STEIN METZGER

Head Coach
9th Season at UCLA
160-43 (.788)
UCLA '96

Stein Metzger, the 2017 and 2018 Pac-12 Coach of the Year and the 2017 and 2018 USMC/AVCA National Coach of the Year, enters his ninth season as the UCLA Beach Volleyball Head Coach in 2021 after guiding UCLA to back-to-back NCAA Championships in 2018 (40-4) and in 2019 (35-3). He also led UCLA to a 13-2 mark in a shortened 2020 campaign with the Bruins ranked No. 2 in the final AVCA poll of the year and two wins over USC early in the year.

The Bruins' three losses in 2019 were all to USC by a score of 3-2. But seeded No. 2 for the NCAA Championship after the Trojans won the Pac-12 Championship, UCLA used it as fuel to the fire and defeated top-seeded USC in the NCAA title match, 3-0, without dropping a single set. The Bruins had four All-Americans for the first time in school history in 2019 as Megan and Nicole McNamara from court one and Sarah Sponcil and Lily Justine from court two were all honored by the AVCA. Additionally, the McNamara twins became the first tandem in the history of the NCAA to earn first team All-America honors all four years.

The 40 wins in 2018 were a school and NCAA record for a single season. UCLA also won a school-record 31 consecutive duals during the 2018 campaign and won its first-ever Pac-12 Conference Championship, defeating the defending champions USC twice on the same day to win the title. The Bruins beat the best all season long with 33 of their 40 victories coming in wins over nationally-ranked teams and going 5-1 on the year against the defending NCAA Champions, USC. Additionally, all four losses on the year were to teams ranked in the top four.

A U.S. Olympian and UCLA Hall of Famer, Metzger enters the 2021 season with an overall record of 160-43 (.788) and has gone 118-15 (.887) in the last four seasons (2017-20).

UCLA Head Coach Stein Metzger checks in with Izzy Carey during the 2019 NCAA Championship.

In 2017, the Bruins picked up a lot of firsts, but none were larger than knocking off crosstown rival No. 1 USC in the semifinals of the Pac-12 Championship. UCLA also posted its first-ever win over then-No. 2 Florida State, 3-2, in the final game of the Inaugural East Meets West Challenge, hosted by UCLA at legendary Manhattan Beach Pier in Manhattan Beach, Calif. Along the way, UCLA finished with a then-school-record 30 wins compared to just six defeats and won a then-school-record 24 consecutive duals, finishing second at the Pac-12 Championship.

In 2016, the Bruins finished third at the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in Gulf Shores, Ala. UCLA ended the season with a 22-8 overall record, including going 3-2 at NCAA's, defeating 8th-seeded Stetson (3-2), 3rd-seeded Pepperdine (3-2) and 5th-seeded Hawai'i (3-0). The Bruins fell in the elimination bracket to No. 1 Florida State (3-1).

Beach volleyball saw several changes in 2015, when UCLA announced that Coach Metzger would leave his duties as assistant indoor coach to focus solely on beach. In addition, the Pac-12 Conference announced during the summer of 2015 that beach volleyball would become a Pac-12 sponsored sport effective the 2016 season. Additionally, the NCAA officially sponsored its first national championship in 2016.

The Pac-12's adoption of beach volleyball made it the league's 23rd sport and the first major conference to sponsor beach volleyball. Eight member institutions currently sponsor beach volleyball, well above the conference threshold of six. In a related decision, beach volleyball had a Pac-12 Championship beginning in the spring of 2016.

Metzger completed his third season with the UCLA women's indoor volleyball staff in 2014, his second as an assistant coach, while serving as a volunteer coach in 2012.

Metzger has guided UCLA Beach Volleyball since its inaugural season in the spring of 2013. The Bruins have been ranked in the Top 10 throughout each of their first seven campaigns. Debuting the sand team competitively just two months after the sport was added to UCLA's athletic program, Metzger guided Kelly Reeves to the program's first sand All-America award in 2013, while two pairs (Reeves and Meg Norton and Zoë Nightingale and Becca Strehlow) each made the AVCA National Championships.

Over the first three seasons of Bruin sand volleyball, Metzger, who is one of UCLA's NCAA-record 13 Beach Volleyball Olympians, led the program to 20 dual wins (10 in 2015) and coached three sets of pairs' teams to the AVCA National Championships, including Zoë Nightingale and Kamila Tan in 2015. The fast-growing discipline became an NCAA-sponsored sport in 2016, the first year an NCAA Championship was awarded in beach volleyball.

In the first two years, members of the Bruin indoor team populated the beach roster, but the 2015 campaign brought the first-ever sand-only players.

Metzger returned to his alma mater as a coach, having played on the Bruin men's team from 1993-96 and winning three National Championships. Metzger, who was a teammate of current head coach Michael Sealy on the '93 title-winning squad, is second all-time in UCLA history in assists (5,158) and sixth in aces (110).

He went on to win two more National Championships in 1995 and '96, getting named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team both times. Metzger earned AVCA First-Team All-America and ASICS/Volleyball Magazine All-America honors both seasons, while earning AVCA Co-Player of the Year accolades as a team captain during his senior campaign. He was also named to the all-conference team three times, including First Team in '96.

Following his days in Westwood, Metzger competed professionally on the AVP Tour, winning 16 times with partners Kevin Wong (two times), Jake Gibb (four), Mike Lambert (nine) and Mark Williams (one). Metzger was twice a part of the AVP Team of the Year with Gibb ('05) and Lambert ('06), ranking as the Tour's top player both seasons. He earned the Crocs Cup title in 2006.

In 2004, Metzger earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Beach Volleyball team, finishing in fifth with partner Dax Holdren. A year prior, the duo won the silver medal at the 2003 Beach Volleyball World Championships in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Metzger also has two international titles to his credit with Wong in 2001 and '02, as well as a Bronze medal at the '01 Goodwill Games.

In addition to his collegiate coaching accolades, Metzger has trained U.S., French and Israeli National Beach teams. He has also coached with the USA Volleyball Elite Development Program.

A 1996 graduate of UCLA with a degree in environmental studies, Metzger was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009. Metzger and his wife, Emily, live in Redondo Beach with their daughter, Quinn, and son, Otto.

JENNY JOHNSON JORDAN

Associate Head Coach
Eighth Season
UCLA '96

Former Bruin standout and Olympian Jenny Johnson Jordan returned to Westwood and is in her eighth season with the UCLA beach volleyball program in 2021. Johnson Jordan served the first seven years as an assistant coach and was promoted to associate head coach on July 13, 2020. She is one of UCLA's newest Hall of Famers as she was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame on Oct. 5, 2018. She has won a national title as a player and as a coach as she helped guide the Bruins to their first-ever NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in 2018 as UCLA went 40-4 on the year.

Johnson Jordan then helped the Bruins win back-to-back NCAA titles on May 5, 2019 (35-3) and was named the AVCA National Assistant Beach Coach of the Year on May 9, 2019.

Johnson Jordan played with the Bruins from 1991 to 1995 and was a two-time team captain for the Bruin women's volleyball team (1994-1995). She was a member of the 1991 UCLA National Championship squad, as well as the NCAA runner-up teams from '92 and '94, earning All-Tournament Team honors in 1994.

She played in 127 matches and 406 sets in her four seasons, recording 1,212 kills and 1,214 digs, ranking as one of 12 Bruins to post at least 1,000 career kills and digs. Johnson Jordan, who sits eighth in school history in digs and 21st in kills, also had 93 service aces and 225 blocks. She led the Bruins in aces in 1993 and 1995, as well as digs in 1995.

Johnson Jordan earned a pair of Volleyball Magazine All-American Honorable Mention accolades in 1994 and '95. She was also a two-time All-Pac-10 Conference First Team honoree ('93 and '95) and a two-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection.

Following her playing days at UCLA, Johnson Jordan played on the beach, competing in the sport's grandest stage. In 2000, with partner and former Bruin Annett (Buckner) Davis, she finished fifth in the Sydney Olympic Games. She also served as an alternate for the 2004 Athens Games, and during that year with Davis, became just the second team in the world to compete in 100 events together.

Elsewhere on the beach, Johnson Jordan has played on the Pro 4's, FIVB, WPVA, BVA and AVP Tours. In 1997, she won the FIVB 4-Person World Beach Championship at UCLA. Two years later, she won a Silver medal at the FIVB World Championships. A winner of 10 professional beach titles worldwide, Johnson Jordan ranked in the Top 10 in points every year she competed on the BVA and AVP Tours and was honored in 2002 with the AVP Special Achievement Award.

Johnson Jordan has been a High Performance Coach for USA Volleyball and is also USAV Beach Cap Certified. In 2012, she became the first beach volleyball coach at her alma mater, Windward High School, and that year was also the head coach for the LAVA girls club volleyball beach program.

Johnson Jordan, who graduated from UCLA with a bachelor's in communications in 1996, comes from a rich tradition of Bruins and athletic pedigree. Her father, Rafer, was an Olympic Gold medalist in the Decathlon in 1960 and a Silver medalist in that event in 1956. Her mother, Betsy, also attended UCLA, as did her brother Josh, a former javelin thrower, and uncle Jimmy, a former football player who went on to a career with the San Francisco 49ers and is a member of the NFL Hall of Fame.

Johnson Jordan is married to former UCLA All-American wide receiver Kevin Jordan (class of '95). The couple have two children, Jaylen and Kory.

JOSE LOIOLA

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season

UCLA head women's beach volleyball coach Stein Metzger announced on Jan. 5, 2021, the hiring of beach volleyball Hall of Famer Jose Loiola as the Bruins' volunteer assistant coach effective immediately. He will be in his first season in 2021.

While this is Loiola's first collegiate post, he has been coaching some of the world's youngest and brightest stars for over a decade. He is currently coaching emerging stars on both the men's and women's professional tours. Under his tutelage, Tri Bourne and Trevor Crabb placed third overall in the 2020 AVP Champions Cup Series and won The Porsche Cup in August. On the women's side, he also coached Sara Hughes and Brandie Wilkerson to a third-place overall finish in the 2020 AVP Champions Cup Series with a best finish of second at The Wilson Cup in July.

"I am thrilled to have Jose join our staff," Metzger said. "He is one of the greatest beach volleyball players of all time and is now coaching some of the top teams on the professional scene. His experience, knowledge and passion are unrivaled and I know the team will benefit tremendously from his mentorship. As a student at UCLA, and later on the professional tour, I looked up to Jose and learned a great deal from his play. I now look forward to learning more from one of the masters in the game."

Loiola got his start working with professional athletes in 2014 when he coached UCLA's Jeremy Casebeer and Casey Jennings out of BYU. He mentored three different teams in 2015, highlighted by the duo of Theo Brunner and Nick Lucena, who placed fourth at the FIVB World Championship. Also in 2015, he coached the tandem of Irene (Hester) Pollock and Caitlin Ledoux. Pollock would later help guide the Bruins to their second straight NCAA Championship in 2019 as the volunteer assistant coach. Loiola coached Hughes and Kelley Claes in 2017 to an AVP victory in Chicago. He coached Hughes and Summer Ross in 2018-19 as the pair would claim two tour stop victories in the AVP and won gold in Russia on the FIVB circuit. He also would begin his coaching of Bourne and Crabb in 2019.

He got his start in coaching in 2011 as the head coach of Team Wave (indoor volleyball club). He has also served stints as an assistant coach at West Torrance High School in 2012 and that same year was an assistant coach for the Men's U19 World Championship in Cypress. Also in 2012, he served as the head coach for the U17 Women's Junior National Team. He was a head coach for the U21 Men's and Women's World Championships in Croatia in 2013. In 2014, he guided the U21 Women to a bronze medal at the World Championship and served as the head coach for the U21 Junior National Team in 2015. He also served as the head coach of the U21 Travel Team that went to China. He spent four years (2015-18) as a head coach for the USA Volleyball Beach Tryouts (High Performance), which is now the National Team Development Program.

Loiola recorded 55 victories over his long and legendary career. He won titles for eight straight years, from 1995 through 2002, including 13 AVP titles in 1997 and seven FIVB titles in 1999. Loiola has experienced success both on the AVP Tour as well as internationally, winning 35 domestic events plus 20 on the FIVB Tour. Among his many wins are the 1997 King of the Beach, 1999 FIVB World Championship (Marseille, France), 2001 Goodwill Games (Australia) and twice winning the Manhattan Beach Open (1995 and 2000). He was an Olympian for Brazil in 2000 (Sydney, Australia), finishing ninth with Emanuel Rego.

He won four AVP Offensive Player of the Year awards (1995-98). Loiola was the first player to be selected AVP Rookie of the Year (1993) and then MVP (1997). His first title, an indoor tournament in 1995, marked the first time an AVP event was won by foreign-born players, as he claimed the title with Eduardo Bacil. In 2001 the FIVB chose Loiola and Rego as one of the two best beach volleyball teams of the '90s.

Loiola, a junior national champion in Brazil, was inducted into the CBVA Beach Volleyball Hall of Fame in 2014 and the International Volleyball Hall of Fame in 2017.

A business major, he is working on his bachelor's degree in sports, entertainment, and hospitality at CS Dominguez Hills.

Jose Loiola won four AVP Offensive Player of the Year Awards (1995-98).

Only pair in NCAA named four-time All-American*

AVCA Top Flight Award

Introduced in 2018, this awards program was designed to recognize excellence in collegiate beach volleyball from all over the country and across all flights. In order for a pair to be eligible for the award, the two student-athletes must compete in at least 15 matches together and at a specific flight number. Should that pair win at least 75% of their matches – regardless of the overall result of the dual – those athletes will achieve "Top Flight" status.

GULF SHORES, Ala. – The top-seeded UCLA beach volleyball team made history Sunday, winning the first NCAA Championship in program history. UCLA defeated fourth-seeded Florida State, 3-1, avenging a Friday loss to the Seminoles that put the Bruins one loss away from elimination. They proceeded to win four matches in two days, capped by Sunday's triumph, which gave UCLA its 116th overall NCAA Championship.

The Bruins won 35 of its final 36 matches to complete their historic season with a 40-4 overall record. The 40 wins represent a single-season NCAA record, previously set by USC last year (38). The Seminoles dropped to 33-7. The win marked UCLA's first over Florida State in an NCAA Championship setting, with the Bruins having been eliminated by the Seminoles in 2016 and 2017.

Returning to the flight format used throughout the regular season, pairs 4 and 5 took to the sand first. In their first action since Saturday's semifinal, the Seminoles got off to a hot start, claiming each first set. The Bruins would not go quietly, however, as each tandem recovered to force a first-to-15 third set.

UCLA's No. 5 pair of Izzy Carey and Megan Muret posted a dramatic 24-22 second-set victory and rode its newfound momentum to a 17-21, 24-22, 15-8 win over Madison Fitzpatrick and Francesca Goncalves to get the Bruins on the board first.

The Florida State duo of Molly McBain-Brooke Kuhlman would soon make it a best-of-three affair, though, pulling the Seminoles even with a 21-15, 19-21, 15-12 defeat of Elise Zappia-Mac May in a battle of No. 4 pairs.

The top three courts came out determined in the second flight, sweeping the first sets to put the Bruins on the brink of history. UCLA's Court 3 team of Zana Muno and Savvy Simo grabbed their opportunity with a convincing win over Macy Jerger-Sara Putt, 21-19, 21-9, to inch the Bruins one step closer.

The 2018 NCAA Champions won UCLA's 116th NCAA title with a 3-1 victory over Florida State.

With both Courts 1 and 2 on match point, the duo of Sarah Sponcil-Lily Justine played the part of hero. The second-court pair knocked off Katie Horton-Hailey Luke of the Seminoles, 21-18, 21-19, setting off a storming of the court in celebration.

The pairs of Nicole McNamara-Megan McNamara (Court 1) and Izzy Carey-Megan Muret (Court 5) were selected to the All-Tournament Team.

The Bruins celebrate with a dog-pile on court two as UCLA won its first-ever NCAA Championship in beach volleyball in 2018.

GULF SHORES, Ala. – The second-seeded UCLA beach volleyball team won its second-consecutive NCAA title on Sunday afternoon (May 5), taking down top-seeded USC 3-0 at Gulf Shores Public Beach.

UCLA, which finished 35-3 on the season, opened the dual in style, winning in straight sets on courts four and five.

Juniors Madi Yeomans and Savvy Simo took down Joy Dennis and Maja Kaiser, 21-16, 21-19, on court four, while senior Izzy Carey and freshman Lindsey Sparks mustered a 21-16, 21-15, triumph over Cammie Dorn and Mollie Ebertin on court five.

The championship-clinching victory came on court three, as senior Zana Muno and freshman Abby Van Winkle defeated USC's Haley Hallgren and Alexandra Poletto, 22-20, 21-13. The win for the Bruin pair snapped a three-game losing streak to the Trojans as a team and for the pair on court three.

The Bruins were on pace for a 5-0 victory over the Trojans without dropping a set before the matches on courts one and two were truncated.

On court one, seniors Megan and Nicole McNamara took the first set off of USC's Tina Graudina and Abril Bustamante, 21-18, and were tied at 19-19 in the second set when the match was ended.

Likewise on court two, the Bruin pair of senior Sarah Sponcil and junior Lily Justine took the first set off of Sammy Slater and Terese Cannon, 21-18, and had a sizeable 19-10 lead in the second set before the match was ended.

The Bruins have now posted the best record in the country for two consecutive seasons, going 35-3 in 2019 and 40-4 in 2018. The 40 wins are a UCLA and NCAA single-season record. UCLA has a combined 75-7 record in duals over the last two seasons which is a winning percentage of 91.5 percent. Of the 75 wins, 65, or 87 percent, have come against ranked teams, with 40, or 53 percent, coming against teams in the Top 10, and 24, or 32 percent, having been against teams in the Top five. These numbers reflect that UCLA not only has more victories than any other team in the country over the last two years, but it has more wins over ranked teams, top 10 teams and top five teams.

The 2019 NCAA Champions won UCLA's 117th NCAA title with a 3-0 victory over top-seeded USC.

The Bruins beat the Trojans six straight times across the 2018 and 2019 seasons, going 8-4 against USC in that span.

UCLA has gone 9-1 at the NCAA Championship with back-to-back titles in the last two seasons and of UCLA's 35 wins in 2019, 23 were sweeps, including three in the NCAA Championship, and of the 23 sweeps, 17 were against nationally ranked teams with 12 ranked in the Top 10.

UCLA went 35-3 (92.1%) as a team in 2019 and across all five flights, the Bruins were 155-23 (87.2%). Additionally, of the 155 court victories, 131 were in straight sets (84.5%). But even when UCLA was forced to a third set, the Bruins were a combined 24-12 (66.7%).

Both of the Bruins' pairs on courts three and five, Muno and Van Winkle and Carey and Sparks were named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team.

The five Bruin seniors on the 2019 NCAA Championship team join UCLA Head Coach Stein Metzger to accept the trophy.

MAPES BEACH

Mapes Beach, which is located at Sunset Canyon Recreation Center, serves as the home of the UCLA women's beach volleyball team and as a secondary pool for the UCLA men's and women's water polo teams.

The beach volleyball courts have undergone a complete renovation that was recently completed in time for the 2020 season, thanks to a donation totaling $1,000,000 from former UCLA tennis student-athlete John Mapes (BA 1990) and his wife Carrie (BA 1990, MEd 1991). The donation to the beach volleyball program was used to endow a student-athlete scholarship, as well as to support the construction of new beach volleyball courts at Sunset Canyon Recreation Center.

After renovation, Mapes Beach now consists of four courts, of which three are regulation size with the fourth being used for warm-up purposes only.

The courts are open to UCLA staff and students, Monday-Sunday, 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. They are located at 111 Easton Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1370.

An ideal setting for beach volleyball, Sunset Canyon is located off the northwest side of DeNeve Drive, just east of the residence halls. Sunset Canyon Recreation Center is a park-like facility that features a 50-meter pool with diving facilities, a 25-yard family pool, picnic and barbecue areas, four beach volleyball courts and large grass areas for sunning, frisbee and other outdoor activities. In addition, there are six lighted regulation tennis courts. Also available are an outdoor amphitheater, various meeting rooms and lounges, adjacent parking and access for people with disabilities.
