Bruin Strong

Seven Bruins have logged over 1300 of 1864 minutes of playing time in the team's 20 games this season. Goalkeeper Teagan Micah has played in all 1864 minutes, while Hailie Mace (1743), Kaiya McCullough (1609), Zoey Goralski (1561), Annie Alvarado (1533), MacKenzie Cerda (1369) and Anika Rodriguez (1339) have each played over 1300 minutes.

Sixth Year's a Charm

Courtney Proctor's sixth and final year as a Bruin is looking to be one of her best. She has played in 14 games with seven starts. She scored her first goal of the season against California, tying the game with 53 seconds left in regulation to send the game to overtime. The goal was her first since the 2013 season. She also had an assist against Washington and scored the game's first goal against Washington State. Proctor began her career at UCLA in 2011, redshirted due to a torn ACL in 2012, played 24 games during UCLA's NCAA championship year in 2013 then played just six games in 2014 due to injury. She was granted a redshirt exception after the 2015 season and came back for her sixth season this year.

Jenkins Out for Season

Senior forward Darian Jenkins had her season cut short on Oct. 2 at Oregon when she suffered a fibula fracture of her left lower leg in the second half of the Bruins' 3-2 win over the Ducks. Jenkins was having an outstanding senior campaign, scoring a then-Pac-12 best seven goals, 17 points and five game-winning goals. She had started in all 11 games and recorded her first career hat trick in the first half of the Bruins' season opener at San Diego State. Jenkins finishes her UCLA career with 29 goals, 12 assists and 70 points, along with 14 game-winning goals, which rank tied for fifth in UCLA history. She was a nominee for the Senior CLASS Award, which honors senior student-athletes for their achievements in the community, classroom, character and competition, and is now up for Academic All-America consideration, as she earned first-team Academic All-District honors.

Freshman Four in TDS Top 40; Alvarado in Upperclassmen Top 100

Four UCLA Bruins are ranked in the Top 40 of Top Drawer Soccer's midseason Top 100 freshman list, including top-ranked Jessie Fleming. UCLA is the only school with two freshmen in the Top 10, as forward/midfielder Anika Rodriguez joins Fleming in the Top 10 at No. 7. Defender Kaiya McCullough ranks 27th, and goalkeeper Teagan Micah ranks 40th. Fleming leads the team in goals scored (10) and points (23) in 17 games, and Rodriguez leads the team in assists with eight, one off the UCLA freshman record of nine, set by Staci Duncan in 1998. Additionally, Annie Alvarado, who is tied for fourth in the Pac-12 in assists with six, is ranked in the midseason Top 100 Upperclassman list at No. 63.

International Bruins

UCLA has five international players on its roster this season, all from different countries. Siri Ervik is the lone upperclassman of the group, having arrived from Norway in 2014. The other four are freshmen - Jessie Fleming from Canada, Julia Hernandez from Spain, Teagan Micah from Australia, and Maki Umehara from Japan. Hernandez and Umehara both went to school in the United States (Hernandez played one year at Eastern Florida State College in 2015, and Umehara was born in New York and played at Scarsdale HS in New York in 2012).

Five UCLA Alumnae Win NWSL Title

UCLA soccer alumnae Abby Dahlkemper, Sam Mewis, Katelyn Rowland, Taylor Smith and McCall Zerboni helped the Western New York Flash win its first-ever National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) title on Oct. 9. The Flash defeated the Washington Spirit, 3-2, after a penalty shootout. Dahlkemper, Mewis, Rowland and Smith were integral players on UCLA's 2013 NCAA Championship team and teamed up three years later to win another national title. Mewis scored a goal in regulation, and Dahlkemper converted the first penalty kick of the shootout. The two started the contest, along with Zerboni. Rowland won her second consecutive NWSL title, after having been a member of the 2015 championship squad from FC Kansas City. Zerboni won her third professional national title with the Flash, having previously won the Women's Professional Soccer title in 2011 and the Women's Premier Soccer League Elite title in 2012. The runner-up Washington Spirit squad had two Bruins in the starting lineup - Megan Oyster and Caprice Dydasco. This is the third consecutive year that UCLA alumnae have won the NWSL Championship. FC Kansas City's 2015 team featured Lauren Holiday and Rowland, and their 2014 championship team had Holiday and Jenna Richmond.

From UCLA to USA

Future Bruins Marley Canales and Mal Pugh have been selected to represent the United States at the 2016 FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup, which will take place in Papua New Guinea from Nov. 13-Dec. 3. The U.S. opened tournament play on Nov. 14 with a scoreless draw against France. Pugh served as team captain for that game. The U.S. will next face New Zealand on Nov. 17 and Ghana on Nov. 21.

UCLA Olympians

UCLA had six Bruins in Rio for the Olympics this summer, including bronze medalist Jessie Fleming (Canada) and semifinalist Aline Reis (Brazil). Fleming started six matches for Team Canada and recorded one assist. Reis, the Bruins' goalkeeper coach, started and played in one game for Team Brazil, posting a shutout against South Africa in group play. Former UCLA head coach Jill Ellis selected two Bruins for Team USA - incoming freshman Mal Pugh, who played in three games with two starts and became the youngest player in U.S. Soccer history to score a goal, and alternate Sam Mewis. Rounding out the Bruin contingent in Rio was two-time New Zealand Olympian Rosie White, who played in two of three games for the Football Ferns.

2016 UCLA Starting Lineups

UCLA has employed 11 different starting lineups this season. The starting combo that has played the most games is Teagan Micah, Zoey Goralski, Kaiya McCullough, MacKenzie Cerda, Hailie Mace, Gabbi Miranda, Jessie Fleming, Anika Rodriguez, Annie Alvarado, Amber Munerlyn and Courtney Proctor. That group started four games in a row from Oct. 6-20 and went 2-1-1. UCLA's most recent lineup of Micah, Jacey Pederson, McCullough, Cerda, Mace, Miranda, Rodriguez, Alvarado, Goralski, Fleming and Sunny Dunphy is undefeated at 2-0.
