USC FACES CROSSTOWN RIVAL UCLA SUNDAY
• Trojans Have Won 4 of Last 5 vs. The Bruins •

TONIGHT'S GAME -- USC (5-12, 0-4) will host UCLA (9-7, 2-2) at the Galen Center on Jan. 15 at 6 p.m. USC has lost a season-high 5 consecutive games and 8 of 9 games overall. The last time USC lost more than 5 consecutive games was when they lost 7 straight during the 2003 season. The game will be televised on FSN with Gus Johnson and Steve Kerr calling the action.

BREAKING DOWN THE BRUINS -- UCLA is coming off a home sweep of the Arizona schools, defeating ASU 75-58 on Jan. 7 and Arizona 65-58 on Jan. 5. The Bruins have won 7 of their last 9 games. Guard Lazeric Jones leads UCLA in scoring with a 13.2 average, but the Bruins have 4 other players averaging over 9 points per game. USC and UCLA split the season series last season with each team winning its home game and the series is tied 11-11 in the past 10 seasons. USC has won 4 of the last 5 meetings, but trails in the all-time series, 104-129.

ARIZONA DEFEATS USC -- USC continued its shooting woes managing only a season-low 29.3 percent and fell 57-46 to Arizona at the Galen Center on Jan. 8. USC made barely over 20 percent from the floor in the first half and trailed at the break 32-16. The Trojans rebounded to win the second half, 30-25, but could not make up the deficit. Maurice Jones led USC with 14 points and Dewayne Dedmon added 11 points and 8 rebounds.

TRIP TO OREGON ON DECK -- Next week USC will make the trip to Oregon to face the Ducks on Jan. 19 in Eugene and then the Oregon State Beavers on Jan. 21 in Corvallis. This season USC will only be facing these two teams on the road. Oregon (11-5, 2-2) will play at the Arizona schools this week before hosting USC. Transfer guard Devoe Joseph leads the Ducks in scoring with a 15.1 average, followed closely by junior forward E.J. Singler's 12.8 average. USC has lost four straight games to Oregon, but leads the all-time series 62-46. After traveling to Arizona, Oregon State (11-5, 1-3) will host UCLA on Jan. 19 before facing USC. The Beavers are led in scoring by junior guard Jared Cunningham's 17.6 average. USC and OSU split the 2010-11 season series and USC leads the all-time series 67-58.

HOLDING THEM DOWN -- USC has held 7 of its 17 opponents to their lowest scoring output of the season to date. Seven of the last 10 opponents have scored under 60 points for a 54.2 average in that stretch. Unfortunately, USC has scored under 60 points nine times in that stretch for an average of 51.7 points per game.

SLOW CONFERENCE STARTS THE NORM FOR USC -- USC is off to an 0-4 start in Pac-12 play. They last time they started 0-4 in conference was the 2005. Including this season, USC's best five-game start to conference play in the last 10 years has been 3-2 (3 times).

BE PART OF IT...MINER JERSEY TO BE RETIRED -- USC will be retiring the No. 23 uniform of Harold Miner tonight. Miner will be in attendance at the game and among the festivities will be a Harold Miner bobblehead giveaway to 2000 lucky fans and a Fanfest in the Hall of Fame area of the Galen Center with face painting, pop-a-shot, sign making, the Dance Force, the Song Girls, posters, video games and much more. Fans can purchase tickets to that game by calling the USC Ticket office at (213) 740-GOSC (4672). Miner is USC's all-time scoring leader with 2,048 points in three seasons. His 23.5 career scoring average is the most by a Trojan as is his 19 30-point games. In 1992 Miner was the Sports Illustrated Player of the Year, AP First-Team All-American and Pac-10 Conference Player of the Year when he averaged 26.3 points per game while leading USC to a 24-6 record.

KO'S CORNER -- Kevin O'Neill was named the USC head coach on June 20, 2009 and brought with him a tireless energy, a brilliant basketball mind and a vast depth of experience at both the collegiate and NBA levels. He has had highly successful stops as a coach or head coach at both the college and NBA levels which have helped him develop strong NBA ties and some impressive defensive systems. In three seasons at the helm of the USC program, O'Neill has compiled a 40-41 record. He guided USC to a 19-15 record and into the NCAA Tournament last season. The Trojans finished tied for fourth in the Pac-10 conference and reached the Pac-10 semifinals. Along the way he oversaw the development of NBA first round draft selection Nikola Vucevic, who went from averaging 2.6 points per game prior to O'Neill's arrival to averaging 17.1 points, a conference-leading 10.3 rebounds and first team all-conference honors. In his first season in 2009-10, O'Neill led USC to a 16-14 record and a fifth-place tie in the Pac-10 Conference. He was named the 2010 Pac-10 Coach of the Year by CollegeInsiders.com. USC was in the hunt for the conference title until the final two weeks of the season, despite playing the second half of the year under the knowledge that self-imposed sanctions would prohibit them from postseason play. O'Neill brings 14 years of collegiate and NBA head coaching experience and has worked in the coaching ranks for 31 years. He has served as a collegiate head coach at Marycrest (1983), Marquette (1990-94), Tennessee (1995-97), Northwestern (1998-00), Arizona (2008) and USC. He also was the NBA's Toronto Raptors' head coach in 2004. O'Neill has compiled a 228-235 career mark as a collegiate head coach, despite for the most part taking over programs that were rebuilding. When he served as an assistant at Arizona under Lute Olson from 1987-89, the Wildcats went 82-19 and went to the Final Four one season. He was named Olson's successor for the 2008 season and guided Arizona to a 19-15 record and into the NCAA Tournament despite four of its top five players being freshmen or sophomores. In seven of his 14 seasons as a head coach of a Division I program, he has guided his teams into the postseason.

BIG GAME HUNTERS -- USC has four wins against ranked teams outside of the conference in the three seasons with Kevin O'Neill as the head coach. The Pac-12 as a whole has a total of nine wins in that stretch against ranked non-conference opponents.

FACING THE BEST -- USC's 2011-12 schedule features 22 of 31 games against teams which finished the 2010-11 season with a record of .500 or better. Among the nonconference highlights were games against perennial national powers Kansas, UNLV, New Mexico, Minnesota, Nebraska, South Carolina and Georgia. Through games of Jan. 11, the teams USC has played are a combined 172-96 (64.2 winning percentage) and 10 of the 17 teams have 10 or more wins and only three of the teams are under .500. USC's last 9 opponents have a combined record of 100-45.

TROJANS ON THE RADIO -- USC's radio flagship station once again will be ESPN Radio 710 with Chris Fisher and Jim Hefner calling all the action.

PAC-12 PREDICTIONS -- USC was picked to finish 7th (194 points) in 2011-12 in the Pac-10 Conference in a vote by the league media. UCLA was picked 1st (421), California 2nd (405), Arizona 3rd (404), Washington 4th (355), Oregon 5th (282), Stanford 6th (255), Oregon State 8th (188), Arizona State 9th (148), Colorado and Washington State 10th (119) and Utah 12th (74).

A HISTORY OF WINNING -- USC has compiled a record of 1,499-1,083* in its 106 years of intercollegiate basketball competition. USC has had a .500 or better record in 76 of the first 105 seasons.

THE GALEN ADVANTAGE -- USC is 3-7 at home this season and is 66-26 in six seasons at the Galen Center since it opened on Nov. 16, 2006. USC is also 34-11 in nonconference games at the Galen Center.

IT'S A NEW DAY... -- The Trojans will have to replace a great deal of their production from the 2010-11 season as starters Nikola Vucevic, Alex Stepheson, Donte Smith and Marcus Simmons have all departed and returning senior point guard Jio Fontan suffered a torn ACL on the team's trip to Brazil this summer. That leaves Maurice Jones' 9.9 points and Garrett Jackson's 3.2 as the only returning scorers from a season ago. The 5-7 Jones is also USC's leading returning rebounder at 2.6 boards per game. USC returns 19.7 percent of its points per game and 12.4 percent of its rebounds per game, all lows for a Pac-12 team.

TROJAN TIDBITS -- USC has only three seniors on its roster, Jio Fontan who will likely miss this season due to injury, Eric Wise who transfered from UC Irvine and will have to sit out the 2011-12 season and walk-on guard Eric Strangis. Nine of USC's 17 players are either freshmen or sophomores. Ten of the 17 players never played in a game for the Trojans before the opener.

INJURY UPDATES -- Curtis Washington (So, F) had surgery to repair his labrum on Aug. 24 and is expected to miss the season. Jio Fontan (Sr. G) had surgery to repair his left ACL on Sept. 13 and is expected to miss the season. Evan Smith (So.*, F) reinjured the left glenoid labrum of his left shoulder on Oct. 18 which had previously been repaired on Dec. 23, 2010. Smith was treated with a conservative treatment plan of rest and rehabilitation, with the goal of returning him to basketball activity without surgical intervention. He returned to action on Dec. 10 vs. New Mexico, but his shoulder has been bothering him and he has not played since Dec. 22 vs. Kansas and is likely done for the season.

* 21 wins and one loss in 2007-08 later vacated due to NCAA penalty.

PAC-12 TELECONFERENCES

The Pac-12 media teleconferences began on Tuesday, Dec. 20 and then go every Tuesday from Jan. 3 until March 6. Media can call the Pac-10 at (925) 932-4411 for the call-in number. Kevin O'Neill's time slot begins at 11:20 a.m. To listen to the taped replay, media can call (402) 222-9927.

A BIG HILL TO CLIMB -- When starting point guard and senior leader Jio Fontan went down with a knee injury in August it left USC with just 19.7 percent of its scoring returning and 12.4 percent of its rebounding returning entering the 2011-12 season. In terms of returning scoring for teams from BCS conferences (ACC, Big East, Big 12, Big Ten, SEC and Pac-12), only 3 schools: St. Johns (3.7 percent), Boston College (10.8 percent) and Texas (17.0 percent) have a lower percentage of returning production. There were only eight schools in the country which entered the season with less than 20 percent of its scoring returning from a season ago.

DEDMON FIGHTING THROUGH ADVERSITY - USC sophomore forward Dewayne Dedmon suffered a non-displaced fracture of his right hand (just above the knuckle of his index finder) during unofficial practice on Oct. 11. He practiced with a cast or splint on his hand until Nov. 9, two days before the season. On Nov. 28 he was diagnosed with a stress injury to the fifth metatarsal in his right foot. Dedmon played on Dec. 3 at Minnesota and in every game since, despite not being able to practice from Nov. 28-Dec. 12, and continues to wear a walking boot when not practicing or playing in games. It was originally believed that he could miss 4-6 weeks. Dedmon has a season-high in points of 16 in the opener vs. CS Northridge on Nov. 11 and has a high of 10 rebounds set vs. Nebraska on Nov. 14. He has scored 8 or more points in 5 of the last six games. Last Sunday vs. Arizona he scored 11 points and grabbed 8 rebounds.

TROJANS TAKE ROUTE 66 -- USC has held its opponents to an average of 55.9 points per game (10th lowest in the country) and has not allowed an opponent to score more than 66 points this season. It is the first time USC has started a season holding the opposition to 66 points or less for the first 17 games since the 1948 season when it held all 24 opponents to under 66 points.

TOE THE LINE -- In games USC has at least 20 free throw attempts they are 3-2 with the losses being a double-overtime setback vs. Nebraska and a 4-point loss to Georgia, which made 9 of 13 3-point shots to earn the win.

NO DEFENSE FOR THIS -- USC has been outscored from the free throw line by 41 points despite taking 2 less free throws that its opponent. USC has struggled at the charity stripe, making just 60.9 percent (165-for-271). USC's opponents have connected at a 75.5 clip (206-for-273).

ALWAYS ENTERTAINING -- Fifty of the 81 games played by USC in the last three seasons have been decided by 10 points or less (61.7 percent). Also, 21 of the 41 losses have been decided by 6 points or less (51.2 percent). USC played five consecutive games decided by 7 points or less to start the season before losing by 11 points to UNLV on Nov. 25. It was the first time since the 2010 season and just the third time in the past 21 seasons USC had played five straight games decided by 7 points or less. USC then defeated South Carolina be three points on Nov. 26, before winning by 21 at UC Riverside and losing by 15 at Minnesota. USC then returned home to lose by three points to New Mexico and by four to Georgia. Nine of USC's 17 games this season have been decided by 7 points or less and 6 by 4 points or less.

DRIVEN BY DEFENSE -- USC has held its opponents to 55.9 points per game and a 41.1 shooting percentage through the first 17 games. USC held opponents to a conference low of 62.7 points per game during the 2010-11 season. USC was 13-1 in games it held the opponent under 60 points last season, the lone loss being its NCAA Tournament loss to VCU (59-46), yet is 3-7 this season when holding the opponent under 60 points. In the past last seasons, USC has held the opponent to under 60 points 91 times and is 70-21 in those games (.769 winning percentage). USC also held the opposition to under 40 percent shooting 16 times during the 2010-11 season and was 14-2 in those games. During the past seven seasons USC has held the opponent to under 40 percent shooting 109 times and is 84-25 in those games (.771 winning percentage). USC has allowed 80 points or more just five times in the first 81 games under head coach Kevin O'Neill and one of those games was a double-overtime contest. USC is 0-5 in those games.

IT'S A FINE LINE -- In four of USC's 12 losses this season, it has made more baskets than the opposition (Nebraska, SDSU, UNLV, UNM). In those four losses the Trojans were outscored 62-26 from the free throw line. In the 12 losses overall, USC has been outscored 146-99 from the free throw line. In 7 of the 12 losses, USC was within 3 points, tied or had the lead with under 4 minutes left in the game.

MOORE AND MOORE HE'S GETTING COMFORTABLE -- USC freshman guard Alexis Moore has started 10 times this season, including the last eight games. In his last seven games, he has averaged 8.3 points, 2.4 rebounds and 2.3 assists. He ranks second on the team with 20 three-point baskets. Moore had a season-high five assists vs. Arizona on Jan. 8.

LET'S GIVE THE DEFENSE SOME CREDIT... -- USC has struggled to score points this season, averaging 53.9 points per game and seven times being held under 50 points which has all been duly noted. What hasn't been mentioned is that six of the first 17 teams USC has faced rank in the top 50 and 10 in the top 68 (out of 344 teams) in opponents scoring. Also, 11 of USC's 17 opponents rank in the top 95 in the country in opponents shooting percentage.

USC RECRUITING CLASS FOR 2012-13 SEASON

The USC men's basketball program received signed National Letters of Intent (NLIs) from guard J.T. Terrell of Peninsula JC in Port Angeles, Washington and forward Strahinja Gavrilovic from La Jolla Prep in La Jolla, Calif. it was announced on Nov. 9 by USC men's basketball head coach Kevin O'Neill.

"J.T. is a dynamic scorer that will be able to impact our team offensively next year," said O'Neill. "He comes in with the experience of playing in the ACC which will allow him to have an immediate impact in the conference. He's an exceptional athlete that can score in a number of ways. He's as talented a perimeter player as I've coached in college."

Terrell is rated as the No. 1 junior college player in America by Swannys Roundball Review. The ultra-quick guard is playing this season at Peninsula JC in Washington, following a freshman season at Wake Forest. In one exhibition game this season for Peninsula, he scored 29 points. Terrell averaged 11.1 points per game during the 2010-11 season at WF, second on the team and fifth among ACC freshmen. Terrell played in all 32 games for WF and made 18 starts, while recording 16 double-figure scoring games. He made a splash in his collegiate debut by scoring 26 points vs. Stetson on Nov. 12, 2010, setting the WF freshman record for points in a first game. He had a season-best 32 points vs. Iowa on Nov. 30, 2010, making seven three-pointers, including the game-winner with two seconds left in the game. His seven three-pointers made tied a WF freshman record. He made 35.7 percent from beyond the arc (50-for-140) and his 50 three-point baskets are the fourth-most ever by a WF freshman. Terrell was one of the top high school scorers in the country as a senior at West Charlotte High, averaging 30 points per game. He was ranked the No. 49 prospect overall by ESPN.com. Terrell was a two-time All-State selection and led West Charlotte to a 22-10 record and the 4A Finals as a senior. His father James lettered two years in basketball at UNC Charlotte (1991-92).

"Strahinja is a very skilled forward who has the ability to use both hands and score inside and outside," said O'Neill. "He can really rebound outside of his area. He has a bright future and his best basketball is ahead of him. Once he adjusts to the college game, we expect him to have a key role in our future. He has a wide repertoire of moves which allows him to score in a number of ways and makes him hard to defend."

Gavrilovic is a 6-8, 220 forward from Kragujevac, Serbia who came to the U.S. this fall and will play his senior year at La Jolla Prep. He is known to have a solid inside and outside game out to three-point range and honed those skills as a member of the Serbian U18 team at the European Championships. His father Zoran played professionally in Europe for more than a decade and is now the Secretary General of the Basketball Association in Serbia.

FRESHMAN FOUNDATION - USC freshmen guards Byron Wesley and Alexis Moore look to be providing the Trojans with good building blocks for the future. Through 17 games, Wesley is the fourth-leading scorer and third-leading rebounder on the team with averages of 6.8 and 4.8 respectively. He is also second on the team in assists with 29. Moore is fifth on the team with a 5.8 scoring average and is second on the team in three-point baskets (20). Wesley has started every game and his 33.1 minutes per game played are the most by a freshman in the Pac-12.

THE YOUNG AND SURE-HANDED - As a young team playing with no senior scholarship players and just three scholarship players who had played in the USC system before, USC has committed just 12.1 turnovers per game (top 12 percent in country). USC did not commit a turnover in the second half vs. Arizona State on Jan. 5 and finished with six total and followed that up with just nine turnovers vs. Arizona on Jan. 8. USC has had 12 or less turnovers in 10 games this season.

MIGHTY MO -- USC's Maurice Jones is second the country in minutes played per game, averaging 38.65 through the first 17 games, one of only four players in the country averaging more than 38.0 minutes per game.

FULLER FIGHTING THROUGH THE PAIN -- USC forward Aaron Fuller ranks second on the team with a 10.8 scoring average and leads the team with 6.2 rebounds per game despite playing all season with a bilateral labrum tear in his left shoulder, his shooting shoulder. He has mainly shot right-handed this season, but now also has a slight tear in his right shoulder suffered on the trip to the Bay Area and had to come out of the game vs. Arizona on Jan. 8 after only 11 minutes played. He scored in double-figures the first 6 games, but only 3 games since.

BOARD GAMES -- USC outrebounded California 38-28 on Dec. 29, including getting 18 offensive boards, its most since registering 20 in the third game of the 2010-11 season. USC fell to 4-2 this season when having more or the same amount of rebounds as the opposition and is 1-10 when being outrebounded. USC allowed 10 or more offensive rebounds eight times. USC was 4-11 in the games it was outrebounded last season.

SLUMPING SHOOTERS -- USC has shot under 40 percent from the floor the last five games and have a 34.1 shooting percentage in that stretch (90-for-264). USC is 6-for-35 (17.1 percent) from three-point range the last three games.

TERRELL'S BEEN A TERROR -- USC's top recruit JC guard J.T. Terrell has averaged 28.3 points through 12 games for No. 2 Peninsula JC (Wash.). He's hitting 50 percent from the field and 45 percent from three-point range. In Peninsula's win on Dec. 3 vs. No. 7 Highline, Terrell hit a three-pointer for the lead and then added two free throws to seal the victory.

USC FACED EXPERIENCED OPPONENTS - Seven of USC's first 10 opponents returned at least four starters from last year's team: Nebraska (4), Cal Poly (4), Morgan State (4), UNLV (4), South Carolina (4), UC Riverside (4) and New Mexico (4). Maurice Jones is USC's lone returning starter and he started the first 25 games and not the final nine.

TROJANS ON TV -- USC's men's basketball team will have 21 to 26 of its 31 regular season games broadcast on television or available online this season. Four games are potential wildcard selections during Pac-12 play. Nov. 14 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

When USC and Nebraska play in basketball you expect a tough, close, low-scoring game and they didn't disappoint with the Cornhuskers defeating USC for the third straight season, this time 64-61 in double-overtime. USC rallied from 7 points back in regulation and had a chance to win it, but Dewayne Dedmon's 15-footer rimmed out. In the first overtime, USC had a 3-point lead, but a a 3-pointer by Bo Spencer hit the heel of the rim and fell through to tie it at 52. Maurice Jones, who finished with 18 points, then hit a runner to give USC a lead with 6.8 seconds left, but USC committed a foul on the ensuing possession and Nebraska's Toney McCray hit a pair of free throws to tie it. Jones's long three-pointer at the buzzer rimmed out. In the second OT, Nebraska built a 6-point lead and hung on as Alexis Moore hit a 3-pointer and Dedmon a dunk to cut it to one. Spencer then hit a pair of free throws and Jones' 3-pointer missed. Spencer had a game-high 22 points and Dedmon a game-high 10 rebounds.

Nov. 22 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

USC rallied from a 16-point first-half deficit to defeat Morgan State 65-62 and snap a three-game losing streak. It was the first time since the 2006 season that USC had played five consecutive games decided by seven points or less. With USC trailing 31-15, Greg Allen hit a three-pointer for his first points as a Trojan and it spurred USC on a 13-5 run to cut the halftime deficit to 36-28. Allen continued his hot shooting with two more three-pointers during USC's 23-6 run out of halftime to open up a 9-point lead. MSU would rally to take a one-point lead with 4:15 to go, but a jumper by Aaron Fuller who finished with a game-high 19 points gave USC the lead back at 61-60 with 3:56 left. After MSU tied it at 62 with a dunk by Ian Chiles, Maurice Jones hit one of two free throws and then a floater in the lane with 38 seconds left for the final score. Jones had 18 points and Allen added 14. Fuller stole a MSU pass with 8 seconds left and USC ran out the clock. USC entered the game holding opponents to 31.2 percent shooting, but MSU torched the nets at a 51.2 percent. USC did force MSU into 22 turnovers, 14 in the second half.

Las Vegas, Nev.

USC gave the undefeated UNLV Runnin' Rebels all they could handle, but faltered down the stretch and lost 66-55 at the Las Vegas Invitational at the Orleans Arena. USC led 46-44 with 9:38 left in the game, but a offensive foul and subsequent technical on Dewayne Dedmon led to a Rebel 8-0 run and UNLV never trailed again. Dedmon fouled out on the play and Aaron Fuller fouled out 3 minutes later, finishing with 16 points. Together Dedmon and Fuller were limited to 22 minutes of action due to foul trouble. Byron Wesley tied Fuller for team-high honors with 16 points. USC was outscored by 11 at the free throw line, struggling to go 6 of 12, while UNLV hit 17 of 20 free throws. USC was outrebounded for the fifth straight game, but made 52.2 percent of its shots to keep the game close throughout. USC had 18 turnovers which led to 28 UNLV points.

Maurice Jones scored 28 and converted all seven of his 3-pointers to lift USC over South Carolina 63-60 in the final round of the Las Vegas Invitational held at the Orleans Arena. Jones set the USC record for most 3-pointers made without a miss and his seven makes tied for third most ever in a game by a Trojan. Jones scored 14-straight points for the Trojans from the 8:39-3:09 mark, turning a 4-point deficit into a 5-point lead at 58-53. Jones wasn't done, though, as he then made two free throws with 19.5 seconds left in the game to help the Trojans seal the win. South Carolina's Malik Cooke missed a potential tying 3-point shot from the top right arc with two seconds left. Dewayne Dedmon had 15 points, 8 rebounds and 3 blocks for USC. Aaron Fuller hauled in 10 rebounds for the Trojans. Damontre Harris led South Carolina with 15 points and 6 rebounds. After being outrebounded in its last five games and allowing the opposition to register double figures in offensive rebounds in each game this season, USC outrebounded South Carolina 28-18 and held them to 6 offensive boards.

Nov. 30 • Student Rec. Center
Riverside, Calif.

Greg Allen scored 11 points and Alexis Moore added 10 to help USC defeat UC Riverside 56-35 in the Trojans' first-ever visit to Riverside. The 35 points surrendered by USC were its lowest since also holding Oregon State to 35 on Dec. 11, 1954. Phil Martin had 13 points to lead UCR, who saw its 16-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents snapped. A sellout crowd of 2,753 packed the small Student Recreation Center to see the game, more than 2,000 more fans than UCR had in its first home game. UCR jumped out to a 10-2 lead by hitting its first three shots and two free throws16-5 run and never looked back. Maurice Jones added 6 points and a career-high 7 assists for USC. USC shot a season-best 54.3 percent and outrebounded UCR 27-22, despite playing its first game without forward Dewayne Dedmon who was diagnosed with a stress injury in his right foot two days ago and is expected to miss 4-6 weeks. USC was just 1-for-5 from the free throw line, the fourth time in school history that had just one made free throw, the last time being vs. Oregon State during the 2010 season.

Dec. 3 • Williams Arena
Minneapolis, Minn.

USC shot just 32.7 percent from the field and lost 55-40 at Minnesota before 11,762 fans, despite holding the Gophers to a season low in points and forcing 18 turnovers. Maurice Jones was the only Trojan in double figures as he tallied 14 points. The close game turned in the final 3:41 of the first half when Minnesota went on a 10-1 run to open up a 28-16 lead at the half. USC made only 21.4 percent of its first-half shots (6-for-28). After getting the first basket of the second half on a jumper by Fuller in the lane to cut it to 10 points, the Trojans would get no closer than 12 points the rest of the way. Dewayne Dedmon was a surprise starter for USC being cleared medically to play prior to the game after being told he could miss four weeks with a stress injury in his right foot five days earlier. USC struggled once again at the free throw line making just 5 of 11, while the Gophers were a perfect 9-for-9 at the charity stripe.

Dec. 10 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

USC battled all the way back from an 13-point first half deficit to take a one-point lead with just over a minute and a half left in the game, but New Mexico hit four free throws down the stretch to come away with a 44-41 win at the Galen Center. Maurice Jones, who had a game-high 19 points, missed a contested three-pointer from the top of the key as time expired. Dewayne Dedmon had a three-point play with 1:51 left in the game to give USC a 41-40 lead, the Trojans' first since 6-5 in the first half. USC made four more field goals than the Lobos, but was outscored from the free throw line 15-3. In fact, USC held New Mexico without a field goal in the final 14:16 of the game, but they scored 11 points from the free throw line to hang on for the win. New Mexico outrebounded USC 36-23, including grabbing 12 offensive rebounds. USC lost despite holding New Mexico to its fewest points in the Steve Alford era and forcing a season-high 24 turnovers by the Lobos. Evan Smith appeared in his first game in nearly two years for the Trojans after battling shoulder injuries.

Kentavious Caldwell-Pope scored 21 points and hit a key late 3-pointer to help Georgia beat USC 63-59 in the Galen Center in a rare West Coast appearance for the Bulldogs. Caldwell-Pope, a freshman, hit four 3-pointers, and Gerald Robinson scored 17 points for Georgia, which snapped a four-game losing skid. The Bulldogs, who hadn't shot better than 41.5 percent in their previous 7 games, shot a season-high 51 percent. They made 9 of 13 3-pointers. Alexis Moore scored a season-high 18 points to lead USC, while Maurice Jones had 11. Aaron Fuller added 10 points. Caldwell-Pope made a 3-pointer to put Georgia up 60-56 with 43 seconds left. He later added a pair of insurance free throws after Moore hit a three-pointer to cut it to one. Jones missed on a long three-pointer to tie with eight seconds left and Gerald Robinson added a free throw for the final margin. USC outrebounded Georgia 35-23 and fell for the first time this season when having more rebounds than its opponent (3-1). The teams were tied at 25-all at the half and USC led by as many as 8 points in the second half.

Dec. 19 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

USC never trailed in scoring a season-high 83 points in an 83-59 win vs. TCU at the Galen Center. USC scored 42 first-half points, more than it had tallied in three of its first 11 games and coasted to the 24-point victory. Maurice Jones led USC with 25 points, 18 in the first half and tied a career high with 7 assists. USC had a season-high 17 assists and a season-low five turnovers in the game. Dewayne Dedmon added 14 points, 6 rebounds, 3 blocks and 3 steals. Bryron Wesley had 13 points and a season-best six assists. USC's 83 points were its most since scoring a 2010-11 season-best 86 points vs. Santa Clara on Nov. 15, 2010. Aaron Fuller just missed on his first double-double as a Trojan by scoring 9 points and grabbing a season-best to date 11 rebounds. Alexis Moore followed up his 18-point effort vs. Georgia with 12 points, his second-highest scoring effort so far this season. The win snapped USC's three-game losing streak and dropped TCU to 2-1 in road games this season. TCU became the first Trojan opponent since Washington State in 2009 to not register a steal.

Dec. 22 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

After a sluggish start which saw USC trailing 13-12 with 5:46 left in the first half, Kansas went on a 12-1 run to finish the half and cruise to a 63-47 victory at the Galen Center. USC made just 5 of 22 first-half shots (22.7 percent) and committed 13 first-half turnovers to trail 25-13 at the break. The 13 first-half points were a season low and too much to overcome, despite playing the Jayhawks pretty even in the second half. Aaron Fuller had two early fouls and four points, but came back in the second half to finish with a game-high 19 points on 7 of 10 shooting. Kansas had four players score in double figures and outrebounded USC 39-29, dropping the Trojans to 1-7 in games they have been outrebounded. Kansas outscored USC 14-2 on fastbreak points and 28-22 on points in the paint. The Trojans were held to under 50 points for the fourth time in the last 10 games.

Allen Crabbe converted three free throws after a controversial foul call with 8.4 seconds left and California earned a hard-fought 53-49 victory over USC in the Pac-12 Conference opener for both schools. USC had trimmed a 16-point second half deficit (40-24) to one point at 50-49 when Aaron Fuller scored a layup with 44 seconds left. Cal ran the clock down for one shot in the hands of Jorge Gutierrez who had his layup attempt blocked by Dewayne Dedmon. The rebounded was controlled on the perimeter by Cal's Allen Crabbe who heaved the ball towards the rim as the shot clock expired. After a long review and debate by the officials, it was determined that Crabbe was fouled by Eric Strangis before the shot clock went off and that it was a three-pointer. Three swishes later by Crabbe and Cal walked away with the win and ran its home record to 10-0. Maurice Jones fueled USC's comeback by knocking down three late 3-pointers to finish with 17 points. USC outrebounded Cal 38-28, but shot just 33.9 percent for the game. USC's 18 offensive rebounds were its most since grabbing 20 vs. Rider on Nov. 17, 2010.

Arizona State didn't look like a team playing without three suspended players as they shot the lights out from the beginning of the game and earned a 62-53 win at the Galen Center, the Sun Devils' first at USC's six-year old arena. Arizona State was led by a career-high 22 points from Carrick Felix and 19 from Trent Lockett, who was forced to play the point with leading scorer Keala King suspended. ASU shot a season-best and a USC opponent best 61.1 percent from the field to control the game, including 53.8 percent from 3-point range. ASU's shooting percentage was its best in 84 road games, which also came at USC on Jan. 17, 2004 (61.2 percent). ASU led by 10 at halftime, but USC was able to cut the lead to one point at 40-39 with 9:12 to go, but the Sun Devils responded with a 12-2 run and USC got no closer than 5 points down the stretch. Aaron Fuller led USC with 14 points, while Maurice Jones added 13 and Byron Wesley 10. USC had twice as many shots in the second half and did not commit a turnover after the break, but shot just 33.3 percent from the floor and could not cut into the ASU lead.

Jan. 8 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

USC continued its shooting woes managing only a season-low 29.3 percent and fell 57-46 to Arizona at the Galen Center. USC made barely over 20 percent from the floor in the first half and trailed at the break 32-16. The Trojans rebounded to win the second half, 30-25, but could not make up the deficit. USC was able to close to within 10 points with just under nine minutes left, but could get no closer. Maurice Jones led USC with 14 points and Dewayne Dedmon added 11 points and 8 rebounds. The two teams combined to go 3-for-30 from three-point range, with USC going 1-for-15 from beyond the arc. Aaron Fuller played just 11 minutes in the first half due to his shoulder injuries causing him too much pain to continue. Arizona's Jesse Perry had a game-high 20 points and Solomon Hill posted a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

THE 2011-12 TROJANS -- USC returns only two players who logged significant minutes for the 2010-11 team. USC went 19-15 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament where it lost in the first round to eventual NCAA Final Four team VCU. The lone player returning who started a year ago is 2010-11 Pac-10 All-Freshman team selection Maurice Jones (25 starts). Jones averaged 9.9 points, 3.2 assists and 2.6 rebounds, while setting the USC freshman steals record with 69. The 5-7 guard's 2.6 rebounds per game are the most by a returning Trojan. USC lost key seniors Marcus Simmons, Donte Smith and Alex Stepheson and junior Nikola Vucevic departed early for the NBA. Also, USC had expected to rely heavily on senior point guard and co-captain Jio Fontan, but he tore his ACL on the team's exhibition trip to Brazil in August. With Fontan's injury, only Jones (337 points), sophomore forward Garrett Jackson (107 points) and injured redshirt sophomore forward Evan Smith (13 points) have scored any points in a Trojan uniform entering this season.
