The KEY to Success

It was an explosive debut for SFA transfer Key Roseby in her first game as a Knight against Florida A&M Tuesday. She led the team with 22 points, knocking down an astounding six three-pointers on eight attempts. Her scoring performance is the third-best of any Big 12 player this season. Roseby was just short of her career-high of 26 points, but her three-pointer total surpassed her previous best by two. The junior added six rebounds, three assists and a steal to her stat line, leading the Knights to victory.

Game One, Game Won

It was a happy night in Orlando Tuesday, as new head coach Gabe Lazo led his program to victory No. 1 on the 2026-27 season over Florida A&M. Lazo, the first Latino Power 4 women's basketball head coach, became the sixth coach in UCF history to win their coaching debut at the helm of the Black & Gold. Downing the Rattlers 85-56, it marked a promising start to a new chapter in Orlando.

Well Balanced Offense

The Black and Gold relied on all players in the season opener to get the win. Key Roseby poured in 22 points, Caitlyn Jones and Mikayla Johnson added 13 each, Candace Kpetikou dropped in 12 and Mahogany Chandler-Roberts completed the double-digit scorers with 11. The combination marked the first time that five Knights scored in double figures since Nov. 16, 2024, when UCF defeated Stetson, 89-58.

A New Era

The Knights will enter the 2026-27 season with a new face at the helm, with head coach Gabe Lazo being named the head coach of Women's Basketball in April. UCF marks Lazo's first stop as a head coach, adding onto his has 10 years of collegiate coaching experience. The Miami native spent the past two seasons at Tennessee, helping guide the Lady Vols to two NCAA Tournament appearances. An infectious personality with a strong recruiting presence, he brought two top-ten recruiting classes to Knoxville and has continued that success with his first signing class for the Black and Gold. Lazo is ready to bring his experience to the Big 12 Conference with the goal of making a splash in his first season.

KNIGHTS NOTES

their home arena. UCF has garnered 175 wins in Addition Financial Arena over the years and will look to continue to improve its home record in Coach Lazo's debut season.

Returning Knights

Coach Lazo returned three players from the 2025-26 roster to bring a veteran UCF presence to his program. Mahogany Chandler-Roberts is set to return for her third season in Black and Gold this year after starting all 30 games a season ago. The rising junior averagd 7.7 points per contest in 25-26 and shot 43.3 percent from the floor. Also returning is Orlando native Jasmynne Gibson, who saw time in 20 games last year, tallying 3.6 points each game. Felicia Scholander featured in 12 games in her freshman season with the Knights and will look to broaden her game experience in year two wearing the Black and Gold.

A UCF Homecoming

Coach Lazo added a familiar face for longtime UCF fans to his coaching staff in the hiring of Assistant Coach Lynn Bria. Her return marks her second stint in Orlando, as she previously served as the ninth head coach in UCF Women's Basketball history. Bria was at the helm from 1996-99 and oversaw a Knights program that won an Atlantic Sun Conference title and the first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. "My affection for UCF has continued with me throughout my career," said Bria on her hiring. "The memories haven't gone away... I can't wait to be back in Orlando!"

Exhibition Insights

The Knights got to test out their 2026-27 roster in a pair of exhibition contests before the season began, gaining great insight into how the team will compete. In the first, UCF traveled down to take on Auburn in a neutral site game, showing a lot of grit and fight. The Tigers jumped out to an 18-point lead towards the end of the first quarter, but the Knights clawed back, falling by a single-digit deficit. Exhibition 2 saw UCF host St. Leo, dominating the program en route to a 99-50 win. Vittoria Blasigh led the scoring way for the Knights in the two, scoring 19 against Auburn and 15 vs. St. Leo. Mikayla Johnson notched a double-double with her 15-points, 10-rebound performance versus the Lions.

Gabe Lazo

Head Coach / First Season at UCF

EDUCATION

Barry University, 2008
Bachelors, Education

UCF Vice President and Director of Athletics Terry Mohajir has announced the hiring of Gabe Lazo as the next head coach of its women's basketball program, becoming the 14th head coach in program history.

A Miami native, Lazo brings a dynamic background and a proven track record of success at multiple levels of women's basketball. Widely regarded as one of the rising coaches in the game, he has built his reputation as an elite recruiter, defensive strategist, and developer of student-athletes.

Most recently, Lazo spent the past two seasons at Tennessee, helping guide the Lady Vols to two NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 run during his first season in Knoxville. During his time on Rocky Top, he played a key role in assembling elite talent, including a top-ranked 2025 signing class and the nation's top transfer portal class, according to ESPN.

Lazo enters his 10th season coaching college women's basketball, having helped lead teams to five postseason appearances (four NCAA Tournament berths and one WBIT), along with a conference championship and a conference tournament title.

Prior to Tennessee, Lazo spent two seasons as associate head coach at Mississippi State, where he served as the program's defensive coordinator and helped lead the Bulldogs to an NCAA Tournament Second Round appearance in 2022-23 and a WBIT Elite Eight run in 2023-24. Known for his relentless recruiting approach and ability to develop talent, he played a critical role in assembling top-ranked recruiting and transfer classes during his time in Starkville.

Across his four seasons at the Power 4 level with Mississippi State and Tennessee, Lazo's recruiting instincts aided in the signings of 11 ESPN SportsCenter Next 100 athletes. He was the primary recruiter in Knoxville for the nation's top-ranked high school class of 2025, which boasted three five-star and two four-star prospects, along with an impressive portal class which topped the ESPN rankings.

Before his time in the SEC, Lazo coached at George Washington (2021-22), helping the program post the second-ranked defense in the Atlantic 10 and reach the conference tournament quarterfinals. He also spent two seasons at Stony Brook (2019-21), where he helped guide the Seawolves to an America East regular-season championship, a conference tournament title, and an NCAA Tournament appearance, while assisting in the development of multiple all-conference players.

Lazo began his collegiate coaching career at FIU (2017-19) following a successful run at the high school level as head coach at Miami's John A. Ferguson Senior High School, where he earned Miami-Dade County Coach of the Year honors three times and led his teams to back-to-back regional championships and state runner-up finishes.

He has also gained national recognition within the profession, including being selected to attend the prestigious 2024 TopConnect Basketball Symposium and being named the 2025 World Exposure Report Assistant Coach of the Year.

Lazo earned his bachelor's degree in education from Barry University in 2008 after beginning his collegiate playing career at FIU and finishing at Barry. He also spent two seasons playing professionally in Puerto Rico.

During his high school days, Lazo was a four-year letterwinner and an honor roll student at Miami Senior High. He led MSHS to the state Final Four as a junior and the Elite Eight as a senior and was part of squads that won three district titles and two city championships during his prep career.

"Gabe's path speaks for itself. He's come up through the grassroots level, putting in the work and earning every step. He's not just a recruiter, he develops players, builds relationships, and understands what it takes to grow a program. This next step as a Head Coach is well earned. He's prepared, he's proven, and he's ready for it."

YOLETT MCPHEE-MCCUIN | Head Coach, Ole Miss Women's Basketball

"The acquisition of Gabe Lazo is a home run for UCF! He loves Florida, believes in developing young people, and will rally the Orlando community behind this program. Gabe is a star in the making, and I'm confident he will pour everything he has into building UCF into a formidable opponent in the Big 12."

SAM PURCELL | Head Coach, Mississippi State Women's Basketball

"Growing up in Miami, Florida, I've known Gabe for over 25 years. I've seen his growth as a man, as a player, and as a basketball coach. His passion for the game is evident but what I appreciate most is his passion for people. Throughout every stop in his coaching journey, he leads with authenticity & has an amazing way of building connections. UCF got a great coach and a great human.
