ARMEN KIRAKOSSIAN

UCLA Men's Golf
Head Coach, 4th Season
Alma Mater: UT Pan American '10

Armen Kirakossian enters his fourth season as the UCLA men's golf head coach in 2025-26. He was selected to lead UCLA's program on June 13, 2022, and has made an immediate impact in Westwood in his first three seasons.

Kirakossian has guided UCLA's program on a strong trajectory as the Bruins have played their best golf in years. Most recently, UCLA advanced to the 2025 NCAA Championships after a third-place finish at the NCAA Auburn Regional. The Bruins earned spots at the NCAA Regionals in 2024 (at Stanford) and in 2025 (at Auburn). UCLA advanced to the NCAA Championships in 2025 for the first time since 2018.

In 2025, Kirakossian was honored as the NCAA Division I Golf Pride Grips West Region Coach of the Year, as selected by the Golf Coaches Association of America. He was also a finalist for the 2025 NCAA Division I Dave Williams Coach of the Year Award. UCLA swept the 2025 Big Ten Conference men's golf awards, including Kirakossian being named the league's Coach of the Year. In addition, Pablo Ereño was honored as the Big Ten Men's Golfer of the Year and Baylor Larrabee was recognized as the conference's Freshman of the Year. Kirakossian became UCLA's first head coach to secure conference "Coach of the Year" acclaim since 2010-11 (Derek Freeman). Likewise, Ereño became the Bruins' first student-athlete to earn conference "Golfer of the Year" accolades since Patrick Cantlay in 2010-11.

As a team, UCLA produced three team tournament wins in 2024-25. During the fall season, the Bruins won The Preserve Golf Club Collegiate in Carmel, Calif. That marked the Bruins' first team win since taking the title at The Lamkin San Diego Classic in 2021. UCLA finished in first place out of 30 teams at The Goodwin, hosted by Stanford University in March 2025. In their first season as members of the Big Ten Conference, UCLA won the Big Ten Championships at Baltimore Country Club, finishing one stroke ahead of second-place Illinois and 12 strokes ahead of third-place Michigan State. UCLA finished third or higher in seven tournaments in 2024-25, including a runner-up finish in October 2024 at the Golf Club of Georgia Collegiate. The Bruins concluded the 2024-25 season under par as a team (-62) across 13 stroke play tournaments, marking the second straight year in which UCLA finished the season under par.

Over the past two seasons, Omar Morales and Pablo Ereño had very strong individual campaigns under the direction of Kirakossian. Both student-athletes were honored on a pair of All-America lists. Ereño secured third-team GCAA All-America acclaim as a senior (2025) and Morales earned the same honor as a junior (2024) before being recognized as an honorable mention in 2025. At the conclusion of stroke play at the 2025 NCAA Championships, Morales and Ereño were ranked No. 9 and No. 10, respectively, in the final PGA TOUR University rankings PGA TOUR U. Morales and Ereño earned first-team all-league honors in 2024 and 2025 – awards in the Pac-12 (2024) and Big Ten (2025), respectively. Both golfers were named to the Ben Hogan Award Watch List heading into the spring seasons in 2024 and 2025. During the 2023-24 season, Morales and Ereño became UCLA's first golfers selected to that award's watch list since 2015-16.

Ereño and Morales joined teammates Kyle An and Baylor Larrabee as All-Big Ten Conference selections in 2025. An and Larrabee secured second-team honors on the list of all-league selections. That marked the first time in which UCLA's program had four or more all-league honorees since the 2012-13 (in the Pac-12 Conference).

Glancing at UCLA's career record book, Morales and Ereño concluded their collegiate careers ranking second and third, respectively, in scoring average – Morales at 71.22 through 116 rounds, and Ereño at 71.32 over 133 rounds. Ereño graduated from UCLA with the highest number of career under par rounds (63), with Morales ranking third on that career list (57 rounds). Morales posted a single-season school record scoring average in 2023-24 (69.91), while Ereño followed in the No. 2 spot in 2024-25 with an average of 70.23. Ereño and Morales tied for the school single-season record for rounds in the 60s – Ereño with 19 rounds in 2024-25, and Morales having equaled that number in 2023-24.

Morales continued to represent UCLA on the sport's highest level with a second-straight U.S. Open berth at Pinehurst No. 2 in 2024. He earned an invitation to the World Wide Technology Championship in Nov. 2024, competing at his third PGA TOUR event. Morales competed in second PGA TOUR event at the Mexico Open and put on an impressive showing at the Latin America Amateur Championships where he placed runner-up.

Kirakossian's work during his second season at UCLA (2023-24) included strong campaigns across the board from Ereño, Morales and then-freshman Luke Powell. Morales established program records in scoring average (69.91), rounds under par (25) and rounds in the 60s (19). Ereño's marks were just as impressive, as the Spaniard significantly improved his play during UCLA's spring season. Ereño compiled a 70.78 scoring average, which ranks seventh in school history. He ranked second on the squad behind Morales with six top-10 finishes, eight top-20 finishes, 22 rounds under par and 15 rounds in the 60s. Powell had one of the most dominant freshman campaigns in UCLA history with three top-3 finishes, including a medal, in his first four collegiate events. The Bruins' fall 2023 portion was highlighted by back-to-back individual wins from Powell and Morales. Powell, competing in his second tournament, shot -17, 199 (64-67-68) to earn his first title at the Hamptons Intercollegiate. Less than two weeks later, in Oct. 2024, Morales claimed his second career medal in UCLA's next event at the Golf Club of Georgia Collegiate. He shot -11, 205 (68-68-69).

Kirakossian, who owns 11 total years of collegiate coaching experience, led the Bruins to three top-five team finishes in his first year at the helm of the program in 2022-23. The 2022-23 season was highlighted by t-5th mark at the highly competitive Southwestern Invitational where Ereño and Morales finished in the top 20. Morales was the most impressive individual performer in Kirakossian's debut season. After finishing 89th in his first event of the season, Morales improved in each tournament, culminating in the first medal of his collegiate career at the El Macero Classic. Ten days later, Morales competed in his first PGA TOUR event at the Mexico Open. He qualified for the 123rd U.S. Open on June 5, 2023, after winning his qualifying round at Hillcrest Country Club.

Before arriving at UCLA, Kirakossian spent five seasons at Arizona State, two as associate head coach and three as an assistant. He helped lead the Sun Devils to four consecutive NCAA Championship appearances, including a runner-up finish in 2021-22 and a third-place showing in 2020-21. During Kirakossian's tenure, Arizona State produced more All-Pac-12 honorees (17) than any other school in the conference. In 2021-22, the Sun Devils boasted a Pac-12-leading four first-team selections, the most by an ASU team since 1993-94.

Following the 2018-19 season, Kirakossian was named a Strickland Award Winner as the top assistant coach in the country. He coached three consecutive Pac-12 Freshman/Newcomer of the Year award-winners from 2019-22 in Cameron Sisk (2019), David Puig (2021) and Preston Summerhays (2022), and a total of 11 All-Americans at Arizona State. Under Kirakossian and head coach Matt Thurmond, the Sun Devils ranked in the top 10 in the final Golfweek Rankings in each of the final four seasons. In addition, Arizona State won 15 team tournaments and 15 individual titles over his five seasons in Tempe, Ariz.

Prior to coaching at Arizona State, Kirakossian was an assistant coach for Pepperdine University from 2015-17. While at Pepperdine, Kirakossian helped oversee a turnaround in the Waves' program with a 13th-place finish at the NCAA Championships, its best mark since 2005. Pepperdine ranked 19th in the final Golfweek rankings for a 59-spot improvement from when Kirakossian joined the program.

Several individuals shined under Kirakossian's leadership at Pepperdine, including Hogan and Nicklaus award winner Sahith Theegala, who regularly competes on the PGA Tour. At Arizona State, Chun An Yu became the No. 1 amateur in the world by the end of the 2019-20 season.

Kirakossian arrived at UCLA with prior head coaching experience. Before working at Pepperdine, he was the head coach at his alma mater, Texas Pan American (UTPA), where he led the Broncos to three top-five finishes in 2014-15. Kirakossian also served as a volunteer assistant coach at UTPA in 2012-13 prior to being hired as head coach in August 2014. One of his student-athletes, Nicolas Paltret, won the Western Athletic Conference's individual crown and advanced to an NCAA Regional, becoming the school's first student-athlete to participate in the NCAAs since 1978.

Kirakossian was a member of UTPA's golf team, earning first-team all-conference and GCAA All-American Scholar honors. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration in 2010.

MASON BANGER

UCLA Men's Golf
Assistant Coach, 3rd Season
Alma Mater: Harding '18

Mason Banger enters his third season as an assistant coach with the UCLA men's golf team in 2025-26. He joined the Bruins' program in July of 2023, working alongside head coach Armen Kirakossian.

Banger and Kirakossian have positioned UCLA to play their best golf in years, having concluded the 2023-24 and 2024-25 seasons with NCAA postseason trips. UCLA advanced to the NCAA Stanford Regional in 2023-24 before securing a spot at the 2025 NCAA Championships in Carlsbad, Calif. The Bruins finished in third place at the 2025 NCAA Auburn Regional, advancing through to the program's first NCAA Championships appearance since 2018.

In Banger's two years with UCLA's program, the Bruins have placed third or better in 11 tournaments. The Bruins produced three team tournaments wins in 2024-25 and had one runner-up finish that season. During the fall season, the Bruins won The Preserve Golf Club Collegiate in Carmel, Calif. That marked UCLA's first team win since taking the title at The Lamkin San Diego Classic in 2021. The Bruins finished in first place out of 30 teams at The Goodwin, hosted by Stanford University in March 2025. In their first season as members of the Big Ten Conference, UCLA won the Big Ten Championships at Baltimore Country Club, finishing one stroke ahead of second-place Illinois. The Bruins finished third or higher in seven tournaments in 2024-25, including a runner-up finish in October 2024 at the Golf Club of Georgia Collegiate. UCLA closed the 2024-25 golf season under par as a team (-62) across 13 stroke play tournaments, marking the second straight year in which UCLA finished the season under par.

At the conclusion of the 2024-25 campaign, Kirakossian was recognized as the NCAA Division I Golf Pride Grips West Region Coach of the Year (selected by the Golf Coaches Association of America). Kirakossian was also a finalist for the 2025 NCAA Division I Dave Williams Coach of the Year Award.

UCLA swept the 2025 Big Ten Conference men's golf awards, including Kirakossian being named the league's Coach of the Year. Pablo Ereño was honored as the Big Ten Men's Golfer of the Year and Baylor Larrabee was recognized as the conference's Freshman of the Year. Banger arrived to Westwood with three and a half seasons of NCAA Division I and II coaching experience. Most recently, Banger spent the spring of 2022 and the entire 2022-23 season at Abilene Christian, where he helped the Wildcats to the 2022 Western Athletic Conference Championship in their first year in the new league. That also marked Abilene Christian's first men's golf conference title as a Division I program.

The Wildcats finished 2021-22 with a 10th-place finish in the NCAA Stockton Regional. Abilene Christian placed eighth at the 2023 WAC Championship after graduating five key members from the previous season's squad.

Prior to coaching at Abilene Christian, Banger served as a coach at Louisiana in 2020-21. The Ragin' Cajuns posted four top-five finishes, including a season-best runner-up placement at the Louisiana Classics on their home course at Oakbourne Country Club.

In the 2018-19 campaign, Banger served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Harding University (Division II), where he understudied head coach Dustin Howell, who had led the Bison's men's golf program for 15 seasons.

Banger competed at Harding from 2014-18, setting the program career record for wins (3), stroke average (73.99), rounds under par (27), rounds played (112) and best winning percentage (.776). He was a three-time All-Great American Conference golfer, including first-team accolades in 2018 when he also earned PING All-Central Region honors.

A team captain at Harding, Banger was an academic all-conference selection and a 2018 Srixon/Cleveland Golf and GCAA All-American Scholar Athlete. He also served as caddy for English professional golfer Harry Ellis at the 2018 U.S. Open and 2018 Memorial Tournament.

Banger earned his bachelor's degree in sport and recreation management from Harding in 2018. He later earned his master's degree in education (MSE) in kinesiology in 2020.

1988 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

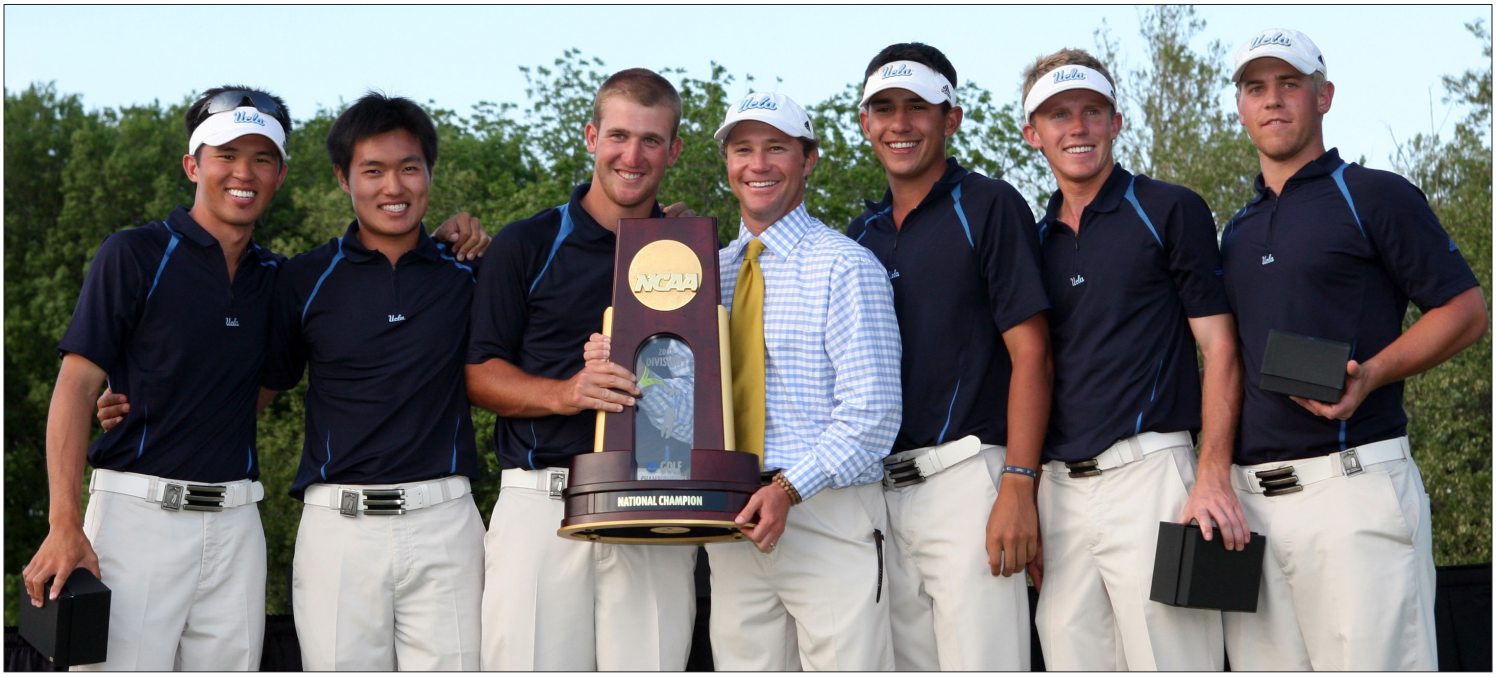

In 1988, the UCLA men's golf team won the program's first team championship at the North Ranch Country Club in Westlake Village, Calif.

Trailing by 13 shots entering the final day of the tournament, the Bruins rallied for one of the greatest comebacks in NCAA golf history. UCLA shot a 3-over 287 over the final 18 holes to win the national championship by three shots over Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and UTEP.

The Bruins' Brandt Jobe fired a final-round, 2-under 69 to finish tied for second (+3, 287), which at that point was the best individual finish ever for a UCLA golfer at the NCAA Championships. Although no other Bruin finished among the Top 20, clutch performances, especially on the final day, produced one of the most memorable championship moments in UCLA history.

Kevin Leach, who won twice on the season and had eight top 10 finishes, secured second-team All-America honors and was a first-team All-Pac-10 selection. Bobby Lasken, who also won a tournament, was an honorable mention All-America selection and second-team All-Pac-10 honoree. Jobe also was named an honorable mention All-America recipient.

2008 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Senior Kevin Chappell made a par on the 18th hole to give UCLA a one-shot victory over Stanford on May 31, 2008 at the 111th NCAA Men's Golf Championship, hosted by Purdue at its Kampen Course in West Lafayette, Ind.

Chappell won the individual title and led the fourth-ranked Bruins to their first men's golf championship since 1988. He finished at 2-under 286 and was the only player in the field under par for the event. He became the first UCLA player to win NCAA medalist honors.

"The feeling I have right now is better than anything," Chappell said. "To win individually is great, but it becomes even more special because the team also won. I can't say enough about this team. All season long we've always been there to pick each other up and that's what championship teams do."

In the third round, Chappell made a round-saving bogey from knee-high rough at the 18th hole. That score helped him post a cool 68 (-4) and assume first place entering the final round.

At the time, Chapppell had called it "the best bogey of my life." He amended that statement after the final round with a bogey that preserved the Bruins' national championship. At the 71st hole, a 230-yard par 3 over water, Chappell dumped his tee shot in the hazard. His third shot from the drop area skirted 22 paces past the hole -- almost a certain double-bogey.

"I knew he could get it up and down from there," said head coach Derek Freeman. "I figured we'd take a five and move on to 18."

The two-time All-American chipped it in.

"That was the best bogey of my entire life," Chappell said.

Chappell had struggled most of the week at the 18th hole. In the second round, he came to the 484-yard par 4 at 1-under par. A double-bogey gave him a 73 (+1). His bogey there in the third round prevented him from carding a 67 (-5).

And in the final round, he knew a par would preserve the Bruins' precarious one-shot lead and their championship dreams. His tee shot found the fairway, leaving him 189 yards to the green. His second shot landed 20 feet above the hole. He barely missed making a birdie, but tapped in for par before the entire UCLA entourage charged the green to embrace their senior leader.

"This is huge for our school which prides itself on national championships," Coach Freeman said. "Now, I want to figure out how to get better because I sure like this feeling."

Senior Craig Leslie's birdies at the 16th and 18th holes proved crucial to the Bruins' title hopes, as well as key par saves on the final holes by junior Erik Flores and freshman Philip Francis.
