NEW NAME HEADING INTO 2022

DJ Thomas-Jones will look familiar to those in the Mobile area when he takes the field for the Jags this season, but he will also look a little different when looking at the roster. The Ole Miss transfer and former Saraland High School star has hyphenated his name heading into the 2022 season to honor his stepfather - Stevie.

Thomas-Jones played six games last season for the Rebels before transferring and the former three-star returned to his hometown area where he starred for Saraland and was ranked as the 13th-best tight end in the nation.

BRADLEY NAME SYNONOMOUS WITH THE GAME OF FOOTBALL

Carter Bradley, a transfer from Toledo, has a name that is no stranger to football. He has done his part to make a name for himself, including playing in eight games last season and helping the team earn a bid to the Bahamas Bowl. He finished 18-of-28 passing for 221 yards and a score as the Rockets dropped a three-point decision at No. 7 Notre Dame, before posting a season-best 254 yards after connecting on 22-of-36 attempts the next week against Colorado State.

But it's the last name that commands respect from the NFL as his father, Gus Bradley, is one of the most well-known and respected coaches in the game. He currently serves as the defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts. He came to prominence as the defensive coordinator for the Seattle Seahawks from 2009 to 2012, where he was the original play caller of the team's Legion of Boom secondary. Bradley later served as the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2013 to 2016. Following his dismissal from Jacksonville, he returned to assistant coaching and became the Colts' defensive coordinator in 2022.

It was during the time the time in Seattle where Carter decided to play quarterback and not on both sides of the ball, getting to spend time with then-Seahawks quarterback Russell Wilson.

SEEING DOUBLE THIS SEASON

Opponents will be seeing double this year when they line up against the Jags as South Alabama will have a set of twins - one on each side of the ball. Devin Voisin will line up at receiver where he is expected to start, and brother Jaden will be lining up on defense this season for the Jags.

JAGS IN THE NFL DRAFT

With the 88th pick of the third round, Jalen Tolbert became the third University of South of Alabama football player to be selected by the National Football League by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2022 Draft held at Allegiant Stadium in Paradise, Nevada, home of the Las Vegas Raiders.

Tolbert joins a list of draft picks for the Jags that includes:

2017	Gerald Everett	2nd (44)
2021	Kawaan Baker	7th (255)
2022	Jalen Tolbert	3rd (88)

All three have come from the offensive side of the football, and both Baker and Tolbert were receivers for the Jags.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR TO THE ROSTER

Not only did South Alabama add a ton of transfers and hit the Mobile/Baldwin County are hard, they also have brought in an international flavor from Canada and Australia over time including:

Jack Brooks	Australia
D.K. Bonhomme	Canada
Tremel States-Jones	Canada
Caleb Schlachter	Canada

JAGS PLACE THREE ON ALL-SUN BELT TEAM, PICKED SECOND IN WEST

South Alabama had three players selected to the Preseason All-Sun Belt and were picked to finish in the West Division, announced by the conference office.

The Jags placed two players on the First Team in Darrell Luter Jr. and Keith Gallmon Jr., both starters in the defensive backfield. Luter, who was recently named to the Athlon All-American fourth team and to the Jim Thorpe Award Watch List, returns after a stellar junior season that earned first team all-conference honors while also three All-America honors. He led South Alabama with four interceptions and 10 other passes defended, finishing second in the conference in interceptions and leading the Sun Belt in passes defended per game. He ended the year third in the nation in passes defended per game and was seventh in interceptions per game, while recording the second-highest interception total in school history and the most recorded by a Jaguar since the program moved to FBS in 2012.

He was joined on the first team by Gallmon who returns for his senior season after being named Second Team all-conference last season. He started all 12 games at safety last season and posted 59 tackles including 2.5 behind the line of scrimmage. He also finished with a pair of pass breakups and an interception, while finishing second on the team in tackles. He posted a season-high nine tackles against Texas State and finished the season with six or more tackles in a game seven times in 2021.

The pair was joined by Second Team selection, receiver Jalen Wayne who returns as the team's leading receiver from 2021. He earned honorable mention honors from the conference last season and was named second team by Pro Football Network and fourth team by Phil Steele. He finished the season with 53 catches for 630 yards, finishing second on the team in both categories with totals that surpassed his three-year career figures entering the season. Wayne finished the year among the top 10 in the Sun Belt in total catches and yards receiving as well as receptions and receiving yards per game.

Meanwhile, the Jags were picked to finish second in the West Division behind defending champion Louisiana who received 95 total points and 12 first place votes. Meanwhile, South Alabama received 79 total points and two first place votes, finishing ahead of Troy (76), Texas State (41). Southern Miss (70), Arkansas State (37), and ULM (24).

NUMBER TO WATCH THIS WEEKEND ON THE ROAD IN CALIFORNIA

Jalen Wayne entered the season with 94 total receptions, needing just six to reach 100 for his career. The senior hauled in reception #100 against Central Michigan with a touchdown catch and is now sixth all-time at the school.

1.	178, Jalen Tolbert	2018-20
2.	157, Jereme' Jones	2010-14
3.	126, Kawaan Baker	2017-20
4.	109, Bryant Lavender	2009-13
5.	108, Jamarius Way	2017-18
6.	107, Jalen Wayne	2017-
7.	104, Shavarez Smith	2013-14

SOUTH ALABAMA NEARLY SETS SCHOOL RECORD AGAINST NICHOLLS

The Jags nearly set a school record for points in a game with their 48-point performance against Nicholls on opening weekend this year. The total is the second-highest total in the Division I era trailing only the 52 points scored against Idaho (October 7, 2015).

1.	Idaho	52	11/7/15
2.	Nicholls	48	9/3/22
3.	App State	47	10/4/14
4.	Alabama State	45	10/13/18
	Alabama A&M	45	9/16/17

A FIRST FOR JALEN WAYNE AGAINST NICHOLLS

Jalen Wayne recorded his first two-touchdown day of his career in the win over Nicholls in the season opener. The senior had caught five touchdowns passes in his career, one in five different games, before achieving the feat on Saturday.

He hauled in receptions of 52 yards (second quarter) and 37 yards (third quarter), both from Carter Bradley.

NEED A LEFT-FOOTED KICKER

Heading into Fall Camp, South Alabama had three kickers who were left-footed including a pair from the Mobile-area. The Jags had two in kicker Diego Guajardo and punter Jack Martin, before the arrival of transfer kicker Jacob Meeks. Both Meeks and Guajardo share the kicking duties, including kickoff duties while Martin backs up Jack Brooks as the punter.

AVERY NEARING 1,000 CAREER RUSHING YARDS

Senior running back Terrion Avery needs just 202 more yards this season to hit 1,000 for his career after a 30-yard day on 11 carries against Central Michigan last Saturday. He entered the year with 745 yards on 197 carries after a career year last season where he finished with 538 yards.

He finished the day with 100 yards (98 net after a two-yard loss) on just 18 carries. He also averaged 5.4 yards per carry in the win. Webb scored a pair of touchdowns on runs of 15 yards (first quarter) to open the scoring, and another from two yards out (fourth quarter) to close the scoring.

He has since added two more touchdowns on the road at Central Michigan.

BRADLEY NO STRANGER TO CENTRAL MICHIGAN AFTER TIME AT TOLEDO

Carter Bradley returns to a city he is familiar with after his time at Toledo as the Jags gear up to face Central Michigan.

Bradley last played against Central Michigan at home on December 12, 2020, and led his team to a 24-23 victory with a game-winning 28-yard touchdown pass with 1:33 remaining in the game. He finished the day 18-for-33 with three touchdowns and three interceptions, while also throwing for 265 yards.

The last time he played in Mt. Pleasant, Central Michigan walked away with a 49-7 victory on November 29, 2019. In that game, he finished 15-for-23 for 121 yards. He also made an appearance in 2018 and split four meetings while at Toledo with Central Michigan.

BRADLEY NAMED TO MANNING STAR OF THE WEEK LIST

Carter Bradley was one of eight quarterbacks named to the Manning Award "Stars of the Week" Monday. Along with Bradley, Malik Cunningham (Louisville), Jalon Daniels (Kansas), Frank Harris (UTSA), Sam Hartman (Wake Forest), Will Rogers (Mississippi State), Kyle Vantrease (Georgia Southern) and Caleb Williams (USC) were also named to the list.

In the 14-point victory over the Chippewas, Bradley connected on 26 of his 41 attempts and three scores, while finishing the day with a 90.7 QBR. Of South's 502 yards of total offense, 354 came through the air. The 354 passing yards recorded by Bradley tied for fourth most (Jake Bentley, vs. Georgia Southern, 10/14/21) in a single game. Bradley threw for 249 yards during the first 30-minutes of action, which were 11 yards shy of his total (260) in the season opener against Nicholls, to send the Jags into the locker room with a 31-10 halftime advantage.

BROOKS NAMED TO RAY GUY AWARD WATCH LIST

Jack Brooks was named to the Ray Guy Award preseason watch list, which honors the nation's top collegiate punter in the FBS, as announced by the Augusta Sports Council on Wednesday.

The 48 candidates on the list incorporate a broad spectrum of Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) punters. The 2022 watch list was compiled based on the 2021 Ray Guy Award Semi-finalist List, the top 10 NCAA Punters from 2021, the 2021 all-conference teams, the 2021 All-American teams, the 2022 preseason all-conference teams and eligible punters on the 2021 watch list.

Players will be added to the list throughout the fall and a complete list of candidates will be released on Nov. 2. In mid-November, the Ray Guy Award committee will meet to select the 10 semifinalists, who will be announced on Nov. 8. A national body of Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) sports information directors, media representatives and previous Ray Guy Award winners will then vote for the top three finalists to be announced on Nov. 18. After the finalists are named, the voting body will cast ballots again to select the nation's top punter, and the winner will be announced live during The Home Depot College Football Awards airing on ESPN in December 2022.

Brooks earned honorable mention all-Sun Belt Conference recognition after averaging a career-high 43.2 yards per punt, the third-highest mark on South's season record list, last fall. He was also named first-team all-conference by Pro Football Focus, while receiving fourth-team all-league accolades from Phil Steele Publications. The Wagga Wagga, New South Wales, Australia, native had 13 kicks end inside the opposition's 20-yard line and 14 efforts of 50 or more yards. Brooks finished fourth in the league and was 39th in the nation in average yards per punt and set a school game record with an average of 63 yards per kick in the season finale against Coastal Carolina.

DROSO NAMED TO MANNELLY AWARD WATCH LIST

Sophomore long snapper Travis Drosos was named to the Patrick Mannelly Award presented by Zebra Technologies Watch List released on Monday afternoon.

Drosos, a transfer from Colorado last season, was the Jaguars' long snapper on all punts, field goals, and extra point attempts in each of the team's 12 contests in 2021. He recorded four tackles covering punts with two of those solo, all, in different games.

He joins a list of 25 student-athletes including Alex Ward (UCF), Austin Mock (Liberty), Bradley Robinson (Ohio State), Chris Stoll (Penn State), Drew Little (North Carolina), Ethan Hudak (Tulane), Evan Deckers (Duke), Jack Landherr IV (UCLA), Joe Shimko (NC State), Karsten Battles (Oregon), Kasey Kelleher (Oklahoma), Kyle Davis (James Madison), Marco Ortiz (Florida), Matt Hembrough (Oklahoma State), Michael Vinson (Notre Dame), Peter Bowden (Wisconsin), Quentin Skinner (Troy), Randen Plattner (Kansas State), Rex Goossen (UNLV), Sean Wracher (Indiana), Simon Samarzich (Washington State), Shane Zellers (California), Tommy Zozus (UCONN), and Wesley Schelling (Vanderbilt).

GUAJARDO HONORED BY PHIL STEELE

Kicker Diego Guajardo was named to the third team selections on the Phil Steele All-Sun Belt Conference preseason teams after leading the Jaguars with 69 points on 12-of-17 field goals and 33-of-35 extra point attempts. He also recorded 23 touchbacks on 59 kickoffs.

South Alabama used four different return specialists for punts and kickoffs in the opener - Omni Wells, Caullin Lacy, Jamall Pritchett, and Braylon McReynolds.

DEFENSE

WILFAWN LEADS JAGS

Quentin Wilfawn led the Jags in the season opener with nine total tackles including a tackle for loss. He finished solo stops and a quarterback hurry in the win. He followed that up with six more against Central Michigan.

PAIR OF TURNOVERS FORCED IN THE OPENER

South Alabama forced a pair of turnovers in the opener including an interception and a fumble recovery. Brock Higdon jumped on a fumble, while AJ DeShazor ended up with an interception in the win.

NATION'S RETURNING RUSHING LEADER HELD IN CHECK

Central Michigan's Lew Nichols led the nation in rushing last season with 1,848 yards; however, on Saturday he was held in check with just 20 yards on 15 carries by a defense that allowed less than 100 yards rushing for the second consecutive game.

NEAR SHUTOUT

The Jags were near a shutout in the opener, giving up a touchdown in the fourth quarter. The seven points given up is the least in a game since the Jags defeated Southern Miss, 31-7 in the opener last year (September 4). The last time South Alabama recorded a shutout came against Alabama A&M in 2017 (45-0).

NO SACKS RECORDED IN OPENER

South Alabama finished the game on Saturday with no sacks as Nicholls protected its quarterbacks, and both got rid of the ball quickly on quick routes by the receivers.

HEAD COACH KANE WOMMACK

Kane Wommack enters his second year as the head coach of the University of South Alabama football program after being named the leader of the program on December 12, 2020. He was a finalist for the award given to the top NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision assistant coach prior to being named the head coach of the Jags.

Wommack (pronounced WAH-mick), 35, became the third head coach since the inception of South's program and was the youngest at the NCAA FBS level. The Jaguars' defensive coordinator in 2016 and '17, he returned to the program after working three years as linebackers' coach at Indiana including serving as the Hoosiers' defensive coordinator his final two seasons.

Last season, South Alabama finished 5-7 in Wommack's first season and had eight players picked up honors from the Sun Belt Conference including Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year Jalen Tolbert who became the first draftee in the NFL during the Wommack era. The Jags' Tolbert and Darrell Luter, Jr. were named First Team All-Conference, while Keith Gallmon, Jr. and Lincoln Sefcik earned second- and third-team honors respectively. Meanwhile, Jake Bentley, Jack Brooks, Wy'Kevious Thomas and Jalen Wayne earned honorable mention honors.

Prior to his return to South Alabama, Wommack was one of five finalists for the Broyles Award in the fall after his efforts helped IU post a 6-2 mark overall on the way to finishing 12th in the final Associated Press poll after earning an invitation to the Outback Bowl. His unit led the Big Ten Conference with both 17 interceptions and a 64 percent red zone defensive rate – ranking first in the country in the latter category and second in the former – while also pacing the league with 20 takeaways and 3.12 sacks per contest. The Hoosiers also finished 10th nationally in turnover margin (1.00) and were among the top 25 in scoring (20.2 points per game) and passing efficiency (120.96 rating) as well in 2020.

Following the season, seven members of the IU defense earned all-Big Ten honors including a school-record four – Jamar Johnson, Jerome Johnson, Micah McFadden and Tiawan Mullen – first-team selections. Mullen also became the first cornerback in program history to earn first-team All-America honors after being recognized by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) while McFadden was a third-team Associated Press All-American.

In his first year as the youngest Power 5 defensive coordinator, Wommack led IU to top-50 rankings nationally in scoring, total, rush and pass defense for the first time since 1993. His efforts helped the Hoosiers hold four opponents to three points or less, the most in one season since limiting five to three or fewer in 1945.

Wommack was the Jaguars' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach during the 2016 and '17 campaigns, leading a unit that was among the top 10 in the country in passing defense (174.6 ypg) while allowing over 10 points fewer than the previous season – the fifth-best improvement in the NCAA FBS that fall – his first year on the staff. In 2017, South was in the top
