MICHAEL SEALY

Head Coach
13th Season
UCLA '93

Michael Sealy begins his 13th season as the head coach of the UCLA women's volleyball program in 2022. Sealy has a 12-year record of 257-115 and has guided the Bruins to 11 NCAA Tournament appearances, including a National Championship in 2011.

Sealy earned Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year honors after leading the Bruins to second-place conference finish and a Sweet 16 appearance in the NCAA Tournament. UCLA climbed to sole possession of first place in the Pac-12 standings following victories over No. 22 Washington State and No. 8 Washington at the end of October; it was Sealy's first time accomplishing the feat in his career. The Bruins upended six NCAA Tournament teams during the regular season, including Regional Finalist Georgia Tech. Mac May became the 17th Bruin in program history to be named an AVCA First Team All-American and the third Bruin ever to earn three AVCA All-American honors in a career. Zoe Fleck was also awarded AVCA Third Team All-America. May and Fleck both brought home to Westwood their second Pac-12 Player of the Year and Pac-12 Libero of the Year trophies, respectively. Also earning All-Pac-12 recognition was middle blocker Anna Dodson.

In the Spring 2021 campaign, the Bruins posted a 15-7 record, finishing fifth in a Pac-12-only regular season and reaching the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. UCLA posted victories against eventual National Semifinalist Washington, as well as NCAA Tournament teams Oregon, Utah and Washington State. Mac May (Second Team) and Zoe Fleck (Honorable Mention) were each named AVCA All-Americans, with Fleck, May and élan McCall picking up AVCA All-Region accolades. Fleck was also named the Pac-12 Libero of the Year and one of four Bruins to earn All-Pac-12 First Team honors (May, McCall, Iman Ndiaye). UCLA ranked 19th in the nation in assists per set, 22nd in kills per set and 35th in hitting percentage, while also leading all Pac-12 teams in aces and kps.

In 2019, UCLA recorded season sweeps of USC and nationally-ranked California and Washington State, while also defeating eventual national champion Stanford en route to a 19-12 record. May (Second Team) and Savvy Simo (Honorable Mention) were both named AVCA and VolleyballMag.com All-Americans and each were recognized as AVCA All-Region First Team. May earned Pac-12 Player of the Year honors, while Simo was also named All-Pac-12 First Team. Sealy won his 200th match as head coach on Sept. 6 against Texas State. UCLA won six times against ranked teams in 2018, including its first win at Washington in 15 years. The Bruins also defeated ranked teams Baylor, San Diego, Utah, Arizona State and Arizona. UCLA led all Pac-12 teams in digs per set at 17.71, ranking 17th in the nation. May and Zana Muno were each named VolleyballMag.com All-Americans, Muno was selected as an AVCA All-American and May, Muno and Madeleine Gates were honored as All-Pac-12 members.

The Bruins posted a 21-11 mark in 2017, advancing to the Round of 16 for the fourth year in a row. UCLA ranked 30th in the nation in dps (17.15), 35th in aces (13.09) and 38th in kps (13.91). In addition to Muno and Sponcil's plaudits, Gates was named a Second Team AVCA All-American and Honorable Mention VolleyballMag.com All-American, while Reilly Buechler picked up AVCA Honorable Mention All-Region honors. The three AVCA All-American awards tied for the most in a single season in school history.

UCLA went 27-7 in 2016 and tied for second in the Pac-12 (15-5). The Bruins, who won their first seven matches for their best start to a season since 2006, won 10 times against ranked teams, including a season sweep of eventual national champion Stanford, the first sweep of the Cardinal since 2011, as well as a sweep of cross-town rival USC. The Bruins made their first Regional Final appearance since 2011. UCLA ranked sixth in the nation in dps and aces and 13th in kps while also ranking first in the conference in dps and aces and second in kps.
