UCLA Hosts First Round of NCAA Tournament

The UCLA Bruins (9-7-2) will host the opening round of the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament on Thursday against Patriot League Champion Colgate (13-6-2) at Drake Stadium starting at 5 pm. The match will be live streamed on the Pac-12.com. The winner of the match will travel to No. 4 seed Louisville on Sunday for a second round match.

UCLA in NCAA Tournament

The Bruins are making their 34th consecutive appearance and 44th overall appearance in the NCAA Tournament. UCLA has a 69-32-3 all-time NCAA Tournament record and have won four National Championships (1985, '90, '97, 2002). The Bruins have advanced to the third round or beyond in three of the last five seasons.

Bruins Against the Field

UCLA posted a 4-4-2 record against members of the 48-team NCAA Tournament field this season. The Bruins have wins over Akron (6-0), Coastal Carolina (3-1), CSUN (4-0) and San Diego State (1-0). UCLA recorded a 1-1 tie against No. 1 overall seed Maryland in August.

Last Time Out

The Bruins played to a scoreless draw against No. 16 San Diego State to end the regular season last Thursday at Drake Stadium. UCLA held a 15-12 shot advantage over the Aztecs as Kevin Silva tallied five saves en route to his third shutout of the season and second against SDSU in 2016.

UCLA vs. Top 20

UCLA's match against No. 16 San Diego State was the team's ninth against a Top 20 opponent this season. With wins over No. 1 Akron (6-1), No. 13 UCSB (2-1 in OT) and No. 13 San Diego State (1-0), a tie against No. 4 Maryland (1-1) and No. 16 San Diego State (0-0) and losses to No. 11 Washington (1-0), No. 12 Stanford (3-2), No. 16 Washington (4-0) and No. 16 Stanford (3-0), the Bruins are 3-4-1 this year against Top 20 teams and 17-10-6 since 2013.

In the Rankings

The Bruins continue to receive votes in the Top 25 NSCAA rankings, but slipped from out of the Top 25 in the Soccer America poll but climbed from 24th to 19th in the Top Drawer Soccer poll.

Hernandez Tabbed Pac-12 Co-Player of the Year

Sophomore midfielder Jose Hernandez was named the Pac-12 Co-Player of the Year. He is the first UCLA player to earn conference Player of the Year honors since Leo Stolz in 2013. Last season's Pac-12 Freshman of the Year shares the award with Stanford's Foster Langsdorf.

Eight Bruins Earn All-Pac-12 Honors

A total of eight Bruins received Pac-12 men's soccer post-season awards, led by Pac-12 first team selections Jose Hernandez and Jackson Yueill. Seyi Adekoya, Brian Iloski and Felix Vobejda were named to the all-conference second team, while Michael Amick, Abu Danladi and Erik Holt earned honorable mention.

Bruins Named to TDS Midseason List

A total of eight UCLA players were named to Top Drawer Soccer Midseason lists of Top 100 players in the nation, including three in the top 30. Jackson Yueill is no. 7, Jose Hernandez is ranked No. 27 and Brian Iloski is tabbed at No. 30. Seyi Adekoya ranks no. 45 and Michael Amick was pegged at No. 100. In addition, three Bruins were ranked on the TDS Midseason Top 100 Freshman as Reggie Cannon is No. 8, Matthew Powell was ranked No. 11 and Kevin Silva was tabbed No. 53.

National Leaders

At the start of the week, Jackson Yueill ranked ninth in the nation in assists per game (0.50) and eighth in total assists (9). Kevin Silva is now ranked 12th in the NCAA in saves per game among qualifying goalkeepers at 5.00 saves per contest. As a team, UCLA ranked 17th in assists per game (1.78), 26th in points per game (5.22) and 37th in scoring offense (1.72).

Conference Leaders

At the start of the week, Jose Hernandez and Felix Vobejda each were tied for third in Pac-12 play in points per game at 0.80, followed by Brian Iloski ranked sixth with 0.70. Vobejda is also tied for second in goals scored with four, while Iloski, Hernandez and Abu Danladi are tied for seventh with two goals. Hernandez is second in the Pac-12 averaging 0.40 assists per game, while Seyi Adekoya is third at 0.33. Kevin Silva is also second with 5.22 saves per game. As a team in conference games, the Bruins rank second in points per game (4.30), second in goals per game (1.40) and tied for second in saves per game (4.90). Overall, UCLA is second in the conference in points per game a 5.22 and goals per game at 1.72.

Scouting the Raiders

The Raiders enter the NCAA Tournament with a 13-6-2 overall record and carry a four-match unbeaten streak into Thursday's first-round game. Colgate will be making its sixth NCAA Tournament appearance after the Raiders earned their sixth-ever league crown. Colgate claimed a 5-4 penalty shootout in a 1-1 double overtime draw with top-seeded American Sunday to claim the Patriot League Championship. The Raiders previously defeated Loyola 3-1 in the semifinal and Army 3-2 in the quarterfinals.

The Series with Colgate

UCLA will face Colgate for the first time in school history. The Bruins are 7-3-0 all-time against teams that are currently in the Patriot League.

Starting Three

Three Bruins have started all 18 games for UCLA this season - defender Reggie Cannon; and midfielders Erik Holt and Jose Hernandez. Two players have surpassed 1,600 minutes this season - Holt with 1,668 and Hernandez with 1,639. Cannon follows closely behind with 1,569 minutes of action.

Amick Nominated for Senior Class Award

Senior defender Michael Amick has been selected as one of 30 candidates for the 2016 Senior CLASS Award for men's soccer. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as a NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

Yueill Ties School Record for Assists

Sophomore midfielder Jackson Yueill tied the school record for assists in a game with four in the Bruins' 6-1 win over Akron on Sept. 5. Yueill, who was named to Top Drawer Soccer's Team of the Week after that feat, had all four of his assists in the second half, including assists on the three goals that UCLA scored in a NCAA-record 32-second span. Yueill ranks ninth in the nation and first in the Pac-12 in assists per game with an average of 0.50 and is eighth nationally and first in the Pac-12 in total assists with nine. In just over one season, Yueill has already totaled 15 career assists.

Danladi's Dandy Debut

Junior forward Abu Danladi did not play in the team's first three games of the season due to a hamstring injury, but he made an epic season debut on Sept. 5 against Akron. Just eight minutes into his first game, he scored his first goal of the year, and then 11 seconds after that, he scored his second. Only two other players in NCAA history have scored two consecutive goals in a shorter time span.

Record-Setters

In just one half of action against top-ranked Akron on Sept. 5, UCLA set or tied several records. The Bruins set an NCAA record by scoring three goals in 32 seconds (Abu Danladi, 52:28 and 52:39; Blayne Martinez, 53:00). The previous record was 43 seconds, set by Syracuse in 1989. Danladi's two goals, 11 seconds apart, gave him the distinction of having the third-fastest consecutive goals in NCAA history. Only Robby Christner of Oregon State (:08 in 2008) and Jon Hall of American (:09 in 1987) scored two goals faster. UCLA now has three players in the Top 11 in this category. Julio Umana scored two goals in 15 seconds in 1994 vs. CSUN, and Eddie Lewis scored two in 20 seconds in 1994 vs. Davidson. Additionally, Jackson Yueill tied the UCLA record held by Michael Stephens (2008) and Zak Ibsen (1991) for most assists in a game with four.

Henderson Inducted into UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame

On Sept. 30, former U.S. National Team standout Chris Henderson became the eighth representative from men's soccer to be inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. Henderson was selected to Soccer America's All-Freshman team in 1989, and as a sophomore in 1990, he earned first-team NSCAA All-America honors while leading the Bruins to their second NCAA title. He was one of just three collegiate players to earn a spot on the 1990 U.S. World Cup team and was the youngest player in the tournament. Henderson, who totaled 79 caps for the U.S. National Team, was also a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic team and an alternate for the 1994 and 1998 World Cup squads. After playing professionally in Europe, Henderson played in Major League Soccer from 1996-2001 and retired as the league's all-time leader in games played with 317.

A Look at the Bruins

UCLA returns seven starters from last season's team that went 11-9-1 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Bruins' returning starters are goalkeeper Juan Cervantes; defenders Michael Amick and Chase Gasper; midfielders Jose Hernandez, Jackson Yueill; and forwards Seyi Adekoya and Abu Danladi. They combined to score 37 goals with 24 assists, accounting for 79% of the team's goal scoring a year ago.

The Bruins bring in a recruiting class that was ranked No. 5 in the nation by Top Drawer Soccer. Leading the way among the newcomers are U.S. U-19 Men's National Team members Kevin Silva and Reggie Cannon, junior college All-American Jason Romero, 2016 first-team All-State defender Ethan Shacknai, and Minnesota Thunder Academy goalkeeper Duncan Werling.

What Returns for UCLA

UCLA brings back its top four scorers from last year, all of whom scored 20+ points. Jose Hernandez led all players with 26 points (11g, 4a), followed by leading goal scorer Seyi Adekoya, who totaled 25 points off 12 goals. Abu Danladi led UCLA with 10 assists and also had six goals for a total of 22 points, and Jackson Yueill had 20 points off seven goals and six assists. The Bruins' main offensive loss comes from Larry Ndjock (3g, 1a) and Jordan Vale (2g, 2a).

Fresh Faces

Three players got their first starts as Bruins in the season opener - junior forward Jason Romero, freshman defender Reggie Cannon, and redshirt freshman Matthew Powell. Romero made his presence known right away, scoring just 65 seconds into his first game as a Bruin. Additionally, freshman forward Blayne Martinez made his first collegiate appearance in the season opener and went on to make his first start against Akron in Game 4, where he scored his first career goal. Redshirt sophomore defender Joab Santoyo earned his first start against Cal State Fullerton. Freshman goalkeeper Kevin Silva earned a clean sheet in his first career start against Oregon State and did not allow a goal in his first two starts.

Hernandez, Danladi Named to Watch List

Junior striker Abu Danladi and sophomore midfielder Jose Hernandez were named to the Missouri Athletic Club's (MAC) Hermann Trophy watch list, the sport's most prestigious individual award.

Danladi returns for his junior season after racking up six goals and a team-high 10 assists (22 points) in 19 games last season. The Takoradi, Ghana native earned first team All-Pac-12, second team Top Drawer Soccer Best XI and NSCAA All-Far West honors. Danladi was one of four UCLA players to record 20 or more points, and he posted a stretch of six consecutive games with a goal or an assist.

Hernandez returns for his sophomore campaign after being named Pac-12 Freshman of the Year in 2015. The Mexico City, Mexico native racked up 11 goals and four assists, posting a team-high 26 points in 21 games for the Bruins. In addition to his freshman of the year honor, Hernandez also earned first team All-Pac-12, first team Top Drawer Soccer Freshman Best XI, first team College Soccer News All-Freshman and NSCAA All-Far West team honors. Hernandez finished one goal away from tying the UCLA freshman record for goals in a season and six points away from tying the UCLA freshman record for points in a season.

Pac-12 Preseason Picks

For the seventh consecutive year, the Pac-12 coaches picked the Bruins to finish first in the conference. UCLA received four first-place votes. Defending NCAA champion Stanford received the other two. Additionally, five Bruin players were selected to the 11-man preseason all-conference team - forwards Seyi Adekoya and Abu Danladi, midfielders Jose Hernandez and Jackson Yueill, and defender Michael Amick. Hernandez was the 2015 Pac-12 Freshman of the Year, and Adekoya, Danladi and Yueill each earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors last season.

Bruins Honored on TDS Preseason Lists

Three Bruins were selected to Top Drawer Soccer's 2016 Preseason Best XI team - first-team honorees Jackson Yueill and Abu Danladi and second-team midfielder Jose Hernandez. Goalkeeper Kevin Silva and defender Reggie Cannon were named to the Freshman First Team. UCLA also placed five players in the TDS Preseason list of Top 100 players, including three in the Top 15. Danladi tops the field in the No. 1 position. Yueill is No. 5, and Hernandez ranks No. 14. Additionally, forward Seyi Adekoya ranks 37th, and defender Michael Amick ranks 79th.

Alumni Weekend

UCLA Soccer hosted an Alumni Weekend for both men's and women's soccer alumni on Oct. 20-23. The weekend activities included a ticket to the UCLA Football Homecoming game on Oct. 22, halftime recognition at the Oct. 23 games, a men's alumni game, a postgame clinic after the women's game, and a barbecue.

Challenging Schedule

The Bruins have eight games against teams that made the NCAA Tournament a year ago, including two matchups against defending NCAA champion Stanford and a home contest against 2015 NCAA semifinalist Akron. Other NCAA Tournament teams UCLA will face in 2016 are Cal State Fullerton, Coastal Carolina, Cal Poly, UC Santa Barbara, and Maryland.

Looking Ahead

The winner of the UCLA-Colgate match will travel to Louisville to face the No. 4 seed Cardinals in the second round of the NCAA Tournament on Sunday, Nov. 20 at 2 pm PT from Dr. Mark & Cindy Lynn Stadium.
