LAST WEEK

UCLA salvaged its series at then-No. 8 Washington last week (March 22-24) with a 6-0 shutout victory in game three. The Bruins had the game-tying run reach scoring position in each of their first two losses of the series.

GAME ONE (L, 5-6): Game one featured late-game dramatics courtesy of Brady. UCLA entered the seventh trailing Washington, 6-4. After a sacrifice fly by Jadelyn Allchin scored Thessa Malau'ulu, Brady reached base on a two-out infield single after initially being ruled out. That was the first of two replay reviews that overturned the game's final out. The second was on a steal of third base by Brady who was initially ruled out on the tag. A strikeout to Megan Grant ended the game.

GAME TWO (L, 4-6): The Bruins put forth a late-game charge again on Saturday with four runs in the final two innings. Four walks and a wild pitch by Washington reliever Ruby Meylan helped score three runs in the seventh inning and pushed the game-tying run to second base. A chopper off the bat of Janelle Meoño to third base ended the game.

GAME THREE (W, 6-0): Terry tossed a two-hit shutout and allowed just three base runners in game three. The performance marked Terry's fourth complete-game shutout of the season. UCLA homered three times in the game, including two off the bat of Brady, marking the eighth multi-homer performance of her career. Jordan Woolery also homered.

TERRY AGAIN NAMED PAC-12 FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

For the second week in a row, left-handed pitcher Kaitlyn Terry has been named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Week. Terry put forth her most dominant outing of the season with a complete-game shutout in game three at Washington last Sunday. She needed just 81 pitches, limiting the Huskies to two hits and a walk. Terry's performance marked the first shutout by a UCLA freshman versus a top-10 opponent since April 7, 2017, when Rachel Garcia shutout then-No. 1 Oregon. Terry retired the last 11 Huskies of the game and flashed the leather in the fourth inning, starting a 1-6-3 double play. Including her relief outing in game one, Terry allowed just one earned run over 12.1 innings in the series.

BRADY HEATING UP

Maya Brady is building up her Player of the Year candidacy again in 2024. Over the last 10 games, Brady has homered four times and drove in a team-high 16 RBI with a .464 batting average. In game three at Washington last Sunday, Brady recorded her second two-homer game of the season and eighth of her career. Brady now leads the Pac-12 with an .810 slugging percentage on the season. The shortstop has shored up on the defensive side of the ball as well with just one error in the month of March (14 games). 2024 marks Brady's second season as UCLA's starting shortstop. She took over the role full-time on March 3, 2023 after Seneca Curo sustained a season-ending injury. She has started at shortstop in 74 career games.

In 2023, Brady was named the Pac-12 Player of the Year and a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 3 Finalist in addition to being a consensus First Team All-American. Brady led UCLA with a .448 average, 18 home runs, 59 RBI, 63 runs scored, 33 extra-base hits and 149 total bases last season.

BRADY IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Career Home Runs: Brady's two homers at Washington on March 24 moved her into sole possession of third place on UCLA's all-time home runs list with 62, passing Tairia Mims (2000-03) and Delaney Spaulding (2014-17). Brady needs five home runs to pass Stephany LaRosa (2012-15) with 66 career home runs.

Career Two-Homer Games: Brady's two homers against the Huskies on March 24 marked the eighth multi-homer game of her career which is the third most by a Bruin in UCLA history. She moved out of a tie with LaRosa and B.B. Bates (2010-13) with seven. Andrea Harrison (2009-12) ranks second in UCLA history with nine multi-homer games while Stacey Nuveman is first with 12.

Career RBI: Brady became the seventh Bruin to reach 200 career RBI with her grand slam in the second inning of UCLA's 12-1 victory over Utah on March 10. Brady is up to 211 RBI in her career and needs three more to surpass Aaliyah Jordan (2018-23) for fifth UCLA's all-time list.

Career Runs Scored: Brady's four runs scored last week at Washington improved her career total to 195, passing Kylee Perez (2015-18) for sole possession of fifth on UCLA's all-time list. Brady needs five more runs to pass Katie Schroeder (2008-12) for fourth.

Career Slugging Percentage: Brady's .750 career slugging percentage currently ranks third all-time in UCLA history. In second is LaRosa's .755 career mark.

PALACIOS POWER
Redshirt senior catcher Sharlize Palacios is enjoying her best season yet in Westwood with eight home runs, 23 RBI and a .776 slugging percentage. In Palacios' last three home games at Easton – a contest versus Rutgers and double-header versus LMU – she went a perfect 5-for-5 at the plate with a grand slam, earning her Pac-12 Player of the Week honors for the first time in her career. Palacios homered in game one of UCLA's series at Washington last week. Defensively, behind the dish, Palacios has yet to commit an error and has thrown out five runners attempting to steal. Her most recent victim was in game three at Washington on March 24 in a strike-em-out, throw-em-out double play.

KEY NOTES ABOUT THE BRUINS
· The Bruins have returned seven key pieces from last season's batting lineup: redshirt seniors Maya Brady, Sharlize Palacios, Janelle Meoño and Seneca Curo, junior Savannah Pola and sophomores Megan Grant and Jordan Woolery. They return one arm from last season's pitching staff: sophomore Taylor Tinsley. UCLA has added seven incoming student-athletes with three transfers and four freshmen.

· Last season, UCLA went 52-7 and made a NCAA Tournament appearance for the 24th consecutive year which is the longest active streak among all programs. The No. 2 seed Bruins lost in the NCAA Regional round (0-2), marking the first time in seven years they did not reach the Women's College World Series. It was the first time in 10 years UCLA did not make it out of Regionals.

· Kelly Inouye-Perez enters her 18th season as the Bruins' head coach (The Shelly Carlin UCLA Head Softball Coach). Including her five years as a catcher on UCLA's roster, 13 years as an assistant coach and 17 years as head coach, the 2024 season marks Inouye-Perez's 36th consecutive season in Westwood. Known as "Coach I," Inouye-Perez is the only person to have won a NCAA Division I Softball Championship as both a player and coach. She led the Bruins to two NCAA Championships as head coach in 2010 and 2019. Inouye-Perez owns a 793-205-1 (.794) career record. Her .797 winning percentage entering the season ranks second among active head coaches and seventh all-time. UCLA's first two Hall-of-Fame head coaches, Sharron Backus and Sue Enquist, rank top two all-time in winning percentage.

IN THE POLLS
· UCLA enters the week ranked in both major polls. The Bruins check in at No. 15 in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Poll and No. 13 in the ESPN/USA Softball Poll.

· In addition, the Bruins have been slotted in the No. 2 spot in the final Pac-12 Preseason Coaches Poll, as announced by the conference office on Feb. 1. Stanford was selected as the league's preseason favorite, garnering seven of nine first-place votes. Washington and Utah each received one first-place vote.

COACH I NEARING 800 WINS
Head coach Kelly Inouye-Perez owns a 793-205-1 record and is seven wins away from win No. 800 in her career. Enquist leads UCLA's triad of head coaches with 887 career head coaching wins while Backus owns 854 such wins. Inouye-Perez was coached by both Backus and Enquist in her time as a catcher on the Bruins' roster from 1989-93 and later coached alongside Backus and Enquist as an assistant upon graduating.

UCLA softball has been a member of the conference since 1987 (37 years) and has won 12 regular-season conference championships as a Pac-12 member institution. There have been 21 NCAA Division I Softball Championships won by five different Pac-12 Conference member schools in the tournament's 40-year history, which leads all conferences (UCLA - 9, Arizona - 8, Arizona State - 2, Washington - 1, California - 1).

PRESEASON RECOGNITION

Redshirt seniors Maya Brady and Sharlize Palacios and sophomores Megan Grant and Jordan Woolery were named to the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 50 Watch List, as announced in January. UCLA ranked second in terms of representation on the list, trailing only Oklahoma who had six players listed. Recognized as the most distinguished individual honor in NCAA Division I Softball, two Bruins have received the honor a total of three times. Rachel Garcia was a back-to-back winner of the award following the 2018 and 2019 seasons, and Stacey Nuveman won the award in 2002. Additionally, Brady, Palacios, Grant and Woolery were selected to the Preseason All-Pac-12 Team.

PAIR OF PAC-12 BATTING CHAMPIONS

UCLA's roster totes two former Pac-12 Batting Champions in Brady and Meoño. Brady won the Pac-12 Batting Crown last year with a .456 batting average in the regular season. In Meoño's freshman year at Arizona in 2021, she earned the title with a .442 average. Meoño went on to earn NFCA Third Team All-American honors that season.

ENCORE! ENCORE!

Redshirt senior shortstop Maya Brady was named as one of the Pac-12 Conference's 20 selections to the preseason all-league team, as announced in February. Last season, Brady was honored as a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 3 Finalist and became the ninth student-athlete in UCLA history to be named Pac-12 Player of the Year (18th time a UCLA player won the award, which ranks first among conference schools). She was honored as an NFCA First Team All-American for the second time in her career. Brady won the Pac-12 Batting Crown with a .456 average in the regular season.

SOPHOMORE STARS

Grant and Woolery, two NFCA Freshman of the Year Top 10 Finalists in 2023, look to repeat their successes in their sophomore campaigns. The duo each received NFCA All-American status last season (Grant to the Second Team and Woolery to the Third Team). In 2023, Grant and Woolery combined for 104 runs batted in which was the most by a freshman duo in UCLA history, surpassing the mark of 90 RBI set by Stacey Nuveman (71) and Courtney Dale (19) in 1997. The 104 RBI ranked second in the NCAA last season, trailing Indiana's Taryn Kern and Avery Parker (105 RBI).

FOUR ALL-AMERICANS RETURN

Four returning UCLA players have earned NFCA All-American status in their careers: Maya Brady (2023, 2021), Megan Grant (2023), Janelle Meoño (2021) and Jordan Woolery (2023). Brady is the only active Bruin to have earned First Team All-American acclaim, doing so twice her redshirt freshman and redshirt junior seasons. Inouye-Perez has coached one three-time First Team All-American: Rachel Garcia (2018, 2019, 2021).

SECOND YEAR IN WESTWOOD

· Catcher Sharlize Palacios and outfielder Janelle Meoño enter their second seasons as Bruins after transferring to UCLA from Arizona in Summer 2022. Palacios was named to the Pac-12 All-Defensive Team for the second time in her career last season as UCLA's leader behind the dish. She also earned All-Pac-12 Second Team honors. Palacios' season was cut short due to a left hand injury sustained against Arizona State on a catcher's interference on April 22. Prior to the injury, Palacios hit for a .311 average and finished the season tied for third on the team with 10 home runs.

· Meoño finished 2023 on a high note with five multi-hit games over the final 17 games of the season. She played in 57 games and made 42 starts, including 37 in center field.

UCLA'S 2024 PITCHING STAFF

· Sophomore Taylor Tinsley is the lone returning pitcher from last year's staff which was headlined by Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year Megan Faraimo and All-Pac-12 Second Team selection Brooke Yanez. Tinsley totaled a 6-1 record with 57.1 innings pitched and a 1.47 earned run average in her debut season. Her top performances last season were a shutout victory over Texas A&M at the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic on Feb. 25 (W, 3-0) and a no-hitter in her first career start against CSU Bakersfield on Feb. 11 (W, 8-0 in five innings). Tinsley's performance marked the first time a Bruin hurler tossed a no-hitter in their first career pitching appearance since Amanda Freed in 1999.

· Joining Tinsley in the circle are freshman Kaitlyn Terry (Glendale, Ariz.) and junior transfer Jada Cecil from UC San Diego. The left-handed Terry prepped at Greenway High School where she earned Arizona Gatorade Player of the Year twice as a senior in 2023 and sophomore in 2021. She finished her four-year career with a 62-9 record, 0.53 earned run average, 1,227 strikeouts over 511.1 innings pitched, 26 no-hitters and six perfect games. Terry, a two-way player, recorded a lifetime .626 batting average, 1.567 slugging percentage, 152 hits an 53 home runs for Greenway.

· Cecil earned Big West Pitcher of the Year honors in her freshman season with the Tritons in 2022 after posting a 20-5 record, 1.88 earned run average and a program-record 234 strikeouts. Cecil was coached by 2019 NCAA Champion and two-time Honda Cup winner Rachel Garcia while at UC San Diego.

· UCLA leads all collegiate softball programs with 11 Honda Sport Award accolades and leads all NCAA Division I women's athletic programs, regardless of sport, with four Honda Cup awards: Lisa Fernandez (1993), Natasha Watley (2003) and the only two-time winner in the Cup's history, Rachel Garcia (2019, 2021).

· The UCLA softball program has been represented in each of the five Olympic Games sponsoring softball. A total of 14 former UCLA players have competed for the U.S. Olympic Team. UCLA's 17 total Olympians and nine different gold medal winners rank as the most among all college programs. The 17 Olympians have totaled 32 medals, including 16 gold medals.

CHANGES TO THE STAFF

UCLA announced the addition of assistant coach Rob Schweyer to the staff in November 2023. Schweyer will oversee the Bruins' pitching staff in 2024. He is an active men's professional fastpitch competitor and will be inducted into the International Softball Congress (ISC) Hall of Fame in 2024. Schweyer has worked the last 14 years as a personal pitching instructor and helped develop UCLA softball pitchers Megan Faraimo (2019-23), Brooke Yanez (2023) and Taylor Tinsley (2023-Pres.). The Mark Kalmansohn Associate Head Softball Coach Lisa Fernandez now works primarily with the Bruins' hitters and infield. Fernandez spent the last several seasons working with UCLA's pitching staff. Will Oldham transitions from his role as volunteer assistant in 2023 to volunteer director of player development and data analytics. In 2023, Oldham specialized in scouting and with the slappers hitting group.

OVERVIEW OF LAST SEASON

· UCLA's 52 regular-season wins were its most since 2001 and fourth-most in the history of the program. The 52 regular-season wins were also the most in the NCAA last season. The season was highlighted by a 25-game winning streak which ended in the Pac-12 Tournament championship game on May 13 (lost to Utah, 7-4). The winning streak was tied for the longest of Inouye-Perez's career.

· UCLA captured its 17th regular-season conference title and its 12th as a member of the Pac-10/12 Conference in 2023. The Bruins went 21-3 in league play and closed the regular-season slate on a 17-conference game winning streak which was their longest in a single season since 2002. The 21 conference wins were UCLA's most in a season since 1999.

· UCLA was one of just three teams to not drop a conference series in 2023 (Oklahoma and Florida State). For the second time in the last 20 years, UCLA took the season series against every Pac-12 opponent (2021).

· UCLA ranked top 10 nationally in both batting average (2nd, .336) and earned run average (8th, 1.69) in 2023. The only other Power 5 program to accomplish that feat was Oklahoma.

· UCLA ranked top two in the Pac-12 in essentially every hitting and statistical category. UCLA was top two in the Pac-12 in earned run average for the sixth consecutive year, finishing second with a 1.69 mark behind Stanford. UCLA's pitching staff ranked first in opposing batting average (.189) and shutouts (21), and was second in strikeouts (416) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.89). Both marks trailed Stanford. The Bruins' bats led the Pac-12 in average (.336) and slugging percentage (.523).

· Brady (.448 avg., 59 RBI, 18 HR) was named a USA Softball Player of the Year Top 3 Finalist and was honored as the 2023 Pac-12 Player of the Year. She became the ninth UCLA player to win the prestigious Player of the Year award and the first Bruin recipient since Rachel Garcia who won the award three years in a row from 2018-21.

· Faraimo (29-3, 1.42 ERA, 232 SO) was recognized as the Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year for the second consecutive season, accomplishing that feat for the first time in program history. She was also named a USA Softball Player of the Year Top 10 Finalist.

· Woolery (.390 avg., 46 RBI, 10 HR) and Grant (.333 avg., 58 RBI, 15 HR) were named to the NFCA Freshman of the Year Top 10 List. UCLA was one of two programs with a duo on the list (Duke). Woolery was also honored as the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year, becoming the ninth Bruin to win that award and first since Faraimo in 2018.

· Kelly Inouye-Perez rounded out the 2023 conference trophy case, being selected for her third Pac-12 Coach of the Year award (2010, 2012). Inouye-Perez is now tied with her predecessor and fellow UCLA Athletic Hall of Famer Sue Enquist with three conference coach of the year honors.

BRADY BULLETS FROM 2023

· Brady was one of just five players in the NCAA to rank top 20 in batting average (8th, .448 avg.), home runs (t-14th, 18 HR) and runs batted in (t-17th, 59 RBI). Also on that list were Valerie Cagle (Clemson), Tiare Jennings (Oklahoma), Autumn Owen (Marshall) and Skylar Wallace (Florida).

· Brady's elite 2023 campaign ranks as one of the best in program history. In UCLA's single-season record book, Brady's .866 slugging percentage ranks seventh and her .448 batting average and 18 home runs rank 11th. The Thousand Oaks, Calif. native's .866 slugging mark was the best by a Bruin in 13 seasons since Megan Langenfeld's 1.085 mark in 2010.

· Brady homered in four straight games from April 8-16. She is the fifth Bruin ever to accomplish that feat and first since Stephany LaRosa who tied the school record with a homer in five straight games (2015). Also homering in four-plus straight games were B.B. Bates (2013), Samantha Camuso (2010) and Stacey Nuveman (1997).

· Brady recorded four multi-homer games in 2023 which is tied for second all-time by a Bruin in a single season. The last UCLA player to record four multi-homer games in a single season was B.B. Bates in 2013. Also tied at that mark are Megan Langenfeld and Andrea Harrison who each record four multi-homer games in the Bruins' 2010 NCAA Championship season. Current San Diego State head coach Stacey Nuveman Deniz holds the single-season record for multi-homer games with seven in 1999.

· At last year's Stacy Winsberg Memorial Tournament, Brady broke a 24-year-old program record with 11 consecutive hits. UCLA Athletic Hall of Famers Lisa Fernandez (March 1993) and Stacey Nuveman (Feb. 1999). In total, Brady opened the first week of 2023 going 13-for-16 with 13 RBI and four home runs to earn her NFCA Player of the Week honors.

CHEF SERVING APPETIZERS

Megan Grant, known by the nickname of "Chef," belted three lead-off home runs in her freshman 2023 season. Grant homered to leadoff the UCLA's NCAA Regional contest versus Liberty on May 20. She took over leadoff duties on April 2 versus then-No. 6 Stanford and recorded her first lead-off blast in the game. She stayed in that role to finish the season (25 games). In that span, Grant led UCLA with 16 extra-base hits and 23 runs batted in and ranked second with a .818 slugging percentage. Grant's other leadoff home run occurred in the series finale at then-No. 23 Utah on April 30.

BRUINS ON TEAM USA

Returners Brady, Grant and Woolery and alumnae Megan Faraimo and Ally Carda all represented Team USA internationally during Summer 2023.

· Brady competed alongside Faraimo and Carda at the 2023 WBSC World Cup Group Stage in Dublin, Ireland in July where she tallied five RBI and scored four runs to help Team USA punch its ticket to the XVII WBSC World Cup Final, which will be held in 2024. She scored the game-winning run versus Australia to advance into the final game. Brady started at first base in all four games.

· Grant and Woolery were two of 16 players selected to the 2023 Japan All-Star Series roster. Grant went 4-for-6 with two home runs, three RBI and three runs scored in Team USA's 12-11 extra-inning victory over Team Japan in game one. Grant started all three games in right field.

FARAIMO: ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Megan Faraimo (2019-23) was named Athletes Unlimited Rookie of the Year after a breakout season in Summer 2023. Faraimo's debut season was highlighted by the second no-hitter in league history on May 6. In 12 appearances and 53.0 total innings, the former two-time Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year posted a 3-3 record with 46 strikeouts and a 2.87 earned run average. She finished the year ranking seventh in Athletes Unlimited in points with 1,214. Faraimo, who concluded her UCLA career last May third on the Bruins' all-time wins list (101) and strikeouts list (1,000), continues her professional journey overseas in several leagues, looking to grow the game. She will also continue competing in USA Softball events.

LEADING THE WAY

· UCLA has finished 1st or 2nd in the Pac-12 in each of the last eight seasons under Inouye-Perez.
· Inouye-Perez led UCLA to the WCWS seven seasons in a row from 2015-22.
· Inouye-Perez has made the postseason every year of her head coaching career (17 seasons).
· Inouye-Perez has earned at least 19 conference wins in each of the last four seasons, the most by any Pac-12 coach.
· Inouye-Perez has picked up at least 40 wins in each of the last nine seasons dating back to 2013 (excludes 2020).
· Inouye-Perez has led UCLA to eight 50-win seasons in her 17 years as head coach.

WELCOME TO THE HALL, COACH I!

Head coach Kelly Inouye-Perez became the 20th member of the UCLA softball program to be inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in Fall 2022. She joins her associate head coach and lifelong friend Lisa Fernandez. The only person ever to win a NCAA Softball Championship as both a player and coach, Inouye-Perez has been affiliated with eight of UCLA softball's 12 NCAA championships – two as head coach (2010, 2019), three as an assistant coach (1999, 2003, 2004) and three as a player (1989, 1990, 1992).

B'ANN BURNS INDUCTED INTO UCLA ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

A feared pitcher for the UCLA softball team from 1994-97, B'Ann Burns Jacobs became the 21st member of the UCLA softball program to be inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in Fall 2023. Burns appeared in the Women's College World Series every season she played. She earned NFCA First Team All-America honors in 1996 and Second Team acclaim in 1997 and was a three-time All-Pac-10 selection. Burns tossed four career solo no-hitters and six combined no-hitters and led the team in wins every season, including a 31-win junior campaign that ranks eighth in school history. She finished her Bruin career with a 1.49 earned run average and 591 strikeouts and set a then-school record with 96 career wins, surpassing Lisa Fernandez' benchmark of 94. She remains ranked third all-time at UCLA with 98 complete games, fourth with 767.1 innings pitched and seventh with 96 wins and 131 appearances.

WALK-OFF WINS (3)

March 12, 2024 vs. Rutgers (W, 7-6)
The Bruins went to the bottom half of the seventh with a 6-6 tie game after Kaitlyn Terry surrendered a three spot to the Scarlet Knights in the top half. UCLA's 6-7-8 hitters were due up to lead off the inning. Thessa Malau'ulu, pinch hitter Madison Pacini and Janelle Meoño all worked walks to put the game-winning run 60 feet away from home. The Bruins' lead-off hitter, Jadelyn Allchin, smacked the first pitch she saw into the right-center gap to score the walk-off run.

March 9, 2024 vs. Utah (W, 6-5)
In front of a sold-out crowd and its 1984 NCAA Champions in the house, UCLA faced a 5-4 deficit in the seventh inning. The rally started with a nine-pitch walk to redshirt senior Seneca Curo, who was down 0-2 early in the at-bat and managed to foul off three pitches. A productive ground out by Janelle Meoño moved Curo's pinch runner, Liesl Osteen, into scoring position. The next batter was red-hot Jadelyn Allchin who was coming off her third home run of the year in game one of the series on March 8. With two outs, Allchin delivered a game-tying, RBI single that soared past the outstretched jump of Utah's shortstop and into left field. Two walks to Maya Brady and Jordan Woolery loaded the bases with nowhere to put sophomore Megan Grant. On a 3-1 count, Grant recorded the game-winning hit in with a walk-off single through the 5-6 hole to score Allchin from third base.

February 23, 2024 vs. Nebraska (W, 9-8)
The Bruins were tasked with overcoming an 8-4 Cornhuskers lead with one out in the bottom of the seventh. Megan Grant and Sharlize Palacios ignited the rally with back-to-back singles. Jadelyn Allchin pounded an RBI double to score Liesl Osteen, who pinch ran for Grant. A walk to Thessa Malau'ulu in the next at-bat loaded the bases for Ramsey Suarez. Suarez hit a routine ground ball to second base that skipped between the Nebraska fielder's legs and into the right field, scoring two runs to cut the lead to just one run, 8-7. Taylor Stephens came up clutch with her first hit of the season on a single into right field to score the game-tying run. The next batter, Maya Brady, continued the parade of hits with a single up the middle to score the walk-off run.

Including her 13 years as an assistant coach (1994-06) and five years as a player (1989-93), this marks Inouye-Perez's 36th consecutive season in Westwood. Inouye-Perez, who is the only person to have won a NCAA Softball Championship as both a player and coach, led the Bruins to their 12th and 13th titles as head coach in 2010 and 2019. Inouye-Perez officially took over from Sue Enquist as the third head coach in program history on Jan. 1, 2007.

Inouye-Perez is a link to five decades of Bruin softball success, reaching the postseason every year as head coach. She has contributed to eight NCAA Championships, 11 Pac-10/12 Conference titles and won 1,662 total games in her previous 35 years as a Bruin. Inouye-Perez won three NCAA titles as a player in 1989, 1990 and 1992 and three as an assistant coach under NFCA Hall of Famer Enquist in 1999, 2003 and 2004.

Entering 2024, she ranks second among all active Pac-12 coaches with 775 overall victories. Inouye-Perez secured her Pac-12-leading fourth regular-season title in 2023 with a 21-3 record, taking the season series versus each opponent. She ranks second among active NCAA softball head coaches and seventh all-time with a .797 winning percentage.

Over Inouye-Perez's 17 seasons as head coach, numerous Bruin players have garnered national, regional and conference recognition. Rachel Garcia was a three-time winner of the Honda Award for Softball (2018, 2019, 2021) and the first two-time winner of the Honda Cup (2019, 2021), which is given to the best female athlete in any collegiate sport. Garcia also was a two-time winner of the USA Softball Player of the Year award. Inouye-Perez has directed 44 NFCA All-Americans (21 First Team) and 89 NFCA All-Region plaudits (59 First Team). Eighty-two of Inouye-Perez's players have been named to the All-Pac-12 First (61), Second (17) and Third Teams (4) and 26 earned Honorable Mention. UCLA has hauled in seven Pac-10/12 Player of the Year awards since Inouye-Perez took the reins of the program, beginning with Megan Langenfeld in 2010. Ally Carda was a two-time winner in 2014 and 2015 and Rachel Garcia received the award three times (2018, 2019 and 2021), tying her lifelong friend Lisa Fernandez's record. Maya Brady is the most recent Bruin to be named Pac-12 Player of the Year in 2023. Since 2007, UCLA has totaled three Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year awards. Megan Faraimo became the first Bruin to win the award in back-to-back seasons in 2022 and 2023. Five Bruins have won Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and Briana Perez became the first Bruin to win Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year in 2022.

Four players who have competed in the Inouye-Perez era of UCLA softball have gone on to represent Team USA in the Olympics. Rachel Garcia, Bubba Nickles, Delaney Spaulding and Ally Carda all donned the Red, White and Blue at the 2020 Tokyo Summer Olympics and brought home the silver medal.

Inouye-Perez and her staff have been consistently recognized for their efforts on and off the field. The staff was awarded NFCA West Regional Coaching Staff of the Year six times and received the national honor three times in 2010, 2019 and 2021. Inouye-Perez was an assistant coach on the 2000 and 2004 staffs under Enquist that won the NFCA West Regional award. In 2023, Inouye-Perez matched her predecessor Enquist's mark of three Pac-12 Coach of the Year awards (2010, 2021 and 2023).

ABOUT UCLA's HALL-OF-FAME COACHING STAFF

UCLA softball's coaching core has remained intact since the inception of the program in 1975. The nexus of the Bruin coaching tree includes Sharron Backus, Sue Enquist, Kelly Inouye-Perez, Lisa Fernandez and Kirk Walker. With Enquist, Inouye-Perez and Fernandez all playing under Backus, and Walker getting his start as a freshman student manager under Backus in 1984, all five coaches are inextricably connected to the program's beginning. This is one of the reasons for UCLA's renown strength in culture and alumni network.
