KNIGHT NOTES

ONE OF THE BIG 12'S BEST

✦ Transfer senior forward Naomi Clark has been a fantastic addition for the Knights this season, as she is in the top three in the Big 12 Conference in several offensive categories. Her 13 goals tie her for first in the league. She also tops the conference with a 0.76 goals per game average, and a 1.82 points per game clip. Her 31 points put her in sole possession of second place, while her four game-winning goals tie her for second in the Big 12.
✦ Nationally, Clark finds herself in the top 20 in goals (tied for 18th), goals per game (tied for 17th), points (tied for 18th), and points per game (18th), effectively cementing herself as one of the nation's best and most feared attackers.

CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT SUCCESS UNDER COACH TIFF

✦ UCF will enter the 2026 Big 12 Soccer Tournament presented by Allstate with a 1-2 all-time record in Big 12 Tournament play after defeating TCU in the quarterfinals in 2023, while falling to BYU in the semifinals that same year and Colorado in the 2025 quarterfinals. The Knights also hold a 7-7-5 conference tournament record under Coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak with the team having won their last conference tournament championship in 2013—Coach Roberts Sahaydak's first season at the helm in Orlando.

TRIO OF KNIGHTS EARN ALL-BIG 12 HONORS

✦ Senior forward Naomi Clark and junior midfielder Ainsley Moy both earned All-Big 12 First Team honors while sophomore defender Kalena Bellini was named to the conference's second team. The all-conference accolades mark the first of the career for each Knight.
✦ Clark was named to the league first team after tallying 13 goals and 31 points to tie for the league lead in goals scored for a dominant regular season on the pitch. The 13 goals have her tied for the league lead while her 31 points are good enough for second. She also paces the conference in goals per game (0.76) and points per game (1.82). Moy too was named to the conference's first team after leading UCF with nine assists and finishing second in points with 17. She is currently third in the league in both assists and assists per game (0.53). Bellini was named to the conference's second team after anchoring the Knights' backline and helping lead the team to six shutouts on the campaign. Bellini has played in all 17 matches and has gone the full 90 minutes five times.

CLARK TABBED TO TDS'S MIDSEASON TOP 100 LIST

✦ Senior forward Naomi Clark has been named Top Drawer Soccer's Midseason Top 100 List. This list recognizes the top collegiate players in the country based on their performances throughout the first half of the season. Checking in at No. 34, Clark is the fourth-highest ranked player in the Big 12 Conference. Clark previously earned Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week honors on Sept. 2 after tallying her first career hat trick in a win over UAB. She also earned Top Drawer Soccer Team of the Week Honorable Mention accolades that same week.

HOME SWEET HOME

✦ The Knights have put together a solid record at home on the season as they went an impressive 7-1-1. UCF opened the season unbeaten at the UCF Soccer Complex through its first seven home matches. The seven wins matched UCF's output from last season in which they posted a 7-1-2 home record.

KNIGHTS IN THE TOP 25 THIS SEASON

✦ While outside of the Top 25 this week, UCF has been nationally ranked four times this season, most recently checking in at No. 23 in the IWSOC/United Soccer Coaches Week 6 Top 25 Poll. UCF has climbed as high as No. 13 this season after previously being ranked No. 14 on Aug. 25. The Knights have also been ranked No. 13 on Sept. 1, No. 25 on Sept. 15, and No. 23 on Sept. 22. UCF will enter the Big 12 Tournament with the No. 31 RPI.
✦ The No. 13 ranking marked UCF's highest since the 2017 season. The Knights are 1-3-1 this season when nationally ranked and 81-34-20 all-time as a ranked team, including a 43-14-10 mark at home. This season against nationally ranked teams, the Black and Gold hold an unblemished 3-0-1 record.

NCAA TOURNAMENT TRADITION

✦ For the sixth time under head coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak and the first time since 2022, UCF advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2025.
✦ The Knights went 12-4-5 overall and posted a sixth-place finish in the Big 12 in 2025 en route to earning an at-large bid to the NCAA Tourney.
✦ The Black and Gold hosted a first-round contest and pulled out a 2-0 victory over Maine on their way to advancing to the second round. The Knights then had their 2025 run come to a close in the tournament's second round with a 1-0 setback to No. 7 Duke in Durham.
✦ It marked the program's 23rd all-time NCAA Tournament appearance.

COACH TIFF TO REPRESENT USWNT AT 2027 WORLD CUP

✦ UCF head coach Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak has rejoined the U.S. Women's National Team as a current assistant coach on Emma Hayes' staff.
✦ Roberts Sahaydak has been with the USWNT a number of times during 2026, as she took part in the team's January Camp, in February for the SheBelieves Cup, in April for the April Camp (friendlies vs. Japan), and in June for the June Camp (friendlies vs. Brazil). She will remain on staff and represent her home nation at the 2027 Women's World Cup in Brazil.
✦ As a player, Roberts Sahaydak won both Olympic Gold (1996) and the 1999 World Cup with the USWNT. She went on to earn 112 caps for her country. She also previously spent time as an assistant coach for the USWNT in 2022 and 2023 for the 2023 Women's World Cup that was held in Australia/New Zealand.

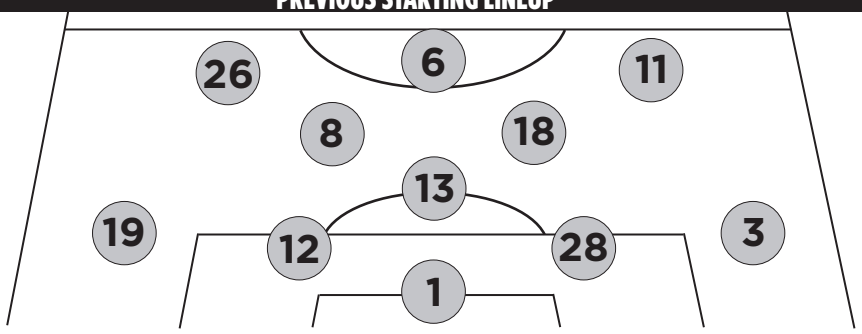

THE ROBERTS SAHAYDAK ERA

✦ The Knights have experienced tremendous success under Roberts Sahaydak, as the program has made the NCAA Tournament six times during her tenure here in Orlando as well as won four conference championships.
✦ Under Roberts Sahaydak's leadership, UCF has made the NCAA Tournament in 2013, 2014, 2015, 2017, 2022, and 2025.
✦ The Knights also won conference titles in 2013, 2014, 2017, and 2022. Roberts Sahaydak has recorded a winning season in 11 of her 13 years here in Orlando and will enter the season with a 133-65-37 record at UCF as well as a 186-115-56 career record over 19 years.
✦ She was named a finalist for the National Soccer Hall of Fame Class of 2026 Veteran Ballot due to her tremendous success as a player and a coach.

THE MOST CURRENT PROS IN THE BIG 12

✦ UCF women's soccer has the most current pros of any Big 12 institution with 28.
✦ Former goalkeeper Genesis Perez Watson was the latest Knight to go pro as the 2025 All-Big 12 Second Team honoree signed a professional contract with Atlético Madrid of the Spanish Liga F this summer.
✦ Fellow 2025 All-Big 12 honorees Liz Worden and Rajanah Reed also went pro, as Worden plays for Racing Power FC of Liga BPI and Reed for Dallas Trinity FC.

ALL-TIME SERIES

✦ Monday's Big 12 Tournament opener will mark the fifth all-time meeting between the Knights and Red Raiders and their first matchup in Big 12 tournament play. UCF enters the contest with a 1-0-3 advantage in the all-time series. The teams have played to draws in each of their last three meetings, including a 2-2 result in Orlando earlier this season.

IT'S UCF, NOT CENTRAL FLORIDA

✦ Please refer to the University of Central Florida as "UCF," not "Central Florida," on all references. Also, we are not the "Golden Knights," instead, we are simply known as the "Knights."

KNIGHT KICKS

ABOUT UCF

✦ UCF finished the regular season with a solid 11-4-2 overall mark and a 6-3-2 record in conference play, good enough to earn the No. 7 seed in the highly competitive Big 12 with 20 points. The Black and Gold's play really took off once the calendar struck October, as their season has been defined by a five-game winning streak that saw them take down two ranked opponents (No. 17/17 Colorado and No. 12/14 West Virginia).
✦ Looking to build off a 1-1 draw at K-State in the previous game, the Black and Gold deployed an offensive onslaught and got it started early with five first-half goals, their most in the first 45 minutes of a contest since Oct. 6, 2002, when they scored seven at home versus Belmont. The last time the Knights scored exactly five in a half was on Sep. 30, 2004, in the second half against Lipscomb at home.
✦ Leading the way was none other than Naomi Clark, who secured her third multi-goal game of the season to give her a total of 13 on the season, tied for the Big 12 lead with Texas Tech's Taylor Zdrojewski. That total also serves as the most in a single-season by a Knight since Stefanie Sanders matched the same output in 2018.
✦ The other scorers in the first half included Alysiah Lockette, Tyra Eriksen, and senior Bella Douglas, who notched her second career goal in the final regular-season match of her career.
✦ With that many goals scored, the Knights had even more assists in the first 45. Katsi Bengoa assisted on three Knight goals, registering the first three assists of her career and her first-career three-assist contest. Ainsley Moy, the team's leader in assists, added to her totals on Lockette's goal in the 23rd minute, now giving her nine on the season. Clark joined the giving party with an assist of her own, while seniors Brooke Mulroney and Payton Patrick each helped with an assist each.
✦ The Knights kept their foot on the gas pedal in the second half as sophomore Sophia May notched her first-career goal in the 55th minute, coming off a feed from Clark, who notched her second assist of the game, her season-high.
✦ The Black and Gold then scored their seventh and final goal of the night in the 66th minute, after Ella Holloran found Moy at the top of the box, who then buried a left-footed strike in the back of the net for her fourth goal of the season. UCF's seven goals were their most in a matchup since Oct. 19, 2012, when they defeated East Carolina by the same score of 7-0 at home.
✦ Not getting lost in the shuffle was the Knights' incredible defensive performance, they notched their sixth clean sheet of the season in which they didn't allow a shot on goal.
✦ It was an easy night at the office for keepers Kaïna Cesar and Virginia Green. Cesar earned the win, moving to 8-3-2 in the box this year, while the freshman Green finished off the contest's final 30 minutes to secure the shutout in her first collegiate appearance.
✦ Senior forward Naomi Clark leads the Knights offensively in the season with 13 goals and 31 points. She also paces the team in shots (56), shots on goal (28), and game-winning goals (4). Her 13 goal tie her for the Big 12 lead, while she solely ranks first in the league in goals per game (0.76) and points per game (1.82). Junior midfielder Ainsley Moy is the team's top assist leader, as she has dished out nine on the season. She also ranks second on the team in points with 17 and is third in the conference in total assists and assists per game (0.53), as well as in the top 25 nationally in both categories. Junior goalkeeper Kaïna Cesar leads the way in the box with 46 saves, four shutouts, and an 8-3-2 season record. She also ranks third in the Big 12 in saves per game with a 3.54 average.

ABOUT TEXAS TECH

✦ The No. 7/5 Red Raiders earned the No. 2 seed for the Big 12 Tournament after going 12-2-4 overall, with an 8-2-1 conference record, good enough for 25 points in the standings. Tech ended the regular season with a 3-2 setback at No. 18 Kansas on Thursday. Before that, they had won their previous three matches, with two of those victories coming against ranked opponents (No. 8 Baylor and No. 16 West Virginia). Their only two setbacks came against ranked opponents as well, as the aforementioned Jayhawks and No. 22 BYU Cougars came out on top against the Red Raiders. UCF hosted TTU for both squads first Big 12 matchup of the year, a contest that ended in a hard-fought 2-2 draw.
✦ The Red Raiders made the 2025 Big 12 Tournament, as well, losing to the Baylor Bears on penalty kicks in the first round. Their season eventually ended in the Round of 32 of the NCAA Tournament, again falling in penalty kicks to North Carolina. The result led to them being predicted to finish fifth in the conference this year, an expectation that the Red Raiders exceeded.
✦ Tech is led by one of the Big 12's leading scorers in Taylor Zdrojewski, who has scored 13 goals in 18 games, a total that ties her for the league lead in goals scored with UCF's Naomi Clark. The senior forward is tied for the conference lead in shots (75) and solely leads the Big 12 in shots on goal (36). Her 29 total points and 1.53 points per game average place her third in the league, while her 0.68 goals per game average has her behind Clark for second. The Red Raiders spread assists around evenly, with 13 different players totaling at least one on the season. Fifth-year defender Kylie Bahr paces the squad with five. In goal, senior Addie Todd has started in all 18 games on the year. The Florida State transfer has logged 1,620 minutes in the box, saving 56 shots along the way. The senior also leads the Big 12 in shutouts, with 10 this season.
✦ Texas Tech is led by head coach Tom Stone, who is in his 20th season at the helm in Lubbock. Under his guidance, the Red Raiders have made the Big 12 tournament 17 times, winning it all in 2015, and the NCAA dance 10 times. Overall, Coach Stone holds a record of 237-110-59, amassing 10 or more wins in 13 of his 20 seasons.

UNDEFEATED AGAINST SUNSHINE STATE FOES

✦ UCF went a perfect 3-0 on the season versus Sunshine State opponents with wins over Florida, South Florida and North Florida. The Knights started the season with a come-from-behind 4-3 victory over the Gators and followed that up with a 2-0 victory at USF the following week. After having a match at FIU postponed due to heavy rainfall and unplayable field conditions, UCF then capped in-state play with a 1-0 home win over UNF.
✦ The Knights are now 7-1-0 against Sunshine State opponents over the last two years.

MAKE THAT FIVE STRAIGHT AGAINST SEC OPPONENTS

✦ The Knights hold wins over both Florida and No. 21 LSU on the season to move their win streak over SEC opponents to five. UCF has defeated both Florida and LSU twice during the streak, as well as No. 8 Georgia at home in 2024.
✦ The Black and Gold's last non-victory against an opponent from the SEC was Aug. 25, 2024, when they drew with Florida in Gainesville. The Knights' last loss to an SEC foe came on Aug. 24, 2023, at Georgia.

O CAPTAIN, OUR CAPTAIN

✦ Redshirt junior midfielder Maria Tregansin has been named UCF's team captain again for the 2026 campaign.
✦ Tregansin is in her sixth year with the program and is coming off a stellar 2025 season in which she earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors.
✦ She notched a pair of assists in 2025 and started 18 matches in the midfield a season ago.
✦ Maria earned both CSC Academic All-District honors and Academic All-Big 12 last year and is currently pursuing a Master of Science degree from UCF in Biomedical Engineering.

FRESHMAN DANIELA OCAMPO TOOK PART AT 2026 FIFA U-20 WORLD CUP

✦ Freshman midfielder Daniela Ocampo represented her home nation of Costa Rica at the 2026 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup from Sept. 5-27 in Poland.
✦ Despite Costa Rica having their run come to a close in the group stage with an 0-3 record, Ocampo started all three matches for Costa Rica. The national appearance wasn't the first for Ocampo, as she previously competed for Costa Rica at both the 2024 U-20 World Cup as well as the 2025 U-17 World Cup where she was a team captain for her home nation.

COACH TIFFANY ROBERTS SAHAYDAK

Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak

Head Coach - 14th Season

An Olympic gold medalist, World Cup champion and two-time NCAA champion, Tiffany Roberts Sahaydak was named head women's soccer coach at UCF in May 2013.

A four-time American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Roberts Sahaydak has wasted no time in putting her stamp on UCF's successful program. Under her guidance, the Knights have earned five NCAA Tournament bids and four American Athletic Conference championships while boasting 18 Conference Player of the Year awards and 67 all-league and tournament selections.

An integral member of the 1999 United States World Cup winning squad, Roberts Sahaydak returned to the fold as an assistant coach under Vlatko Andonovski in 2022. At the 2023 FIFA World Cup in Australia and New Zealand, Roberts Sahaydak became the first champion as a player to transition into a coaching role with the team, propelling the USWNT to knockout round qualification for the ninth consecutive edition. She is again a current assistant coach for the USWNT ahead of the 2027 Women's World Cup in Brazil.

After losing more than half of her squad following the 2024 season, Roberts Sahaydak and the Knights shattered expectations in 2025, claiming the six seed in the Big 12 Conference tournament and advancing to the NCAA Tournament Second Round for the first time since 2022. The 13th-year head coach led her squad to a 12-4-5 (5-1-5 Big 12) record, finishing with a top-40 RPI ranking for the third time in four years. UCF claimed victories over multiple ranked foes for the first time since 2019, defeating No. 17 Arizona State 3-2 and No. 16/10 Baylor 2-1, and posted only one conference loss before embarking on a nine-game unbeaten streak in Big 12 play.

Under Robers Sahaydak's tutelage, forward Liz Worden's individual efforts saw her become the first Knight to record five goals and at least 10 assists for the first time since Tatiana Coleman in 2014. Five Knights took home individual awards during the season, highlighted by Worden's All-Big 12 First Team selection. On the national level, Worden heard her name called for the United Soccer Coaches All-Midwest Region Second Team, as did Honoka Hamano for the third team, and Rajanah Reed for the fourth team. After the conclusion of the season, Worden, Reed and Perez Watson became Roberts Sahaydak's 50th, 51st and 52nd players to sign professional contracts under her guidance, with Worden joining Racing Power FC in Portugal, Reed joining Angel City FC in the NWSL, and Perez Watson signing with Atlético Madrid of Spanish Liga F.

The Knights' sophomore season in the Big 12 saw Roberts Sahaydak lead the squad to defeat No. 24 Georgia, 2-0, to claim UCF's first ranked win at home since Sep. 5, 2021, and its first clean sheet at home against a ranked opponent since Oct. 31, 2019. With her Big 12-leading 11 goals, forward Chloe Netzel earned UCF's first-ever All-Big 12 First Team selection. UCF finished the season with a 3-6-6 (1-5-4 Big 12) clip.

Ushering in a new era in the Big 12, the Knights' inaugural campaign as a member of one of the nation's premier conferences was historic, resulting in a trip to the Big 12 Championships semifinals. Under the guidance of Roberts Sahaydak, UCF secured a 10-7-1 (5-4-1 Big 12) record and the second-most wins of any conference newcomer. In Austin, Texas, the Knights defeated the 2022 conference runner-ups, TCU, 3-2 to garner UCF Athletics its first postseason win in the Big 12. In the program's inaugural conference home match at the UCF Soccer Complex, the Knights defeated reigning champions, West Virginia, 4-2. Following the squad's sixth-place finish in conference play, Dayana Martin earned second-team honors on the Big 12 All-Conference team. Martin would also be named to the United Soccer Coaches All-Midwest Region Third Team. For the second consecutive season, Roberts Sahaydak and her staff produced an NWSL draft pick as Talia Garbarra was selected by the Orlando Pride with the 14th pick in the fourth round.

In their final season in the AAC, the Knights boasted a 9-2-7 (7-0-1 AAC) record, going undefeated in conference play and picking up nine clean sheets along the way to becoming AAC Regular Season Champions. With the first victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 100th win at UCF as a head coach. The Black and Gold collected a bid to the NCAA Tournament and advanced past NC State in the first round to face eventual national champion UCLA, where they fell in penalty kicks. Kristen Scott picked up Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Caroline DeLisle earned her second-straight Goalkeeper of the Year award. Scott would later be drafted by the Orlando Pride with the 41st overall pick in the 2023 NWSL draft.

In 2021, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to an 8-7-1 (3-4-1 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a six seed. With the Knights sixth victory of the season, Roberts Sahaydak earned her 150th career win as a collegiate head coach. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Caroline DeLisle earned conference Goalkeeper of the Year and Darya Rajaee also earning Midfielder of the Year.

In an unconventional 2020-21 campaign due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Roberts Sahaydak led the Black & Gold to picking up five all-league selections as the Knights finished the spring season with a 2-4-1 mark. Four Knights picked up honors, with 2024 Olympic Bronze medalist Sarai Linder (Germany) representing the Knights on the First Team All-Conference and All-Rookie Teams.

In 2019, Roberts Sahaydak led the Knights to a 11-4-4 (5-2-2 American Athletic Conference) and earned a No. 3 seed to the American Championship. The Knights posted a six-game unbeaten streak and climed to as high No. 21 in the United Soccer Coaches Polls. Under Roberts Sahaydak, Konya Plummer was named First Team All-Region by the United Soccer Coaches Association, as well as the AAC Defensive Player of the Year. In total, six student-athletes were recognized by the Conference coaches.

The Knights finished the 2018 campaign at 10-7-1 (6-3 American Athletic Conference) and entered the American Athletic Conference Championship tournament as a the third seed. Under Roberts Sahaydak, three Knights earned All-Southeast Region honors - Stefanie Sanders earned second team all-region, while Vera Varis and Carrie Lawrence collected third team all-region recognition. Vera Veris was named conference Goalkeeper of the Year.

In 2017, Roberts Sahaydak coached the Knights to a 13-2-3 record, the most wins since the 2014 campaign. UCF climbed as climbed as high as No. 6 and finished the regular season ranked eighth. The Knights posted a 16-match unbeaten streak, the longest since the 2013 campaign, captured the American Athletic Conference regular season championship and made their 21st NCAA Tournament appearance.

Under Roberts Sahaydak's tutelage, five members of the team received All-Southeast Region recognition and goalkeeper Vera Varis was named to the United Soccer Coaches Association All-American Third Team. In addition, five of her starters were recognized as American AAC Players of the Year, including Morgan Ferrara (Offensive), Kathellen Sousa (Co-Defensive), Vera Varis (Goalkeeper), Kayla Adamek (Midfielder), and Dina Orschmann (Rookie). A total of seven Knights were placed on the All-American Athletic Conference Teams, and three were recognized on the all-tournament team.

In 2016, four student-athletes were named to the All-American Athletic Conference Teams. Saga Fredriksson was named to the All-Northeast Region Team and recognized as the American Athletic Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Off the field, the Knights earned recognition for their academic success as they received the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Team Academic Award.

Roberts Sahaydak tackled the 2015 season with team that featured more newcomers (14) than returners (12) and lost three key members due to injury for the year before the season-opening weekend was in the books. Eight of their starters, including their American Athletic Conference Offensive Player, Defensive Player and Goalkeeper of the Year, had moved on from the year before. But the Knights earned a berth to their ninth-straight NCAA Tournament (20th overall) and nabbed a hosting gig for the first round for the fifth straight season. In addition, Carol Rodrigues was named the American's Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2014, she guided the Knights to their second NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in four years and the American regular season title. Under her direction, three Knights were recognized as conference Players of the Year: Tatiana Coleman (Co-Offensive); Carleigh Wiliams (Defensive); and Connie Organ (Goalkeeper). UCF posted its first undefeated home slate (11-0) since 1999, matched the school record for wins in a season (18) and was nationally ranked through much of the year.

In her first season (2013), she led UCF to a school-record unbeaten streak (18 matches), an NSCAA national standing through much of the year, and the program's first undefeated conference season since 1999. In addition, UCF made history as the first program to win an American Athletic Conference Championship. Roberts Sahaydak came to Orlando after serving six seasons at VCU alongside her co-head coach, husband, and current UCF associate head coach Tim Sahaydak.

Roberts Sahaydak spent a decade with the U.S. National Team from 1994-2004, earning 110 caps (with 60 starts). Her career was highlighted by three women's World Cups - among them, the unforgettable 1999 championship - and a gold medal with the 1996 Olympic team.

After retiring from the USWNT, she has served as an ambassador for U.S. Soccer with the U.S. Department of State Sports Envoy Program since 2007, promoting the power and benefit of sport internationally. With the program, she has visited Indonesia, Uganda, the Philippines, Thailand, Namibia, Brazil and France. In 2014, she was appointed to President Barack Obama's Presidential Delegation to the Federative Republic of Brazil at the opening of the FIFA World Cup in Brazil.

She is a native of San Ramon, Calif., and was selected as the 1994 California High School Player of the Year. She was a three-time Parade High School All-American, a three-time NSCAA All-American and was the two-time National Girl's High School Player of the Year. She debuted for the Stars and Stripes in 1994 when she was only 16 as one of the youngest players ever to suit up for the National Team. She played in her first FIFA Women's World Cup a month after her 18th birthday and won Olympic gold before she was out of her teens (USSoccer.com).

As a collegian, Roberts Sahaydak was a standout midfielder for North Carolina (1995-98) as a three-time All-ACC First Team selection. She led the Tar Heels to two NCAA titles (1996, 1997) during her tenure, was voted the 1998 ACC Tournament MVP and finished third in voting for collegiate soccer's highest honor, the Hermann Trophy. She still ranks among the top five for career starts in UNC's record book.

She was a two-time captain for the Carolina Courage in the first fully professional U.S. women's league (Women's United Soccer Association). She helped the Courage win the 2002 title after finishing last in the team's inaugural campaign one year prior.

Roberts Sahaydak took over VCU's program in 2007 and led the Rams to three conference championship game appearances. She was voted as the 2011 Colonial Athletic Association Co-Head Coach of the Year, along with her husband Tim. The duo mentored two CAA Defenders of the Year, one CAA Rookie of the Year and 20 all-conference players, including six first-team honorees. The Sahaydaks reside in Orlando with their two daughters, Layla and Evie.
