BRUINS HOST SUN DEVILS ON SATURDAY NIGHT — UCLA will host Arizona State in Pac-12 play on Saturday, Oct. 2 on Spieker Field at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena in a 7:30 p.m. game to be televised by FS1. The UCLA Learfield Radio Network will broadcast the contest, which will also be aired over SiriusXM and the Varsity App.

UCLA owns a 22-14-1 advantage in matchups with the Sun Devils, including a 10-7-1 mark in games played in the Rose Bowl. The Bruins have captured the past two meetings in the series (2020 and 2019) which started in 1976. No team has won more than two straight in the series since UCLA earned wins in three straight battles in the 2000, 2001 and 2003 seasons after ASU had won the three previous meetings (1995, 1996, 1999). Fourth-year head coach Chip Kelly was named UCLA's head football coach on Nov. 25, 2017. Kelly owns a collegiate record of 59-29 compiled in three-plus seasons at UCLA (2-1 vs. ASU) and in four seasons as the head coach at the University of Oregon (2009-12; 4-0 vs. ASU). During that span in Eugene, his Duck teams captured first place or a share of first in the North Division of the conference (three outright conference championships 2009-11) and four BCS bowl games. Kelly guided Oregon to appearances in a National Championship Game (2010), two Rose Bowls (after 2011 and 2009 seasons) and the Fiesta Bowl following the 2012 season. Kelly was named the 2009 and 2010 Pac-10 Coach of the Year, 2010 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, 2010 Walter Camp Coach of the Year, 2010 Sporting News Coach of the Year, 2010 AFCA Coach of the Year Award and 2010 Associated Press Coach of the Year. In six of his seven seasons as a collegiate head coach, Kelly has produced a top-15 rated NCAA rushing leader in yards-per-game average -- 2020: Demetric Felton, Jr., 14th; 2018: Joshua Kelley, 9th; 2012: Kenjon Barner, 4th; 2011: LaMichael James, 1st; 2010: LaMichael James, 1st; 2009: LaMichael James, 9th.

UCLA vs. Arizona State — The Bruins enjoy a 22-14-1 overall advantage (10-7-1 edge in games played in the Rose Bowl) in the series against Arizona State, which started in 1976. UCLA is 2-1 versus the Sun Devils under Coach Kelly, having won last season's contest in Tempe by a 25-18 score. UCLA jumped out to a 17-0 lead only to surrender 18 straight points to the Sun Devils who went up by one with 4:26 remaining in the fourth quarter. UCLA answered with an 11-play, 75-yard drive over the next 3:17 to push back in front 25-18 following a two-point conversion. The UCLA defense then stopped ASU on its final drive to preserve the win.

Joshua Kelley ran for 164 yards and four touchdowns in UCLA's 42-32 win over ASU in the Rose Bowl in 2019. The Bruins carried a 42-10 lead into the fourth quarter before the then-No. 24 Sun Devils scored three late TDs. Kelley became the first Bruin since Myles Jack in 2013 (vs. Washington) to score four rushing touchdowns in a game. Stephan Blaylock led the UCLA defense with seven tackles and forced a fumble.

Edwards holds the UCLA career mark, at 12, with records dating back to 1990. In 2020, Agude was credited with the forced fumble which was returned for a TD at Oregon and two forced fumbles vs. Arizona ... he rated 10th nationally (0.43/game) last season.

- Kyle Philips (120 at Stanford; 113 yds vs. Fresno State) has five TD catches on the season to rate 5th in the NCAA and 1st in the Pac-12 in the category. - On the ground, UCLA has out-rushed its opponent in 10 consecutive games ... it has racked up a 775-to-256 rushing yards edge on opponents in 2021 ... the Bruins average 4.6 yards per rush while opponents are at 2.4 ... per game, UCLA is at 193.8; opponents at 64.0.

In alignment with Pac-12 Team Green, a conference-wide initiative promoting greening and sustainability efforts, UCLA is taking the first step toward a paperless press box in the Rose Bowl. By minimizing printed materials, our sights are set on reducing carbon emissions while contributing to the continued objective of making UCLA and its facilities zero waste.

Please help us achieve our goals by using digital versions of games notes, available by accessing the UCLA Football Media Information section of our website (uclabruins.com), and visiting UCLALiveStats.com for in-game stat updates.

Printed copies of game notes and media guides will no longer be provided, if printed copies are desired, we ask that you bring those with you on game day.

THE STORY OF NO. 36 - A WALK-ON EARNS A SCHOLARSHIP

On Sunday, Aug. 18, 2019, Coach Kelly awarded Ethan Fernea (FIR-nee-uh) the No. 36 jersey in honor of Nick Pasquale who wore the number for the Bruins in 2012 and 2013 before his death in a car accident. Nick's parents, Mel and Laurie, along with his brother A.J. were on the practice field for the presentation. On Aug. 29, just before leaving for the first game of the 2019 season, Fernea was put on scholarship. He caught his first career touchdown pass against Colorado.

Nick was a 5-7, 172 pound redshirt freshman walk-on receiver for the Bruins who had seen his first game action a week before his death in September of 2013. He was known for his passion for the game, his limitless determination and his high qualities as a teammate.

Current UCLA coaches Jerry Neuheisel and Daniel Fields were teammates with Pasquale. The 2019 season was the first that a Bruin had worn the No. 36 since the start of the 2013 season.

UCLA SIGNS DEAL WITH JORDAN / NIKE — UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics Martin Jarmond forged a six-year agreement with Nike, Inc. to make Jordan Brand and Nike the Bruins' official athletic footwear, apparel and equipment provider beginning on July 1, 2021. Under the terms of the agreement, Nike will supply uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment to 22 of UCLA's 25 varsity athletic teams, while Jordan Brand will outfit the football and men's and women's basketball programs with "Jumpman" product. With this agreement, UCLA becomes the only school to wear the Jumpman in the Pac-12 Conference, and only the fifth university in the country to join forces with Jordan Brand on football, as well as both men's and women's basketball. The contract will extend beyond outfitting some of the most iconic teams in collegiate athletics. NIKE, Inc. also will lend its support to UCLA Athletics' student-athlete development programs, offer two summer internships per calendar year to UCLA students, and annually host a group of selected UCLA students at its headquarters for an educational experience.

UCLA HEAD COACH CHIP KELLY

Chip Kelly was named UCLA's 17th head football coach on Nov. 25, 2017. Kelly, the National College Coach of the Year in 2010 and a two-time Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year, holds 30 seasons of coaching experience at both the professional and collegiate levels. Before coming to UCLA, he served as the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers in 2016. Prior to that, Kelly was the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles from 2013-15 and worked for four seasons (2009-12) as head coach at the University of Oregon where he posted a record of 46-7.

In 2020, UCLA led the Pac-12 in scoring (248 points) and touchdowns scored (31). Bruin quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson produced the school's best pass efficiency mark since 2005 (156.29). The third-year starter became the first Bruin quarterback to record a 300-yard passing (303) and 100-yard rushing game (109) in the same contest (at Colorado). UCLA produced a team rushing average of over 200 yards per game for just the fourth time since 1990. The mark of 230.6 rushing yards per game ranked 12th nationally. A Bruin team has not finished with a rushing yards per carry mark greater than 2020's 5.1 mark since 1976.

Tight end Greg Dulcich rated No. 2 in the nation among tight ends with both his 73.9 receiving yards per game average and 19.88 yards per catch mark. Dulcich's 126-yard performance in the opener at Colorado marked the seventh straight season in which a Bruin tight end had reach the century receiving yards mark in a game. Demetric Felton Jr. led the Pac-12 and ranked sixth in the NCAA in all-purpose yards (165.83). UCLA's defense showed improvement in all phases. The unit allowed almost 50 yards less in total offense (409.9) than the previous season, while reducing its rushing defense average by almost 10 yards per game (135.7). It sliced almost a half a yard off the rushing average per carry to 3.6, a mark which led the Pac-12. Per game averages for tackles for loss (6.8) and sacks (3.3-8th in NCAA) both went up in 2020.

In 2019, Thompson-Robinson finished among the top-10 at the school for a single season in completions (216-9th), total offense (2,899-10th) and TD passes (21-10th). He set a school mark with 564 yards of total offense in a win at Washington State while leading the second-largest comeback in school history (32 points). Running back Joshua Kelley became the eighth Bruin to post back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Kelley finished second in the Pac-12 in rushing yards per game average. Felton set a school mark for a running back with 55 receptions and added a school-record four scoring plays of 75-yards or more in length. UCLA produced five consecutive 200-yard rushing games for the first time since the 1978 season. Kyle Philips finished with the most catches (60) ever by a Bruin freshman player and became the first redshirt freshman to lead the team in receptions since 2001. The rush defense knocked off almost 0.5 yard/carry off the average of the previous season and the number of quarterback sacks increased dramatically to 26. Special teams improved across the board and featured a punt and kickoff return for a touchdown. UCLA ranked second in the nation in punt return average (22.5 yards).

In his first season in Westwood, Kelly became just the fourth Bruin head coach to guide his team past USC in his initial meeting with the crosstown rival. Kelley racked up 289 rushing yards in the win against the Trojans, most ever by a back in the series. The Bruin back finished ninth in the nation in rushing average (113.0 yds per game) and 18th nationally in all-purpose yards (130.55). It marked the fifth consecutive season in which Coach Kelly had produced an NCAA top-10 rated rushing offense leader as a college head coach. A young Bruin team, which saw a school-record 21 true freshmen student-athletes take the field during the season, showed steady improvement and generated 432.9 yards of total offense per game over the last eight games of the season, including a 528-yard effort in the season-finale versus Stanford.

Kelly's lone season in San Francisco saw the 49ers improve from the league's 21st-ranked rushing attack in 2015 (1,544 yards) to the 4th-best ground game in 2016 (2,019 yards). Running back Carlos Hyde was the biggest beneficiary of the improvement, gaining 988 yards in just 13 contests (76.0 yards per game).

Over Kelly's three seasons in Philadelphia, the Eagles ranked third in the NFL in points per game (26.9) and total offense (392.8 yards per game), as well as fourth in rushing yards per game (131.3). Sixteen Pro Bowlers were selected from his teams, including eight in 2014. The Eagles won 10 games in each of his first two seasons, as his 2014 offense scored a franchise-record 474 points to surpass his 2013 team's previous-record total of 442. The Eagles showed a marked improvement in Year 1 under Kelly, as their 10 wins followed a four-win 2012. He became just the second head coach in league history to win a division title in his first season in the NFL, as the Eagles captured an NFC East Division Championship. He was also named the Maxwell Club NFL Coach of the Year.

Kelly began his head coaching career at the University of Oregon in 2009, leading the Ducks to a 10-3 record and a trip to the Rose Bowl. He finished his time at Oregon with a overall record of 46-7 as head coach (2009-12), including a 33-3 mark in conference play. In his four seasons in Eugene, the Ducks averaged 44.7 points per game. Kelly became the first coach in school history to guide the program to three consecutive undisputed conference championships (2009-11) and its first three 12-win seasons (2010-12).

Oregon made an appearance in a BCS Bowl game in each of Kelly's four seasons, including a trip to the National Championship game following the 2010 campaign. Kelly was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year in back-to-back seasons in 2009 and '10, and Associated Press Coach of the Year in 2010.

The 2012 Ducks finished second in the nation in scoring (49.6 points per game) and fifth in total offense (537.4 yards per game) with freshman quarterback Marcus Mariota under center. They would conclude the season with a Fiesta Bowl victory over Kansas State. A January bowl game was also the end result for Oregon the year prior, as the Ducks defeated Wisconsin in a Rose Bowl thriller, 45-38. Kelly's offense notched Top-5 finishes in points per game (46.1, third) and total offense (522.8 yards per game, fourth) in 2011.

In 2010, the Ducks led the nation both points per game (46.1) and total yardage (530.7 per game) en route to a BCS National Championship Game appearance. In addition to his Pac-10 Coach of the Year and Associated Press Coach of the Year awards, Kelly garnered Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, Walter Camp Coach of the Year, Sporting News Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Coach of the Year accolades.

Kelly's first season as a head coach (2009) culminated in a Rose Bowl appearance and the Pac-10 Coach of the Year award, as his offense ranked sixth in the country in both points per game (36.1) and rushing yards per game (231.7). He was promoted to the top spot after his offenses led the Pac-10 in a number of categories during his two seasons (2007-08) as offensive coordinator under Mike Bellotti.

Kelly had spent the previous 13 years at his alma mater, the University of New Hampshire, before being named offensive coordinator at Oregon. As offensive coordinator at UNH, Kelly protégée Ricky Santos earned the Walter Payton Award as the most outstanding player in FCS in 2006. The quarterback previously finished second in 2005. Kelly also coached the Wildcats' offensive line (1997, 1998) and running backs (1992, 1994-96). The New Hampshire offense averaged better than 400 yards of total offense per game in seven of his eight seasons on staff.

Kelly began his coaching career guiding defensive backs and special teams at Columbia University in 1990. He moved to outside linebackers and safeties in 1991 before his first stint at UNH as running backs coach in 1992. He also spent one season at Johns Hopkins University as defensive coordinator in 1993.

UCLA REMEMBERS LEGENDARY COACH TERRY DONAHUE

Terry Donahue, the winningest coach in Pacific-12 Conference and UCLA football history, passed away on July 4, at his home in Newport Beach, Calif., surrounded by family, following a two-year battle with cancer. He was 77.

Donahue devoted the majority of his adult life to championing UCLA after enrolling at the school as a walk-on defensive lineman. In his first season (1965) in Westwood as a student-athlete, the 190-pound lineman helped lead the Bruins to the program's first-ever Rose Bowl victory with an upset of previously unbeaten and No. 1-ranked Michigan State. He went on to serve as an assistant coach for the Bruins under Pepper Rodgers and Dick Vermeil and then took over the reins as UCLA's head coach, at age 31, beginning with the 1976 season. Donahue, the first person to appear in a Rose Bowl Game as a player, assistant coach and head coach at his alma mater, would go on to post a conference-record 98 wins (98-51-5) and a school-record 151 wins (151-74-8). In a 20-year span, he won or shared five conference titles (1982, 1983, 1985, 1987, 1993) while finishing first or second in the league standings 12 times. The Bruins captured wins in three Rose Bowls (1983, 1984, 1986) during his tenure and he became the first college coach to come away with bowl game victories in seven consecutive seasons (1983 Rose Bowl, 1984 Rose Bowl, 1985 Fiesta Bowl, 1986 Rose Bowl, 1986 Freedom Bowl, 1987 Aloha Bowl, 1989 Cotton Bowl), including four New Year's Day wins in a row. Donahue's Bruins recorded seven straight top-20 finishes in the final Associated Press football poll from 1982-88.

During his 20-year head coaching reign, Donahue's Bruin teams produced 40 wins over ranked opponents culminating with his final coaching victory, a 24-20 decision in the L.A. Coliseum over No. 11 USC in 1995. He posted a 10-9-1 career ledger in battles against the crosstown rivals. Donahue's UCLA teams yielded 34 first-team All-America team selections, a list featuring some of the top performers in school history --- LB Jerry Robinson, S Kenny Easley, RB Freeman McNeil, K John Lee, LB Ken Norton Jr., QB Troy Aikman, LB Carnell Lake, S Eric Turner and OL Jonathan Ogden. Fourteen of Donahue's Bruins were chosen in the first round of the NFL Draft, including future Pro Football Hall of Famers Aikman, Easley and Ogden.

Donahue himself was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000. In 1997, he was welcomed into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame. Donahue joined the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame with the class of 2001. In 2013, the press box at the Rose Bowl was officially dedicated as the Terry Donahue Pavilion. ESPN named Donahue one of the 150 Greatest College Coaches in its 2019 celebration of College Football's 150th Anniversary.

SPIEKER FIELD AT THE ROSE BOWL: HOME OF BRUIN FOOTBALL

The nation's most famous college football stadium – The Rose Bowl – will be in its 40th season as the home of the UCLA Bruins football team. The stadium is recognized as both a United States National Historic Landmark and a California Historic Civil Engineering landmark. Thanks to a generous donation in 2017 from prominent UCLA alum Tod Spieker and his family, the playing surface is called Spieker Field at the Rose Bowl.

The Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but has been utilized as a venue for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games' cycling events and was the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also played host to five NFL Super Bowls – XI in 1977, XIV in 1980, XVII in 1983, XXI in 1987 and XXVII in 1993. It was a venue for the 1994 World Cup and the 1999 Women's World Cup soccer tournaments, including the championship games. The USA women's soccer team victory over China in the 1999 event drew over 90,000 fans. In addition, the 1983 Army-Navy game was played in the Rose Bowl.

On Jan. 1, 2018 and Jan. 1, 2015, the Rose Bowl served as the site of one of the College Football Playoff semifinal games. In 2014, the Rose Bowl hosted the final BCS Championship contest. It had also played host to the BCS Championship game in 2002, 2006 and 2010.

Considered an ideal concert venue, the Rose Bowl has hosted shows by such groups and artists as Taylor Swift, Beyonce, Jay-Z, Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, One Direction, U2, 'N Sync, Eagles, Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Michael Jackson, Metallica, Guns and Roses, Depeche Mode and Journey.

The iconic stadium has put the final touches on a $181 million dollar renovation, and now features a new video board, improved exiting, wider aisles in the end zones and the Terry Donahue Pavilion. The Pavilion area houses the press boxes, broadcast booths, premium seating, boxes and suites. In December of 2015, the radio and TV booths were renamed "The Keith Jackson Broadcast Center". Jackson, the former sportscaster, coined the phrase "The Granddaddy of Them All" for the Rose Bowl Game. Also added are field level entrances and exits, and additional concession stands and restroom facilities.

Since 2007, UCLA and its opponents have dressed in new locker rooms located underneath the south concourse of the stadium. The locker area features all of the latest amenities to benefit the players, coaches, sports medicine and equipment staffs. In addition, a new media interview room and working press area were included in the upgrades. In 1998, new individual chairs were installed in the seating areas between the end zones. Also, improved seating areas for the physically challenged were installed, as well as a new sound system.

Completed in 1922 at a cost of $272,198, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California football game that year which was won by the Golden Bears 12-0. The stadium was originally horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 persons when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end zone was enclosed prior to the 1929 game to increase seating capacity to 76,000. Further enlargements took place in 1932 (83,677) and 1949 (100,807). A record crowd of 106,869 fans witnessed the 1973 Ohio State – USC Rose Bowl contest.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts in its vast history. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, The UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide connection.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 feet from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. The square footage of the grass on the floor of the stadium is 79,156.

The University

In a dynamic, global city, on one of the nation's most beautiful campuses, doors are opened, and anything is possible. UCLA is one of the world's great universities, offering unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship to more than 31,000 undergraduates and nearly 13,000 graduate students. As the No. 1 public university in the nation, it's our mission to move knowledge into action. For over 100 years, our efforts have positively impacted not just those in our communities, but people around the world.

Bruins are a reflection of the university's commitment to excellence, diversity and equal opportunity. One-third of Bruins become first generation college graduates, realizing their parents' dream of creating a better life for the next generation.

Our faculty are among the most recognized and decorated in just about every field. UCLA boasts eight faculty Nobel Prize laureates, 15 MacArthur fellows, 11 National Medal of Science winners and three Pulitzer Prize winners, along with hundreds of recipients of Guggenheim fellowships, Fulbright awards and other academic distinctions. Bruin alumni are Oscar, Grammy, Tony and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians, professional athletes and coaches; and educators, engineers, bankers, entrepreneurs and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves more than 500,000 living alumni, with a comprehensive array of services, programs and activities.

UCLA ON THE AIR

Bruins on the Radio

The 2021 season is UCLA's 25th season with Clear Channel Radio. This will be the 15th year for the Bruins to be aired on AM 570 LA Sports (or am 1150 KTLK) in Southern California (97.3 FM The Fan in San Diego). The broadcasts are produced by Learfield, UCLA's corporate and media-rights holder. The broadcast includes a pre- and post-game show.

Josh Lewin returns as the voice of the Bruins for a sixth season. Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens ('83-'86) is set to begin his 25th year on the broadcast team and his 21st as the analyst in the booth after being welcomed into the So Cal Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2019. Another Bruin signal caller, Wayne Cook ('91-'94) is in his 21st season as the sideline reporter.

AM 570 LA Sports also provides ancillary programming, including head coach and player interviews during game weeks. The weekly hour-long Bruin Insider Show also returns.

UCLA IMG Sports Network games are available nationally through an agreement with Sirius XM Satellite Radio, the Official Satellite Partner of UCLA Athletics. Games can also be heard, via the internet, at the Varsity App.

Bruins on Television

Following the 2021 Stanford game, 209 of UCLA's last 210 games have been televised live, including 138 in a row. The Oregon State game in 2009 is the last game not to be aired live (it was on delayed television).

The Pac-12 Networks will air conference games and ancillary programming which feature football coach and player interviews during the season including special features.

2021 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1: UCLA 44, Hawai'i 10

Aug. 28 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. - Zach Charbonnet reached the end zone three times in his Bruin debut and Brittain Brown added another rushing touchdown, as the Bruins ran for 245 yards in a 44-10 season-opening victory over Hawai'i on Saturday at the Rose Bowl.

The 34-point margin of victory was the highest in a season opener for UCLA since Aug. 31, 2013 against Nevada.

Charbonnet finished the game with 106 yards on just six carries, with Brown running for 78 yards on 13 rushes. Dorian Thompson-Robinson tied Troy Aikman for seventh on UCLA's all-time touchdown passes list with 41, going 10-for-20 for 130 yards, adding 19 yards rushing.

The Bruins scored on each of their first five possessions, three on short fields thanks to a few Hawai'i miscues. After a 27-yard field goal by Nicholas Barr-Mira opened the scoring, UCLA posted a three-and-out on defense and then compiled a nine-play, 87-yard drive, punctuated by a 21-yard Charbonnet touchdown to put the Bruins up 10-0.

On the second play of the Rainbow Warriors' next possession, Chevan Cordeiro was intercepted by Datona Jackson, giving the Bruins a goal-to-go situation. Brown punched it in from the 1-yard line on fourth down to give UCLA a 17-0 lead with six minutes left in the first quarter. Hawai'i got on the board in its next turn with the ball on a field goal, but UCLA stormed right back with a 61-second, four-play drive encompassing 75 yards, as Charbonnet scampered for a 47-yard touchdown run to make it 24-3 with just under a minute remaining in the first quarter. The 24 points for the Bruins over the first 15 minutes marked the most in an opening quarter since Sept. 10, 1988 against Nebraska (28).

The Rainbow Warriors turned the ball over on downs near midfield to end their next possession, and the Bruins turned it into even more points, with Charbonnet going for the trifecta on a 21-yard score to put the home team up 31-3, which would also be the score at halftime. The 28-point margin at intermission was the largest lead for the Bruins after two quarters since their last meeting with Hawai'i in 2017.

Out of the halftime break, the Bruins took only five plays to make it 37-3, as Thompson-Robinson completed four passes, including a 44-yard touchdown to Kazmeir Allen. The extra point was missed.

UCLA then added a special teams score, as Ale Kaho blocked a punt in the end zone, which was recovered by David Priebe to make it 44-3. Hawai'i reached double figures late in the third quarter on a 1-yard passing touchdown, with neither team cracking the scoreboard in the fourth.

The Bruins are back in action next Saturday at the Rose Bowl against LSU. Start time is 5:30 p.m. and the game will air on FOX and AM 1150 Radio.

GAME 2: UCLA 38, LSU 27

Sept. 4 - Rose Bowl

LOS ANGELES - UCLA reached the endzone on back-to-back possessions in the second quarter to take the lead for good, then created separation with a dominant fourth quarter to record a 38-27 victory over No. 16 LSU on Saturday night at the Rose Bowl in a FOX-televised contest.

The Bruins (2-0) outgained the Tigers (0-1) by more than a 4-1 margin on the ground (210-48) in the first ever football meeting between the two schools. UCLA improved to 19-15-4 all-time against current members of the SEC, including a 6-1 mark in its last seven matchups.

UCLA received standout performances from its top two running backs on Saturday. Junior Zach Charbonnet followed up his three-touchdown debut against Hawai'i with 117 yards rushing and one touchdown on 11 carries against the Tigers. Redshirt senior Brittain Brown added 96 yards on 17 carries to go along with a touchdown of his own.

Senior quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson needed just 16 attempts to net 260 yards passing and three touchdowns. His performance moved him into sixth place in UCLA history for career passing touchdowns (44) and seventh place in career passing yards (5,522).

Redshirt junior tight end Greg Dulcich (3 receptions, 117 yards) and redshirt junior wide receiver Kyle Phillips (2 receptions, 49 yards) added touchdown catches to lead the team's receiving corps.

On the defensive end, UCLA limited its opponent to under-50 yards rushing for a second consecutive week. Standout defensive plays included a third-down sack by senior linebacker Bo Calvert late in the first quarter and a third-quarter interception from senior linebacker Caleb Johnson.

With their lead sitting in single digits for most of the game, the Bruins scored the first two touchdowns of the fourth quarter to establish a game-high 18-point lead at 38-20.

Charbonnet and Brown teamed up to score the first of those fourth-quarter scores. On just the second play of the quarter, Charbonnet found a gap and sprinted for a 43-yard gain that got UCLA to the opposing 16-yard line. A few plays later, Brown found pay dirt with a one-yard rush to the left.

Midway through the fourth, Phillips put the exclamation point on an 81-yard drive with a highlight-reel 45-yard touchdown catch, hauling in a pass from Thompson-Robinson around the 35-yard line and slipping between a pair of LSU defenders while staying inbounds near the left sideline for the score.

LSU ended up driving 73 yards for a touchdown to get within 11 with 4:08 remaining, but the Bruins stood strong the rest of the way.

The Tigers were led by quarterback Max Johnson, who recorded 330 yards in the air with three touchdowns and one interception on 26-of-46 passing. Kayshon Boutte was on the receiving end of all three passing TDs, finishing with 148 yards receiving.

After a scoreless first quarter, LSU opened the scoring on their first possession of the second quarter, capping off a 63-yard drive with a quick 3-yard strike to Boutte in the corner of the end zone.

The Bruins responded by scoring on each of their next two possessions, establishing a seven-point lead that they would never relinquish.

Just one play was needed on the first drive, with Thompson-Robinson hooking up with Dulcich for a 75-yard catch-and-run. Thompson-Robinson hit a wide-open Dulcich with a running pass that was caught at the UCLA 40, and he proceeded to shake a tackle at the opposite 35-yard line before fending off two defenders near the goal line to roll into the end zone for the game-tying score.

The Bruins went ahead on their next possession, in which Charbonnet was clearly the star. The Camarillo, Calif. native opened the drive by breaking several tackles as part of a 20-yard run, picked up 35 yards on a checkdown pass in the flat, then notched the touchdown by running 12 yards practically untouched on a draw play. Charbonnet accounted for 67-of-71 yards on the scoring drive.

An LSU field goal made it a four-point game heading into the halftime

The two teams traded a touchdown and field goal apiece in the third quarter - the Bruins parlayed an interception into red zone field position and a 14-yard touchdown catch from Chase Cota before LSU answered with a 44-yard TD reception from Boutte, who got some help as a referee unintentionally set a pick on the over-the-middle catch - keeping the score at a four-point margin heading into the final quarter.

UCLA, which plays its first three games of the 2021 season at home, is off next week and returns to action on Sept. 18 against Fresno State at the Rose Bowl.

GAME 3: Fresno State 40, UCLA 37

Sept. 18 - Rose Bowl

LOS ANGELES - No. 13 UCLA football dropped a late-game thriller to Fresno State, 40-37, at the Rose Bowl on Saturday night.

Redshirt senior quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson connected with redshirt junior Kyle Phillips for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, the second capturing the lead for the Bruins (2-1) with 54 seconds remaining. On the next drive, Bulldog quarterback Jake Haener led his offense downfield to the game-winning touchdown: a 13-yard completion to Jalen Cropper.

Haener - the nation's passing leader - had 455 yards and two touchdowns in the victory.

After falling behind 23-10 entering the second half, the Bruin defense flipped the Bulldog (3-1) passing attack on its head with two fumbles in the fourth quarter to give UCLA a chance to pull out the victory. UCLA trailed Fresno State, 26-17, with 9:23 remaining in the fourth quarter when linebacker Carl Jones, Jr. stripped Fresno State quarterback Jake Haener for a fumble that was recovered 43 yards down field by lineman Datona Jackson.

Three plays later, Thompson-Robinson unleashed a 42-yard drive to Kyle Phillips for a touchdown to bring the Bruins within two points at 26-24. Phillips finished the game with seven completions for 113 yards. Thompson-Robinson ended the night with three touchdowns - the sev enth time in his career finishing with that total. It was also the second game in his career in which he recorded multiple passing touchdowns with no interceptions.

On the next play from scrimmage, defensive back Qwuantrez Knight muscled the football out of a Bulldog receiver's arms and linebacker Jordan Genmark Heath promptly carried it 19 yards to the Fresno State 18. Junior running back Zach Charbonnet bounced his way into the endzone for his second touchdown of the night – his sixth through three games – to give the Bruins their first lead since the first quarter.

Thompson-Robinson's first touchdown pass of the game, set up by a 3rd and long completion to Kyle Philips, was a connection on a cross-ing route to redshirt sophomore receiver Kam Brown came on UCLA's opening drive of the second half.

UCLA had two costly fumbles in the third quarter. Thompson-Robinson had the ball slip out of his hands in UCLA territory, and after forcing a turnover on downs later in the period, senior receiver Chase Cota fumbled a 45-yard completion with the endzone in sight.

The Bulldogs dominated the time of possession in the first half with 49 plays compared to the Bruins' 16 and 17 first downs compared UCLA's 3.

Fresno State's Ronnie Rivers pounded a one-yard rush over the UCLA goal line to score the game's first points, capping a 10-play drive, 55-yard drive. The Bulldogs failed on their two-point conversion attempt.

Thompson-Robinson responded on his very next play from scrimmage with a 38-yard connection to redshirt sophomore wide receiver Kam Brown, putting the Bruins at Fresno State's. Four rushes later, Char-bonnet barreled through a defender and into the endzone to give UCLA the lead.

The Bulldogs orchestrated another methodical, 14-play drive that lasted roughly seven minutes on their next possession, resulting in a one-yard touchdown rush by Jalen Cropper to recapture the lead.

Redshirt junior Kazneir Allen tapped into his sprinter instincts when he returned Fresno State's kickoff downfield before eventually being tripped up at the Bulldog 26. The drive resulted in a 39-yard field goal by redshirt sophomore Nicholas Barr-Mira.

Fresno State scored twice more before halftime to extend its lead to 13. The first score was a 36-yard rush for Rivers' second touchdown of the game, and the second a 21-yard field goal by Abraham Montano.

UCLA will travel to Stanford for both its first road and Pac-12 contest of the season next week on Saturday, Sept. 25 at 3 p.m. PT.

GAME 4: UCLA 35, Stanford 24

Sept. 25 - Stanford, Calif.

STANFORD, Calif. — Redshirt senior quarter-back Dorian Thompson-Robinson muscled through a four-touchdown performance in No. 24 UCLA's 35-24 victory over Stanford at Stanford Stadium on Saturday night.

Thompson-Robinson and redshirt junior receiver Kyle Philips replicated last week's fourth quarter with another pair of late-game touchdown connections to pull the Bruins (3-1, 1-0 Pac-12) away from the Cardinal (2-2, 0-2 Pac-12). UCLA has now defeated

Stanford in back-to-back meetings for the first time since 2007-08.

It was Thompson-Robinson's first game with at least two passing and rushing scores since the Bruins' 67-63 win over Washington State on Sept. 21, 2019.

After leaving the field with under four minutes left in the game on a third-down conversion from a quarterback keeper, Thompson-Robinson re-entered a play later and found Philips on an out route to put UCLA up two scores.

Previously in the fourth quarter, the Cardinal evened a 14-point deficit coming out of halftime, 21-21, with a pair of 40+ yard passing touchdowns by quarterback Tanner McKee. The first was a 56-yard heave to wide receiver Elijah Higgins at the 5:30 mark in the third quarter, and the second a 46-yard reception by Bryce Farrell in Stanford's opening drive in the fourth quarter.

On the Bruins' next play from scrimmage, Kyle Philips split two de-fenders across the middle and connected with Thompson-Robinson for his second 75-yard touchdown reception of the season. The last came in the Bruins' 38-27 win over LSU on Sept. 4. Philips finished the game with 111 yards on five receptions for the first back-to-back 100-yard receiving showings of his career.Redshirt senior defensive lineman Datona Jackson sacked McKee for a loss of eight yards on Stanford's first play in its next possession to put to rest any possibility of a Cardinal comeback.

UCLA's defense opened the game preventing Stanford from gaining a first down and crossing midfield until its sixth drive of the game coming at the 7:30 mark in the second quarter. On the Bruins' first punt return of the game, Philips weaved past defenders for a 58-yard return before being downed at the Stanford 13.

Junior running back Zach Charbonnet rushed four times for 12 yards to inch UCLA to the goal line, and on the next play, Thompson-Robinson pulled the ball on a read option to waltz untouched into the endzone for the Bruins' first score of the game and his first rushing touchdown of the season.

The Bruins' second score in the first quarter came on an 18-play, eight-minute drive that featured 15 running plays beginning on the UCLA 12. Charbonnet was responsible for nine of those carries for 49 yards, two of which came on fourth and third down conversions to keep the drive alive. With a push from four of his offensive linemen, Charbonnet found paydirt for the seventh time this season.

Charbonnet finished the game with 129 yards for his third 100-yard rushing game of the season.

Stanford scored in the final five minutes of the second quarter when McKee hit Brycen Tremayne on a corner route to the pylon.

A UCLA sack on Stanford's next possession pushed the Cardinal to 3rd and 14 with their backs nearing their own endzone to give the Bruins a chance to score once more before the end of the half.

On UCLA's next possession, Thompson-Robinson check downed to Charbonnet out of the backfield for two first down gains. Charbonnet rushed on a draw for 16 yards on the next play to put the Bruins in the redzone. Another zone read by Thompson-Robinson capped the drive as he glided in for his second rushing touchdown of the game.

The Bruins return to the Rose Bowl on Oct. 2 when they host Arizona State (2-1) at 7:30 p.m. The contest will be televised on FS1.
