KNIGHTS

UCF FOOTBALL

POSTGAME NOTES

UCF	28
#18 OSU	42

OCTOBER 10, 2026

Stillwater, Okla.

Boone Pickens Stadium

Attendance: 52,168

TV: ESPN2

UCF TEAM NOTES

- Entering the week, teams in the Big 12 Conference were a combined 39-6 at home this season, the best mark in the FBS. The league is on pace for the best home winning percentage by a conference in the last 30 years.
- UCF won the toss and elected to defer. The Knights have won the coin toss in five of its six games thus far.
- UCF forced a fumble on Oklahoma State's second play on its opening drive, punched out by Antione Jackson and recovered by Isaiah Nixon. It's the second time in the last three games that UCF has forced a turnover on the opening drive, the other against TCU, forcing a fumble on the third play of the game.
- The Knights have not allowed an opponent to score on the opening drive in each of the six games this season
- UCF scored a touchdown on its fourth straight opening possession and have scored a touchdown on its opening drive in five of six games thus far in 2026, the only exemption a punt at Pittsburgh in Week 2
- The Knights have not allowed the opposition to score a touchdown on their opening drive of the second half this season, but have allowed three field goals, including one on Saturday afternoon to Oklahoma State, a 40-yard make with 7:19 to play in the third quarter
- Oklahoma State entered the game as the 15th ranked passing defense in the country, allowing just 158.5 passing yards per contest. The Knights threw for 265 yards in the contest as Keyone Jenkins was 30-for-42 with four touchdown passes
- UCF has lost six consecutive games to AP Top 25 ranked opponents, the last win coming against then-No. 15 Oklahoma State on Nov. 11, 2023, a 45-3 victory in Orlando
- The Knights are winless in their last 12 road contests, the last coming against TCU in Fort Worth, a 35-34 win Sept. 14, 2024.
- The Black and Gold fall to 5-9 on artificial turf across Scott Frost's four seasons at the helm of the Knights

UCF PLAYER NOTES

- UCF's touchdown on its opening drive was a one-yard touchdown pass from Keyone Jenkins to Grayson Brousseau. The tight end spent the 2025 season with Oklahoma State, catching seven passes for 45 yards.
- Keyone Jenkins started the game completing his first nine passes, his best start to a game this season.
- With his three touchdown passes in the first half, Jenkins became the first UCF quarterback to throw for three touchdown passes in a game since Dylan Rizk did so Nov. 2, 2024 in a victory over Arizona.
- Jenkins later threw a fourth touchdown pass in the fourth quarter, which is the first time a Knight has done so since John Rhys Plumlee threw four touchdown passes on Oct. 13, 2022 in a 70-13 Space Game win over Temple.
- Freshman Tyren Hornes recorded his first collegiate touchdown on a 3-yard reception from Keyone Jenkins with 13 seconds remaining in the second half to tie the game before halftime
- Will Stone attempted a career-long 45-yard field goal, but missed, ending his perfect 5-for-5 field goal streak as a Knight.
- Ric'Darious Farmer hauled a 39-yard reception, setting a new career long surpassing his previous best of 16-yards set while at West Virginia against Texas Tech on Nov. 30 2024