UCLA's court in Pauley Pavilion was dedicated as "Nell and John Wooden Court" prior to the game, as the Bruins defeated Michigan State on Dec. 20, 2003. Coach Wooden was joined by dozens of his former players during the halftime ceremony. UCLA held off Michigan State by a 64-58 margin that day, with a crowd of 12,433 on hand in Pauley Pavilion. UCLA's team honored the 1963-64 squad by wearing a throwback replica uniform in all white with a gold "BRUINS" across the front of the jersey.

TJ Leaf

◄◄ December 10, 2016

Less than one month into his freshman season, forward TJ Leaf totaled 21 points and eight rebounds in UCLA's 102-84 win at home against Michigan. The Bruins knocked down 15 of 24 attempts from 3-point range, while Leaf finished the night having shot 10-of-14 overall from the field. UCLA outscored Michigan by a 52-34 margin in the second half.

The UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame enters its 42nd year of existence, its 24th year located in its current configuration in the J.D. Morgan Center. The current Hall of Fame is more than double the size than its predecessor, which opened in July 2001. The first floor in the east wing features the 8,000-square foot Athletics Hall of Fame and serves as the main entrance to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. The Hall of Fame features state-of-the-art interactive displays, a mini-theater where video clips and highlights re-create past championship moments, and various displays that show how sports are woven into great moments in history.

UCLA athletic teams have won 124 NCAA team championships and each of those first-place trophies grace the Hall of Champions. Other exhibits include photos of first-team All-Americans in football and men's basketball, Gary Beban's Heisman Trophy, Wooden Awards won by Marques Johnson and Ed O'Bannon and a special display highlighting UCLA's Honda and Broderick Cup winners. Displays on UCLA's football bowl victories, the school's men's basketball tradition and UCLA's Olympic Games medal winners are featured in the Hall of Fame. Each of UCLA's sports has its own display area in the Hall of Fame. The cases include displays honoring Jackie Robinson, UCLA's Academic All-Americans and women in sports. There are also sample lockers of former Bruin greats in various sports.

In connection with the building, which originally opened in November 1983, UCLA established a Hall of Fame with 25 charter members representing a cross-section of the school's athletic history. Each year, a minimum of one and a maximum of eight former UCLA athletes, coaches or administrators are added to the Hall of Fame. Following is a list of the members:

1984 (25 charter members): Bill Ackerman, athletic director; Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar), men's basketball; Arthur Ashe, tennis; Gary Beban, football; Mike Burton, swimming; Paul Cameron, football; Chris Chambliss, baseball; Elvin 'Ducky' Drake, track coach and trainer; Gail Goodrich, men's basketball; Walt Hazzard (Mahdi Abdul-Rahman), men's basketball; Cecil Hollingsworth, football scout and gymnastics and wrestling coach; Rafer Johnson, track; Kirk Kilgour, volleyball; Billy Kilmer, football; Donn Moomaw, football; J.D. Walt Hazzard (Class of 1984)

Gail Goodrich (Class of 1984)

Sidney Wicks (Class of 1985)

Keith (Jamaal) Wilkes (Class of 1984)

The UCLA men's basketball program has 55 of its former student-athletes or coaches who have been inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame. Most recently Jason Kapono was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in Oct. 2025, while Rod Foster was inducted in Sept. 2024.

CHARTER MEMBERS

The men's basketball program had seven inductees as "charter members" of the Hall of Fame when it began in 1984. Those charter members include Lew Alcindor (now known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar), Gail Goodrich, Walt Hazzard, Jackie Robinson, Bill Walton, Keith Wilkes (now Jamaal Wilkes) and former head coach John Wooden.

Alcindor excelled on the varsity team under Coach Wooden from 1967-69, helping UCLA win NCAA Championships all three seasons. His jersey number (33) was retired in Pauley Pavilion during a halftime ceremony on Feb. 3, 1990. During his three varsity seasons, he helped UCLA compile an 88-2 overall record. He earned consensus All-America honors three times and became the only player to ever be selected "Most Outstanding Player" of the Final Four three times. He was a three-time college player of the year and ranks first in career scoring average at UCLA (26.4 points per game).

Goodrich was a three-year standout under Coach Wooden from 1963-65, helping UCLA secure its first two NCAA Championships on the hardwood (1964, 1965). He served as a co-captain his senior season with Keith Erickson, earning All-America acclaim after having averaged 24.8 points per game (1965). In the 1965 NCAA title contest, Goodrich scored a then-championship game record 42 points to lead No. 2 UCLA past No. 1 Michigan, 87-66. He had his jersey number (25) retired at UCLA on Dec. 18, 2004.

Hazzard, a 6-foot-2 guard from Philadelphia, Pa., was a three-year starter on UCLA's varsity squad under Coach Wooden (1962-64). He twice earned All-America honors (1963, 1964) and led the Bruins to their first NCAA Championship as a senior in 1964 (going 30-0 for the first time). Hazzard later served as the program's head coach from 1985-88, leading the Bruins' 1985 squad to the NIT title.

Robinson was a four-sport letterwinner at UCLA, playing for the football, basketball, track & field and baseball teams. He attended UCLA from 1939-41 and played on the basketball team from 1939-40 and 1940-41. Robinson wore number 18 as a basketball player, but his iconic number 42 with the Brooklyn Dodgers has been retired across all sports at UCLA. As a basketball player, he twice led the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast Conference in scoring, logging 12.4 points per game in 1940 and 11.1 points per game in 1941.

Walton established himself as one of the game's all-time greatest frontcourt players, starring on UCLA's varsity team from 1972-74. Walton led UCLA to a pair of NCAA Championships in 1972 and 1973 under Coach Wooden. During his three years on the varsity team, Walton helped UCLA compile an overall record of 86-4. His teams won their first 73 consecutive games, as UCLA had registered an impressive 88-game winning streak. Walton's jersey number (32) was retired during a halftime ceremony on Feb. 3, 1990.

Wilkes was a three-year standout on the varsity team from 1972-74, helping UCLA capture NCAA titles in 1972 and 1973. Teaming alongside Walton in the frontcourt, Wilkes helped the Bruins compile an 86-4 record during his three seasons. He played a central role in UCLA winning 88 consecutive contests and was a three-time first-team All-America selection. Wilkes' jersey number (52) was retired during a halftime ceremony in Pauley Pavilion on Jan. 17, 2013.

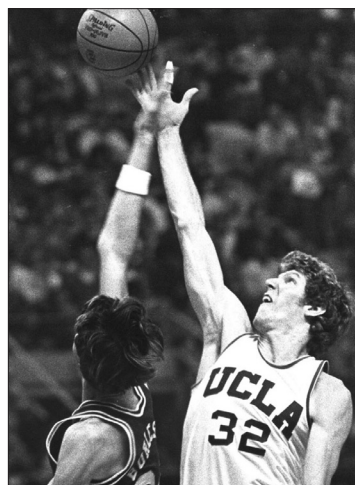

Coach Wooden served as UCLA's head coach for 27 seasons, guiding the Bruins to NCAA titles in 10 of his final 12 seasons. He retired at the end of the 1974-75 season, having amassed an all-time head coaching record of 885-203. Through 27 seasons at UCLA, he went 620-147 while securing far more accolades than any other coach at any other university. He led the Bruins to perfect 30-0 records in 1964, 1967, 1972 and 1973.

MARTIN JARMOND

Athletic Director

6th Year

Alma Mater: UNC Wilmington, '01

Martin Jarmond, a nationally recognized leader in college athletics, has built an impressive track record of competitive excellence, innovative strategy and student athlete success. A two-time recipient of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Award with over 20 years in sports administration spanning three conferences, Jarmond has guided UCLA to new heights through his culture of an E.L.I.T.E. mindset – Energy, Leadership, Integrity, Toughness and Excellence.

His results-driven strategies combined with a relentless work ethic to elevate UCLA Athletics have helped to create an exceptional experience for student-athletes and fans alike. Over Jarmond's first five seasons in Westwood, UCLA has won six NCAA championships in the sports of men's water polo (2020, 2024), women's soccer (2022), men's volleyball (2023, 2024) and women's water polo (2024). UCLA teams have also totaled 27 conference championships under his watch, including 10 combined Big Ten and MPSF titles in 2024-25, the most amongst all Big Ten schools.

Jarmond worked closely with campus leadership while playing a critical role in UCLA Athletics applying and being accepted for future membership in the Big Ten Conference in June of 2022. The Bruins began their historic first season in the Big Ten Conference on August 2, 2024. He also negotiated a new multimedia rights deal with JMI Sports that will run through 2035.

UCLA's first year in the Big Ten Conference in 2024-25 was a huge success, as the Bruins captured seven Big Ten titles, tied for second-most in the conference. Bruin teams won Big Ten Tournament titles in women's soccer, women's basketball, gymnastics, men's tennis, and men's golf and regular season crowns in gymnastics and baseball. Buoyed by a NCAA Championship by the men's water polo team and runner-up finishes by gymnastics and men's volleyball, UCLA finished in fifth place in the 2024-25 Learfield Director's Cup standings, its highest finish since 2018. UCLA was also the only school in the nation to advance both baseball and softball teams to the College World Series, as well as the only school with both men's and women's teams playing in the World Series and March Madness.

The 2024-25 season built off the success of the previous year, when UCLA finished in the Top 10 of the Learfield Director's Cup for the first time since 2018-19. The 2023-24 Bruins had five teams competing on the final day for an NCAA Championship. In an eight-day span in May 2024, the Bruins achieved victories in both men's volleyball and women's water polo.

Jarmond was hired on May 19, 2020 as UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics, becoming the ninth athletic director in school history. He made an immediate impact on the Bruins, jumpstarting the Voting Matters Initiative, the first of its kind in the country which assisted student-athletes in discovering the tools needed to exact meaningful change through civic duty. Jarmond engineered a partnership between UCLA and Nike/Jordan Brand, becoming only the fifth Jordan brand school in the nation and the first partnership with Nike in UCLA history. The six-year agreement between UCLA and Nike provides for 22 of the 25 UCLA varsity sports with Nike apparel, while football, men's basketball and women's basketball don Jordan Brand. Jarmond exhibits a strong commitment to mental health awareness, and his emphasis on diversity and inclusion was recognized in a 2021 SBJ award for being a national leader in diversity and inclusive hiring. He was the Pac-12 Conference representative to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for 2021-22 and serves on the Geffen Academy and McLendon Foundation Boards.

Through Jarmond's instrumental leadership, UCLA Athletics has positioned itself at the forefront of a rapidly-changing collegiate athletics landscape. In the burgeoning area of Name, Image and Likeness (NIL), Jarmond and UCLA Athletics launched "Westwood Ascent," a comprehensive NIL program that supports UCLA's student-athletes, helping them build their personal brands and maximize their NIL opportunities. In addition, the "Westwood Exchange" was established as a free business registry designed for companies, donors, fans and alumni that want to connect directly with UCLA's student-athletes interested in capitalizing on their NIL. In the Fall of 2024, UCLA Athletics' official NIL collective was restructured under the Champion of Westwood umbrella to streamline NIL opportunities for UCLA student-athletes.

Extensive work by Jarmond and his staff throughout the COVID-19 pandemic ensured that all Bruin teams could compete safely during the 2020-21 academic year, Jarmond's first at UCLA. Bruin teams won four conference titles that year and the men's water polo program won its 12th national championship in the spring of 2021. The men's basketball team embarked on a remarkable journey, advancing from the First Four to the 2021 NCAA Final Four, UCLA's first national semifinal appearance since 2008. These athletic achievements were balanced by record numbers of student-athletes earning spots on the conference all-academic squads, with 49 individuals earning a perfect 4.0 GPA for the Winter Quarter, and 131 student-athletes earning their UCLA degrees. For the first time ever, the Bruins produced multiple winners of the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Four student-athletes were recognized by CoSIDA as Academic All-Americans.

Jarmond came to UCLA from Boston College, where he served as the school's Director of Athletics for three years. During his time there, he orchestrated the Eagles' first-ever strategic plan, a comprehensive five-year goal to advance the program by fostering student-athlete formation, strengthening competitive excellence, increasing external engagement and enhancing facilities. The strategic plan was supported by BC's first-ever athletics-only capital campaign, at the time, the largest campaign of any Atlantic Coast Conference institution at $150 million. Jarmond hired high-impact coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, volleyball, swimming & diving, men's soccer, women's soccer and fencing. Jarmond served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee and on the John McLendon Minority Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors.

Prior to joining Boston College in 2017 and becoming the youngest athletic director of any Power Five institution at age 37, Jarmond previously served as deputy director of athletics at Ohio State, moving up the ranks after arriving as an associate athletic director for development in 2009. During his time at Ohio State, he was the lead administrator for a variety of sports, including football and men's basketball, and directed external and internal relations and day-to-day operations. He also had responsibility for football scheduling, served on the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee, and was a member of the Inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee. As Ohio State Athletics' chief advancement officer, Jarmond helped raise more than $120 million between 2010-2012.

Jarmond was also an assistant athletic director for development for seven years at Michigan State, where he served on the athletic director's executive leadership team. He was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team and a liaison between Michigan State's university development and alumni association leadership. Jarmond led the efforts to implement Scholarship Seating in football and Courtside seating in men's basketball.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jarmond, 45, earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. A two-year captain of the men's basketball team, he led his team to the program's first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2000 and earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic honors in 2001. He holds both a M.B.A. and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University. Jarmond is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist. They have three daughters: Scarlett, Savannah and Serena.
