touchdowns, the Black and Gold continued to push back. With Jackson reentering the game for the Knights, the offense found some strength as Jaden Nixon ran 54 yards to close out the third with a touchdown. The play marked Nixon's third 50-plus yard run of the season, with all three of them culminating in touchdowns.

Myles Montgomery was a highlight in the Black and Gold's offensive performance of the day as well, tallying 119 rushing yards, his first 100-plus yard rushing game as a Knight. His 45-yard drive to open the second half also marks a UCF career best for the senior.

While defensive efforts got the Knights the ball back for multiple fourth-quarter possessions, the Wildcats were able to fend off the late surge and claim victory after an interception with just over two minutes left on the clock.

UCF Football Comes Up Short Against Kansas, 27-20

KANSAS	0	14	13	0	-	27
UCF	7	13	0	0	-	20

Oct. 4, 2025 | Acrisure Bounce House | Orlando, Fla. | 7:30 p.m. ET | 43,229 | ESPN2

ORLANDO - Despite outgaining, outrushing and outpassing the Kansas Jayhawks (4-2, 2-1 Big 12) in the first half, the UCF Knights (3-2, 0-2) were ultimately overtaken by a second-half surge, falling 27–20 in their first Big 12 home matchup Saturday night at Acrisure Bounce House.

Although the Knights outgained the Jayhawks 375 to 356 yards and racked up nearly 200 rushing yards, six costly penalties, including three in the final quarter, proved to be their Achilles' heel as Kansas capitalized on every opportunity, going a perfect 4-for-4 in the red zone.

"This team is good enough to win some of these games, and we just have to be much better in all phases, and more consistent" - Head Coach Scott Frost

A familiar UCF defense took the field first, with Cole Kozlowski tallying his first sack of the fall on the game's opening drive. Once again, the Knights kept their foe scoreless in the first quarter of play despite Kansas entering the game as one of the top first-quarter offenses in FBS, tallying 63 points across this season's first quarters. The Knights are one of only three teams to boast this stat, making them one of the top quarter-one defenses in the FBS.

UCF struck first midway through the opening quarter, as Myles Montgomery found a seam up the middle and sprinted into the end zone for a 29-yard touchdown. Montgomery kept the momentum rolling early in the second quarter, finding the end zone again at the top of the second quarter to bring his touchdown tally to two on the night and give the Black and Gold an early 14-0 lead.

Montgomery, fresh off a career-high 119 rushing yards in last week's battle against Kansas State, picked up right where he left off, powering his way to 110 yards on the ground and blowing by the 100-yard mark once again. The performance sealed a career milestone for the senior: back-to-back 100+ yard rushing games for the first time in his collegiate tenure.

The Jayhawks looked to gain ground on the Knights midway through the second, capping a nine-play, 75-yard drive to get on the board. Coming out of the two-minute timeout, Kansas kept the momentum alive, punching it in from four yards out to pull within striking distance at 17-14. Just before the break, Noe Ruelas delivered a timely 38-yard field goal, giving the Knights a six-point cushion heading into halftime.

Struggling to find rhythm coming out of the break, the Knights allowed back-to-back scoring drives from the Jayhawks, both resulting in field goals that tied the game at 20 with just four minutes remaining in the third quarter. Moments later, a costly fumble by Tayven Jackson on UCF's own seven-yard line handed Kansas the opportunity they needed to seize control late in the third, 27-20.

Stepping in at quarterback late in the third quarter, Cam Fancher delivered the spark the Knights needed, opening the final period with back-to-back first downs to ignite the offense. However, consecutive penalties stalled the drive, forcing UCF to give up possession once again. Fancher would not be deterred long, though, launching a deep 18-yard strike down the left side to Waden Charles for a crucial first down late in the fourth.

"The motto is when you get the ball, you do something with it. That's my game, when I get the ball, I'm going to get the yards. And when other receivers get their chance, they do as well." - Duane Thomas Jr.

The drive pushed the Knights all the way to the one-yard line, setting the stage for a potential game-tying score. But in a heartbreaking finish, the Black and Gold came up just short, allowing Kansas to escape with a 27-20 victory.

UCF Football Drops Road Tilt at Cincinnati, 20-11

UCF	0	3	0	8	-	11
CINCINNATI	7	10	0	3	-	20

Oct. 11, 2025 | Nippert Stadium | Cincinnati, Ohio | Noon | 35,782 | FS1

CINCINNATI, Ohio – Redshirt senior quarterback Cam Fancher impressed in his squad's rushing efforts, but the UCF football team was bested by the Cincinnati Bearcats, 20-11, at Nippert Stadium Saturday.

Fancher, making his first start since the Knights' 2025 season debut against Jacksonville State Aug. 28, spearheaded the Black and Gold's attack on the ground, producing a game-high 108 rushing yards and his team's lone touchdown on 20 tries.

The quarterback on three occasions picked up at least 10 yards on an attempt and recorded the highest single-game rushing output by a UCF signal-caller this fall, besting Jacurri Brown's 106 ground yards against N.C. A&T Sept. 6. His 108 yards marked his highest single-game rushing total since he also accrued 108 with Florida Atlantic against UTSA Oct. 19, 2024.

Penalties stalled the Knights' progress throughout the afternoon, though, as the team was flagged 10 times for 75 total yards in the contest and mustered only a Noe Ruelas field goal through the first three quarters.

Despite UCF's offensive struggles, defensive coordinator Alex Grinch's unit produced another encouraging display, limiting Cincinnati to just 115 total rushing yards, well below its season average of 205.2 per game. None of the Bearcats' three rushers eclipsed 50 yards on the afternoon.

Cincinnati's 20 points also represented a departure from the norm for the second highest-scoring offense in the Big 12 (39.2 per game) thus far, as it was limited to 20 or fewer points for just the second time in its first six games this season.

Senior Phillip Dunnam led the way defensively with a team-high seven tackles and was joined by Nyjalik Kelly and Lewis Carter, both of whom recorded six to help hold the Bearcats to their second fewest total yards in a game this season (306).

UCF finally found its way into the end zone on its penultimate drive of the day, a 19-play, 90-yard march that was highlighted by a 4th and 12 conversion via a tipped pass from Fancher that was ultimately caught by junior tight end Dylan Wade, after Fancher narrowly escaped a would-be drive-ending sack.

After a defensive pass interference flag in the red zone on another 4th down attempt once again extended UCF's drive, Fancher scored his first UCF touchdown with a three-yard scamper into the end zone. A subsequent pass attempt to Chris Domercant on the two-point try was completed to punctuate the Black and Gold's offensive exploits.

Football Earns First Big 12 Win of 2025 Over West Virginia, 45-13

WEST VIRGINIA	0	7	0	6	-	13
UCF	14	0	21	10	-	45

Oct. 18, 2025 | Acrisure Bounce House | Orlando, Fla. | 1 p.m. | 43,445 | TNT

ORLANDO - Powered by dominance on both sides of the ball, UCF cruised past West Virginia 45-13 Saturday afternoon at Acrisure Bounce House, securing its first Big 12 victory of the season and the program's first win over the Mountaineers.

After leading by only seven at the half, UCF took command with three touchdowns in the third quarter, two on offense and one by the defense, who forced two turnovers on the day.

Tayven Jackson earned the start at quarterback for the Knights, completing 23 of 34 passes for 277 yards and two touchdowns while connecting with 10 different receivers. In total, the Knights racked up 578 yards of total offense, while recording nine passing plays of at least 15 yards, and six rushes of at least 10 yards.

The Knights wasted no time setting the tone. On the opening drive, Jackson connected with redshirt senior Chris Domercant for a 40-yard touchdown on fourth down, marking the Black and Gold's fourth opening-drive score of the season. The play capped a 97-yard march, UCF's longest scoring drive of the year.

Jackson and Domercant struck again later in the first quarter, hauling in a 34-yard touchdown pass from Jackson, again on fourth down. It marked Domercant's fourth career multi-touchdown game and his first at the FBS level, with both scores coming on fourth-down conversions. With the explosive start, Domercant became the first UCF receiver to record two touchdowns in a single quarter since Ryan O'Keefe did so against Temple on October 13, 2022.

West Virginia responded with a six-yard rushing touchdown in the first minute of the second quarter, trimming the lead to 14–7. The Mountaineers attempted to narrow the gap with a 44-yard field goal to end the half, but the kick was no good.

"I think we just talked about how well we played... we have to be able to line up, run the ball and get a yard, and that's something we'll certainly continue to look at over the bye week. Other than the short yardage, you're not going to hit on everything, but we executed at a higher rate today than we have and made some big plays, and that's the ingredient that's been missing." - Head Coach Scott Frost on halftime conversations

Running back Jaden Nixon added to the offensive efforts in the third quarter, punching in his fifth rushing touchdown of the season from 12 yards out. Minutes later, he broke free for an electrifying 83-yard score, finishing the day with 116 rushing yards on just seven carries.

Nixon's performance marked his 20th career rushing touchdown and sixth as a Knight. It was also the fourth time this season he's recorded a rush of at least 50 yards, with each resulting in a touchdown.

UCF's defense continued to shine, building on a growing reputation for clutch plays. With the Knights leading 21-7 in the third quarter, linebacker Keli Lawson scooped up a fumble forced by Nyjalik Kelly and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown, serving as Lawson's second career score and first since 2022. The forced fumble was the fifth of Kelly's career and his second this season.

The Knights held West Virginia to just 210 total yards, forced two fumbles and racked up seven sacks. The high volume of sacks marks the most in a game in almost two decades in a win in similar fashion at 47–13 over Marshall on November 3, 2007. Linebacker Cole Kozlowski led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a sack, while Kelly added eight tackles and another sack.

"I know we were counted out early but we still have a lot of year left, a lot of the season left. We are still in the process of showing the world what we have to offer, but I hope this was a step in the right direction." - Keli Lawson

In the fourth quarter, kicker Noe Ruelas drilled a 51-yard field goal, marking his fifth career successful kick from 50+ yards. Freshman quarterback Davi Belfort capped the scoring with a 10-yard touchdown run late in the game, the first of his collegiate career.

West Virginia added a late touchdown from Diore Hubbard with under two minutes remaining.

With today's win, the Knights earned their first win in October since 2022 as well as their first homecoming win since 2023.

Football Falls to Baylor on the Road, 30-3

UCF	0	3	0	0	-	3
BAYLOR	14	6	3	7	-	30

Nov. 1, 2025 | McLane Stadium | Waco, Texas | Noon ET/11 a.m. CT | 40,212 | ESPNU

WACO, Texas – The Knights were unable to overcome a fast start from Baylor and costly penalties, falling 30-3 to the Bears on the road Saturday afternoon at McLane Stadium.

Eight recievers got a piece of the ball including wide receiver Duane Thomas Jr., who led the team with 77 receiving yards on eight receptions. Tight end Dylan Wade added 34 yards of his own, while running back Myles Montgomery led the rushers with 50 yards and followed Wade and Thomas with 23 yards from catches.

UCF's lone score came at the end of the first half, when kicker Noe Ruelas drilled a 45-yard field goal after a crucial defensive play, marking his 11th straight. EDGE Malachi Lawrence recorded a strip sack of Baylor quarterback Sawyer Robertson, which was recovered by Derrick LeBlanc and returned 13 yards to set up the scoring opportunity.

Lawrence was a standout on the day, recording two sacks, three tackles for loss and multiple quarterback pressures. Lawrence entered the contest 13th in the nation among active sack leaders and slotted in second in the Big 12. Today's game marked the second consecutive with Lawrence recorded two sacks.

Baylor opened the game with an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive, capped by a 13-yard strike from Robertson to tight end Michael Trigg. The touchdown marked the first opponent score on the opening drive that the Black and Gold have allowed all season. After a short opening drive from the Knights, the Bears added another score on their next possession, this time finishing an 8-play drive with a short touchdown pass to Josh Cameron to take a 14-0 lead.

UCF responded with its most promising drive of the first half, highlighted by a 14-yard pass to Montgomery and a 17-yard run from the back himself. The Knights advanced to Baylor's 13-yard line but came up short on a fourth-down pass attempt, turning the ball over on downs.

The second quarter saw the Bears extend their lead with a 40-yard field goal and another scoring drive that ended in a 28-yard kick, pushing the margin to 20-0. UCF's defense held strong on several possessions throughout the half, including a red zone stand that forced a missed field goal and a turnover on downs. Ruelas' field goal brought the score to 20-3 entering halftime.

In the second half, UCF opened with a drive that reached Baylor territory thanks to a pass interference call and a series of short gains from Montgomery. However, the drive stalled leading to a 53-yard field goal attempt by Ruelas that ultimately came up short. Baylor responded with a 13-play, 42-yard drive that ended in a 41-yard field goal, extending their lead to 23-3. With an additional field goal and one final receiving touchdown, the Bears claimed the win, 30-3.

Football Falls to Houston, 30-27, in Space Game Heartbreaker

HOUSTON	0	17	7	6	-	30
UCF	3	21	3	0	-	27

Nov. 7, 2025 | Acrisure Bounce House | Orlando, Fla. | 8 p.m. | 44,206 | FS1

ORLANDO – In a mission that just fell short Friday night in Acrisure Bounce House, the UCF Citronauts were bested by the Houston Cougars in a 30-27 heartbreaker.

"We've got to complete more balls when we take a chance to throw. We've got to get open a little better, throw it a little better. You can't just come up with a bunch of gimmicks and tricks to move the ball. We just need to do the basic things better. " - UCF Head Coach Scott Frost on how the team needs to improve

Despite being outgained 433–282 in total offensive yards, the Citronauts' defense forced four turnovers and registered six sacks, keeping the contest a back-and-forth fight from start to finish.

Noe Ruelas put the 'Nauts on the board first with a 37-yard field goal, while UCF's defense continued its early dominance, holding Houston scoreless in the opening quarter. It marked the seventh first-quarter shutout of the season for the Citronauts, who entered the night ranked 16th nationally in fewest points allowed in the opening frame.

Early in the second quarter, senior running back Myles Montgomery extended the lead with a one-yard touchdown rush up the middle, recording his fourth score of the season and the 11th of his career. Houston quickly turned the momentum, though, first executing on a four-play, 75-yard touchdown drive, then capitalizing on defense with an interception returned for a score to seize a 14-10 advantage.

Undeterred by the momentum swing, UCF responded immediately with a 10-play, 75-yard drive capped by a 15-yard touchdown run from Jaden Nixon, his seventh of the season and 21st of his career. The drive was the Citronauts' 13th scoring drive of 75 yards or more this year, giving them a 17-14 edge

On the defensive side, senior defensive back Phillip Dunnam delivered a performance for the record books. He intercepted two passes in the first quarter alone, marking his first career multi-pick game and the first by a UCF player since Demari Henderson's two interceptions in the 2023 Space Game against then-No. 15 Oklahoma State.

The latter of those interceptions, Dunnam returned 43 yards for his first career touchdown, also the Citronauts' first pick-six since BJ Adams' 63-yard score against Iowa State Oct. 19, 2024. Dunnam's defensive efforts gave the 'Nauts a seven-point edge at the half, 24-17.

Although Houston tied the game at 24 midway through the third quarter, Dunnam's defensive presence kept the Citronauts firmly in the fight – and made program history.

Late in the third stanza, Dunnam snagged his third interception of the game, becoming the first player in program history to record three in a single contest. Since 1996, only 12 players in Big 12 history had achieved the feat, while Dunnam became the 13th. Houston quarterback Conner Weigman had thrown just four interceptions all season entering the matchup, but left the game giving up nearly that many to Dunnam alone. In total, the Citronauts' defense forced four turnovers, their most since Mission VII against then-No. 15 Oklahoma State Nov. 11, 2023.

Ruelas capitalized on the defensive momentum with a 54-yard field goal, matching his career long and putting UCF ahead 27-24. The Connecticut native also became the first player in program history to hit three or more field goals from 50-plus yards in a single season.

Houston responded with a pair of field goals of their own, one to tie the game at 27, and another from 22 yards to take a 30-27 lead late in the fourth.

A post-kick unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Cougars gave UCF a boost for one final drive, but the Citronauts' comeback bid fell short when a late interception with just 11 seconds remaining sealed a 30-27 Houston victory.

Football Bested at No. 6 Texas Tech, 48-9

UCF	0	2	7	0	-	9
#6 TEXAS TECH	14	24	10	0	-	48

Nov. 15, 2025 | Jones AT&T Stadium | Lubbock, Texas | 3:30 p.m. ET/2:30 p.m. CT | 60,229 | FOX

LUBBOCK, Texas - Against sixth-ranked Texas Tech at Jones A&T Stadium, UCF football was handed a 48-9 defeat, as the top-10 Red Raiders controlled the contest from the opening snap.

Ground dominance from Texas Tech (10-1, 7-1) highlighted the differences, as the Black and Gold (4-6, 1-6) will now return to Orlando with the hopes of staying in bowl contention as it welcomes Oklahoma State for Senior Night.

The Knights' defense, which entered the Saturday tilt ranked 12th in the nation for passing defense, was swiftly dealt an early blow after the Red Raiders connected on a pair of 17 and 40-yard passes before Cameron Dicky opened the scoring with a 12-yard rush.

Spanning just four plays and 63 seconds, the hosts drove 75 yards, marking just the second time this season the Black and Gold have allowed an opening-drive touchdown (at Baylor, Nov. 1).

Texas Tech forced a three-and-out to get the ball straight back before promptly doubling its advantage on a six-play, 58-yard touchdown drive that continued UCF's early woes. With two early scores, a first for any opponent against the Knights this season, the offense couldn't respond as it was forced into two more three-and-outs before the quarter's end.

Mustering just four yards in the opening 15 minutes, the deficit grew once again out of the break, as a third different Red Raider secured a rushing touchdown to push the hosts' lead to 21-0.

UCF finally got on the board in unconventional fashion, forcing Texas Tech back within its own 10-yard line before Howard Sampson was flagged on a holding call, which occurred in the endzone, resulting in a safety and two points for the Knights. The safety was the first forced by the Black and Gold since last season's opener against New Hampshire, with a blocked punt in the second quarter accounting for two of UCF's eventual 58 points.

Hopeful for a spark after the good fortune, the Red Raiders nixed any momentum gained with their fourth rushing touchdown of the half on Reggie Virgil's second score, this time on a 30-yard rush. The last time the Knights allowed four touchdowns on the ground in a single half came over two years ago in a defeat at Kansas, as the Jayhawks ran for four scores in the second half.

On the subsequent drive, Heisman hopeful and the nation's leader in takeaways, Jacob Rodriguez, tallied his fourth interception of the season, leading to a Texas Tech touchdown through the air. Before halftime, the hosts added a field goal to grow their advantage to 38-2, marking the most points the Knights have allowed in a half since SMU matched the total in the opening 30 minutes on Nov. 13, 2021.

Commencing action in the second half, the Black and Gold pieced together their strongest drive of the game, navigating 75 yards before Tayven Jackson and Dylan Wade connected for an eight-yard touchdown on the eighth play. Wade split the defense before stretching out for the nice catch, reeling in his second touchdown as a Knight, while Jackson tallied his sixth score through the air.

Ten more points from Texas Tech and a scoreless fourth quarter put a conclusion on what was a difficult day for UCF in its 47th all-time contest against a top-25 opponent.

Football Rallies Back To Claim Senior Knight Victory Over Oklahoma State, 17-14

OKLAHOMA STATE	7	7	0	0	-	14
UCF	0	0	7	10	-	17

Nov. 15, 2025 | Jones AT&T Stadium | Lubbock, Texas | 3:30 p.m. ET/2:30 p.m. CT | 60,229 | FOX

ORLANDO – After being held scoreless for the entirety of the first half, the Knights flipped the script, rallying back to secure a 17-14 Senior Knight victory over Oklahoma State on Saturday night at Acrisure Bounce House.

The Knights celebrated 25 seniors ahead of the contest. Five of the six captains were seniors, as Paul Rubelt, Myles Montgomery, Jaden Nixon, Malachi Lawerence and Nyjalik Kelly represented the Knights' senior class for the coin toss. Junior RJ Jackson Jr. joined them as well. Rubelt and Lawrence, playing in their final game at Acrisure Bounce House, spent their entire collegiate careers in the Black and Gold, with Rubelt's first season coming in 2020 and Lawrence in 2021.

UCF's offense was fueled by a career-best performance from Dylan Wade, who hauled in 145 receiving yards, outgaining the Cowboys' entire passing attack by more than 20 yards on his own.

"He got a game ball tonight. That's two games at home where we needed a spark, and we were on fumes, and he made a huge play for us. He made two tonight. He's a big part of this. He's become one of our best weapons, and he can keep improving, and he knows that. But the plays he made out there gave us seven and set us up for the winning one, and that was a key part. Kind of guy you want to build a program with." - Coach Frost on Wade

Oklahoma State drove the length of the field on the opening drive of the contest, finishing the 75-yard march with a five-yard pass to take a quick 7-0 lead. It was just the third time an opposing team had scored on the first drive of the season against the Knights.

The Cowboys found paydirt again near the end of the first half, capping a 77-yard drive with a six-yard scamper by quarterback Zane Flores, putting his squad up, 14-0.

UCF responded with a strike fresh out of the halftime locker room. Tayven Jackson connected with Dylan Wade on a fade for an 83-yard pass on the first offensive play of the half. The play was the longest of Jackson and Wade's careers, and the reception tied the sixth-longest in program history. It was the fifth time this season UCF opened the second half with a score.

Jackson once again found Wade in a clutch moment, connecting on fourth down to cap an eight-play, 45-yard drive that brought the game even. Wade's second touchdown of the day not only leveled the game but also marked the first multi-touchdown performance of his career.

With less than a minute remaining, kicker Noe Ruelas closed his Senior Knight in fitting fashion, drilling a field goal to push the Knights ahead to earn his first ever game-winner. Moments later, Braeden Marshall sealed the 17-14 victory by intercepting Oklahoma State's final pass of the day.

The Knights hit their stride in the second half, completely taking control and shutting out the Cowboys the rest of the way to seal the victory. The defensive unit dominated down the stretch, limiting the Cowboys to just 27 total yards to close out the game.

"At the end of that game, I had confidence in two things. One was our kicker, because he's done an unbelievable job all year, and the other was our defense, the way they played the entire second half. We didn't get aggressive in that situation, and our defense won it for us." - Coach Frost

With today's result, Head Coach Scott Frost notched the 40th win of his career, while the squad gave UCF more wins than they earned last season.

Electric Start Can't Propel Football Past #11 BYU, Falling 41-21

UCF	14	0	7	0	-	21
#11 BYU	0	17	21	3	-	41

Nov. 29, 2025 | LaVell Edwards Stadium | Provo, Utah | 2:30 p.m. ET/11:00 a.m. MT | 60,389 | ESPN2

PROVO, Utah – An electric start from the UCF football team wasn't enough to fend off No. 11 BYU in the 2025 regular season finale, falling 41-21 on the road.

Year one of the second stint of the Scott Frost era had plenty of brilliant moments throughout the campaign, and the Black and Gold nearly added another in the 12th and final game of the season. The Knights got out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, looking sharp in doing so, in search of the program's first win over a ranked opponent on the road since 2022.

UCF started on offense and converted an early 3rd and 4 as Tayven Jackson found Waden Charles for a quick 16-yard gain near midfield. Once again behind the chains on third down, Jackson was able to escape a collapsing pocket and find Duane Thomas Jr. The junior wide receiver scampered to the endzone, but a holding call brought the ball back out to the BYU 20. Unphased, UCF scored four plays later, as Dylan Wade was on the receiving end of his fifth touchdown of the season, setting UCF's FBS single season receiving touchdowns record for a tight end.

The opening drive touchdown was the first since UCF opened the scoring against West Virginia on Oct. 18 in the eventual 45-13 win. The Knights' confidence carried over to the defensive side of the ball in the opening frame, as Lewis Carter forced a fumble on BYU's first play, forcing the Cougars to fall on it, but 10 yards behind the original line of scrimmage. The Black and Gold stood tall the next two plays, forcing a three-and-out to start their next drive from near midfield after a 21-yard return by Antione Jackson.

UCF needed just seven plays to take a 14-0 lead as Jackson found walk-on Agyeman Addae at the five-yard line before taking it to the house for his first career touchdown.

BYU's second drive of the contest resulted in points, going 65 yards in nine plays. Looking to strike back in a hurry, UCF dialed up a trick play to try and reignite the offensive spark, but the Cougars snagged an interception on the play, taking over at the 29-yard line. UCF's defense bent but did not break. A Keli Lawson sack set BYU behind the chains and eventually forced a field goal attempt that pushed wide left, keeping the score 14-7.

After a UCF punt, BYU leveled the scoring at 14 with a direct snap to running back RJ Martin to cap a seven play, 54-yard touchdown drive.

Once again, UCF's defense stood tall with its backs against the wall, as BYU drove 72 yards in 1:51, but came away with just a field goal, taking a 17-14 lead with nine seconds to play in the first half.

BYU got the ball to start the final stanza of the regular season, and again RJ Martin ran in for the touchdown on a direct snap, his third of the game, putting the Cougars on top 24-14 with 8:54 to play in the third quarter. A UCF three-and-out immediately turned into BYU points as they returned the ensuing punt 55 yards for a touchdown, taking a 31-14 edge.

UCF got points back on the following drive, capping it with a successful trick play that saw Addae take a handoff from Jackson, who in turn ran a quick wheel route into the endzone for the touchdown. The Columbus High School product not only recorded the first rushing touchdown of his career but posted his first passing touchdown to add to his banner day.

BYU responded on the following drive with a 46-yard strike on 4th and 3, retaking a 17-point lead at 38-21. The Cougars later added a fourth quarter field goal to finish the day's scoring at 41-21.

UCF's season comes to a close adding an additional victory compared to last season's record. The Knights earned victories over a Bill Belichick-led North Carolina squad, North Carolina A&T and Jacksonville State to earn a perfect trip through the non-conference slate. Conference wins over West Virginia and Oklahoma State added to the tally, and the Knights were a few plays away from picking up another couple of victories. Year one of the second Frost stint offered a glimpse into what's to come, going toe-to-toe with those in the Big 12 Conference.

The 2026 season includes five conference home games, hosting Arizona State, Baylor, BYU, Iowa State and TCU. Bethune-Cookman and Georgia State visit Orlando in the non-conference slate, which also includes UCF visiting Pitt. The Knights will visit Colorado, Houston, Kansas and Oklahoma State to complete the 12-game schedule.

The first step into preparing for that 2026 season comes on Wednesday, as UCF can announce its incoming freshman class as part of the early signing period, running Dec. 3-5.

1979

During his inaugural address, UCF President Trevor Colbourn announces that the school will "explore the possibility of developing a football program." Later, Colbourn and director of athletics Jack O'Leary approve a decision to form a football team to begin play in the fall of 1979 as an NCAA Division III program. Former professional football player Don Jonas becomes the school's first coach on a volunteer basis. On Aug. 28, 148 prospective players participate in the program's first practice. Less than one month later on Sept. 22, UCF travels to St. Leo for its first game and wins 21-0. Bobby Joe Plain scores the school's first touchdown on a 13-yard pass reception from Mike Cullison in the first quarter. The following week, UCF plays its first home contest at the Tangerine Bowl and posts a 7-6 victory over Fort Benning in front of 14,188 fans.

1980

After the UCF Athletic Authority votes in January to make the football head coaching job a full-time position, Don Jonas is selected for the role. The Knights win four games during the campaign and in an 18-14 victory over Emory and Henry, Michael O'Shaughnessy tallies a school-record five sacks. Following the season, cornerback Tim Kiggins earns third-team All-America honors and becomes the first UCF player to sign a professional contract when he joins the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

1981

UCF begins a local rivalry, meeting Bethune-Cookman in the first Mayor's Trophy game. The Wildcats escape with a 24-20 win. Kicker Scott Ryerson is a third-team All-America selection, while center Dan Burke and linebackers Eddie James and Bill Giovanetti earn honorable mention status. Following the season, head coach Don Jonas resigns to become director of the UCF Gridiron Club.

1982

Following Don Jonas' resignation, associate head coach Sam Weir is named the program's interim head coach. New athletics director Bill Peterson announces that UCF will compete as a Division II program during the year. With the move to D-II, the school begins awarding athletics scholarships. Following the season, four Knights sign professional contracts: tight end Mike Carter with the National Football League's Denver Broncos and defensive end Ed Gantner, linebacker Bill Giovanetti and offensive lineman Mike Sommerfield with the Tampa Bay Bandits of the United States Football League. Following the season, New York Yankees president and former Buffalo Bills head coach Lou Saban is named UCF's head coach.

Quarterback Daunte Culpepper earns preseason All-America honors from several outlets, including Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News. UCF makes its first national television appearance when ESPN televises its game at Purdue. The Knights finish the campaign 9-2. Culpepper breaks Steve Young's 1983 single-season completion percentage record of 71.3 by completing 73.6 percent of his passes. He becomes only the third player in school history to pass for more than 10,000 yards and rush for more than 1,000 yards in a career. Culpepper concludes the year with more than 30 school records to his credit. The signal caller finishes sixth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy and is named national co-player of the year by The Sports Network. Culpepper becomes UCF's first National Football League first-round draft pick as the Minnesota Vikings select him 11th overall. 2003

UCF's football program moves into its new home as the state-of-the-art Wayne Densch Sports Center opens just 16 months after construction began. The school accepts an invitation into Conference USA for all sports. The Knights will end their brief football affiliation with the Mid-American Conference after 2004. The year serves as the 25th season of UCF football. After a 3-7 start, head coach Mike Kruczek is relieved of his duties and longtime assistant Alan Gooch is promoted to interim head coach for the final two games. Gooch makes his coaching debut when the Knights play Marshall on ESPN2 in Orlando. The contest serves as UCF's first nationally-televised home game. Following the season, George O'Leary is selected as UCF's new head coach. Tight end Michael Gaines is taken in the seventh round of the National Football League Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

The Knights win their inaugural Conference USA contest, recording a 23-13 win over visiting Marshall. The victory snaps a 17-game losing streak for the Knights. The team goes on to win eight contests, including seven in league play, during the regular season. UCF hosts the inaugural C-USA Championship Game, which is played in front of a school-record 51,978 fans at the Citrus Bowl. Despite falling to Tulsa in the title game, UCF earns an invitation to the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, marking the first bowl game in program history. The Knights post one of the top turnarounds in college football history, going 8-5 after an 0-11 campaign in 2004. Head coach George O'Leary is named the C-USA Coach of the Year, in addition to garnering national coach of the year honors from CBSsports.com and Sportsllustrated.com. Tailback Kevin Smith garners the C-USA Freshman of the Year award. Wideout Brandon Marshall is selected in the fourth round of the National Football League Draft by the Denver Broncos. During the year, the UCF Board of Trustees approves a financing plan for an on-campus stadium that will open in 2007.

The Knights play on campus for the first time, hosting No. 6 Texas in the inaugural game at Bright House Networks Stadium in front of 45,622 fans. The Knights complete the regular season with six-straight wins en route to defeating Tulsa in the C-USA Championship Game, earning a spot in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. During the campaign, tailback Kevin Smith posts one of the finest seasons in NCAA history. He rushes for 2,567 yards, which ranks second all-time behind only Barry Sanders. Smith is the C-USA Co-Player of the Year and becomes the first player in UCF history to earn consensus All-America honors. Head coach George O'Leary is named the C-USA Coach of the Year and DL Keith Shologan is named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America First Team. The Detroit Lions take Smith in the third round of the NFL Draft, while OL Josh Sitton (Green Bay Packers, fourth round) and TE Mike Merritt (Kansas City Chiefs, seventh round) are also selected. Shologan is picked by the Saskatchewan Roughriders with the fourth overall selection in the CFL Draft.

UCF's trophy case fills up due to the Knights having one of their most successful seasons in school history. The Black and Gold wins the Conference USA Championship while Bruce Miller is the C-USA Defensive Player of the Year, Jeff Godfrey earns the C-USA Freshman of the Year award and George O'Leary picks up another C-USA Coach of the Year honor. The season culminates in a 10-6 win over Georgia in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, UCF's first bowl game victory. During the season, the Knights receive their first national ranking, placing No. 23 in the USA Today Top 25 and No. 25 in the Associated Press Poll Nov. 7. UCF eventually finishes No. 20 and No. 21, respectively. On NFL Draft day, Jah Reid is selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the third round, and Miller hears his name called in the seventh round by the San Francisco 49ers.

With a 5-1 record at home, UCF closes out 2011 with a 5-7 overall mark while going 3-5 in Conference USA. Of its seven losses, six come by seven points or less. The Knights have six selections to the C-USA All-Freshman Team, the most by any school since 2008. That is highlighted by kick returner Rannell Hall who is the lone freshman in the entire league to grab a spot on the All-C-USA First Team. After the season, Josh Robinson is taken by Minnesota in the NFL Draft's third round, and the Knights accept an invitation to join the BIG EAST Conference (American Athletic Conference created in 2013) Dec. 7 and conduct an official press conference one day later at Bright House Networks Stadium. UCF is slated to begin play in the league during the 2013-14 academic year.

UCF introduces itself to the American Athletic Conference by going undefeated (8-0) in league play to claim the conference's inaugural title. Earning a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, the Knights ignore their role as the underdog and topple Baylor to finish 12-1 on the season, one in which included seven victories by seven points or less. The "Year of Firsts" was highlighted by: first wins over Big Ten and Big 12 teams, first top-15 ranking, first top-10 ranking (finished No. 10 in the AP Poll), first BCS bowl berth and victory, first 12-win season, first time going undefeated on the road and first two victories over top-10 teams. Head coach George O'Leary picks up The American's Coach of the Year award and quarterback Blake Bortles receives The American's Offensive Player of the Year honors. In all, six Knights are named to The American's First Team. Bortles and running back Storm Johnson declare for the NFL Draft, with Bortles becoming the highest selection in UCF history when he was picked third overall by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Johnson also heard his name called by the Jaguars as he was taken in the seventh round.

Hoisting the American Athletic Conference trophy for the second straight year, UCF clinched back-to-back titles with a thrilling hail mary touchdown on the game's final play at East Carolina for a 7-1 league mark. The season started with the Knights' first international trip, serving as the host institution for the Croke Park Classic in Dublin, Ireland. A total of five Knights received All-AAC First Team status in 2014, including cornerback Jacoby Glenn who was voted as The American Co-Defensive Player of the Year. He also would grab a spot on the Associated Press All-America Second Team. Breshad Perriman hears his name called in the first round (26th pick) of the NFL Draft by Baltimore, while Clayton Geathers is selected by Indianapolis in the fourth round. It marks the first time UCF has had a first-round pick in consecutive seasons. After the draft, nine more Knights sign free-agent deals with NFL organizations.

The first year of the Scott Frost era at UCF saw the former Oregon offensive coordinator take the Knights from 0-12 to a bowl game, finishing 6-7 on the year. One of the top turnarounds in the nation, Frost's Knights were the first team to go from winless to a bowl game since UCF did it from 2004 to 2005. Linebacker Shaquem Griffin burst onto the scene in Frost's defensive system, earning First Team All-Conference and American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Four Knights were honored by The American in all as Shaquill Griffin and Jamiyus Pittman earned Second Team honors and Drico Johnson was named an Honorable Mention. Shaquill went on to be selected in the third round of the NFL Draft, while five members of the UCF defensive back field signed NFL contracts (Johnson, D.J. Killings, T.J. Mutcherson, Jeremy Boykins).

2017

The Knights went undefeated in 2017, winning the American Athletic Conference East Division, their third American Athletic Conference Championship, the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, and claiming a National Championship. UCF finished the season ranked sixth in the Associated Press Poll and seventh in the Coaches Poll, receiving four first place votes in the AP Poll. The Knights were ranked number one in the nation by the Colley Matrix, an NCAA National Champion Major Selector. McKenzie Milton burst onto the scene, earning American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and Archie Griffin National Player of the Year honors, while finishing eighth in the Heisman voting. A record in The American, 16 players were named all-conference, including nine first teamers. The Knights had four All-Americans in Milton, Shaquem Griffin, Mike Hughes and Tre'Quan Smith. Hughes became the fourth Knight to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, while Smith and Jordan Akins went in the third round and Griffin heard his name called in the fifth.

2018

The first season under head coach Josh Heupel was another success for the UCF football program. The Knights finished the 2018 regular season undefeated for the second straight year, advancing to the American Athletic Conference Championship and winning their second straight league title. Heupel became one of just three coaches to have gone undefeated in their first season as a head coach, joining Chris Peterson (Boise State, 2003) and Larry Coaker (Miami, 2001). The Knights extended their program-record winning streak to 25 games before falling to LSU in the Fiesta Bowl. It was the longest streak in the nation at the time and the fourth longest win streak in FBS since the year 2000. The rushing attack for UCF was one of the best in the nation in 2018. Led by Greg McCrae, who went for 1,182 yards on the ground, rushing for a school record and second-best in the nation 8.9 yards per carry. The Knights set new program bests of 3,448 rushing yards, 265.2 rushing yards per game, 43 rushing touchdowns and a team average of 5.8 yards per carry. McKenzie Milton led a conference record 17 all-conference honors, earning AAC Offensive Player of the Year honors for the second straight season. He also finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting despite missing the final two games of the season due to injury.

In Josh Heupel's second season, UCF recorded its third straight 10-win season and earned its fourth consecutive bowl berth, a first in program history. The Knights finished 10-3 with all three losses coming on the road by a total of seven points. UCF was undefeated at home for the third straight year, extending its nation-leading home win streak to 21 games. The Knights' total offense of 540.5 yards per game ranked second in the nation and set a new school record. Finishing 24th in both the AP and Coaches polls, it marked the third straight season and fifth time this decade UCF finished ranked in the top 25. UCF put 12 players on the American Athletic Conference All-Conference Teams, which included Gabriel Davis, Jake Brown and Richie Grant earning first-team honors. Davis also became the Knights' 42nd NFL Draft pick, going to the Buffalo Bills in the fourth round.

In a season shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic, UCF went 6-3 in the regular season with wins over Georgia Tech, Houston, and rival South Florida. The Knights earned their fifth consecutive bowl berth, a program record, playing in the Boca Raton Bowl. UCF ranked second in the nation with a new program record of 568.1 yards of offense per game. The defense also led the nation with 13 fumble recoveries. Nine Knights earned All-AAC honors, including Richie Grant, who was a unanimous selection and a first-team honoree for the third straight season. Grant was also a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and along with Marlon Williams earned honorable mention All-America accolades from Phil Steele. Williams was also named a third-team All-American by Pro Football Focus. Matthew Lee received freshman All-American honors from The Athletic. Following the season, a program-record five players were selected in the NFL Draft, as Grant went in the second round, Aaron Robinson was picked in the third, Jacob Harris was selected in the fourth, Tay Gowan went in the sixth, and Tre Nixon was picked up in the seventh round.

In its final season in the American Athletic Conference, UCF finished as conference runner-ups with a 9-5 season in head coach Gus Malzahn's second year leading the Knights. UCF ranked as high as 22 in the College Football Playoff rankings. UCF finished 6-2 in conference play including wins over 19 and 20th-ranked Cincinnati, 17th-ranked Tulane and South Florida. The Knights capped off the 2022 season with their seventh consecutive bowl appearance, playing in the Military Bowl presented by Peraton. UCF ranked fifth in the country in red zone defense, holding opponents to just a 70.7% conversion rate. On the offense, UCF ranked ninth nationally with 228.4 yards-per-game and ninth in total rushing touchdowns with 35. Running Isaiah Bowser finished the season with 16 rushing touchdowns, enough for second all-time in a season in UCF history. Quarterback John Rhys Plumlee finished with 11 rushing touchdowns, finishing second for most rushing touchdowns by a quarterback in a season for the Knights. After the season, Nine Knights received All-AAC honors including first-team nods for offensive linemen Ryan Swoboda and Lokahi Pauole, defensive linemen Ricky Barber and Tre'mon Morris-Brash and linebacker Jason Johnson. Swoboda was also named to the 247Sports Transfer All-America team. Concluding its time in the American, UCF finished with a combined record of 57-13 (.713), the most wins and best winning percentage of any team.

In its first season in the Big 12 Conference, UCF was the only Big 12 newcomer to make a bowl game in 2023, as the Knights finished with six wins and earned an invitation to play in the Gasparilla Bowl. It marked a program-record eighth consecutive postseason bowl appearance, 11th in the last 12 seasons and the 15th in 19 years. In his third season as UCF head coach, Gus Malzahn has seen his teams qualify for postseason bowl games in all 12 years he has been a head coach, including seven appearances in New Year's Day games. Malzahn was one of four active coaches that has led his team to bowl eligibility in each of the past 12 seasons. UCF ranked fourth nationally in rushing offense (228.2 per game) in 2023, the sixth straight season the Knights have averaged at least 196 rushing yards per game. The Knights ranked fourth nationally in third-down conversion percentage in 2023 (.500) and were also eighth nationally in total offense with 487.0 yards per game, surpassing 500 yards in four games last season. The season was highlighted by a dominant 45-3 victory against No. 15 Oklahoma State at home in UCF's annual Space Game. The Knights recorded their first top-15 win since 2017 when the Knights defeated seventh-ranked Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and the first top-15 home win since 2009 against No. 13 Houston.

For the second consecutive year, RJ Harvey was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award, presented annually to the nation's best collegiate running back. Harvey was the story of the season, becoming UCF's all-time career touchdown leader with 48 (43 rushing, five receiving), passing UCF Hall of Famer Kevin Smith who tallied 46 during his time as a Knight. Harvey finished the campaign with 1,577 rushing yards, the second-most in a single season in program history. He also finished second in career rushing yards at UCF with 3,792. As a team, the Knights started the season 3-0 for the second consecutive campaign, posting impressive offensive performances over New Hampshire and Sam Houston. UCF started conference play with a remarkable 21-point comeback in Forth Worth to beat TCU in the first meeting against the Horned Frogs. The Knights earned their other league victory over Arizona in the eight edition of UCF's Space Game, trouncing the Wildcats 56-12 thanks to 602 yards of offense while surrendering just 261 yards on defense.

The man at the helm of arguably the most accomplished team in program history returned to lead the Knights at the start of the 2025 season. After leading UCF to its lone perfect season in 2017, Scott Frost extended his winning streak as the Knights' head coach to 17 straight games, most notably beating legendary NFL coach Bill Belichick who was in his first season at the helm of North Carolina. Improving on last season's win total, UCF earned a sweep of its non-conference slate with a comeback victory against Jacksonville State and a thumping of North Carolina A&T and the Tar Heels. The Black and Gold added victories over West Virginia on Homecoming and a comeback win over Oklahoma State on Senior Knight. UCF was a couple of plays away from adding a pair of victories falling in tight one-score games against Kansas and Houston. In year one in his second stint, the Frost-led Knights were a perfect 5-0 against other coaches in their first seasons with their programs. Malachi Lawrence climbed into the top 10 in career sacks as a Knight, compiling 20 over his four seasons with the Black and Gold. Lawrence landed on the All-Big 12 First Team while transfer senior linebacker Cole Kozlowski and redshirt senior kicker Noe Ruelas earned Third Team nods.

SEAN BECKTON
inducted 2000

Sean Beckton was one of the first football players to be inducted into the UCF Athletics Hall of Fame. Beckton was a standout wide receiver for UCF from 1987-90, setting numerous school records. He finished his career as the school's leader in receptions (196) and career yardage (2,493). Beckton once scored four touchdowns, four different ways in one game in 1990: catching, throwing, rushing and returning a punt.

SYLVESTER BEMBERY
inducted in 2009

Sylvester Bembery was a four-year standout who helped UCF to the NCAA D-II Playoffs as a senior in 1987. He was the team's Lineman of the Year after making 71 tackles on a defense that held opponents to 67 points all season. As a junior in 1986 he helped UCF to its first winning record since 1979. He continued to play for 11 seasons in the Arena Football League where he won two titles and was named No. 7 in a 2006 compilation of the Top 20 players in AFL history. The Tampa Bay Storm retired his number.

BLAKE BORTLES
inducted in 2021

Growing up just down the street from UCF in Oviedo, Blake Bortles became on of the most recognizable UCF athletes. As a member of the Knights from 2010-2014, Bortles led UCF to many historic wins. In his redshirt-junior season in 2013, Bortles led the charge for the Knights to a 12-1 record capping it off with a Fiesta Bowl victory, where Bortles was named MVP. Bortles was also named American Athletic Conference Player of the Year and selected to the first team. Following the 2013 season, Bortles was named an Honorable Mention All-American by SI.com. Historically, Bortles tallied 7,598 passing yards, 56 touchdowns and 19 interceptions. Bortles was selected in the 2014 NFL Draft in the first round with the third pick by the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he played from 2014-2018. His best season with the Jaguars was in 2015 where he threw for 4,428 yards and 35 touchdowns, both season records for Jacksonville. Following his time with Jacksonville, Bortles held stints with the Los Angeles Rams, Denver Broncos and Green Bay Packers

DAN BURKE
inducted in 2013

The anchor on the offensive line for the first four seasons of the football program, Dan Burke played center and tackle for the Knights from 1979-82. That included starting at center every game his first two seasons. Burke would serve as an AP Honorable Mention All-American in 1981, as well as the Orlando Touchdown Club's Offensive Player of the Year. Following his college career, Burke had stints with the New Jersey Generals and Baltimore Stars of the USFL and the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League.

JOE BURNETT
inducted in 2022

A record-setting cornerback and punt return specialist, Joe Burnett played an important role in UCF's early years as a member of Conference USA. As a Knight from 2005-08, Burnett holds several career-high marks including interceptions (16), punt return yards (1,304) and punt returns (96). In his tenure, Burnett became an eigh-time all-Conference USA selection with four as a punt returner, three as a defensive back and one as a kick returner. In 2005, Burnett was named to Freshman All-American teams for FWAA, Rivals, College Football News and the Sporting News. As a senior, Burnett received first-team All-American nods from ESPN and Sports Illustrated as the only player in the country to rank in the top-20 in kickoff and punt returns. Burnett played a role in guiding UCF to its first two bowl berths in 2005 and 2007 along with its first conference title in 2007. Follwing his time at UCF, Burnett was selected in the 2009 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers with the 168th overall pick in the 5th round. Burnett spent three seasons with the Steelers, and brief stints with the New York Giants and Jacksonville Jaguars in 2011. He spent several years in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos (2011-14), Calgary Stampeders (2015-17) and the Montreal Alouettes (2018).

DAUNTE CULPEPPER
inducted in 2002

The most recognizable player in UCF history, Daunte Culpepper starred for the Knights for four years. Tabbed as the Sammy Baugh Trophy winner (passer of the year in college football), Culpepper was also voted as The Sports Network's National Co-Player of the Year with Texas' Ricky Williams in 1998. As a senior in 1999, he set the NCAA single-season record for completion percentage at 73.6, breaking Steve Young's 15-year old mark (71.3). At the end of his UCF career, Culpepper had surpassed the 10,000-yard passing mark and 1,000-yard rushing mark, a feat only achieved twice before in NCAA history. His four-year totals equaled 12,459 all-purpose yards, good for sixth on the NCAA's all-time total offense list for all divisions. Culpepper, who recorded 108 TDs as a Knight, was selected in the first round of the 1999 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings and was selected as the NFC's starting quarterback in the Pro Bowl in just his second year in the league.

MARC DANIELS

One of the area's most recognized and respected media personalities, Marc Daniels has been seen and heard in Orlando for well over 30 years. Daniels has broadcast some of UCF's biggest moments in the program's history and has called every UCF football game since 1995, a streak well over 300 consecutive games. His over 30 years at UCF is longest of any school's radio voice in the state of Florida. He has been the longtime play-by-play voice for football, basketball, baseball and other sports as well as hosting additional program on multiple platforms and serving as a UCF ambassador and emcee at numerous events.

ELGIN DAVIS
inducted in 2010

Davis remains one of the top rushers in UCF history, with 2,064 career rushing yards on 464 carries with 23 touchdowns despite battling several injuries. He burst onto the scene as a freshman in 1983, earning the starting spot and never looked back. Davis was selected by the New England Patriots in the 1987 NFL Draft becoming just UCF's second-ever pick.

WILLIE ENGLISH
inducted in 2003

A workhorse in college, Willie English set rushing records that would last for more than 15 years at UCF. He finished his career as the all-time leader in rushing yards (3,131), career touchdowns (38) and with the most 100-yard rushing games (15). English also set the single-game rushing mark at 242 yards. He helped guide UCF to the NCAA FCS semifinals in 1990. The next season, he set the school's single-season mark with 1,338 yards and 13 scores. Following college, English signed with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1993.

BERNARD FORD

Starring at wide receiver from 1985-87, Bernard Ford totaled 111 career receptions for 2,138 yards with 21 scores. He had six career 100-yard games, and as a senior, led the team in receiving on a squad that had its best NCAA Division II season (9-4-0 in 1987) and advanced to the national semifinals. Ford was named to the Kodak and Football News All-America First Team as a senior, while also earning AP Little All-America honors. He holds several school records, including receiving yards in a season (1,180), TD catches in a game (four) and all-purpose yards in a season (1,627). He also blocked five punts, good for second at UCF.

MARK GIACONE
inducted in 2024

During his time as a Knight, Giacone rushed for 2,128 career yards, good enough for second all-time at UCF at the time. As of his induction announcment on Sep. 10, 2024, that mark still ranks ninth all-time. He scored 22 touchdowns, the most at the time. Giacone rushed for a then-school record 923 yards in the 1990 regular season, earning team MVP honors. He also rushed for a then-school record 191 yards and a touchdown to help UCF upset undefeated Youngstown State in the first round of the I-AA Playoffs that same season, becoming the first UCF back to top 1,000 yards in a single season, and helping the Knights to a 20-17 playoff win in its first season in I-AA. He led the Knights with 510 yards rushing as a freshman and a trip to the Division II playoffs in 1987. After an injury in 1988, he returned to the field in 1989 healthy and earned team MVP honors with 410 yards on the ground. Throughout his time as a Knight, Giacone earned the nickname "Magnet Man" because he occasionally sought contact even in the open field at 5-foot-8, 195 pounds.

BILL GIOVANETTI
inducted in 2000

In 2000, Bill Giovanetti was one of the first football players inducted into the Hall of Fame. During UCF's inaugural campaign in 1979, he was named one of the starting linebackers at the age of 17. In his four-year career, he started all 37 games he played, and led all Knights in tackles in three of his four years, while setting a school-record for tackles in a game (23). He is second all-time in career tackles (429). In 1981, his junior season, Giovanetti earned All-America honors.

ALAN GOOCH
inducted in 2006

As a player and assistant coach at UCF, Alan Gooch gave 25 years of his time and effort to the UCF football program, beginning in 1983. His most notable accomplishments came after earning the coaching responsibilities for the running backs. Through his 17 seasons coaching the backfield, all 31 backs finished their eligibility and received their degrees. In 1997, one year prior to being named assistant head coach, Gooch was honored as the AFCA's Assistant Coach of the Year. That same year, Gooch received national attention for his mentoring of Dwight Collins, a hearing-impaired rusher, who received Walt Disney's Wide World of Sports Spirit Award in 1997 for being the nation's most courageous athlete.

CORNELL GREEN
inducted in 2025

Cornell Green anchored UCF's offensive line during some of the most important years in program history. Playing at UCF from 1995–98, he started all 33 games in his final three years, including being part of the standout 9-2 team in 1998. A four-year starting tackle, Green played a critical role protecting quarterback Daunte Culpepper during UCF's early FBS years and powered record-setting offensive performances. His dominance garnered a place on UCF's All-FBS Era Team. Despite going undrafted in 1999, Green's perseverance led to a nine-year NFL career spanning seven teams (Jets, Dolphins, Broncos, Buccaneers, Bills, Raiders) and 94 career games (51 starts). His crowning achievement came as a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' Super Bowl XXXVII championship squad.

SHAQUEM GRIFFIN

Shaquem Griffin was the embodiment of UCF's chip-on-the-shoulder mentality in the program's 13-0 season in 2017. He capped his collegiate career by being named the Defensive MVP of the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. He was named 2017 All-Conference First Team in The American as well as 2016 American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year and First Team All-Conference performer, a season in which he led the team with 20.0 tackles for loss, which is tied for the third most in a single season in UCF history; also led the Knights with 11.5 sacks, the sixth most in a season at UCF. As a senior he received 2018 Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion award and was nominated for Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, honoring student-athletes for their outstanding community service. He was selected in the fifth round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks where he played for three seasons with his twin brother, Shaquill, also a UCF standout. Shaquem spent time with the Miami Dolphins before announcing his retirement in 2022.

FRANCO GRILLA
inducted in 2005

Remembered for his time-expiring kick against Youngstown State in the first round of the FCS playoffs on Nov. 24, 1990, Franco Grilla helped UCF overcome the undefeated Penguins, 20-17, in Ohio. He served as the Knights' kicker from 1989-92, setting a school-record with 103 consecutive PATs made. Named to the Orlando Sentinel's 25th Anniversary UCF Football Team, he is second in the most PATs made in a season (45) and third in career field goals made (47).

MIKE GRUTTADAURIA
inducted in 2004

During the St. Louis Rams' run for a championship in 2000, Mike Gruttadauria became the first Knight to win a Super Bowl ring. A four-year starting center for UCF from 1991-94, Gruttadauria was named to the Orlando Sentinel's 25th Anniversary UCF Football Team. His seven-year NFL career included stints with the Dallas Cowboys and Arizona Cardinals.

RICK HAMILTON
inducted in 2006

As a standout linebacker and a knowledgeable scholar of the game, Rick Hamilton's stellar career did not stop with UCF. A Knight from 1989-92, Hamilton ranks as the school's all-time leader in tackles (443). He also recorded at least 100 tackles in three of his four seasons with UCF, including the second-most single-season total of 149. Following graduation, Hamilton was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins. He went on to play with the Kansas City Chiefs and New York Jets.

ALEX HAYNES
inducted in 2025

Alex Haynes was the definition of a workhorse for UCF, leaving as the program's all-time leading rusher (with 3,356 yards on 742 carries at graduation, now 2nd all-time), along with 662 receiving yards on 88 catches and 28 total touchdowns. He was also the first Knight to record four rushing touchdowns in a single game (vs. Tulane in 2001). Haynes became the first running back in school history to surpass 4,000 all-purpose yards, averaging 98.1 per game, ranking 6th in career all-purpose yards (4,021) and 7th in average all-purpose yards. His 27 career rushing touchdowns are good for fifth in program history and his 15 100-yard rushing games still tie for second all-time. A physical, downhill runner with breakaway speed, Haynes shined in pivotal matchups with multiple 1,000-yard seasons and earned All-Conference recognition.

DR. JOHN HITT
inducted in 2023

Dr. John Hitt helped elevate the university and its athletics to an entirely new level. Dr. Hitt championed the construction of an on-campus football stadium, which played a key role in UCF heading into the Big 12 conference in 2023. He strengthened the university's academic quality and national reputation, as well as partnerships that continue to benefit students and the community. Dr. Hitt awarded more than 260,000 degrees, more than any other president in State University System of Florida history, expanding UCF's talent pipeline of graduates who advanced to successful careers in industries vital to the region and state. He shepherded an athletics program that enjoyed strong success during his presidency in competition and in the classroom, and that delivered him the nation's only undefeated season and a national championship in his final year as president. Dr. Hitt, who became UCF's fourth president in 1992 and retired in June 2018, died February 20, 2023 at the age of 82.

GREG JEFFERSON
inducted in 2011

A star defensive end at UCF from 1991-94, Greg Jefferson finished his career second in sacks with 31, and he had 42 tackles for loss, the seventh-most at UCF. Jefferson finished with 181 tackles, and holds school records for PATs blocked in season and career. He also holds the single-season and career field goals blocked records, having registered three in 1993. Jefferson totaled 15 sacks as a junior, good for second at UCF, and garnered Sports Network All-America honorable mention honors as a senior, and was selected in the third round of the 1995 NFL Draft by Philadelphia.

SHAWN JEFFERSON
inducted in 2002

A wide receiver for UCF from 1988-90, Shawn Jefferson was a part of the team that guided the Knights to the FCS semifinals in 1990. He finished his career with three 100-yard receiving games and ranks seventh in the UCF annals for the longest reception (76-yard touchdown). Jefferson was drafted in 1991 by the Houston Oilers and spent 14 seasons in the NFL, playing with Atlanta, New England, San Diego and Detroit.

DON JONAS
inducted in 2013

Don Jonas served as UCF's first head football coach from 1979-81. His position was as a volunteer before he earned full-time status in 1980. Jonas produced a 14-12-1 record with an 11-6-1 mark at home. He resigned after 1981 to become the director of the UCF Gridiron Club. Before joining UCF, Jonas was selected by Philadelphia in the 1961 NFL Draft. While with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, he won the 1971 Schendley Award as the CFL's Most Outstanding Player.

JORGE MAGLUTA
inducted in 2011

Jorge Magluta spent time as both an offensive and defensive linemen during his UCF career from 1982-85. He earned a spot on the Orlando Sentinel's UCF 25th Anniversary Team at OG. Magluta played on UCF's first team at the Division II level in 1982, and in 1983, helped the Knights post their first win over an FCS opponent as UCF defeated host Austin Peay, 10-7.

BRANDON MARSHALL
inducted in 2019

Brandon Marshall is still among the best ever at the receiver position for UCF, with his name still listed in the Top 10 in numerous statistical categories. He was a fourth-round NFL Draft pick in 2006. He has played 13 seasons in the NFL for the Broncos, Dolphins, Bears, Jets, Giants, Seahawks and Saints. He is a six-time Pro Bowl selection an All-Pro in 2015. He led the league in receiving touchdowns in 2015 with the Jets. Marshall was so valuable to his team at UCF, he played both offense and defense in 2004.

GENE MCDOWELL
inducted in 2023

Coach Gene McDowell led Knights through three difference levels of football competition; NCAA Division II (1985-89), Division I-AA (1990-95) and into Division I-A (1996-97). He finished 86-61 in his career while leading UCF teams to NCAA playoff appearances in 1987, 1990 and 1993. McDowell led the Knights to the Division II semifinals in 1987 and Division I-AA semifinals in 1990. He won Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year award in 1990. McDowell is known as "Father of UCF Football" based on growing program on and off the field. He is credited with pulling UCF from brink of extinction due to financial woes and served in dual role as football coach and athletics director in late 1980s. McDowell helped obtain first $1 million donation for football from Wayne Densch. He won more games than any other UCF head football coach as the longest-tenured individual in that role and also served as the Knights' athletic director, he died on Jan. 26, 2021. He was 80.

MANNY MESSEGUER
inducted in 2011

Manny Messeguer has missed only a few games in UCF football history, and served as an assistant to head coach George O'Leary. In 1982, he became a UCF Athletics donor leader and has since served the program in numerous capacities, including as a radio network sideline reporter and a personal pilot for former head coach Gene McDowell. Messeguer spent 18 years as GM/VP of Tropical Ford, and served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam era and remains instrument rated as a private pilot.

LATAVIUS MURRAY
inducted in 2022

Latavius Murray became of the feature running backs in UCF history during his time in a Knights uniform from 2008-12. In his UCF career, Murray accumulated 453 carries, 2,424 rusning yards, 44 total touchdowng including 37 rushing. On the receiving front, Murray caught 50 passes, 524 yards and six touchdowns. In 2010, Murray helped lead the Knights to a Conference USA title. Follwing his MVP performance, Murray helped lead the Knights to its first bowl win in school history over Gerogia in the Liberty bowl rushing for 104 yards and scoring the game winning touchdown. In 2012, Murray recieved a First-team All-Conference USA nomination. Follwing his time at UCF, Murray was taken in the sixth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders where he spent three seasons. During the 2015 season with the Raiders, Murray recieved a Pro Bowl nimination after rushing for a career-high 1,066 yards on 266 rushes amd six touchdowns. Murray also marked a career-high 41 recetpitons with 232 yards. Follwing his tenure with the Raiders, Murray spent time with the Minnesota Vikings (2017-18), New Orleans Saints (2019-20, 22), Denver Broncos (2022). In his career so far, he has rushed for 6,252 yards on 1,481 carries while collecting 55 touchdowns. He is currently signed to the Buffalo Bills.

ED O'BRIEN
inducted in 2008

One of UCF's most decorated kickers, Ed O'Brien was named a Kodak and Football News First Team All-America player in 1987, and also earned AP All-America Second Team honors that year. A record-holder for the longest field goal made (55 yards) at UCF, O'Brien was the first to hit four field goals in a game and the first to make nine extra points in a contest. His 50 career field goals are second all-time, while his 77 field goal attempts rank first. In 2004, he earned honorable mention recognition on the Orlando Sentinel's 25th Anniversary UCF Football Team.

GEORGE O'LEARY
inducted in 2019

O'Leary coached the Knights from 2004-2015, putting the program on the map with important victories and highly-successful seasons. O'Leary guided the Knights to a 12-1 record in 2013, which was then a program-record for victories in a season. That year was capped off with a 52-42 victory over Baylor in the Fiesta Bowl and a No. 10-ranking in the Associated Press poll, which was then the highest ranking the Knights had ever attained. O'Leary was responsible for UCF's first-ever bowl game, first-ever bowl win and its first four conference championships. He also oversaw the modernization of UCF's Football Facilities, including the addition of Nicholson Fieldhouse and (then) Bright House Networks Stadium.

MICHAEL O'SHAUGHNESSY
inducted in 2010

Michael O'Shaughnessy was an original UCF football team member and racked up 22 career sacks. He established a school record for sacks in a game with five against Emory & Henry during 1979, and was the team's Most Spirited Player in 1980 as voted on by his teammates. He continued serving UCF as an assistant offense line coach in 1981, was the founder and first President of the UCF Letterman's K Club, a member of the Knights Booster Board of Directors and was a radio sideline reporter from 1990-94. He also was a member of the baseball team in 1979. After college, he competed in the Iron Man Triathlon, was a two-time and current Guinness World record holder in the sport of paddle boarding and received the Alumnus of the Decade Award at UCF's 40th anniversary celebration.

DAVID RHODES
inducted in 2003

One of the best wide receivers to come through UCF, David Rhodes capped off his record-breaking career with back-to-back All-America honors in 1993 and 1994. Rhodes is the only Knight to record three seasons with at least 1,000-yards receiving and ranks first in career TDs with 29. He finished as the Knights' all-time leader in receptions (213), receiving yardage (3,618) and 100-yard receiving games (16). Following his time with the Knights, he signed with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals and later played in NFL Europe.

DARRELL RUDD
inducted in 2008

One of the most consistently dominating defensive linemen in Knights history, Darrell Rudd claimed record after record during his time at UCF. He holds six school records, and shares one, all of which have gone unmatched from when they were originally set. The records include most tackles in a season (150), fumbles recovered in a game (3), season (6) and career (11). Rudd recorded a record 19.5 sacks in 1984 and had 31.5 in his career. He earned an honorable mention spot on Orlando Sentinel's 25th Anniversary UCF Football Team.

SCOTT RYERSON
inducted in 2002

An Orlando product, Scott Ryerson kicked his way into UCF history. At the conclusion of his sophomore season in 1981, he earned All-America honors after leading the team in scoring with 62 points, and connecting on four field goals of 50 yards or longer, a school record. He is tied for the most field goals made in a game (4). Ryerson, who leads all UCF kickers with the seven field goals made of 50 yards or more, later signed a free agent deal with the Atlanta Falcons.

ASANTE SAMUEL

A memorable playmaker from 1999-02, Asante Samuel had 127 tackles, eight interceptions, 38 break-ups, 63 punt returns for 673 yards and 10 kickoff returns for 168 yards. He ranks eighth in career picks, while his 38 break-ups are first at UCF. Samuel also sits among the top punt returners for season return average (12.3 in 2002, #6) and career average (10.7, #6). He was a 2002 All-MAC First-Team selection, and as a junior in 2001 was an All-Independent First-Team selection by Football News. After UCF, Samuel was drafted by the New England Patriots in the fourth round in 2003 and went on to become a three-time Super Bowl champion, and a four-time Pro Bowl selection in 11 NFL seasons. He holds the NFL Postseason record with four interceptions returned for a touchdown and 227 interception return yards.

MIKE SIMS-WALKER
inducted in 2025

A dynamic and productive wide receiver, Mike Sims-Walker was instrumental in UCF's rise in Division I football. Over 46 games, he amassed 184 receptions (then 4th all-time) for 2,561 yards (also 4th) and 17 touchdowns, earning Second Team All-Conference USA honors in 2005 and First Team in 2006. That senior season, he set the program's single-season receptions record with 90, a mark that still stands as #1 all-time at UCF. Known for his size, body control, and ability to make contested catches, Sims-Walker became a reliable go-to target and even led the team with three interceptions in the 2004 season, displaying his defensive versatility. Selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the third round of the 2007 NFL Draft (79th overall), he overcame early-career injuries to deliver a breakout 2009 campaign with 63 receptions, 869 yards, and 7 touchdowns. He finished his NFL career with 134 catches, 1,798 yards, and 14 touchdowns over four seasons, also spending time with the St. Louis Rams and briefly in the CFL with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Off the field, Sims-Walker has maintained close ties to UCF, mentoring student-athletes and establishing a scholarship fund. His legacy is one of production, resilience, and serving as a bridge between UCF's early days in Conference USA and its later national prominence.

JOSH SITTON
inducted in 2021

Josh Sitton anchored the Knights offensive line from 2004-2007 starting 43 games in that timespan. With UCF, Sittin played three positions in his tenure at both guard positions and right tackle. In 2007, Sitton was named first-team all-Conference USA, aiding running back Kevin Smith's record 2,567 rushing yard season. The Knights finished the season 10-4, winning UCF's first all-time league title. Followinhis time at UCF, Sitton was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL Draft. In the Packers Super Bowl XLV winning season, Sitton started all 20 games. As a member of the Packers, Sitton was named first-team All-Pro in 2014 and second team All-Pro in 2013 and 2015. He also earned Pro Bowl nods in 2012, 2014 and 2015 with Green Bay. Following his time in Green Bay, Sitton signed with the Chicago Bears in 2016, where he earned another Pro Bowl selection. Sitton spent two seasons with the Bears before closing out his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins in 2018. Overall, Sitton started 142 games of the 148 he played.

KEVIN SMITH
inducted in 2019

Smith was a consensus All-America choice in 2007. He rushed for 2,567 yards and 29 touchdowns during his senior season, when Smith was the Conference USA Player of the Year and a First Team All-CUSA selection. He also finished eighth in Heisman Trophy voting following his final season as a Knight. His 2,567 yards were second-most ever at the time. Smith was a third-round pick in the NFL Draft and played five seasons with the Lions. After spending three seasons on the UCF Football staff (2015-17), Smith was named running backs coach at Florida Atlantic University.

MARQUETTE SMITH
inducted in 2005

One of only two rushers at UCF to rush for more than 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons, local product Marquette Smith set a then single-season school-record for rushing yards (1,511) and touchdowns (14) in 1995. Following that year, he earned second-team All-America honors. Despite having played just two seasons with the Knights, Smith is fourth all-time in career rushing yards with 2,569. His career did not come to a halt when he left UCF, as Carolina selected him in the fifth round of the 1996 NFL Draft.

BOB SPITULSKI
inducted in 2009

Bob Spitulski dominated at outside linebacker during his four-year UCF career and ultimately was drafted in the third round by Seattle. Spitulski still ranks highly on several UCF career defensive record charts and retains the school's benchmark with seven tackles-for-loss in a single game (vs. Savannah State, Nov. 2, 1991). He led the team in sacks in three of his four seasons and went on to earn third-team All-America honors by the AP in 1991 as a senior. He also helped UCF to the 1990 FCS semifinals.

Spirit Splash

Spirit Splash is one of the most popular events on campus and has been voted one of the best college traditions in the nation. Part of Homecoming Week, this wet and wild pep rally invites Knights to charge into the Reflecting Pond and catch collectible rubber ducks and commemorative T-shirts. Other events during the weeklong celebration include Movie Knight, Comedy Knight, Knights Got Talent, Concert Knight, Culture Knight and so much more.

The event itself is a sight to behold, as thousands of students gather around the edge of the Reflecting Pond and await the countdown that sends them all rushing into the pond. The event began in 1995 and has been popular ever since. Each student's goal at Spirit Splash is to catch a rubber duck. These aren't just any rubber ducks though as each year, a new, unique version is created. The ducks are hurled into the pond by student-athletes from the football, basketball and cheer teams as well as other big names on campus such as director of athletics Terry Mohajir and President Alex Cartwright.

SPACE U

Played annually, the Space Game is a tradition unlike any other in college athletics. With the university's origins directly tied to supporting the U.S. space program in the 1960s, it's easy to understand why the Space Game means so much to the university, its athletics program and its fans.

For more than 60 years, UCF has partnered with NASA to advance space exploration and technology, and it even partners with the U.S. Space Force. UCF is ranked among the top 10 most innovative public universities in the nation, according to U.S. News & World Report.

The bold spirit that founded UCF continues to drive its commitment to space today. Space is no longer a distant horizon, it's the future, and UCF is helping define it.

UCF is a remarkable 8-1 in Space Games, winning the first eight. The Knights, known as the Citronauts for these games — as a nod to the Orange-astronaut hybrid who appeared on the 1968-69 student handbook — wear special uniforms with a unique story to tell. Every year's Space Game uniform is one-of-a-kind and honors different aspects of space exploration happening right here in The City Beautiful.

Whether a Knight is in Orlando watching a rocket streak across the Florida sky from the 50-yard line of Acrisure Bounce House, or studying how to send that rocket to the cosmos, it's clear that UCF is SpaceU.

Below are each of UCF's past Space Game uniforms as well as their respective mission patches.

Mission IX - Hyperspace
Nov. 7, 2024

Citius Est Futurum, means the future is faster. The UCF HyperSpace Center, in partnership with the U.S. Air Force, stands on the forefront of hypersonics and space propulsion research. This technology allows for air travel at speeds of Mach 6 to 17, meaning six to 17 times the speed of sound, or more than 4,600 to 13,000 mph; it means going from New York to London in less than 15 minutes. Far beyond science fiction, a team of 40 UCF undergraduates and 25 graduate students, led by Professor Kareem Ahmed, are turning theory into reality. Hypersonic technology holds promise for opening up the boundaries of space exploration, changing our perceptions of the impossible.

Mission VIII - Powering Humankind's Return to the Moon
Nov. 2, 2024

With support from UCF alumni, faculty and students, NASA aims to send humans back to blaze a path from the moon into deep space exploration for the future of humankind. UCF's Exolith Lab is home to the world's largest simulated lunar surface with its Regolith Bin. The state-of-the art research and testing facility allows space companies, scientists, faculty and students to test how moon dust interacts with hardware that powers space missions. The Regolith Bin is filled with 120 tons of lunar highland simulant soil, replicating the moon's south pole – which is where NASA's Artemis program aims to develop a sustainable presence. The mission patch displays a pattern used by the Artemis program circling Earth while also depicting the number eight for Mission VIII. The red in the path references the wing in NASA's logo.

Mission VII - Reaching New Horizons
Nov. 11, 2023

We all live under the same sky, but we don't share the same horizon. At SpaceU – aligned with the exact latitude of our stadium's 50-yard-line – our horizon is graced with frequent rocket launches sending modern marvels of science and machinery to the stars. As UCF football explores a new horizon of the Big 12 Conference, so does NASA with the Artemis Program, powering humankind's return to the moon. With the support of UCF alumni, faculty and students, the Artemis Program aims to blaze a path from the moon into deep space exploration for the future of humankind.

Mission VI - Into the Darkness
Oct. 13, 2022

In the depths of space, far beyond the boundaries of the familiar, the greatest meaning often lies not in what we see...but what we don't. Orbiting stars long past our solar system, are worlds beyond our science fiction imaginations: EXOPLANETS. Gas giants larger than Jupiter, lava worlds covered in molten seas, planets dominated by ice, and even the potentially habitable. Floating out in ever expanding blackness, these exoplanets are detectable when they pass in front of their star, temporarily eclipsing its light. Trillions of worlds, all yet to be found. But only the bold touch greatness. Because the power of discovery only exists for those who dare press forward...into the darkness...EVER UPWARD. Depicted on the mission patch is the Spitzer Telescope, used to discover both exoplanets UCF 1.01 and UCF 1.02 in 2012. The patch has an exoplanet depicted near the Leo constellation where the two UCF planets are located. The transit method line beneath the planet references graphs produced in the technique to discover exoplanets.

Mission V - Discovery
Oct. 22, 2021

Mission V paid tribute to a legacy that launched humanity beyond the horizon, the 40th anniversary of the Space Shuttle Program. Leading the charge was Nicole Stott, UCF Class of 1992, a NASA astronaut who soared aboard Shuttle Discovery on two journeys into orbit and the International Space Station. The Mission V patch was crafted as a celestial homage, weaving together elements from the two patches Stott proudly wore among the stars. The entire uniform paid homage to the shuttle program. The jersey numbers were a nod to the Space Shuttle Thermal Protection System tiles that guard against extreme temperatures. Each digit from 0 to 9 carried a fragment of history, representing all 135 shuttle missions that defined an era of exploration using unique codes from the thermal tiles. The helmet stripe honored over 100 UCF alumni, faculty and fans who worked on the shuttle program.

Mission IV - Innovation & Ingenuity
Oct. 24, 2020

The Mission IV uniform takes its cues straight from the engineering marvels that got us into space, and allow us to charge on into the perils of the unknown. It pulls elements from three different celestial projects to create a one-of-a-kind look. The helmet stripe is a nod to the blueprints of the Orion space craft, that is designed to carry humans back into space beyond the moon, to asteroids and potentially Mars. The shoulders display the Directional Flight Guidance system which was used by NASA on the shuttle project. The pants display the pattern of the Arecibo Observatory that UCF [in an agreement with the National Science Foundation] operates and manages in Puerto Rico. Arecibo is one of the largest fully operational radio telescopes in the world. Additionally, the circular navigation grid on the pants and the patch represents the UCF campus, with elements pulled directly from the campus map.

Mission III - Rendezvous with the Stars
Nov. 2, 2019

We choose the Moon, because the impossible calls to those who dare to listen. Destiny waits where courage and wonder meet. And when our journey is done, when the lunar horizon glows beneath our footprints, we will not stop. For beyond the Moon lies our next horizon, our rendezvous with the stars. Mission III's helmets display the light and dark sides of the Moon, each hand painted by Schutt Sports. The Citronaut, the unofficial first mascot of UCF who first appeared on the 1968-69 school handbook returns to the uniform. The constellations used represent roads and buildings on campus at UCF, including Orion (the name of the road that circles Spectrum Stadium) with his club or sword drawn at Taurus the bull, the victim of Orion's strike. Taurus represents the opponent and the conquered.

Mission II - A Familiar Flight
Nov. 1, 2018

Mission II was the first fully custom uniform for the Space Game. The motto, "Reach for the Stars," represented the university's promising aerospace education in engineering, electronics and other technological professions and made its reappearance on the uniform for the second straight season. The Citronaut, the unofficial first mascot of UCF who first appeared on the 1968-69 school handbook made its debut to a football uniform. The constellations used represent roads and buildings on campus at UCF, including Orion (the name of the road that circles Spectrum Stadium) with his club or sword drawn at Taurus the bull, the victim of Orion's strike. The color "Canaveral Blue" was introduced, incorporating shades of the sky and ocean off Cape Canaveral, Fla.

Mission I - Reach for the Stars
Oct. 14, 2017

The University of Central Florida was founded in 1963 as Florida Technological University, with the mission of supporting the growing United States space program at nearby Kennedy Space Center and Cape Canaveral Air Force Station. Its motto, "Reach for the Stars," represented the university's promising aerospace education in engineering, electronics and other technological professions. UCF continues to push the frontiers of space research. The first Space Game included a special patch and helmet to go with UCF's standard uniform. The patch depicts a star cluster in the shape of a pegasus, representing the academic seal of the University. It also includes UCF's motto at the top border of the triangle, which implises the view from aboard a space ship and includes the moon and other planets, to show what we've accomplished already and what lies ahead. The helmet included a picutre of the surface of the moon sublimated in the UCF logo and included a special stripe down the center of the helmet. The stripe included constellations of a horse, bull, Orion the Hunter and the Crown.

TAMPA – Making its third appearance in the Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl, UCF couldn't have asked for a better start as the Knights jumped out to a 17-3 lead, but Georgia Tech countered by scoring the game's final 27 points en route to a 30-17 win Friday night at Raymond James Stadium.

The loss marked the first in UCF's last six trips to the friendly confines of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' stadium, winning three games against South Florida and a pair of Gasparilla Bowls in the past five six years.

UCF finishes the season 6-7 overall, while Georgia Tech, making its first bowl appearance since 2018, ends the year with a 7-6 record.

"Disappointed for our seniors that we weren't able to get them a victory, but we didn't play good enough to win and give Georgia Tech credit. We've got a lot of guys in that locker room that have done a super job for our program." - Gus Malzahn

It was a tale of two halves for UCF, as the Knights recorded 290 yards on offense, scoring 17 points in the first half and were held to 134 yards offensively in the second half and shut out in the second half for the first time in 2023. Despite finishing the game with more offensive yards (424-371), it wasn't enough to lift the Knights to the victory.

The Knights logged 400 or more yards offensively in 10 of their 13 games.

After scoring on three of its first four drives, the Black and Gold were unable to find the end zone again and in contrast the Yellow Jackets scored on four consecutive drives after UCF forced GT to punt on its first two drives.

UCF won the toss, elected to receive and scored just 1:23 seconds into the game as quarterback John Rhys Plumlee found wide receiver Javon Baker for a 23-yard touchdown. After announcing his return to the Knights earlier Friday afternoon on social media, the Atlanta native recorded a career-high nine catches for 173 yards, which is also a career best.

Baker also surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the season, the only player from the Big 12 to accomplish the feat and one of just 25 nationally. He also marked the first UCF player with at least 1,000 receiving yards since Marlon Williams in 2020.

Running back RJ Harvey chewed up 120 yards on the ground on 15 carries, finishing the 2023 campaign with 1,416 rushing yards, the third most in a single season by a Knight at the time. Harvey later went on to finish his career in 2024 with the second-most rushing yards in program history, compiling 3,792, all of which was while wearing the Black and Gold.

Following a stop by UCF's defense, the Knights recorded their longest scoring drive of the season, marching 98 yards down the field on 10 plays in just 4:41. Plumlee hit Baker with consecutive big passing plays then RJ Harvey tallied a 17-yard rush to set up a 17-yard TD from Plumlee to Kobe Hudson to give UCF a 14-0 lead.

After announcing on Thursday that he would return to UCF next season, RJ Harvey opened the game strong with 58 yards in the opening quarter en route to tallying his seventh 100-yard rushing game of the season. Harvey ended the season with 1,416 rushing yards, the third most in a single season in program history.

The Knights ended the season outscoring opponents 127-57 in the first quarter of games.

Kicker Aidan Birr put Georgia Tech on the scoreboard in the second quarter, drilling a 36-yard attempt before UCF kicker Colton Boomer made from 27 yards out to push the advantage back to 14 points at 17-3. From there, it was all Yellow Jackets as GT scored a pair of quick touchdowns to knot the score at 17-17 heading into halftime.

Georgia Tech's first drive of the second half were the lone points scored in the third quarter, as the Yellow Jackets had a few nice runs, but the Knights' defense forced a field goal as GT took its first lead of the game at 20-17.

Defensively, linebacker Jason Johnson tallied a game-high 13 tackles and Decorian Patterson notched seven solo tackles. Tre'mon Morris-Brash recorded six tackles and two tackles for loss.

"Overall, I'm disappointed that we weren't to get the winning record and get the bowl victory, not just for our players but for our fans. Our fans have been great and there have been a lot of ups and downs this first year in the Big 12 and it was just a tough night."

ANNAPOLIS, Md. – In its first appearance in the Military Bowl presented by Peraton, the UCF football team was defeated by Duke as the Blue Devils earned a 30-13 victory Wednesday afternoon at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

The Knights came up short of achieving their ninth 10-win season in program history, as UCF finishes the 2022 season with a 9-5 overall record while Duke concludes its campaign with a 9-4 mark.

"First of all, congratulations to Duke. They played extremely well and deserved to win the game," said Knights head coach Gus Malzahn. "Obviously, we're disappointed for our seniors that we couldn't send them out with a win. They've done such a good job for our program, so it's disappointing.

"The positive from this game is that we were able to play a lot of young guys and they competed. They're going to be really, really good football players and this is great experience for them."

Missing some key players, UCF held Duke to just seven points in the opening period as the teams were knotted at 7-7 following the first quarter of play. Duke struck first after a 14-yard touchdown run from Jaquez Moore, but UCF answered on its next drive with a 14-play drive that amassed 75 yards, ending with a one-yard TD run from running back Isaiah Bowser.

Following a pair of field goals and TD run from the Blue Devils quarterback Riley Leonard, Duke led 20-7 at halftime. It was just the fourth time this season that the Knights have trailed at the intermission. Thanks to a couple of long drives by the Blue Devils, UCF had just two possessions in the third quarter and was unable to turn either into points.

"When you look at the game, time of possession was very lopsided most of the game," Malzahn added. "When we had a good drive, we fumbled and the momentum kind of left us. We weren't very good on third downs, and we knew we had to be good on third downs against these guys and we were unable to do that."

UCF's defense keep the Knights in it late, as Duke punted on three consecutive drives to keep UCF within striking distance. Bowser found the end zone for the second time on the day with 9:03 remaining in the fourth quarter to make it 23-13. The score was Bowser's 16th rushing touchdown of the season to move into second in program history for rushing TDs in a single season behind Kevin Smith, who owns the record with 29 during the 2007 season.

For just the second time this year, UCF's offense was held to fewer than 330 yards of total offense. Quarterback John Rhys Plumlee was 21-34 for 182 yards passing and Bowser recorded 11 carries for 39 yards with a pair of scores.

Defensively, Koby Perry led the way for UCF with 10 tackles while Walter Yates tallied nine. Linebacker Jason Johnson logged seven stops in the contest to finish the season with 126 tackles, the ninth most in a single season in program history and the most by a player since 2002.

Safety Koby Perry tallied a team-high 10 tackles in the Military Bowl, finishing second on the team in tackles for the 2022 campaign

TAMPA – It marked UCF's 50th win in the last five seasons. That's 11 more than any other team in the state of Florida during that span, including the Gators. The Knights added to that Sunshine State dominance on Thursday, defeating Florida 29-17 in the 2021 Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl at a full-capacity Raymond James Stadium.

It's UCF's third bowl victory since 2017, which is also the most of any team in the state. And this is all before the Knights begin play in the Big 12 Conference, which could begin as early as the 2023 season.

In head coach Gus Malzahn's first season at UCF, he overcame many injuries to key players, and one of his own – a broken bone in his leg suffered late in the regular season – while leading his squad to nine wins with a true freshman at quarterback.

Keene went 7-3 as a starter for the Knights, finishing an efficient 14-of-22 for 144 yards and 54-yard touchdown pass to the game's Most Valuable Player, Ryan O'Keefe.

O'Keefe finished with seven receptions for 85 yards and the one score, while also rushing for 110 yards on four carries and totaled a Gasparilla Bowl record 251 all-purpose yards with a pair of kick returns for 56 yards.

He, running back Isaiah Bowser, and a stout defense carried the Knights to victory.

Bowser, who missed plenty of time this season due to injuries, returned in fine form, carrying the ball a career-high and Gasparilla Bowl record 35 times for 155 yards and two touchdowns. The Knight leaned on the senior back in the second half, giving him the ball 23 times, which led to 116 yards as UCF put the game away.

UCF outscored the Gators 20-7 in the second half and didn't allow Florida to score after a third-quarter touchdown that gave the Blue and Orange a 17-16 lead. The Knights held the Gators scoreless for almost 23 minutes to end the game.

The Knights had a pair of sacks from Cam Goode and Jeremiah Jean-Baptiste and a trio of pass breakups from Davonte Brown to help keep Florida at bay in the second half.

Special teams did its part too, led by Daniel Obarski's three made field goals. The kicker hit from 34 yards, 21 yards, and 33 yards to tie the UCF record for most field goals made in a game.

The Knights finished the season 9-4, recording nine or more wins for the fourth time in the last five seasons, and have a whole lot of momentum heading into the offseason.

Ryan O'Keefe throws up the peace sign after burning past his defender on a 54-yard touchdown reception from Mikey Keene. O'Keefe was named Gasparilla Bowl MVP with a Gasparilla Bowl record 251 all-purpose yards that included 110 rushing yards on four carries and 85 receiving yards on seven catches.

Isaiah Bowser earned a pair of rushing touchdowns from inside the five-yard line while carrying the ball 35 times for 155 yards

BOCA RATON, Fla. - The UCF football team closed out the 2020 season at the RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl, falling to 13th-ranked BYU by a score of 49-23 Tuesday evening at FAU Stadium in Boca Raton.

The Knights concluded the campaign with a record of 6-4, marking the winningest four-season span and winningest five-season span in program history, dating back to 2017 and 2016, respectively.

BYU (11-1) scored the first 21 points of the game and never looked back, leading 35-10 at halftime and 49-17 after three quarters of play.

Cougars quarterback Zach Wilson was 26-of-34 for 425 yards with three touchdowns through the air. He also ran for two scores on five rushes for 12 yards on the ground. Tyler Allgeier led the BYU ground attack with 19 rushes for 173 yards and a touchdown.

For UCF, quarterback Dillon Gabriel went 21-of-45 for 217 yards and threw two touchdown passes, one to Jaylon Robinson and one to Jacob Harris. Greg McCrae rushed 18 times for 77 yards and a score on the ground.

Jermaine McMillian led a depleted UCF defense with a career-high 11 total tackles, while Tatum Bethune had five tackles and a sack.

Tuesday marked the fifth consecutive season that the Knights have played in a bowl game, the first such stretch in program history.

Jacob Harris caught four passes for 67 yards and a touchdown, his eighth of his senior season. The former walk-on turned his impressive season into a shot at the pros when he was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Rams

TAMPA – After nearly a month off from playing, the UCF football team got things started quickly on Monday afternoon, scoring 21 points in the first eight minutes on the way to 48-25 victory over Marshall at the 2019 Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

Two of the Knights' (10-3) first three scores came from the defense, as Richie Grant snagged his first pick of the season and returned it 39 yards for a touchdown on the third play from scrimmage.

After punts from both teams, freshman Dillon Gabriel led a 6-play, 65-yard drive that culminated with a 26-yard Greg McCrae touchdown to put the Knights up 14-0 less than six minutes into the game.

Marshall (8-5) then began a drive at its own 21-yard line and advanced it to UCF's 40-yard line, before the Knights defense struck again. Tre'Mon Morris-Brash knocked down a backwards pass and picked it up to record the first forced fumble and the first fumble recovery of his career. Better than that, he then ran 55 yards to the end zone to give his team a 21-0 advantage it never looked back from.

A penalty-riddled, defensive-minded second quarter came and went with the Knights going into the locker room with a 24-7 lead.

The offense took its turn after the break, as the two teams totaled 39 combined points in the third quarter. Following the hour-long period, UCF found itself leading 45-25.

Gabriel, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player after the win, hit Otis Anderson on a 4th-and-7 screen pass that went 35 yards to paydirt to get things started in the quarter. Gabriel also rushed for a score and connected with Marlon Williams on a 75-yard score down the sideline to give the Knights a 45-25 lead heading into the final frame.

The Knights' offense controlled the clock and the defense kept the Herd at bay in the fourth quarter. Dylan Barnas's second field goal of the game, at the 9:01 mark, was the lone score of the period, and UCF left Tampa with the 48-25 victory over its former rival.

The Knights' 586 yards of total offense and 310 yards rushing both marked program records in a bowl game, while the 48 points were just four points shy of the 52 scored against Baylor in the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The defense totaled five turnovers on the day, another UCF bowl-game record.

The game's MVP, Gabriel finished the day 14-of-24 for 260 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions. The true freshman also added a scored on the ground.

UCF finished the 2019 season at 10-3, the program's third straight 10-win season, a first for UCF.

Tre'Mon Morris-Brash scoops up a backwards pass he batted down and runs the fumble recover back for a 55-yard defensive score, the second of the first quarter for the Black and Gold, building a 21-point lead in the process; it was his first forced fumble and recovery of his career

Dillon Gabriel was named the Gasparilla Bowl MVP as a true freshman, chalking up 260 passing yards and two touchdowns while adding a rushing score

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Senior defensive lineman Titus Davis took a knee on the 35-yard-line, his silence only interrupted by teammates who approached to extend their hand or a hug.

Senior linebacker Pat Jasinski hugged quarterback McKenzie Milton and told him he loved him like a brother.

Senior punter Mac Loudermilk thanked a slew of teammates one by one before taking a moment for himself to stand near the end zone and soak up the scene before him as memories of the past five years brought tears to his eyes.

The No. 7 UCF football team didn't get the ride-off-into-the-sunset ending it was hoping for in its 40-32 loss to No. 11 LSU at Tuesday's PlayStation Fiesta Bowl.

But this journey was something they'll never forget.

"I wouldn't trade this for anything in the world. Do I wish this game would have come out a little bit differently? Yeah. It's bittersweet," Loudermilk said. "What I want is for people to know this team pushes through any adversity there is, no matter what it is. I hope we stir the pot for expansion. I hope we've opened some people's eyes that we play real ball, and we can play with anybody. There is no limit to this team. Orlando has a hometown team and I think the school is only going to skyrocket from here."

The Streak that Knight Nation will Always Remember

The Knights' spectacular win streak came to an end after 25 games and a span of 745 days, dating to Aug. 31, 2017. The accomplishment will be listed in the NCAA record book among the longest win streaks ever recorded and marks the fourth-longest win streak this millennium (Miami, 34 – 2000-03; Florida State, 29 – 2012-14; Alabama, 26 – 2015-16).

During the last two years, the Knights won two War On I-4 rivalry matchups against USF. They bested four different nationally ranked opponents. They set an American Athletic Conference record for all-conference honorees in a single season. They welcomed ESPN's iconic show College GameDay to campus for the first time. They won two conference championships. They won the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and celebrated a national championship season.

And despite all that, those accomplishments will always fall second to the brotherhood and family they gained.

"I told the team in the locker room, 'You wipe y'all tears,'" linebacker Nate Evans said. "I know it's hard for some of these seniors, it's their last game. But football doesn't last forever. It's just a game. It's going to end. The memories that we have together as this UCF football team (are) going to last forever."

After LSU opened the game with a field goal and UCF responded with a touchdown, redshirt sophomore Brandon Moore intercepted Joe Burrow at the seven-yard-line and returned the pick 93 yards for a touchdown, giving the Knights a 14-3 lead

Greg McCrae gave the Knights their first touchdown of the 2019 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl, one of his 10 rushing scores on the season. As a sophomore, McCrae rushed for 1,182 yards on the ground

ATLANTA – Behind 21 unanswered points in the second half, the UCF football team capped a perfect 13-0 season with a 34-27 win over No. 7 Auburn in the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on New Year's Day. The Knights finished as the only undefeated team in the nation.

Down seven late in the third quarter, the No. 12 Knights stormed back into the game. Quarterback McKenzie Milton hit Otis Anderson on a screen pass that the freshman took to the end zone to tie the game with 1:30 to play in the third. Following a Tigers punt, the Knights offense drove back into Auburn territory. Milton danced around a few would-be tacklers, stepped up in the pocket and found a cutting Dredrick Snelson from eight yards out to give the Knights a 27-20 lead.

Auburn took over at their own 20-yard line with 6:58 left to play and a chance to even the score. Tigers quarterback Jarrett Stidham threw a pass that was intended for a cutting receiver for a short gain, but senior Chequan Burkett stepped in front to intercept the pass. The native of Montgomery, Ala., had no one in front of him and sprinted 45 yards to the end zone for the game-winning score.

Burkett, along with Shaquem Griffin and the UCF defense, gave the Tigers all they could handle. UCF racked up a season-high six sacks and 11 tackles for loss. UCF recorded a pair of takeaways. In addition to Burkett's pick-six, A.J. Wooten set up the Knights' first touchdown in the second quarter. The redshirt junior jarred the ball loose from Stidham, and it bounced into the hands of Tre Neal, which later led to an 18-yard scoring run for Milton.

Milton started the game 1-for-7 and were held scoreless in the first quarter for just the second time all season and trailed 3-0 going into the second quarter. While KZ still struggled through the air, he got it done with his legs in the first half, rushing for 83 yards as the Knights took at 13-6 lead into the break. The young quarterback finished the game with a career high 116 yards on the ground.

KZ got it going through the air in the second half. The Peach Bowl Offensive MVP finished with 242 passing yards and two passing touchdowns to go with one score on the ground. Milton was 13-of-18 passing in the second half.

The UCF defense recorded season highs of 10 tackles-for-loss and six sacks in the win over Auburn, wreaking havoc on the Tigers. Every miscue, including a pair of picks, were helped in large part due to the pressure from Shaquem Griffin and our ferocious front seven.

Griffin, the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl Defensive MVP, had his best day of the season on the biggest day of the season. He finished with a team high 12 tackles, 3.5 tackles-for-loss and 1.5 sacks in the victory.

Senior Shaquem Griffin saved his best for his final game for the Knights and was named Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl Defensive MVP. He tallied a career-high in tackles and tackles for loss with 12 and 3.5, respectively, adding 1.5 sacks. Griffin finished the season with the team lead in tackles for loss with 13.5 and sacks with seven

McKenzie Milton closed out his sophomore season as the Offensive MVP of the Peach Bowl, totaling 358 yards of total offense and three total touchdowns

ORLANDO - The UCF football team couldn't overcome a number of miscues in Saturday night's Cure Bowl, falling to Arkansas State 31-13.

Despite the outcome, UCF head coach Scott Frost expressed the amount of pride he has in what the Knights accomplished this season. He had a message of gratitude for the seniors, who played their final game in the Black & Gold.

"What this team has accomplished, I'm proud of them, happy for them. I'm hungry to accomplish more," Frost said. "I had a simple message for our team. I thanked the seniors. Everything we say about our seniors we mean from the bottom of our heart. These guys could have gone a lot of different directions. They didn't have to sacrifice and put in the effort and be leaders for our team and totally take a new direction in a new way of doing things that our coaching staff was asking them to do. They all did; they all led us. I'm proud to be their coach."

The Red Wolves scored 14 points off turnovers and added a touchdown on a blocked punt, which opened the scoring. Those 17 points were a huge difference in a contest where the two defenses were dominant. Arkansas State rushed for just 29 yards, while the Knights only managed 12. UCF passed for 211 yards, while the Red Wolves threw it for 205. Neither squad managed more than 234 yards. Combined, the two teams were 6-for-35 on third down.

"I think when either team's defense is on the field it was the superior unit on the field and we kind of knew that going in," Frost said.

A nightmare first quarter for UCF left Arkansas State with a 17-0 lead after 15 minutes of play. A blocked punt was recovered in the end zone for the Red Wolves. A long Arkansas State pass play led to a field goal to make it 10-0. On the ensuing kickoff, a fumble set the Red Wolves up with a short field that was converted into a touchdown to account for the 17 points.

The Knights found some offense in the second quarter. Tre'Quan Smith made another of his patented circus catches. The 34-yard completion set up an 11-yard scoring strike from McKenzie Milton to a wide-open Taylor Oldham. Following an Arkansas State fumble, Matthew Wright converted a 45-yard field goal to pull the Knights within seven, 17-10 at the intermission.

But a 75-yard touchdown pass less than a minute into the third quarter swung the momentum back to Arkansas State. Wright's second field goal of the game late in the third quarter got the Knights back within 11, 24-13. The Red Wolves took over deep in UCF territory late in the third quarter on a fumbled UCF punt and turned it into a touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter, accounting for the final tally.

Shaquem Griffin closed out his American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year season with a trip to the 2016 AutoNation Cure Bowl; he was tied for second in the contest in tackles with seven and tallied a tackle for loss and half a sack

Under the direction of first year head coach Scott Frost, the Knights returned to a bowl game the season immediately following an 0-12 showing in 2015

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. – The UCF Knights fell just short of another stirring comeback at Tropicana Field in the Bitcoin St. Petersburg Bowl. UCF trailed North Carolina State 34-13 in the fourth quarter, and mounted a rally before falling, 34-27.

A Niklas Sade field goal put the Wolfpack on top by 21 points with 12:37 remaining in the contest. But senior captain Josh Reese, who scored all three of the UCF (9-4) touchdowns, hauled in a 14-yard strike from quarterback Justin Holman less than three minutes later, bringing a huge, partisan UCF crowd back into the game.

When the UCF defense got a three-and-out, the Knights' faithful really began believing. However, a Holman interception slowed the Knights' momentum mid-way through the fourth quarter.

NC State (8-5) had two empty possessions, punting and missing a field goal, but a great deal of time ran off the clock.

The Knights started moving the ball again when they took over with 2:56 remaining. Just 1:12 later, Reese found the end zone a third time on a 2-yard pass from Holman. That score pulled UCF within seven points, 34-27.

With 1:44 remaining and no timeouts, the Knights needed to recover an onside kick to have a chance. NC State secured the kick and was able to run out the clock.

Meanwhile, thousands of Knight fans chanted "UCF! UCF! UCF!" and saluted their team as they left the field. An estimated 20,000-plus UCF fans made the short trip and were a part of a near-sellout of 26,675.

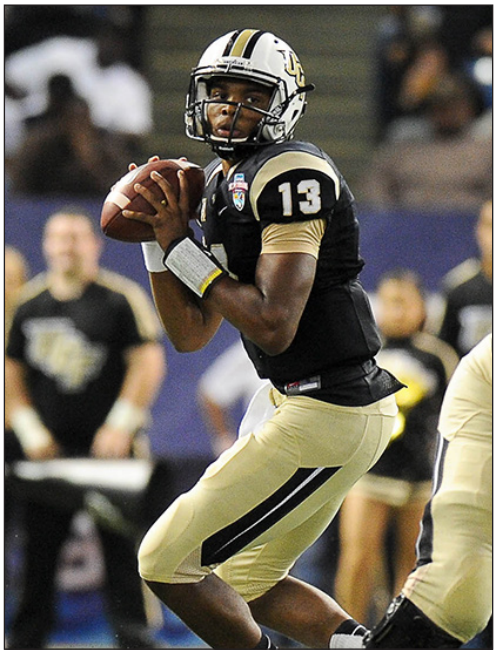

The Knights opened the scoring on the first possession of the game. A 40-yard Shawn Moffitt field goal put the Knights on top 3-0. But NC State answered on its first possession with an 18-yard halfback pass to Jaylen Samuels to go on top 7-3. The Knights regained the lead 10-7 early in the second quarter. Holman rifled a pass to Reese at the goal line from six yards out.

But it was all Wolfpack for the next two-plus quarters, as NC State outscored the Knights 27-3 to go on top by 21 points. Wolfpack quarterback Jacoby Brissett found a wide open Johnathan Alston for a 37-yard score to make it 14-10. An NC State field goal with 3:16 remaining in the first half pushed the score to 17-10 at halftime. Matt Dayes ran up the middle for a 19-yard score on the opening drive of the second half, putting the Wolfpack on top 24-10. The Knights got three points back after Wolfpack turnover, with Moffitt hitting from 36 yards out to make it 24-13. NC State answered with another Dayes score, as he went untouched up the middle late in the third, making it 31-13.

For the game, the Wolfpack out-gained the Knights 487-373. Brissett was named the game's MVP after passing for 262 yards and rushing for 31 more. Holman threw for 291 yards on 23-of-53 with three scores to pace the UCF offense. Breshad Perriman had nine receptions for 138 yards. Defensively, UCF was led by senior captain Clayton Geathers, who racked up 14 tackles.

Closing out his senior year with a career-high three touchdown receptions, Josh Reese was selected as UCF's team MVP after the game

GLENDALE, Ariz. - The most memorable season in UCF football history ended with the most memorable win in program history. In thrilling fashion, the Knights took a 52-42 triumph over No. 6 Baylor in the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The No. 15 Knights (12-1) won their third-consecutive bowl game and set a school record with their 12th victory of the season. UCF came into the season with just one victory over a ranked opponent and ended the historic effort with their second over a ranked squad in 2013 alone. To make the accomplishment even more impressive, both wins over ranked teams came against Top 10 opponents.

Junior quarterback Blake Bortles was named the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Offensive Player of the Game after racking up 301 passing yards and three touchdowns to go along with a career-high 93 yards rushing and a touchdown.

UCF's offense matched Baylor's high-powered attack every step of the way. The Bears came into the contest leading the NCAA in scoring offense and total offense, but it was the Knights who racked up 52 points and 558 total yards for the victory. The points and yardage were the largest totals ever by UCF in a bowl game and against a ranked opponent.

Much was said before the game about how the Knights' defense would stack up against Baylor's up-tempo offense. UCF, however, came into the game with the 13th-ranked scoring defense in the nation. The Knights forced seven Baylor punts and two turnovers, while holding the Bears 11 points and 75 yards beneath their season averages.

The Knights began to put the wild back-and-forth affair on ice when Storm Johnson ripped off a 40-yard touchdown run to give UCF a 49-35 advantage with 10:26 remaining. Johnson set a new career high with 124 rushing yards and matched his season-high mark with three rushing touchdowns. The Knights accounted for the winning total with a 36-yard field goal from Shawn Moffitt with less than five minutes remaining.

UCF got off to a roaring start. After receiving the opening kickoff, the Knights churned out 76 yards in six rush attempts, capped off by an 11-yard touchdown burst by Johnson. This marked the first touchdown drive of the season for the Knights that came without a single pass attempt.

After forcing a three-and-out, the Black and Gold again marched down the field, primarily on the strength of its rushing attack. After Bortles found Breshad Perriman streaking down the left sideline for a 34-yard gain, UCF returned to its ground control attack with four consecutive running plays. Johnson's 2-yard touchdown plunge gave the Knights a 14-0 advantage just eight minutes into the contest.

Junior Rannell Hall proved once again that his nickname, "Speedy" is appropriate as he took two short, second-quarter passes to the house. Both catches were made near the line of scrimmage and featured Hall out-running the Baylor secondary, with help from some terrific blocking from fellow wideouts Josh Reese, J.J. Worton and Taylor Oldham.

While Bortles brought home Offensive Player of the Game honors, Terrance Plummer was named Defensive Player of the Game. The junior linebacker racked up a game-high 14 tackles, including half a sack. Sean Maag (12 tackles) and Clayton Geathers (10 tackles) both recorded double-digit stops as well.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The slogan of UCF for 2012 was "Finish." And the Knights did just that with an exclamation point in the 2012 Beef O' Brady's Bowl. UCF earned its second bowl victory in program history with a 38-17 win over Ball State.

Led by the all-time winningest senior class in school history, UCF clinched its 10th victory of the season behind an impressive effort by the duo of senior running back Latavius Murray and sophomore signal-caller Blake Bortles. Bortles capped his first full season in style, earning MVP honors while finishing 22-of-33 for 271 yards and three passing touchdowns. He also led the team with a career-high 80 yards on the ground and another score.

Murray was just as impressive, cashing in for three touchdowns (all in the first half) and 104 total yards, with 71 on the ground and 33 through the air on a team-high six catches.

The defense also did its part in the drubbing of the Cardinals. Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year Kemal Ishmael finished his career with 367 tackles after recording seven in the contest. He also forced his sixth career fumble and two pass break-ups. Fellow senior defensive end Troy Davis also went out in style with 1.5 sacks to crack the UCF top 10 with 18-career QB take downs.

After winning the toss and receiving the ball to start the game, UCF matriculated down the field, mixing the run and pass well on a 13-play, 78-yard drive that was capped off by a Bortles-to-Murray touchdown connection. The drive ate 7:33 off the clock and was aided by the sophomore QB's ability to evade the pass rush, while also connecting with rookie Breshad Perriman three times for 21 yards and a pair of first downs.

With the defense forcing a quick three-and-out, UCF's offense continued its impressive start with a seven-play 58-yard drive that saw Murray reach pay-dirt on a short 2-yard burst. The Knights closed out the first quarter outgaining the Cardinals, 160-15.

Ball State would settle in, however, with an 82-yard drive for seven points that saw Keith Wenning hit Willie Snead from seven-yards out to make it a 13-7 contest in the second quarter.

UCF responded with Bortles completely taking over on the ensuing drive. The Oviedo native became a dual threat on the drive, rushing three times for 32 yards, including a 6-yard scramble up the middle that saw him bulldoze a pair of Cardinal defenders on his way to the end zone. He capped the scoring drive with UCF's first two-point conversion since Sept. 5, 2009, hitting senior H-back Dontravius Floyd in the back of the end zone.

Ball State drove right back into UCF territory, reaching the Knights' 10-yard line prior to freshman DL Thomas Niles sacking Wenning for an 11-yard loss. The third-down tackle for loss resulted in a much longer field-goal attempt, which sailed well left of the uprights.

Starting on its own 32-yard line with just 55 seconds left in the half, Bortles hit junior Jeff Godfrey and Murray for 12 and 10 yards before launching a 45-yard beauty to a streaking Perriman, who finished with a career-best 90 yards on five catches, on the far side line. The career-long reception led to Bortles hitting Murray for the second time in the half, this time from five yards out with just five ticks left on the first-half clock.

After a 45-yard field goal by Schott to make it 28-10 with 7:54 left in the third quarter, the Cardinals attempted an onside kick that redshirt sophomore running back Cedric Thompson grabbed out of the air safely to set up the Knights at the BSU 49-yard line.

Bortles continued to shred the Ball State defense with the prime field position. He racked up 41 of the next 49 yards through the air, tying his career record and a Beef `O' Brady's Bowl mark with touchdown pass No. 3 from seven yards out to fellow sophomore J.J. Worton.

Sophomore Shawn Moffitt would cap the Knights' scoring on the year with a 25-yard field goal to make it 38-10. The Cardinals tacked on a late touchdown to account for the final tally of 38-17. On the season, UCF finished with 496 total points, second all-time in program history.

Just a redshirt sophomore, Blake Bortles had no trouble with the Ball State defense, going 22-for-33 for 272 yards and three touchdowns. The Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl MVP also rushed for 80 yards and a touchdown.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – A UCF football program clearly on the rise as a powerhouse to be reckoned with nationally registered a landmark victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, beating Southeastern Conference power Georgia while registering the school's first-ever bowl victory.

When UCF sophomore safety Kemal Ishmael batted down a Hail Mary pass that seemed to hang in the air forever, it preserved No. 24 UCF's 10-6 defeat of Georgia and set off a wild celebration among the 8,000 Knights' fans who roared with noise inside the Liberty Bowl.

Doing something for a first time is never easy, and this first-ever bowl victory for UCF went down to the final seconds. Georgia quarterback Aaron Murray heaved a pass into the end zone for 6-foot-4 superstar wide out A.J. Green, but Ishmael was there to make the game-saving play that is sure to live in the history of the program for years to come.

Sophomore tailback Latavius Murray, the game's Outstanding Offensive Player and the MVP, scored on a 10-yard run with 9:01 to play to put the Knights ahead 10-6. And a defense that was dominant a couple of weeks ago in the Conference USA title game made it stand up. They held a Georgia offense that came in averaging 34.3 points a game to just two field goals and no touchdowns.

Freshman quarterback Jeff Godfrey capped a stellar first season on campus, helping the program win a C-USA title and the school's first bowl game. Let the comparisons to UCF legend Daunte Culpepper begin after he joined the school's lore. He completed 16 of 29 passes for 117 yards.

Georgia drove 61 yards on the first drive of the second half, but again had to settle for a Blair Walsh 42-yard field goal when the Knights got crucial pass break-ups from Ishmael and senior cornerback Justin Boddie. That 6-3 Georgia lead would be its final advantage of the game because they couldn't score against UCF's gritty defense.

UCF appeared to have scored first for the 13th time in 14 games when Quincy McDuffie took the opening kickoff back 98 yards. McDuffie, one of only nine players in the nation to return two kicks for touchdowns, hit a seam and sprinted for an apparent touchdown. However, the return was negated by a holding penalty on UCF special teams ace Ronnie Weaver.

Georgia's first drive started at the 2-yard line following a 56-yard boot by UCF senior punter Blake Clingan, but the Bulldogs proceeded to march 95 yards in the next 15 plays. But the Knights stiffened up near the goal line, forcing Georgia to settle for a field goal that put the Bulldogs up 3-0, and the Knights tied the game up 3-3 just before the half.

UCF hoists its first bowl game trophy in program history, victorious in its second trip to the Liberty Bowl in a span of four seasons

AutoZone Liberty Bowl MVP Latavius Murray scored the game's only touchdown in the fourth quarter, a 10-yard rush on first-and-goal with just under nine minutes to play

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The St. Petersburg Bowl presented what seemed to be a perfect storm for UCF on Saturday night with 20,000 of its fans packed inside Tropicana Field and a hot football team positioned for the first bowl victory in school history.

But an avalanche of errors combined with speedy, physical opponent in Rutgers ruined what could have been a dreamy, feel-good night for UCF's program and its hopeful fanbase.

Down four points late in the second quarter, UCF allowed an interception return to sap its momentum and the Knights could never mount much of a comeback in a disappointing 45-24 loss to Rutgers in the second St. Petersburg Bowl presented by Beef `O' Brady's.

"As I told the players, I'm embarrassed for the football team that we didn't go out and do a better job for the fanbase and for the football program," UCF coach George O'Leary said. "I thought we beat ourselves a lot in a lot of situations out there. Right now, Rutgers defense was just a lot better than our offense and that was the difference in the game."

UCF (8-5) had hoped that the momentum of a strong finish to the regular season, one in which it won the final six conference games and knocked off Marshall, Houston and UAB down the stretch, would carry over to the bowl game. But problems on both sides of the ball sabotaged the Knights' chances of pulling off the upset in this game.

Playing before roughly 20,000 Knights fans among the Tropicana Field crowd of 29,763, UCF netted just 35 yards on the ground, 33 of them coming in the fourth quarter when the outcome of the game was already decided. And in the passing game, two Brett Hodges' interceptions led to 14 points for Rutgers, bowl winners for a fourth consecutive season. And UCF's defense yielded 380 yards and eight third-down conversions.

The offense put up 14 points and a field goal early and defensively we played our butts off. We didn't want to go out like this, and this is so disappointing," senior defensive tackle Travis Timmons said.

"It's just such a big letdown. We're 0-14 now against Big East teams and 0-3 in bowl games. Torrell (Troup), Bruce (Miller) and myself along the defensive line wanted to change all of that, but unfortunately things didn't go the way we wanted them to."

Rutgers (9-4) played like an experienced team in its fifth consecutive bowl, using big plays on offense and an attacking defense to frustrate the Knights. Rutgers got six sacks and two interceptions defensively and freshman quarterback Tom Savage threw for 294 yards and two TDs.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - UCF's memorable season came to a close in a 10-3 loss to Mississippi State in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Playing at the site of Paul "Bear" Bryant's final game, the Bulldogs used power running and a dominant defense to top the Knights.

Anthony Dixon powered in from the one for the winning touchdown with 1:54 to go and most valuable player Derek Pegues picked off two passes in a game featuring anemic offenses and 17 punts.

The Bulldogs (8-5) kept the Knights (10-4) out of the end zone and Kevin Smith from breaking the single-season rushing record. The junior finished with 119 yards, leaving him 61 shy of Barry Sanders' mark of 2,628 yards set for Oklahoma State in 1988.

"I was trying to find the holes, but they were playing faster than us," said Smith.

Dixon finished with 86 yards and became the seventh Bulldogs runner to go over 1,000 yards (1,066). But like the rest of the Bulldogs, he was ineffective much of the game.

The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, mostly due to conservative play-calling.

Neither team converted a third down in the first half (0 for 16) as Mississippi State was held to 84 total yards and UCF to 79.

Kyle Israel had 12 yards passing and two interceptions by halftime and Mississippi State's Wes Carroll had 15 yards and an interception. UCF also didn't get much help from kicker Michael Torres, who gave the Knights a 3-0 lead in the second quarter with a 45-yard field goal, but missed from 32 and 37 in the second half.

"I think those missed field goals were big momentum breakers," UCF coach George O'Leary said. "Give Mississippi State credit. They fought hard and didn't turn the ball over. That usually means you're going to come up with a close win like that."

Mississippi State finished with 199 total yards and Blake McAdams tied the Liberty Bowl record with 11 punts. But the Bulldogs came up with just enough big plays after Keith Fitzhugh picked off Israel's pass at the Mississippi State 41 with 5:47 left.

Carroll, pulled the series before, returned and responded with two rushes for 17 yards and two completions for 15 yards. All went for first downs and spurred a 10-play, 59-yard drive that consumed 3:53 and finally led to a touchdown.

Derek Pegues, fittingly, made the final key defensive play, knocking down a fourth-down pass on UCF's final drive. The Bulldogs held the Knights to 219 yards and forced four turnovers.

Kevin Smith caps a record-setting season for the Black and Gold with his 13th 100-yard rushing performance, setting an NCAA FBS single-season record at the time; he also set the record with 450 carries. Smith earned the honor of becoming UCF's first consensus All-American in program history in 2007.

Michael Torres gets UCF on the board first with a 45-yard field goal, which wound up as UCF's only points of the evening.

HONOLULU - UCF dropped a 49-48 overtime decision to Nevada in the 2005 Sheraton Hawaii Bowl, the first bowl game in school history. The Knights finished the season with an 8-5 record, just one year after going 0-11. The turnaround of seven games from 2004 placed UCF tied with seven other schools for the fourth-best single-season turnaround in Football Bowl Subdivision history.

UCF kicker Matt Prater, who had three field goals during the game, missed the game-tying extra point wide right, giving the Wolf Pack the win.

B.J. Mitchell ran for 178 yards and two touchdowns, and Robert Hubbard had 126 yards rushing and three touchdowns for the Wolf Pack (9-3), who finished with their best season since 1996 and spoiled UCF's bowl debut.

UCF's Brandon Marshall caught a 16-yard pass for a touchdown that tied the game at 42 with 55 seconds left. The score capped a four-play, 48-yard drive that took just 37 seconds.

Prater booted a 46-yard field goal with 1:32 left to draw UCF to 42-35, and the Knights recovered the onside kick with no time-outs left, setting up Marshall's dramatic catch that sent the game into overtime.

Trailing 32-28, the Wolf Pack took the lead on Hubbard's 5-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. Nevada scored again on Rowe's 7-yard scoring pass to Travis Branzell for a 42-32 lead with 3:18 remaining.

Kevin Smith, Conference USA's Freshman of the Year, scored on a 78-yard run, the second longest run from scrimmage in UCF history, to give the Knights a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. The run was the longest in school history by a freshman and in UCF's 10-year Football Bowl Subdivision history. The longest run from scrimmage in UCF history was Elgin Davis' 79-yard scoring run vs. Samford (Nov. 15, 1986).

The 78-yard touchdown run by Smith was the second-longest run by a true freshman in the NCAA during the year. It also marked the longest run in Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl history.

Brandon Marshall was named UCF's MVP of the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl after posting 11 receptions for 210 yards and three touchdowns vs. Nevada

Kevin Smith, Conference USA's Freshman of the Year, scored on a 78-yard run, the second longest run from scrimmage in UCF history at the time. It also marked the longest run in Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl history.

Entering its 20th season in 2026, Acrisure Bounce House sits as the crown jewel in UCF's Kenneth G. Dixon Athletics Village. The on-campus stadium opened in 2007, giving the Knights their first true home stadium after spending the previous 28 seasons at the Florida Citrus Bowl (now known as Camping World Stadium) in downtown Orlando. The on-campus stadium debuted on Sept. 15, 2007 against the No. 6 Texas Longhorns in front of a capacity crowd for a game that was televised live nationally on ESPN2.

A tradition was born on that first game. Before kickoff, Zombie Nation's Kernkraft 400 rang through the speakers as the pregame clock wound toward triple zeros. The anticipation of the upcoming kickoff against a top-10 Texas squad sent fans to their feet and jumping to the beat. The electricity of the moment turned into kinetic energy. Knight Nation's excitement became a force of its own, sending the stadium bouncing in rhythm with the music.

On that day, the "Bounce House" was born.

The venue's inaugural season saw UCF finish the year with six-straight home wins, including a 44-25 victory over Tulsa in the Conference USA championship game. The Knights have won four of their six conference championships on home turf, hoisting CUSA trophies in 2007 and 2010 and American Athletic Conference titles in 2017 and 2018.

Located on the northeast corner of campus, the Bounce House received a major upgrade ahead of the 2026 season as an expanded Roth Tower was completed. The refreshed space saw a 256% increase in square footage of usable club space for gameday and non-gameday events, jumping from 4,400 square feet to 15,650. The renovation included loge seating, 42% more club seats and 28 luxury suites that are 38% larger than the previous ones. New experiences were installed throughout the tower, including 34 outdoor sky suites. Roth Tower includes four levels and provides substantially more shade across the stadium bowl than before. The addition of Roth Tower added 1,700 seats, raising the seating capacity to 45,906.

Roth Tower was the first project from Orange County's 2023 Tourist Development Tax (TDT) funding cycle to receive funding, break ground and open. The facility was made possible through the support of Orange County and the region's tourism and hospitality community, whose investment is helping strengthen sports, entertainment and economic development opportunities in the area.

The Bounce House underwent its first major renovation in the summer of 2015, adding the Carl Black and Gold Cabana on the east side of the stadium. The cabana is a Florida-themed social area and lounge that was later expanded in 2017 and features 2,921 chair-back seats and an open-air sun deck. Two additional premium areas were added in 2017, with the debut of field cabanas in each endzone. Additionally, the Stadium Club was opened and now exists as the Tower Club after the 2026 Roth Tower renovation.

UCF's scoreboard made its debut in 2016, measuring 114 by 36 feet. The all-LED display features Daktronics 15MM HD pixel layout for excellent image clarity. The south endzone received a Daktronics makeover in 2017, adding a ribbon board that measured 119 by 7.

The Bounce House received its first new playing surface ahead of the 2025 season. TifTuf® Bermudagrass was installed by Carolina Green Corp, using grass from a nearby sod farm in Vero Beach.

Ribbon-cutting ceremony from the preview event for the reopening of Roth Tower, which took place on Aug. 20, 2026.

Ryan O'Keefe is the only Knight in the history of the Bounce House to catch 100 passes over the course of his career with UCF. He suited up for 20 games on home turf, averaging five receptions per contest. He finished his career ranked eighth in receiving yards (1,004) and eighth in receiving touchdowns (6) in Bounce House history.

UCF'S FIRST HOME - THE CITRUS BOWL

On Sept. 29, 1979, Camping World Stadium, known back then to the Orlando community as the Tangerine Bowl, opened its doors for a hometown, start-up football program guided by Don Jonas. The Florida Citrus Bowl for much of the Knights' run, the crown jewel of the Orlando Centroplex was home for UCF until the 2007 season when the Bounce House - then Bright House Networks Stadium - was erected on the UCF campus.

Jonas was the first of seven men that led the Knights onto the field at the Citrus Bowl with George O'Leary being the last. The relationship witnessed more than 100 Knight victories and came to an end when the Black and Gold ran through the Citrus Bowl tunnel one last time on Nov. 25, 2006, against UAB.

The Citrus Bowl saw the Knights' football program rise through the division ranks of the NCAA, starting as a Division III member in 1979, to making the move to Division II in time for the 1982 season, then on to Football Championship Division status in 1990 before finally emerging at the top level as a Football Bowl Subdivision member in 1997.

The Knights were victorious in their inaugural game at the stadium, defeating Fort Benning 7-6 in front of 14,138 fans. Quarterback Mike Cullison's touchdown pass to Bobby Joe Plain on a fourth-and-goal was the first Knight score in the venue and proved to be the difference in the game. UCF fans would go on to set a Division III record as an average of 11,420 fans attended the Knights' four home games that season.

During UCF's 28-year stretch when it called the Citrus Bowl home, the stadium was the platform for some great UCF moments. The final home game vs. UAB in 2006 served as the final opportunity to add to that long, memorable list, and the Knights did not disappoint. Quarterback Kyle Israel found Mike Sims-Walker twice in the first quarter for a pair of touchdowns and the Black and Gold did not look back, defeating the Blazers 31-22. The crowd of 23,755 broke the 200,000 mark for the first time in school history, as the Knights saw a then-school record 220,980 fans flock through the gates in 2006.

UCF completed its tenure at the Florida Citrus Bowl with a 112-59-1 record. The Knights outscored their opponents 5,136-3,496 in 172 games with the 5,000th point coming on a Michael Torres extra point against Villanova Sept. 2, 2006.

Since opening in 1936, Camping World Stadium has grown into one of college football's most historic venues, evolving from the 10,000-seat Orlando Stadium into a 50,000-plus seat stadium that has hosted generations of high school, college, and professional football. The stadium served as UCF's home field from 1979-2006 and has welcomed numerous FBS neutral site and NFL preseason games featuring teams like the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Miami Dolphins and New York Jets. Best known nationally for its postseason tradition, the venue has hosted bowl games since 1947 and today is home to the Pop-Tarts Bowl, Citrus Bowl, Cheez-It Bowl, Cure Bowl and Florida Classic.

Beyond football, Camping World Stadium has evolved into one of Central Florida's premier entertainment stages, hosting some of the biggest spectacles in sports and music history. The stadium welcomed iconic acts such as The Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Paul McCartney, Elton John, Eagles and Van Halen, while also drawing national attention with WrestleMania XXIV in 2008, which set a then-attendance record of more than 74,000 fans. From massive concerts and international entertainment events to championship showcases and nationally televised productions, the venue's legacy extends far beyond the gridiron, cementing its place as one of Orlando's most recognizable and historic gathering places.

BY THE NUMBERS AT THE CITRUS BOWL

7 Record number of touchdown passes by a Knight; Darin Slack achieved the feat during a 52-14 trouncing of West Georgia in 1987

7 Number of 300-yard passing games by Daunte Culpepper at home, later becoming a UCF Hall of Famer and playing at an elite level in the NFL

11 Most consecutive home wins by UCF in the Citrus Bowl. The streak started on Nov. 2, 1996, with a 42-15 victory over Illinois State on Homecoming

21 Largest margin overcome by the Knights in a victory; UCF fell behind 21-0 in the first quarter, but rallied for a 28-24 win over Illinois State on Oct. 20, 1984

23 Tackles recorded by Bill Giovanetti in the 1979 season-finale against Morehouse. The total still stands as the all-time record for single-game tackles by a Knight.

50 Highest number of points scored in a half by the Knights; UCF went on to defeat Akron, 57-17, on Nov. 3, 2001

55 Longest field goal by a Knight. Ed O'Brien drilled the booming kick to help UCF pull out a 39-37 victory over Bethune-Cookman on Sept. 7, 1985

64 The greatest margin of victory for the Knights. UCF thumped Grand Valley State 67-3 on Halloween in 1987
