BRUINS HEAD TO DESERT FOR CACTUS BOWL —

UCLA (6-6) will meet Kansas State (7-5) in the 29th annual edition of the Cactus Bowl on Tuesday, December 26 in Chase Field, home of MLB's Arizona Diamondbacks, at 7:00 p.m. MST/6:00 p.m. PST. The game will be televised by ESPN. The Bruin IMG Radio Network will radio broadcast the contest, which will also be aired over ESPN Radio and Sirius/XM.

The Bruins lead the series with Kansas State, 2-1, with the last meeting taking place in January of 2015 at the Valero Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, Texas. In that contest, quarterback Brett Hundley led then-No. 14 UCLA to a 31-6 halftime lead and the Bruins held off the No. 11 Wildcats for a 40-35 win. The win was UCLA's 10th of the season, which matched the school record. It was the third win over a team ranked among the AP top-15 at the time of the contest, the most since 1952. It was also the 10th-straight Bruin win away from the Rose Bowl.

Prior to that meeting, the two programs each split a home-and-home series in the 2010 and 2009 seasons, with the host team coming away with the win. In 2010 at Manhattan, Kansas, the Bruins took a 10-7 halftime lead, only to see Kansas State come back to take the lead on its first possession of the second half. Kai Forbath booted his third field goal of the contest to slice the KSU advantage to 17-16 with 6:28 left in the game. K-State moved down the field and scored with 2:03 remaining for a 24-16 lead. UCLA answered just 44 seconds later on a scoring pass from Kevin Prince to Ricky Marvray but failed to even the score on a two-point conversion. A late K-State score made the final margin 31-22.

In 2009, at the Rose Bowl, quarterback Kevin Craft started in place of Kevin Prince, who had fractured his jaw against Tennessee. The Bruin run game was big, as freshman Johnathan Franklin recorded his first rushing performance over 100 yards (119). Kicker Kai Forbath was a perfect 3-for-3 on field goals to help the Bruins score a 23-9 victory. The UCLA defense held K-State to 3-of-14 on third down conversions and just 69 yards rushing. Tony Dye led the defense with nine tackles, while Akeem Ayers added two sacks. Alterraun Verner had two interceptions in the game.

THE WATCH LIST—

- This will be the first time the Bruins have played in the Cactus Bowl and the third time UCLA has played in a bowl game in Arizona - also the Jan. 1985 Fiesta Bowl UCLA 39, Miami 37; Dec. 1978 Fiesta Bowl UCLA 10, Arkansas 10.
- The Bruins have played in a bowl game in 12 of the previous 15 seasons (not after 2008, 2010, 2016 seasons) -- 2015 Foster Farms Bowl, Jan. 2015 Alamo Bowl, 2013 Sun Bowl, 2012 Holiday Bowl, 2011 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl, 2009 EagleBank Bowl, 2007 Las Vegas Bowl, 2006 Emerald Bowl, 2005 Sun Bowl, 2004 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Silicon Valley Bowl, 2002 Las Vegas Bowl.
- Top 20 Bruins in the NCAA Rankings/ Pac-12 Leaders --- Completions: Josh Rosen - 4th (25.64); Passing Tds: Rosen - 16th (26); Passing Yds: Rosen - 10th (3,717); Passing Yds per Game: Rosen - 3rd NCAA / P12 leader (337.9); Total Offense: Rosen - 9th NCAA / P12 leader; Pts. Responsible for Per G: Rosen - 20th NCAA / P12 leader (15.6); Receiving Tds: Darren Andrews - 15th NCAA / P12 leader (10); Receiving Yds Per G: Andrews - 22nd NCAA / P12 leader (85.9); Receptions Per G: Andrews - 9th NCAA / P12 leader (6.7); Receiving Yards: Jordan Lasley - 11th NCAA / P12 leader (1,136); Solo Tackles per G: Kenny Young - 18th (5.7).
- Jordan Lasley's 142.0 receiving yards per game average would be a school record total (current season leader Freddie Mitchell - 124.5 in 2000) ... Lasley's average would lead the nation, but he has not played in 75% of this season's games needed to qualify for the NCAA stats listing.
- Senior linebacker Kenny Young will be the last Bruin football player to wear No. 42 on the gridiron. In 2014, on the 75th anniversary of Jackie Robinson's arrival at UCLA, Athletics Director Dan Guerrero announced that the school was retiring number 42 across all sports. While he wore several numbers at UCLA, Jackie Robinson made the number 42 as iconic as the man himself.
- UCLA is averaging 6.4 yards per play, which would approach a school record mark. The only other seasons (dating to 1945) in which UCLA has averaged more than 6.5 yards per play are 6.81 in 1998 and 6.62 in 1973.
- Josh Rosen (3,756) has moved past Brett Hundley (3,740 in 2012) into first on all-time UCLA single-season passing yards list.
- The record / ranking of teams which have beaten UCLA this season: 52-19 overall record (73%)-- #19 Memphis 10-1, #15 Stanford 9-3, Arizona 7-5, #12 UW 10-2, Utah 6-6, #8 USC 10-2 ... Each of these opponents will be playing a bowl game.
- UCLA went 6-0 while playing in the Rose Bowl this season ... the last time the Bruins registered a perfect mark at home was in 2005 (6-0). Perfection in the Rose Bowl was also achieved in the 1987 (6-0) and 1985 seasons (5-0, including Rose Bowl game win).
- WR Jordan Lasley owns the P12 lead with six 100-yard receiving games this season... He has 29 catches for 593 yards (20.4 yds/catch) in last 3 games (197.3 yds/g ave.) vs. ASU, USC, Cal ... Lasley and Caleb Wilson (208 vs. Texas A&M) own the only 200-yard receiving games by P12 players this season.
- Josh Rosen ranks first in Pac-12 in passing yards per game (341.5) and total offense (332.6). The last Bruin to lead the Conference in passing yards/g and total offense was Tommy Maddox in 1990. Rosen is tied for P12 lead with a school-record seven 300-yard passing games this season.
- LB Kenny Young leads the team in tackles (101), and his average per game of 9.2 is second in P12... S Adarius Pickett is second with 81 stops (18th in P12 with 6.8 avg.), S Jaleel Wadood is third with 70 overall tackles (15th in P12 7.0 avg.); CB Nate Meadors tops the team with 10 pass break-ups, which is tied for 8th in the P12; Young, DL Jacob Tuioti-Mariner and DL Chigozie Nnoruka lead with 7.5 TFLs; Tuioti-Mariner tops the team with 5.5 sacks (16th in P12 with 0.46 avg.) and had a career-best 10 stops vs. ASU ... He has 17 tackles in last three games.
- WR Theo Howard leads the team with a reception in each of the last 15 games and had a career-high 11 receptions vs. USC.
- With its 501-yard output vs. USC, UCLA equaled an all-time school season mark with its sixth such game of 2017 (also 2015) ... With its 595-yard performance earlier this season at Stanford, UCLA set a school mark with its fourth consecutive 500-yard total offense games in a season.
- Kenny Young (295 tackles) moved into 13th on the all-time UCLA tackle list after his career-high 15-tackle effort vs. Cal ... Jaleel Wadood (279) is also within range of moving into the all-time Bruin Top 20 tackle list.
- CB Nate Meadors' 27-yd interception return for a score vs. ASU was third TD by Bruin defense (T17th in NCAA, T1st in P12) this season.
- LB Kenny Young had career-high 15 tackles vs. Cal and 12-tackles each at Stanford, vs. Colorado, vs. Oregon and at Utah this season.
- Jordan Lasley (11 at Stanford, 10 vs. USC, 12 vs. Cal) became the first Bruin receiver to record as many as three double-digit reception games in the same season. He ties J.J. Stokes for the career lead at the school with three.

No. 42 - THE LAST SEASON ON THE GRIDIRON

In 2014, on the 75th anniversary of Jackie Robinson's arrival at UCLA, Athletics Director Dan Guerrero announced that the school was retiring number 42 across all sports. While he wore several numbers at UCLA, Jackie Robinson made the number 42 as iconic as the man himself. Then freshman linebacker Kenny Young was able to continue wearing the number for the duration of his Bruin career and now enters his senior season in 2017.

In conjunction with UCLA, the City of Pasadena and the Rose Bowl Operating Committee, the Rose Bowl subsequently unveiled Robinson's iconic #42 near the east scoreboard and have made it a permanent fixture in the stadium. UCLA has permanently displayed Robinson's number 42 inside each of its athletic competition venues. In addition, a series of 22 athletic and recreation facilities across campus were named the Jackie Robinson Athletics and Recreation Complex. Chief among the campus' recognition of the complex is an in-ground number 42 at each entry point to UCLA's training centers, competition sites, fields and stadiums as a reminder of Robinson's tremendous courage in the face of adversity.

From 1939 to 1941, Robinson starred in four sports at UCLA. In football, Robinson played both offense and defense, returned punts, caught and threw passes, kicked extra points and in the process, earned honorable mention All-American accolades. In basketball, he twice led the Pacific Coast Conference in scoring. In track, he won the NCAA championship in the broad jump. And in baseball, he began his legendary journey as a highly-regarded shortstop for the Bruins.

UCLA ON THE AIR

Bruins on the Radio

The 2017 season is UCLA's 21st season with Clear Channel Radio. This will be the 11th year for the Bruins to be aired on AM 570 LA Sports (or am 1150 KTLK) in Southern California. The broadcasts are produced by IMG, UCLA's corporate and media-rights holder. The broadcast included a pre- and post-game show.

Josh Lewin is back as the voice of the Bruins for a second season. Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens ('83-86) is set to begin his 21st year on the broadcast team and his 17th as the analyst in the booth. Another Bruin signal caller, Wayne Cook ('91-94) is in his 16th season as the sideline reporter.

AM 570 LA Sports also provides ancillary programming, including head coach and player interviews during game weeks. UCLA IMG Sports Network games are available nationally through an agreement with Sirius XM Satellite Radio, the Official Satellite Partner of UCLA Athletics. Games can also be heard via the internet at uclabruins.com and on tunein.com and the TuneIn App.

Bruins on Television

Following the Cal game, 173 of UCLA's last 174 games have been televised live, including 107 in a row. The Oregon State game in 2009 is the last game not to be aired live (it was on delayed).

The Pac-12 Networks will air conference games and ancillary programming which feature football coach and player interviews during the season including a special edition of The Drive one week during the season.

Bruins on the Web

UCLA releases, player information and results can be found on the school's official website: www.uclabruins.com. Audio broadcasts of football games are also available on the website. Follow the Bruins on Facebook (www.facebook.com/uclafootball) and Twitter (www.twitter.com/uclafootball).

INTERIM UCLA HEAD COACH JEDD FISCH

Jedd Fisch, who spent the past two seasons as the University of Michigan's passing game coordinator and quarterbacks/wide receivers coach, brings nearly two decades of coaching experience to Westwood, having worked alongside collegiate and NFL head coaches the likes of Steve Spurrier, Dom Capers, Brian Bilick, Mike Shanahan, Pete Carroll, Gus Bradley and Jim Harbaugh, among others.

Fisch, who was named interim head coach on Nov. 19, guided the Bruins to a win over California in the final regular season contest of the year, making UCLA bowl eligible. The UCLA offense enters the bowl season ranked 19th nationally in total offense (465.7 yards per game) and fifth in the country in passing offense (348.6). The total of 4,183 passing yards this season has established a new school record. Quarterback Josh Rosen ranks third in the nation in passing yards per game average (341.5) and ninth in total offense (332.6). Rosen, who has set a school single-season passing yards record, is attempting to become the first Bruin quarterback to lead the conference in passing yards per game and total offense since Tommy Maddox in 1990.

In his two seasons at Michigan, Fisch helped Wilton Speight earn third-team All-Big Ten quarterback honors in 2016, his first year as a starter, while in 2015, quarterback Jake Rudock became the second quarterback in school history to pass for 3,000 yards (3,017). Also in 2015, Jake Butt, Jehu Chesson and Amara Darboh became the first trio of receivers in school history to eclipse the 50-reception and 500-yard receiving mark in a season, and the offense surpassed 3,000 passing yards for the sixth time in school history (3,090 yards, 5th all-time at Michigan). This past season, Michigan's offense reached the end zone 59 times, the most of any Wolverine team in the modern era, and ranked in the top 30 nationally in nine offensive categories: turnovers lost (6th), fourth down conversions (10th), scoring offense (12th), interceptions (13th), red zone offense (15th), fumbles lost (16th), completion percentage (26th), sacks allowed (28th) and rushing offense (30th).

Prior to his time at Michigan, Fisch served two seasons as offensive coordinator for a young Jacksonville Jaguars team. In his first season with the Jaguars (2013), Fisch guided the offense to improvements in nearly every category from the first eight games to the final eight games, including a rise from 31st to eighth in red zone offense and a doubling of its points per game total. In 2014, Fisch mentored rookie quarterback Blake Bortles, helping him to a 58.9 completion percentage and nearly 3,000 yards of passing in 13 starts. Bortles led all NFL QBs with a 7.48 average per rush, and under Fisch's tutelage, cut down his interceptions to three over the last six games of the season after throwing 14 in his first eight games. Bortles also completed 37 passes of 25-plus yards, second-most among rookie quarterbacks. Additionally, Fisch developed two rookie receivers in 2014 that did something no one else had done in NFL history: Allen Hurns (51-677, six touchdowns) and Allen Robinson (48-548, two touchdowns) became the first rookie duo in NFL history with at least 48 receptions each.

In 2012, the Hurricanes scored more than 40 points on six occasions and averaged 31.4 points and 440.2 yards per game. Under Fisch's direction in 2012, quarterback Stephen Morris, as a first-year starter, threw for a career-high 3,345 passing yards and set a single-season total offense record with 3,415 yards. In his first season, Fisch tutored quarterback Jacory Harris, who solidified himself as one of the best signal-callers in Miami and ACC history. Harris finished with a single-season school record 65.0% completion percentage while throwing for 20 touchdowns and only nine interceptions. Miami's offense averaged 26.5 points per game and amassed 4,533 yards of total offense in 2011.

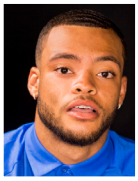

Prior to joining Miami, Fisch served as quarterbacks coach for the Seattle Seahawks in 2010 and worked with three-time Pro Bowler Matt Hasselbeck. Fisch joined the Seahawks after serving the 2009 season as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Minnesota, where he helped the team earn a spot in the Insight Bowl.

In 2008, Fisch was the wide receivers coach for the Denver Broncos, under Mike Shanahan, where he tutored Pro Bowl wideout Brandon Marshall to a then career-high 104 receptions for 1,265 yards and six touchdowns. Prior to joining the Broncos, Fisch spent four seasons in Baltimore (2004-07). He was the Ravens' assistant quarterbacks coach in 2007 after serving as the assistant quarterbacks/wide receivers coach from 2005-06 and offensive assistant in 2004. In 2006, the Ravens posted a 13-3 record and won the AFC North. Steve McNair received Pro Bowl honors after setting a franchise record for completion percentage (64.0).

Fisch began his NFL coaching career with the Houston Texans, where he served three seasons (2001-03) as an assistant to head coach Dom Capers. Fisch served two seasons (1999-2000) as a graduate assistant under Steve Spurrier at the University of Florida while obtaining a master's degree in sports management. During those two seasons, the Gators advanced to the Citrus (1999) and Sugar (2000) bowls, in addition to winning the SEC championship in 2000.

A native of Livingston, N.J., Fisch earned a degree in criminology from Florida in 1998. He and wife, Amber, have three children - Zaylee, Ashlee, Kendall.

THE ROSE BOWL - HOME OF BRUIN FOOTBALL

The nation's most famous college football stadium – The Rose Bowl – is-now in its 36th season as the home of the UCLA Bruins football team. The stadium is recognized as both a United States National Historic Landmark and a California Historic Civil Engineering landmark. Thanks to a generous donation from prominent UCLA alum Tod Spieker and his family, the playing surface will be called Spieker Field at the Rose Bowl for at least the next 25 years.

The Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but has been utilized as a venue for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games' cycling events and was the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also played host to five NFL Super Bowls – XI in 1977, XIV in 1980, XVII in 1983, XXI in 1987 and XXVII in 1993. It was a venue for the 1994 World Cup and the 1999 Women's World Cup soccer tournaments, including the championship games. The USA women's soccer team victory over China in the 1999 event drew over 90,000 fans. In addition, the 1983 Army-Navy game was played in the Rose Bowl.

On Jan. 1, 2015, the Rose Bowl served as the site of one of the College Football Playoff semifinal games. The previous January, the Rose Bowl hosted the final BCS Championship contest. It had also played host to the BCS Championship game in 2002, 2006 and 2010.

Considered an ideal concert venue, the Rose Bowl has hosted shows by such groups and artists as Beyonce, Jay-Z, Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, One Direction, U2, 'N Sync, Eagles, Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Michael Jackson, Metallica, Guns and Roses, Depeche Mode and Journey.

The iconic stadium is in the process of completing the final touches on a $181 million dollar renovation, and now features a new video board, improved exiting, wider aisles in the end zones and the Terry Donahue Pavilion. The Pavilion area houses the press boxes, broadcast booths, premium seating, boxes and suites. In December of 2015, the radio and TV booths were renamed "The Keith Jackson Broadcast Center". Jackson, the former sportscaster, coined the phrase "The Grandaddy of Them All" for the Rose Bowl Game. Also added are field level entrances and exits, and additional concession stands and restroom facilities.

Since 2007, UCLA and its opponents have dressed in new locker rooms located underneath the south concourse of the stadium. The locker area features all of the latest amenities to benefit the players, coaches, sports medicine and equipment staffs. In addition, a new media interview room and working press area were included in the upgrades. In 1998, new individual chairs were installed in the seating areas between the end zones. Also, improved seating areas for the physically challenged were installed, as well as a new sound system.

Completed in 1922 at a cost of $272,198, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California football game that year which was won by the Golden Bears 12-0. The stadium was originally horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 persons when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end zone was enclosed prior to the 1929 game to increase seating capacity to 76,000. Further enlargements took place in 1932 (83,677) and 1949 (100,807). A record crowd of 106,869 fans witnessed the 1973 Ohio State – USC Rose Bowl contest. With the current seating configuration for UCLA home games, the capacity is 80,616.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts in its vast history. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, The UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide connection.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 feet from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. The square footage of the grass on the floor of the stadium is 79,156.

ROSE BOWL: THE 36th YEAR

The nation's most famous college football stadium - The Rose Bowl - is now in its 36th season as home to UCLA football in 2017.

UCLA moved to Pasadena from the L.A. Coliseum in the summer of 1982 and went 6-0-1 in that first year, capping the season with a victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl game.

The 2006 season-opening win against Utah was UCLA's 100th at the Rose Bowl. The Bruins own a record of 150-67-2 since moving to Pasadena for the start of the 1982 campaign, including a 3-2 record in Rose Bowl games.

UCLA is 26-11 in games played in the Rose Bowl since the start of the 2012 season. The Bruins went unbeaten at home in 2017 for the first time since the 2005 season.

2017 GAME RECAPS

GAME ONE: UCLA 45, Texas A&M 44

Sept. 3 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, California (AP) -- Josh Rosen faked to spike the ball to stop the clock and instead threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Jordan Lasley with 43 seconds remaining and UCLA overcame a 34-point deficit to stun Texas A&M 45-44 on the first Sunday college football game ever played at the Rose Bowl.

Rosen was 35 of 59 for 491 yards on the night and four fourth-quarter touchdowns. He threw for 292 yards and the four scoring passes all in the final 15 minutes to overcome a 27-point margin. "My career at UCLA, we've had a lot of times where the chips didn't fall in our favor, and I think it's time that finally it did," Rosen said.

UCLA scored touchdowns on five straight possessions after trailing 44-10 with 4:08 to play in the third quarter. Rosen threw scoring passes of 9 and 42 yards to Darren Andrews before finding Theo Howard for a 16-yard score on a broken play with 3:08 remaining.

UCLA got the ball back with 2:39 to go and drove 66 yards in 10 plays, including an 11-yard throw and catch to tight end Caleb Wilson. Rosen capped the remarkable comeback with a fade to the far corner of the end zone after faking the spike. JJ Molson kicked the winning extra point.

"We were an inch away from losing that game probably 10 times," said Rosen, who threw for the third-most yards in a game in school history. "I mean, for God's sakes, I mean, that field goal would have put us out, and we just had an incredible surge and effort just to put probably a centimeter of a finger on the ball. I mean, the things that had to go right to win this game were incredible."

Texas A&M quarterback Kellen Mond was stopped short of the first-down marker on a scramble with 20 seconds left to close out the biggest FBS comeback since 2006.

"It was a lot of fun, huh? Glad you stuck around?" UCLA coach Jim Mora said. "We knew that this was not going to be an easy game, but we didn't know we were going to be down 28 points at halftime. I was just so impressed by the way that they managed their emotions at halftime and then coming back in the second half."

Wilson had a school-record 15 receptions for 203 yards, and Andrews had 12 catches for 143 yards. Rosen's 491 yard passing effort was the third-highest in school history and tied him with Cade McNown for the most 300-yard passing games in school history with 11.

GAME TWO: UCLA 56, Hawai'i 23

Sept. 9 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Josh Rosen was 22-for-25 for 329 yards passing and found Darren Andrews for three of his career-high five touchdown passes as UCLA defeated Hawaii 56-23 on Saturday.

With the 329-yard performance, Rosen moved past Cade McNown and into sole possession of the UCLA record for most 300-yard passing games in a career with 12. The five scoring passes were the most by a Bruin quarterback since Ben Olson tossed five in a 2007 win over Stanford.

Andrews became the first UCLA receiver to haul in three scoring passes in a game since Marcedes Lewis caught three in a 2004 game versus Arizona. Theo Howard, who finished with a career-best seven catches, had his first 100-yard game (110).

Howard and Caleb Wilson each caught a touchdown pass. Demetric Felton and Bolu Olorunfunmi each had 1-yard touchdown runs for the Bruins, who have scored touchdowns on 12 of 14 possessions with Rosen at quarterback dating back to the third quarter of their 45-44 comeback win over Texas A&M on Sunday.

UH's Dru Brown threw for 227 yards, with a 4-yard touchdown pass to Diocemy Saint Juste and a 2-yard score to John Ursua, as Hawaii saw its winning streak end at five games. Brown also threw an interception that was returned 30 yards for a touchdown by UCLA freshman cornerback Darnay Holmes.

GAME THREE: UCLA 45, at Memphis 48

Sept. 16 - Memphis, Tenn.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — UCLA came in after earning its first national ranking of the year, but the Memphis Tigers came away with the win. The Bruins' fourth-quarter comeback was denied by the Tigers and Memphis beat the No. 25 Bruins 48-45 on Saturday.

Memphis quarterback Riley Ferguson threw for 398 yards and six touchdowns, and Jacobi Francis broke up a late fourth-down pass attempt by Josh Rosen to lead Memphis. Francis' breakup with 56 seconds left sent the Tigers faithful into a celebration.

Rosen finished 34 of 56 for 463 yards and four touchdowns for the Bruins. But there also were two key interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown and the other stopped a late Bruin drive.

UCLA gave up big plays and turnovers, key ones that thwarted drives and led to Memphis scores, including a 60-yard interception return by linebacker Tim Hart in the third quarter.

"There's a formula for winning," UCLA coach Jim Mora said. "You can't turn the ball over, and you can't give up explosive plays and we did both."

"I just made some stupid mistakes," Rosen said. "I made about 10 points worth of really bad plays. ... I just can't make really, really, silly mistakes like that. It's just trying to play hero ball. It's not needed. You've got to play within the system."

Both teams managed to answer the opponents' scores through the game. Memphis held a couple of 10-point leads, but UCLA went ahead 45-41 on Rosen's 22-yard pass to Austin Roberts with 11:51 left. Memphis responded with a four-play, 81-yard drive, the final 3 yards coming on Ferguson's pass to Phil Mayhue with 9:56 left.

From there, it was up to the Tigers' defense, which despite giving up 633 yards, did not allow another touchdown.

The Bruins did have a successful rushing attack against the Tigers, including Bolu Olorunfunmi gaining 77 yards on 13 carries. The Bruins finished with 170 yards rushing after gaining 195 on the ground in their first two games.

Darren Andrews caught an NCAA-leading sixth touchdown pass of the season, a 65-yard catch-and-run. It was one of 10 catches on the day for Andrews who became the third Bruin to record two 10-catch games in a season.

GAME FOUR: UCLA 34, Stanford 58

Sept. 23 - Stanford, Calif.

STANFORD, Calif. – In a game that saw each team surpass 500 yards of total offense, UCLA dropped its Pac-12 opener on the road to Stanford, 58-34.

Bruin quarterback Josh Rosen passed for 480 yards, including a career-high 158 to Jordan Lasley and 145 to Caleb Wilson, while Soso Jamabo added a career-best 100 rushing yards. Bryce Love and the Cardinal rushing attack proved too strong, however, as the Pac-12's leading runner ran for 263 yards and a score.

Beginning the initial drive of the game on its own 48-yard line after a big kickoff return, the Cardinal opened the scoring with a field goal. A muffed punt by the Cardinal's Quenton Meeks was pounced on by the Bruins' Johnny Den Bleyker at the Stanford 15 and J.J. Molson would eventually knot the game at 3-3 with a 27-yard answer.

The teams would trade field goals before the Bruins finally broke through on their first full drive of the second frame. Rosen completed three consecutive passes, capped by a 48-yard strike to Lasley to reach the 12-yard line. Following his first incompletion of the stretch, Rosen hit Darren Andrews for the game's first touchdown and the receiver's seventh of the season.

A Harrison Phillips block of a Molson 23-yard attempt shifted momentum in favor of the home Cardinal. Love runs of 27 and 32 yards keyed Stanford's push to their first touchdown of the contest. The next Bruin drive would go three and out, as K.J. Costello, the Cardinal's third quarterback of the game, took over and re-established the Stanford advantage with a nine-yard scoring run to provide a 20-13 lead. A Cardinal field goal just before the clock hit zeroes sent the game to the half with the Stanford leading 23-13.

The Bruins came out firing in the second half, as Rosen completed five consecutive passes to get the Bruins to the Stanford 12. Three Jamabo runs from there led to a UCLA touchdown to cut its deficit to 23-20.

With Stanford pinned on its own eight-yard line, the Bruins looked poised for another shift in momentum. A 22-yard Costello pass to JJ Arcega-Whiteside set up a 43-yard Connor Wedington run to nix those plans, and Costello completed 15-yard pass to Trenton Irwin for the score.

Down 30-20 near midfield, Christian Pabico had the ball stripped and recovered by the Cardinal defense, setting up a 4:49 scoring drive that culminated in a short scoring run to push the lead to 17. The Bruins would not go away, though, as two long passes to Lasley—including a 39-yarder for a score—put UCLA down by a 37-27 score with the fourth quarter nearing.

A 6:18 drive ate into the clock and the Bruins' hopes for a comeback, as Costello eventually found Dalton Schultz for a three-yard touchdown pass and a 44-27 lead. UCLA once again answered thanks to a Rosen strike to Eldridge Massington at 6:59 of the final quarter, but a two-play, 70-yard Stanford drive—including a 69-yard Love scamper—buried the Bruins.

"It's an incredibly disappointing feeling for all of us," UCLA coach Jim More said. "A lot of things were going right and then all of a sudden it goes wrong. I still believe great things will happen for us and they will."

GAME FIVE: UCLA 27, Colorado 23

Sept. 30 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Josh Rosen completed 28 of 45 passes for 372 yards to lead UCLA past Colorado, 27-23, in a white-out game at the Rose Bowl Stadium on Saturday evening.

UCLA claimed a 14-10 lead midway through the second quarter, pushed its advantage to 21-10 just after halftime and came away with the victory.

Rosen threw for one touchdown, connecting with eight different receivers. Darren Andrews caught eight passes for 96 yards, while Jordan Lasley had seven receptions for 146 yards, his third 100-yard game of the season. On the defensive end, Kenny Young led all players with 12 tackles.

Rosen, who has thrown for at least 300 yards in all five games this season, helped UCLA ice the contest in the game's final seven minutes. He directed the Bruins' offense during a 15-play drive that took over six minutes and concluded with JJ Molson kicking a 31-yard field goal at the 26-second mark in the final quarter.

Trailing 27-23 in the game's final seconds, Colorado moved the ball down to UCLA's 37-yard line in two plays, but quarterback Steven Montez's last-second heave sailed out of the end zone as time expired. UCLA's 15-play drive in the final six minutes of the fourth quarter came after the Buffaloes had trimmed the Bruins' margin to 24-23 on a 33-yard field goal at the 6:46 mark.

The Bruins trailed twice in the first half, but secured the lead for good – 14-10, midway through the second quarter – after an eight-play, 75-yard drive. Jalen Starks capped off the the drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

After forcing Colorado to punt the ball on a three-and-out at the start of the third quarter, UCLA used a five-play, 58-yard drive to establish a 21-10 advantage. Rosen's 21-yard strike to Caleb Wilson put the Bruins on the Colorado three-yard line before Soso Jamabo punched it in from two yards out for his third touchdown of the season.

The Buffaloes answered with a 10-play, 75-yard drive, capped by a two-yard rushing touchdown by Phili Lindsay. which cut UCLA's advantage to 21-17. With fewer than two minutes to play in the third quarter, Colorado kicked another 33-yard field goal to slice the Bruins' cushion to 21-20.

GAME SIX: UCLA 30, Arizona 47

Oct. 14 - Tucson, Ariz.

Tucson, Ariz. - Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate rushed for 234 yards and two touchdowns and threw for another touchdown to lead the Wildcats to a 47-30 win over UCLA.

Bruin running backs accounted for all four touchdowns, including two by Bolu Olorunfunmi, who rushed for a career-high 102 yards on 10 carries. Jalen Starks (career-high 63 yards) and Soso Jamabo (33) had the other two touchdowns.

Untimely turnovers hurt the Bruins, who dropped to 3-3, 1-2 in the Pac-12. Quarterback Josh Rosen threw three interceptions, two in the red zone and a pick six.

Arizona jumped out to a quick lead, taking just four plays to score after the opening kickoff. Tate ran it in from 45 yards out at 13:44 to put Arizona up 7-0. UCLA got on the board with 2:23 to play in the first quarter, as Starks ran it in from less than a yard out for his fourth touchdown of the year, trimming Arizona's lead to 10-7.

The Wildcats (4-2, 2-1) used a 53-yard pass from Tate to Shun Brown to quickly move down the field on their next possession, and Nick Wilson's one-yard touchdown rush increased Arizona's lead to 17-7 with 39 seconds remaining in the first.

The Bruins were driving towards a score on their next possession, but an interception by Jace Whittaker in the red zone killed the drive. Whittaker struck again later in the quarter, to even more damaging results, intercepting Rosen again and returning it 42 yards for a 24-7 Arizona lead.

UCLA's running backs got the Bruins back to within 10 at 24-14, thanks to big gains by Starks, a second-effort two-yard gain on fourth-and-one by Olorunfunmi, and a Jamabo nine-yard touchdown run. However, Arizona drove 75 yards on its next possession, ending with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tate to Wilson with 11 seconds remaining for a 30-14 halftime advantage.

Late in the third quarter, Olorunfunmi used two big gains of 24 and 47 yards to set up a four-yard touchdown run to cut Arizona's lead to 33-22. But Tate used his speed once again to break another run on the next play, taking what was nearly a loss of yardage and turning it into a 71-yard touchdown run and 40-22 Wildcat lead.

Arizona penalties helped the Bruins get down the field quickly on its next drive, culminating in Olorunfunmi's second touchdown of the game, a one-yarder with 1:04 left in the third quarter. The Bruins were successful on the two-point conversion once again, trimming the lead to 40-30.

Another big play, a 44-yard touchdown pass from Tate to Tony Ellison, got Arizona down to the six, and Wilson rushed it in to give the Wildcats the final score, 47-30.

UCLA will next face Oregon on Saturday, Oct. 21 at 1pm at the Rose Bowl for Homecoming.

GAME SEVEN: UCLA 31, Oregon 14

Oct. 21 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Josh Rosen completed 21 of 35 passes for 266 yards and two touchdowns as the UCLA football team earned a 31-14 win over Oregon on Saturday at Rose Bowl Stadium. The Homecoming win marked the 600th victory in program history.

UCLA outscored the Ducks 17-0 in the second half after being tied with Oregon at halftime, 14-14.

Christian Pabico caught four passes for 99 yards with a touchdown, while Theo Howard had five receptions for 60 yards and Darren Andrew had five catches and a touchdown. Bolu Olorunfunmi and Soso Jamabo combined for 142 yards on the ground on 30 carries with one touchdown each. The UCLA defense came up with two turnovers during the game as Jaleel Wadood forced a fumble and Colin Samuel picked off a pass.

After JJ Molson kicked a 42-yard field goal on the opening drive of the second half, UCLA pushed its lead to 24-14 with 3:14 left in the third quarter. Olorunfumi scored on a 22-yard rush, leaping over an Oregon defender to cross the goal line for his fourth scoring rush of the season.

The Bruins pushed its lead to 31-14 at the 9:03 mark in the fourth quarter as Rosen found Andrews for a one-yard touchdown, his eighth scoring reception of the season, in the back of the end zone to complete a 10-play, 40-yard drive.

UCLA scored twice in the first quarter to jump out to a 14-0 lead. Jacob Tuioti-Mariner recovered a Ducks fumble on their own 45-yard line and used an 11-play drive capped off by a Jamabo four-yard run for the game's opening touchdown.

UCLA found the end zone on its next drive as Rosen connected with Pabico for a 33-yard touchdown pass to highlight a seven-play 65-yard drive that took just under three minutes. It marked Pabico's first career touchdown reception.

Oregon was able to tie the game at 14-14 with a pair of second-quarter touchdowns. UO used a 15-play, 75-yard drive to cut the score to 14-7 with 10:34 remaining in the quarter as Braxton Burmeister ran into the end zone from seven yards out.

The Ducks then tied the game with just 37 seconds left until halftime when Burmeister recorded his second rushing touchdown of the afternoon from the four-yard line to cap off another 15-play drive that took over five minutes off the clock.

GAME EIGHT: UCLA 23, Washington 44

Oct. 28 - Seattle, Wash.

SEATTLE, Wash. – No. 12 Washington rushed 58 times for 333 yards as the Huskies defeated UCLA at Husky Stadium, 44-23.

The Bruins (4-4, 2-3) were led by receiver Darren Andrews, who caught eight passes for 73 yards and one of two receiving touchdowns. Jordan Wilson caught the other. Redshirt freshman Devon Modster recorded the first passing touchdown of his career, finding Andrews from four yards out.

After holding the Huskies on their first drive, UCLA started its opening possession on the Bruin 29-yard line. Thanks in large part to a Husky roughing-the-passer penalty and 16-yard strike from Josh Rosen to Andrews, the Bruins were able to drive 46 yards to set up a 42-yard JJ Molson field goal that gave the Bruins the first points of the contest.

Washington's first scoring drive went much the way of the Bruins', as a 15-yard personal-foul penalty and an 18-yard Coleman run counted for more than half of the Huskies' yardage leading to Tristan Vizcaino's 31-yard tying field goal.

A 35-yard Jake Browning strike to Coleman accompanied six Gaskin rushes on the Huskies' next scoring drive, with Browning capping the nine-play drive with a one-yard run of his own to give Washington its first lead at 10-3.

The Bruins took a page out of the Huskies' book the next time out, as Soso Jamabo and Bolu Olorunfunmi each rushed three times to help the Bruins down to the Husky eight-yard line, from there Rosen found Wilson for the tight end's second touchdown of the season. Olurunfunmi ran for 24 yards on three carries. The Molson extra point was missed, however, as Washington maintained the lead.

An 82-yard Salvon Ahmed kick return put Washington in prime scoring position and Coleman ran in from a yard out two plays later. They would conclude first-half scoring with a 26-yard Vizcaino field goal at 3:50 of the frame to send the game to the break with the Huskies leading, 20-9.

The Bruins were unable to capitalize on a Darnay Holmes interception of Browning on the Huskies' first drive of the second half and Washington returned to the run its next time out. The home Huskies tallied 27-unanswered points and surged into a 37-9 advantage.

With Modster under center, the Bruins chipped away at the Husky lead with an 81-yard drive. The redshirt-freshman signal caller completed six of seven passes, including throws of 21, 19 and 14 yards to Andrews, Wilson and Christian Pabico, respectively. The Huskies would answer, though, as Gaskins controlled the middle of the field before Coleman once again scored in the redzone.

The Bruin defense would put an end to scoring when Osa Odighizuwa rumbled 51 yards after picking up a Kamari Pleasant fumble to give the Bruins a 14-7 fourth-quarter advantage.

The eight catches by Andrews moved the senior into a tie for fourth place on the Bruins' all-time catch list. He is knotted with Danny Farmer at 159. Next on the list is Kevin Jordan, in third place with 179. Andrews joined Jordan as the only Bruin receivers to put together three straight 40-catch seasons.

GAME NINE: UCLA 17, Utah 48

Nov. 3 - Salt Lake City, Utah

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah - Devon Modster went 8-12 in his first career collegiate start and completed all seven of his first-half attempts for 101 yards and a score, while Zack Moss accumulated 153 yards on 23 carries and two touchdowns for the Utes and Tyler Huntley went 15-22 for 243 yards and four touchdowns as the UCLA football team dropped a 48-17 contest on Friday at Utah from Rice-Eccles Stadium.

Bolu Olorunfunmi led the ground game with 63 yards on a career-high 16 carries, while Darren Andrews had led all UCLA receivers with 66 yards on three receptions and a score.

The Utes scored the first points of the game as they were able to pounce on a Mossi Johnson fumbled punt at the UCLA 16-yard line. Four plays and 1:36 later, Moss pounded it in from three yards out for a 7-0 lead.

The Bruins responded as Modster hit Andrews streaking down the sideline for 42 yards down to the Utah 25-yard line, setting up a 37-yard field goal by J.J. Molson to cut into the early in the second quarter.

Utah would then use 10 plays to maneuver 73 yards, with Moss rushing for 31 yards, leading to Huntley finding Darren Carrington for a 25-yard score at 6:08 in the quarter for a 14-3 lead.

UCLA cut the lead to 14-10 as Modster completed all three of his passes on the 10-play 73-yard drive, including a spectacular one-handed grab by Theo Howard along the sideline. On the next play, Modster would hit Andrews from 24 yards for a touchdown.

The Utes would make it a 17-10 game at halftime when Matt Gay hit a 25-yard field goal with seven seconds left in the half.

Utah wasted no time getting on the board in the second half, as Huntley hit Troy McCormick for a 75-yard strike and a two-score advantage. Another 10-play drive would consume 4:25 of the third quarter as Moss capped off the drive with a 20-yard score for a 31-10 advantage.

Huntley would later cap off another quick, three-play drive with a 13-yard pass to McCormick in the end zone in the middle of the third quarter for a 38-10 lead.

After a Utah field goal in the first minute of the fourth qyarter, redshirt freshman Matt Lynch marched the Bruins 75 yards down the field in nine plays and ended the drive with a five-yard score to Eldridge Massington with 9:59 left in the final quarter.

The Utes would push the lead to 48-17 as Huntley tossed his fourth touchdown of the game with 3:27 left on the clock to Cody Ippolito from two yards out.

GAME TEN: UCLA 44, Arizona State 37

Nov. 11 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. - UCLA kept its perfect home record intact against Arizona State on Saturday evening, posting a 44-37 victory.

Saturday marked the return of junior quarterback Josh Rosen, who missed last week's game at Utah after suffering an injury at Washington on Oct. 28. Rosen finished the game 26-for-46 for 420 yards and a touchdown. It marked the 16th 300-yard passing game of his career, increasing his own school record. Rosen also moved into third place in the UCLA record books in both career passing yards and completions.

Bruin wideout Jordan Lasley had a career-high 162 yards receiving on the evening, hauling in a crucial 22-yard touchdown pass from Rosen early in the fourth quarter to give UCLA a 41-34 advantage. Lasley also hauled in a 59-yard reception in the second quarter to set up an eventual UCLA field goal.

Arizona State got off to a quick start in Saturday's contest, jumping out to an early lead with a pair first-quarter touchdowns. The Sun Devils' first strike came with 8:34 remaining in the quarter when quarterback Manny Wilkins hit wideout N'Keal Harry for a seven-yard TD pass. ASU scored again just five minutes later, this time on a two-yard TD run from Demario Richard, as the Sun Devils moved out to a 14-0 advantage.

UCLA defensive back Nate Meadors tallied the Bruins' first score of the game, as he intercepted a tipped pass from Wilkins, taking it in from 27 yards out to cut the lead to 14-7. It was Meadors' first career touchdown and second-career interception. UCLA then tied things up on a one-yard TD run from Rosen just after the start of the second quarter.

Arizona State scored once more prior to halftime when Wilkins notched a rushing touchdown of his own, a 16-yard scamper with 7:55 to play in the half, to give the Sun Devils a 21-14 advantage. UCLA managed to cut the lead to 21-20 prior to halftime following a pair field goals from kicker JJ Molson.

Following the intermission, running back Soso Jamabo gave UCLA its first lead of the game when he capped a 6-play, 59-yard drive with a 22-yard touchdown run, putting the Bruins up 27-21. It marked Jamabo's sixth touchdown in seven games this season.

In addition to Rosen and Jamabo, Bolu Olorunfunmi also rushed for a touchdown on Saturday, his fifth of the season, giving UCLA a 34-24 advantage on a two-yard run with 5:41 to play in the third quarter. That scoring drive also included a 56-yard reception by Olorunfunmi, the longest reception of his career. His 15 carries (for 79 yards) in the game were also a career high.

Down by 10 late in the third quarter, the Sun Devils would show some resilience. A 22-yard field goal from Brandon Ruiz cut the lead to 34-27, and ASU would tie the game moments later when Eno Benjamin blocked a UCLA punt and ran it in from nine yards out to tie the game at 34-34.

The Bruins, however, would remain steady down the stretch, getting that crucial touchdown from Lasley to start the fourth quarter, and following it up with another Molson field goal, his third of the game, to take a 44-34 lead. The Sun Devils scored just three points in the fourth quarter on a 23-yard field goal from Ruiz with 3:57 to play in the game.

On the defensive end of the field, sophomore linebacker Krys Barnes tied a career high with 12 tackles, and senior defensive lineman Jacob Tuioti-Mariner had a personal-best 10 tackles and two sacks and tied a career high with two tackles for loss. Redshirt sophomore defensive lineman Chigozie Nnoruka (eight) and senior defensive back/wide receiver Mossi Johnson (seven) also posted career highs in tackles.

The Bruins have just two regular-season games remaining. UCLA is scheduled to face crosstown rival USC on Nov. 18 at the Los Angeles Coliseum (5:00 p.m./ABC) and Cal at the Rose Bowl on Nov. 24 (7:30 p.m./FS1). UCLA can go undefeated at home this year with a win over the Bears. The Bruins' last undefeated campaign in Pasadena was a 6-0 mark in 2005.

GAME ELEVEN: UCLA 23, USC 28

Nov. 18 - L.A. Coliseum

LOS ANGELES, Calif. - LOS ANGELES - UCLA quarterback Josh Rosen threw for 421 yards, 204 to Jordan Lasley, and the Bruin defense held USC to 153 rushing yards, a season-low total for the defense, but UCLA's effort was just short, as No. 12 USC held on for the 28-23 victory at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Turnovers in the red zone and a few costly penalties left UCLA without much-needed points earlier in the game, but the Bruins did not quit. Down 21-7 late in the third quarter, UCLA closed to within five on a Lasley touchdown with 2:43 to play. But the Bruins missed the two-point conversion and were unable to recover the onside kick, and USC was able to get the first down it needed to run out the clock.

Rosen's 421 yards were the most ever by a UCLA quarterback against USC and just two yards shy of Matt Barkley's all-time record in the series, set in 2011. Lasley's 204-yard game was the fourth-best receiving performance in UCLA history.

USC (10-2) struck first on a 72-yard punt return for a touchdown by Michael Pittman, but the Bruins answered right back with a seven-play, 80-yard drive that culminated in an 11-yard touchdown pass fom Rosen to Lasley.

A long kickoff return gave USC good field position on its next possession, and it took six plays and two and a half minutes to go 56 yards for the touchdown, a two-yard rush by Ronald Jones that put USC ahead, 14-7. The Bruins appeared to tie the game early in the second quarter on a Bolu Olorunfunmi touchdown run on a reverse, but the play was nullified by a clipping penalty, which set the ball back 15 yards to the USC 30. The Bruins ended up with no points on that drive after J.J. Molson missed a 47-yard field goal attempt.

A Jaleel Wadood interception on fourth and 8 on the UCLA 30 gave the Bruins their first break of the game late in the second quarter. UCLA got down to the USC 17, but Rosen was strip sacked, and USC regained possession on their own 40 with 36 seconds to play in the half. The half, however, ended without a score, as the Bruins chased Sam Darnold out of the pocket, and he was tackled in bounds shy of the first down as time expired in the half with USC up 14-7.

UCLA's opening drive of the second half saw the Bruins drive down to the USC 15, only to have Rosen throw an interception in the end zone. USC scored on a one-yard touchdown run by Darnold on the ensuing possession to take a 21-7 lead.

But much like the Trojans' first touchdown, UCLA answered with one of its own. Rosen and Lasley linked up for their second touchdown of the game, a nine-yard pass that cut USC's lead to 21-14 with 2:57 to play in the third. A 26-yard Molson field goal with 10:19 to play in the game put UCLA down by just 4, 21-17.

USC answered with a touchdown drive to increase its lead to 28-17, and on its next possession, UCLA was on the verge of turning it over on downs with under four minutes to play, but a holding penalty by USC gave the Bruins new life with a first down on the USC 38. Rosen found Lasley four plays later for their third touchdown of the game, a 27-yard TD pass with 2:43 to play that cut the deficit to five points, 28-23. But after USC recovered the onside kick, the Bruins ran out of time to attempt a comeback.

GAME TWELVE: UCLA 30, Cal 27

Nov. 24 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. - JJ Molson connected on a 37-yard field goal attempt with four seconds left in the fourth quarter to lead UCLA past California, 30-27, in the regular-season finale for both teams at the Rose Bowl on Friday night.

With the game tied 27-27, back-up quarterback Devon Modster drove the Bruins down the field to the 20-yard line in the game's final 2:22. Molson's game-winning field goal helped the Bruins become bowl eligible. In addition, UCLA secured its fourth win over Cal in their last five meetings and secured a perfect 6-0 season at the Rose Bowl.

"We are obviously excited as a program," UCLA interim head coach Jedd Fisch said. "We also feel that we owe this win to Coach Mora. We wanted to make sure that we were able to end his legacy as the head coach at UCLA, as a guy that led five of his six teams to bowl games. So, we are very respectful of that. In turn, we are extremely excited to move forward and to be 1-0 in this capacity."

UCLA's final possession in the game's last two minutes came after California had overcome a 10-point fourth quarter deficit. The Golden Bears kicked a field goal with 8:35 to go, reducing UCLA's cushion to 27-20. Minutes later, California drove 77 yards on a 12-play drive, capped by a game-tying six-yard touchdown pass from Ross Bowers to Jordan Veasy.

Jordan Lasley caught a career-high 12 passes for a team-leading 227 yards and had one touchdown reception in the regular-season finale. Lasley, who finished with 204 receiving yards at USC last week, had a 17-yard touchdown catch midway through the second quarter to put the Bruins ahead, 17-6.

Lasley became the first-ever Bruin to record back-to-back 200-yard receiving contests. In addition, his 431 receiving yards between the USC and Cal games are the most by any Bruin in back-to-back contests. He became the first UCLA player to ever record three double-digit reception games in one season. Kenny Young recorded a career-best 15 tackles in the contest.

In all, UCLA quarterbacks Josh Rosen and Devon Modster combined for 393 passing yards as the Bruins closed their home slate with a 6-0 mark at the Rose Bowl in 2017. Modster finished with career highs in pass completions (14), attempts (18) and passing yards (191).

After securing a 7-3 lead against California late in the first quarter, the Bruins never trailed the rest of the way. The visiting Golden Bears tied the contest, 17-17, early in the third quarter before UCLA answered with a touchdown and a field goal. Cal running back Patrick Laird finished with 178 rushing yards on 32 carries. Bowers finished the game having completed 25 of 41 pass attempts for 242 yards.

Cal kicker Matt Anderson converted four of five field goal attempts, connecting on kicks from 32, 34, 37 and 20 yards against the Bruins.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - UCLA closed to within one and two points in the fourth quarter but couldn't pull even or take the lead and dropped its season opener at Kansas State, 31-22.

UCLA trailed 7-0 in the second quarter when Kai Forbath kicked the first of three field goals. Following an Akeem Ayers fumble recovery, Kevin Prince ran 11 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Bruins a 10-7 halftime lead.

Kansas State took the lead for good with a touchdown on its first possession of the second half and then the two teams swapped field goals. Forbath kicked his third field goal of the day with 6:28 remaining in the game to make the score 17-16.

However, KSU moved down the field for a touchdown to take a 24-16 lead with just 2:03 remaining. It took UCLA just 44 seconds to move down the field, thanks to a 28-yard kickoff return by Josh Smith and Kevin Prince passes of 35 yards to Cory Harkey and a 29-yard scoring pass to Ricky Marvray. However, KSU was able to tip UCLA's two-point conversion pass, leaving the score at 24-22 with 1:19 remaining. UCLA's onside kick was unsuccessful and on third down, KSU's Daniel Thomas raced 35 yards for the clinch ing score.

The Bruin run game was big as freshman Johnathan Franklin recorded his first rushing performance over 100 yards (119). Kicker Kai Forbath was a perfect 3-for-3 on field goals to help the Bruins score a 23-9 victory.

The UCLA defense again was solid as they held KSU to 3-of-14 on third down conversions and just 69 yards rushing. Tony Dye led the defense with nine tackles, while Akeem Ayers led the team with two sacks. Alterraun Verner had two picks in the game.

UCLA's ALL-TIME BOWL RECORD — UCLA owns an overall record of 16-18-1. UCLA was the first school in NCAA history to win a bowl game in seven consecutive seasons (1982-88).
