Head Coach Carrie Forsyth

Having led the Bruins to a pair of NCAA Championships, while coaching players to nearly 90 All-American awards and five conference Golfers of the Year, Carrie Forsyth begins her 19th season leading the UCLA women's golf program in 2017-2018.

Under Forsyth, the Bruins have won NCAA Championships in 2004 and 2011, and have finished runner-up three more times in 2005, 2008 and 2009. UCLA has finished in the Top 10 at the NCAA Championships 13 times in the last 18 years, including 2016 when it won the stroke-play competition and was a semifinalist in match play. In addition to the pair of national championships, Forsyth has also led the Bruins to eight NCAA Regional crowns, including back-to-back wins three times (2002, 2004-2005, 2008-2009, 2011-2012, 2014).

The Bruins have claimed four Pac-10/12 Conference titles, winning the league championship in 2017. UCLA was the only team to finish in red figures and won by 21 strokes. The Bruins also won back-to-back-to-back Pac-10 titles in 2004, 2005 and 2006. UCLA has placed in the Top 3 of the conference on 14 occasions. Four Bruins have won the conference individual championship: Charlotte Mayorkas (2004), Tiffany Joh (2007), Alison Lee (2014) and Lilia Vu (2017). Vu defeated the field last year by six shots. Five Bruins have been named Pac-10/12 Golfer of the Year, including three in a row with Bronte Law (2015 and 2016) and Alison Lee (2014). Joh was league GOY in 2008, while Mayorkas earned the award in 2004. Six have received Pac-10/12 Newcomer of the Year: Vu (2016), A.Lee (2014), Erynne Lee (2012), Joh (2006), Hannah Jun (2004) and Yvonne Choe (2002).

Forsyth is a five-time Pac-10/12 Conference Coach of the Year, earning the award in back-to-back seasons twice (2011/2012 and 2004/2005), as well as 2002. In 2004, she was named the WGCA Coach of the Year, while in 2011, Forsyth earned Golfweek National Coach of the Year plaudits.

The Bruins have received a total of 89 All-American awards during the last 18 seasons, 47 WGCA/NGCA honors and 42 Golfweek accolades. Law became the first Bruin to be named PING WGCA Player of the Year in 2016 and the second to earn Golfweek POY honors (A.Lee - 2014). Law also became the second Bruin recipient of the ANNIKA Award, joining Lee.

Along with its five conference Players of the Year and six league Newcomers of the Year, UCLA has received 50 All-Pac-10/12 First or Second Team honors since 2000. A total of 19 players have won 41 individual tournament titles during Forsyth's tenure, as the Bruins have won 62 events.

Eleven Bruins who were under Forsyth's tutelage at UCLA are currently members of the LPGA Tour, while four more are a part of the Symetra Tour. In 2014, Mo Martin (2001-2005) became the first Bruin to win a major with her victory at the Ricoh British Open. Later that year, Alison Lee won the LPGA Qualifying Tournament to become the second player in school history to earn her tour card while being a UCLA student. The first was Stephanie Kono in 2011.

On Dec. 6, 2011, Forsyth was inducted into the NGCA Coaches Hall of Fame. She married James Forsyth on July 26, 2003, and the couple resides in Santa Clarita with their twin sons and daughter.

SEASON TEAM SUMMARY

UCLA has finished first, second or tied for third in all 11 of its tournaments this season, posting six victories. The Bruins won the Pac-12 Conference Championships (April 22-24) by 12 shots, shooting under par in all three rounds with a final score of 4-under 860. It was UCLA's second-straight Pac-12 title. The Bruins' other victories have come at the Stanford Intercollegiate (-3, 849, Oct. 16-18), the Nanea Pac-12 Preview (-20, 564, Oct. 23-24), the Battle at the Beach (-13, 839, Nov. 3-5), the Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge (+15, 867, Feb. 11-13) and the Wildcat Invitational (-17, 847, March 5-6). The single-season school record for wins is seven (2003-2004, 2008-2009, 2011-2012), while the eight individual victories are the most for one year at UCLA.

The Bruins also placed second at the ANNIKA Intercollegiate (-4, 860, Oct. 1-3), the Bruin Wave Invitational (+40, 904, Feb. 26-27) and the NCAA San Francisco Regional (-4, 860, May 7-9) and tied for third at the SDSU March Mayhem (+10, 298, March 26, only one round of stroke play) and the Silverado Showdown (+6, 870, April 8-10).

UCLA is a combined 16-under par in its second (-5) and third rounds (-11) this season. The Bruins have finished under par in seven tournaments and have been under par in 15 of their 30 rounds. The Bruins' 287.27 scoring average is the second best in school history (287.22 in 2013-2014).

PATTY TAVATANAKIT

Freshman Patty Tavatanakit, an All-Pac-12 Conference First Team honoree and the Pac-12 Golfer of the Month for April, is coming off her fourth career victory and third in a row, winning the NCAA San Francisco Regional by one shot. She shot an 8-under 208 for the third straight time, opening with a 4-under 68 and closing with a 5-under 67. Her 70.46 scoring average is the second-best, full-season mark in UCLA history behind her teammate Lilia Vu.

Tavatanakit, who is on the WGCA Player and Freshman of the Year, and ANNIKA Award Watch Lists, won a one-hole playoff against Vu at the Pac-12 Championships (-8, 208), shooting a pair of 3-under 69s and a 2-under 70. She shared medalist honors at the Silverado Showdown (-8, 208), getting better each day with a 1-under 71, a 3-under 69 and a 4-under 68, including two birdies on her last three holes to tie for the win. The freshman also tied for first at the Stanford Intercollegiate (-6, 207), going under par in all three rounds at that event. Her four victories are the most for a freshman in one season at UCLA.

Tavatanakit has six Top 10s and hasn't finished worse than T-16 in her nine events. She has 16 under-par rounds and 10 in the 60s. Prior to her final-round, 5-under 67 at the NCAA Regional, Tavatanakit's best under-par round was a 5-under 68 in the second round at Nanea, where she placed third (-5, 141), while her low score was a 4-under 67 to close out her win at Stanford. Tavatanakit opened her career with a second-place finish at the ANNIKA (-5, 211).

LILIA VU

Junior Lilia Vu, the top-ranked amateur in the world, an All-Pac-12 First Team honoree and a member of the ANNIKA Award and WGCA Player of the Year Watch Lists, has won four of her nine events, finishing T-6 or better in eight of those tournaments. She has 19 under-par rounds, with 12 of them in the 60s, which is a single-season school record. The 19 under-par rounds are one shy of a single-season school record (20 by Alison Lee - 2013-2014 and Bronte Law - 2015-2016).

Vu's four wins, all in a row, came at the Battle at the Beach (-8, 205), the Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge (-1, 212), the Bruin Wave Invitational (-1, 215) and the Wildcat Invitational (-14, 202). She tied for the low score at the Pac-12 Championships (-8, 208) before losing the one-hole playoff to Patty Tavatanakit. Her victory at the Wildcat was the eighth of her career to set a new UCLA record, while her 14-under score was the best 54-hole total in school history.

The winner of three Pac-12 Golfer of the Month awards this season (November 2017, February and March 2018), Vu was second at Nanea (-7, 139), T-5 at Silverado (-3, 213), T-6 at Stanford (E, 213) and T-22 at the NCAA Regional (+1, 217). Vu's best round of the year was an 8-under 64 to open the Wildcat Invite. Her 70.15 scoring average is the best full-season mark in school history.

If either Vu or Tavatanakit win the NCAA Championships, they would break the UCLA single-season record for most wins in a season. Vu has won four times in each of the last two years, Tavatanakit four times this season and Charlotte Mayorkas in 2003-2004.

MARIEL GALDIANO

Sophomore Mariel Galdiano, who was named All-Pac-12 First Team, tied for third at the NCAA San Francisco Regional, shooting a 6-under 210. She shot an opening-round, 6-under 66 and closed with a 3-under 69. It was her fifth Top 10 of the season and eighth Top 20, as Galdiano has 14 under-par rounds and eight rounds in the 60s.

The sophomore placed second in the single round of stroke play at the SDSU March Mayhem, shooting a 2-under 70. She was under par in all three rounds at the Wildcat Invite, where she was second to Lilia Vu with a total of 11-under 205. Galdiano also tied for fourth at the Bruin Wave (+8, 224), tied for fifth at Nanea (-2, 144), was 11th at Stanford (+3, 216) and tied for 11th at both the ANNIKA (-1, 215) and the Battle of the Beach (E, 213). Prior to her opening round in San Francisco, her season low came in the final trip at the Wildcat when she shot a 5-under 67. Galdiano was 29th at Pac-12s (+9, 225), shooting a 1-under 71 in the second round.

BETH WU

Junior Beth Wu, who along with Mariel Galdiano is one of two Bruins to play in all 11 events this season, has four Top 10s and five Top 20s. She has shot seven under-par rounds and a pair in the 60s. Wu, named to the All-Pac-12 Second Team, was fourth at Nanea (-4, 142), finishing with a 5-under 68. She also tied for sixth at both the Stanford Intercollegiate (E, 213) and the Battle at the Beach (-3, 210), the latter tournament shooting a final-round, 5-under 66. Wu opened the fall with a fifth-place showing at the NGRC (+2, 215), while posting a pair of under-par rounds to close out a T-16 showing at the ANNIKA (+1, 217). She tied for 23rd at Pac-12s (+6, 222) and tied for 74th at the NCAA San Francisco Regional (+12, 228).

CLARE LEGASPI

Sophomore Clare Legaspi will be playing in her ninth event at the NCAA Championships and has a pair of Top 20s, tying for 11th at Nanea (+1, 147) and tying for 16th at the ANNIKA (+1, 217). She has three under-par rounds, shooting a 2-under 69 to open the Battle at the Beach (T-42, +9, 222), a 2-under 70 in her middle round at the ANNIKA and a 1-under 72 in the opening round at Nanea. Legaspi tied for 38th (+13, 229) at Pac-12s and tied for 74th at the NCAA Regional (+12, 228).

SEVEN-YEAR ITCH?: HISTORY AT NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

UCLA's two most recent NCAA Championships came seven years ago (2011 in Bryan, Texas) and seven years prior to that (2004 in Auburn, Ala.), both under current head coach Carrie Forsyth, who is in her 19th season at the helm of the Bruins. UCLA also hoisted the trophy in 1991 (Columbus, Ohio) under former coach Jackie Steinmann. The best finish for a UCLA player at the NCAA Championships came in 2008 when Tiffany Joh tied for first, however, she lost the individual title in a playoff. The Bruins also have a trio of third-place individual finishes (1996, Kathy Choi; Susie Mathews, 2004; Amie Cochran, 2005, T-3).

In the Bruins' last trip to the NCAA Championships in 2016 (Eugene, Ore.), UCLA finished first in stroke play (-8, 1,144) by three shots over Stanford. The Bruins were under par in three of the four rounds, including a 6-under 282 in the final round. Lilia Vu, then a freshman, had the best UCLA finish (T-6, -5, 283), with Beth Wu, also in her first year in 2016, tying for 27th (+2, 290). The Bruins would go on to win the match play quarters with a 4-0-1 victory over Oregon before falling 3-1-1 to eventual national champion Washington in the semifinals.

In their 24 previous trips to the NCAA Championships, the Bruins have finished the stroke play portion in the Top 8 on 19 occasions (1st - 4 times; 2nd - 4 times; 3rd - 2 times; 4th - 2 times; 5th - 4 times; 6th - 2 times; 8th - 1 time).

MATCH PLAY SUCCESS

The Bruins' starting five has had a wealth of success in the collegiate match play format. In three seasons of collegiate match play, Beth Wu is 10-5-2, while Lilia Vu, who didn't appear in the Bruins' match play tournament in San Diego this season, is 10-2-2. Sophomore Clare Legaspi is 4-3-1, sophomore Mariel Galdiano is 3-4-1 and freshman Patty Tavatanakit is 2-1.

Vu and Wu each competed at the last NCAAs trip for UCLA and went 1-0-1 and 0-1-1, respectively, in 2016 in Eugene.
