KNIGHT NOTES

QUIETED THE HERD – The UCF men's soccer team produced its strongest all-around effort in its most recent action, toppling the visiting Marshall Thundering Herd by a 4-0 final score in Orlando Oct. 3...the result clinched UCF's first Sun Belt triumph of the fall, boosting the team into a three-way tie for fifth place in the league table, and represented UCF's second consecutive win over the Thundering Herd after Marshall took the teams' first three meetings after UCF joined the Sun Belt in 2023...in blanking the Herd, the Knights became the first team this season to record a clean sheet against Marshall, keeping the Herd scoreless for the first time since Marshall lost to the No. 15 overall seed NC State in the second round of the 2025 NCAA Tournament, 2-0...the Knights became the first team to score four times in a single match against the Thundering Herd since West Virginia bested Marshall, 5-2, in Morgantown Oct. 18, 2023, and UCF also handed the Thundering Herd its most lopsided defeat by final score margin since Marshall fell to FIU in Miami, also by a 4-0 final score, Oct. 7, 2017...since being outscored by an aggregate 5-0 over their first three matchups with the Herd as Sun Belt Conference mates, the Knights have now outscored Marshall by a combined 7-1 across the teams' last two meetings dating back to UCF's 3-1 win over the Thundering Herd in the 2025 Sun Belt Conference tournament championship match in Huntington, West Virginia, Nov. 16, 2025.

DONUT NO. 6 – In blanking the Thundering Herd Oct. 3, the Black and Gold produced their sixth clean sheet of the season through the program's first 10 matches overall, and the squad enters its Friday night tilt against Coastal Carolina having surrendered just seven goals this fall, a mark that represents the fewest goals surrendered by the program through the first 10 matches of a season since the 2010 Knights allowed only six scores through their first 10 games...UCF saw its overall team goals-against average dip to just .700 with the winning effort, good for the lowest mark in the Sun Belt Conference entering play Thursday evening, and the 10th lowest mark in the nation...the Knights also led the Sun Belt Conference in shutout percentage (.600) and total shutouts (6) entering play Thursday, Oct. 8, and joined just eight other programs in the nation with at least six defensive clean sheets thus far.

ON OUR SIDE NOW – In playing his first career game against the team with which he spent the first three years of his collegiate career, senior defender Takahiro Fujita played an instrumental role in helping lead UCF to its dominant 4-0 win over Marshall Oct. 3, producing the first multi-goal game of his career and helping blank the Herd on the other end...for his efforts, he was tabbed the Sun Belt Conference's week seven Offensive Player of the Week, representing his second Sun Belt Conference weekly honor of the season...he became the first player in UCF's Sun Belt era to earn multiple weekly honors in the same season, and only the second Knight in that span to earn at least two Sun Belt weekly awards across multiple seasons, joining former goalkeeper Juanvi Muñoz, who earned Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week honors in 2023 and 2025...with four goals this season, Fujita has set a new single-season career best, matching his previous career total of four from the 2024 and 2025 seasons combined...Fujita also became the first player in Sun Belt men's soccer history to earn Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week honors in the same season.

KNIGHT NOTES

VISITING THE CHANTS – Fresh off its convincing 4-0 win over the Marshall Thundering Herd Oct. 3, the UCF men's soccer team is set for its next Sun Belt Conference clash against the Coastal Carolina Chanticleers in Conway, South Carolina, Friday, Oct. 9...the Knights look to build on their great recent success in meetings with Coastal Carolina, having bested the Chanticleers in each of the teams' first three matchups since UCF joined the Sun Belt in 2023...the Knights have outscored Coastal Carolina by an aggregate 10-2 in that span, contests that featured a dominant 5-0 win in Orlando in 2023, a 2-1 victory in Conway in 2024 that saw a game-winning Lucca Dourado goal in the 89th minute, and a 3-1 triumph in Orlando on Halloween night in 2025...a win Friday evening would mark UCF's second Sun Belt victory of the fall and extend the Knights' win streak over Coastal Carolina to five straight matches dating back to UCF's 8-1 win Sept. 6, 1998.

CLIMBING THE RANKS – In just his first year with the Knights, goalkeeper Matisse Hébert is actively compiling one of the strongest seasons by a goalkeeper in UCF's program history, most recently clinching his sixth clean sheet of the season with a pair of saves in the Knights' 4-0 win over Marshall Oct. 3...with his sixth shutout of the year, Hébert has jumped into a five-way tie for eighth place on the program's single-season clean sheets list, and needs just two more to tie Shawn Doyle (2010), Ryan McIntosh (2003) and Winston DuBose (1975) for the most in a single season in program history with eight...his 0.700 goals-against average would rank fourth-lowest in a single season in program history, and his next clean sheet would give him a new single season career high seven, surpassing the six he recorded throughout his freshman season with the Wisconsin Badgers...entering play Thursday, Oct. 8, Hébert ranked among Sun Belt leaders in goals-against average (.700, 1st), shutouts (6, 1st), and save percentage (.767, 3rd), and he represented one of just five goalkeepers in the nation to have accrued at least six shutouts, joining SMU's Jonathan Evans (7), Vermont's Niklas Herceg (7), Xavier's Jonny Mennell (6), and Princeton's Andrew Samuels (6).

DEFENDING THE KINGDOM – Since head coach Scott Calabrese began his tenure at the helm of the Knights prior to the 2017 season, UCF has produced an aggregate 55-24-12 home record spanning its last nine seasons entering play Saturday...the Black and Gold have lost just 15 regular-season home matches during Calabrese's time in Orlando; prior to the 2020-21 season, UCF had only one regular-season home loss through his first three seasons.

RIVALRIES RENEWED – In its September 22 contest in DeLand against the Stetson Hatters, the UCF men's soccer team played the fourth and final matchup against an in-state opponent on the program's 2026 regular-season schedule, playing to a 1-1 draw with the Hatters...the effort ensured the Knights went undefeated in their four contests against Florida foes, going 2-0-2 with wins over South Florida (2-0) and Florida Polytechnic (6-0) and draws with the Hatters (1-1) and Florida Atlantic Owls (0-0)...in the Scott Calabrese era overall, the Knights own an aggregate 23-8-5 record against Florida foes.

STARTING STRONG – With a 4-1-1 mark through its first six games this fall, the UCF men's soccer team enjoyed its best six-game start to a season since the 2023 Knights began the year 4-0-2 with wins over then-No. 9 Clemson, Stetson, NC State and Brown, and draws with then-No. 11 FIU and then-No. 4 West Virginia...UCF in 2023 would then suffer its first loss of the season, ranked the No. 3 team in the nation at the time, to then-No. 1 Marshall on the road, 1-0, to drop to 4-1-2, one of just two regular-season losses the Knights suffered that season...UCF's +8 goal differential also marked the program's best aggregate scoring margin through the first six games of a season since the 2011 Knights recorded a +11 goal differential in starting the season 5-0-1 with wins over Jacksonville, UMass, Belmont, North Florida and Mercer.

BREAKING THE DAM – Redshirt junior forward Drew Hansen, after being held off the scoresheet throughout the season's first four games, has rocketed up to his current status as the Knights' leading scorer entering play against Coastal Carolina, having netted four goals and his first career assist in the Knights' two-game span against Florida Polytechnic (W, 6-0) Sept. 6 and VCU (W, 2-0) Sept. 11...Hansen recorded his first career hat trick in UCF's rout of the Phoenix, matching his previous season high in goals scored in just one game, and later scored his fourth goal of the year in the Knights' shutout win at VCU Sept. 11, notching a new personal season high...both of UCF's game-winning goals in the team's two wins against VCU and Florida Polytechnic came courtesy of Hansen as well, giving the forward multiple game-winners in a season for the second consecutive year after he scored game-winning goals in back-to-back Sun Belt Conference tournament wins over fourth-seeded Georgia Southern and top-seeded then-No. 19 Kentucky in Lexington last fall.

ROAD WARRIORS – After beginning the 2025 season with an overall 2-5-1 record through seven games, the UCF men's soccer team has demonstrated a strong resolve in securing results in matches away from its home pitch in Orlando...since and including the Knights' 2-0 clean sheet effort against South Carolina in Columbia Oct. 4, 2025, UCF has gone unbeaten in nine of its last 12 true road games or neutral site matchups, going 5-3-4 in that span, highlighted by its 3-0 run through the 2025 Sun Belt Conference tournament in Lexington, Kentucky and Huntington, West Virginia...UCF in that span has outscored its opposition by an aggregate 14-11 in said road matchups, including four clean sheets in matchups against the Gamecocks, then-No. 12 Marshall Thundering Herd, Florida Atlantic Owls and VCU Rams.

UCF DIVISION I CONFERENCE AFFILIATION HISTORY

Atlantic Sun Conference
1993-2004 (12 seasons)

After making the D-I jump in 1984, the Black and Gold didn't join their first Division I conference until 1993. Despite going 4-10-1 in their first year in a conference, the Knights made the A-Sun Semifinals in just their second year as part of the A-Sun. The Knights found success quickly and carried that momentum with them throughout their time in the A-Sun, tallying eight appearances in the conference tournament in 12 total seasons.

The Knights finished their time in the A-Sun on a high note, winning the tournament championship in three consecutive seasons from 2002-04. The championship runs led to UCF's first three NCAA Tournament appearances. The Black and Gold were turned away from their first NCAA Touranment victory in their first two tries by FIU, but were able to beat the Panthers in 2004 for the program's first tournament win.

Three Knights earned four major honors during the program's tenure in the A-Sun. Heikki Ritvanen scored 88 career goals from 1996-99, UCF's most in program history, and was honored as the A-Sun's Player of the Year in 1999. Alejandro Gessen was named Freshman of the Year while Ryan McIntosh was a two-time Defensive Player of the Year. In all, 54 nods were recieved to the A-Sun First, Second, Third and Freshmen Teams in UCF's 12 years in the league.

Conference USA
2005-2012 (8 seasons)

UCF had a new conference and a new head coach for the 2005 season. Brent Erwin and the Knights went 13-17-3 over their first two seasons as members of Conference USA. Fast forward to UCF's sixth season in the league, fourth year head coach Bryan Cunningham led UCF to its first NCAA Tournament apperance as members of C-USA, winning 12 matches with a 12-5-3 record. The team followed suit the next year, winning a dozen games again and making the NCAA Tournament second round for the second straight year.

The Knights won 32 matches in their final three seasons as part of C-USA, more than first five seasons in the league combined. The Black and Gold won no major honors as C-USA members, but saw nine nods to the All-Conference First Team and a total of 30 nods across the First, Second, Third and Freshman Teams.

American Athletic Conference
2013-2022 (10 seasons)

The Knights enjoyed massive success as part of The American, reaching the conference final in five of their final six seasons in the league. The Black and Gold earned three regular seasons titles and one tournamennt championship as members of The American. In total, UCF qualified for the conference's postseason tournament in nine straight seasons, only missing the 2022 postseason by two points.

Three of UCF's NCAA Tournament appearances came while in The American, qualifying in 2018, 2019 and 2020. The Knights punched their first ticket into the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 in 2019, and then did the same for the 2020 tournament, which was held in the spring of 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Plenty of Knights stood out in UCF's time in The American. A member of the Black and Gold was named Offesnive Player of the Year six times out of the team's 10 years in the league. Matias Pyysalo and Cal Jennings won the honor twice while Romario Williams and Hadji Barry were honored once each. UCF collected three Midfielder of the Year honors and three Goalkeeper of the Year awards; Oettl collected all three goalkeeping honors while Yoni Sorokin took two of the three midfielder awards along with Louis Perez who won the other. Gino Vivi was honored as UCF's lone Freshman of the Year award, earning the nod in 2019.

The Black and Gold had 11 First Team All-Conference honorees, including nine that were named on the top squad multiple times. In total, UCF earned 36 nods to the All-Conference First or Second Teams while 16 rookies graced the All-Freshman Team while in The American.

Sun Belt Conference
2023-present

UCF men's soccer's move to the Sun Belt Conference was made in tandem with the rest of UCF's sports moving to the Big 12 Conference in 2023-24, a league that does not sponsor men's soccer. The Sun Belt recently re-emerged as a conference for men's soccer, resuming play in 2022 after previously sponsoring men's soccer from 1976-1995 and 2014-20. The Knights joined Kentucky, South Carolina and West Virginia as men's soccer members only. Those four teams joined James Madison, Marshall, Old Dominion, Coastal Carolina, Georgia Southern and Georgia State.

"I'm very excited to be partnering with Commissioner Keith Gil and Deputy Commissioner Kathy Keene. They are great people and I'm excited to work with them again," said UCF Vice President and athletics director Terry Mohajir. "We believe the move to the Sun Belt positions our men's soccer program for great success in the coming years. Coach Calabrese has shown his teams can compete with the best of the best in The American, and we can't wait to see the program continue to grow and compete in the very strong Sun Belt Conference."

"We are very excited to accept the invitation to join what will clearly be an incredible conference for men's soccer," said head coach Scott Calabrese. "I love that the Sun Belt will be the home of both the Big 12 and the SEC for men's soccer along with 2020 National Champions Marshall and so many top soccer programs as well. It's an exciting new challenge for our program and we can't wait to be a part of it in 2023."

In just its third season as a member of one of the nation's premier men's soccer conferences in 2025, the UCF men's soccer team solidified itself among the country's top soccer programs, authoring a dominant run through the Sun Belt Conference championship to claim the first Sun Belt Tournament title in program history, and its eighth overall conference championship.

The Knights knocked off fourth-seeded Georgia Southern, top-seeded Kentucky and third-seeded Marshall, all on the road, and outscored their opposition by an aggregate 7-3 over the three matches with one clean sheet.

The effort represented the first time in program history that UCF toppled a No. 1 seed in a conference tournament, and also clinched the first season in program history with three wins over ranked opponents.
