#110

Their goal, their motivator, their mantra all season was 110. The number of NCAA Championships UCLA would have if they won their first. The women's soccer team was one of the few teams on campus that had yet win a championship, their place in the famed trophy room in the Hall of Fame non-existent.

That would change in 2013 when the Bruins, despite a difficult playoff path that saw them face three No. 1 seeds and the last two NCAA champions, won their first-ever title, 1-0 in overtime against Florida State.

UCLA breezed through the regular season with a 17-1-2 record, winning the Pac-12 title and taking a No. 2 national ranking and a 15-game unbeaten streak into the postseason, their only loss coming in game five of the season, 1-0, to North Carolina.

The Bruins, however, were denied a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and had to face Pac-12 rival Stanford, the 2011 NCAA Champion, in the Round of 16 before traveling to Chapel Hill for a quarterfinal matchup with 2012 NCAA Champion North Carolina. UCLA posted its third-straight NCAA shutout by beating Stanford, 2-0, turning the tables on a Cardinal team that had eliminated the Bruins in three of the last four tournaments.

With one of the last two NCAA champions taken out, the Bruins set their sights on the most recent one, the No. 1-seed Tar Heels. Unlike the first meeting earlier in the year, where UCLA goalkeeper Katelyn Rowland was making heroic save after heroic save as the Tar Heels outshot the Bruins, 23-6, this quarterfinal match was more evenly-played, with each team taking 11 shots. The Bruins had eight of their 11 shots on goal, forcing UNC goalkeeper Anna Sieloff into a career-high seven saves, while UNC tallied four shots on goal, all of which were saved by Rowland. Taylor Smith broke the scoreless tie early in the second overtime, scoring a minute and a half in. Sarah Killion sent a great through ball to Smith, whose shot was initially saved by Sieloff. Smith, however, followed through on the rebound, scoring far post to end the match and give UCLA its first-ever win over North Carolina.

At the College Cup for the ninth time in school history, the Bruins had another No. 1 seed to face in the semifinals - No 1 overall seed Virginia. The Cavaliers took a 1-0 lead in the 73rd minute after a rare defensive miscue by the Bruins led to an empty net goal by Makenzy Doniak. UCLA fought back, however, to tie on an Ally Courtnall goal with less than five minutes remaining in regulation, and forced overtime, where the Bruins hit the post twice but failed to score, sending the game to a penalty kick shoootout. Rowland came up big in the shootout, stopping the Cavaliers' third and fourth kicks. With the Bruins holding a 3-2 advantage after successful makes by Sam Mewis, Sarah Killion and Lauren Kaskie, Rosie White stepped up for the potential winner. The 2012 New Zealand Olympian calmly stepped up and put the shot into the back of the net to send the Bruins to the championship game.

The 2013 NCAA Champions won UCLA's 110th NCAA title

In the final, it was UCLA against yet another No. 1 seed, Florida State. The Bruins controlled the majority of possession in the first half, but were unable to generate any chances in the early going. Smith had the first serious chance of the match for either side in the 30th minute, controlling a free kick from Killion in the box before wheeling around and putting a shot on frame. The ball beat Florida State keeper Kelsey Wys but clanged off the crossbar and out of play, keeping the match scoreless.

Then right before the half, UCLA almost went ahead again when Caprice Dydasco took a long shot that forced Wys to make a diving save. Smith gathered the rebound and put a shot towards the far post, but once again the ball bounced off the post and away from danger, sending the teams into the locker room tied at 0-0.

The Bruins continued to keep the ball in their third of the field at the start of the second half, and created another good scoring opportunity in the 59th minute. Darian Jenkins did well to keep the ball on the left side of the Seminole box and was able to cross the ball back to the top of the box to Jenna Richmond. Richmond one-timed a shot on goal, but once again Wys was there to make the save. Kodi Lavrusky had another shot at putting the Bruins on top in the 66th minute, when a cross from White trickled to the front of the goal to Lavrusky. She could not get a foot on it though, and Wys eventually gathered the ball for Florida State.

UCLA continued to push forward, consistently keeping the possession. In the 87th minute however, the Seminoles nearly took the lead when Kristin Grubka headed a long throw-in on net. Defender Megan Oyster came up big for the Bruins though, heading the ball off the line to prevent the goal. From there, neither side could find the back of the net before regulation ended and the match went to overtime.

In the first overtime, Killion had a chance to end the game for the Bruins in the 96th minute when she controlled a corner and took a shot towards an open net after Wys came out. Her shot was cleared off the line by the Seminoles, however, and the match stayed scoreless. Then in the 97th minute, Lavrusky finally handed the Bruins the title when she took a terrific through ball in the box from Oyster and finished far post for her seventh goal of the year.

UCLA head coach Amanda Cromwell became just the second women's soccer coach ever to win the NCAA title in her first season with a team, as well as only the second female coach to win the title, joining Becky Burleigh, who led Florida to victory in 1998.

Courtnall, who scored the game-tying goal in the semifinal, was named the College Cup's Most Outstanding Defensive Player and selected to the all-tournament team along with Killion, Oyster and Rowland.

The Bruins continued to enjoy the fruits of victory when they returned home to Los Angeles, making an appearance on the Tonight Show with Jay Leno and being honored at the State Capitol and City Hall. Defender Abby Dahlkemper won the Honda Award for soccer, becoming the first Bruin ever to take the honor, and she was also named the NSCAA Scholar All-American Player of the Year and a finalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy. Head coach Amanda Cromwell was awarded Soccer America's National Coach of the Year.

The Bruins react to Rosie White's decisive penalty kick in the semifinals

Wallis Annenberg Stadium

Wallis Annenberg Stadium

The UCLA soccer teams will begin its third year of play at Wallis Annenberg Stadium, which officially opened its doors on Aug. 17, 2018 with a thrilling 1-0 victory by the UCLA women over Long Beach State.

The stadium, which seats 2,145, is located at the previously-named North Athletic Field, where the Bruins practiced and played selected home games from 1993-1999. The new stadium was made possible thanks to a $5 million lead gift from the Annenberg Foundation. The grand opening completed the first phase of the stadium project and included grandstand seating and press box on the west side, scoreboard and stadium lighting. Expected upgrades in future phases include a spectator amenity building to house restrooms and concessions; a day-of-game locker room building that includes two team locker rooms and two auxiliary locker rooms; and a shared team meeting room and equipment storage.

The grass infield, named Marshall Field, houses a regulation 75-yard by 120-yard soccer field.

Drake Stadium, which was the Bruins' home stadium from 2000-17, now serves as the teams' practice facility. Prior to moving to Drake Stadium, the Bruins played home games on the North Athletic Fleld, Spaulding Field and Murdock Stadium at El Camino College. UCLA's all-time home record is 262-36-18.

UCLA soccer set a new attendance record on Nov. 3, 2017 when a NCAA regular season record 11,925 fans packed Drake Stadium to see the Bruins win the crosstown showdown over USC, 3-2 in overtime.
