The UCLA softball team enters the 2025 season with its two primary pitchers and two former All-Americans in the batting lineup from last season, in addition to a group of seven newcomers – six incoming freshmen and one transfer student.

The Bruins return pitching sensations Kaitlyn Terry and Taylor Tinsley who both earned All-Pac-12 First Team and NFCA All-Region honors in 2024. Terry and Tinsley broke out as rising stars in the circle as they steered UCLA in its run to the WCWS. In UCLA's eight NCAA Tournament games, Terry and Tinsley pitched two shutouts, allowed just one run in four different contests and totaled a 1.71 ERA over 49.0 innings. On the season, they combined to pitch 329.1 of 355.0 total innings and recorded a combined 2.16 ERA with 327 strikeouts.

Terry was awarded 2024 Pac-12 Freshman of the Year after leading the staff with a 21-3 record and 182.0 innings pitched and ranking second in the conference with six shutouts. Tinsley led the Bruins' arms with a 1.90 ERA and 166 strikeouts.

"That's what we are known for and the success of our program is having a pitching staff," said Kelly Inouye-Perez, the Shelly Carlin UCLA Head Softball Coach. "(Associate Head Coach) Lisa Fernandez has done a great job recruiting. We have a lot of different looks and weapons. The best part of it has been seeing how (Tinsley) and (Terry) have bonded, then bringing in Addisen (Fisher). We've been able to talk as a bullpen how we are going to attack this season and I've challenged them in different roles. It's a coach's dream."

Other key contributors back for UCLA include juniors Megan Grant and Jordan Woolery. As freshmen in 2023, Grant and Woolery combined for a UCLA freshman duo record of 104 runs batted in and earned NFCA Second Team and Third Team All-America honors, respectively. Grant leads all returners with a .335 batting average (56-for-167), 30 extra-base hits and 41 RBI in 2024. Woolery boasted a .314 batting average (50-for-159), .400 on-base percentage, 36 RBI and 10 home runs as a sophomore. The two All-Pac-12 First Team honorees gained valuable experience on the Women's College World Series stage last season, each logging their first-career home runs in Oklahoma City.

UCLA will rely on the veteran knowledge of seniors Seneca Curo and Savannah Pola. Curo, who was a freshman in 2020, has reached the WCWS three times and played in 168 career games (129 starts) at six different positions during her time in Westwood. Pola has been a consistent presence in the Bruins' lineup for the past three seasons, owning a career .311 batting average (141-for-454) and .396 on-base percentage.

UCLA loses several key players who have etched their names into the program's record books. Three-time NFCA First Team All-American Maya Brady graduated from UCLA ranking second in team history in home runs (71), RBI (246), total bases (555) and slugging percentage (.757). Catcher Sharlize Palacios, who played an instrumental role in mentoring the Bruins' young pitching staff, was named an NFCA Second Team All-American and Pac-12 All-Defensive Team honoree after leading the Bruins in home runs (20) and slugging percentage (.828) last year. She is now pursuing a professional playing career in the Athletes Unlimited Softball League. Regular starters Jadelyn Allchin, Thessa Malau'ulu and Janelle Meoño also graduated from the program.

One of the top freshman classes in the country enters the fold at UCLA in 2025, headlined by Gatorade Softball National Player of the Year Addisen Fisher from Bend, Ore. Inouye-Perez expects several freshmen to play key roles, including infielders Kaniya Bragg, Aleena Garcia and Sofia Mujica and outfielder Rylee Slimp. Graduate transfer Jessica Clements from Cal Poly will also see playing time in the Bruins' outfield after leaving the Mustangs as the leading hitter in program history with a .411 career batting average (185-for-450).

"You never replace people, but it creates new opportunity for this new energy," Inouye-Perez said. "As coaches, we love to coach and be able to restart everything kind of from ground zero. Just with an understanding that there's a lot that they just need to know about the program both on and off the field. It's been a good shot in the arm of just covering all aspects of the program. A third of the team is brand new and that's been really exciting."

UCLA is navigating a move to the 17-softballl team Big Ten Conference one year after reaching the Women's College World Series for an NCAA-record 32nd time. The Bruins will play 22 league games with 11 at Easton Stadium and 11 on the road. UCLA's Big Ten road series include trips to Iowa (March 22-23), Maryland (March 28-30), familiar foe Oregon (April 18-20) and Michigan (April 26-28). The Big Ten tournament will take place at Purdue's Bittinger Stadium in West Lafayette, Ind.

The Bruins aim to reach the NCAA Tournament for the 40th time in program history in 2025. UCLA softball is celebrating its 50th anniversary with the program's first year as an organized team starting in 1975.

CREDENTIALS

Admission to Easton Stadium's press box seating is by credential only. All credential requests should be made through UCLA softball's athletic communications contact Vinny Lavalsiti (vlavalsiti@athletics.ucla.edu). Credential requests for road games should be made, via email, with Vinny Lavalsiti. Additional information about media policies are available by visiting www.uclabruins.com/media.

CREDENTIAL PICKUP

Credentials can be claimed on the day of the game at the front gates of Easton Stadium. Media members should consult with Vinny Lavalsiti from the Athletic Communications Office in advance, for credential pickup.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking passes are distributed in a digital/electronic format. To secure a parking pass, contact the UCLA Athletic Communications Office at least two days in advance of the game. Media members will be encouraged to arrive early and park in the lot adjacent to Easton Stadium, in Lot 11 off Bellagio Drive. Lot 11 and Easton Stadium can be accessed off the 405 freeway (use the Sunset Blvd. exit, and proceed east). Upon arrival and parking in the lot, you will be prompted to input a coupon code into the nearest kiosk to access your free parking.

MEDIA ENTRANCE/SEATING

The stadium's media seating is limited. Should room be available in the press box, seating will be allowed on a first-come, first-serve basis with priority given to the media outlet who provides the most consistent coverage. Seating will be made available on the roof of the press box or to the right of the press box entrance.

MEDIA SERVICES

Media are encouraged to access all in-game statistics online. UCLA's Athletic Communications Office utilizes the StatBroadcast.com website (available by visiting uclabruins.com). For special arrangements regarding Ethernet connection, media members should contact Vinny Lavalsiti in advance (email: vlavalsiti@athletics.ucla.edu). Media with questions about the UCLA softball program, ranging from player backstories to statistical research, should contact Vinny Lavalsiti.

PHOTOGRAPHY

UCLA's Athletic Communications Office will make every effort to include as many photographers as possible (stationed in the camera well behind the backstop). Please note, priority will be granted to media outlets working on assignment for a major news-gathering organization or wire service. UCLA Athletics may also be supplying photos with a pool photographer at select games. Photo credentials should be ordered in the same manner as media credentials. Freelance photographers may also be credentialed should they provide use of their photos for the UCLA Athletic Communications Office at no cost and do not require photo credit on UCLA softball's social media accounts.

Jordan Woolery, Taylor Tinsley and Kelly Inouye-Perez meet with the media following a win at the Women's College World Series.

POST-GAME PROCEDURE

Following a cooling-off period, head coach Kelly Inouye-Perez or another member of the UCLA coaching staff and select UCLA student-athletes will be available for interviews outside the Sharron Backus Clubhouse or in the coaches' office. Should UCLA host NCAA Tournament play, there will be a press conference inside the Sharron Backus Clubhouse (located to the west of the front gates to Easton Stadium). For any interviews with the visiting team, media members are encouraged to make prior arrangements with the athletic communications personnel from that institution.

WEEKDAY INTERVIEWS

Requests for coach and player interviews should be made to Vinny Lavalsiti in the Athletic Communications Office. Please give at least 48 hours notice. A concerted effort will be made to conduct these interviews in-person. Other options include a phone interview or Zoom interview. UCLA's practices are closed to the media and public.

DIRECTIONS

Directions to UCLA and Easton Stadium: From Los Angeles International Airport, take Century Blvd. east to the San Diego Freeway (405). Take the 405 northbound to Sunset Blvd (approx. 13 miles). Continue east on Sunset, make a right on Bellagio Drive. Easton Stadium will be on your left-hand side of the road in roughly 300 feet. Parking passes can only be obtained through the UCLA Athletic Communications Office (digital format).

BRUINS AT THE OLYMPICS

The UCLA softball program has been represented in each of the five Olympic Games sponsoring softball in 1996, 2000, 2004, 2008 and 2020. Eighteen UCLA softball alumnae have competed at the Olympics for three different countries: United States (15), Australia (3) and Puerto Rico (1). UCLA's 19 Olympians and 10 different gold medal winners rank as the most across all softball programs. The 19 Olympians have totaled 32 medals (16 gold, nine silver and seven bronze).

GOLD MEDAL WINNERS

Ten of UCLA's 19 Olympic athletes have captured the gold medal at least once for Team USA: Christie Ambrosi, Jennifer Brundage, Sheila Cornell-Douty, Lisa Fernandez, Tairia (Mims) Flowers, Amanda Freed, Stacey Nuveman, Dot Richardson, Natasha Watley and Christa Williams. In the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, Fernandez solidified her status as one of the sport's all-time greats by becoming the one of just four softball players ever to win three gold medals. Nuveman, Cornell-Douty, Williams and Richardson have each won two medals.

WESTWOOD TO OKLAHOMA CITY

The UCLA softball program has 10 former players and coaches who have been inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City, Okla. The most recent UCLA softball player to be inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame was Natasha Watley in 2020. The National Softball Hall of Fame and Museum has over 400 members with two categories of membership: players and non-players. A nominee needs 75 percent (nine votes) of the votes cast by the 12 member Hall of Fame Committee to be elected. Annual inductions are held at the USA Softball Annual Meeting.

12 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

UCLA's program has won a nation-leading 12 NCAA titles and 13 total national championships, including its 1978 AIAW title. The Bruins are the only program in the history of the sport to win an NCAA championship in all four decades since softball was adopted by the NCAA in 1982. UCLA was the first program to repeat NCAA titles in 1984 and 1985, and then was the first program to three-peat in 1988, 1989 and 1990. The Bruins have won consecutive titles on three different occasions.

Overall, UCLA has played in 39 NCAA Tournaments and made 32 Women's College World Series appearances, which both rank No. 1 across all programs. UCLA has posted an NCAA Tournament record of 239-68 (.779) and Women's College Series record of 104-43 (.708).

CONFERENCE HISTORY

UCLA has secured 18 regular season conference titles entering its 51st season of organized softball in 2025. UCLA has won one conference tournament, occurring in the second and last edition of the Pac-12 Tournament in 2024.

Two of those 18 regular season titles came in the Southern California Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCWIAC) in 1974 and 1975 when the Bruins were still under the umbrella of the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW). Two more titles came in the Western Collegiate Athletic Association (WCAA) in 1983 and 1984. The rest of the Bruins' conference titles (13) were won in the Pac-10/12 Conference.

UCLA SOFTBALL'S HONDA AWARD HISTORY

The Collegiate Women's Sports Awards began in 1976 as the Broderick Awards, named after Tom Broderick. In 1985 when American Honda agreed to serve as sponsor, the name was changed to the Honda-Broderick Awards in transition and then became the Honda Awards. In 2012 Honda became a presenting sponsor and the awards have since been known as The Collegiate Women Sports Awards (CWSA) presented by Honda with The Collegiate Woman of the Year being presented with the Honda Cup.

The award winner is to reflect "not only athletic achievement but also the ideals of team contribution, scholastic endeavor, school and community involvement and those personal characteristics as stated in the philosophy of the NCAA. The program includes 12 sports awards for the best female athlete in each of the 12 NCAA-sanctioned sports. The Honda Award winner for their respective sport is then named a finalist for the Honda Cup, signifying The Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

UCLA WOMEN'S SPORTS & THE HONDA AWARD

Across its 13 varsity women's programs, UCLA has hauled in 31 Honda Sport Awards and six Honda Cups. UCLA softball owns four of those six Honda Cups and leads all of the Bruins' programs with 12 Honda Sport Awards. UCLA track and field's Jackie Joyner-Kersee and UCLA women's basketball's Ann Meyers Drysdale own the two other Honda Cups. UCLA gymnastics ranks second in the department with five Honda Sport Awards.

UCLA leads all collegiate softball programs with 12 Honda Sport Award accolades and also leads all NCAA Division I women's athletic programs, in any sport, with four Honda Cup awards: Lisa Fernandez (1993), Natasha Watley (2003), and the only two-time winner in softball history, Rachel Garcia (2019 and 2021).

DEBBIE DOOM (1984)

Debbie Doom was the program's first Honda Award winner in 1984 after posting a 24-3 record and career-best 0.10 earned run average and 282 strikeouts. Doom secured UCLA's second NCAA title that season with a 13-inning shutout over Texas A&M in the championship game.

LISA LONGAKER (1988, 1990)

Lisa Longaker earned her first Honda Award in 1988 following a 31-win season which, at the time, set a program record that would not be eclipsed until Lisa Fernandez in 1993. Lisa Longaker became the first two-time Honda Award winner and secured UCLA's third straight award and NCAA Championship in 1990.

JANICE PARKS (1989)

Janice Parks took home the Honda Award the next year in 1989 after hitting a career-best .426 batting average over 52 games played and helping UCLA to back-to-back NCAA titles.

LISA FERNANDEZ (1991, 1992, 1993)

Fernandez three-peated the Honda Award from 1991 to 1993 to bring UCLA's running total to seven. In 1993, Fernandez won the program's first Honda-Broderick Cup after posting a 33-3 record and 0.25 earned run average with a career-best 348 strikeouts.

JENNIFER BRUNDAGE (1995)

Jennifer Brundage became the fifth Bruin to win the Honda Award in 1995 after leading the country with a .518 batting average.

NATASHA WATLEY (2003)

Watley won the Honda Award and Honda-Broderick Cup in 2003 following her third 200-hit season and a .481 batting average that helped the Bruins to the 2003 NCAA Championship.

RACHEL GARCIA (2018, 2019, 2021)

Garcia won three Honda Awards (2018, 2019, 2021) and is the only player in NCAA history to win the Honda Cup twice (2019, 2021). In 2019, Garcia was the winning pitcher in both WCWS final games against Oklahoma, pitching a total of 36 innings in a span of six days and five games to bring home the Bruins' 12th NCAA title.

Nestled in the hills of Bel-Air in sunny Los Angeles, Easton Stadium has been one of the hallmark venues of the sport since it opened its doors on Feb. 19, 1994. The stadium sits on the same plot of land as Sunset Field, the original on-campus facility utilized by the softball program since 1979. Home of the winningest program in the history of the sport, Easton Stadium has hosted some of the greatest softball players the game has ever seen, including Lisa Fernandez, Dot Richardson, Natasha Watley, Stacey Nuveman and Rachel Garcia.

In addition to being home of the widely-acknowledged top collegiate program in the country, Easton Stadium is a showcase venue for interscholastic, intercollegiate, national and international events. The U.S. National Softball Team used Easton Stadium as a training facility and preparation site for the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta, Ga., at which Team USA won the gold medal.

The stadium features chair-back seating for a max capacity of 1,328 fans, sunken dugouts, two batting cages located behind the outfield wall, a 28-foot full-color electronic video scoreboard, team clubhouse, press box, concession stands and permanent public restrooms. UCLA boasts a record of 607-130 (.824) all-time at Easton Stadium.

In 1999, the Sharron Backus Clubhouse was constructed, featuring a central meeting room for the UCLA softball team and its alumni, affectionately coined the "Bruin Bubble." Named after National Softball Hall of Famer and the Bruins' first head coach, the Sharron Backus Clubhouse also houses UCLA's coaching and administrative office.

Under the bleachers are panels dedicated to each decade of Bruin softball success; UCLA is the only program in the sport to win a national championship in every decade, including its 1978 AIAW title. Listed on the panels are the program's letterwinners and a season-by-season breakdown.

Decorating the concourse are blown-up posters honoring UCLA's NCAA-title teams. The Bruins were the first-ever team to win back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1984 and 1985 and three-peat from 1988-1990.

The Easton Stadium playing field consists of a natural dirt infield and warning track with a natural grass outfield. The outfield walls measure 190 feet to the corners and 210 feet to straightaway center field.

SHARRON BACKUS

UCLA's head coach from 1975-1996

On Jan. 6, 1997, the UCLA softball program entered a new era as Sharron Backus announced her retirement from coaching after 22 years of leading the Bruins. Considered by many a softball icon, Backus was the guiding force of the top softball program in the nation at UCLA. Owner of the second-best winning percentage in NCAA Division I softball history, Backus coached 22 seasons, posting an 854-173-3 (.831) lifetime record - all at UCLA. Included in that impressive 22-year slate was a 111-32 (.776) mark in postseason play.

Backus and the Bruins brought eight national championship trophies to Westwood (seven NCAA and one AIAW), including an unprecedented three in a row (1988, '89 and '90). The Backus era's trophy case also includes four second-place finishes and three third-place awards. Her UCLA teams played in the Women's College World Series 16 times, and after the Bruins joined the NCAA in 1982, Backus' squads made the WCWS every year they made the NCAA Tournament.

Including her award as the Pac-10 Conference Coach of the Year in 1995, Backus earned the league's top honor four times in her final seven seasons, also winning in 1990, 1992 and 1993. In 1990, Backus was chosen Northwest Region Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA). She was also selected as the Diamond National and Western Collegiate Athletic Association (WCAA) Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1985.

Backus has been enshrined in several Halls of Fame in recognition of her contributions as a player and coach. The National Softball Hall of Fame recognized her as one of the most honored players and coaches with induction in 1985. In 1992, the NFCA Hall of Fame welcomed Backus, honoring her tremendous successes in collegiate softball. In 1993, the International Women's Sports Hall of Fame inducted Backus, spotlighting her enormous contributions to women's athletics. And in 2001, Backus was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in her first year of eligibility.

The Bruin mentor is most noted for her ability to teach the fundamentals. In fact, UCLA did not commit a single error in WCWS play in the championship seasons of 1978, 1982 and 1988. Backus provided solid background in the handling of pitchers such as Debbie Doom, Tracy Compton, Lisa Longaker, Lisa Fernandez and DeeDee Weiman and hitters such as Fernandez, Janice Parks, Yvonne Gutierrez and Jennifer Brundage. Backus coached the first softball player to win the most prestigious honor in women's athletics, as Fernandez won the 1993 Honda-Broderick Cup, which recognized her as the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports during the 1992-93 season.

UCLA's strength in fundamentals evolved from Backus' legendary ASA playing career. The Cal State Fullerton graduate was instrumental in seven ASA titles (1961, 1965 and 1971-75) and two international championships (1972 and 1974). A star shortstop, Backus was named to numerous ASA All-America teams during her playing career. She also played professional softball for the Connecticut Falcons from 1976-78, when the team won three World Championships.

A native of Anaheim and a resident of Fullerton, Backus continued her coaching duties in the professional ranks, coaching in the Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL). In 1998, she was named WPSL Coach of the Year after leading the Orlando Wahoos to the league championship. Backus also went on to serve as the Director of Player Personnel for the WPSL. She earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1969 from Cal State Fullerton, along with her teaching credential, which enabled her to teach at Western High School before coming to UCLA.

SUE ENQUIST

UCLA's head coach from 1997-2006,
co-head coach from 1989-1996

After spending 31 years as a player, assistant coach or head coach in the UCLA softball program, Sue Enquist announced her retirement from coaching on Sept. 26, 2006. Enquist spent 10 years as the Bruins' head coach, taking over that role for the 1997 season following the retirement of longtime mentor Sharron Backus. Enquist compiled a 484-119-1 (.802) from 1997-2006 and an overall mark of 887-175-1 (.835) in 18 seasons of coaching, serving as co-head coaches with Backus from 1989-96.

Enquist's .835 winning percentage puts her at the top of the NCAA charts for Division I head softball coaches. As co-head and head coach, Enquist led the Bruins to six national championships (1989, 1990, 1992, 1999, 2003, 2004) and seven Pac-10 Conference titles. Before being named co-head coach, Enquist spent nine seasons (1980-88) as an assistant under Backus, with the Bruins posting a record of 352-85-3 (.803).

A three-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year (1995, 1999, 2006), Enquist was named National Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) three times in 1992, 1995 and 2004. She also led coaching staffs that were named NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 and NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2004. Enquist coached 33 players to 66 NFCA All-America awards during her 18 seasons as head coach and five players to seven Honda Sport Awards, including Lisa Fernandez and Natasha Watley, who both won the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports.

Enquist was either a player or coach on 11 UCLA national championship teams, including the program's first as a member of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) in 1978 when she was the tournament's leading hitter. When the NCAA brought women's sports under its umbrella starting with the 1982 season, the Bruins won the inaugural championship.

As one of eight softball coaches chosen to work with the U.S. National Team, Enquist was involved in the preparation of the gold-medal winning U.S. Olympic Team for the 1996 Summer Games in Atlanta, the inaugural Games for softball as an Olympic sport.

After graduating from San Clemente High School in December of 1974, Enquist went on to play four seasons for Backus from 1975-78. Enquist became the prototypical player for Bruin softball in terms of attitude, desire and will to win. UCLA's first softball All-American, Enquist led the Bruins in batting average and doubles three times, triples twice and homers and runs batted in once. A three-time All-Region selection, Enquist still stands fourth on UCLA's all-time list with a .401 career batting average. On April 29, 2000, Enquist's No. 6 jersey was immortalized when it became the third number in Bruin softball history to be retired.

A three-time ASA All-American for the Raybestos Brakettes, Enquist helped lead them to four ASA National Championships (1976-78, '80). She also enjoyed success as a player at the international level, earning gold medals at three National Sports Festivals, the 1978 World Championships and the 1979 Pan American Games.

Away from the field, Enquist has received numerous honors, including induction into five Halls of Fame. In 1993, she became the first softball player inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2000, Enquist was enshrined into the Capistrano Unified School District Hall of Fame, and in 2006, she was inducted into the NFCA Hall of Fame. In June of 2008, Enquist was inducted into the International Women's Sports Hall of Fame. Seven years later, she was enshrined into the National Softball Hall of Fame. Enquist was recognized with the 2004 C. Vivian Stringer Coaching Award by the United States Sports Academy. The award pays tribute to those who have made significant contributions to sports and is named in honor of C. Vivian Stringer, the Women's Basketball Hall of Famer who is the only coach to take three different schools to the Final Four.

Enquist's coaching career and passion transcends past softball. She has served as a mental performance coach for the 2020 and 2024 U.S. Olympic Women's Volleyball Teams and also manages her own personal coaching firm, Sue Enquist LLC. Enquist is also a professor at UCLA, instructing classes filled with UCLA student-athletes in the John Wooden's Transformative Coaching and Leadership program.

Enquist earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1980. A native of San Clemente, Enquist surfed professionally from 1979-1981 and continues to be an avid surfer. She currently resides in Huntington Beach, Calif.

Four years prior to the start of the NCAA, UCLA brought home its first national title in 1978 under the umbrella of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW). After recording just 44 wins in their first three years of existence, the Bruins went 31-3 in 1978, starting and finishing the season strong with victories in 14 of their first 15 and 17 of their last 18. During the regular season, UCLA went 22-2, outscoring its opponents 101-17.

In her last season in her #6 UCLA uniform, future Hall of Fame coach Sue Enquist led the Bruins in hitting with a .391 average. The All-American also finished first on the squad with seven doubles and tied for the team lead with two homers. Sophomore Kathy Maurice, an All-Region honoree, added seven triples and also belted two homers. In all, five Bruins earned All-Region honors in 1978, with Enquist and Maurice joined by senior Lisa Richardson, junior Janice Wright and sophomore Gail Edson. Richardson and freshman Jan Jeffers keyed UCLA's success in the circle, as the Bruins posted a team ERA of 0.30. Richardson led the team with a 0.19 ERA and 16 wins, while Jeffers has a 15-3 mark, a 0.43 ERA and a team-leading 91 strikeouts.

In the postseason, UCLA won its first three at Western Regionals, but all were 1-0 games with a pair going extra innings. The 28 innings in three days caught up to the Bruins on Championship Day against Cal Poly Pomona, losing 6-5 in the first contest. In game two in yet another 1-0 game, the Bruins advanced to the College World Series with an eight-inning victory over the Broncos. Cal Poly Pomona proved to be the Bruins' toughest test en route to the title, as UCLA outscored its opponents 18-0 in the season-ending tournament. In the final game against Northern Colorado, the Bruins prevailed 3-0 to claim their first national title. Jeffers earned three of the wins at Nationals, while Richardson picked up the other two. Enquist posted a tournament-best .421 batting average, while Edson hit .412 with a tournament-best nine RBI.

Having won the most national championships, it was only fitting that the Bruins won the sport's first title under the umbrella of the National Collegiate Athletic Association in 1982. UCLA posted a 33-7-2 overall record, but were unable to get past Cal State Fullerton for the WCAA title (Western Collegiate Athletic Association), finishing second with a 15-4-1 mark.

First and foremost, pitching was the main catalyst for the Bruins, allowing just 18 runs for the entire season. UCLA gave up more than one run in a game just five times and 27 of its 33 victories came by shutout. During a 14-game winning streak from March 9 to April 16, the Bruins didn't allow a single run. All four pitchers on the UCLA staff appeared in between 10 and 15 games, keeping everybody fresh. A pair of freshmen keyed the Bruins' success, as All-American Tracy Compton had a team-low ERA of 0.21 and a 10-2 record, while Debbie Doom went 11-2 with a 0.31 ERA and a team-best 193 strikeouts. The upperclassmen did their part too. Senior Karen Andrews had 49 strikeouts, a 0.44 earned run average and a 6-2 record, while junior Lori Warkentin was 6-1 with a 0.25 ERA and 55 strikeouts. The pitching picked up the offensive attack, which went the entire season without a home run. Junior Dot Richardson led the Bruins with a .328 batting average en route to All-American honors, while All-American senior Gina Vecchione and sophomore Barbara Young tied for the team lead with 12 RBI.

In the postseason, the Bruins gave up just one run in seven victories to sweep through the competition. After dispatching Wyoming at their home Regional, the Bruins came out on top in four straight, one-run games at the Women's College World Series, including a 1-0 victory over Cal State Fullerton. In the championship game, Doom struck out 12 and despite getting just one hit, the Bruins scored twice in the eighth inning to defeat Fresno State 2-0. Doom was named the Most Valuable Player of the College World Series, pitching 41.2 of the Bruins' 45 innings and striking out 62.

Behind the outstanding pitching duo of Tracy Compton and Debbie Doom, the 1984 Bruins won their third national championship and their second NCAA title in three seasons. Finishing with a record of 45-6-1, UCLA claimed the WCAA title with a 7-3 conference record. Bruin hurlers gave up just 20 runs during the season and half of those runs were unearned. After dropping the first game of the season, UCLA won 21 in a row, outscoring its opponents 59-4 during the streak and tossing 18 shutouts. In all, 39 of the Bruins' 45 victories came by way of the shutout.

Doom spelled just that for opposing hitters, as the junior went 24-3 with a 0.10 earned run average and 282 strikeouts. Compton was equally as good, going 20-3 with a 0.29 ERA and 159 strikeouts. Both pitchers received All-American honors, two of four Bruins to earn the accolade that season. The other two All-Americans were on the hitting side. Freshman Tricia Mang led the team with a .376 average, seven home runs and 19 runs batted in. Senior Sheila Cornell also hit above .300 at .309, belting two homers and drawing 26 walks, almost three times as many as the next closest player.

UCLA swept past Arizona State in its home Regional, shutting out the Sun Devils in both games to advance to the Women's College World Series. After dispatching Utah State and Northwestern, the Bruins dropped their first game of the tournament, 2-0 to defending champion Texas A&M. UCLA rebounded with a 1-0 blanking of Nebraska to reach the final, but would need to beat Texas A&M twice to claim the championship. In game one, Mang drove in Mary Ricks for the contest's only run to take down the Aggies 1-0 and force a winner-take-all title matchup. Doom was in command in the circle, striking out 15 in the championship game. But it wasn't until the bottom of the 13th inning when the game was settled, as Mang hit a one-out homer to left field to give the Bruins the championship. Doom, Mang, Leslie Rover and Jennifer Simm were named to the All-Tournament Team.

Another extra-inning game and another walk-off win gave the Bruins back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1985. Recording its third-straight, 40-win season, UCLA began the year with 12 straight triumphs, and after its first setback of the year, reeled off another 11 victories in a row. The Bruins didn't allow more than three runs in a game and gave up more than one just five times.

As was the case during their 1984 championship run, it was the two-headed pitching monster of seniors Tracy Compton and Debbie Doom that propelled the Bruins. Terrorizing opposing hitters since their freshmen seasons, the duo combined for a 0.18 ERA and 406 strikeouts. Compton led the nation and posted the second-best ERA in NCAA history at 0.08, giving up only two earned runs in 167 1/3 innings while striking out 172. She won 20 games, as did Doom, who struck out 232 with a 0.27 ERA in 180 innings. Both earned All-American accolades for the third straight season.

UCLA was on cruise control down the stretch, but faltered in its final three games of the regular season and then dropped the first game of Regional play to Pacific. The Bruins bounced back though with a pair of shutout victories over the Tigers to advance to the College World Series. UCLA never scored more than three runs in a game in the World Series, but didn't need to thanks to Compton and Doom's pitching.

However, the Bruins had to fight out of the loser's bracket following a second-game loss to Cal State Fullerton. With its backs against the wall, UCLA won the next three, including a revenge win over the Titans, and advanced to the title game against Nebraska. The Bruins jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the second behind an RBI single by Chris Olivie, but Nebraska tied it in the fourth. The game went to extras, and in the bottom of the ninth, Janet Pinneau drove home the game-winner on a single to plate Leslie Rover for the championship. Compton, Doom, Olivie and Rover were each named to the College World Series All-Tournament Team.

After falling in the championship game to Texas A&M a year prior, the UCLA softball team brought the NCAA softball title back to Westwood in 1988. In the second year of the Pacific-10 Conference's existence, the Bruins won the league title with a 15-3 record and posted a 53-8 overall mark. UCLA had three separate winning streaks of at least eight games, including 16 in a row from March 21 to April 4. During that streak, the Bruins outscored their opponents 88-6, posting 10 shutouts along the way.

UCLA had four players hit over .300 on the season, with freshman Lorraine Maynez's .337 average leading the way. She also topped the team with 10 doubles and seven triples and was second with 32 runs scored and 29 RBI. Junior Janice Parks led the power department with six homers and 40 RBI, hitting .322. Both players earned first-team All-American honors, with Parks' accolade being her second award in as many seasons. In the circle, sophomore All-American Lisa Longaker handled the bulk of the duties, posting a nation-best 0.30 earned run average, a 31-4 record and 240 strikeouts. Junior Samantha Ford backed up Longaker with an 18-4 mark and a 0.87 ERA.

The tournament began with a two-game sweep of Cal State Fullerton. For the first time, the WCWS was held in California, as the Bruins traveled north to Sunnyvale. UCLA won its first four games by a 16-2 margin to advance to the championship against Fresno State. Needing to win a pair from the Bruins, the Bulldogs took the first step with a 2-1 victory in game one, setting up a winner-take-all showdown for the title. As she had done all season, Longaker was masterful in the circle, hurling her 23rd shutout of the year. The Bruins gave her the only offense she needed in the fourth inning when Parks doubled in Stacy Sunny and Maynez to put UCLA on top 2-0. The Bruins added an insurance run in the seventh on a Shanna Flynn RBI single and won the sport's fifth national championship. Flynn, Longaker and Sunny were joined on the All-Tournament Team by Kerry Dienelt and Missy Phillips.

The Bruins made it back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1989, again besting Fresno State in the title game. Losing just four games during the season with 48 wins, the Bruins steamrolled through the Pac-10 with a league-best 18-2 record. UCLA had winning streaks of eight, 11 and 13, to go along with a season-ending streak of 16. The Bruins didn't allow a run until the ninth game of the season (88 innings) and had shutouts in their first 10 wins. In all, UCLA hurlers tossed 34 shutouts and gave up only 30 runs in 52 games.

In her first and only year in Westwood, freshman Tiffany Boyd led the nation with a 0.24 ERA, going 19-4 with 172 strikeouts in the circle. Although not qualifying for the NCAA's top spot, senior Samantha Ford led the staff with a 0.14 ERA and an 11-1 record, while junior Lisa Longaker was 18-1 with a 0.64 ERA. In a rarity for UCLA, no pitchers earned All-American honors, but two hitters did in senior Janice Parks and sophomore Shanna Flynn. Parks led the team with a .426 batting average, 36 runs batted in, seven triples, 10 doubles and two home runs, while Flynn hit .353 with 10 RBI and a team-best seven stolen bases. Although they hit only four home runs, the Bruins batted at a .288 clip and still manufactured 209 runs during the season.

Yet another postseason began with an easy two-game sweep in Regional play, this time of Long Beach State, as the Bruins traveled to Sunnyvale for the second straight College World Series held in Northern California. UCLA ran the table in the first four games of the World Series and had a familiar foe in Fresno State in the championship game. For the second straight year, the Bulldogs were outdueled by a Bruin hurler, as Boyd held Fresno State to three hits while striking out six in the title tilt. Parks had three hits in the final game and Lorraine Maynez's RBI single to score Julie Poulos in the third inning was the only run the Bruins needed for their sixth national title. Boyd, Maynez and Parks were each honored on the College World Series All-Tournament Team and were joined by Kerry Dienelt and Missy Phillips.

Another NCAA Championship. Another title-game victory over Fresno State. 1990 would end the same way the previous two seasons ended, as the Bruins won the sport's seventh national title. UCLA cracked the 60-win mark for the first time in school history with a 62-7 record and claimed its third straight Pac-10 title with a 17-2 mark. During a 22-game winning streak from March 31 to May 3, the Bruins outscored their opponents 68-3 and did not allow a run for 122 straight innings over 13 games.

As usual, it was the Bruin pitching that keyed the team's success, throwing 46 shutouts and posting a team ERA of 0.42. Four pitchers appeared in at least 15 games and three of them were freshmen, led by All-American Lisa Fernandez's 0.25 ERA and 11-1 record in just 83 innings. Newcomer Heather Compton went 18-1 with a 0.36 ERA and freshman DeeDee Weiman was 13-3 with a 0.64 ERA. The lone upperclassman of the staff was senior All-American Lisa Longaker, who led the team with 20 wins and had a 0.40 ERA. At the plate, sophomore All-American Yvonne Gutierrez had a team-best .384 average with 28 RBI, while Fernandez batted .310 with 22 RBI.

The Bruins beat Northern Iowa in Regional play and won their first four contests at the initial WCWS to be played in Oklahoma City. For the third straight season, Fresno State stood in the way of UCLA and a national title. Attempting to avenge their previous two losses, the Bulldogs won a 1-0 elimination game against the Bruins to force a winner-take-all final. UCLA jumped out to an early 1-0 lead with a first-inning run when Shanna Flynn scored on a wild pitch. Then in the third, a downpour caused the game to be suspended and resume the following afternoon. The Bruins came out the next day and immediately tacked on an insurance run in the bottom of the third when Kerry Dienelt drove in Michelle Montgomery. Compton took care of the rest, one-hitting Fresno State to finish off the three-peat. Dienelt, Fernandez, Flynn, Gutierrez and Longaker were named to the All-Tournament Team.

After Arizona spoiled UCLA's chances of four consecutive titles in 1991, the Bruins exacted revenge the following year with a victory against their Pac-10 rival. UCLA went 54-2, but both losses came at the hands of Arizona, allowing the Wildcats to end the Bruins' run of four straight Pac-10 titles. UCLA started the season with 33 straight wins, crushing opponents by a 166-17 margin. Following their first loss to Arizona, the Bruins ran off another 14-game win streak, including 10 shutouts. After falling in the regular-season finale against Arizona, UCLA finished the year with an undefeated postseason.

Junior Lisa Fernandez was masterful both in the circle and at the plate. She posted a nation-best ERA of 0.14 and was undefeated on the year at 29-0. The All-American and Honda Award winner was outstanding at the plate also, hitting .401 with 29 runs batted in. Not to be forgotten in the circle were junior hurlers DeeDee Weiman (11-1, 0.51 ERA) and Heather Compton (14-1, 0.67 ERA), who combined for 16 shutouts and 274 strikeouts. Senior All-American Yvonne Gutierrez was the powerful stick in the lineup, leading the club with a .406 average, 11 home runs and 58 RBI. Her 11 home runs tied for the NCAA lead. Fernandez and Gutierrez were joined on the All-American team by freshmen Joanne Alchin (.323 BA) and Kathi Evans (.363). As a team, the Bruins hit .304 and had five players bat above the .300 mark.

The Bruins skated past Utah in the Regional round and then blew away their first four opponents in the College World Series, winning by a combined score of 29-1 and recording two mercy-rule victories. In the championship game, it was a pitcher's duel between Fernandez and Arizona's Debby Day. The duo matched zeroes on the board until the bottom of the seventh inning. Gutierrez led off the frame with a single, moved over to second on a sacrifice by Jennifer Brundage and came home on Jenny Brewster's walk-off home run to left. Fernandez, who finished the year with 65 straight scoreless innings, was named to the All-Tournament Team along with Evans, Gutierrez and Kelly Inouye.

The winningest team in UCLA softball history set school records for runs scored (429), home runs (95) and total bases (1042), as the Bruins claimed the school's ninth national championship. UCLA posted a 63-6 record, defeating all its non-conference opponents while winning its sixth Pac-10 title with a 22-6 mark. The Bruins won a school-record 35 games to start the season, averaging more than 6.5 runs per game.

Recording one of the best individual years in the history of the sport, sophomore Stacey Nuveman shattered the UCLA single-season home run record and led the nation with 31 bombs and 91 runs batted in, also batting .446. Her 31 homers are the second-best, single-season total in NCAA history, while her 91 RBI are seventh-best. The national leaders didn't stop with Nuveman though, as junior Christie Ambrosi was atop the NCAA with 103 hits, posting a .429 average and a team-leading 25 stolen bases. Seven different players hit over .300 for the Bruins, who batted .339 as a team. In the circle, sophomore Courtney Dale and freshman Amanda Freed combined for 60 of the team's 63 victories. Dale was 33-1 with a 0.98 ERA and 218 strikeouts, while Freed was 27-4 with a 0.96 ERA and 187 strikeouts. A school-record six players were named All-Americans. Ambrosi, Dale, Freed and Nuveman were joined on the team by juniors Julie Adams and Julie Marshall.

The postseason was a clean sweep, going 4-0 in Regionals and 4-0 at the WCWS. UCLA outscored its foes 38-5 during Regionals, but things were considerably closer in the World Series, as all four contests were one-run games with two going extra innings. In the championship game against Washington, the Bruins jumped on the Huskies with two in the first and one in the second. Adams singled in a pair to put UCLA up 2-0 and Dale led off the second with a solo homer to make it a three-run game. Washington rallied and had the tying run on base in the final inning, but Freed retired the final batter to make the Bruins victorious. Adams was named Most Outstanding Player and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Ambrosi, Dale and Freed.

Behind one of the best pitching performances in College World Series championship game history, the Bruins won their 10th national title in 2003. Sporting a record of 54-7, UCLA had four first-team All-Americans in seniors Tairia Mims and Natasha Watley and juniors Keira Goerl and Claire Sua. On offense, five players hit above .300, led by Watley's .481 average. Leading the nation with 102 hits, Watley, who went on to win the Honda-Broderick Cup, added 10 home runs, 53 runs batted in and a team-best 35 stolen bases. Mims was the top power hitter with 22 homers and 70 RBI, hitting .449. Goerl led the nation in wins with 40, posting a 0.63 earned run average and 342 strikeouts.

After a perfect run through Regional play, UCLA went extra innings in its first College World Series game with California, but fell into the loser's bracket with a 7-3, 10-inning loss. Battling back, the Bruins beat Louisiana-Lafayette and Washington to advance to the semifinals against Texas. Needing to defeat the Longhorns twice to move on to the championship game, the Bruins shutout Texas 3-0 behind a two-hitter by Goerl. In the deciding matchup with Texas, the Bruins fell behind on an unearned run in the first and were down to their last out until a seventh-inning rally propelled them into the championship game. With two outs and Monique Mejia at second, Watley tied the game with a single and moved to second on the throw home. Caitlin Benyi completed the comeback with a single through the right side to win it 2-1. In the title game against California, Goerl didn't allow a hit through the first eight innings, but UCLA was also held in check on offense keeping the game scoreless. In the top of the ninth, Stephanie Ramos led off with a double and scored the go-ahead run on an RBI single by Toria Auelua. Still working on her no-hitter, Goerl retired the Golden Bears 1-2-3 in the ninth to send the Bruins to victory. Goerl was named Most Outstanding Player and her title game no-hitter was selected as one of the Top 25 Defining Moments in NCAA History during the NCAA's 100th anniversary in 2006. Mims and Watley also earned All-College World Series Tournament honors.

The Bruins made it back-to-back NCAA titles in 2004, hoisting the school's 11th national championship trophy in softball. UCLA went 47-9, winning its first 25 games and holding a 27-1 mark heading into league play. Despite struggling to a 12-8 record and a fourth-place finish in conference, the Bruins turned it on at the end of the regular season, winning their final five. Adding in a perfect 8-0 postseason record, UCLA won its final 13 games.

Sophomore All-American Caitlin Benyi led the country with 24 home runs, adding 43 runs batted in and a .379 batting average. Freshman Jodie Legaspi was second on the team with a .371 average, seven homers and 35 runs batted in, while senior Stephanie Ramos hit .356 with 12 homers and 31 RBI. In the circle, All-American Keira Goerl closed her career with an outstanding senior season, going 31-7 with a 1.02 ERA and 276 strikeouts. Freshman Lisa Dodd recorded a team-low earned run average of 0.79 with a 15-2 record in 115 2/3 innings.

After going a perfect 4-0 and outscoring their opponents 22-2 during Regional play, the Bruins continued their offensive prowess with an 8-2 victory against Stanford in the opening game of the College World Series. After downing LSU, the Bruins were taken to extra innings by Stanford in an elimination game for the Cardinal. Tied 1-1 going into the top of the 12th, UCLA scored twice on RBI doubles by Dodd and Ramos to go ahead 3-1. Goerl finished off Stanford in the bottom of the inning to send the Bruins to the title game against California for the second straight year. The Golden Bears jumped out to an early lead with a first-inning run and maintained it until the Bruins rallied in the fifth. Claire Sua led off with a homer and the Bruins continued the rally, putting runners at third and second with two outs. Kristen Dedmon came off the bench and got a big pinch-hit single up the middle to plate both runners and put UCLA up 3-1. Goerl held Cal off the scoreboard for the rest of the game to send the Bruins to the repeat title. Benyi, Dodd, Goerl and Legaspi were named to the All-WCWS Tournament Team.

After a six-year drought, the Bruins were back on top of the softball mountain in 2010, claiming the program's 11th NCAA title and 12th national championship. UCLA set school, single-season records in home runs (108), slugging percentage (.602), on base percentage (.432) and walks (244).

In the Women's College World Series opener against Florida, the game was tied at three after two innings when UCLA scored 13 unanswered to mercy rule the Gators 16-3. The 16 runs were the most ever for UCLA in a postseason contest. The Bruins broke the school record for home runs the next evening against Hawai'i in a 5-2 win with three more bombs. A two-run shot and a three-run jack against Georgia accounted for the only five runs the Bruins needed in a 5-2 win to put the Bruins in the Championship Series against Arizona.

Game one was an instant classic. After a two-out double in the bottom of the sixth by Monica Harrison gave the Bruins a 4-2 lead, the Wildcats rallied with three in the top of the seventh to go ahead 5-4. But with the help of a two-out Arizona miscue in the bottom of the seventh, UCLA scored the game-tying run on a Kaila Shull double to send the game into extra innings. The Wildcats left the bases loaded in the top of the eighth and the Bruins would take advantage in the bottom half, as Megan Langenfeld hit a 1-0 pitch over the center-field fence with two outs to give UCLA a thrilling 6-5 victory.

The next evening, Langenfeld and Andrea Harrison hit their WCWS-record fourth homers, as the Bruins routed Arizona 15-9 to finish off the championship run. Harrison also set a new WCWS mark with 11 RBI, while the Bruins' 14 homers were also a WCWS record. Langenfeld was named the WCWS Most Outstanding Player, while Andrea Harrison and Samantha Camuso, who hit eight homers in the postseason, were also named to the All-Tournament Team. Along with their 108 home runs, the Bruins also set school, single-season records in slugging (.602), on base percentage (.432) and walks (244).

In the most dramatic of ways, UCLA won its 13th national championship, sweeping Oklahoma in the WCWS Championship Series. Even at four with two outs in the bottom of the seventh, Kinsley Washington blooped a single to left-center to score pinch-runner Jacqui Prober to send the Bruins to victory.

The Bruins played the first two weekends of the 2019 postseason at Easton Stadium, getting the Los Angeles Regional off to a great start against Weber State. Rachel Garcia retired the first 18 batters she faced before Holly Azevedo completed the combined no-hitter. In the winner's bracket game the next day, UCLA run-ruled Missouri, 9-1 in five innings. The Tigers exacted revenge the following day to force the if necessary game, but the Bruins would again win by mercy rule, 13-1 in five innings, to advance to Super Regionals. UCLA hosted James Madison, and after giving up a run in the first inning of game one, the Bruins outscored the Dukes 13-2 over the final 12 innings to move on to their fifth-consecutive Women's College World Series.

With a 5-0 record in Oklahoma City, the Bruins never trailed at the WCWS. UCLA got off to a great start against Minnesota thanks to a leadoff homer by Bubba Nickles, the first-ever leadoff homer in Bruin WCWS history. A three-run jack by Aaliyah Jordan capped off the scoring in a 7-2 win. The next evening against Pac-12 rival Arizona, the two teams were tied until the top of the sixth when Malia Quarles came off the bench with a pinch-hit home run. The Bruins poured it on with four more runs in the seventh in a 6-2 victory over the Wildcats. On Semifinal Sunday, UCLA and Washington were scoreless through 9 1/2 innings, as Garcia had struck out 16 in 10 frames. Then the National Player of the Year ended it with a walk-off, three-run homer to send the Bruins to the WCWS Championship Series against Oklahoma.

In game one of the Championship Series, the Bruins scored in six of their seven at-bats, hitting four home runs in a 16-3 rout. In game two, UCLA held leads of 2-0, 3-1 and 4-3 thanks to homers by Nickles, Briana Perez, Jordan and Brianna Tautalafua. But the Bruins found themselves tied in the bottom of the seventh when Washington and Prober came through with the heroics. Garcia was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Jordan, Nickles and Washington.

ABOUT UCLA

Among the world's leading research universities, UCLA is best known for the breadth and quality of its academic, research, health care, cultural, continuing education and athletic programs. UCLA is a truly international university that offers a world of opportunity. Consistently ranked among the world's top-tier universities and powered by extensive resources, a renowned reputation and – most important – the will to make a real difference in the world, the result is clearly in the numbers.

UCLA has been the nation's the most applied-to university. For the fall of 2023, the university received more than 145,910 applications for a freshman class. Each year, UCLA admits students from over 90 countries and all 50 states. Nearly 96 percent of the school's freshmen live in university housing, and approximately 50 percent of UCLA's undergraduates receive some sort of financial assistance.

The most popular undergraduate majors include business economics, biology, psychology, political science, economics and psychobiology. UCLA offers over 125 majors and 80 minors and has nearly 150 graduate degree programs, including an extensive selection of management and health sciences options. There are 40 UCLA doctoral programs that rank among the top 10 in their fields nationwide. Many of its 11 professional schools and academic departments and programs are ranked among the best in the nation. The university provides a size and scope that allows for unimagined diversity, unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship for its 46,600 students.

FACULTY, STUDENTS & ALUMNI

Eight UCLA faculty have been awarded Nobel Prizes – the five most recent are Andrea Ghez in physics (2020), J. Fraser Stoddard in chemistry and biochemistry (2016), Lloyd Shapley in economic sciences (2012), Louis Ignarro in medicine (1998) and biochemist Paul Boyer in chemistry (1997). Among faculty there have been 10 National Medals of Science recipients, and hundreds of Guggenheim Fellowships, Fulbright Awards and other academic distinctions. At UCLA, thousands of students extend their education beyond the classroom, working directly with faculty on research projects. Many UCLA undergraduates participate in major research studies, working one-on-one with world-renowned scholars as they discover and create new knowledge. UCLA's alumni are bright stars on the world stage. They include leaders of industry and commerce – Oscar, Grammy, Tony, and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians and professional athletes; educators, engineers, bankers, and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves 88,000 members, part of the larger network of more than 500,000 UCLA alumni around the globe, with a comprehensive array of services and programs.

BOOKS & TECHNOLOGY

The UCLA Library is ranked among the top academic research libraries in North America with holdings of more than 12 million print and electronic volumes and has over 15 million virtual visitors via the website. From the birth of the Internet at UCLA in 1969, UCLA continues to be a leader in resources for learning. UCLA is nationally recognized for developing ground-breaking computer services for undergraduates and was the first university to have a website for every undergraduate. The UCLA Library is one of the largest student employers on campus, while countless hours are spent providing free research help and writing assistance of students. The university provides an innovative, on-line tool called "myucla.edu," which provides a Web page tailored to each student's academic needs.

OUTREACH & COMMUNITY SERVICE

From its founding, UCLA has been an integral and contributing part of the greater Los Angeles community. Outreach programs and volunteerism are as much a part of UCLA as academics and research, with hundreds of UCLA-sponsored programs providing a wide range of opportunities. Many of UCLA's undergraduates volunteer for these programs, including tutoring youths, adults and incarcerated youths; addressing health and educational needs of underserved communities; combating poverty and homelessness; aiding the elderly and disabled; and providing legal, social, medical and educational assistance to community residents. Through outreach and academic preparation programs, UCLA works with K-12 schools throughout Los Angeles to help greater numbers of students prepare to compete successfully for college. UCLA also partners with community colleges to increase the number of underrepresented students transferring to the university.
Additionally, UCLA faculty, researchers and students provide leadership and public service in health care, law, economic development, social welfare, urban planning, public policy, arts and the environment. Most academic departments have major research projects, field studies or student internships that directly affect people's lives in Los Angeles, the state and the nation.

HEALTH CARE

UCLA Health has been a leader in patient care, medical research, education and community service for more than 60 years. The UCLA health system includes four hospitals on two campuses; more than 160 community clinics throughout Southern California; the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA, and the UCLA Faculty Practice Group.

UCLA Health's four hospitals – Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center; UCLA Medical Center, Santa Monica; UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital; and Stewart and Lynda Resnick Neuropsychiatric Hospital at UCLA – are consistently ranked among the best in the nation by U.S. News & World Report. In addition, UCLA's wide-reaching system of primary- and specialty-care clinics offers patients convenient access to the best in health care and the latest in medical technology.

Patients also benefit from UCLA Health's standing as a comprehensive academic medical system, in which physicians and scientists work together to discover new and better ways to diagnose and treat diseases. At the forefront of these efforts is the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA. The medical school offers a comprehensive array of research and clinical centers – with such specialized emphases as stem cell and regenerative medicine, AIDS, gene therapy, neurosciences, women's health and geriatrics – that translate research findings into the latest diagnostic and treatment techniques across the broad spectrum of medicine. UCLA Health's mission extends beyond the walls of its hospitals and clinics. Located in one of the most diverse communities in the country, UCLA Health has a wide-range of community health programs designed to prevent and treat adverse health conditions, such as obesity, asthma, cardiovascular disease, and much more. ARTS

A diverse array of public arts programming makes UCLA the leading arts and cultural center of the West. More than 500,000 people annually attend arts events including theater, music, opera and dance performances, lectures, poetry readings, exhibitions, film screenings, and media arts that are presented by UCLA's two professional arts schools. To learn more, visit arts.ucla.edu and tft.ucla.edu.

CHAMPIONS MADE HERE

UCLA became the first university to win at least 100 NCAA team titles and has secured 37 NCAA Championships in the past 22 years. UCLA currently ranks second in the nation with 124 total NCAA team championships. UCLA has also produced an impressive pipeline of Olympians and Olympic gold medal winners, including 14 medal winners at the 2024 Olympic Games in Paris, France. Current, former and future UCLA students secured five gold, three silver and six bronze medals. A leader in producing professional athletes, UCLA offers the nation's finest overall combined academic, athletic and career resources for student-athletes. The athletic department's "Fours Up" strategic plan has established four core elements of the department's identity starting with a new mission: UCLA Athletics develops champions through academic excellence, competitive greatness and social responsibility.

PRESTIGIOUS DEGREE

Ranked in the top 10 among universities in most academic surveys, UCLA's professional schools rank among the top five in most areas and in the top 10 in others. UCLA has ranked No. 1, nationally, for undergraduate student applications each year since 1999. The school is also among the all-time leaders in producing NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners. UCLA has recently ranked No. 1 among all public colleges and universities, nationally, by U.S. News & World Report and the Wall Street Journal.

HIGHEST QUALITY OF LIFE / BEST PLACE TO LIVE

UCLA's dorm food has been ranked No. 1, nationally, by Business Insider. In addition, Forbes listed UCLA as the No. 4 "best value" university in the publication's rankings in 2019. The campus welcomes 334 days of sunshine per year, with an average year-round temperature of 74 degrees. Situated five miles from the beach, UCLA rests in a thriving campus community of Westwood Village and is surrounded by Bel Air, Beverly Hills, Century City, Brentwood and Santa Monica.

WORLD CLASS FACILITIES

Among UCLA's top-notch facilities include Pauley Pavilion presented by Wescom, the Mo Ostin Basketball Center, the Wasserman Football Center, Rose Bowl Stadium in Pasadena (Sports Illustrated's No. 1 venue of all college sites), the Los Angeles Tennis Center, Drake Stadium (track & soccer), Jackie Robinson Stadium, Easton Stadium, Spieker Aquatics Center, Sunset Canyon Recreation Center, Wallis Annenberg Stadium, numerous adjacent championship golf courses, an on-campus golf practice facility, and the Acosta Athletic Training Complex for the best in sports medicine and athletic performance.

TREMENDOUS SPORT STABILITY

UCLA has Olympic, National and USA Team coaches on its staff and individuals who have trained at the highest level and know how to win. No university can match UCLA's coaching stability in that only two Bruin head coaches have left for another Division I head coaching position over the past 40-plus years.

EXCEPTIONAL ACADEMIC SUPPORT

UCLA features over 20 full-time staff working in academic and student services. This includes academic counseling, learning specialists, life skills coordinators, priority pre-enrollment in classes, academic mentors, individual and group tutoring, academic awards banquets, lecture notes, a laptop lending program and additional career guidance.

YOUR FUTURE AT THE HIGHEST LEVEL

UCLA serves home to the country's No. 1 Career Center for full-time and part-time jobs. The average personal income for a UCLA graduate with a bachelor of arts degree is $91,000. Likewise, that salary average lists at approximately $157,600 per year for mid-career wage earners (per Payscale). Student-athletes have access to the "Handshake" program through UCLA's Career Center for networking opportunities. A degree from UCLA means success across the world.

COMPLETE NATIONAL SPORTS MEDIA COVERAGE

Centered in Los Angeles, the nation's second-largest media market, UCLA secures more national and regional exposure than any other university in the country. With multiple daily newspapers, UCLA ranks among the top in former student athletes in broadcasting, writing, acting, and more. UCLA has ranked No. 1 across all sports in total Sports Illustrated cover appearances. Prominent outlets such as FOX, ESPN, CNN and USA Today have offices in Los Angeles. UCLA's athletic events are streamed through both Big Ten Network (and B1G+) and the Bruins' in-venue athletic feeds.

TOP TRADITION OF ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

UCLA features countless athletes with historic long-term success across numerous sports, including stars such as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Troy Aikman, Arthur Ashe, Natalie Benson (Golda), Gerrit Cole, Jimmy Connors, Brandon Crawford, Lisa Fernandez, Lauren Holiday (Cheney), Rafer Johnson, Jackie Joyner-Kersee, Karch Kiraly, Liz Masakayan, Ann Meyers, Jonathan Ogden, Corey Pavin, Jackie Robinson, Al Scates, Sharon Shapiro, Chase Utley, Bill Walton, and legendary head coach John Wooden. UCLA ranks No. 1, worldwide, in university name recognition.

INTANGIBLES, BEST COLLEGE LOCATION

UCLA's overall success combining prestigious academics, top athletic finishes and tremendous social life cannot be matched by any other university. UCLA has great resources available on a daily basis for our student-athletes to be the best in any area they select. UCLA lives by its axiom of "Champions Made Here," and the university's metropolitan location provides its student-athletes with countless opportunities for growth, development and leadership.

BIOGRAPHY

UCLA Athletic Hall of Famer Kelly Inouye-Perez begins her 19th season as The Shelly Carlin UCLA Head Softball Coach as the Bruins transition into the Big Ten Conference in 2025. She owns an overall record of 818-209-1 (.796) through 18 campaigns. Inouye-Perez, who is the only person to have won an NCAA Softball Championship as both a player and coach, led the Bruins to their 12th and 13th national titles as head coach in 2010 and 2019.

Inouye-Perez officially took over from Sue Enquist as the third head coach in program history on Jan. 1, 2007. Including her 13 years as an assistant coach (1994-06) and five years as a player (1989-93), this marks Inouye-Perez's 37th consecutive season in Westwood.

Ten times, most recently in 2024, the Bruins have reached the Women's College World Series under Inouye-Perez, including a stretch of seven straight appearances from 2015 to 2022. UCLA has made the NCAA Tournament in all 17 possible seasons under Inouye-Perez and holds an 86-34 record (.717) in the postseason, including a 20-16 mark in the WCWS. Inouye-Perez claimed her fifth Pac-10/12 Conference regular season title and first Pac-12 Tournament championship in UCLA's final year as a member of the league in 2024. Her five Pac-10/12 regular season titles rank third-most in conference history behind Arizona's Mike Candrea (10) and Enquist (7). Inouye-Perez closed her time in the Pac-12 leading active head coaches with 276 conference victories and ranking second with 818 overall victories.

Entering 2025, Inouye-Perez ranks second among active NCAA softball head coaches and seventh all-time with a .796 winning percentage. In addition, UCLA has been ranked in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Poll for all 279 weeks with Inouye-Perez at the helm, including 20 weeks at No. 1.

Numerous Bruins have garnered national, regional and conference recognition over Inouye-Perez's 18 seasons as head coach. Rachel Garcia was a three-time winner of the Honda Sport Award (2021, 2019, 2018) and softball's first two-time winner of the Honda Cup (2021, 2019), which is given to the best female athlete across all collegiate sports. Garcia was also a two-time winner of the prestigious USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award and earned NFCA National Player of the Year in 2018. Inouye-Perez has directed 26 NFCA All-Americans to 46 total citations, including 12 players to 22 First Team plaudits. The Bruins have earned at least one NFCA All-America honor in all 17 possible seasons with Inouye-Perez as head coach. Additionally, Inouye-Perez has coached 43 players to 94 total NFCA All-Region honors.

Four UCLA student-athletes have hauled in eight Pac-10/12 Player of the Year awards since Inouye-Perez took the reins of the program. Garcia became one of five players in conference history to win the Pac-10/12 Player of the Year trophy three times (2021, 2019, 2018). Two of Inouye-Perez's players – Maya Brady (2024, 2023) and Ally Carda (2015, 2014) – have repeated as Pac-12 Player of the Year. Since 2007, UCLA has totaled three Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year awards with Garcia winning the honor in 2019 and Megan Faraimo becoming the first Bruin to secure the award in back-to-back seasons in 2022 and 2023. UCLA has also won seven Pac-12 Freshman of the Year awards under Inouye-Perez, and has taken home the award in five of the last seven possible seasons (excludes 2020). Briana Perez became the first Bruin to win Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year in 2022. Forty-three players have collected a total of 92 All-Pac-10/12 Team selections in the Inouye-Perez era, and 34 of those athletes have received 66 First Team accolades (excl. honorable mention). Four of her players are four-time All-Conference First Team recipients: Garcia, Faraimo, Briana Perez and Stephany LaRosa.

Inouye-Perez hitting ground balls prior to the start of a game in 2024.

Four players who have competed in the Inouye-Perez era of UCLA softball have gone on to represent Team USA in the Olympics. Carda, Garcia, Bubba Nickles and Delaney Spaulding all donned the Red, White and Blue at the 2020 Tokyo Summer Olympics and brought home the silver medal.

Inouye-Perez and her staff have been consistently recognized for their efforts on and off the field. For the seventh time, Inouye-Perez's staff was awarded NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year in 2024 after a return to the WCWS stage. UCLA has received the NFCA National CSOY honor twice under Inouye-Perez in 2010 and 2019. Inouye-Perez was an assistant coach on the 2000 and 2004 staffs under Enquist that won the NFCA West Region CSOY award. In 2024, Inouye-Perez was awarded Pac-12 Coach of the Year for the fourth time in her career, which is tied for second-most in the history of the flagship softball conference.

Inouye-Perez became the 20th member of the UCLA softball program to be enshrined in the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2022.

Inouye-Perez is a link to five decades of Bruin softball success having contributed to eight total NCAA Championships, 12 Pac-10/12 regular season titles and winning 1,705 total games in her previous 36 years as a Bruin. She served as an assistant coach and played for her two predecessors, hall-of-fame-coaches Sharron Backus and Enquist.

Over Inouye-Perez's 13 seasons as an assistant coach (1994-06), UCLA was 617-150-1 (.804) and appeared in the NCAA title game seven times, winning the NCAA Championship in the 1999, 2003 and 2004 seasons. The Bruins also won three Pac-10 titles during that span (1999, 2002, 2006) and in 2004 were named the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year.

Inouye-Perez's primary responsibility as an assistant coach was guiding the Bruins' pitchers and catchers, a list which includes many of the most honored and recognizable names in college softball. Behind the dish, where Inouye-Perez also starred as a three-time All-Pac-10 honoree during her playing days at UCLA, she helped mold and influence arguably the best catcher in the history of USA Softball in Stacey Nuveman. Under Inouye-Perez's tutelage, Nuveman became a three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, four-time NFCA First Team All-American and the NCAA's all-time single-season and career home run leader.

At least one NFCA All-America award was earned by a UCLA pitcher in 12 of her 13 assistant coaching campaigns. That list includes Pac-10 Pitchers of the Year Courtney Dale (1999) and Keira Goerl (2003), DeeDee Weiman, four-time Olympian Tanya Harding and two-time Olympian Amanda Freed.

As a player, Inouye-Perez was an exceptionally strong fielder. She made her mark immediately as a collegiate player, earning All-Pac-10 First Team as a true freshman and Second Team as a sophomore, leading the Bruins to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Championships before receiving a medical redshirt in 1991 due to shoulder surgery.

She came back strong in 1992, picking up All-Pac-10 Second Team honors as the Bruins once again won the national championship and finished with a 54-2 record, the fewest losses in a season in program history. Inouye-Perez also was named to the 1992 All-Women's College World Series Team, going 5-for-12 (.417) with four RBI during WCWS play. She wrapped up her career as a fifth-year senior in 1993 with an NCAA runner-up finish. Impressively, Inouye-Perez did not commit a single fielding error during her final two seasons.

Among the UCLA pitchers during her five seasons as a player were Lisa Longaker and Lisa Fernandez, both of whom were named to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary Team. During her UCLA career, Inouye-Perez played in 22 Women's College World Series games, a mark that is tied for third-best in UCLA history behind only Lisa Fernandez and Kristy Howard (23).

Prior to college, Inouye-Perez was one of the top players during her ASA days, winning four national championships with the Panthers (1984, 1985, 1989) and the Raiders (1986). She also competed on an international level in Japan in 1985 and in Peru in 1987 (Pan American Qualifier) and followed her collegiate career with time playing on the NPF Pro Tour.

Inouye-Perez graduated from UCLA in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and earned her master's degree in physical education from Azusa Pacific University in 2004.

Inouye-Perez and her husband, Gerardo Perez, reside in Cerritos. Along with Kelly's exploits on the diamond, Gerardo competed as a catcher and designated hitter for Cerritos College from 1988-90 and helped lead the Falcons to the 1989 Junior College National Championship. After a stellar career at Cerritos, he went on to compete at Loyola Marymount, earning All-West Coast Conference First Team honors his junior and senior seasons. He currently teaches and coaches baseball at Gahr High School in Cerritos. The couple has two children, Mikey, a former standout on the UCLA baseball team, and Kylie, a soccer player at Long Beach State. Mikey was drafted in Round 15 of the 2021 MLB Draft with the 459th pick by the Minnesota Twins organization.

Fernandez before first pitch at the 2024 Women's College World Series.

BIOGRAPHY

One of the most recognizable names in the sport of softball, Lisa Fernandez begins her 27th season on the UCLA coaching staff and third season as the Mark Kalmansohn UCLA Associate Head Softball Coach in 2025. This marks Fernandez's second stint as a full-time member on the UCLA staff, serving as an assistant coach from 1997-99 and 2007-22 and associate head coach from 2023-pres. She also operated as a volunteer assistant from 2000-04.

The last two seasons, Fernandez's primarily responsibilities have been with the Bruins' hitters and infielders as well as managing the team's recruiting efforts.

In Fernandez's 26 seasons on staff, the Bruins have posted a 1,212-259-2 record (.822), claimed five NCAA Championships (1999, '03, '04, '10 and '19), made 12 Women's College World Series appearances, won seven Pac-10/12 Conference regular season titles and one Pac-12 Tournament championship. Fernandez has been a member of the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year three times (2004, '10 and '19) and NFCA Regional CSOY eight times (2000, '10, '14, '15, '16, '19, '21 and '24).

Arguably the most decorated athlete in the sport, Fernandez announced she is taking on a new endeavor as one of four general managers in the inaugural year of the Athletes Unlimited Softball League, starting June 2025.

Prior to 2024, Fernandez's primary coaching responsibility was in the Bruins' bullpen where she coached 10 UCLA hurlers to 21 NFCA All-America awards. UCLA finished top 10 nationally and top two in the Pac-12 in earned run average in each of her final five seasons as pitching coach from 2019-23. Under her tutelage, Rachel Garcia won two Honda Cups, three Honda Sport Awards, two USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year awards, one NFCA National Player of the Year award, one NFCA National Pitcher of the Year award, two Pac-12 Player of the Year awards, one Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year award and was a four-time NFCA All-American (three first team). In addition, Megan Faraimo won three NFCA All-America awards (two first team) and was honored as the program's first back-to-back Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year in 2022 and 2023 with the help of Fernandez.

In 2019, Garcia put on a performance for the ages in the circle to bring home the Bruins' 12th NCAA title. Garcia started and was the winning pitcher in all five games at the WCWS. She tossed a complete game in four of those contests, including a 10-inning shutout with 16 strikeouts versus Washington which she walked off with a three-run homer to give herself the win. In total, Garcia threw 36.0 of UCLA's 38.0 innings in Oklahoma City.

In November 2013, Fernandez was inducted into the National Softball National Hall of Fame, joining Sharron Backus, Gina Vecchione, Sheila Cornell-Douty, Dot Richardson and Sue Enquist. A decade prior, she was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003.

Fernandez is a three-time Olympic gold medalist, having helped Team USA to victories in the 1996, 2000 and 2004 Olympic Games. The only pitcher to appear in all three Olympic finals, Fernandez served as a threat on both sides of the plate. Overall, she achieved a 7-2 record throughout her Olympic career, allowing only 20 hits, seven walks and six runs (four earned) while striking out 93 over 74.2 innings. In addition to her pitching accolades, Fernandez maintained a .333 batting average overall in Atlanta, Sydney and Athens with three home runs, 15 RBI and 13 runs scored. A rare pitcher/hitter, Fernandez has the distinction of holding four individual Olympic records: most strikeouts in a game (25), fewest runs allowed, highest batting average (.545) in Olympic play and most doubles (3). These accolades helped land her in the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Hall of Fame as both an individual and with the 2004 U.S. Olympic Softball Team.

In 1996, Fernandez shined in the United States' 3-1 gold medal victory over China, recording the final three outs to earn a save. She went 1-1 with a 0.33 ERA in softball's inaugural appearance in the Olympics in Atlanta. In the 2000 Sydney Games, Fernandez pitched the U.S. to victory in both the semifinal win over Australia and the gold medal game against Japan. She established an Olympic single-game strikeout record with 25 in a round-robin game against Australia and posted a 0.47 ERA and 52 strikeouts. In 2004, Fernandez was Team USA's top hitter and pitcher, posting a .545 batting average (12-for-22), which set a new record for an Olympic tournament. For the third-consecutive Games, she was in the circle for the final out of the gold medal contest, a 5-1 victory over Australia. Fernandez was selected as an alternate to the 2008 Olympics in Beijing.

In 1999, Fernandez was named the ASA/USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year. As a pitcher and third baseman, she helped the USA Softball Women's National Team to gold medals at both the Pan American Games and Canada Cup. She also helped the California Commotion win the ASA Women's Major Fast Pitch championship for the fourth consecutive time.

One of the sport's greatest college players, Fernandez was a two-time NCAA Champion and the first four-time NFCA First Team All-American in school history while starring for UCLA from 1990-93. A three-time winner of the Honda Sport Award, Fernandez became the first softball player to win the prestigious Honda-Broderick Cup in 1993, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports. She led UCLA to national championships in 1990 and 1992 and a pair of runner-up finishes in 1991 and 1993. She earned NFCA All-Region and All-Pac-10 First Team each season and was named the Pac-10 Player of the Year her final three years. Her jersey was retired by UCLA in 1995. Fernandez was also honored as the Pac-12 Softball Player of the Century and Pitcher of the Century by the league in 2016.

With a minuscule 0.22 ERA, Fernandez went 93-7 with 784 strikeouts. Her ERA ranks second in NCAA history and her 74 shutouts are tops at UCLA and tied for ninth in the NCAA annals. In her junior and senior seasons, Fernandez had the lowest ERA in the nation (0.14 in 1992, 0.25 in 1993), sporting a perfect 29-0 mark in '92. She tossed 11 career no-hitters, including a pair in the 1993 WCWS, along with two perfect games. She ranks second in UCLA history in ERA, seventh in strikeouts and eighth in wins.

Fernandez was just as powerful at the plate, batting .382 (287-for-752) with 15 home runs and 128 runs batted in. She hit .401 in her junior season, but eclipsed that mark by more than 100 points in her senior campaign, batting an NCAA-best .510 with 11 homers and 45 RBI. Fernandez ranks in the UCLA top 10 in numerous offensive categories, including sixth in hits.

Fernandez completed her bachelor's degree in psychology from UCLA in 1995. She returned to the program in 2007 to join her longtime best friend and Bruin batterymate Kelly Inouye-Perez embarking on her first year as head coach.

Fernandez and Mike Lujan, who were married in August 2002, have two sons, Antonio and Cruz, and reside in Long Beach.

2nd Season

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year (2024)
- Pac-12 Regular Season Champion (2024)
- Pac-12 Tournament Champion (2024)
- One Women's College World Series appearance (2024)

BIOGRAPHY

Rob Schweyer, one of the brightest and most innovative minds in training softball pitchers, enters his second year as an assistant coach at UCLA in 2025.

Schweyer helped UCLA turn a 3-4 start into a 43-12 finish and return to the WCWS his first year with the program in 2024. The Bruins claimed the Pac-12 Conference regular season and tournament titles behind a 14-game winning streak stretching from late April through May. The performance earned Schweyer, who coached the Bruins' young pitching duo of freshman Kaitlyn Terry and sophomore Taylor Tinsley, his first NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year accolade. Terry and Tinsley broke out as rising stars in the circle as they steered UCLA in its run to the WCWS. In UCLA's eight NCAA Tournament games, Terry and Tinsley pitched two shutouts, allowed just one run in four different contests and totaled a 1.71 ERA over 49.0 innings. On the season, the two All-Pac-12 First Team selections pitched 329.1 of 355.0 total innings and recorded a combined 2.16 ERA with 327 strikeouts.

Terry was awarded Pac-12 Freshman of the Year after leading the staff with a 21-3 record and 182.0 innings pitched and ranking second in the Pac-12 with six shutouts. Tinsley led the Bruins' arms with a 1.90 ERA and 166 strikeouts. The top pitching performance of the season came in a pivotal series at then-No. 5 Stanford on April 19-21. Together, Tinsley and Terry limited the Cardinal to just four runs over three games and ousted USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year NiJaree Canady twice to grab hold of first place in the Pac-12 standings. Tinsley held Stanford to 0-for-17 with RISP and pitched 15.2 scoreless innings, earning her NFCA National Pitcher of the Week honors.

Schweyer has been an elite competitor in men's professional fastpitch the last 24 years, earning International Softball Congress (ISC) All-World First Team acclaim three times in 2000, 2001 and 2010 and Second Team his rookie year in 1999 as a member of the Waterloo Twins. He won two ISC World Tournament Championships with the Broken Bow Travelers in 2001 and another with The Farm Tavern in 2007. Schweyer has 30 career ISC wins and is still playing for the Fargo Kegel Black Knights. On Aug. 15, 2023, it was announced Schweyer will be inducted into the ISC Hall of Fame.

Schweyer has traveled all over the globe in his softball expertise. He competed for the Canada men's fastpitch national team from 2000-04. From 2006-08, Schweyer was the pitching and strength and conditioning coach for the Chinese Olympic softball team which placed fifth in the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics.

He has worked the last 14 years as a personal instructor. From 2011-14, Schweyer was a trainer for USA Preps Softball Academy in Camarillo, Calif. Since then, he has worked for his own athletic training organization based in Hermosa Beach, RS Sports Training, where he helped develop UCLA softball pitchers Megan Faraimo, Brooke Yanez and Taylor Tinsley.

Schweyer enters his second season as UCLA's pitching coach in 2025.

Schweyer, 49 years old, was born in Simcoe, Ontario, Canada, and attended University of Western Ontario before leaving to play professional hockey in the East Coast Hockey League (EHL) from 1999-08 which overlapped with his professional softball career.

Schweyer is married to his wife, Janina, and has two sons, Blake and Brody.

BIOGRAPHY

Madilyn "Bubba" Nickles-Camarena, one of the most decorated hitters in UCLA softball history, begins her collegiate coaching career as an assistant on the Bruins' staff in 2025.

Nickles-Camarena, who is transitioning from her role as a graduate assistant coach in 2024, has succeeded on the sport's biggest stages. In 2021, Nickles-Camarena was a silver medalist at the Tokyo Olympic Games for Team USA, playing in two games and making one start in right field before returning to UCLA for the spring college season. Two years prior, she helped the Bruins to a record 12th NCAA Championship in 2019 as the team leader in hits (82), home runs (18), runs batted in (72) and slugging percentage (.714). Nickles-Camarena earned NFCA Second Team All-America honors in 2019 and finished her UCLA playing career as a three-time All-Pac-12 recipient.

The past three summers, Nickles-Camarena has played professionally in the Athletes Unlimited League where she was crowned the 2024 Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball AUX Champion on the final day of the AUX. In three seasons of Athletes Unlimited Championship play, Nickles-Camarena recorded a career .289 batting average (50-for-173), 10 home runs and 44 RBI in 54 games (excludes AUX play).

Internationally, Nickles-Camarena competed with the Toyota Motor Company for two seasons, in 2022 and 2023, and won a Japan Diamond League Championship her final year. She ranked among league leaders with a .390 batting average during the 2022 campaign, hitting eight home runs and recording 22 RBI.

Nickles-Camarena was a four-year letterwinner at UCLA, starting 215 of 217 games played from 2017-2021. She finished her career with a .357 batting average (235-for-659), 52 home runs, 42 doubles, 181 RBI and 154 runs scored. Nickles-Camarena's 2019 season stands as one of the best ever by a Bruin. Her 66 runs scored and 72 RBI rank fourth in UCLA single-season history while her 21-game hitting streak stretch from March through May ranks as the fourth longest.

Nickles-Camarena set and tied several program NCAA Tournament records in her time as a Bruin. In UCLA's 2019 title run, she set the record for most doubles in a postseason (5) and tied the record for most runs scored (13). She tied the record for most hits the previous postseason with 16.

Nickles-Camarena graduated from UCLA with a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2021 and earned her master's degree in 2024.

Prior to UCLA, Nickles-Camarena was a four-year starter at Merced High School where she was named the Gatorade National Softball Player of the Year as a senior. A two-way player, she finished her prep career with a 67-12 record, 1.05 ERA, 31 shutouts, 11 no-hitters, 809 strikeouts and 524.2 innings in the circle and a .487 batting average, 25 homers, 134 RBI and 56 doubles at the plate.

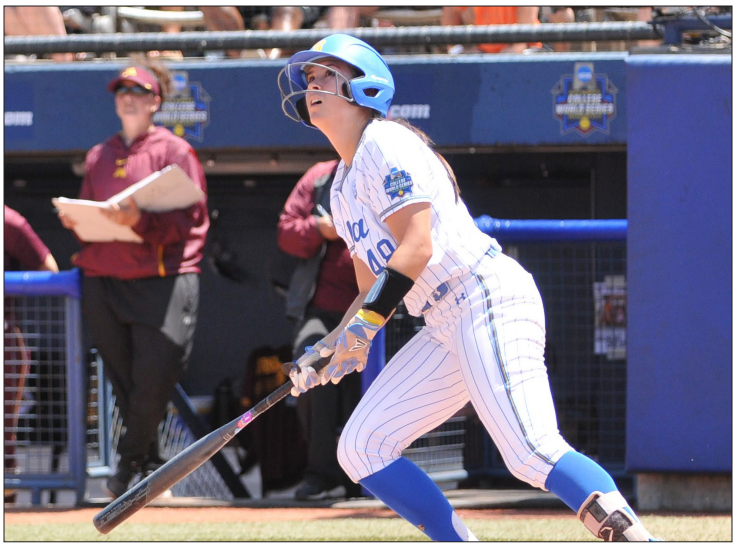

Nickles-Camarena married her husband, Evan, in March 2024. She has gone by the nickname "Bubba" since she was 12 years old.

NICKLES-CAMARENA'S COACHING EXPERIENCE

2024 – Graduate Assistant Coach, UCLA
2025 – Assistant Coach, UCLA

Nickles served as a graduate assistant coach in 2024.

Nickles competed for the Bruins from 2017-21 and helped UCLA win the 2019 NCAA title.

- 12-time Conference Regular Season Champion (11 at UCLA, 1 at Oregon State)
- Pac-12 Tournament Champion (2024)

BIOGRAPHY

Kirk Walker, one of the most visible and vocal advocates for diversity and inclusion in sports, transitions into a new role in his 24th year at UCLA as the Director of Softball Administration in 2025. Walker was instrumental in building the foundation for the UCLA softball dynasty, winning a total of seven NCAA Championships and making 18 Women's College World Series appearances as an assistant coach from 1984-94 and 2013-22 and associate head coach from 2023-24.

The Bruins won NCAA titles in 1984, '85, '88, '89, '90, '92 and '19 with Walker on the coaching staff.

Walker finished his 23-year UCLA coaching career with an 828-156-1 record (.840), 11 conference regular season titles and one Pac-12 Tournament championship. Known for tossing Jolly Ranchers to home run hitters as the Bruins' third base coach, Walker was a member of the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2019 and the NFCA West Region CSOY six times in 2014, '15, '16, '19, '21 and '24. Across Walker's two stints, UCLA received 61 NFCA All-America awards, three Honda Cups, 10 Honda Sport Awards, two USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year awards, one NFCA National Player of the Year award, 14 Pac-10/12 Player of the Year awards, 127 all-conference selections (118 All-Pac-10/12) and 11 CoSIDA Academic All-America honors.

Walker started his collegiate coaching career as an undergraduate assistant at UCLA in 1984 and was on staff for 11 seasons before leaving to be the head coach at Oregon State. In his first stint at UCLA, he worked closely with the Bruins' pitchers and played a large role in developing all-time greats Debbie Doom, Tracy Compton and Lisa Fernandez, among others.

Walker coached 18 seasons at Oregon State from 1995-12 and still stands as the all-time winningest coach in program history with a 594-490-3 record (.548). The Beavers experienced their greatest stretch of success with Walker at the helm, registering eight seasons of at least 40 wins and making the postseason 10 times.

Two of Oregon State's most prolific teams in 2005 and 2006 were coached by Walker and later inducted into the Oregon State University Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2006, Walker led the Beavers to their first WCWS appearance as Oregon State posted a school-record, 28-game winning streak and reached No. 5 in the national rankings with a 43-16 mark. In 2005, he was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year for the second time in his career (1999) after guiding Oregon State to a 43-16 record and its first Pac-10 Championship, which was also the first regular-season Pac-10 title for any Beavers women's sports program. The most wins in a season for Oregon State came in 1999, when the Beavers had 47 victories and went to the postseason for the first time in program history. Along with his Pac-10 Coach of the Year award, Walker's staff was named the Speedline Pacific Region Co-Coaching Staff of the Year. Under Walker's tutelage, the Beavers earned 33 All-Pac-10/12 Team honors, 10 NFCA All-America awards and 26 NFCA All-Region accolades. Oregon State also received 46 All-Pac-10/12 and two NFCA All-Region Honorable Mention awards during Walker's tenure.

Walker announced his return to Westwood on Aug. 7, 2012.

Walker has earned coaching acclaim away from the collegiate level. Most recently, Walker helped organized and coach the Finland Softball Women's National Team in 2022, which secured its first international play win against Turkey at the WBSC European Championships. During the summer of 2017, he was an assistant coach on the USA Softball Junior Women's National Team which won gold at the WBSC Junior Women's World Championship. Walker was named one of 12 coaches to form the USA Softball Women's National Team Coaches Pool through the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens. He served as an assistant for the USA Elite Team for three summers (2002-04) and also assisted the USA Red National Team during the summer of 2001.

On the professional level, Walker was the head coach for the four-time ASA Women's Major National Fastpitch Champion California Commotion from 1996-99.

Walker has spent the entirety of his career pushing for the advancement and support of diversity, equity and inclusion in sports. He is one of the founders of the Equality Coaching Alliance and the LGBTIQ+ Human Rights Sports Coalition and serves as a founding board member for the non-profit Sports Equality Foundation. Walker is also the coordinator of the National Fastpitch Coaches Association's (NFCA) LGBTQ+ Convention Session. He was named as one of the top 100 most powerful and influential LGBTQ people in sports by Outsports in October 2024.

One of the sport's biggest entrepreneurial minds, Walker is a co-founder and owner for college softball's premier early-season tournament, the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic. Walker has organized the event for the last 20 years, bringing thousands of fans to the Palm Springs area to inspire future generations of female athletes.

Walker has fought for safety and rules clarity in a variety of roles with the NFCA, including four years as a member of the Executive Board. Walker also spent six years on the Regional Advisory Committee, three years on the NCAA Playing and Practice Rules Committee and has been a presenter at numerous NFCA conventions for the past 20 years. He co-authored the American Sport Education Program's (ASEP) Coaching Softball Technical and Tactical Skills, which helps teach basics and intangibles in softball.

Walker also boasts a successful men's fastpitch playing career. He was named the Most Valuable Pitcher in the summer of 2015 after winning his first national championship as a player at the North America Fastpitch Association (NAFA) Men's Masters 40-and-over National Championships in Carson City, Nev. He claimed his second national title in the summer of 2019 and was named to the All-World Team for a sixth time.

Before UCLA, Walker started his coaching career in the early 1980s as a travel ball coach for his sister, Karen Walker, who would later play for the Bruins. Walker earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1988. The Woodland Hills, Calif. native has an adopted daughter, Ava, with his ex-partner.

WILL OLDHAM

Director of Player Development & Data Analytics

3rd Season

Will Oldham enters his third season on staff and first as a full-time member in 2025, serving as the Director of Player Development and Data Analytics. Oldham previously operated as a volunteer in the same position in 2024 and a volunteer assistant coach in 2023.

Oldham specializes in scouting and working with the Bruins' hitters. In two years on staff, Oldham owns a record of 95-19 (.833), two Pac-12 Conference regular season titles, a Pac-12 Tournament championship and one Women's College World Series appearance.

Oldham helped UCLA turn a 3-4 start into a 43-12 finish and return to the WCWS in 2024. The performance earned Oldham his first NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year recognition. The season was highlighted by a 14-game winning streak stretching from late April through May, resulting in the program's last Pac-12 regular season and Pac-12 Tournament championships and a 5-0 mark in NCAA Regional and Super Regional play. Oldham worked closely with NFCA All-Americans Maya Brady and Sharlize Palacios. Palacios hit five of her team-leading 20 home runs in the NCAA Tournament and earned Pac-12 Tournament MVP honors. Brady was named Pac-12 Player of the Year for a second straight season in 2024, leading UCLA with a .418 batting average and 68 RBI.

The Bruins posted a 52-7 record and clinched the Pac-12 regular season championship in Oldham's first year on staff in 2023. Three of UCLA's hitters – Brady, Megan Grant and Jordan Woolery – earned NFCA All-America status. Grant and Woolery, a pair of NFCA Freshman of the Year Top 10 finalists, combined for 104 RBI for the most by a freshman duo in UCLA history. Brady claimed her first Pac-12 Player of the Year trophy and was named a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 3 Finalist after setting career benchmarks in batting average (.448), home runs (18) and slugging percentage (.866).

Prior to working at UCLA, Oldham played with Director of Softball Administration Kirk Walker on their men's fastpitch softball team as a pitcher and shortstop for three years. Oldham actively participates in a men's fastpitch league.

Oldham owns seven years of high school softball coaching experience in the Palm Springs area and has coached travel ball for two years. He has also coached UCLA softball summer camps in previous years.

Oldham, 38 years old, was born in Indio, Calif.

OLDHAM'S COACHING EXPERIENCE

2023 – Volunteer Assistant Coach, UCLA
2024 – Volunteer Director of Player Development & Data Analytics, UCLA
2025 – Director of Player Development & Data Analytics, UCLA

Walker served as an assistant and associate head coach at UCLA for 23 years.

Oldham made his first appearance at the Women's College World Series in 2024.

CLAIRE DONYANAVARD
Director of Operations
10th Season
UIC '11

Claire Donyanavard enters her 10th season working with the UCLA softball program in 2025. She begins her 11th total year for UCLA Athletics.

As the Director of Operations, Donyanavard is responsible for all internal operations for the softball program and serves as a liaison between the coaches and department administrators. Donyanavard is involved in the day-to-day operations of the team, including finances, travel, meals ticketing, housing, financial aid, alumni meetings and parking.

During Donyanavard's tenure at UCLA, the Bruins have made eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including seven trips to the Women's College World Series. She was a member of the staff when UCLA won the 2019 NCAA Championship.

Donyanavard spent three seasons with the UCLA gymnastics team from 2017-19 operating in the same role. Prior to UCLA, Donyanavard was the director of operations at Occidental College's softball program.

A native of Saugus, Calif., Donyanavard played four years of softball at University of Illinois-Chicago. She earned her bachelor's degree in creative writing with a minor in gender studies and sociology at UIC in 2011. She later earned her master's degree in business administration with an emphasis in sports management from Long Beach State in 2016.

Janice Lee
Staff Athletic Trainer
1st Season
Washington '14

Lee enters her seventh year in the UCLA athletic training office and her first season as the athletic trainer for the UCLA softball team.

Lee handles all day-to-day athletic training responsibilities and oversees multiple sports medicine interns. She also splits athletic training duties with UCLA's men's and women's track and field programs.

Her tasks include planning student-athletes' daily physical rehabilitation, monitoring return-to-play progression and performing physical treatments. Lee is on-site for the majority of the Bruins' practices.

Prior to UCLA, Lee spent two years at UC Davis where she provided comprehensive medical coverage for the Aggies' men's and women's cross country and track and field programs.

Lee earned her bachelor's degree in biology from the University of Washington in 2014. While in Seattle, Lee was an athletic training student intern as well as a communications intern, writing articles for gohuskies.com in addition to interviewing athletes and handling miscellaneous gameday duties.

Lee later earned her master's degree in athletic training from the University of Arkansas where she assisted the Razorbacks' softball, football and track and field teams.

1st Season
Wyzsza Szkola Gospodarki '14

Zuzanna Czyznielewska enters her first year in the UCLA athletic performance office and first season as the athletic performance coach for the UCLA softball team.

Zuzanna oversees all aspects of the softball team's strength and conditioning program. Her day-to-day assignments include planning workouts, sports science nutrition and leading the Bruins in workout regiments in the Acosta Training Center as well as up at Easton Stadium.

Zuzanna also manages the same responsibilities for UCLA's women's volleyball and women's golf programs.

Prior to UCLA, Zuzanna spent one year as the strength and conditioning coach at Middle Tennessee State University, working primarily for the Raiders' women's volleyball, women's tennis and men's and women's cross country programs. In 2022, Zuzanna served as an intern for the University of Wisconsin-Madison athletic department's strength and conditioning office.

From 2020-22, Zuzanna served as Head Strength and Conditioning Coach for the U17, U18, U19 and U20 Polish Junior National Volleyball Teams. She traveled across the globe with these teams, touching ground in Macedonia, Slovakia, Mexico, Belgium and the Netherlands.

A former professional and national team volleyball player, Zuzanna was a member of the Polish Women's National Team from 2009-12. As a professional, Zuzanna competed for seven years in the Polish Volleyball Professional League with three different clubs.

Zuzanna received her bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education/exercise science from Wyzsza Szkola Gospodarki University in Bydgoszcz, Poland.

Zuzanna is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and USA Weightlifting Level 1 Sports Performance Coach.

DEREK MOOS
Equipment Manager
3rd Season
Eastern Michigan '15

Derek Moos enters his third year as the manager of the UCLA equipment office and his third season working directly with the UCLA softball team in 2025.

Moos manages the day-to-day equipment and apparel needs of UCLA's softball and women's soccer teams. This includes supplying uniforms and practice gear. As the Associate Athletics Director of Equipment Operations, Moos manages the apparel needs of the entire UCLA Athletics department.

Moos spent five years working in equipment for Pittsburgh Athletics where he oversaw the department and managed the daily needs of the Panthers' football program. Prior to that, he was Eastern Michigan for five years, three of which he dedicated as a director of operations for the baseball program. Moos was also a clubhouse attendant for the Detroit Tigers baseball organization for five years.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business management from Eastern Michigan in 2015 and his master's degree in sport management in 2017.

Moos' hometown is Dearborn Heights, Mich.

VINNY LAVALSITI
Athletic Communications
4th Season
UCLA '20

Vinny Lavalsiti enters his fourth year in the UCLA athletic communications office in 2025 and fourth season as the contact for the UCLA softball team.

Lavalsiti oversees all aspects of media relations with the softball program, handling day-to-day interview and credential requests, editing various publications (including the information guide) and overseeing the team's website (www.uclabruins.com/sports/softball) and social media accounts. He also serves as a contact in the athletic communications office for UCLA's football and women's golf programs.

Prior to returning to UCLA, Lavalsiti spent one year at the University of Texas at El Paso as a graduate assistant in 2021. There, he was the primary media contact for UTEP's volleyball, softball, rifle and women's basketball programs.

Lavalsiti graduated from UCLA in June 2020, earning a bachelor's degree in history. Lavalsiti spent his two years at UCLA as a writer for the Daily Bruin, covering UCLA's softball, women's basketball, cross country and track and field programs. He earned his associate's degree in journalism from Grossmont College in El Cajon, Calif. in 2018. Lavalsiti, 26, is a native of Sutter Creek, Calif.

Sandman oversees and directs presentation efforts, including in-game promotions, giveaways, game day atmosphere and video board and PA announcer operations. In addition to working with the softball program, Sandman is the marketing lead for UCLA's women's and men's volleyball programs.

Sandman graduated from UCLA in 2022 with a bachelor's degree in political science. He interned in the marketing office during his junior and senior years. Sandman, originally from Sacramento, Calif., attended Jesuit High School.

MARTIN JARMOND

Director of Athletics
5th Year at UCLA
UNC-Wilmington '01

Martin Jarmond, a nationally recognized leader in college athletics, has built an impressive track record of competitive excellence, innovative strategy and student athlete success. A two-time recipient of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Award with over 20 years in sports administration spanning three conferences, Jarmond has guided UCLA to new heights through his culture of an E.L.I.T.E. mindset – Energy, Leadership, Integrity, Toughness and Excellence.

Jarmond's results-driven strategies combined with a relentless work ethic to elevate UCLA Athletics has helped to create an exceptional experience for student-athletes and fans alike. Over Jarmond's first four years in Westwood, UCLA has won five NCAA championships in the sports of men's water polo (2020), women's soccer (2022), men's volleyball (2023, 2024) and women's water polo (2024). In the 2023-24 school year alone, UCLA had five teams competing on the final day for an NCAA Championship, with victories in men's volleyball and women's water polo in an eight-day span in May.

In June of 2022, Jarmond worked closely with campus leadership while playing a critical role in UCLA Athletics applying and being accepted for future membership in the Big Ten Conference. The Bruins begin their historic first season in the Big Ten Conference on August 2, 2024.

Jarmond was hired on May 19, 2020 as UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics, becoming the ninth athletic director in school history. He made an immediate impact on the Bruins, jumpstarting the Voting Matters Initiative, the first of its kind in the country which assisted student-athletes in discovering the tools needed to exact meaningful change through civic duty. Jarmond engineered a partnership between UCLA and Nike/Jordan Brand, becoming only the fifth Jordan brand school in the nation and the first partnership with Nike in UCLA history. The six-year agreement between UCLA and Nike provides for 22 of the 25 UCLA varsity sports with Nike apparel, while football, men's basketball and women's basketball don Jordan Brand. Jarmond exhibits a strong commitment to mental health awareness, and his emphasis on diversity and inclusion was recognized in a 2021 SBJ award for being a national leader in diversity and inclusive hiring. He was the Pac-12 Conference representative to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for 2021-22.

Through Jarmond's instrumental leadership, UCLA Athletics has positioned itself at the forefront of a rapidly-changing collegiate athletics landscape. In the burgeoning area of Name, Image and Likeness (NIL), Jarmond and UCLA Athletics launched "Westwood Ascent," a comprehensive NIL program that supports UCLA's student-athletes, helping them build their personal brands and maximize their NIL opportunities. In addition, the "Westwood Exchange" was established as a free business registry designed for companies, donors, fans and alumni that want to connect directly with UCLA's student-athletes interested in capitalizing on their NIL.

Extensive work by Jarmond and his staff throughout the COVID-19 pandemic ensured that all Bruin teams could compete safely during the 2020-21 academic year, Jarmond's first at UCLA. Bruin teams won four conference titles that year and the men's water polo program won its 12th national championship in the spring of 2021. The men's basketball team embarked on a remarkable journey, advancing from the First Four to the 2021 NCAA Final Four, UCLA's first national semifinal appearance since 2008. These athletic achievements were balanced by record numbers of student-athletes earning spots on the conference all-academic squads, with 49 individuals earning a perfect 4.0 GPA for the Winter Quarter, and 131 student-athletes earning their UCLA degrees. For the first time ever, the Bruins produced multiple winners of the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Four student-athletes were recognized by CoSIDA as Academic All-Americans.

Jarmond came to UCLA from Boston College, where he served as the school's Director of Athletics for three years. During his time there, he orchestrated the Eagles' first-ever strategic plan, a comprehensive five-year goal to advance the program by fostering student-athlete formation, strengthening competitive excellence, increasing external engagement and enhancing facilities. The strategic plan was supported by BC's first-ever athletics-only capital campaign, at the time, the largest campaign of any Atlantic Coast Conference institution at $150 million. Jarmond hired high-impact coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, volleyball, swimming & diving, men's soccer, women's soccer and fencing. Jarmond served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee and on the John McLendon Minority Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors.

Prior to joining Boston College in 2017 and becoming the youngest athletic director of any Power Five institution at age 37, Jarmond previously served as deputy director of athletics at Ohio State, moving up the ranks after arriving as an associate athletic director for development in 2009. During his time at Ohio State, he was the lead administrator for a variety of sports, including football and men's basketball, and directed external and internal relations and day-today operations. He also had responsibility for football scheduling, served on the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee, and was a member of the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee. As Ohio State Athletics' chief advancement officer, Jarmond helped raise more than $120 million between 2010-2012.

Jarmond was also an assistant athletic director for development for seven years at Michigan State, where he served on the athletic director's executive leadership team. He was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team and a liaison between Michigan State's university development and alumni association leadership. Jarmond led the efforts to implement Scholarship Seating in football and Courtside seating in men's basketball.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jarmond, 43, earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. A two-year captain of the men's basketball team, he led his team to the program's first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2000 and earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic honors in 2001. He holds both a M.B.A. and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University. Jarmond is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist. They have three daughters: Scarlett, Savannah and Serena.

Dr. CHRISTINA RIVERA

Deputy Athletics Director/Chief Administrative Officer/SWA
18th Year at UCLA
UC Irvine '96

Dr. Christina Munger-Rivera serves as the Deputy Athletics Director/Chief Administrative Officer/Senior Woman Administrator (SWA) at UCLA, having joined the staff in September 2007.

In her role, Dr. Rivera directly supervises Women's Gymnastics, Softball, administrative areas and leads department efforts, especially in the areas of internal operations, Title IX, women in sport, governance and legislation, department meetings, campus partnerships, and performance evaluation and program assessment. As a member of the Executive Team reporting directly to the Director of Athletics, she serves in a leadership role for coaches and staff, and works towards establishing department goals and policies that align with University values.

Additionally, Dr. Rivera collaborates with University officials to provide guidance and direction to coaches and staff in order to enhance the growth and development of student-athletes on and off the field. In the face of changing NCAA legislation, she also works to develop strategic and innovative programs that benefit the department and are executed in a consistent, efficient and professional manner throughout the support services areas. Her role also requires her to exercise broad discretionary authority to solve problems in assigned areas of responsibility, including working closely with the Chief Financial Officer to ensure the department is consistently providing a quality student-athlete experience and that the principles of equity, diversity and inclusion are embedded in all UCLA varsity programs.

Prior to her current role, Dr. Rivera was the Associate Athletic Director responsible for the academic and student support services provided to Bruin student-athletes. This included academic counseling, academic mentoring, peer learning, student services and student-athlete development programming. She also had direct oversight of the academic eligibility certification process and the requirements associated with the NCAA Academic Progress Rate and Graduation Success Rate.

Dr. Rivera joined the Bruins after spending four years as the Associate Director and Eligibility Coordinator for the Student-Athlete Academic Services Office at USC, where she also served as the Academic Counselor to the football, men's basketball, women's soccer and women's volleyball teams. Prior to her stint at USC, Dr. Rivera was an Athletic Academic Counselor for the Student-Athlete Support Services Office at Ohio State University. During her time in Columbus, she was also a lecturer for the School of Physical Activity and Educational Services, as well as for the Athletics Department.

Dr. Rivera has served on various campus, conference and national committees, including serving on the NCAA Student-Athlete Experience Committee and Board of Directors for the Collegiate Women Sports Awards, which honors the nation's top NCAA women student-athletes recognizing superior athletic skills, leadership, academic excellence and eagerness to participate in community service. She is also a graduate of the Sport Management Institute (SMI) and LEAD1 Institute. In July 2021, she was honored as one of the 12 inaugural members of the LEAD1 Diversity Fellowship Program, a year-long opportunity for people of color and female administrators evaluated by a panel of experts as the industry's most ready to assume an athletics director position. To add, she was a recipient of the Next Level Female Executive Scholarship to attend the 2021 Collegiate Athletic Leadership Symposium (CALS).

She is a member of the National Association of Academic and Student-Athlete Development Professionals (N4A) and Women Leaders in College Sports. In June 2007, she received the N4A Professional Promise Award presented to a member who has dedicated their energy to the Association and its members. She has also presented at several conferences in regards to factors related to academic achievement and student-athlete retention, as well as the use of technology for reporting and increasing academic accountability in athletics.

Dr. Rivera earned her Doctor of Philosophy degree in Higher Education Administration at Ohio State University in August 2004, where her dissertation focused on the identification of key factors student-athletes perceived to be important to the college student-athlete retention process. She also earned her Master's degree in Educational Policy from the University of Pennsylvania and her Bachelor's degree in Social Ecology at UC Irvine, where she was a varsity soccer student-athlete.

A native of Southern California, Dr. Rivera currently resides in Westchester with her spouse and two sons.

Dr. JULIO FRENK

Chancellor
1st Year at UCLA

Julio Frenk became the seventh chancellor of UCLA on January 1, 2025. He also holds an academic appointment as distinguished professor in the Department of Health Policy and Management within the UCLA Fielding School of Public Health. He is an accomplished university administrator and leading global health researcher who has held positions in government and academia, both in the U.S. and in Mexico.

Before becoming UCLA's chancellor, Frenk served as president of the University of Miami from 2015 to 2024, where he also held academic appointments as a tenured professor. Prior to joining the University of Miami, he served for almost seven years as dean of the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health and as the T & G Angelopoulos Professor of Public Health and International Development.

Frenk served as the federal secretary of health of Mexico from 2000 to 2006. In this role, he spearheaded an ambitious overhaul of the nation's health system, introducing Seguro Popular — a groundbreaking program of comprehensive universal health coverage that extended healthcare access to over 55 million previously uninsured individuals. He was also the founding director-general of Mexico's National Institute of Public Health and has held senior roles at the World Health Organization and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

Frenk earned his medical degree from the National University of Mexico, as well as a master of public health and a joint Ph.D. in medical care organization and in sociology from the University of Michigan. His scholarly production, which includes close to 200 articles in academic journals, as well as many books and book chapters, has been cited more than 37,000 times. In addition, he has written five novels for young people explaining the functions of the human body.

Frenk is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the U.S. National Academy of Medicine, the National Academy of Medicine of Mexico and El Colegio Nacional, the most prestigious learned society in Mexico. He has received numerous recognitions, including the Clinton Global Citizen Award, the Bouchet Medal for Outstanding Leadership from Yale University and the Welch-Rose Award for Distinguished Service from the Association of Schools and Programs of Public Health. In 2024, he was named one of TIME magazine's top Latino leaders for his contributions to public health and higher education.

#1 DOT RICHARDSON

Notes on Dot Richardson

One of the most recognizable names and faces in the history of collegiate softball, Dot Richardson's #1 UCLA jersey was retired in a pregame ceremony on May 1, 1999 prior to a doubleheader against Oregon.

Richardson played for the Bruins from 1981-83 and was a member of UCLA's 1982 NCAA Championship team. She led the Bruins in hits and batting average each season and was named an NFCA All-American at the conclusion of those three years, earning First Team honors as a junior and senior. Richardson hit above .300 all three years, including a career-best .379 average in her first season in Westwood in 1981. She posted a marvelous walk-to-strikeout ratio, drawing 73 walks to just 16 strikeouts in three campaigns. Richardson was also named to the All-Women's College World Series Team in 1982 and 1983 and was honored as the NCAA's Player of the Decade for the 1980's.

A 14-time Amateur Softball Association (ASA) All-America selection, Richardson also earned seven ASA Best Defensive Player honors and three ASA National Championship Most Valuable Player awards. A member of the USA National Team program from 1979-00, Richardson won a gold medal with the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team as a shortstop and was the second baseman on the gold-medal winning 2000 United States squad. Following the 1996 season, Richardson was named ASA Sportswoman of the Year.

In 1996, Richardson was the third softball player inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame. She was also enshrined in the National Softball Hall of Fame in 2006. Richardson earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA and is currently the head coach at Liberty University

#2 GINA VECCHIONE

Notes on Gina Vecchione

Gina Vecchione became the fourth UCLA softball player to have her jersey retired when she was honored prior to the Bruins' game against Oregon State on April 28, 2007.

As a player in Westwood, Vecchione earned NFCA All-Pacific Region honors in the outfield three straight campaigns (1980-82) and is one of 37 Bruins to receive the award at least three times. In 1981, she led the Bruins in doubles with 10 and tied for the team lead with three triples and 21 runs batted in. Vecchione again tied for the top spot in triples with four and RBI with 12 as a senior. In 1982, Vecchione was a member of the All-Women's College World Series team, as the Bruins won the inaugural NCAA Softball Championship. Following that season, Vecchione received NFCA Second Team All-America honors.

After the conclusion of her collegiate career, Vecchione played 12 seasons with the Raybestos Brakettes, winners of eight ASA titles and three World titles. Vecchione was named to the ASA All-America team seven times and was the top hitter at the 1988 national tournament with a .444 batting average. Vecchione earned softball's top honor in 1997 when she became the first UCLA player inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame.

Returning to her alma mater as an assistant coach in 2000, Vecchione, who is currently an assistant at Cal Poly, helped the Bruins reach the NCAA Championship game or series in six of her 13 seasons, winning back-to-back titles in 2003 and 2004, and another title in 2010. The Bruins amassed a 609-160-1 record during her 13 campaigns for a .792 winning percentage. During Vecchione's tenure, UCLA was tabbed as the NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 and 2004 and NFCA National CSOY in 2004 and 2010.

#6 SUE ENQUIST

Notes on Sue Enquist

In a surprise ceremony on April 29, 2000, the #6 jersey of former UCLA All-American and six-time national champion head coach Sue Enquist was retired prior to a game against California.

A four-year letterwinner from 1975-78, Enquist sparked the Bruins to their first national championship, an AIAW title in 1978, and was the tournament's leading hitter. Enquist led the team in batting average and doubles three times, triples twice and homers and RBI once. An All-American in 1978, she led the Bruins with a .391 average, 45 hits, two home runs and seven doubles. She was also named All-Region in 1976, 1977 and 1978. Enquist still stands fourth on UCLA's all-time list with a .401 career batting average (122-for-304).

A three-time ASA All-American for the Raybestos Brakettes, Enquist helped lead that team to four ASA National Championships (1976-78, 1980). She also enjoyed success as a player at the international level, earning gold medals at three National Sports Festivals, the 1978 World Championships and the 1979 Pan American Games.

Enquist spent just one season away from the Bruins following her collegiate playing career, returning to UCLA as an assistant coach in 1980. She held that position until 1989, when she was elevated to co-head coach. As co-head coach and head coach (1997-06), Enquist led the Bruins to six NCAA Championships. The first softball player to be inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993, the three-time National Coach of the Year was enshrined into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Hall of Fame in 2006. Enquist retired on Sept. 26, 2006 with an 887-175-1 career record.

#9 LISA LONGAKER

Notes on Lisa Longaker

In a ceremony on May 7, 2011 prior to a game against Arizona, Lisa Longaker's #9 jersey was retired, the fifth in program history.

A three-time NFCA First Team All-American and All-Region selection, Longaker was part of three straight NCAA Championships for the Bruins from 1988-90. She is also one of only nine Bruins to earn four first team all-conference honors and was a two-time Honda Award winner in 1988 and 1990 recognizing the sport's top player.

After making the Women's College World Series All-Tournament Team as a freshman in 1987, Longaker was the winning pitcher in the 1988 championship game against Fresno State, striking out three in a six-hit shutout, her 23rd blanking of the season. She posted an 18-1 record and a 0.64 earned run average the following season during the Bruins' second straight championship campaign. One year later, Longaker completed her collegiate career with another title, again going 18-1 with a 0.40 ERA.

Longaker sits in the all-time UCLA top 10 in all eight pitching categories, ranking fifth in saves (7), ERA (0.40), shutouts (61) and complete games (96), tied for seventh in innings pitched (725.2) and ninth in wins (89) and 11th in appearances (113) and strikeouts (698).

Longaker led the Bruins in ERA in 1987 (0.35) and 1988 (0.30), wins, strikeouts, shutouts, innings and complete games three times (1987, 1988 and 1990) and appearances every season. She tossed five no-hitters, including a perfect game, the ninth in program history, against Arizona State on April 7, 1990. A member of the NCAA All-Decade Team (1980s) and the NCAA 25th Anniversary Team, Longaker was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

#16 LISA FERNANDEZ

Notes on Lisa Fernandez

Lisa Fernandez's #16 jersey was the first number retired by the UCLA softball program in a ceremony prior to a doubleheader against California on April 22, 1995.

Fernandez, who enters her 27th year on the Bruins' coaching staff in 2025, played for UCLA from 1990-93, earning four NFCA First Team All-America honors, four All-Women's College World Series selections, three Pac-10 Player of the Year accolades and three Honda Sport Awards. In 1993, she became the first softball player to win the prestigious Honda-Broderick Cup, awarded to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in the nation.

As a senior in 1993, Fernandez led the country in both batting average (.510) and earned run average (0.25). Fernandez posted a 29-0 mark as a junior, a year in which she had a 0.14 ERA, the lowest mark by any player since that 1992 season. Fernandez also recorded a 42-game winning streak (Feb. 5, 1992-April 4, 1993), the second-longest winning streak in softball history. Her career .930 winning percentage (93-7) and 0.22 ERA rank her second in NCAA history. Fernandez, who hurled 11 career no-hitters, ranks in the UCLA top 10 in numerous offensive and pitching categories. On the hitting charts, she is sixth in hits (287) and 11th in batting average (.382), while pitching-wise she is seventh in strikeouts (784). Fernandez is also tops at UCLA in shutouts with 74, which places her tied for ninth in the NCAA annals.

An eight-time ASA All-American, Fernandez was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1990-08 and won Olympic gold medals with Team USA in 1996, 2000 and 2004. Fernandez was also enshrined in the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003 and the National Softball Hall of Fame in 2013.

#17 DEBBIE DOOM

Notes on Debbie Doom

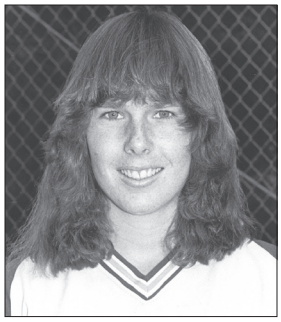

Bruin pitching great Debbie Doom became the sixth player in program history and latest to have her jersey retired when her #17 was enshrined on Feb. 15, 2014.

A three-time NFCA All-American and two-time First Team selection, Doom helped the Bruins to three NCAA Championships, earning the victory in the circle in the 1982, 1984 and 1985 title contests. The Most Valuable Player of the 1982 Women's College World Series, she struck out 12 in eight shutout innings against Fresno State. Doom was named All-WCWS in 1984 and 1985, fanning 15 in 13 spotless frames versus Texas A&M in 1984 and striking out 10 in nine innings against Nebraska in 1985. In her three championship game victories, Doom struck out 37 in 30 innings, allowing just one unearned run.

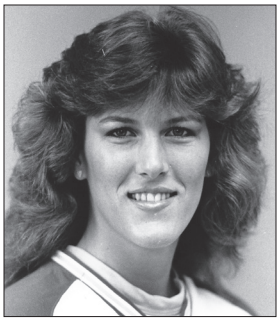

Doom is in the UCLA top 10 in six categories, ranking second with 66 shutouts, tied for third with a 0.29 earned run average, fourth with 952 strikeouts and 10th winning 73 games. Her best statistical season came in 1984 when she posted a 0.10 ERA and 24 wins, all shutouts. Doom led the Bruins in strikeouts and innings pitched all four seasons. She holds the single-game school record for strikeouts with 25, done three different times, and also tossed eight no-hitters, including a school-best six perfect games. The four-time NFCA All-Region honoree was the 1984 Honda Award winner, given to the sport's best player that season. She was named to the NCAA All-Decade Team for the 1980's and the NCAA 25th Anniversary Team. In 1995, Doom was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame.

BRUINS AND ATHLETES UNLIMITED

Launching in May 2025, the Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) is a professional women's softball league operating in a traditional format. In its inaugural year, the league will feature four teams competing in a 30-game season with games in 6-8 different cities. The AUSL will become a city-based league beginning in 2026. Several Bruins who competed in the points-based AU Pro Softball Championship Season (regular season) and AUX Season (condensed season) the past five years have entered their name into the first AUSL Draft on Jan. 29, 2025.

UCLA greats Lisa Fernandez, Stacey Nuveman-Deniz and Natasha Watley are serving key leadership and advising roles to help kickstart the AUSL. Fernandez will be one of four general managers, being assigned to the Talons. Nuveman-Deniz will be the first head coach for the Bandits. Watley has signed on as an advisor, consulting with AU leadership and current athletes on the direction of the new league.

BRUINS IN THE WPSL, NPF AND WPF

The National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) league, formerly known as the Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL), was a professional softball league in the United States. The teams, ranging from 4-7 each year, competed for the Cowles Cup.

The WPSL was founded in 1997 and folded in 2001; the NPF revived the league in 2004 and was disbanded in 2021 after two canceled seasons. A new softball league, Women's Professional Fastpitch (WPF), launched in 2022. Below is a list of former UCLA student-athletes who have played for the leagues.
