VALORIE KONDOS FIELD

Head Coach / 26th Season / UCLA '87

UCLA head coach Valorie Kondos Field has positioned her Bruins as one of the premier programs in collegiate gymnastics. Not only has she consistently recruited and coached some of the top talent in the world, but she has produced the results.

The Bruins won their first NCAA championship in 1997 under Kondos Field and won again in back-to-back seasons in both 2000-2001 and 2003-2004. In 2010, UCLA won its sixth NCAA title with a 24-for-24 performance in the Super Six. UCLA has remained the Leader of the Pac under Kondos Field's tenure, winning 12 conference titles, including the inaugural Pac-12 title in 2012, to go along with 17 NCAA Regional titles. In 2015, UCLA won the NCAA Regional title, and senior Samantha Peszek won the NCAA all-around and beam titles.

Kondos Field has been selected by her peers as the NACGC/W National Coach of the Year four times (1996, 1997, 2000 and 2001) and was also named the Pac-12 Coach of the Year in 1995, 2000, 2003 and 2012. In 2010, she became just the second active coach to be inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame.

Kondos Field emphasizes a team concept, but her student-athletes have also found individual success, winning 25 NCAA individual titles during her years as head coach.

But even with all of her successes on the court, what gives Kondos Field most satisfaction is seeing her student-athletes succeed in all facets of their lives. Academics is a big part of that equation, and Kondos Field's teams regularly place members on the Conference All-Academic teams and Scholastic All-American squads and annually contend for the school's team GPA award.

With legendary UCLA basketball coach John Wooden as her role model and cherished friend, Kondos Field's coaching philosophy stresses balance and integrity.

"Growing up in the classical dance world, I spent the majority of my youth in a very disciplined environment," she said. "The reward was the self-satisfaction that came from the culmination of months of hard work in preparation for our performances and knowing I did my best to become the best I was capable of becoming. The reward wasn't monetary or about 'winning'; instead, it was being able to have pride in a job well done."

"In a sport as subjective as gymnastics, it's important to have an honest internal voice that knows when you've done your best even if your 'score' says you didn't 'win', and conversely knowing when you can push harder even if your 'score' says you are the 'champion'," she continued. "That inner voice, known as integrity, is vital in living life to its fullest and enjoying the journey in every aspect of life."

Kondos Field's professional journey has been a unique one. A former professional ballet dancer with the Sacramento Ballet, Capital City Ballet and Washington, D.C. Ballet, she initially got her start in gymnastics at Agilites in Carmichael, Calif. by playing the piano for floor exercise music. From there, she became a dance coach, and under the guidance of former University of Minnesota head coach Jim Stephenson, learned the fundamentals of the sport.

In 1983, she was hired to be UCLA's assistant coach and choreographer. While working under head coach Jerry Tomlinson, Kondos Field helped put UCLA Gymnastics on the map with their distinctive choreography and flair. The Bruins earned NCAA runner-up finishes in 1984 and 1989 and won six NCAA individual titles from 1987-89.

Kondos Field was appointed head coach of the Bruins in 1991 and brought in Scott Bull as her co-head coach. The duo earned West Region Co-Coach of the Year honors in 1993 and in 1994. As the sole head coach in 1995, she earned Pac-10 and West Region coaching honors and guided her team to first-place finishes at the Pac-10 and Regional Championships. Just one year later, she led the Bruins to a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships, and in 1997 she became just the fourth coach in NCAA history to win a national title.

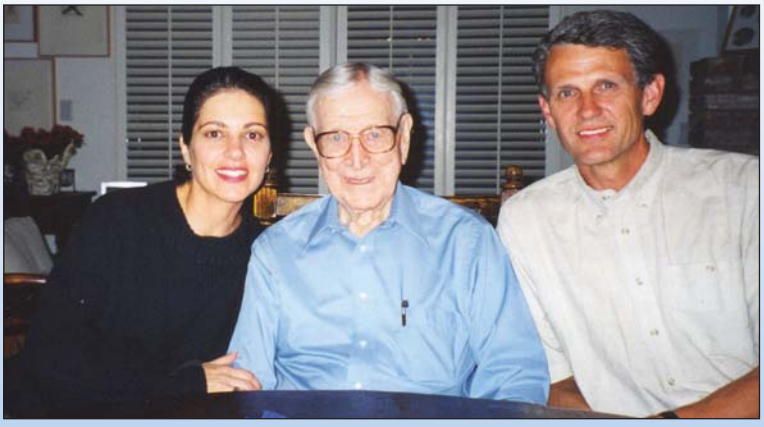

She is recognized as one of the top beam and floor choreographers in the sport. Under her guidance, UCLA has formed a reputation of having the most unique and artistic routines in the nation. Kondos Field has choreographed 17 NCAA championship routines on beam and floor, including an unprecedented three consecutive on floor from Kim Hamilton from 1987-89. She also earned the Choreography of the Year Award at the 2004 Canadian National Championships for Kate Richardson's floor exercise routine.

Kondos Field has also come to be recognized for her recruiting ability. Since becoming head coach, she has attracted to UCLA some of the top talent in the U.S. and abroad, including Olympic competitors Samantha Peszek, Jennifer Pinches, Mohini Bhardwaj, Kate Richardson, Elyse Hopfner-Hibbs, Tasha Schwikert, Kristen Maloney, Jamie Dantzscher, Yvonne Tousek, Stella Umeh and Luisa Portocarrero; and World Championships competitors Lena Degteva, Doni Thompson, Leah Homma, Jeanette Antolin, Holly Murdock, Ashley Peckett, Marci Bernholtz, Lichelle Wong, Sydney Sawa, Mattie Larson, Christine Peng-Peng Lee and Danusia Francis. Kondos Field also signed 2016 Olympic hopefuls in 2012 Olympic gold medalist Kyla Ross and 2015 uneven bars world champion Madison Kocian.

More impressively, however, under Kondos Field's tutelage, many of these top recruits went on to compete at the elite level both during and after their collegiate careers. Anna Li made the U.S. Olympic team as an alternate in 2012, two years after finishing her senior season at UCLA. In the summer of 2010, Vanessa Zamarripa made the U.S. National Team with an eighth-place finish at her first U.S. Championships. In 2004, Kate Richardson became only the second female gymnast to compete at the Olympic Games as a collegiate athlete. She was joined in Athens by another Bruin, Mohini Bhardwaj, who captained the U.S. team to a team silver medal three years after her senior season at UCLA. Both Richardson and Bhardwaj qualified for the floor exercise finals, with Bhardwaj placing sixth and Richardson placing seventh with her Kondos Field-choreographed routine. In 1999, Kondos Field coached then-UCLA junior Heidi Moneymaker at her first USA Championships, and Moneymaker, Bhardwaj and Lena Degteva all represented UCLA at the 1999 World University Games.

A 1987 UCLA graduate in history, Kondos Field is also a freelance choreographer with extensive experience in the entertainment and gymnastics fields. She has helped to create, direct and choreograph Sea World's Summer Nights shows for the past 23 years, and her Riptide show won a national award for Best Overall Production: $1,000,000 - $2,000,000 or More at the International Association of Amusement Parks and Attractions (IAAPA) 2007 Big "E" Awards. In the summer of 1991, Kondos Field choreographed a summer acrobatic festival held in Lennestadt, Germany.

Kondos Field is married to former UCLA Associate Athletic Director and football coach Bobby Field.

Valorie Kondos Field and Bobby Field with John Wooden

What They're Saying …

"The vibrant personality of Valorie carries over in her work with the young ladies under her supervision. It's no wonder that all of them are so enthusiastic about their sport."

- John Wooden, Hall of Fame coach

"I've known Val since she helped me on my floor exercise routine before the '84 Olympics. She has since become a good friend to me and my wife, Donna, a former Bruin gymnast. She represents UCLA with class and character both on and off the gym floor. Valorie is a great coach, but an even better person."

- Peter Vidmar, UCLA '83, NCAA and Olympic champion

"There were many reasons for why I chose to come to UCLA, but the most important one was Miss Val. From the moment I met her, I knew that she cared about me as a person and not just as an athlete. Throughout my four years of being on the UCLA Gymnastics team, Valorie emphasized qualities such as integrity, leadership and teamwork. What she cared about most was that we graduated far better people than we were starting out. What I realized was that by becoming the best person I can be, I also became the best athlete I can be. Valorie is the reason why UCLA Gymnastics has become the number one program in the nation."

- Lena Degteva, UCLA '01, NCAA champion

"Having known Valorie since the early '80's, I've been privileged to witness the evolution and maturation of a truly remarkable coach; from an unquestionably talented choreographer to a highly-respected and greatly admired head coach. Her ability to recruit the nation's most talented gymnasts year after year is not the key to her success. To the contrary, the 'advantage' of working with high-level talent often presents its own challenge. Elite athletes frequently come to college with 'baggage' (e.g., fatigue, nagging/chronic injuries, negative experiences), and Valorie's calm, nurturing, supportive approach - along with her foremost ambition to graduate self-sufficient, self-confident young women - allows these gymnasts to adjust to a collegiate environment and succeed anew within that arena. Valorie's ego never enters the mix. Her focus is always on the athletes, whose success she ultimately defines not by winning but by growth as well-rounded human beings."

- Kathy Johnson Clarke, Olympic medalist

"Coaching gymnastics is difficult, but it is extremely challenging at the collegiate level. Young gymnasts are suddenly faced with instant freedom and stringent academic demands. Valorie has been able to take gymnasts from diverse backgrounds and motivation levels and teach them to love the sport again. She is a passionate professional."

- Dwight Normile, Editor, International Gymnast

"I have a lot of respect for Valorie and her program. We enjoy competing against them because it always brings together two of the best teams in the country and is a positive experience for the athletes, the coaches and the fans."

- Bev Plocki, University of Michigan Head Coach

"Val has been extremely successful with so many athletes over the years. I am always impressed with her calmness and the connection she has with her team."

- Mary Lee Tracy, Former U.S. National Team Coach

"You have to give Valorie credit for the strong program that she has put together at UCLA. I feel fortunate that I was able to be a part of the team so that I could watch and learn from Valorie. She has built the program into a model that others in the nation want to emulate."

- Rhonda Faehn, Sr. VP, USA Gymnastics/former UCLA gymnast

CHRIS WALLER

Associate Head Coach / 14th Season / UCLA '91

Career Highlights

- 2004 NACGC/W National and 2010 West Region Assistant Coach of the Year
- Coach of 2004 U.S. Olympic team captain Mohini Bhardwaj
- Three NCAA team championships as UCLA Assistant Coach
- 1992 U.S. Olympian
- 1991 U.S. all-around champion
- U.S. pommel horse champion from 1991-93
- Inducted into USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame in 2003
- 1989 NCAA pommel horse champion
- 1990 NCAA high bar champion
- Member of UCLA's 1987 NCAA Championship team

Former UCLA All-American, NCAA Champion and U.S. Olympian Chris Waller is in his 14th season as an assistant coach for the UCLA women's gymnastics team and fourth as associate head coach.

Waller has brought nothing but success since returning to UCLA in 2003, helping guide the Bruins to three NCAA team titles. In his first season on the Bruin staff, he helped guide the Bruins to the 2003 NCAA, Regional and Pac-10 Championships. He was also the acting head coach when UCLA snapped the longest home court winning streak in NCAA history for any sport, handing Utah its first home loss in 23 years. In 2004, he helped coach the Bruins to a repeat championship, won in record-setting fashion. He was also selected by his peers as the 2004 NACGC National Assistant Coach of the Year. In 2010, he was voted the West Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

The success did not stop for Waller after the 2004 collegiate season. He coached former Bruin great Mohini Bhardwaj as she earned not only a spot on the U.S. Olympic team but the honor of team captain as well. Bhardwaj competed in the all-around for the USA in the team prelims and on three of four events at team finals, helping the USA win the silver medal. Bhardwaj had the eighth-highest all-around score in prelims and placed sixth in the floor exercise finals.

Waller coached another Bruin to elite success in 2010, helping guide Vanessa Zamarripa to the U.S. National Team after an eighth-place all-around finish at the Visa Championships.

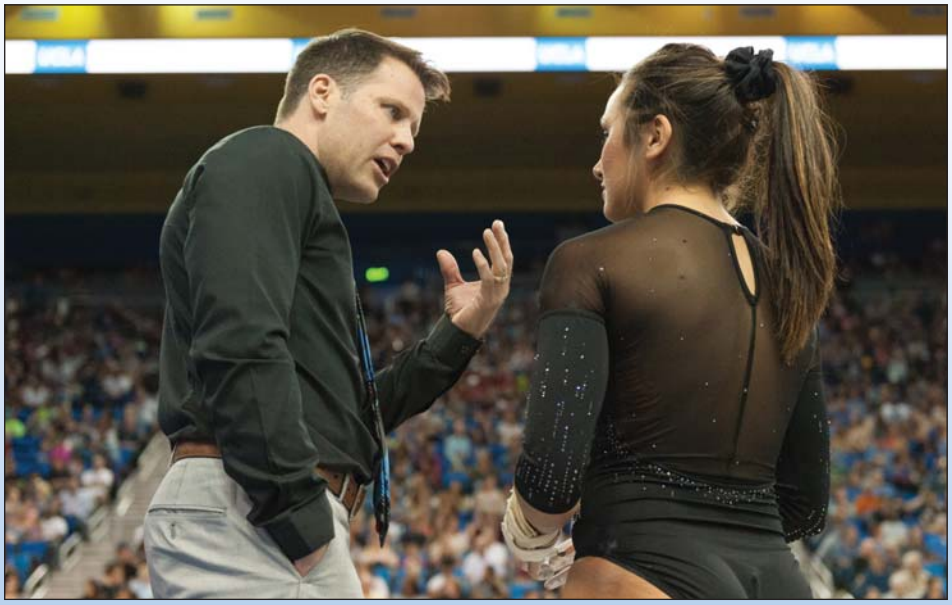

One of the United States' all-time gymnastics greats, Waller was a member of the National Team from 1989-97 and captured the U.S. all-around crown in 1991 and pommel horse titles from 1991-93. He was an all-around finalist at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona and took fifth on the pommel horse, just one-tenth of a point away from the gold medal. In addition, Waller placed in the Top 6 on the pommel horse at the 1993 World Championships and won three medals at the 1990 Goodwill Games and a team gold at the 1995 Pan American Games. He was inducted into the USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame in 2003.

At UCLA, Waller earned four All-America honors and helped the Bruins capture the NCAA title in 1987. He also won individual titles on the pommel horse in 1989 and the high bar in 1990. Every year from 1989-1993, Waller won either a U.S. or NCAA national title.

Waller, who graduated from UCLA in 1991, has 15 years of prior coaching experience and was selected the 2002 Southern California Level 7 Male Coach of the Year. Waller also served as a member of the USA Gymnastics Executive Committee and the 2000 Olympic team selection committee and chaired the Athlete's Council.

Waller and his wife Cindy have two daughters, Alexandra, who is now a manager on the Bruin team after competing her first two years, and Lilia. He and Cindy founded GymJam Summer Camp in 1997 and are owners of their own gym, Waller's GymJam Academy, in Santa Clarita.

RANDY LANE

Assistant Coach / 12th Season / Illinois '89

Randy Lane is in the fifth year of his third stint as a Bruin assistant coach and his 12th year overall with the program.

In 2012, he was selected the West Region Assistant Coach of the Year and helped lead UCLA to the first-ever Pac-12 Championship, as well as a NCAA Regional championship and a third-place NCAA finish.

Lane previously coached at UCLA from 1992-94 and 1998-2001. He left coaching for a private business but returned to the sport as an assistant coach at Florida from 2002-06. He was an associate head coach at Michigan State from 2006-11 and had previously served as the head coach at UC Santa Barbara from 1995-97.

During Lane's second stint at UCLA, he helped guide the Bruins to NCAA titles in 2000 and 2001. UCLA gymnasts won eight NCAA individual titles from 1998-2001, including three on the event on which he was the lead coach, uneven bars. He was honored as the NACGC/W National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2000, and in 1998, he was named the West Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

At Florida, his Gator teams advanced to the NCAA Championships each of the four years he coached there and won NCAA Regional titles in 2005 and 2006. At Michigan State from 2006-11, he coached two gymnasts to perfect 10 scores on vault and helped lead the team to its best-ever NCAA Regional finishes (third) in 2011 and 2008.

Prior to his tenure at UCSB, Lane served as assistant coach at UCLA from 1992-94 and helped produce six All-Americans and three Pac-10 event champions.

Lane was a member of the 1989 Illinois NCAA Men's Gymnastics National Championship squad and the 1988 NCAA Championship runner-up squad. He was also a member of the 1988 and 1989 Big Ten Championship teams. While competing for the Columbus Gymnastics Center, he won the Indiana State all-around title eight times and was the 1984 AAU Junior Olympic National parallel bar champion. He was named the 1984 Indiana Outstanding Athlete over such notables as Indiana basketball legend and current UCLA basketball coach Steve Alford.

Lane received his bachelor's degree in Speech Communications from Illinois in 1989 and his Master's degree in Oriental Medicine/Acupuncture from the Santa Barbara College of Oriental Medicine in 1999.

Career Highlights

Coaches Biographies

DOM PALANGE

Volunteer Assistant Coach

Dom Palange begins his third season as a volunteer assistant coach.

Palange, who is originally from Hudson, Mass., began gymnastics at age 3 and trained at Sterling Academy of Gymnastics, where he became a multiple state and Region 6 floor and vault champion. At age 17, he switched to competing and coaching All star cheerleading. After graduating from high school, he moved to Miami, Fla. to join Top Gun All Stars, where he won two World Championship titles and two third-place finishes, along with multiple national titles. Palange also coached teams to several National titles from 2008-12.

From 2009-10, Palange attempted a comeback in gymnastics, training with World Champion Danell Leyva under Yin Alvarez, but his comeback was cut short due to time constraints.

Palange moved to Los Angeles in 2013 and began coaching at Waller's GymJam Academy. He joined the UCLA coaching staff in 2014 as a volunteer assistant and increased his responsibilities to a full-time volunteer assistant in 2015.

Jennifer Pinches
Undergraduate Assistant Coach

Olympian Jennifer Pinches will begin her first year in 2015-16 as an undergraduate assistant coach after competing for the Bruins in 2014 and 2015.

Pinches was a consistent competitor for the Bruins, hitting 31 of 32 routines (97%) in her career, including all 11 in 2015. The wrist injuries that eventually caused her medical retirement limited her training during her sophomore season, but she still posted career-high scores on both vault (9.85) and floor (9.875). As a key leadoff performer, she averaged 9.793 on floor over her career and 9.813 on vault in 2015. She won the team's Golden Paw Award for her clutch performance at the 2014 NCAA Regional Championships.

In 2012, Pinches competed at the Olympic Games in London, helping Great Britain finish a national all-time-best sixth in the team competition. Prior to the Olympics, she won the balance beam title and was second in the all-around and on vault at the 2012 British Championships and won bronze medals in the all-around, uneven bars and floor exercise at the 2011 British Championships. Pinches represented Great Britain in 2010 and 2011 at the World Championships.

Pinches is a two-time NACGC/W Scholastic All-American and is majoring in Psychology.

Kaitlin Reid
Graduate Student Manager

A second-year graduate student in UCLA's School of Public Health, Kaitlin Reid is in her second season with the program as a graduate operations manager.

A native of Santa Fe, N.M., Reid graduated in 2012 from the University of Nebraska with a Bachelor's degree in Nutrition, Exercise, and Health Science. She is now earning her Master's degree in Public Health, concentrating on nutrition. Starting in 2015, she will begin her dietetic internship working towards her Registered Dietician credential. She aspires toward a career in the NCAA, hopefully continuing to work with gymnastics.

Reid was a competitive gymnast for 16 years and competed collegiately at Cal State Fullerton and Nebraska. Following her injury-retirement, she studied abroad in Brisbane, Queensland, Australia. She also interned with Nebraska Strength & Conditioning and Nebraska Sports Nutrition.

After graduation, she coached gymnastics in her hometown of Santa Fe from 2012-2014, before moving to Los Angeles.

Jordyn Wieber
Team Manager

Olympic gold medalist Jordyn Wieber begins her third year as a Bruin team manager and UCLA student.

Wieber struck gold with the U.S. team at the 2012 Olympics and also earned all-around and team gold and a beam bronze medal at the 2011 World Championships. She won four U.S. senior national titles during her career, capturing the all-around, bars and floor crowns in 2011 and repeating as the all-around champion in 2012. She was also the 2008 U.S. junior all-around, vault and floor exercise champion and the American Cup all-around champion in 2009, 2011 and 2012.

Wieber, who hails from DeWitt, Mich., is a third-year Psychology student.

Christine Peng-Peng Lee scored 9.95 on both uneven bars and balance beam, and Sadiqua Bynum earned a career-high 9.925 on floor exercise to capture event victories. The Bruins' team score was a new season-high, as was their uneven bars total of 49.375. Even with Samantha Peszek limited to just one event, the team's overall strength propelled UCLA to its season-best mark, as 11 Bruins recorded 15 scores of 9.8 or higher.

2015 Meet Summaries

Meet 10 - at Arkansas (Mar. 13)

UCLA posted its sixth-consecutive 197 score in a 197.175-195.900 victory at Arkansas to close the regular season. Samantha Peszek won vault and beam, earning a perfect 10 from one of the two judges on beam, and Sadiqua Bynum won floor for the fifth time this season. The Bruins led from the get-go, grabbing a .125 lead after one rotation and then extending it to .425 at the halfway mark. UCLA finished with scores of 49.3 on floor and 49.325 on beam to post its third-highest team score of the season.

Meet 13 - NCAA Semifinals (Apr. 17)

Senior Samantha Peszek won a share of the NCAA all-around championship with a score of 39.600, but the Bruins were unable to recover from a sub-par first rotation, failing to qualify for the NCAA Super Six with a sixth-place score of 196.400 in the first semifinal. UCLA dug itself a hole right away in the first rotation, with two out-of-bounds deductions and just two clean routines on floor exercise, from Danusia Francis (9.85) and Peszek (9.9). The Bruins scored just 48.950, breaking a streak of 36 consecutive scores of 49+ across all events. Short landings on vault in the next rotation put the Bruins further behind, but they rallied with a 49.25 on bars and 49.2 on beam. However, it wasn't enough to advance.

UCLA's National Team Champions

After being voted the pre-season No. 1, UCLA watched as Georgia assumed the role of favorites during the regular season. But when it counted the most, the Bruins proved they were worthy of their early ranking by winning the NCAA Championship.

Before UCLA even began its competition at the Super Six Team Finals, the door had opened. As the Bruins were taking a first-rotation bye, Georgia was stumbling on beam, counting two falls to essentially take the Gym Dogs out of the running. The pressure then shifted to the Bruins, who would follow on the dreaded beam.

But the Bruins were undaunted by the pressure. Leadoff competitor Susie Erickson hit a career-high 9.85 to start the ball rolling. A fall in the third position put a scare into the Bruins, but they rallied to hit their routines - Leah Homma for a 9.8, Luisa Portocarrero for a 9.825, and Stella Umeh with a spectacular 9.925 - to take themselves safely past the most nerve-racking event in the competition with a score of 49.2.

UCLA entered its third event, vault, in third place behind Michigan and Arizona State. The Bruins improved their position with strong vaulting and moved into a tie with Michigan with one rotation remaining - UCLA on bars and Michigan on floor.

With Michigan faltering on floor, the Bruins needed a 49.25 to surpass ASU for the championship. Deborah Mink started with a 9.825. Kiralee Hayashi followed with a 9.85. Lena Degteva nailed a 9.875, and Umeh followed with a 9.925. Freshman Heidi Moneymaker needed just a 9.775 to clinch the championship and scored that and more with a 9.925. Homma's 9.95 to close the competition punctuated the evening for the Bruins, who totaled a season-high 197.15, three-tenths better than ASU. The championship was the first ever for UCLA and the first for any school outside of Utah, Georgia or Alabama.

It was a dream season for the 2000 UCLA Gymnastics Team. The Bruins started the season strong with school-record performances in the beginning of the year, and ended the season unstoppable as Pac-10, Regional and NCAA Champions.

UCLA's national championship run began in earnest at the NCAA Regional meet. After impressive performances on floor (49.55), vault (49.5) and bars (49.4), UCLA had already reached 148+ with just beam to go and looked well on its way to another regional championship in a runaway. It wasn't quite a runaway, as three Bruin falls on the beam made it interesting, but UCLA's lead was so large that it didn't matter. The Bruins placed first with a score of 197.025, .85 better than second-place Oregon State.

At the team preliminaries of the NCAA Championship, the Bruins were able to get back on their No. 1 nemesis right away, starting on the balance beam. UCLA conquered its demons, with all six gymnasts hitting their routines to give UCLA a 49.05 first-rotation score. From there, the Bruins cruised and ended up hitting 24 for 24 routines to take first place and easily qualify for the Super Six Team Finals.

UCLA received another unfavorable draw for the Super Six, starting on floor and ending on a bye after beam. But this time, the Bruins drew upon their experience at their Regional meet and performed like champions, taking the lead early and never relinquishing it.

The Bruins set the tone right away, scoring a 49.375 on floor behind a leadoff score of 9.85 from Malia Jones and a pair of 9.9s from Mohini Bhardwaj and Heidi Moneymaker. In first place after rotation one, the Bruins then moved to vault, where they scored four 9.9s (Kristin Parker, Lena Degteva, Bhardwaj and Moneymaker) to account for a 49.45 and a seven-tenths lead.

While the Bruins were on a bye in rotation three, Alabama closed to within four-tenths, and Nebraska pulled to within .425. Each subsequent Bruin routine would be critical. On bars, a 9.9 from Degteva and a 9.95 from Bhardwaj brought the Bruins a solid 49.35 score and kept their lead at seven-tenths ahead of Utah, but with the beam remaining.

As the leadoff performer, freshman Doni Thompson gave the Bruins just what they needed - a career-high 9.8. Parker followed with a 9.775, Jones recorded a 9.75, and Moneymaker provided a 9.85. After Degteva dismounted with a 9.825, UCLA knew it had done all it could do to win the title. Bhardwaj capped the meet with a 9.875 and gave UCLA a second consecutive 24 for 24 performance.

The Bruins spent the final rotation on a bye in the locker room and waited as the other schools tried to overtake their 197.3 final score. The closest competitors needed more than 49.725 (9.945 average) to tie. None of the teams came close, and UCLA won its second national title.

UCLA continued its winning ways at the Individual Event Finals, as Bhardwaj won the uneven bars title, and Degteva won the balance beam crown.

The expectations for the 2001 Bruins were sky-high. After all, the Bruins were the defending NCAA Champions and had what was generally considered the most talented team in the history of collegiate gymnastics. But it took more than just talent for UCLA to reach the top of the podium at the NCAA Championships. A strong team commitment, team chemistry, depth, resiliency and a lot of heart brought the Bruins their second consecutive national title.

The quest to repeat started off strongly after a 24-for-24 performance during the preliminary session. UCLA placed first in the afternoon session with a score of 197.625 to advance to the Super Six. Onnie Willis ended the afternoon as the all-around co-leader and saw her score stand during the evening session, making her UCLA's first-ever NCAA all-around champion.

With day one of the Championships over with, the Bruins went into the team finals wearing shirts that read "Win With Our Hearts", and they proceeded to do just that.

The Bruins showed their heart early in the competition. During the first rotation, a fall from the first competitor put the pressure on early, but the team responded with three consecutive scores of 9.9+ to end the floor rotation with a .275 lead over Georgia.

The Bruins increased their lead on vault to .35 after totaling 49.45, thanks to three scores of 9.9 or higher.

The lead evaporated to just one-tenth of a point when two of UCLA's final three competitors on bars made costly errors, and with the Bruins' final rotation being the dreaded balance beam, UCLA had to be flawless. And they were.

The 2001 Bruins (clockwise, l-r) - Mohini Bhardwaj, Malia Jones, Stephanie Johnson, Jamie Dantzscher, Jamie Williams, Doni Thompson, Kristin Parker, Carly Raab, Valerie Velasco, Kristen Maloney, Yvonne Tousek, Jeanette Antolin, Onnie Willis, Lindsey Dong.

As home team Georgia scored a 49.5 on vault, the Bruins matched them score for score. In the leadoff position, Doni Thompson put the winning wheels in motion by starting the set with a career-high 9.9. A fall from UCLA's second competitor put the pressure on, but the Bruins responded and almost fed off the pressure.

Tousek followed with a career-high 9.95, Willis tied her career-high with a 9.9, and Maloney scored a 9.925 to set the stage for Bhardwaj. In familiar territory after having clinched the dual meet win against Georgia at home, Bhardwaj responded with a 9.9, well above the 9.75 she needed to move ahead of Georgia. The Bruins finished with a beam total of 49.575, the second-highest beam mark in school history, and an overall team total of 197.575, .175 ahead of Georgia.

In addition to the team and all-around titles, Tousek won the uneven bars title, and Bhardwaj capped her career by winning the floor exercise championship.

A year after a disappointing third-place finish at the NCAA Championships, UCLA reclaimed its status as the top program in the nation, winning the NCAA title for the third time in four years.

UCLA entered the NCAA Championships in Lincoln, Neb. as the favorite and got through stage one of the Championships by placing first at the preliminaries with a score of 196.95. The Bruins did have to count a fall on beam, leaving definite room for improvement in team finals.

The Bruins were a resilient bunch in team finals. On three of the four events, UCLA had an early fall but never let it faze them, stepping up under pressure to throw out that low score.

Competing in the favored Olympic order, UCLA's night got off to a slow start when the first vaulter fell. However, the rest of the team raised their game a notch and reeled off five straight dynamic vaults to close the set with a team total of 49.35.

UCLA suffered another fall on bars in its next rotation, but again, three straight scores of 9.9 or higher to close the set negated the fall and put the Bruins ahead by two-tenths after two events.

On beam, where UCLA had suffered two falls in prelims, Bruin head coach Valorie Kondos Field employed a brilliant strategic move, putting in the extremely consistent Onnie Willis as the leadoff competitor. In her first ever leadoff performance, Willis was not only steady but spectacular, scoring a 9.925 to set the table perfectly for her teammates. UCLA reeled off scores of 9.9, 9.825, 9.85, 9.95 and 9.9 to earn a final team score of 49.525 and a .475 lead over second-place Georgia.

Heading into the final rotation, UCLA held a three-tenths lead over Alabama and needed to score 48.85 on floor to overtake Georgia. Jeanette Antolin led off with a 9.85, and seniors Kristin Parker and Malia Jones capped off their careers with a 9.875 and 9.9, respectively. A fall by Kate Richardson put some pressure on the Bruins, but with Willis and Jamie Dantzscher on deck, there was little doubt they would respond like champions. Willis earned a 9.9, and Dantzscher clinched the victory by scoring a near-perfect 9.975, which gave UCLA a final total of 197.825, .55 higher than second-place Alabama.

Richardson and Dantzscher shared the uneven bars title at the Individual Event Finals, and Richardson took home the balance beam crown.

2004

As hosts of the NCAA Championships, the Bruins were looking for their fifth title but first on their home turf. The "Drive for Five" started in the preliminary session.

Typical of most of UCLA's past championship years, the Bruins started the meet with a fall on their first routine on vault. But in true UCLA fashion, the Bruins picked themselves up and followed through with stellar performances to discount the low score. UCLA pulled away on uneven bars, scoring a 49.65 after counting five scores of 9.875 or higher, including a 9.975 from Jamie Dantzscher, and finished the session in first place with a score of 197.675.

The Bruins started the Super Six Team Finals on floor, a less than desirable rotation order. For UCLA, however, that rotation order had seen them through NCAA titles in 2000 and 2001. The order proved to be good luck for the Bruins again, and they exceeded all expectations with a stunning record-breaking performance to keep the trophy in Westwood.

After an inconsistent regular season and a relatively shaky start to the postseason with a second-place showing at the Pac-10 Championships and a rocky final rotation at the Regionals, the Bruins picked the best time of the year to put in a near-perfect performance. They hit 24-for-24 routines, with 15 scores of 9.9 or higher and an NCAA Super Six record 198.125 final score.

UCLA started the meet with a 49.525 on floor to take a slight .75 lead over Georgia and extended the lead to .225 after scoring a 49.525 on vault for a two-round total of 99.1. The Bruins pounded out a 49.425 on bars for a three-round total of 148.525. Georgia kept the pressure on, staying .525 behind.

With the unenviable position of finishing the meet on a bye, the Bruins knew they had to score high on beam in rotation five before heading into the locker room. They did that and more, tallying a meet-high 49.6 and leaving it mathematically impossible for anyone to top their 198.125. Freshman Lori Winn kicked things off with a 9.875, and the Bruins never looked back. Christie Tedmon scored a 9.85, Jeanette Antolin and Kate Richardson stepped up with 9.95s, Yvonne Tousek scored a 9.9, and Kristen Maloney slammed the door shut with a 9.925.

"This championship is especially special," said UCLA head coach Valorie Kondos Field. "First of all, it wasn't easy this year. We had to come out and work hard all season."

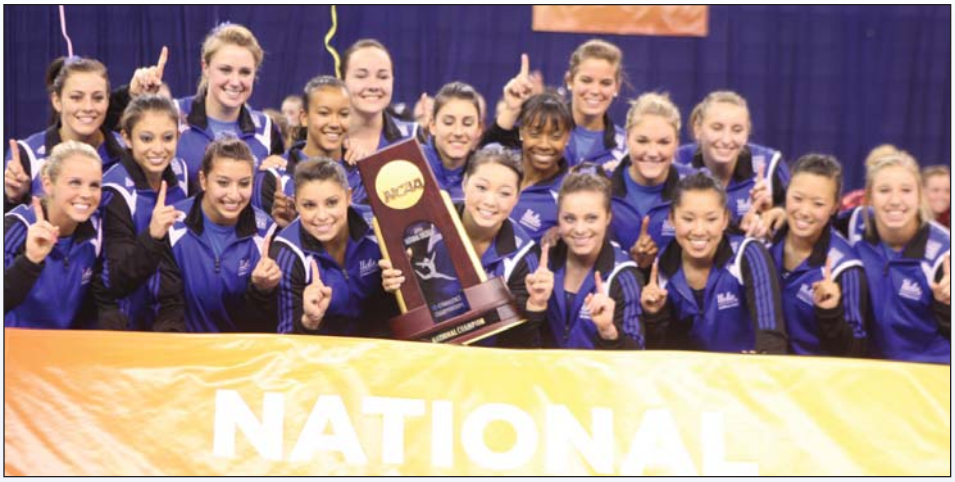

"We may have lost meets early on, but we put our egos aside. We trained hard, and we eventually came out on top."

UCLA closed its near-perfect run in postseason competition with a dominating 24-for-24 performance at the NCAA Super Six Team Championships, winning its sixth NCAA title at the site of its first, Gainesville, FL. In the team finals, the Bruins hit every routine without any major mistakes and outscored their nearest competitor by nearly half a point, recording 197.725 to runner-up Oklahoma's 197.25.

The Bruins entered the Championships as the No. 1 seed after dominating performances at Pac-10s and Regionals. But going in as the favorite seemed to put a bit of extra weight on the team, who competed tight during its first two events at the NCAA Preliminaries. At the halfway mark, UCLA was tied for third but used meet-best scores of 49.375 on floor and 49.4 on vault to power ahead of the field in the final two rotations, finishing with a first-place mark of 196.875.

There was no tightness from the Bruins at the Super Six, where UCLA took the lead in rotation one and never reliquinshed it.

The Bruins got off to a great start on vault in rotation one, scoring 49.475 on the strength of career-highs from Monique De La Torre (9.85 leadoff score) and Brittani McCullough (9.95) and a 9.925 from Vanessa Zamarripa. A 49.325 on uneven bars helped to maintain UCLA's lead at the halfway mark, heading into beam, the team's nemesis earlier in the season. The Bruins showed how far they had come from the beginning of the year, hitting all six routines for scores of 9.8 or better. Leadoff competitor Anna Li started with a 9.875, followed by a 9.9 from Elyse Hopfner-Hibbs. Niki Tom delivered another strong routine with a 9.8, followed by a 9.85 from Aisha Gerber and a 9.9 from Zamarripa. Mizuki Sato closed the set with a 9.85, bringing the Bruins' beam score to 49.375 and their three-event total to 148.175, .275 ahead of Alabama and 49.1 points away from a sixth national title.

On floor exercise in the final rotation, Tauny Frattone led off with one of her best performances of the year, scoring 9.875. After a 9.725 from Tom, Zamarripa and Li each hit 9.9s, leaving it up to McCullough or Hopfner-Hibbs to score 9.7 or better to clinch the title. McCullough had the first attempt and clinched it with a career-high tying 9.925. Hopfner-Hibbs' 9.95 was just icing on the cake and helped bump the Bruins' final floor total to a season-high 49.55 and its team final score to 197.725.

The victories kept coming at Event Finals, where Zamarripa won the vault title and McCullough claimed the floor crown. Zamarripa averaged 9.925 on her two vaults, scoring 9.95 on a stuck Yurchenko layout full and 9.9 on a Yurchenko half on, front layout half, the most difficult vault done in the competition. McCullough earned a 10.0 from one of the six judges on her floor routine and finished with an average score of 9.9375, just above her career-high mark of 9.925.

UCLA's Individual National Champions

UCLA has captured 41 national individual titles since 1980, including 22 in the 2000s. Thirty-three of those titles are NCAA championships, and UCLA ranks No. 2 in the nation in all-time NCAA individual titles.

Bruin gymnasts have not only won national titles, but many have done it in record fashion. Sharon Shapiro won UCLA's first-ever national title and made history at the 1980 AIAW Championships by becoming the first collegiate woman to sweep all four events and the all-around. No gymnast has duplicated that feat since.

Kim Hamilton became UCLA's first-ever NCAA champion when she took home the floor exercise crown, the first of an unprecedented three consecutive from 1987-1989. In 1998, Heidi Moneymaker became UCLA's first-ever NCAA bars champion, and in 2001, Onnie Willis was crowned all-around champion, the first for a Bruin at the NCAA Championships. Jamie Dantzscher in 2002 won three titles, becoming the first gymnast in seven years to win as many in one season. Tasha Schwikert became the first UCLA gymnast to win multiple NCAA all-around titles (in 2005 and 2008) and the first in NCAA history to win as both a freshman and a senior.

UCLA Gymnastics - Decades of NCAA Excellence

Since its inception in 1974, UCLA gymnastics has been among the greatest gymnastics teams in the nation, having claimed 25 Top 5 national finishes, 21 regional titles and 16 Pac-12 championships. The Bruins have won six NCAA titles - 1997, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004 and 2010.

The women's gymnastics program was one of 10 new varsity teams sponsored by the Department of Women's Intercollegiate Athletics (DWIA) formed in 1974. That year, Kirby Weedin, along with co-coach Jennifer Shaw, helped UCLA place first at the Southern California Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Class II Championships. In 1977, the team, behind coach Lee Ann Lobdill, began competing solely in Class I competitions. The Bruins, a member of the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), the counterpart to the NCAA, had relative success in its first years of existence, with Laurie Donaldson becoming the first Bruin to achieve national recognition.

A new decade brought in a new head coach for UCLA and a new winning era for the Bruins. With the emergence of Sharon Shapiro, Kim Hamilton, Tanya Service and Jill Andrews, the UCLA women's gymnastics program was transformed from a collection of tumblers to a group of national-caliber gymnasts. Sharon Shapiro, with her innovative style and explosive performances, rocketed to national stardom. As a freshman, she made history at the 1980 AIAW Championships by becoming the first female collegiate gymnast to capture national titles on all four events and the all-around — a feat no one has duplicated since. Shapiro continued her success in 1981 by winning the AIAW vault and all-around titles. This paved the way to UCLA's second-place team finish, the first of three runner-up finishes in the 1980s. Shapiro won the Broderick Award in 1981, given to the country's top female gymnast. The next year, the NCAA encompassed the AIAW to form one intercollegiate athletic association for both men and women.

The following years, under head coach Jerry Tomlinson, UCLA placed no lower than sixth at the NCAA Championships, including a runner-up finish in 1984.

In 1987, the Bruins joined the Pacific-10 Conference and won the first of four consecutive Pac-10 team titles. At the conference championships, Service captured the all-around, bars and a share of the beam title en route to 1987 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year honors. The Bruins finished first at the NCAA West Regionals and third at the NCAAs. Hamilton collected her first national floor title.

The next year, UCLA went undefeated in the regular season for the first time, compiling an 18-0 record. The team finished third once again at NCAA's, with Hamilton recording her second-straight floor title. Andrews garnered her own national title on the vault.

The Bruins nearly won the NCAA Championship in 1989, falling short by a mere five-one-hundredths of a point to Georgia. However, Hamilton won an unprecedented third consecutive national floor title and also won the vault title. Andrews tied for the beam championship, and Service became the first gymnast to win Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year honors twice. Andrews was the second, earning the title in 1988 and 1990.

At the end of the 1990 season, Valorie Kondos was named the new head coach of the Bruin program, and she appointed Scott Bull as her co-head coach. UCLA returned to national form by claiming the 1993 Pac-10 and NCAA West Regional team titles and posting its best finish (fourth) at NCAA's since 1990. That year, Amy Thorne became the first Bruin to score a 10.0 on any event with her flawless floor routine, and one month later, Megan Fenton reached perfection by scoring a 10.0 on the uneven bars to take the Pac-10 title. In 1994, Kareema Marrow became the third Bruin gymnast to score a 10.0, this one coming on vault. The Bruins went on to sweep the all-around standings at the Pac-10 Championships, with Leah Homma becoming the fifth Bruin to become the all-around champion, and Marrow and Karen Nelson placing second and third. The Bruins took home their second consecutive regional championship and a fifth-place showing at NCAA's.

After the departure of Bull, Kondos became the Bruins' sole head coach in 1995 and earned West Regional Coach of the Year honors. She also led her team to a fourth-place showing at the NCAA Championships. The Bruins were backed by a dazzling performance by Marrow, who scored a 10.0 on the floor exercise. Freshman Stella Umeh capped the Bruins' successful season by winning the floor exercise title and becoming the first Bruin freshman to win a national title since 1987, when Hamilton accomplished that feat.

UCLA made the cover of International Gymnast Magazine in 1997

The Bruins achieved a breakthrough year in 1996. Not only did they place second at the NCAA Championships with a school record 197.475, but Kondos was named the National Coach of the Year, and Dee Fischer scored the fifth 10.0 in school history by hitting a perfect vault to help the Bruins win the West Regional title for the fourth consecutive season.

After years of watching Utah, Alabama and Georgia dominate the leaderboard at the NCAA Championships, UCLA finally made the jump to the top, winning the 1997 NCAA team title, as well as the Pac-10 and West Regional titles. Homma earned Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year honors for the second time in her career and scored the first 10.0s of her career, on vault and bars. Kondos again won National Coach of the Year honors.

In front of a home crowd, two Bruins won NCAA individual titles in 1998 — Umeh (floor) and Heidi Moneymaker (bars). Also at the NCAAs, Umeh scored her first 10.0 on floor in the final team competition of her career. In addition, Umeh won three of five titles at the Pac-10 Championships and earned Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year honors.

The year 1999 saw two more NCAA individual titles come to Westwood, as Moneymaker won the vault championship, and Kiralee Hayashi, the Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year, tied for the beam title. Moneymaker's NCAA title was a fitting end to her outstanding season that saw her win the all-around titles at the Pac-10 and Regional meets. Also in 1999, Shapiro became the first female gymnast to be inducted into UCLA's Hall of Fame. She would later be joined by Hamilton, Andrews and Homma.

UCLA's success continued into the new millennium, as the Bruins dominated with four NCAA titles from 2000-2004. The Bruins won back-to-back championships in 2000 and 2001 and had another back-to-back run in 2003 and 2004. During the 2000s, UCLA won 17 NCAA individual titles, including all-around victories by Onnie Willis in 2001 (the school's first-ever NCAA all-around title), Jamie Dantzscher in 2002 and Tasha Schwikert in 2005 and 2008.

The year 2010 saw a return to the top for UCLA, who swept through the postseason, hitting 95 out of 96 routines over four postseason meets to claim the Pac-10, Regional and NCAA Championships. Two Bruins claimed individual titles - Vanessa Zamarripa on vault and Brittani McCullough on floor. In 2011, UCLA placed a close second at the NCAA Championships and claimed its 31st individual title when Samantha Peszek won the balance beam crown, which she later won again in 2015, along with the all-around title. The 2012 Bruins won the first-ever Pac-12 team title and finished one-tenth of a point shy of first at the NCAA Championships, placing third. An overachieving UCLA squad hosted NCAA Championships in 2013 and placed fourth.

UCLA has had three Honda Award winners since 2000 - Mohini Bhardwaj in 2001, Willis in 2003 and Kristen Maloney in 2005 - and five winners in all. Academic award winners have been prevalent as well. Willis and Kristin Parker were awarded NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarships in 2003 and were two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District honorees. Willis and Kate Richardson earned the NCAA Today's Top VIII Award. Richardson was also the Pac-10 Conference Woman of the Year in 2006 and a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American and was awarded a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. Peszek earned a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship and first-team Academic All-America honors in 2015.

Bruin gymnasts also played prevalent roles on the elite scene. Three Bruins have made Olympic teams either during or after their collegiate careers. No other NCAA gymnastics team in the nation has ever produced that many collegiate or post-collegiate Olympians. In 2004, Richardson competed at her second Olympic Games for Canada, becoming only the second female gymnast ever to compete as a collegian. She was joined in Athens by Bhardwaj, who captained the U.S. team to a silver medal in the team competition. Both Bruins qualified for event finals on floor exercise, with Bhardwaj placing sixth and Richardson seventh. Two years removed from leading UCLA to the 2010 NCAA team title, Anna Li made the U.S. Olympic Team in 2012 as an alternate.

Additionally, after a successful 2010 collegiate season, Zamarripa qualified for the USA Championships and made the U.S. National Team after an eighth-place all-around and runner-up vault finish. Li followed suit a year later, making the U.S. National Team and serving as a member of the gold medal-winning U.S. team at the 2011 World Championships. Danusia Francis competed for Great Britain at the 2013 World University Games after her freshman season, making floor finals, and competed for Jamaica at the 2015 World Championships.

UCLA's Academic Excellence

UCLA gymnasts are not only winners on the floor but winners in the classroom as well. The UCLA gymnastics team regularly ranks as one of the top academic teams on campus and produces several academic award-winners.

Jill Andrews and Kate Richardson are amongst the most honored student-athletes in UCLA history, winning numerous academic awards on top of their athletic achievements. Andrews won the Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award in 1991 and the NCAA Top VI Award in 1990. She also received CoSIDA Academic All-America honors twice in her career. Richardson earned Academic All-America honors three times and was selected the Pac-10 Woman of the Year. She was also awarded a NCAA post-graduate scholarship and won the NCAA Today's Top VIII Award.

The Bruins have been especially impressive academically in the new millennium, winning nine CoSIDA Academic All-District honors and placing a UCLA all-time best 11 athletes on the NACGC/W Scholastic All-America team in 2003.

UCLA Gymnastics Hall Of Famers

Women's gymnastics is represented in the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame by eight all-time greats - gymnasts Sharon Shapiro, Kim Hamilton, Jill Andrews, Leah Homma, Stella Umeh, Mohini Bhardwaj and Onnie Willis, and coach Valorie Kondos Field.

On Oct. 30, 1999, Sharon Shapiro became the first women's gymnastics Hall of Fame inductee. Shapiro enjoyed an illustrious and historic athletic career for the Bruins. She remains the only gymnast ever to capture national titles on all four events and the all-around in the same year, a feat she accomplished at the 1980 AIAW National Championships her freshman season.

In 1981, Shapiro won the prestigious Broderick Award, given to the country's top female gymnast. As a sophomore that season, she defended her all-around title and also won the individual vault crown. The following year, she earned All-America honors in the all-around, vault and balance beam.

Shapiro has remained a key alumna, supporter, and ambassador for UCLA and her sport since her graduation.

Kim (Hamilton) Anthony became UCLA's second inductee on Oct. 21, 2000. Like Shapiro, Hamilton also set a national record that has yet to be duplicated when she won three consecutive NCAA floor exercise titles from 1987-1989. She also won the NCAA vault title in 1989.

At the regional level, she won a school-record tying seven titles, including three each in the all-around and floor. She also won Pac-10 championships on bars and floor in both 1989 and 1988. In her career, she earned six All-America honors.

Anthony has also remained a major figure in the sport, having maintained a successful career as a sports commentator for ESPN and Fox Sports and as the host of the Miami TV show "County Connection." She is also an inspirational/motivational speaker, and a mentor to the U.S. national gymnastics team and at-risk high school girls in Miami. Anthony published a book, Unfavorable Odds, a memoir about her journey from a background filled with drugs and violence to a Hall of Fame career at UCLA.

Jill Andrews joined her former teammate Anthony in the Hall of Fame on Oct. 13, 2001. In 1990, Andrews became UCLA gymnastics' second Honda Award winner, capping off a career in which she won an NCAA title on vault in 1988 and on beam in 1989. Andrews earned eight first-team All-America honors in her career and was a two-time Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year.

Andrews' accomplishments were not limited to the gymnastics floor. She excelled academically as one of UCLA's all-time great student-athletes. In 1990, Andrews earned an NCAA post-graduate scholarship and was awarded the NCAA Top Six Award. In addition, she was a Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award winner. She was also honored by the Bruin gymnastics team with an award named after her, the annual Jill Andrews award for integrity.

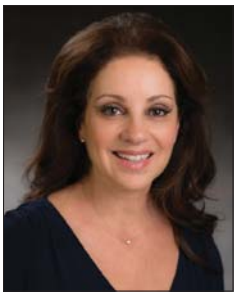

Andrews, who graduated from the Northwestern University School of Law in 1994, was a Deputy City Attorney in San Francisco for six years, handling labor and employment litigation on behalf of the city and now currently works in legal counsel for NXP Semiconductors.

Leah Homma was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Oct. 3, 2008. Homma competed for four years (1994-97), leading the Bruins to their first NCAA team title in 1997. Head Coach Valorie Kondos Field said Homma played "the biggest role in helping our team win its first NCAA Championship. (She) was a quiet leader who always led by example, was an unwavering hard worker, enthusiastic about her training, and always quick to help out her teammates in a quiet and unassuming manner." Homma finished fourth in the 1997 NCAA All-Around to help bring the title to Westwood.

Homma's other accomplishments included the 1994 and '97 Pac-10 all-around titles as well as the 1996 and '97 Pac-10 uneven bar crowns. She was twice named Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year (1995 and '97) and was also an eight-time All-American, honored four times each as a first-team and second team selection. During her career, she set and reset UCLA records in the all-around and was the second UCLA gymnast to receive 10.0s in two different events. In 1997, Homma was named UCLA's All-University Female Athlete of the Year and was a Honda Award nominee. She also excelled in the classroom, earning Pac-10 All-Academic honors on three occasions

Prior to UCLA, she was a member of the Canadian National Team and the 1991 Canadian champion in the floor exercise. Homma left her eternal mark in gymnastics with three moves named after her in the international code of points: the Homma Flip on beam and the Homma Flairs on beam and floor.

Valorie Kondos Field became just the second head coach ever to be inducted while still coaching at UCLA, earning induction on October 1, 2010.

Upon arriving at UCLA in 1983 as a student coach, Valorie Kondos Field ascended the ranks as an assistant coach and choreographer, co-head coach (1991-94) and then sole head coach since 1995. As head coach, Kondos Field has positioned UCLA as the premier program in collegiate gymnastics by guiding it to an overall record of 438-101-2 with 12 Pac-12 titles, 16 Regional crowns and six NCAA titles (1997, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004 and 2010). In 2010, UCLA won NCAA, Regional and Pac-10 championships and produced two NCAA individual champions. In 2003, the Bruins recorded an unprecedented five team scores of 198.0 or better en route to the NCAA title. The 2004 team set an NCAA Championship record by scoring 198.125 in the Super Six Team Finals. In 2001, UCLA gymnasts won the NCAA floor, uneven bars and all-around events and every Bruin who competed earned All-America honors. That year, Kondos Field was voted the NACGC National Coach of the Year for the fourth time.

Kondos Field has coached 16 athletes to 31 NCAA individual titles, has mentored 18 Pac-12 Gymnasts of the Year and 16 Olympians since the year 2000. She also has coached four Honda Award winners - Andrews, Mohini Bhardwaj, Onnie Willis and Kristen Maloney.

An Oct. 12, 2012 inductee, Stella Umeh was a key member of UCLA's first NCAA Championship team in 1997. A 10-time All-American, Umeh captured the 1995 and 1998 NCAA floor exercise titles and was dominant at the 1995 Pac-10 Championships, winning the all-around, uneven bars, balance beam and floor exercise titles. In 1998, she captured her second Pac-10 individual all-around title, along with individual titles in floor and beam.

During her career, Umeh was a member of Pac-10 Championship teams in 1995 and 1997, was named the 1998 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and earned a total of seven All-Pac-10 honors and 10 All-America honors.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, she competed for Canada at the 1992 Olympic Games and at the World Championships from 1991-93. In 1992, she qualified for event finals at the World Championships on both vault (8th place) and beam (5th place), and in 1993, she was 15th in the all-around and eighth on floor. At the national level, she was a two-time Canadian vault champion. After graduation, Umeh performed for five years with Cirque du Soleil.

Mohini Bhardwaj became the second gymnast in as many years to be inducted on Oct. 12, 2013. Bhardwaj won two NCAA team and two NCAA individual titles from 1998-2001 and finished her career as an 11-time All-American and 2001 Honda Award winner. Bhardwaj set numerous scoring records at UCLA, including scoring the second-highest all-around total in NCAA history, 39.975, in 2001. She led UCLA to NCAA team titles in 2000 and 2001 and won the uneven bars in 2000 and floor exercise in 2001. Along with winning the Honda Award in 2001, she was also the Pac-10 and West Region Gymnast of the Year and the AAI Award-winner as the nation's top senior gymnast.

Bhardwaj continued her gymnastics career after graduation, winning the 2001 U.S. National Championship on vault and helping the U.S. win a bronze medal at the 2001 World Championships. In 2004, she earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team, where she served as team captain and led the U.S. to a silver medal. She also qualified for event finals on floor exercise, where she placed sixth. Bhardwaj is now the co-owner and women's program director at Acrovision Sports Center in Bend, Oregon.

Onnie Willis received gymnastics' third-straight induction when she joined the class of 2014 on Oct. 10, 2014. Willis was a superstar on the competition floor and in the classroom. During her four years at UCLA, she won three NCAA team championships (2000, 2001, 2003), three Pac-10 team titles (2001-03) and four NCAA Regional team titles. In 2001, she became UCLA's first-ever NCAA all-around champion, and as a senior in 2003 won the Honda Award as the best collegiate gymnast in the nation. The 2003 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year held the school record for NCAA All-America honors with 16 and has a share of the school record on vault and floor, having scored a pair of perfect 10s on each event.

Academically, she received the 2003 NCAA Top VIII Award as well as a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship, and she earned Scholastic All-American honors and CoSIDA Academic All-District acclaim three times. Willis went on to earn a Ph.D in Developmental Psychology at NYU.

UCLA's Gymnastics Arenas

Pauley Pavilion

Home to Bruin athletic teams since 1965, Pauley Pavilion is regarded as one of the finest all-around collegiate facilities in the nation and has been the site of numerous illustrious events, from NCAA Championships, Olympic gymnastics, presidential debates to award shows.

In 1984, the eyes of the world watched as Peter Vidmar, Mitch Gaylord and Tim Daggett led the USA men's gymnastics team to its first ever gold medal. All-around gold medalist Mary Lou Retton captured the hearts of the world with her gutty performance and bubbly personality.

In addition, Pauley Pavilion has served as the site for numerous NCAA events as well as concerts, weddings and the 1988 Presidential Debate between George Bush and Michael Dukakis. In 1994, Pauley Pavilion hosted the 75th Anniversary Convocation celebrating UCLA's years of academic achievement in which the keynote speaker was President Bill Clinton.

Pauley Pavilion is home to the UCLA Gymnastics team and was the site of the 1984, 1998, 2004 and 2013 NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships. In 2004, UCLA made history in its home arena by winning the national title in Pauley Pavilion with a Championship record score. The UCLA men's gymnastics team won both of their NCAA titles in Pauley Pavilion in 1984 and 1987.

The arena recently underwent a multi-million dollar renovation and reopened in November 2012.

John Wooden Center

One of the most attractive buildings on the UCLA campus is the John Wooden Center, a 136,000 square foot recreation complex, named after the legendary UCLA basketball coach.

The building serves students, faculty and staff and is a practice site for the Bruin gymnastics team. For the 2012 season, while Pauley Pavilion was undergoing a multi-million dollar renovation, the John Wooden Center hosted UCLA home events for the gymnastics, women's basketball and men's and women's volleyball teams.

Inside the building are nine racquetball courts, two squash courts, a rock-climbing wall, a strength and conditioning room, a basketball gymnasium with three regulation courts and seating for 2,000 people, a volleyball and badminton gymnasium, three dance studios, a gymnastics training center, a matted room for Judo and Karate classes, locker room and saunas, and numerous meeting rooms.

The office phone number for the Wooden Center is (310) 206-8307.

Administrator Biographies

Chancellor / Stanford '70 / 8th Year

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in summer 2007, taking the helm of a world-class institution comprising 37,000 students and 27,000 faculty and staff, with an annual budget of $3.6 billion. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service. Previously, Dr. Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he also held the Alumni Council

Thomas Jefferson Professorship in Biology. With academic expertise in biological clocks, he conducts research on the neurobiology of circadian rhythms in higher organisms, leading a research lab funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH). From 1991 to 2002, he directed the National Science Foundation's Science and Technology Center for Biological Timing. In 1997, he was named a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He has invented a number of devices and holds a patent for a non-contact respiratory monitor for the prevention of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome.

Dr. Block joined the faculty of the University of Virginia in 1978 as an assistant professor of biology. He served as vice provost for research from 1993 to 1998 and then as vice president for research and public service until his appointment as vice president and provost in 2001. He also headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups. In 1998, he received the Commonwealth of Virginia's Outstanding Public Service Award for his work with Virginia's business community.

A native of Monticello, NY, Dr. Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D.in psychology from the University of Oregon. He also completed a postdoctoral fellowship at Stanford, working with the late Colin Pittendrigh, "the father of biological timing" and distinguished biologist and former Stanford President, Donald Kennedy. Dr. Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children.

Dan Guerrero

Athletic Director / UCLA '74 / 14th Year

Thirteen years and 27 NCAA Championships later, Dan Guerrero's mantra of 'image and substance' has clearly been established at a level that few others in his profession can approach. At the department's helm when UCLA Athletics became the first to 100 NCAA team championships, the Bruins' current total of 113 NCAA titles is a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation. While UCLA teams have indeed won 27 NCAA championships since his appointment, another national leader, they have also finished second 26 times and have enjoyed an additional 49 Top Five finishes.

In fact, more than 80% of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA post-season competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in 12 bowl games, while the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08 and has made five trips to the Sweet 16. The program has also won 60 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced nearly 600 All-Americans and featured eight Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Guerrero, recently named the 2014 NACDA Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award, is the only athletic director at the NCAA Division I level (FBS, FCS and NCAA Division I-AAA) to earn three such awards (2006-07 at UCLA, 2001-02 at UC Irvine). In his 13 years at UCLA, the Bruins have finished second four times, third four times, fourth, sixth, seventh, 11th and 16th in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup. During Guerrero's tenure, UCLA teams have captured the following NCAA team titles: six in women's water polo, three each in men's water polo, women's softball and women's gymnastics, two in women's golf and women's tennis, and one each in women's soccer, men's tennis, men's volleyball, women's volleyball, men's golf, men's soccer, women's outdoor track and baseball.

While success on the playing field with 26 NCAA Championships in 14 different sports and 23 second-place finishes during his tenure are extraordinary numbers, UCLA's academic success under Guerrero is equally noteworthy. Over 13 years and 39 quarters, student-athletes have earned more than 8,500 spots on the Director's Honor Roll.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002), helping to elevate that program to unprecedented success. Prior to arriving at UCI, Guerrero worked at Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92).

A proud alumnus of UCLA, Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from the University in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years. Known as "Warrior" during his playing career, he was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. The Bruin Athletic Director earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year.

Guerrero was raised in Wilmington, CA. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello, and they have two grown daughters.

Petrina Long

Executive Associate Athletic Director/SWA / California '77 / 11th Year

Petrina Long joined the UCLA staff in June of 2004 as Senior Associate Athletic Director/Senior Women's Administrator. In August of 2014, she was promoted to the title of Executive Associate Athletic Director. Long has oversight responsibility for gymnastics, women's basketball, and baseball, as well as several administrative areas, among them academic services, compliance, equity issues, and governmental relations.

Long came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where she had served as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator since 1993, working closely with Bruin athletic director Dan Guerrero. She also served as UCI's interim athletic director following Guerrero's departure to UCLA.

In addition to her UCLA commitments, Long is also extensively involved in a number of areas relating to intercollegiate athletics. She currently serves as chair of the new NCAA Recruiting Cabinet after serving for three years as chair of the NCAA Academics and Eligibility Cabinet (AEC) Subcommittee on Recruiting. Long also serves on the NCAA Men's Volleyball Committee. On the conference level, Long is an administrative liaison to several sports, including women's volleyball, cross-country, track & field, and men's soccer (MPSF). She is also a past chair of the Senior Women's Administrative Committee (SWAC) and is currently a member of the Women's Basketball Tournament Committee.

During her 11 years at UCI, Long supervised several of the university's 23 sports teams, as well as academic and student support, compliance and sports medicine. In addition, she was active in numerous groups on campus and in the community. Her campus activities included serving on the Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics (CACIA), and chairing the Diversity Development Program Board for two years. She was a board member of the Irvine Chamber of Commerce for several years and has been a school volunteer in the city of Tustin. Long was a member of the Big West Council and previously chaired the Big West Compliance Committee for two years. She also served on the Executive Committee of both the Big West Conference and the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.

Prior to her tenure at UCI, Long spent nine years at Columbia University, serving in both the associate and assistant athletics director positions. She was the Assistant Athletics Director for Academic Affairs at Southern Methodist University from 1982-84 and was an advisor for student-athletes at the University of California, Berkeley, from 1979-82.

Long received her B.A. degree in Anthropology from the University of California, Berkeley, in 1977 and her Master's degree in Anthropology from Columbia in 1992. She and her husband, Sam McCamey, have a daughter, Samantha, and two sons, Monte and Traland.
