UCLA Gymnastics - Decades of NCAA Excellence

Since its inception in 1974, UCLA gymnastics has been among the greatest gymnastics teams in the nation, having claimed 25 Top 5 national finishes, 21 regional titles and 16 Pac-12 championships. The Bruins have won six NCAA titles - 1997, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004 and 2010.

The women's gymnastics program was one of 10 new varsity teams sponsored by the Department of Women's Intercollegiate Athletics (DWIA) formed in 1974. That year, Kirby Weedin, along with co-coach Jennifer Shaw, helped UCLA place first at the Southern California Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Class II Championships. In 1977, the team, behind coach Lee Ann Lobdill, began competing solely in Class I competitions. The Bruins, a member of the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), the counterpart to the NCAA, had relative success in its first years of existence, with Laurie Donaldson becoming the first Bruin to achieve national recognition.

A new decade brought in a new head coach for UCLA and a new winning era for the Bruins. With the emergence of Sharon Shapiro, Kim Hamilton, Tanya Service and Jill Andrews, the UCLA women's gymnastics program was transformed from a collection of tumblers to a group of national-caliber gymnasts. Sharon Shapiro, with her innovative style and explosive performances, rocketed to national stardom. As a freshman, she made history at the 1980 AIAW Championships by becoming the first female collegiate gymnast to capture national titles on all four events and the all-around — a feat no one has duplicated since. Shapiro continued her success in 1981 by winning the AIAW vault and all-around titles. This paved the way to UCLA's second-place team finish, the first of three runner-up finishes in the 1980s. Shapiro won the Broderick Award in 1981, given to the country's top female gymnast. The next year, the NCAA encompassed the AIAW to form one intercollegiate athletic association for both men and women.

The following years, under head coach Jerry Tomlinson, UCLA placed no lower than sixth at the NCAA Championships, including a runner-up finish in 1984.

In 1987, the Bruins joined the Pacific-10 Conference and won the first of four consecutive Pac-10 team titles. At the conference championships, Service captured the all-around, bars and a share of the beam title en route to 1987 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year honors. The Bruins finished first at the NCAA West Regionals and third at the NCAAs. Hamilton collected her first national floor title.

The next year, UCLA went undefeated in the regular season for the first time, compiling an 18-0 record. The team finished third once again at NCAA's, with Hamilton recording her second-straight floor title. Andrews garnered her own national title on the vault.

The Bruins nearly won the NCAA Championship in 1989, falling short by a mere five-one-hundredths of a point to Georgia. However, Hamilton won an unprecedented third consecutive national floor title and also won the vault title. Andrews tied for the beam championship, and Service became the first gymnast to win Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year honors twice. Andrews was the second, earning the title in 1988 and 1990.

At the end of the 1990 season, Valorie Kondos was named the new head coach of the Bruin program, and she appointed Scott Bull as her co-head coach. UCLA returned to national form by claiming the 1993 Pac-10 and NCAA West Regional team titles and posting its best finish (fourth) at NCAA's since 1990. That year, Amy Thorne became the first Bruin to score a 10.0 on any event with her flawless floor routine, and one month later, Megan Fenton reached perfection by scoring a 10.0 on the uneven bars to take the Pac-10 title. In 1994, Kareema Marrow became the third Bruin gymnast to score a 10.0, this one coming on vault. The Bruins went on to sweep the all-around standings at the Pac-10 Championships, with Leah Homma becoming the fifth Bruin to become the all-around champion, and Marrow and Karen Nelson placing second and third. The Bruins took home their second consecutive regional championship and a fifth-place showing at NCAA's.

After the departure of Bull, Kondos became the Bruins' sole head coach in 1995 and earned West Regional Coach of the Year honors. She also led her team to a fourth-place showing at the NCAA Championships. The Bruins were backed by a dazzling performance by Marrow, who scored a 10.0 on the floor exercise. Freshman Stella Umeh capped the Bruins' successful season by winning the floor exercise title and becoming the first Bruin freshman to win a national title since 1987, when Hamilton accomplished that feat.

UCLA made the cover of International Gymnast Magazine in 1997

The Bruins achieved a breakthrough year in 1996. Not only did they place second at the NCAA Championships with a school record 197.475, but Kondos was named the National Coach of the Year, and Dee Fischer scored the fifth 10.0 in school history by hitting a perfect vault to help the Bruins win the West Regional title for the fourth consecutive season.

After years of watching Utah, Alabama and Georgia dominate the leaderboard at the NCAA Championships, UCLA finally made the jump to the top, winning the 1997 NCAA team title, as well as the Pac-10 and West Regional titles. Homma earned Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year honors for the second time in her career and scored the first 10.0s of her career, on vault and bars. Kondos again won National Coach of the Year honors.

In front of a home crowd, two Bruins won NCAA individual titles in 1998 — Umeh (floor) and Heidi Moneymaker (bars). Also at the NCAAs, Umeh scored her first 10.0 on floor in the final team competition of her career. In addition, Umeh won three of five titles at the Pac-10 Championships and earned Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year honors.

The year 1999 saw two more NCAA individual titles come to Westwood, as Moneymaker won the vault championship, and Kiralee Hayashi, the Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year, tied for the beam title. Moneymaker's NCAA title was a fitting end to her outstanding season that saw her win the all-around titles at the Pac-10 and Regional meets. Also in 1999, Shapiro became the first female gymnast to be inducted into UCLA's Hall of Fame. She would later be joined by Hamilton, Andrews and Homma.

UCLA's success continued into the new millennium, as the Bruins dominated with four NCAA titles from 2000-2004. The Bruins won back-to-back championships in 2000 and 2001 and had another back-to-back run in 2003 and 2004. During the 2000s, UCLA won 17 NCAA individual titles, including all-around victories by Onnie Willis in 2001 (the school's first-ever NCAA all-around title), Jamie Dantzscher in 2002 and Tasha Schwikert in 2005 and 2008.

The year 2010 saw a return to the top for UCLA, who swept through the postseason, hitting 95 out of 96 routines over four postseason meets to claim the Pac-10, Regional and NCAA Championships. Two Bruins claimed individual titles - Vanessa Zamarripa on vault and Brittani McCullough on floor. In 2011, UCLA placed a close second at the NCAA Championships and claimed its 31st individual title when Samantha Peszek won the balance beam crown, which she later won again in 2015, along with the all-around title. The 2012 Bruins won the first-ever Pac-12 team title and finished one-tenth of a point shy of first at the NCAA Championships, placing third. An overachieving UCLA squad hosted NCAA Championships in 2013 and placed fourth.

UCLA has had three Honda Award winners since 2000 - Mohini Bhardwaj in 2001, Willis in 2003 and Kristen Maloney in 2005 - and five winners in all. Academic award winners have been prevalent as well. Willis and Kristin Parker were awarded NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarships in 2003 and were two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District honorees. Willis and Kate Richardson earned the NCAA Today's Top VIII Award. Richardson was also the Pac-10 Conference Woman of the Year in 2006 and a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American and was awarded a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. Peszek earned a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship and first-team Academic All-America honors in 2015.

Bruin gymnasts also played prevalent roles on the elite scene. Three Bruins have made Olympic teams either during or after their collegiate careers. No other NCAA gymnastics team in the nation has ever produced that many collegiate or post-collegiate Olympians. In 2004, Richardson competed at her second Olympic Games for Canada, becoming only the second female gymnast ever to compete as a collegian. She was joined in Athens by Bhardwaj, who captained the U.S. team to a silver medal in the team competition. Both Bruins qualified for event finals on floor exercise, with Bhardwaj placing sixth and Richardson seventh. Two years removed from leading UCLA to the 2010 NCAA team title, Anna Li made the U.S. Olympic Team in 2012 as an alternate.

Additionally, after a successful 2010 collegiate season, Zamarripa qualified for the USA Championships and made the U.S. National Team after an eighth-place all-around and runner-up vault finish. Li followed suit a year later, making the U.S. National Team and serving as a member of the gold medal-winning U.S. team at the 2011 World Championships. Danusia Francis competed for Great Britain at the 2013 World University Games after her freshman season, making floor finals, and competed for Jamaica at the 2015 World Championships.

UCLA's Academic Excellence

UCLA gymnasts are not only winners on the floor but winners in the classroom as well. The UCLA gymnastics team regularly ranks as one of the top academic teams on campus and produces several academic award-winners.

Jill Andrews and Kate Richardson are amongst the most honored student-athletes in UCLA history, winning numerous academic awards on top of their athletic achievements. Andrews won the Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award in 1991 and the NCAA Top VI Award in 1990. She also received CoSIDA Academic All-America honors twice in her career. Richardson earned Academic All-America honors three times and was selected the Pac-10 Woman of the Year. She was also awarded a NCAA post-graduate scholarship and won the NCAA Today's Top VIII Award.

The Bruins have been especially impressive academically in the new millennium, winning nine CoSIDA Academic All-District honors and placing a UCLA all-time best 11 athletes on the NACGC/W Scholastic All-America team in 2003.

UCLA Gymnastics Hall Of Famers

Women's gymnastics is represented in the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame by eight all-time greats - gymnasts Sharon Shapiro, Kim Hamilton, Jill Andrews, Leah Homma, Stella Umeh, Mohini Bhardwaj and Onnie Willis, and coach Valorie Kondos Field.

On Oct. 30, 1999, Sharon Shapiro became the first women's gymnastics Hall of Fame inductee. Shapiro enjoyed an illustrious and historic athletic career for the Bruins. She remains the only gymnast ever to capture national titles on all four events and the all-around in the same year, a feat she accomplished at the 1980 AIAW National Championships her freshman season.

In 1981, Shapiro won the prestigious Broderick Award, given to the country's top female gymnast. As a sophomore that season, she defended her all-around title and also won the individual vault crown. The following year, she earned All-America honors in the all-around, vault and balance beam.

Shapiro has remained a key alumna, supporter, and ambassador for UCLA and her sport since her graduation.

Kim (Hamilton) Anthony became UCLA's second inductee on Oct. 21, 2000. Like Shapiro, Hamilton also set a national record that has yet to be duplicated when she won three consecutive NCAA floor exercise titles from 1987-1989. She also won the NCAA vault title in 1989.

At the regional level, she won a school-record tying seven titles, including three each in the all-around and floor. She also won Pac-10 championships on bars and floor in both 1989 and 1988. In her career, she earned six All-America honors.

Anthony has also remained a major figure in the sport, having maintained a successful career as a sports commentator for ESPN and Fox Sports and as the host of the Miami TV show "County Connection." She is also an inspirational/motivational speaker, and a mentor to the U.S. national gymnastics team and at-risk high school girls in Miami. Anthony published a book, Unfavorable Odds, a memoir about her journey from a background filled with drugs and violence to a Hall of Fame career at UCLA.

Jill Andrews joined her former teammate Anthony in the Hall of Fame on Oct. 13, 2001. In 1990, Andrews became UCLA gymnastics' second Honda Award winner, capping off a career in which she won an NCAA title on vault in 1988 and on beam in 1989. Andrews earned eight first-team All-America honors in her career and was a two-time Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year.

Andrews' accomplishments were not limited to the gymnastics floor. She excelled academically as one of UCLA's all-time great student-athletes. In 1990, Andrews earned an NCAA post-graduate scholarship and was awarded the NCAA Top Six Award. In addition, she was a Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award winner. She was also honored by the Bruin gymnastics team with an award named after her, the annual Jill Andrews award for integrity.

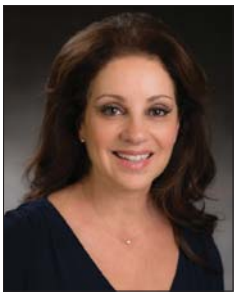

Andrews, who graduated from the Northwestern University School of Law in 1994, was a Deputy City Attorney in San Francisco for six years, handling labor and employment litigation on behalf of the city and now currently works in legal counsel for NXP Semiconductors.

Leah Homma was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Oct. 3, 2008. Homma competed for four years (1994-97), leading the Bruins to their first NCAA team title in 1997. Head Coach Valorie Kondos Field said Homma played "the biggest role in helping our team win its first NCAA Championship. (She) was a quiet leader who always led by example, was an unwavering hard worker, enthusiastic about her training, and always quick to help out her teammates in a quiet and unassuming manner." Homma finished fourth in the 1997 NCAA All-Around to help bring the title to Westwood.

Homma's other accomplishments included the 1994 and '97 Pac-10 all-around titles as well as the 1996 and '97 Pac-10 uneven bar crowns. She was twice named Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year (1995 and '97) and was also an eight-time All-American, honored four times each as a first-team and second team selection. During her career, she set and reset UCLA records in the all-around and was the second UCLA gymnast to receive 10.0s in two different events. In 1997, Homma was named UCLA's All-University Female Athlete of the Year and was a Honda Award nominee. She also excelled in the classroom, earning Pac-10 All-Academic honors on three occasions

Prior to UCLA, she was a member of the Canadian National Team and the 1991 Canadian champion in the floor exercise. Homma left her eternal mark in gymnastics with three moves named after her in the international code of points: the Homma Flip on beam and the Homma Flairs on beam and floor.

Valorie Kondos Field became just the second head coach ever to be inducted while still coaching at UCLA, earning induction on October 1, 2010.

Upon arriving at UCLA in 1983 as a student coach, Valorie Kondos Field ascended the ranks as an assistant coach and choreographer, co-head coach (1991-94) and then sole head coach since 1995. As head coach, Kondos Field has positioned UCLA as the premier program in collegiate gymnastics by guiding it to an overall record of 438-101-2 with 12 Pac-12 titles, 16 Regional crowns and six NCAA titles (1997, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004 and 2010). In 2010, UCLA won NCAA, Regional and Pac-10 championships and produced two NCAA individual champions. In 2003, the Bruins recorded an unprecedented five team scores of 198.0 or better en route to the NCAA title. The 2004 team set an NCAA Championship record by scoring 198.125 in the Super Six Team Finals. In 2001, UCLA gymnasts won the NCAA floor, uneven bars and all-around events and every Bruin who competed earned All-America honors. That year, Kondos Field was voted the NACGC National Coach of the Year for the fourth time.

Kondos Field has coached 16 athletes to 31 NCAA individual titles, has mentored 18 Pac-12 Gymnasts of the Year and 16 Olympians since the year 2000. She also has coached four Honda Award winners - Andrews, Mohini Bhardwaj, Onnie Willis and Kristen Maloney.

An Oct. 12, 2012 inductee, Stella Umeh was a key member of UCLA's first NCAA Championship team in 1997. A 10-time All-American, Umeh captured the 1995 and 1998 NCAA floor exercise titles and was dominant at the 1995 Pac-10 Championships, winning the all-around, uneven bars, balance beam and floor exercise titles. In 1998, she captured her second Pac-10 individual all-around title, along with individual titles in floor and beam.

During her career, Umeh was a member of Pac-10 Championship teams in 1995 and 1997, was named the 1998 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and earned a total of seven All-Pac-10 honors and 10 All-America honors.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, she competed for Canada at the 1992 Olympic Games and at the World Championships from 1991-93. In 1992, she qualified for event finals at the World Championships on both vault (8th place) and beam (5th place), and in 1993, she was 15th in the all-around and eighth on floor. At the national level, she was a two-time Canadian vault champion. After graduation, Umeh performed for five years with Cirque du Soleil.

Mohini Bhardwaj became the second gymnast in as many years to be inducted on Oct. 12, 2013. Bhardwaj won two NCAA team and two NCAA individual titles from 1998-2001 and finished her career as an 11-time All-American and 2001 Honda Award winner. Bhardwaj set numerous scoring records at UCLA, including scoring the second-highest all-around total in NCAA history, 39.975, in 2001. She led UCLA to NCAA team titles in 2000 and 2001 and won the uneven bars in 2000 and floor exercise in 2001. Along with winning the Honda Award in 2001, she was also the Pac-10 and West Region Gymnast of the Year and the AAI Award-winner as the nation's top senior gymnast.

Bhardwaj continued her gymnastics career after graduation, winning the 2001 U.S. National Championship on vault and helping the U.S. win a bronze medal at the 2001 World Championships. In 2004, she earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team, where she served as team captain and led the U.S. to a silver medal. She also qualified for event finals on floor exercise, where she placed sixth. Bhardwaj is now the co-owner and women's program director at Acrovision Sports Center in Bend, Oregon.

Onnie Willis received gymnastics' third-straight induction when she joined the class of 2014 on Oct. 10, 2014. Willis was a superstar on the competition floor and in the classroom. During her four years at UCLA, she won three NCAA team championships (2000, 2001, 2003), three Pac-10 team titles (2001-03) and four NCAA Regional team titles. In 2001, she became UCLA's first-ever NCAA all-around champion, and as a senior in 2003 won the Honda Award as the best collegiate gymnast in the nation. The 2003 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year held the school record for NCAA All-America honors with 16 and has a share of the school record on vault and floor, having scored a pair of perfect 10s on each event.

Academically, she received the 2003 NCAA Top VIII Award as well as a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship, and she earned Scholastic All-American honors and CoSIDA Academic All-District acclaim three times. Willis went on to earn a Ph.D in Developmental Psychology at NYU.

Bruins in National/International Competition

The 2000 Olympic team, which included Bruins Tasha Schwikert, Kristen Maloney and Jamie Dantzscher, received their Olympic bronze medals ten years later
