HEAD COACH CARRIE FORSYTH

Having led the Bruins to a pair of NCAA Championships, while coaching players to over 90 All-American awards and six conference Golfers of the Year, Carrie Forsyth begins her 20th season leading the UCLA women's golf program in 2018-2019.

Under Forsyth, the Bruins have won NCAA Championships in 2004 and 2011, and have finished runner-up three more times in 2005, 2008 and 2009. UCLA has finished in the Top 10 at the NCAA Championships 14 times in the last 19 years, including 2016 and 2018 when it won the stroke-play competition. In addition to the pair of national championships, Forsyth has also led the Bruins to eight NCAA Regional crowns, including back-to-back wins three times (2002, 2004-2005, 2008-2009, 2011-2012, 2014).

The Bruins have claimed five Pac-10/12 Conference titles, winning the league championship in 2017 and 2018. In 2017, UCLA was the only team to finish in red figures and won by 21 strokes. A year later, the Bruins again were the only squad to score under par, winning by 12 shots. UCLA also won back-to-back-to-back Pac-10 titles in 2004, 2005 and 2006. The Bruins have placed in the Top 3 of the conference on 15 occasions. Five Bruins have won the conference individual championship: Charlotte Mayorkas (2004), Tiffany Joh (2007), Alison Lee (2014), Lilia Vu (2017) and Patty Tavatanakit (2018). Vu defeated the field in 2017 by six shots, with Tavatanakit besting Vu in a playoff in 2018.

Six Bruins have been named Pac-10/12 Golfer of the Year, including four of the last five (Vu, 2018; Bronte Law, 2015 and 2016; Alison Lee, 2014). Joh was the league GOY in 2008, while Mayorkas earned the award in 2004. Seven have received Pac-10/12 Freshman/Newcomer of the Year: Tavatanakit (2018), Vu (2016), A.Lee (2014), Erynne Lee (2012), Joh (2006), Hannah Jun (2004) and Yvonne Choe (2002).

Forsyth is a six-time Pac-10/12 Conference Coach of the Year, earning the award last year, as well as in back-to-back seasons twice (2011-2012; 2004-2005) and in 2002. Forsyth was also named the WGCA Region Coach of the Year in 2018, the fourth time she has been bestowed the award (2012, 2010, 2004). In 2004, she was named the WGCA National Coach of the Year, while in 2011, Forsyth earned Golfweek National Coach of the Year plaudits.

The Bruins have received a total of 95 All-American awards during the last 19 seasons, 50 WGCA/NGCA honors and 45 Golfweek accolades. In 2018, Vu was the second Bruin to be named PING WGCA Player of the Year, joining Law in 2016. Law was also the second Bruin to earn Golfweek POY honors (A.Lee - 2014). In 2016, Law became the second Bruin recipient of the ANNIKA Award, joining Lee. Also on the national level, Tavatanakit was the 2018 WGCA Freshman of the Year, joining A.Lee (2014) and E.Lee (2012) as Bruin recipients.

Along with its six conference Players of the Year and seven league Freshman/Newcomers of the Year, UCLA has received 54 All-Pac-10/12 First or Second Team honors since 2000. A total of 21 players have won 58 individual tournament titles during Forsyth's tenure, as the Bruins have won 69 events.

Over a dozen Bruins, who were under Forsyth's tutelage at UCLA, are currently members of the LPGA and Symetra Tours. In 2014, Mo Martin (2001-2005) became the first Bruin to win a major with her victory at the Ricoh British Open. Later that year, Alison Lee won the LPGA Qualifying Tournament to become the second player in school history to earn her tour card while being a UCLA student. The first was Stephanie Kono in 2011.

On Dec. 6, 2011, Forsyth was inducted into the NGCA Coaches Hall of Fame. She married James Forsyth on July 26, 2003, and the couple resides in Santa Clarita with their twin sons and daughter.

SEASON TEAM SUMMARY

UCLA has finished first, second or third in five of its 12 tournaments this season, posting wins at the Golfweek Conference Challenge (Sept. 24-26, -32, 832) and the Dual Match Versus Denver (March 26, E, 288), second-place finishes at the ANNIKA Intercollegiate presented by 3M (Sept. 17-19, -26, 838) and the Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge (Feb. 3-5, +17, 869) and a third-place showing at the NCAA East Lansing Regional (May 6-8, +10, 874).

Due to sophomore Patty Tavatanakit and now-professional Lilia Vu going through the LPGA Q-Series, as well as Tavatanakit (ANA Inspiration) and junior Mariel Galdiano (Kia Classic) taking part in pro events as amateurs, the Bruins have fielded this starting five of Galdiano, Tavatanakit, senior Beth Wu, junior Clare Legaspi and freshman Phoebe Yue in just four tournaments (Bruin Wave Invitational, Darius Rucker Intercollegiate, Pac-12 Women's Golf Championship and NCAA East Lansing Regional).

UCLA finished a combined 58-under par in its first two tournaments of the season (ANNIKA and Golfweek Challenge), and has posted nine under-par rounds. Just two of the under-par rounds have occurred during the spring season, shooting a 2-under 286 in the final round of the PING/ASU Invitational and a 3-under 285 in the second round of the NCAA East Lansing Regional.

PATTY TAVATANAKIT

Sophomore Patty Tavatanakit, who is on the Watch List for the PING WGCA Division I Player of the Year and ANNIKA Awards, is coming off a second-straight, NCAA Regional title, shooting an 8-under 208 in East Lansing for her seventh career victory and third of the season (ANNIKA Intercollegiate, Dual Match Versus Denver). It marked the eighth win for a Bruin in NCAA Regional play (Bronte Law, 2016; Stephanie Kono, 2011; Maria Jose Uribe, 2008 and 2009; Sydnee Michaels, 2007; Hannah Jun, 2004).

The Pac-12 First Team honoree leads the Bruins with a 71.6 scoring average, having finished inside the Top 10 on six occasions. Including her victory at the NCAA Regional, she has tied for 22nd at the Pac-12 Championship and tied for 10th at the PING/ASU Invitational in her last three tournaments.

Tavatanakit has 11 under-par rounds, with seven of those being in the 60s, shooting a 9-under 63 in the final round of the ANNIKA. She shot a 13-under 203 in her three rounds at the ANNIKA and an 11-under 205 in her second-place finish at the Golfweek Conference Challenge. Tavatanakit also tied for fourth at the Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge.

Last season, Tavatanakit was the WGCA and Pac-12 Conference Freshman of the Year, as well as WGCA First Team All-American and All-Pac-12 First Team, as she tied a UCLA single-season record for victories with four, also setting a new freshman mark for wins in one season.

BETH WU

Senior Beth Wu holds a 73.4 scoring average, having also tallied two wins (Dual Match versus Denver, PING/ASU Invitational). She comes into the NCAA Championship with consecutive Top 20 showings, tying for 18th at the Pac-12 Women's Golf Championship (+7, 220) and tying for 11th at the NCAA East Lansing Regional (+2, 218).

Wu has three Top 10s on the season and eight Top 20s, tying for 10th at the Nanea Pac-12 Preview (-1, 218), tying for 15th at the ANNIKA Intercollegiate (-3, 213), tying for 16th at the Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge and tying for 18th at the Bruin Wave Invitational.

Her victory at ASU saw her finish at 7-under 209 thanks to a 6-under 66 and a 4-under 68 in her final two rounds. Wu has nine under-par rounds, with four of them being in the 60s. She opened the NCAA East Lansing Regional with a 2-under 70.

In her career, Wu has been named All-Pac-12 Conference

Honorable Mention three times, while also being named WGCA Honorable Mention All-America as a freshman.

CLARE LEGASPI

Junior Clare Legaspi has a 74.0 scoring average, recording three Top 10s and five Top 20s. Her final round at Pac-12s, where she tied for 30th, saw her shoot a 1-under 70. Her seventh and most recent under-par round came in the second round of the NCAA East Lansing Regional, where she tallied a 2-under 70, as she tied for 27th overall.

Legaspi tied for third at the Dual Match Versus Denver (-1, 71), tied for fourth at the Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge (+3, 216) and tied for seventh at the Golfweek Conference Challenge (-3, 213).

She has recorded two rounds in the 60s, both in first rounds at the Golfweek Challenge and Stanford Intercollegiate. Legaspi tied for 18th at the Bruin Wave Invitational and tied for 20th at Stanford.

MARIEL GALDIANO

Junior Mariel Galdiano is on the next five list for the ANNIKA Award Watch List, as she was also named All-Pac-12 Conference First Team.

She is second on the team with a 72.3 scoring average, having posted two victories at the Golfweek Conference Challenge and the Stanford Intercollegiate, the first two wins of her career. Galdiano has four Top 10s and eight Top 20s, including a T-11 finish at the Silverado Showdown and a T-13 showing at Pac-12s prior to the NCAA Regional (T-53).

Galdiano has nine under-par rounds and four in the 60s. Her best round of the season was a 9-under 62 at Stanford. Galdiano, who is a combined 11-under in her second rounds this season, was a combined 23-under in her first three tournaments of the season. She tied for third at the Bruin Wave Invitational, tied for eighth at the Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge, tied for 12th at the Nanea Pac-12 Preview and tied for 18th at the ANNIKA Intercollegiate.

Galdiano is coming off earning WGCA and Golfweek Second Team All-American awards last season, as well as a First Team All-Pac-12 honor.

PHOEBE YUE

Freshman Phoebe Yue has played in 10 tournaments, posting a scoring average of 78.9. Her best tournament of the season came at the Bruin Wave Invitational, where she tied for third. The final round of that tournament featured her best round of the season, a 1-over 73.

Yue was 40th at the Pac-12 Women's Golf Championship and tied for 82nd at the NCAA East Lansing Regional.

HISTORY AT NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

UCLA has won three NCAA Championships (2011 in Bryan, Texas; 2004 in Auburn, Ala.; 1991 in Columbus, Ohio). The last two triumphs have come under current head coach Carrie Forsyth, with the 1991 title hoisted under former coach Jackie Steinmann. The best finish for a UCLA player at the NCAA Championship came in 2008 when Tiffany Joh tied for first, however, she lost the individual title in a playoff. The Bruins also have a trio of third-place individual finishes (1996, Kathy Choi; Susie Mathews, 2004; Amie Cochran, 2005, T-3).

Last season in Stillwater, Okla., the Bruins tied for first with Alabama in stroke play (+9, 1,161) to earn the top seed for match play. Galdiano tied for seventh (-1, 287), Tavatanakit (+3, 291) tied for 19th, Wu tied for 38th and Legaspi tied for 60th. UCLA would fall, 3-2, in the NCAA Match Play Quarterfinals to eventual national champion Arizona. Two years prior in Eugene, Ore., UCLA finished first in stroke play (-8, 1,144), won the quarters against Oregon, but fell again to the eventual national champion Washington in the semifinals.

In their 25 previous trips to the NCAA Championships, the Bruins have finished the stroke play portion in the Top 8 on 20 occasions (1st - 5 times; 2nd - 4 times; 3rd - 2 times; 4th - 2 times; 5th - 4 times; 6th - 2 times; 8th - 1 time).

MATCH PLAY SUCCESS

In four seasons of college match play, Wu is 11-5-2, including a win against Arizona last season. Galdiano and Legaspi are each 4-4-1 in their careers, while Tavatanakit is 2-2.
