All-Time Series: UCLA leads 1-0

UCLA won only previous meeting during 1999 regular season.

THE MATCHUP

UCLA, a winner in 19 of its past 28 overall games, will remain in the Los Angeles area for the holidays and take on Boise State in the third annual Starco Brands LA Bowl Hosted By Gronk. The game will be played at SoFi Stadium, the home of the NFL's Los Angeles Chargers and Los Angeles Rams, in Inglewood, Calif. on Saturday, Dec. 16.

The Bruins and Broncos, champions of the Mountain West Conference, have met just once before on the gridiron, a 38-7 UCLA victory in 1999 at Rose Bowl Stadium.

UCLA has the Pac-12's top-rated team in total defense (299.0 yards per game), rushing defense (69.9 yards per game), sacks (3.42 per game), tackles for loss (8.20 per game), rushing offense (191.1 yards per game) and yards per rush allowed (2.33). The Bruins are second in the Pac-12 in turnovers gained (23) and passes intercepted (14). UCLA has held eight of its 12 opponents this season to fewer than 20 points and ranks 15th in the nation in scoring defense (18.1 points per game).

This was UCLA's final Pac-12 season. UCLA joined the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) in 1928. The PCC disbanded and UCLA joined California, Stanford, USC and Washington in the Athletic Association of Western Universities in 1959, with Washington State (1962), Oregon (1964) and Oregon State (1964) joining the league a few years later. These schools formed the Pac-8 in 1968, which turned into the Pac-10 for the 1978 season after the additions of Arizona and Arizona State. The Pac-12 began in 2011 when Colorado and Utah joined the fold.

Sixth-year head coach Chip Kelly took the reins at UCLA Nov. 25, 2017. Kelly owns a collegiate head-coaching record of 80-41, (.661, 0-1 versus Boise State) compiled across five-plus seasons at UCLA and four at Oregon.

Saturday's battle will be televised by the ABC, with coverage beginning at 4:30 p.m. PT. The Bruin IMG Radio Network will broadcast the contest, which will also be aired over SiriusXM, ESPN Radio and the Varsity App.

SERIES HISTORY

Boise State and UCLA have met just once before and that was in the season-opener for both squads in 1999. UCLA was coming off of back-to-back Pac-10 Championship seasons at the time but was looking to replace record-setting quarterback Cade McNown who had gone on to be a first-round selection of the Chicago Bears in the 1999 NFL Draft. New quarterbacks Drew Bennett and Cory Paus helped lead UCLA to a 38-7 decision. Running back DeShaun Foster, now a coach for the Bruins, also played a role in the win from his running back position.

AT A GLANCE

- UCLA has been invited to three straight bowl games and owns an overall bowl record of 16-20-1. Its most recent win came in the 2015 Valero Alamo Bowl against Kansas State.
- UCLA is 7-0 this season when scoring at least 25 points. In the five games it has lost in 2023, UCLA has led for a total of 16 seconds.
- UCLA has 99 tackles for loss (TFLs) on the season. The program record (since 2000, when NCAA began tracking TFLs) is 114 in 2007. The total of 99 is the most by a Bruin team since the 2012 squad had 100. The Bruins have been credited with 41 sacks on the season, which is the most since the 2012 team totaled a program high of 47.
- UCLA leads the Pac-12 in rushing offense (191.1 yards per game) and averaged 237.3 yards per game in wins and 134.2 in losses. It scored 17 of its 19 rushing touchdowns in wins.
- UCLA has forced 17 turnovers in its seven wins this season and six in its five losses.
- DB Alex Johnson leads the Pac-12 with four interceptions (16th nationally). He also owns the Pac-12 lead with an average of 0.3 interceptions per game (20th overall). His four picks are the most by a Bruin player since Randall Goforth had four in 2016. No Bruin has had more than four interceptions in a season since 2009, when Rahim Moore had 10.
- DL Laiatu Latu was named UCLA's fifth-ever Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year last week, joining Brian Price (2009), Dave Ball (2003), Robert Thomas (2001) and Mark Walen (1985).
- The Bruins lead the nation in rushing defense (69.6 yards per game) and have held four teams this season to 30 yards of rushing or fewer (USC three, Colorado 25, Stanford 24 and Washington State 12). UCLA had most recently held four teams to 30 rushing yards or fewer in 1985 (Oregon State two, Stanford seven, Arizona State 18 and San Diego State 14).
- UCLA is allowing 18.1 points per game, which would be the lowest season average by a Bruin team since the 1991 squad gave up 15.8. A Bruin team previously finished a season with an average under 20 points in 2006 (19.9).
- UCLA rates second in the nation allowing just 2.33 yards per rush this season (Penn State is first at 2.16). UCLA most recently had a lower mark in 1985 (2.12).
- The Bruins lead the nation with just three rushing touchdowns allowed. Iowa has allowed four, while Ohio State has given up five.
- UCLA opponents are averaging 4.55 yards per play, which is eighth in the nation. Penn State leads the country at 3.91.
- UCLA is sixth in the country with 41 sacks this season. Penn State tops the nation with 48. The UCLA school record for sacks in a season is 47 in 2012.
- The UCLA defense has allowed just 19 touchdowns on the year, which rates fifth nationally. Ohio State is the leader with 13 scores allowed.
- The Bruin defense has given up multiple touchdowns in just five games, while opponents have scored a total of 19 touchdowns on 147 drives in 2023 ... Possessions/touchdown drives: California 11/2, USC 12/2, ASU 11/2, Arizona 9/3, CU 13/1, Stanford 13/1, Oregon State 11/3, WSU 16/1, Utah 14/1, North Carolina Central 13/1, SDSU 13/1 and Coastal Carolina 11/1.

PREVIOUS MEETING

In the only previous matchup of the programs, the Bruin quarterbacking duo of junior Drew Bennett and freshman Cory Paus led UCLA past Boise State 38-7 in the season opener for both schools. UCLA was coming off back-to-back Pac-10 championships and looking to replace record-setting QB Cade McNown, who was a first-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears.

Bennett started the game and completed 8-of-16 passes for 120 yards, including a 65-yard scoring strike to TE Randy Hakes just over six minutes into the second half that gave the Bruins a commanding 31-0 lead. Paus came off the bench and was 12-of-18 for 128 yards with a pair of interceptions. He found TE Gabe Crecion with a five-yard touchdown pass with 5:30 left in the first half, staking UCLA to a 24-0 advantage by the intermission.

DeShaun Foster rushed for 55 yards on 17 carries and gave UCLA a 10-0 lead thanks to a four-yard scoring jaunt with 11:21 left in the first half. CB Julius Williams' 53-yard interception return made it 17-0 less than three minutes later. With the victory, UCLA ran its regular-season home winning streak to 11 games.

TEAM NOTES

- UCLA leads the Pac-12 in the following statistics: Rushing Defense (69.6 yards per game, first), Team Sacks (3.42 per game, fifth), Tackles for Loss (8.2 per game, third), Total Defense (299.0, 11th) and Rushing Offense (191.1 yards per game, 21st).
- UCLA has held eight of its 12 opponents to fewer than 20 points this season. It most recently held more than eight teams to fewer than 20 in 1987 (nine).
- UCLA has held the lead for a total of 16 seconds this season in the five losses to Cal, Arizona State, Arizona, Oregon State and Utah. That lead came against Cal. The Bruins trailed for the whole game against the other four teams.
- The Bruin defense has yet to surrender a touchdown on an opponent's first drive this season. Cal, Colorado and Oregon State each tallied a field goal for the only opponent first-drive points.
- In its losses this season, UCLA had scored on 9 of 20 trips into the red zone: Cal 1/5, ASU 1/3, Arizona 2/5, Oregon State 4/5 and Utah 1/2.
- With an eighth win in 2023, Chip Kelly would join Jim Mora (2012-15), Terry Donahue (1984-88) and Henry "Red" Sanders (1952-55) as the only UCLA head coaches to lead teams to at least eight wins in at least three straight seasons.
- Under head coach Chip Kelly, UCLA is 26-7 when it rushes for at least 200 yards in a game.
- UCLA has won 14 of the last 15 games when forcing multiple turnovers. The Bruins have forced multiple turnovers in seven of this season's 12 games while earning six wins.
- UCLA is 19-4 under Kelly when committing fewer turnovers than its counterparts and 4-20 when committing more than the opposition.
- The USC game was UCLA's third this season in which it did not commit a turnover (also Arizona and Stanford).
- UCLA's 24 second-half points at USC were the most scored in a game this season after the intermission by the Bruins.
- The Bruins have given up fewer than 100 rushing yards in eight games this season: three to USC, 74 to ASU, 25 to CU, 24 at Stanford, 12 to Washington State, 90 to North Carolina Central, 63 at San Diego State and 56 to Coastal Carolina this season. UCLA previously held more teams in a season to fewer than 100 yards on the ground in 1985 (nine games). UCLA has held 18 teams under 100 yards rushing over the past three seasons.
- This is the third straight season UCLA has entered the major polls, peaking at No. 18 in the AP Top 25 in 2023, No. 9 (AP) in 2022 and No. 13 (AP and Coaches polls) in 2021.
- UCLA racked up 218 rushing yards versus CU for its fifth 200-yard rushing game of the season. It had 221 rushing yards at Stanford, 284 at Oregon State, 404 against NCCU and 254 at SDSU earlier this year. The 404 yards of rushing offense against the Eagles represent the most by a Bruin team since it racked up 437 ground yards in a 2010 game against WSU. In 2022, the Bruins compiled nine 200-yard rushing games — the most since the 1995 squad also produced nine.

- UCLA became bowl eligible for the third straight season following its win against CU, which was played at the Rose Bowl before the largest crowd (71,343) in the Pac-12 to date this season.
- The Bruins committed four turnovers this season against both Cal and Colorado. Prior to the CU victory, UCLA had most recently won a game while having at least four turnovers in 2012 against Houston.
- The Bruins forced a 2023 season-high four WSU turnovers. A Bruin team most recently forced more than four turnovers in a game at WSU during the 2019 season (six).
- In his 11-plus seasons as a coach at UCLA (five-plus as head coach) and Oregon (four as head coach and two as assistant coach), Kelly has had seven of his teams rank among the nation's top 25 in total offense. Kelly has had eight rushers on his teams rank among the nation's top 15. Nine of his teams have rated among the top 20 in the nation in scoring average.
- True Freshman Watch: QB Dante Moore, DL Grant Buckey, LB Wyatt Mosier, DB Kanye Clark, DB R.J. Jones, DL A.J. Fuimaono, DB Marquise Villahermosa, DB Donavyn Pellot, WR Carter Shaw, WR Jerry McClure, RB Troy Leigber, LB Ty Lee, LB Mone Malafu, LB Larry Edwards III, OL Tavake Tuikolovatu, OL Jack Clarke and WR Grant Gray have seen action this season.
- UCLA won all three of its non-conference regular-season games in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2015 and 2014. In 2022, UCLA defeated South Alabama, Alabama State and BGSU.
- The UCLA coaching staff features three former Bruin players: DeShaun Foster (associate head coach and running backs), Jerry Neuheisel (wide receivers) and Ken Norton Jr. (linebackers).
- Foster UCLA playing career highlights: led Pac-12 in rushing in 2001 ... first Bruin to reach 1,000-yard rushing mark in as few as seven games ... then-school record 301 rushing yards in game versus Washington in 2001 ... school-record tying 42 carries in win against Alabama in 2000 ... UCLA freshman-record 673 rushing yards in 1998.
- Neuheisel UCLA playing career highlights: led 2014 comeback win against Texas in AT&T Stadium.

- LB Kain Medrano has racked up the best numbers of his career in tackles (52, second on team), TFLs (six) and sacks (two) in 2023. He was also credited with a blocked punt at Arizona. He had two TFLs at Stanford. Medrano set career highs in a number of statistics at Utah, recording 10 tackles (previous career high: nine) and 2.5 TFLs (one) in the game. He added his first two career sacks and forced a fumble.
- LB Oluwafemi Oladejo (California transfer) led UCLA with 10 tackles at SDSU and added his first Bruin interception versus WSU. He compiled six stops at Arizona.
- DB Jaylin Davies forced the fumble which Johnson returned for a score at USC. Davies is tied for the team lead with five pass breakups. He made the fourth interception of his career against CCU. Davies led UCLA with three picks in 2022.
- The 12 first downs gained by Utah were the fewest allowed by a UCLA defense since Bowling Green totaled nine in 2022 and the fewest by a Pac-12 opponent since Stanford had 11 in 2021.
- The 14-7 loss at Utah snapped a streak of 47 straight games overall and 66 straight regular-season games in which the Bruins held their opponent to fewer than 20 points and came away with a victory.

- UCLA has notched two of the three largest comebacks in FBS football history since 1917, overcoming a 34-point deficit to defeat Texas A&M in 1917 and erasing a 32-point lead before prevailing at Washington State in 1919. Each turnaround came in the second half. Since 1980, UCLA teams have won nine times after trailing by 18 or more points.

Nine of the UCLA Bruins are currently enrolled in the master's degree program in Transformative Coaching and Leadership — Kenny Churchwell III, Duke Clemens, Ryan Cragun, Kyle Ford, Hudson Habermehl, Jake Heimlicher, Alex Johnson, Logan Loya and Colson Yankoff.

Offered by UCLA's Department of Education, the master's degree in Transformative Coaching and Leadership prepares graduates for careers in coaching and sports leadership in professional and collegiate athletics, K-12 schools and community-based sports organizations. Inspired by the legendary John Wooden, the goals of the program include enabling prospective candidates to develop their own philosophy of coaching and leadership—and one that is premised on a holistic understanding of persons and sound principles of coaching, teaching and learning.

The degree program is also informed by an ethic of social justice, where teaching and coaching in various contexts—collegiate sports, professional sports, K-12 schools, Boys and Girls Clubs and other community sports programs—are analyzed through the lens of equity, access, diversity, and human dignity with the steadfast aim of contributing to the creation of a more just, equitable and humane society through enlightened and socially conscious sports education and leadership.

In addition, Chase Griffin has completed the Transformative Coaching and Leadership program and is now enrolled in the Master of Legal Studies program at UCLA Law. He is joined in that program by Dovid Magna.

UCLA SIGNS DEAL WITH JORDAN/NIKE

UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics Martin Jarmond forged a six-year agreement with Nike, Inc. to make Jordan Brand and Nike the Bruins' official athletic footwear, apparel and equipment providers beginning on July 1, 2021. Under the terms of the agreement, Nike supplies uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment to 22 of UCLA's 25 varsity athletic teams, while Jordan Brand outfits the football and men's and women's basketball programs with "Jumpman" product. With this agreement, UCLA became the only school to wear the Jumpman in the Pac-12 Conference, and only the fifth university in the country to join forces with Jordan Brand on football, as well as both men's and women's basketball. The contract extends beyond outfitting some of the most iconic teams in collegiate athletics. Nike, Inc. also lends its support to UCLA Athletics' student-athlete development programs, offers two summer internships per calendar year to UCLA students and annually hosts a group of selected UCLA students at its headquarters for an educational experience.

THE STORY OF NO. 36

On Aug. 26, 2022, head coach Chip Kelly awarded Alex Johnson the No. 36 jersey in honor of Nick Pasquale, who wore the number for the Bruins in 2012 and 2013 before his death in a car accident.

Nick was a 5-7, 172-pound redshirt freshman walk-on receiver for the Bruins who had seen his first game action a week before his death in September of 2013. He was known for his passion for the game, his limitless determination and his high qualities as a teammate. Current UCLA coach Jerry Neuheisel was a teammate of Pasquale.

Johnson has carved out roles on special teams and as a reserve defensive back across his 42 games played entering 2023. Johnson follows in the footsteps of Ethan Fernea, who donned the number from 2019-2021. The 2019 season was the first that a Bruin had worn the No. 36 since the start of the 2013 campaign.

Eight true freshmen played in the 2016 opener at Texas A&M: Tagaloa, Molson, Den Bleyker, Kent, Fernea, Stephens, Brandon Burton and Lokeni Toailoa. Starks, Barnes and Howard saw their first action against UNLV.

The Bruins played a total of 10 true freshmen in 2015. Five saw action in the 2015 season opener against Virginia. Nine true frosh took the field in the 2014 season, seven in that season's opener at Virginia

The Bruins established a then-school mark in 2013 when guard Scott Quessenberry took the field at Oregon as the 18th true freshman to see action that season. A school-record 15 true freshmen saw action that season in the opener against Nevada, along with eight redshirt freshmen. UCLA played 12 true freshmen in 2012, including eight in the opener at Rice. One first-year player saw action in 2011. In 2010 and 2009, UCLA played 10 true freshmen each.

UCLA started a true-freshman quarterback, Josh Rosen, in the season opener of 2015. This marked a first in school history. In 2017, DL Jaelan Phillips and DB Darnay Holmes became the first true-freshman defensive tandem to start an opener.

COACH DONAHUE HONORED WITH STATUE AT ROSE BOWL

The winningest coach in UCLA football and Pac-12 Conference history, Terry Donahue, was celebrated with a statue at Rose Bowl Stadium during Homecoming Weekend. The unveiling and dedication took place Oct. 28.

The statue of Coach Donahue is surrounded by 151 bronze roses of varying shapes and sizes. As a gift by over 100 donors to the Rose Bowl Legacy Foundation, the non-profit that supports the preservation, protection and enhancement of the Stadium's future, each rose has been supported by an individual or family and honors one of the conference- and school-record 151 wins during Donahue's career.

Coach Donahue's statue is the fourth on Rose Bowl property to represent key moments and people in the venue's history, joining Jackie Robinson (dedicated in 2017), the 1999 Team USA FIFA Women's World Cup Champions (dedicated 2019) and iconic broadcaster Keith Jackson (dedicated 2019). It is the first statue located inside the Stadium's gates with the other three located outside the venue's fence line near the Stadium's main entrance at Gate A. The statue's location is adjacent to the Charles E. Young Locker Room and UCLA players and coaches pass by the iconic coach before each home game.

Donahue won more games than any other coach in the school's and the Pac-12 Conference's history. He ended his career with a winning record against each of the conference's teams, including the Bruins' crosstown rival, the University of Southern California Trojans. Overall, he won 151 games, and 98 of those victories were in the Pac-10. He was the first person to appear in the Rose Bowl Game® as a player, an assistant coach and a coach.

ANDREA DONAHUE: "On behalf of the Terry Donahue family, we are humbled by this outpouring of support for the Terry Donahue Statue and 151 Roses. The Rose Bowl has always played a meaningful part in our lives and provided us many opportunities and great joy. We can't begin to express our gratitude for this iconic stadium and all the people that make it so special. It is a great honor to continue Coach Terry Donahue's legacy so that he may continue to impact the lives of others."

TROY AIKMAN: "Coach Donahue impacted thousands of young men from all over America, not just in football, but in life. As good as he was at coaching the game, his greatest gift was being an example for how to be better men. We all carry a part of him deep within us. I'm so proud to support this project at the Rose Bowl to honor Coach and his lasting impact on so many."

UCLA MOURNS LOSS OF BILL MCGOVERN

Bill McGovern, a highly-decorated college football player and successful defensive football coach possessing almost 40 years of college and NFL experience, passed away May 30 at his California home surrounded by family, following a battle with cancer. He was 60.

McGovern joined Chip Kelly's coaching staff as UCLA's defensive coordinator in February 2022. An All-America selection at defensive back as a collegian at Holy Cross, McGovern spent eight of the previous nine years prior to coming to UCLA at the professional level with the Chicago Bears, Philadelphia Eagles and New York Giants, where he guided several highly rated defensive units. In addition to holding down the defensive coordinator position with the Bruins, he also served in that capacity with Boston College and the University of Massachusetts.

STATEMENT FROM THE MCGOVERN FAMILY: "Early this morning we said goodbye to our beloved father and husband Bill after his long and difficult battle with cancer came to an end and today, we would like to thank the entire UCLA community for all of the love and support you gave to Bill and our entire family during this very difficult struggle. In particular, the McGovern family would like to thank UCLA head football coach Chip Kelly and his wife Jill as well as all of the players, coaches, trainers, and support staff of the UCLA football program and their families. It was the honor of Bill's coaching career to be the defensive coordinator for the UCLA Bruins and this past season was one of the highlights of Bill's coaching career. We are so thankful for the opportunity to be a part of such a historic athletic tradition and, more importantly, we could not have made it through this past year without the love and prayers of our UCLA family. The McGovern family is so grateful and thankful to all of you for your help during this difficult time and we will be indebted to you all forever. Thank you so much and we will cherish the wonderful memories we have of UCLA and our UCLA football family for the rest of our lives."

Head Coach Chip Kelly

Record at UCLA

34-34 (6th season)

Overall Record

80-41 (10th season)

Chip Kelly was named UCLA's 17th head football coach Nov. 25, 2017. Kelly holds over 30 seasons of coaching experience at both the professional and collegiate levels, most recently serving as head coach of the San Francisco 49ers (2016) prior to coming to Westwood. He also worked as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles (2013-15) following four seasons as head coach at the University of Oregon (2009-12) where he posted a record of 46-7. At each stop, Kelly, as a head coach, has been the guiding force for some of the most productive offenses in the game, including seven seasons with NCAA top-25 ranked scoring offenses and seven with NCAA top-25 rushing offenses.

The 2022 Bruins posted nine regular-season wins and earned a bid to the Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl. UCLA achieved the highest total offense average in school history (503.6 yards per game), a mark which rated fourth in the nation. The Bruins led the Pac-12 in rushing average for the first time since 1976 (237.2 rushing yards per game, which ranked sixth nationally). It was the third straight season in which UCLA had averaged at least 200 yards rushing per contest and the first time the program had accomplished the feat since doing so from 1985-87. Quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson became the school's all-time leader in touchdown passes, passing yards, completions and total offense during the season while finishing his Bruin career ranked among the all-time top 10 in the Pac-12 in total offense and touchdown passes. The Bruins racked up more than 6,000 yards of total offense for just the fourth time in school history and set the school record for most points scored (510). Running back Zach Charbonnet led all Pac-12 players in 100-yard rushing games (eight) and owned the league's best per-game average at 135.9. He also led the nation in all-purpose yardage with an average of 168.0. The Bruin team finished the season with a national ranking (No. 21) in the polls for the first time since 2014. Charbonnet, Thompson-Robinson and offensive linemen Jon Gaines II and Atonio Mafi were selected in the 2023 NFL draft.

The 2021 season saw the Bruins record the program's most wins since 2015, at 8-4, finish tied for second in the Pac-12 South with a 6-3 conference mark and earn a bid to the San Diego Credit Union Holiday Bowl. UCLA paced the Pac-12 and ranked 12th nationally in scoring at 36.5 points per game. The Bruin rushing attack averaged 215.1 yards per contest to rate as the 14th-best unit in the NCAA. On the other side of the ball, the run defense rated second in the Pac-12 and 23rd nationally at 124.2 yards per game and UCLA ranked second in the conference in sacks. Wide receiver Kyle Phillips moved up among the top five at UCLA in career receptions after grabbing a Pac-12 best 10 scoring passes. Charbonnet led all Pac-12 running backs with seven 100-yard games during the year. Running back Britain Brown topped conference rushers with a 6.03 yards per carry mark. Thompson-Robinson ranked No. 1 in the league in passing efficiency (153.9). Tight end Greg Dulcich was a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award as the nation's top performer at his position. His 117-yard performance versus LSU marked the eighth straight season in which a Bruin tight end reached the century receiving yards mark in a game. UCLA topped the nation in punt return average (20.0) and was seventh in kickoff return average (27.4). Offensive lineman Sean Rhyana, defensive lineman Otito Ogbonnia and defensive back Quentin Lake joined Brown, Dulcich and Phillips as selections in the NFL draft.

In 2020, the Bruins led the Pac-12 in scoring (248 points) and touchdowns scored (31). Thompson-Robinson produced the school's best pass efficiency mark since 2005 (156.29) and became the first Bruin quarterback to record a 300-yard passing (303) and 100-yard rushing (109) game in the same contest (at Colorado). UCLA produced a team rushing average of over 200 yards per game for just the fourth time since 1990. The mark of 230.6 rushing yards per contest ranked 12th nationally. A Bruin team had not finished with a rushing yards per carry mark greater than 2020's 5.1 mark since 1976. Dulcich rated No. 2 among the nation's tight ends with both his 73.9 receiving yards per game average and 19.88 yards per catch mark. Demetric

Felton Jr. led the Pac-12 and ranked sixth in the NCAA in all-purpose yards (165.83). UCLA's defense showed improvement in all phases. The unit allowed almost 50 yards fewer in total offense (409.9) than the previous season, while reducing its rush defense average by almost 10 yards per game (135.7). It sliced almost half a yard off the rushing average per carry to 3.6, a mark which led the Pac-12. Per-game averages for tackles for loss (6.8) and sacks (3.3 - eighth nationally) both went up.

In Year 2 at UCLA, Thompson-Robinson finished among the top 10 at the school for a single season in completions (216 - ninth), total offense (2,899 - 10th) and touchdown passes (21 - 10th). He set a school mark with 564 yards of total offense in a win at Washington State while helping to orchestrate the second-largest comeback in school history (32 points). Running back Joshua Kelley became the eighth Bruin to post back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Kelley finished second in the Pac-12 in rushing yards per game. Felton set a school mark for a running back with 55 receptions and added a school-record four scoring plays of 75 yards or more. UCLA produced five straight 200-yard rushing games for the first time since 1978. Phillips finished with the most catches ever by a Bruin freshman player and became the first redshirt freshman to lead the team in receptions since 2001. His 60 catches tied for 11th on the all-time school single season list and his total of two 10-plus catch games ranks third on the all-time school list. Five wide receivers made their first career scoring catches during the season. The rush defense knocked off almost 0.5 yards per carry from the average of the previous season and the number of quarterback sacks increased from 11 to 26 over a year's time. Special teams improved across the board and featured a punt and kickoff return for a touchdown. UCLA ranked second in the nation in punt return average (22.5 yards).

In his first season in Westwood, Kelly became just the fourth Bruin head coach to guide his team past USC in his initial meeting with the crosstown rival. Kelley racked up 289 rushing yards in the win against the Trojans, the most ever in the series. Kelley finished ninth in the nation in rushing (113.0 yards per game) and 18th nationally in all-purpose yards (130.55). It marked the fifth consecutive season in which Kelly had produced an NCAA top-10 rated rushing offense leader as a college head coach. A young Bruin team, which saw a school-record 21 true-freshman student-athletes take the field during the season, showed steady improvement and generated 432.9 yards of total offense per game over the last eight contests of the season, including a 528-yard effort in the season finale versus Stanford.

Kelly's lone season in San Francisco saw the 49ers improve from the league's 21st-ranked rushing attack in 2015 (1,544 yards) to the fourth-best ground game in 2016 (2,019 yards). Running back Carlos Hyde was the biggest beneficiary of the improvement, gaining 988 yards in just 13 contests (76.0 yards per game).

Over Kelly's three seasons in Philadelphia, the Eagles ranked third in the NFL in points per game (26.9) and total offense (392.8 yards per game), as well as fourth in rushing yards per game (131.3). Sixteen Pro Bowlers were selected from his teams, including eight in 2014. The Eagles won 10 games in each of his first two seasons, as his 2014 offense scored a franchise-record 474 points to surpass his 2013 team's previous-record total of 442.

The Eagles showed a marked improvement in Year 1 under Kelly, as their 10 wins followed a four-win 2012. He became just the second head coach in league history to win a division title in his first season in the NFL, as the Eagles captured an NFC East Division Championship. He was also named the Maxwell Club NFL Coach of the Year.

Kelly began his head coaching career at the University of Oregon in 2009, leading the Ducks to a 10-3 record and a trip to the Rose Bowl. He finished his time at Oregon with an overall record of 46-7 as head coach (2009-2012), including a 33-3 mark in conference play. In his four seasons in Eugene, the Ducks averaged 44.7 points per game. Kelly became the first coach in school history to guide the program to three consecutive undisputed conference championships (2009-2011) and its first three 12-win seasons (2010-12).

Oregon made an appearance in a BCS bowl game in each of Kelly's four seasons, including a trip to the National Championship Game following the 2010 campaign. Kelly was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 2010 and 2009 and Associated Press Coach of the Year in 2010.

The 2012 Ducks finished second in the nation in scoring (49.6 points per game) and fifth in total offense (537.4 yards per game) with freshman quarterback Marcus Mariota under center. They would conclude the season with a Fiesta Bowl victory over Kansas State. A January bowl game was also the end result for Oregon the year prior, as the Ducks defeated Wisconsin in a Rose Bowl thriller, 45-38. Kelly's offense notched top-five finishes in points per game (46.1, third) and total offense (522.8 yards per game, fourth) in 2011.

In 2010, the Ducks led the nation both points per game (46.1) and total yardage (530.7 per game) en route to a BCS National Championship Game appearance. In addition to his Pac-10 Coach of the Year and Associated Press Coach of the Year awards, Kelly garnered Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, Walter Camp Coach of the Year, The Sporting News Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Coach of the Year accolades.

Kelly's first season as a head coach (2009) culminated in a Rose Bowl appearance and the Pac-10 Coach of the Year award, as his offense ranked sixth in the country in both points per game (36.1) and rushing yards per game (231.7). He was promoted to the top spot after his offenses led the Pac-10 in a number of categories during his two seasons (2007 and 2008) as offensive coordinator under Mike Bellotti.

Kelly had spent the previous 13 years at his alma mater, the University of New Hampshire, before being named offensive coordinator at Oregon.

As offensive coordinator at UNH, Kelly protégée Ricky Santos earned the Walter Payton Award as the most outstanding player in FCS in 2006. The quarterback previously finished second in 2005. Kelly also coached the Wildcats' offensive line (1997 and 1998) and running backs (1992 and 1994-96). The New Hampshire offense averaged better than 400 yards of total offense per game in seven of his eight seasons on staff.

Kelly began his coaching career guiding defensive backs and special teams at Columbia University in 1990. He moved to outside linebackers and safeties in 1991 before his first stint at UNH as running backs coach in 1992. He also spent one season at Johns Hopkins University as defensive coordinator in 1993.

SPIEKER FIELD AT THE ROSE BOWL: HOME OF BRUIN FOOTBALL

The nation's most famous college football stadium – the Rose Bowl – will be in its 42nd season as the home of the UCLA Bruins football team in 2023. The stadium is recognized as both a United States National Historic Landmark and a California Historic Civil Engineering landmark. Thanks to a generous donation in 2017 from prominent UCLA alum Tod Spieker and his family, the playing surface is called Spieker Field at the Rose Bowl. The Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but has been utilized as a venue for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games' cycling events and was the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also played host to five NFL Super Bowls – XI in 1977, XIV in 1980, XVII in 1983, XXI in 1987 and XXVII in 1993. It was a venue for the 1994 World Cup and the 1999 Women's World Cup soccer tournaments, including the championship games. The USA women's soccer team victory over China in the 1999 event drew over 90,000 fans. In addition, the 1983 Army-Navy game was played in the Rose Bowl.

On Jan. 1, 2018 and Jan. 1, 2015, the Rose Bowl served as the site of one of the College Football Playoff semifinal games. In 2014, the Rose Bowl hosted the final BCS Championship contest. It had also played host to the BCS Championship game in 2002, 2006 and 2010.

Considered an ideal concert venue, the Rose Bowl has hosted shows by such groups and artists as Taylor Swift, Beyonce, Jay-Z, Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, One Direction, U2, 'N Sync, Eagles, Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Michael Jackson, Metallica, Guns and Roses, Depeche Mode and Journey.

The iconic stadium has put the final touches on a $181 million dollar renovation, and now features a new video board, improved exiting, wider aisles in the end zones and the Terry Donahue Pavilion. The Pavilion area houses the press boxes, broadcast booths, premium seating, boxes and suites. In December of 2015, the radio and TV booths were renamed "The Keith Jackson Broadcast Center". Jackson, the former sportscaster, coined the phrase "The Granddaddy of Them All" for the Rose Bowl Game. Also added are field level entrances and exits, and additional concession stands and restroom facilities.

Since 2007, UCLA and its opponents have dressed in new locker rooms located underneath the south concourse of the stadium. The locker area features all of the latest amenities to benefit the players, coaches, sports medicine and equipment staffs. In addition, a new media interview room and working press area were included in the upgrades. In 1998, new individual chairs were installed in the seating areas between the end zones. Also, improved seating areas for the physically challenged were installed, as well as a new sound system.

Completed in 1922 at a cost of $272,198, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California football game that year which was won by the Golden Bears 12-0. The stadium was originally horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 persons when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end zone was enclosed prior to the 1929 game to increase seating capacity to 76,000.

Further enlargements took place in 1932 (83,677) and 1949 (100,807). A record crowd of 106,869 fans witnessed the 1973 Ohio State – USC Rose Bowl contest.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts in its vast history. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, The UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide connection.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 feet from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. The square footage of the grass on the floor of the stadium is 79,156.

Game No. 1 – Sept. 2, 2023
Rose Bowl Stadium (Pasadena, Calif.)
UCLA 27, Coastal Carolina 13

UCLA used big plays on offense, defense, and special teams, and dominated the fourth quarter to hold off a pesky Coastal Carolina team for a 27-13 season-opening victory at the Rose Bowl. It marked the Bruins' third consecutive season-opening home win.

Redshirt junior quarterback Ethan Garbers got the starting nod, just the second of his career, and went 10-for-17 for 121 yards, with one touchdown and two interceptions. Freshman Dante Moore completed 7-of-12 passes for 143 yards with two touchdowns and one interception.

The Bruins outgained the Chanticleers, 417 to 345 in total yards of offense, thanks to 153 rushing yards, compared to just 56 by Coastal Carolina. Both sophomore T.J. Harden (11 carries) and junior Carson Steele (13 carries), rushed for 76 yards apiece. Steele also had four receptions for 20 yards and one touchdown.

Redshirt sophomore J. Michael Sturdivant had five catches for 136 yards and one touchdown. Sophomore Carsen Ryan had one catch for 21 yards that also went for a score.

Defensively, the Bruins racked up 10 tackles for loss, including three sacks by senior Laiatu Latu. Latu also forced one fumble that led to one of the Bruins' three takeaways.
