BILLY MARTIN

Head Coach
29th Season
Redlands '89

The program's all-time leader in head-coaching wins, Billy Martin enters his 29th year guiding UCLA men's tennis in 2021-22. It also marks his 39th year on staff, as he served as an assistant coach for 10 years prior to taking over for Glenn Bassett in 1994. Owner of a 617-135 (.820) record in dual matches, Martin passed friend and mentor Bassett with win No. 593 on April 25, 2019. The longest-tenured active head coach at UCLA is only the fourth in the history of the men's tennis program, following legends Bill Ackerman (1921-50), J.D. Morgan (1951-66) and Bassett (1967-93). Martin became just the third active head coach to be inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame, joining Al Scates and Valorie Kondos Field, in 2015. Perhaps the most amazing accomplishment in Martin's career is his ability to contend for a championship each and every year, as only four times has he had a team finish out of the top five at the season-ending NCAA Championships.

Martin's finest season at UCLA came in 2005 when he led the squad to its first NCAA title since 1984. UCLA's 4-3 come-from-behind victory over top-seeded and undefeated Baylor that year marked the Bruins' 16th NCAA team championship in men's tennis and the school's 97th overall. The win snapped Baylor's 57-match winning streak, the second longest in NCAA history. It also avenged the team's 4-0 loss to the Bears in the 2004 NCAA final.

In addition to the team's dramatic run to the title in 2005, Martin has had several near misses at the NCAA Championships, including 2013, when the top-seeded Bruins were narrowly edged by No. 2 Virginia, 4-3 in the championship match in Champaign, Ill. Under Martin, UCLA has advanced to the NCAA final on three other occasions (1996, 1999 and 2004). After reaching the final in just his third year as head coach, Martin was named the 1996 ITA National Coach of the Year, as the Bruins finished with a 27-1 overall record.

During the coronavirus-shortened 2020 dual-match campaign, Martin collected the 600th win of his coaching career. He has guided 20 teams to 20 or more wins in his 27 completed seasons. The 2018 squad logged a 30-3 record en route to the national semifinals.

Another significant highlight in Martin's career is his outstanding success in the highly-competitive Pac-12 Conference, where he owns a 171-30 (.851) record. Under Martin's direction, UCLA has captured 15 regular-season conference titles, including four in a row from 2004-07 and 2016-19. His teams swept through conference regular-season play from March 25, 2016-March 26, 2021, a stretch that spanned 33 matches. UCLA has finished out of the top three in the Pac-12 standings just once during Martin's tenure and has won four conference tournament titles (2013, 2014, 2016, 2018). He has been named Pac-12 Coach of the Year five times (1996, 2012-14, 2018).

In addition to his numerous team accomplishments, Martin takes great pride in helping his players achieve their individual goals, as well. In 2006, he helped Benjamin Kohlloeffel become the 10th player in school history to capture the NCAA singles championship. Kohlloeffel notched a straight-set win over Virginia's Somdev Devvarman in the title match that year, becoming the first Bruin player since Martin in 1975 to win the title. Kohlloeffel's victory put his coach in an elite category, as Martin joined Georgia's Manny Diaz as the only other active head coach to earn the career "triple crown" by leading their schools to three different titles at the NCAA Championships (team, singles and doubles). In 2014, Martin helped Marcos Giron become the school's 11th NCAA Singles Champion when Giron downed Pepperdine's Alex Sarkissian in straight sets in the 2014 championship match in Athens, Ga. In 2016, Martin coached three-time All-American Mackenzie McDonald to the NCAA singles crown. The Bruin junior dispatched top-ranked Mikael Torpegaard of Ohio State in straight sets to become UCLA's 12th NCAA singles champion. McDonald was named the 2016 ITA National Men's College Player of the Year and earned his second straight Pac-12 Player of the Year nod (2015, 2016).

Martin has coached four NCAA doubles champions, including three of the last five. The first came when he guided Justin Gimelstob and Srdjan Muskatirovic to the title in 1995. His second came in 2016, when McDonald and Martin Redlicki coasted past No. 8 Arthur Rinderknech and Jackson Withrow of Texas A&M, 6-4, 6-1, in the final. In 2018, Redlicki and Evan Zhu earned one of the final spots in the field and proved their inclusion was warranted, edging Torpegaard and Martin Joyce of Ohio State in a thriller, 6-7 (8), 7-6 (4), 1-0 (9). Most recently, Maxime Cressy and Keegan Smith completed an undefeated season by beating Patrick Kaukovalta and Mazen Osama of Alabama, 6-3, 6-4, in the final. Cressy and Smith did not drop a set on the year, beating 15 nationally-ranked opponents along the way.

In all, 33 players have achieved All-America status under Martin's direction.

Inducted into the ITA Men's Collegiate Tennis Hall of Fame in 1996, Martin's playing career is full of highlights. To this very day he is still regarded as one of the best junior players in the history of the sport. He captured the 1973 and 1974 singles titles at Junior Wimbledon, the Junior U.S. Open and Junior Orange Bowl tournaments. Inside Tennis Magazine ran an article that named him "Junior Player of the Century." Due to his tremendous success as a junior player while growing up in Illinois, Martin was inducted into the USTA Midwest Section Hall of Fame in December of 2010. He was also inducted into the Southern California Tennis Association Hall of Fame in August of 2011.

Although Martin played just one season at UCLA before turning pro, the 1975 season was a special one, as he guided the team to a perfect 19-0 dual-match record en route to an NCAA team championship during his freshman year.

After capturing the 1975 NCAA singles championship, Martin turned professional and enjoyed a fine career. He reached the Wimbledon singles quarterfinals in 1977 and was selected Rookie of the Year in his first professional season.

Martin defeated top pros such as Ken Rosewall (twice), Stan Smith, John Newcombe, Roscoe Tanner and Harold Soloman. In 1975 he won the Arkansas International singles title. He also won doubles championships in 1977, 1979 and 1981 in Laguna Niguel, Calif., Brussels, Belgium and Bristol, England, respectively.

Martin attended UCLA for three years, working on his undergraduate studies before completing his bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Redlands in 1989. He earned his MBA from USC in 1991.

During the summer, Martin runs the Bassett-Martin Tennis Camp, one of the country's most successful camps for youngsters. Martin also directs the UCLA Summer Tennis Camps held on the UCLA campus.

Martin and his wife, Justine, have two children, William and Travis. William played college tennis at Saint Mary's (2012-15) and served as volunteer assistant coach for UCLA in 2019 and 2020, while Travis played for the Bruins from 2014-17.

RIKUS DE VILLIERS

Associate Head Coach
Ninth Season
Fresno State '11

Rikus de Villiers enters his ninth season on the UCLA men's tennis coaching staff and second as associate head coach in 2021-22. He served in the role of volunteer assistant coach for five of the six seasons prior to his promotion by head coach Billy Martin in June 2018. De Villiers replaced Grant Chen, who was named head coach at SMU.

In his first season as a full-time assistant, de Villiers helped UCLA to its fourth straight regular-season Pac-12 title. The Bruins went 8-0 in conference play, stretching their winning streak in Pac-12 regular-season matches to 29. They would go on to reach the third round of the NCAA tournament. There was also individual success, as the duo of Maxime Cressy and Keegan Smith posted a 21-0 record and claimed the 14th NCAA doubles championship in program history.

De Villiers joined the UCLA staff in the fall of 2012 and immediately aided the Bruins in their run to the final round of the NCAA Championships the following spring. Over the course of his five seasons on staff, UCLA registered an overall record of 124-28 (.816) and dropped just two regular-season Pac-12 matches (32-2). The Bruins also secured three Pac-12 Tournament titles during de Villiers' time as a volunteer. He coached American Ryan Harrison on the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP) World Tour during his time away from the program in 2015-16.

Prior to joining UCLA, de Villiers played collegiate tennis from 2008-2011, spending one season at Pepperdine before transferring to Fresno State. The Durban, South Africa native came into his own with the Bulldogs, earning All-Western Athletics Conference (WAC) recognition each year. It was a breakout 2011 for de Villiers and the Bulldogs, who advanced to the NCAA Championships Second Round after claiming the WAC's automatic bid to the tournament. Individually, de Villiers was named to the All-WAC Singles and Doubles First Teams. De Villiers and partner Remi Boutillier earned a second trip to the NCAA Doubles Championships and finished the season ranked No. 18 in the Campbell/ITA doubles rankings. De Villiers reached a career-best No. 83 on the singles list.

A multiple-time winner at the African Championships as a junior player, de Villiers picked up his first ATP point at just 14 years old.

BEN GOLDBERG

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
UCLA '21

Ben Goldberg was named volunteer assistant coach for UCLA men's tennis Sept. 24, 2021 after five seasons in the program as a student-athlete.

Goldberg, whose parents and sister are also Bruins, ascended up the singles lineup during his time on the roster. He registered career records of 48-43 in singles play and 33-36 on doubles courts from the 2016 fall campaign through 2021 dual matches. Goldberg helped UCLA to three Pac-12 regular-season championships and one conference tournament title over that time.

The 2020-21 season saw Goldberg utilize the additional year of eligibility granted by the NCAA due to the COVID-19 pandemic. He made the most of his extra year, posting a 9-8 singles mark. Among those wins was a 7-6(5), 6-2 triumph over No. 26 Mor Bulis of USC – a career-best showing for Goldberg in terms of opponent ranking. He also logged a 3-0 doubles record.

The shortened 2019-20 season did not lack for dramatic moments involving Goldberg, who was the last man standing in a pair of 4-3 team victories. The first winner-take-all performance came in the ITA Kick-Off Weekend championship match, as Goldberg outlasted No. 104 Bogdan Pavel of UCF, 6-3, 5-7, 6-4. Goldberg went on to overcome a 5-7, 1-5 deficit against Oregon's Riki Oshima, climbing all the way back to a 5-7, 7-6(5), 7-6(1) result. Goldberg hit doubles-digit singles wins for the third time in as many seasons, going 11-8.

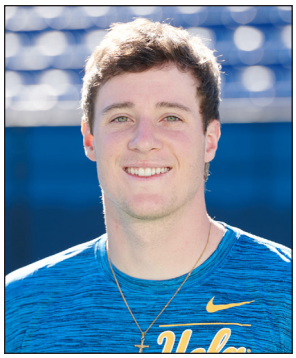

In 2018-19, the Pacific Palisades, Calif. native got the better of No. 60 William Howells of Notre Dame, No. 74 Logan Smith of USC and No. 80 Rrezart Cungu of Wake Forest for his initial decisions over nationally-ranked counterparts.

Goldberg won the first nine completed singles matches of his dual-match career. As a freshman, He became a consistent piece in the doubles lineup after teaming with Austin Rapp for a 6-4 victory across from Rob Bellamy and Jack Jaede of USC at the ITA National Team Indoor Championships. Goldberg and Maxime Cressy would go on to pick up five doubles-point-clinching wins, including a 6-4 result over Walker Duncan and Wayne Montgomery of Georgia in the NCAA Championships quarterfinal round.

In the classroom, Goldberg was a six-time member of the Athletic Director's Honor Roll after earning a grade-point average of at least 3.0 while passing 12 or more units in each of those corresponding quarters. He majored in political science.
