UCLA TRAVELS TO CORVALLIS FOR EASTER WEEKEND SERIES

The eighth-ranked Bruins head to Corvallis for an Easter weekend series at Oregon State. The series begins on Thursday at 2 p.m., continues on Friday at 3 p.m. and concludes on Saturday at 2 p.m. All three games will air live on Pac-12 Network and feature live stats on UCLABruins.com.

WHAT'S NEXT

The Bruins play four times at Easton Stadium next week, hosting Cal State Fullerton on Tuesday, April 18 at 7 p.m. and California in a three-game series (Friday, April 21 - 7 p.m., Saturday, April 22 - 7 p.m., Sunday, April 23 - 5 p.m.).

BRUINS IN THE POLLS

UCLA moved up one spot to eighth in this week's USA Today/NFCA poll and up three positions to ninth in the latest ESPN.com/USA Softball rankings.

TRIO OF TUESDAY AWARDS FOR RACHEL GARCIA

Redshirt freshman Rachel Garcia was recognized with three awards on Tuesday, earning USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Week, Pac-12 Conference Pitcher of the Week and Pac-12 Freshman of the Week honors.

Garcia helped the Bruins to a series victory over then-#1 Oregon last weekend. In the circle, she picked up a pair of wins last Friday and Saturday, posting a 1.66 earned run average in the three games with eight strikeouts in 12 2/3 innings. At the plate, Garcia had hits in all three contests, going 4-for-8 with an RBI, a run and a pair of doubles.

Garcia tossed a complete-game, five-hit shutout last Friday versus the Ducks, striking out three. She also scored the game-winning run in the second inning after reaching base on a single. The next night, Garcia picked up another win, this time in relief, with three shutout innings and three strikeouts, adding another single. On Sunday, Garcia doubled in each of her first two at-bats, including an RBI two-bagger in the fourth inning.

For the season, Garcia is 12-5 with a 1.79 ERA and 107 strikeouts in 105 2/3 innings, while recording a .295 batting average, three home runs, 16 runs batted in and six doubles.

Garcia recorded the 16th USA Softball National Player of the Week award in program history and the first since 2014. She also picked up her third and fourth weekly conference honors. Garcia was named Pac-12 Pitcher of the Week on Feb. 21 and Pac-12 Freshman of the Week on March 28. This week's awards mark the 65th Pac-10/12 Pitcher of the Week for UCLA and the fourth Freshman of the Week honor in just the third year the award has been bestowed.

NEWS AND NOTES

The Bruins recorded the program's 1,800th victory with their win on March 26 against Dartmouth ... UCLA had 17 comeback victories last season and already has nine this year, including another one versus Dartmouth ... the Bruins were 22-0 last year when leading after five innings and 23-0 when up after six. This year, UCLA is 20-0 and 21-0 in those instances ... the Bruins led the nation in double plays last season (45) and have 18 in 2017 (T-22nd) ... UCLA also enters this week's play ranked ninth in home runs (43) and 17th in slugging (.501) ... in the circle, redshirt freshman Rachel Garcia did not allow a run in her two wins against #1 Oregon last weekend, the 14th and 15th times in 25 appearances in which she has not allowed a run. At the plate, Garcia has hits in seven of her last eight contests, batting .385 (10-for-26) with two homers and four RBI during that stretch ...

junior Johanna Grauer has allowed zero or one earned run in 13 of her 20 appearances, recording a 0.77 ERA, an 8-0 record and 55 strikeouts in 63 1/3 innings in those contests ... sophomore Paige Halstead had a five-game hitting streak from March 26-April 7, batting .625 (10-for-16) with three RBI during that stretch. The streak began with three-straight, multiple-hit contests, going 3-for-3 versus Dartmouth and 2-for-4 and 3-for-4 in the first two contests in Washington ... junior Madeline Jelenicki had hits in all three games against Oregon to extend her hitting streak to six. Over her last half dozen contests, Jelenicki is batting .421 (8-for-19) with two homers and eight RBI ... senior Gabrielle Maurice reached base in all three games at Washington, posting two hits, two walks and two hit by pitches ... freshman Bubba Nickles ended the Washington series on a high note, going 4-for-8 in the last two contests to snap a seven-game hitless streak. Three of her hits were doubles, while the fourth was a homer in the series finale as she drove in three in that game to tie a season high ... junior Kylee Perez had two multiple-hit contests in Seattle and continues to lead the team in that category with 16. In her last at-bat of last weekend versus Oregon, Perez drove in a pair on a single, her sixth multi-RBI contest ... sophomore Zoe Shaw had an impact in all three games against Oregon, driving in the game-winning run in game one, scoring the walk-off run on a passed ball in game two and posting two singles in game three. She also had a great defensive play in the middle contest, gunning down a runner at the plate from second after entering that position from right field following an injury to Perez ... senior Delaney Spaulding has hits in 29 of her 38 contests. She is in the UCLA Top 10 in 10 categories, including second in runs scored (210), third in doubles (55) and fourth in slugging percentage (.709) ... junior Selina Ta'amilo did not allow an earned run in 21 1/3 consecutive innings from March 3-12. She tossed six shutout innings on Saturday against Oregon ... sophomore Brianna Tautalafua has hits in 15 of her last 18, including five of the last six Pac-12 contests. She leads the team in home runs with 10, the last of which came in the series finale at Washington.

SCOUTING THE OREGON STATE BEAVERS

Oregon State comes into this week's series at 19-17 overall and 2-7 in Pac-12 play, winning one of three at Washington last weekend. The Beavers are batting .298 as a team with 26 home runs and 28 stolen bases, averaging 5.0 runs per game. Sophomore Shelby Weeks leads the team with a .390 average and 10 steals, junior McKenna Arriola is second with a .384 average and junior Alysha Everett is tied for the team lead with six home runs. Senior Taylor Cotton has a team-low ERA of 2.24, posting a 7-4 record and 80 strikeouts in 87 2/3 innings, while freshman Nerissa Eason is 8-10 with a 4.20 ERA and 63 strikeouts in 90 innings.

THE SERIES: BRUINS VS. BEAVERS

The Bruins lead the all-time series with the Beavers 96-13 and won two of three at Easton Stadium last season. UCLA has won 10 of the last 11 against Oregon State, including five in a row in Corvallis, where the Bruins have a 38-7 record.

#9 BRUINS DROP SERIES FINALE TO #1 OREGON

The ninth-ranked Bruins were unable to pull off a sweep of #1 Oregon on Sunday, dropping the series finale by a score of 11-4.

UCLA (28-10, 4-5 Pac-12) had nine hits from six different players, as junior Madeline Jelenicki, sophomore Zoe Shaw and redshirt freshman Rachel Garcia each posted two-hit contests. In the circle, Garcia (12-5) struck out two in 2 2/3 innings, giving up six runs (three earned), five hits and two walks. Junior Selina Ta'amilo fanned two in 3 1/3 frames of relief, allowing four runs (two earned), four hits and three walks. Redshirt senior Paige McDuffee struck out one in one-plus inning of relief, giving up a run and two hits.

Oregon (36-2, 9-2) jumped on the Bruins with a six-spot in the third thanks to a two-run double by Nikki Udria, an RBI single by Mia Camuso and a three-run homer from Madi Bishop.

The Bruins strung together three consecutive doubles to open the fourth, as sophomore Brianna Tautalafua scored on a two-bagger by Jelenicki, who came home on a double by Garcia to cut the deficit to 6-2.

Oregon got those runs back plus another with three in the fifth, scoring a pair on errors and another on a fielder's choice grounder. In the seventh, a two-run homer by Udria extended the Ducks' lead to 11-2.

The Bruins rallied with a pair in their half of the seventh, as junior Kylee Perez drove in senior Gabrielle Maurice and Shaw on a two-out single up the middle to make it 11-4, which would be the final score.

#9 BRUINS BEAT #1 DUCKS ON WALK-OFF PASSED BALL

Sophomore Zoe Shaw scored the game's lone run on a passed ball in the bottom of the ninth, as the ninth-ranked Bruins clinched a series victory on Saturday with a 1-0 win over #1 Oregon at Easton Stadium.

The Bruins improved to 28-9 overall and 4-4 in Pac-12 play, while the Ducks fell to 35-2 and 8-2 in league action.

Junior Selina Ta'amilo and redshirt freshman Rachel Garcia combined on a five-hit shutout, as the Bruins became the first team to blank Oregon in back-to-back games since 2013. Ta'amilo struck out two in six-plus innings, giving up three hits and one walk. She had a 1-2-3 frame in the first. Garcia relieved Ta'amilo in the seventh and tossed three more scoreless innings, fanning three and giving up two hits to improve to 12-4 on the season. Garcia struck out the last two batters she faced in the ninth.

The Bruins had just four baserunners through the first eight innings and none from the third through the seventh, as Oregon's Maggie Balint held UCLA's bats in check. A hit by pitch of junior Kylee Perez in the first, a single to right by junior Madeline Jelenicki in the second and a Garcia single and walk to freshman Bubba Nickles were the only Bruin baserunners until their final at-bat.

Oregon stranded eight, including one in each inning from the third through the sixth. In the seventh, a pair of singles and a sacrifice gave the Ducks runners at third and second with one out. But on a ground ball by Lauren Lindvall to second, Shaw, who came in from right field to replace Perez following her first-inning plunking, gunned down Jenna Lilley at home for the second out. A grounder to short ended the top of the seventh.

In the ninth, Shaw led off by reaching on an Oregon error and moved to second on a wild pitch, with a walk to freshman Jacqui Prober putting a pair on. After a sacrifice by senior Delaney Spaulding moved both runners up, sophomore Brianna Tautalafua came to the plate. The first pitch from Balint was dropped by catcher Gwen Svekis and rolled to the backstop, as Shaw scampered home with the walk-off win.

#9 BRUINS SEND #1 OREGON TO FIRST LOSS

Redshirt freshman Rachel Garcia struck out three in a five-hit, complete-game shutout on Friday at Easton Stadium, while an RBI single by sophomore Zoe Shaw and a solo homer by junior Madeline Jelenicki proved to be the only offense the Bruins needed in #9 UCLA's 2-0 victory over #1 Oregon.

The Bruins improved to 27-9 overall and 3-4 in Pac-12 play, while sending the Ducks to their first loss of the season (35-1, 8-1).

Garcia allowed just one runner to reach third base throughout the entire contest, retiring the final 11 batters of the game, as well as the side in order in the second. She did not walk a batter in improving to 11-4 on the season. The Bruins had five hits from five different players.

The Bruins drew first blood in the second. Garcia posted a one-out single up the middle and moved to second when freshman Bubba Nickles was hit by a pitch. One out later, Shaw singled through the 3-4 hole to score Garcia to put UCLA ahead 1-0.

The first pitch of the bottom of the fourth doubled the Bruins' lead, as Jelenicki launched one just inside the left-field fair pole for her ninth homer of the season to make it 2-0.

Oregon had baserunners in three of the first four innings, but were unable to come home, stranding six. With runners at third and first and two outs in the fourth, the Ducks' best chance was thwarted on a fly out to center to end the inning.

RACHEL GARCIA NAMED PAC-12 FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Rachel Garcia earned Pac-12 Conference Freshman of the Week honors, as announced on March 28.

Garcia recorded a win and a save in the circle with 10 strikeouts in 7 2/3 shutout innings, while adding three hits in nine at-bats. In a doubleheader sweep against BYU (March 25), Garcia started game one and tossed a complete-game one-hitter, striking out nine in seven innings. She would come into the nightcap in relief, getting a pair of outs in the seventh and striking out one for the save. At the plate, the redshirt freshman singled in the second game against BYU and added two singles the next day versus Dartmouth.

MEDIA GUIDELINES AND POLICIES

Credentials: Media and photography credentials for home games may be obtained by working press only by contacting Assistant Athletic Communications Director James Ybiernas at the phone numbers or e-mail address above. All requests should be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Credentials can be picked up at the entrance to Easton Stadium.

Interviews: All interviews must be arranged through the UCLA Athletic Communications Office. Student-athletes have been instructed not to grant any interviews, in person or by telephone, not arranged by the Athletic Communications Office. Telephone numbers are private and will not be released. Please do not expect student-athletes to be available if you have not made prior arrangements. Players and coaches are available after practice depending on availability. Interviews during different times, other than practice, will require advance planning. If you would like to reach a player or coach while the team is on the road, please contact James Ybiernas via his cell phone.

KELLY INOUE-PEREZ
11TH YEAR AS HEAD COACH
24TH YEAR AT UCLA
UCLA, 1993
RECORD: 466-154-1 (.751)

Kelly Inouye-Perez is beginning her 11th season as the Bruins' head coach in 2017.

Last year, the Bruins advanced to the Women's College World Series for the second season in a row, winning the final two games of the Eugene Super Regional to oust Oregon. UCLA, which swept the Los Angeles Regional, went 40-16-1 overall and 16-5-1 in Pac-12 play to finish second in the conference. The Bruins led the nation in double plays turned with 45 and also ranked in the Top 31 in five other categories, coming in at T-15 in home runs (67), 18th in slugging (.514), 21st in on base percentage (.413), 23rd in runs per game (6.21) and 31st in batting average (.316).

Three Bruins earned NFCA All-American honors, with Mysha Sataraka and Delaney Spaulding receiving Second Team accolades and Alexiss Bennett picking up Third Team plaudits. In addition, six players earned All-Region honors and five were named to the All-Pac-12 Teams. On Feb. 13, Inouye-Perez won her 400th career game in a 6-5 victory over Wichita State.

Inouye-Perez and her staff were named the NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the third season in a row and fourth time during Inouye-Perez's head coaching tenure (2010). In the classroom, the 2016 Graduation Success Rate was at 100 percent, the fourth straight season UCLA softball accomplished that feat.

In 2015, the Bruins went 51-12 to post their first back-to-back, 50-win seasons since 2002-2003. UCLA finished second in the Pac-12 (19-5) and advanced to the WCWS for the first time in five seasons. The Bruins, who led all NCAA Tournament teams in homers during the postseason with 17, were tops in the country in batting average (.367), second in on base percentage (.467), tied for second in doubles (107), fourth in runs scored (7.92) and slugging (.608) and 11th in homers (89). The Bruins set single-season school records in average, slugging, on base, runs, RBI and walks. Four Bruins were named NFCA All-Americans, with Bennett and Ally Carda earning First Team honors and Spaulding and Stephany LaRosa being named Second Team. A school-record seven Bruins were named NFCA West All-Region, while seven were honored on the All-Pac-12 teams, including Carda, the back-to-back Player of the Year.

In 2014, the Bruins recorded the nation's best winning percentage (.867) with a 52-8 record, the most wins for a UCLA team since 2003. Inouye-Perez picked up her 300th career coaching victory at Hawai'i on Feb. 8. The Bruins finished second in the Pac-12 (19-5) and tied for ninth nationally, reaching the Super Regional round of the NCAA Tournament. UCLA ranked fourth nationally in slugging, ninth in average and homers per game, 13th in runs per game and 18th in earned run average. Carda and LaRosa each earned First Team All-American accolades, with Carda also being named a Top Three finalist for the USA Softball National Player of the Year Award and Pac-12 Player of the Year. Six Bruins were named All-Region and seven were honored on the All-Pac-12 Teams.

The Bruins posted a 40-20 record in 2013, tying for fifth in the Pac-12 with a 10-14 mark and reaching the Regional Championship game of the Louisville Regional. B.B. Bates was named Second Team NFCA All-American, four were honored on the All-Region squad and six earned All-Pac-12 nods.

In 2012, UCLA went 36-20 and tied for fourth in the Pac-12 with a 12-12 record. Four Bruins earned All-American honors, tied for the most for any school in '12, as LaRosa was named First Team, Andrea Harrison and Katie Schroeder Second Team and Samantha Camuso Third Team. Seven were named to the All-Pac-12 Team, including Freshman of the Year LaRosa, while six were All-Region winners.

In 2011, UCLA recorded a 36-19 mark and tied for sixth in the Pac-10 (9-12). Six Bruins were honored on the All-Conference Teams, while Harrison was named First Team All-Region and All-American. Inouye-Perez earned her 200th career victory on March 11 against Sacramento State.

Inouye-Perez led the UCLA softball program to its 12th national title and 11th NCAA Championship in 2010. The Bruins (50-11) went a perfect 10-0 in the postseason, including 5-0 at the Women's College World Series. UCLA set numerous WCWS records, including the most home runs in one tournament with 14. Megan Langenfeld was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS, while Camuso and Harrison each earned All-Tournament honors. Following the season, Inouye-Perez and her staff were honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year. UCLA set a single-season school record for home runs with 108. Langenfeld and GiOnna DiSalvatore were each named to the NFCA All-American First Team. The Bruins also had three players named to the All-Region Team and eight honored by the Pac-10.

In 2009, she led the Bruins to a Pacific-10 Conference Championship, as UCLA went 45-11 overall and 16-5 in league play. She was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year and earned her 100th career victory on Feb. 22 against Maryland. In 2008, the Bruins went 51-9 and advanced to the WCWS, finishing second in the Pac-10 with a 17-4 record. In her first season at the helm of UCLA in 2007, Inouye-Perez posted a 37-18 overall record and a 12-9 Pac-10 mark (T-3rd).

Over Inouye-Perez's 10 seasons, the Bruins have earned 26 All-American awards, 48 All-Region honors and 71 All-Pac-10/12 accolades.

Inouye-Perez, just the third head coach in UCLA softball history, officially took over the reins from Sue Enquist on Jan. 1, 2007. Enquist announced her retirement as head coach on Sept. 26, 2006.

No stranger to the Bruin dugout, Inouye-Perez starts her 29th straight season in Westwood in 2017. She is a link to four decades of Bruin softball success, joining the UCLA softball program as a freshman in 1989. Inouye-Perez's time is highlighted by seven NCAA Championships and eight Pac-10 titles in her previous 28 years, spending five campaigns as a player and 13 as an assistant coach.

Over Inouye-Perez's 13 seasons (1994-2006) as an assistant coach, UCLA was 617-150-1 (.804) and appeared in the NCAA title game seven times, winning the NCAA Championship in the 1999, 2003 and 2004 seasons. The Bruins also won three Pac-10 titles during that span (1999, 2002, 2006) and in 2004 were named the National Coaching Staff of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

Inouye-Perez's primary responsibility as an assistant coach was guiding the Bruin pitchers and catchers, a list which includes many of the most honored and recognizable names in collegiate softball. Behind the dish, where Inouye-Perez also starred as a three-time All-Pac-10 honoree during her playing days at UCLA, she helped mold and influence arguably the best catcher in the history of USA Softball in Stacey Nuveman. Under Inouye-Perez's tutelage, Nuveman became a three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, four-time, First Team All-American and the NCAA's all-time single-season and career home run leader.

Since the Pac-10 Conference began issuing a Pitcher of the Year Award, UCLA has been honored with two winners, Courtney Dale in 1999 and Keira Goerl in 2003. Among the other pitching highlights accomplished by the Bruins over her 13 years as an assistant included at least one All-American award earned by a UCLA pitcher in 12 of those campaigns, including DeeDee Weiman, four-time Olympian Tanya Harding and two-time Olympian Amanda Freed.

In addition, nearly every UCLA pitching record has been set during the time Inouye-Perez has overseen the Bruin battery and the top five pitchers on UCLA's career wins list, Goerl, Selden, Carda, Freed and B'Ann Burns, were coached by her.

As a player, Inouye-Perez was an exceptionally strong fielder behind the dish for the Bruins. She made her mark immediately as a collegiate player, earning First Team All-Pac-10 as a true freshman and Second Team as a sophomore, leading the Bruins to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Championships before receiving a medical redshirt in 1991 due to shoulder surgery.

She came back strong in 1992, picking up Second Team All-Pac-10 honors as the Bruins once again won the national championship and finished with a 54-2 record, the fewest losses in a season in program history. Inouye-Perez also was named to the 1992 All-Women's College World Series Team, going 5-for-12 (.417) with four RBI during WCWS play. She wrapped up her career as a fifth-year senior in 1993 with an NCAA runner-up finish. Impressively, Inouye-Perez did not commit a single fielding error during her final two seasons.

Among the UCLA pitchers during her five seasons as a player were Lisa Longaker and Lisa Fernandez, both of whom were named to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary All-WCWS Team. During her UCLA career, Inouye-Perez played in 22 Women's College World Series games, a mark that is tied for third-best in UCLA history behind only Lisa Fernandez and Kristy Howard (23). Inouye-Perez graduated from UCLA in 1993 with a B.A. in psychology and earned her master's degree in physical education from Azusa Pacific University in 2004.

Prior to college, Inouye-Perez was one of the top players during her ASA days, winning four national championships, with the Panthers (1984, '85 and '89) and the Raiders (1986). She also competed on an international level in Japan in 1985 and in Peru in 1987 (Pan American Qualifier) and followed her collegiate career with time playing on the NPF Pro Tour.

Inouye-Perez and her husband, Gerardo Perez, currently reside in Cerritos. Along with Kelly's exploits on the diamond, Gerardo competed as a catcher/DH for Cerritos College from 1988-90 and helped lead the Falcons to the 1989 Junior College National Championship. After a stellar career at Cerritos, he went on to compete at Loyola Marymount, earning First Team All-West Coast Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. He currently teaches health and coaches baseball at Gahr High School in Cerritos. The couple has two children, Michael (17) and Kylie (12).
