AMY FULLER KEARNEY

HEAD COACH

18th Season

UC Santa Barbara '90

Fuller Kearney enters her 18th season as head coach of the UCLA women's rowing program in 2018-19. She has established the Bruins as a consistent national competitor, having taken UCLA's program through a successful transition from club to varsity status in 2001-02.

UCLA earned its first-ever team bid to the NCAA Championships in 2010 before making return appearances at the national event in 2012, 2013 and 2014.

The Bruins' three consecutive NCAA Championship berths from 2012-14 produced consistently top marks and strong results. UCLA has been ranked among the nation's top 20 programs in weekly CRCA collegiate polls and finished as high as third at the 2012 Pac-12 Championships, competing with success at national events such as the San Diego Crew Classic and the Clemson Invitational.

In 2014, UCLA finished 12th overall at the NCAA Championships, with the team's second varsity eight finishing second in the Petite Final (eighth overall). The Bruins' varsity eight crew advanced to the Grand Final at the San Diego Crew Classic and won each of its three races against the nation's top competitors at the Clemson Invitational.

UCLA posted its two highest team finishes at the NCAA Championships in back-to-back seasons. The Bruins finished eighth in 2012 and were ninth in 2013. UCLA's varsity eight crew finished first in the Petite Final (places 7-12) at each of those two NCAA Championships. Britta Syverson capped her four-year career in 2013

Amy Fuller Kearney's Key Accomplishments at UCLA

- Led UCLA to four NCAA Tournament appearances in the past nine seasons
- Helped the Bruins advance to each of three consecutive NCAA Tournaments (2012-14)
- Guided the Bruins to their first team trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2010
- Coached UCLA to a school-record eighth-place overall finish at NCAA Championships in 2012
- Saw UCLA's varsity eight crew finish first in the Petite Final in the 2013 NCAA Championships
- Responsible for the development of six first-team CRCA All-America selections
- Has produced 24 CRCA All-West Region selections since the spring of 2002
- In 17 seasons as head coach, 59 Bruins have secured CRCA National Scholar-Athlete honors
- Has seen her student-athletes secure 110 total Pac-12 All-Academic Team selections
- Developed two three-time All-Pac-12 Team selections (Britta Syverson and Vanessa Teff)
- Helped UCLA transition from club team to NCAA varsity status in 2001-02

by becoming UCLA's second three-time All-America selection, along with Vanessa Teff.

The Bruins' 2012 squad not only secured the program's best-ever finish at NCAA Championships (eighth), but also raced to a third-place team finish at Pac-12 Championships, the highest such finish of any UCLA team at the season-culminating event. Not only did UCLA's varsity eight finish first in the Petite Final at NCAA Championships, but the Bruins' second varsity eight finished sixth in the Grand Final, and the varsity four was first in the Petite Final.

Fuller Kearney helped UCLA break into its first-ever NCAA Championships as a team in 2010, when the Bruins finished 12th overall at the national event. UCLA's eight finished ninth at the 2010 NCAA Championships, placing higher than any Pac-12 program in the Petite Final.

UCLA's previous NCAA Championship appearances included varsity eight at-large selections in 2005, 2006 and 2007. The eight crew's highest finish in that three-year span was a 12th-place finish in 2006.

Fuller Kearney led the Bruins' top two varsity eights to the Pac-10 Championship Grand Final from 2004 through 2007. UCLA's second varsity eight won the silver medal in 2005 and 2006 at the Pac-10 Championships.

Under Fuller Kearney, the Bruins have secured national rankings (during the season) as high as No. 3 in 2012, No. 5 in 2013, No. 9 in 2014, No. 11 in 2010, No. 13 in 2008 and 2009, and No. 17 in 2011. UCLA concluded its 2014 campaign ranked No. 12 in the CRCA national poll.

Upon conclusion of the 2009 season, UCLA's Vanessa Teff was honored as an All-Pac-10 selection for the fourth consecutive season, becoming the first women's rower in program history to accomplish that feat. In addition, Teff secured CRCA All-West Region honors.

UCLA's 2007 team earned an at-large varsity eight bid to NCAA Championships, where they finished 14th overall. The Bruins helped earn the at-large entry after finishing fourth overall at Pac-10 Championships in May.

In 2006, the varsity eight raced to a 12th-place finish as an at-large selection to the NCAA Championships. Racing at the 2006 San Diego Crew Classic, UCLA advanced to the Grand Final in all three events and finished fifth in the varsity eight race.

The Bruins made history in 2005, sending their first-ever varsity eight to NCAA Championships as an at-large bid. The Bruins' crew finished 15th overall. Earlier that season, UCLA advanced to the Grand Final in each event at Pac-10 Championships. The first eight raced to a top-16 ranking and an at-large invite to the NCAA Championships for the first time in program history. The second eight made history, bringing home a silver medal from the Pac-10 Championships, a first at UCLA since rowing was elevated to NCAA varsity status.

Named UCLA's head coach on July 2, 2001 – the sport's inaugural NCAA season – Fuller Kearney came to Westwood after having served one year as assistant coach for the Stanford women's crew program (2000-01). At Stanford, she guided the Cardinal to its first top-20 national ranking in the program's NCAA history.

Prior to serving as assistant coach at Stanford, Fuller Kearney was an assistant coach at San Diego State for two years (1998-2000). She worked with the Aztecs while training for the 2000 Olympics with the U.S. National Team. Fuller Kearney has also spent time working as an assistant coach at the University of Tennessee, Chattanooga (1996-98) and for the U.S. National Team (1997).

From 1993-96, Fuller Kearney served as a motivational speaker for Champion International, a U.S. Rowing sponsor. She began her coaching career at UC Santa Barbara, her alma mater. From 1990-91, she led the women's novice program. Two years later, from 1992-93, she was the head coach of the women's team.

A three-time Olympian and world record holder, Fuller Kearney has accrued a strong national and international rowing background. In 1993, she earned U.S. Rowing Female Athlete of the Year honors. Two years later, she was a finalist for the Sullivan Award, presented annually to the nation's top amateur athlete. She spent the fall and winter of 1995 competing with the America's Cup Syndicate, America 3. She was a member of the first ever all-women's team to challenge for the America's Cup.

As a starboard aft grinder, Fuller Kearney used her strength and endurance to earn a starting spot among the world's top female sailors. In the spring and summer, Fuller Kearney again turned her focus to rowing and helped the women's eight to a World Championship in Tampere, Finland.

Fuller Kearney earned trips to the Olympics in 1992, 1996, and 2000. In 1992, she brought home a silver medal in the Women's 4-. In 1996 and 2000, she placed in the top 6 in the Women's 8+.

Additionally, Fuller Kearney has competed in eight World Championships, earning one gold medal and six silver medals (1989, 1991, 1993-94, 1997-98 and 1999). An extension of Fuller Kearney's international experience includes the Goodwill Games, the Lucerne International Regatta, and the Henley Royal Regatta. At the 1994 Goodwill Games, her women's 8+ team captured the bronze. Competing at the Lucerne International Regatta (1991, 1994-96 and 1998), she brought home five medals - three gold, one silver, and one bronze. At the 1998 Henley Royal Regatta, Fuller Kearney added another gold medal.

Fuller Kearney continued her rowing success at the C.R.A.S.H. B Sprints. She was the 2000 and 2001 World Record holder on the rowing ergometer and placed first for open women. On the national level, Fuller Kearney rowed for the U.S. National Team for 11 years (1989, 1991-2000). During this era, she recorded 12 gold medals, two silver and one bronze.

As a sophomore at UC Santa Barbara, Fuller Kearney discovered a passion for rowing. She later earned one gold medal and one bronze medal on the collegiate national level. In 1990, she was honored with the school's Associated Students Athlete of the Year Award. In 2006, Fuller Kearney was an inaugural inductee into the UC Santa Barbara Recreational Sports Hall of Fame.

A Westlake Village, Calif., native who prepped at Westlake High School, Fuller Kearney graduated from UC Santa Barbara in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in biology. She earned her master's degree in education from University of Tennessee, Chattanooga in 1998.

Fuller Kearney has also been certified by the American College of Sports Medicine as a Health Fitness Instructor and is a U.S. Rowing certified coach. She resides in Newhall, Calif., with her husband, Joe, and daughter, Shannon.

PREVIN CHANDRARATNA

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH, 4th Season Columbia '97

Previn Chandraratna enters his fourth season as a coach with the UCLA women's rowing program in 2018-19, his first year as the team's associate head coach. He joined the Bruins' program in 2015 as an assistant coach and became the recruiting coordinator in 2016.

In his current position, he oversees all recruiting efforts, coaches the varsity fours group and the third varsity eight and works with student-athletes in the team's second varsity eight.

During the 2018 season, he helped the Bruins secure regular-season wins against crews from USC, Oregon State and Stanford, en route to a fifth-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships in the varsity four and third varsity eight. In 2017, UCLA earned regular-season victories against crews from Oregon State, Washington State and USC (2V8+), culminating with a fifth-place finish in the V4+ and a fourth-place finish in the 3V8+ at the Pac-12 Championships. UCLA's second varsity four won the San Diego Crew Classic, while the varsity four finished fourth at the two-day event.

During his first season with UCLA (2016), Chandraratna primarily coached the team's novice and freshmen rowers in addition to assisting with recruiting efforts. Among the novice highlights in 2015-16 included a third-place finish in the N8+ at the San Diego Crew Classic, finishing ahead of Big 10 bronze medalist Minnesota.

A 1997 graduate of Columbia University, Chandraratna arrived at UCLA in August 2015 with 16 years of coaching experience, including seven years working with collegiate rowing programs. Most recently, he served for three seasons as an assistant coach and director of recruiting with the women's rowing team at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). In 2014 at MIT, he helped the program to its fastest team finish in program history, including bronze medals in the varsity eight and varsity four the Patriot League Championships. The squad made appearances in the Grand Finals of its regional championships in all events during his three years in Cambridge, Mass.

Prior to his time at MIT, Chandraratna served as freshman heavyweight coach and director of recruiting at his alma mater, Columbia University, for four years. During his tenure at Columbia, the team earned a national ranking as high as No. 9.

Chandraratna also brought 10 years of scholastic coaching experience to Westwood. He worked as head coach of Row New York and as an assistant coach at Pelham Community Rowing, where he helped lead squads to 10 state titles and one national championship. As Director of Programs at Row New York, he helped the program win the prestigious US Rowing Anita de Frantz Golden Oars Award.

As a rower, Chandraratna earned Most Valuable Player honors as the stroke seat of the heavyweights program at Columbia. He earned national level medals with NYAC and Union BC and trained with the U.S. national team at the National Sculling Center in Augusta, Ga.

Chandraratna earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in international relations from Columbia University. He earned his master's degree in sports leadership from Northeastern University in 2017. He currently resides in Playa del Rey, Calif., with his wife Manuela and their son Logan.

ANTHEA BARNETT

ASSISTANT COACH, 3rd season Ithaca College '09

Anthea Barnett enters her third season as an assistant coach with the UCLA women's rowing program in 2018-19.

Barnett works with the Bruins' novice rowers, specifically coaching the novice eight crew. She also handles the development of the third varsity eight boat, assists with recruiting responsibilities and helps oversee operational and equipment duties with the rowing program.

During the 2018 season, Barnett helped the Bruins' novice eight crew to a fourth-place finish in the Grand Final of the two-day San Diego Crew Classic. The N8+ crew posted a fourth-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships and the 3V8+ finished fifth at the conference races.

In 2017, Barnett saw UCLA's novice eight crew finished third at the San Diego Crew Classic. Likewise, the N8+ finished third at the season-culminating Pac-12 Championships, while the 3V8+ crew finished in fourth place.

Prior to joining the Bruins' program, Barnett worked with Cleveland Youth Rowing Association and the Foundry High Performance Center in Cleveland, Ohio. Barnett's impression was made through the development of several new rowing programs and her diligence to embrace Cleveland's community.

Barnett began her rowing career at Ithaca College in New York, competing for the Bombers for four years. She helped lead her college program to the 2009 NCAA Championships.

Barnett continued coaching with the Ithaca women's rowing program from 2009-14, while also pursuing graduate studies in sport psychology. She served as an intern with Chris Kerber and the Cornell University lightweight men's team in 2014. That season, Cornell's team had a consecutive undefeated season and won the IRA title.

Hailing from Augusta, Ga., Barnett graduated with a bachelor's degree in politics from Ithaca College in 2009. In her free time, she enjoys biking and hiking outdoors with her dog.

ANNA THOMSON

ASSISTANT COACH, 1st season Texas '12

Anna Thomson enters her first season as an assistant coach with the UCLA women's rowing program in 2018-19.

Thomson works in an assistant capacity for all aspects of the program, including development, high performance and recruitment. She also plays a large role in data collection and equipment upkeep. As a former Division I rower and student-athlete, Anna has become a great resource to UCLA's student-athletes.

Prior to joining UCLA in the fall of 2018, Thomson coached the Wellington Rowing Club, working with the women's squad alongside Joe O'Neill. In 2017, she successfully created and coached the Wellington U19 development squad preparing high school rowers for U.S. collegiate recruitment and New Zealand National team selection.

Thomson rowed for the University of Texas (Austin), graduating in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in radio, television and film. Through her collegiate career at Texas, she helped the rowing program to four consecutive Big 12 Conference titles, in addition to winning the 2011 C-USA Championship. In the classroom, Thomson was a three-time recipient of the Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Award. She was named the Texas rowing team's academic MVP in 2011 and was selected to the Big 12 Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll all four seasons. Thomson was also named a CRCA Scholar-Athlete in 2011.

Prior to her time attending Texas, Thomson was selected to the New Zealand National High Performance program as a member of the U21 Central High Performance team. She earned silver medals in the U21 eight and U21 quad at the New Zealand National Rowing Championship.

Thomson grew up in Wellington, New Zealand, where she began rowing in high school for Star Boating Club and Wellington Girls' College. She was a New Zealand National Team junior trialist and was twice honored as the Star Boating Club School's rower of the year.

In her free time, Thomson enjoys yoga, hiking outdoors and video editing.
