A new era of UCLA women's volleyball began on Dec. 19, 2022 when UCLA Athletics announced Alfee Reft as the program's new head coach. Reft, who arrives to Westwood after leading the University of San Diego to its first National Semifinal appearance in his role as associate head coach, puts an emphasis on his relationships with student-athletes.

"We have a responsibility as coaches to provide an experience for our athletes that not only gives them the tools and space to be successful, but the opportunity to grow and really learn themselves not just as athletes, but as people. What resonates with me is the human connection component and the ability to really have purposeful and meaningful experiences with our athletes that push them to be elite and the best in the gym, but more importantly, help them discover new levels of themselves outside of the gym."

Joining Reft on his first-year coaching staff are associate head coach Jen Maclom and assistant coaches Amir Lugo-Rodriguez and Noah Casaquit.

The 2023 Bruin squad is led by Preseason All-Pac-12 middle blocker Anna Dodson. In 2022, Dodson was selected to the All-Pac-12 Team and AVCA Pacific South All-Region Honorable Mention after leading UCLA with a .330 hitting percentage on her 259 kills. Dodson achieved double-digit kills in 13 matches and ranked second on the team with 2.54 kills per set in her 27 starts and 102 sets played. She is UCLA's second-highest returning point scorer (259) behind fellow senior Iman Ndiaye.

Ndiaye is expected to once again be one of the Bruins' leading attackers. She enters her final season at UCLA averaging 2.20 kills per set at a .218 hitting percentage in her career. Last year, Ndiaye was named All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention, leading the Bruins in kills in eight of their 29 matches.

"The new energy that was brought with this staff, it has been tremendous for our team," Ndiaye said. "We feel so supported in every facet of the sport and outside of the sport. We feel that the sky is the limit."

Joining Dodson in the middle blocker position group is transfer Desiree Becker from Northwestern. Standing at 6-foot, 2-inches, Becker comes to the Bruins following her best season yet at Northwestern where she was the leading blocker on a Wildcats squad that finished with an 18-14 record for their highest win total since 2010. Becker finished the season with a team-high 118 blocks and ranked fifth with 177 kills over 110 sets on the season.

Other transfer additions include outside hitters Carly Hendrickson from Florida and Joy Umeh from UC Irvine. Umeh, a two-time All-Big West selection in the 2021 and 2022 seasons, has one year of eligibility remaining with the Bruins in 2023. As UC Irvine's right side hitter, Umeh led the Anteaters in kills her sophomore and junior seasons with 425 kills and 395 kills, respectively.

At setter, senior Audrey Pak and Ashley Mullen are expected to split time early in the season. Mullen, who was ranked as the No. 4 setter in the country by Prep Volleyball, was an AVCA First Team High School All-American her senior year. She competed in the highly-competitive UnderArmour All-American Game in Winter 2022.

Notable position changes include Kate Lane who moved from setter to opposite hitter and Mokihana Tufono who moved from setter to libero. Tufono is expected to hold down UCLA's starting libero spot with junior Peyton Dueck as a potential backup.

Reft attended UCLA men's and women's volleyball matches as a youth and excited to roam the Bruins' sidelines as just the fourth head coach in program history.

"I don't go a day without thinking about that," Reft said. "That responsibility and that feeling of, 'Wow, this is UCLA', is what allows me to do the most of my time. I never want to take that for granted because it is such a special place to be at and I have a special group of young women I get to work with every day. I never want to lose sight of that. That's what puts the fire in my belly every day."

As for motivating his inherited group, Reft believes there is no need as that burning desire to win is already there.

"We set a vision for this season," Reft said. "I have (Dodson and Ndiaye) who could have opted to go wherever they wanted (this offseason). I think they believe in what this program could be. The motivation was here before I got here. Our job as a staff is to just see that through and create the resources and avenues to be everything they know they can be."

CREDENTIALS

Admission to Pauley Pavilion's press seating is by credential only. All credential requests should be made through UCLA women's volleyball athletic communications contact Vinny Lavalsiti (vlavalsiti@athletics.ucla.edu). Credential requests for road matches should be made, via email, with Vinny Lavalsiti. Additional information about media policies are available by visiting www.uclabruins.com/media.

CREDENTIAL PICKUP

Credentials can be claimed on the day of the game at Pauley Pavilion. Media members should consult with Vinny Lavalsiti from the Athletic Communications Office in advance, for credential pickup.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking passes are distributed in a digital/electronic format. To secure a parking pass, contact the UCLA Athletic Communications office at least two days in advance of the game. Media members will be encouraged to park in Lot 8, located along Westwood Boulevard (the structure sits just south of Pauley Pavilion and is adjacent to Spaulding Field). Lot 8 can be accessed off the 405 freeway (use the Wilshire Blvd. exit, and proceed east). For Lot 8, take Wilshire Blvd. and turn left to Westwood Blvd. toward UCLA's campus

MEDIA ENTRANCE/SEATING

The arena's media seating is located along the sideline of Nell and John Wooden Court. Media members are encouraged to use The Dick Enberg Media Room, which is also located on the court level (arena's east side). Media members are encouraged to enter Pauley Pavilion from the north-facing door nearest to the arena's built-in ticket window (across from the intramural field and Lot 7).

MEDIA SERVICES

Media are encouraged to access all in-game statistics online. UCLA's Athletic Communications Office and the Pac-12 Conference utilizes the StatBroadcast.com website (available by visiting uclabruins.com). For special arrangements regarding Ethernet connection or phone line, media members should contact Vinny Lavalsiti in advance (email, vlavalsiti@athletics.ucla.edu). Media with questions about the UCLA women's volleyball program, ranging from player backstories to statistical research, should contact Vinny Lavalsiti.

PHOTOGRAPHY

UCLA's Athletic Communications Office will make every effort to include as many photographers as possible (seated along the sideline). UCLA Athletics may also be supplying photos with a pool photographer at select games. Photo credentials should be ordered in the same manner as media credentials. Freelance photographers will not be credentialed. Photos of UCLA Athletics events and of student-athletes may not be sold or used for personal promotion. Photo passes should be worn in plain sight at all times.

POST-GAME PROCEDURE

Following a cooling-off period, head coach Alfee Reft and UCLA student-athletes will be available in a press conference format in the Dick Enberg Media Room (located on the court level). UCLA's locker room is closed to the media. For any interviews with the visiting team, media members are encouraged to make prior arrangements with the athletic communications personnel from that school.

WEEKDAY INTERVIEWS

Requests for coach and player interviews should be made to Vinny Lavalsiti in the Athletic Communications Office. Please give at least 48 hours notice. A concerted effort will be made to conduct these interviews in-person. Other options include a phone interview or ZOOM interview. UCLA's practices are closed to the media and public.

Alfee Reft, Iman Ndiaye and Anna Dodson speak to the media during the Bruins' preseason press conference.

DIRECTIONS

Directions to UCLA and Pauley Pavilion: From Los Angeles International Airport, take Century Blvd. east to the San Diego Freeway (405). Take the 405 north to Wilshire Blvd. (approx. 12 miles). Continue east on Wilshire, make a left on Westwood Blvd. Continue north along Westwood toward campus. Parking passes can only be obtained through the UCLA Athletic Communications office (digital format).

UCLA WEBSITE

All news releases, results and statistics are posted on UCLA's official website (uclabruins.com). The official website includes postgame video recaps, featured video items with student-athletes and links to UCLA's social media websites, including Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Vinny Lavalsiti is currently in his third season as the media contact for the UCLA women's volleyball program. All interview and credential requests should be directed to Vinny Lavalsiti (via email).

Mokihana Tufono (middle) looks up at the Bruins' pregame hype video with élan McCall (Class of 2022) and Anna Dodson (right).

UCLA'S HOME ARENA FOR OVER HALF A CENTURY

UCLA will play its 53rd season in Pauley Pavilion presented by Wescom in 2023. This will mark the 12th women's volleyball season since the arena opened after undergoing a 33-month, $136-million renovation prior to the 2012-13 school year.

The Bruins have gone 32-18 in Pauley Pavilion the last five seasons. During the Fall 2021 season, UCLA went a perfect 12-0 at home, including an 11-0 mark inside Pauley. It was the Bruins' first perfect home record since 1999.

The facility first opened in 1965 and has served as one of the nation's most premier all-around collegiate arenas. Pauley Pavilion's renovation included the addition of nearly 1,000 seats, allowing the building to accommodate as many as 13,800 guests in various event formats – sporting events, concerts, award shows and commencement exercises. While calling Pauley Pavilion its home, the women's volleyball program has won four NCAA championships and 10 conference titles.

Highlights of the renovation and expansion included a new seating bowl with renovated aisles and steps and a retractable seating system on the event level. Pauley Pavilion features state-of-the-art, center-hung HD video board and LED ribbon board encircling the arena's interior. The renovation allowed for more than 25 additional points of sale for concession and an increased number of restrooms (by 154% of the previous total). The building's north side includes two large locker rooms with player lounges and one film room. Other amenities include a sports medicine room, equipment room, storage space and a multi-purpose workroom that serves as the media room during the women's volleyball and basketball seasons.

The Pavilion Club on the mezzanine of the same structure serves the campus for numerous special events, while the building's exterior showcases a marketplace on the south side and a beautifully landscaped plaza to the east (adjacent to UCLA's Meyer and Renee Luskin Conference Center, which opened in August of 2016). UCLA dedicated the floor in Pauley Pavilion as "Nell and John Wooden Court" prior to a men's basketball game against Michigan State on Dec. 20, 2003. During his 27-year UCLA coaching career, Coach Wooden compiled an astounding 149-2 record in Pauley Pavilion (which opened during his 18th season as the program's head coach).

Regarded as one of the nation's finest all-around collegiate facilities, Pauley Pavilion has been the site of numerous illustrious events, including 16 volleyball NCAA Championships (women's in 1981, '84 and '91; men's in 1970, '71, '75, '77, '79, '84, '85, '87, '89, '93, '96, '99 and '05) and the 1984 Olympics gymnastics competition.

In 1991, Pauley Pavilion served as the site for the U.S. Olympic Festival basketball and gymnastics competitions. Many world-class competitions, including a historic table tennis match between the United States and China, have taken place in Pauley Pavilion.

Between 1983 and 1995, the UCLA women's volleyball team played some of their regular-season home contests in the more intimate setting of the Wooden Center. Attendance averages for matches in the Wooden Center from 1990-94 hovered around 1,200 per match, and topped out with a standing-room only crowd of 2,500 to see the Bruins face Stanford on Oct. 19, 1991. The Wooden Center has also played host to many NCAA volleyball matches over the years, particularly first-round contests and regional competition. The Bruins last played a match in the John wooden Center during the Fall 2021 season, beating Arizona in straight sets on Nov. 21.

Some of the top names in women's volleyball history have competed in Pauley Pavilion. The list includes Liz Masakayan, Natalie Williams, Mac May, Kristee Porter, Daiva Tomkus, Julie Bremner, Kerri Walsh Jennings (Stanford), Logan Tom (Stanford) and Misty May-Treanor (Long Beach State).

Entertainers such as Bob Dylan, Bob Hope, Henry Mancini, Frank Sinatra, Luciano Pavarotti, Nirvana, Bobby Brown, Eric Clapton, Guns and Roses, the Grateful Dead and Jay-Z have performed in UCLA's home facility. More recently, the venue has served as a host site in the summer to the Nickelodeon Kids' Sports Choice Awards.

UCLA's longest winning streak in Pauley Pavilion was 30 matches across the 1991-95 seasons. This historic women's volleyball streak began with a 3-0 sweep over Washington State on Nov. 8, 1991.

Pauley Pavilion was introduced to the University at the June 1965 Commencement exercises, at which time it was dedicated and named for Regent Edwin W. Pauley, the principal donor to the building fund. The Pauley family also contributed to UCLA's Campaign of Champions.

Total cost of the original Pauley Pavilion was as follows: $2 million by the State, $1 million by the student body and in excess of $2 million by the alumni with $1 million of the alumni contribution donated on a matching basis by Regent Pauley. The building's address is 301 Westwood Plaza, Los Angeles, CA, 90095.

UCLA women's volleyball will occasionally occupy the John Wooden Center for home matches.

7 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

UCLA's program has won seven national championships, including four under the umbrella of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. Six of those seven titles, and three NCAA titles, came under legendary head coach Andy Banachowski who was the first women's volleyball coach to be inducted into the International Volleyball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Overall, the Bruins have played in 38 NCAA Women's Volleyball Tournaments, which ranks fourth behind only Penn State, Stanford and Nebraska. In addition, UCLA has advanced to the NCAA Final Four 12 times and has posted a record of 94-35 in the NCAA Tournament. The Bruins have compiled a 72.9 overall win percentage in the tournament.

UCLA's first championship in 1971-72 came under the governing body of the Division of Girls and Women's Sports (DGWS) which would later evolve into the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) in 1972.

UCLA's four NCAA titles ranks fourth all-time behind Stanford (9), Penn State (7) and Nebraska (5).

AVCA POLL HISTORY

The longest-standing poll for women's collegiate volleyball is the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Poll, beginning in 1982. The Bruins have appeared in the poll every year and have been ranked in 555 weeks which ranks third among all programs behind only Nebraska (603) and Stanford (595). Additionally, the Bruins have been ranked inside the top 10 in 340 of those 555 weeks, last appearing in 2018.

UCLA has been ranked No. 1 in 56 weekly polls which is fourth among all programs behind Nebraska (102), Penn State (95) and Stanford (78).

Liz Masakayan was the first Bruin to win the Honda Sport Award for Women's Volleyball in 1985.

CONFERENCE HISTORY

Entering its 58th season in 2023, UCLA has secured 10 regular-season conference titles. All 10 conference titles were won by head coach Andy Banachowski. UCLA's last conference title was in 1999.

Banachowski's Bruins went on a remarkable run in the late 1980s and early 1990s with five conference titles across six seasons. From 1988-90, the Bruins three-peated for the Pac-12 title with a combined record of 54-0.

The Bruins have finished runner-up in the conference standings 16 times. UCLA's seven Pac-10/12 Conference titles rank second behind Stanford (20) and Banachowski's seven titles rank third among coaches behind Stanford's John Dunning and Don Shaw who each own eight.

CONFERENCE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Five Bruins have won the Pac-10/12 Conference Player of the Year award a total of seven times. Most recently in Fall 2021, Mac May became the second Bruin in program history to win the award multiple times. She joined Daiva Tomkus who won UCLA's first two conference player of the year awards in back-to-back seasons in 1988 and 1989.

UCLA went on a remarkable run in the early 1990s, winning back-to-back NCAA titles in 1990 and 1991 and recording runner-up finishes in 1992 and 1994. Leading the Bruins during that stretch was a trio of stars who three-peated the Pac-10 Player of the Award: Natalie Williams in 1992, Julie Bremner in 1993 and Annett Buckner in 1994.

THE HONDA/BRODERICK AWARD

The Collegiate Women's Sports Awards began in 1976 as the Broderick Awards, named after Tom Broderick. In 1985 when American Honda agreed to serve as sponsor, the name was changed to the Honda-Broderick Awards in transition and then became the Honda Awards. The award winner is to reflect "not only athletic achievement but also the ideals of team contribution, scholastic endeavor, school and community involvement and those personal characteristics as stated in the philosophy of the NCAA."

The program includes 12 sports awards for the best female athlete in each of the 12 NCAA-sanctioned sports. The Honda Award winner for their respective sport is then named a finalist for the Honda Cup, signifying the Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

The UCLA women's volleyball program has won three Honda Sport Awards, including Liz Masakayan who is the Bruins' first-ever winner in 1985 and Natalie Williams who won the award two years in a row in 1991-92 and 1992-93.

UCLA's FOUR-TIME ALL-AMERICANS

Natalie Williams (1989-92) and Elaine Youngs (1988-92) are the only two UCLA student-athletes to be named an AVCA All-American four times in a career. The two stars' careers coincided with one another to lead the Bruins' powerful surge to the top of the women's volleyball world in the 1980s and 90s. Both outside hitters, Williams and Youngs proved to be one of the most talented attacking duos in the history of the sport. Together, they won two NCAA Championships and three Pac-10 Conference titles. They concluded their careers with an astonishing 71-1 record (.986) in Pac-10 matches.

Natalie Williams, a 6-1 outside hitter from Taylorsville, Utah who also starred on the UCLA women's basketball team, was named to the Second Team her freshman season and earned First Team honors the next three years. She is one of three players in program history to haul in AVCA First Team All-American honors three times in a career (Davia Tomkus, Nellie Spicer). In 1992, Williams became the first and only Bruin ever to be named AVCA National Player of the Year.

Youngs, a 6-0 outside hitter from El Toro, Calif., was named to each the Second Team and First Teams twice in her career.

Williams and Youngs are two of 13 players from the UCLA women's volleyball team to be enshrined in the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame.

Andy Banachowski, the fourth winningest Division I women’s volleyball coach in history, retired on June 30, 2010 following a 43-year career at the helm of the UCLA women’s volleyball program. He retired as the winningest women's volleyball coach in history and second all-time on the wins list in both men's and women's collegiate volleyball behind legendary UCLA men's coach Al Scates.

One of the most impactful figures on the sport of women's collegiate volleyball, Banachowski was the first women’s volleyball coach inducted into the International Volleyball Hall of Fame in 1997. Banachowski is enshrined in every other major volleyball hall of fame organization: USA Volleyball Hall of Fame (2000), AVCA Hall of Fame (2003), UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame (2010) and Southern California Indoor Volleyball Association Hall of Fame (2017). He is also the first volleyball inductee into the Serra High School and San Mateo County Halls of Fame and was inaugurated into the National Polish-American Sports Hall of Fame in June 2009.

Banachowski and UCLA women’s volleyball were synonymous since the program’s inception in 1965. He directed the Bruins for all but two of those seasons, the 1968-69 and 1969-70 campaigns, which directly followed his graduation. The Bruins won six national championships over Banachowski’s tenure, winning the program’s first title in 1972 while affiliated with the Division of Girls and Women’s Sports (DGWS). In 1974 and 1975, UCLA combined for a record of 60-4, winning back-to-back Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) championships. Since the NCAA began sponsoring women’s sports in 1981, the Bruins appeared in 11 Final Fours under Banachowski, winning championships in 1984, 1990 and 1991 and earning runner-up finishes in 1981, 1983, 1992 and 1994. Banachowski retired with more victories than any other coach in women’s collegiate volleyball history. On Nov. 12, 2005, Banachowski became the first Division I women’s coach to reach 1,000 career victories when the Bruins handed eventual national champion Washington its only loss of the season in a five-game thriller at Pauley Pavilion.

Banachowski coached at least one All-American in each of his final six seasons. UCLA women’s volleyball earned 42 AVCA All-American honors, to go with 52 Under Armour/Volleyball Magazine All-American awards under Banachowski. He also coached players to numerous other awards, including 48 All-Pacific Region honors, 98 All-Conference awards, five Pac-10 Players of the Year and the National Player of the Year in 1992 (Natalie Williams). Eighteen Bruins earned All-NCAA Tournament accolades, including Williams, who was named Most Outstanding Player in both 1990 and 1991. Williams also won two Honda Awards under Banachowski’s tutelage in 1992 and ‘93, with Liz Masakayan earning the honor in 1985.

In his final season in 2009, Banachowski guided the Bruins to a 24-9 record. It was the program’s 11th-consecutive, 20-win season, as UCLA finished in a tie for second in the Pac-10. On Oct. 31, 2009, Banachowski won his 1,100th match in a five-set triumph at Stanford. His final career record was 1,106-301 (.786).

In 2006, Banachowski led the Bruins to their first Final Four appearance and 30-win season since 1994. UCLA won its first 20 matches of the year and breezed through the first four rounds of the NCAA Tournament with four straight, three-game sweeps. Following the 2006 season, Banachowski was honored as the Tachikara/AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year, the second time he had been named Coach of the Year, with the other coming in 1989. He also received Volleyball Magazine Coach of the Year honors for the fifth time and AVCA Pacific Region COY accolades for the fifth time (1989, ‘92, ‘93, ‘98). On five occasions, Banachowski was named Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year (1988, ‘89, ‘93, ‘94, ‘98).

In February 2007, Banachowski was named head coach of USA Volleyball’s Junior National Team. That July, he guided Team USA to a fourth-place finish at the FIVB U-20 Junior World Championships, the best-ever finish for the United States in that tournament.

Banachowski was involved with the U.S. Olympic Team as a coach many times. He was a former advisor with the U.S. National Team, helping teams during the 1990 Goodwill Games, the 1992 Summer Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain, the 1995 Pan-American Games in Argentina and the 1996 Summer Olympic Games in Atlanta. Additionally, he coached the West Team in the 1986 Olympic Festival. In 1993, Banachowski was the head coach of the U.S. World University Games squad, a group which achieved the highest American finish in WUG history, earning a silver medal in Buffalo. N.Y.

Banachowski coached 22 former Bruins who trained with the U.S. National Team following their UCLA careers. He has also coached five indoor and nine beach Olympians. The beach team of former Bruins Annett (Buckner) Davis and Jenny (Johnson) Jordan, as well as former Bruin Holly McPeak, comprised three of the four members of the U.S. Beach Volleyball Team for the Sydney Olympics in 2000. Additionally, Elisabeth Bachman was a member of the 2004 U.S. Olympic Team (indoor) for the Athens Games. On the beach in ‘04, a team of former Bruins (McPeak and Elaine Youngs) won a bronze medal with Masakayan as their coach. Youngs (with partner Nicole Branagh) returned to the Beijing Games in 2008 with Masakayan as their coach. In 2016, Lauren Fendrick (with partner Brooke Sweat) played in the Rio Games.

Many Bruins have also been involved in the Association of Volleyball Professionals (AVP) Tour on the beach, including Davis, Fendrick, Jordan, McPeak, Youngs, Ashley Bowles and Chrissie Zartman.

In May 2000, Banachowski was presented with USA Volleyball’s highest honor, the All-Time Great Coach Award, and was simultaneously honored with the George L. Fisher “Leader in Volleyball” award, recognizing his off-court endeavors on behalf of volleyball.

The Volleyball Festival has recognized Banachowski with its “Distinguished Service to USA Volleyball” award, and he has also been recognized with the Founders Award for his role as a co-founder of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA).

As a player, Banachowski was a two-time All-American under Scates, winning USVBA National Championships in 1965 and 1967. After his graduation, Banachowski pulled double-duty with the UCLA women’s and men’s volleyball programs, serving as Scates’ chief assistant from 1972-77, a period in which the Bruins won four NCAA titles (1972, ‘74, ‘75, ‘76). On three occasions (1972, ‘74 and ‘75), Banachowski won titles with both the men and women.

BRUINS AT THE OLYMPICS

Twelve UCLA women's volleyball alumnae have competed on either the U.S. indoor or beach Olympic teams. A total of four Bruins have won an Olympic medal. Most recently in the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Summer Games, Sarah Sponcil, who competed for the Bruins' indoor team in 2017, placed ninth on the beach in her pair with Kelly Claes.

Laurie Lewis, one of Andy Banachowski's first student-athletes, competed in the 1968 Mexico City Olympic Summer Games on the just the second-ever U.S. Indoor Team.

MEDAL WINNERS

Three Bruins have gone on to claim a medal at the Olympics. Jeanne (Beauprey) Reeves (1979-82) helped the United States to its first indoor volleyball Olympic medal at the 1984 Los Angeles Summer Games, claiming silver. Karsta Lowe was on the bronze medal-winning indoor team for Team USA at the 2016 Rio Olympic Summer Games.

Holly McPeak and Elaine Youngs, who were coached by Liz Masakayan, teamed up to win the bronze medal on the beach in the 2004 Athens Olympic Summer Games.
