Coaching Staff

Ryan Jorden

Head Coach
4th Year
Westmont '95

Ryan Jorden completed his third season as the UCLA men's head soccer coach in 2021. He was named the 11th head coach in program history on Apr. 29, 2019 by then-UCLA Director of Athletics Dan Guerrero.

Through 13 seasons as a head coach at the collegiate level, Jorden has compiled an overall record of 122-96-23 (.554 winning percentage) and secured seven postseason berths. He has steered his teams to double-digit wins in seven separate seasons, including four of the last six years. On the player development side, Jorden has coached nine players who were drafted or signed Homegrown deals with MLS clubs, including five during his tenure in Westwood.

UCLA had its strongest season yet under Jorden in 2021, posting an 11-7-1 overall record and reaching the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2015. The Bruins' eight-win improvement from the spring season represented the largest year-to-year turnaround in modern program history, and UCLA's plus-8 goal differential was its best since 2015. Season highlights for the Bruins included a 3-2 victory over then-top-ranked Oregon State on Nov. 7 (the second time a Jorden-led UCLA squad has downed the No. 1 team in the country) and a golden goal victory over UC Santa Barbara in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament. The Bruins went 5-4-1 in league play to take third place, the squad's highest finish in the league table since 2015. Four Bruins picked up All-Far West Region honors and a pair of UCLA froshes earned national All-Freshman honors in 2021, led by center back Pietro Grassi who was a First Team All-Region and Freshman Best XI pick. For the season, UCLA led the Pac-12 in assists per game (2.21), fewest fouls per game (9.32), and shot accuracy (48%). The team opened the season by going 6-2-0, the program's best eight-game start to a campaign since 2009.

A trio of Bruins made the jump to the pro ranks after the 2021 season, as center back Ahmed Longmire was selected No. 10 overall in the 2022 MLS SuperDraft by Nashville SC, defender Ben Reveno was the second-round choice of the New England Revolution, and goalkeeper Justin Garces signed as a Homegrown Player with Atlanta United FC in the lead-up to the draft.

The Bruins posted a 6-9-3 record under Jorden in 2019, his first year at the helm. Fielding an opening day lineup that featured just three returning starters, UCLA saw a tangible improvement over the course of the season. Under Jorden's guidance, junior forward Milan Iloski established himself as one of the top offensive threats in college soccer, leading the country with 1.06 goals per game (17 total) including a program-record five scores against San Diego State on Oct. 6. Jorden also oversaw the seamless integration of newcomers including Riley Ferch (Pac-12-high nine assists), Marcony Pimentel, and Ben Reveno. As a team, the campaign featured a number of highlights, none loftier than a 3-2 win over defending national champion and then-No. 1-ranked Maryland on Sept. 6.

His recruiting success has continued at UCLA, with his two most-recent classes earning a national ranking from TopDrawerSoccer. The Bruins' 2021 group of newcomers was ranked No. 4 in the country, the highest of any Pac-12 program.

Jorden arrived in Westwood with 23 years of collegiate coaching experience under his belt, most recently serving as head coach at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, Calif., where he re-started a dormant program in 2013 and turned the Tigers into perennial national contenders. Pacific reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament in each of his last three seasons, one of just two west coast programs able to make that claim over that span (Stanford).

Prior to that, he helmed the men's soccer program at Cal Baptist, transforming the Lancers into two-time NCCAA National Champions during his five-year tenure.

His 2016 squad at Pacific went 13-4-2, representing what was then the largest single-season win-loss turnaround in Division I men's soccer history at 11.5 games. Jorden secured a number of accolades after that standout season, including NCAA Far West Region and West Coast Conference Coach of the Year honors.

His last two seasons in Stockton were just as successful. In 2017, the Tigers posted an identical 13-4-2 record while reaching as high as No. 14 in the national rankings. In 2018, Pacific went 12-5-2 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Over his final three seasons, the Tigers went 38-13-6 (.719).

At Pacific, Jorden oversaw the development of a trio of players who went on to be drafted by MLS teams, as Tristan Blackmon was the third overall selection in the 2018 MLS SuperDraft (LAFC), Camden Riley was a second-round pick by Sporting Kansas City in 2019, and Jonathan Jimenez went No. 26 overall to the Chicago Fire in 2020. Overall, his time at Pacific yielded 27 All-WCC selections, five All-Far West Region picks, three All-Americans, and 13 WCC All-Academic honorees.

Jorden got his head coaching start at Cal Baptist University in 2008, taking the Lancers to an unprecedented level of success during his five years in Riverside. Taking over a program that had qualified for postseason play just once in the prior 18 years, Jorden guided CBU to the postseason in all five of his seasons, including NCCAA National Championships in both 2011 and 2012. Jorden was honored as the NCCAA National Coach of the Year after both of those championship campaigns.

He recorded a 60-30-10 overall record at Cal Baptist, including a 48-15-3 (.750) mark over his final three seasons. He was instrumental in NCAA compliance management as CBU transitioned to Division II during his tenure.

Cal Baptist had 12 players earn All-PacWest honors over his final two seasons, including two-time Goalkeeper of the Year Joey Pacheco. Seven Lancers earned All-America status during that span, headlined by 2012 NCCAA National Player of the Year Carlos Figueroa.

Jorden made assistant coaching stops at Westmont College — his alma mater — Northern Colorado University, and Oregon State earlier in his career.

He served as the lead assistant under head coach Dave Wolf at Westmont from 2000-2007, helping the Warriors to an 82-39-11 record. Westmont was consistently ranked in the NAIA Top-25 during his time in Santa Barbara, including No. 1 in 2000. The Warriors claimed back-to-back conference championships in 2001 and 2002.

Jorden was an assistant on the Northern Colorado University women's soccer staff in 2003 and 2004 as he pursued his doctoral degree. His first coaching stop came at Oregon State, where he served as the lone assistant from 1996-1999. With the Beavers, he managed day-to-day aspects of the program such as recruiting, training, scheduling, and compliance.

A graduate of Westmont College, Jorden played for the Warriors from 1991-1994. Westmont won 65 games and made two NAIA Tournament appearances during his time as a student-athlete.

Jorden completed his Ph.D. in sport and exercise science with an emphasis in biomechanics at Northern Colorado in October 2010. He earned his master's degree from Oregon State in 2000 and his bachelor's degree from Westmont in 1995. Jorden is a USSF "A" Licensed coach, and was head coach of the Olympic Development Program (ODP) Region IV from 2013-19.

He and his wife Liz have two sons, Graeme and Evan.

Coaching Staff

Paul Killian

Assistant Coach
2nd Year
Stevens '14

Paul Killian completed his first season as an assistant coach at UCLA in 2021. He was originally added to the staff by head coach Ryan Jorden on May 10, 2021.

His first season on staff at UCLA was an inarguable success, as the Bruins went 11-7-1 and secured an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament. The Bruins' 11 victories were an eight-win improvement over the 2020-21 season, representing the largest year-to-year turnaround in modern program history. The Bruins had several high-water marks over the course of the year – including a win over then-No. 1 Oregon State on Nov. 7 and a dramatic golden goal against UC Santa Barbara in the first round of the NCAA Tourney – and eventually reached the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2015. The Bruins received plenty of individual accolades at the end of the year, with seven receiving All-Pac-12 recognition, four making All-Far West Region, and a pair earning national All-Freshman honors.

Killian spent the five previous seasons (2016-21) on the staff of the men's program at Navy, serving as an assistant coach for four seasons before earning a promotion to associate head coach in 2020. His time in Annapolis yielded a number of program highlights, including a 15-game winning streak over the 2018 and 2019 seasons. He started his career as an assistant in 2015 at his alma mater, Stevens, guiding the club to a 15-4-2 record that season.

Killian was an instrumental part of Navy's success during his tenure, culminating in a 2019 campaign that ranks among the best in program history. The Midshipmen won 11 straight games out of the gate that year – the school's best start to a season since 1964 – and ultimately finished with a 12-4-1 record, tied for the third-most single-season wins in program history. With Killian specifically working with the team's back line, Navy posted the fourth-best goals-against-average (0.57) in the country that year.

Navy followed that up with a 4-2-1 performance during the truncated 2020-21 season. In three seasons with Killian as the top assistant, the Midshipmen posted a 21-17-3 overall record. Killian was also the recruiting coordinator during his time at Navy, most notably signing the 2018 Patriot League Rookie of the Year (Jacob Williams) and putting together three recruiting classes that were nationally ranked by TopDrawerSoccer.

The Ellicott City, Md. native has made a pair of other coaching stops during his career, working as an assistant coach with the Baltimore Armour in the U.S. Soccer Developmental Academy program (USSDA) and assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Stevens for the 2015-16 season.

During his one year at Stevens, the Ducks went 15-4-2 and spent the entire season nationally ranked in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA; now United Soccer Coaches) poll en route to an NCAA Tournament appearance. Killian also recruited the 2016 Conference Freshman of the Year for Stevens before making the move to Annapolis.

A goalkeeper during his playing days, Killian was a three-year starter in net for Stevens, posting a 50-8-3 career record with 25 shutouts. He was named the National Goalkeeper of the Year and a First Team All-American by D3Soccer.com in 2012 after going 18-3-1 with a 0.40 GAA, 12 shutouts, and a .894 save percentage. He won 16 games and had at least six shutouts as both a sophomore in 2011 and a senior in 2013.

Killian graduated from Stevens in 2014 with a degree in business & technology.

Andres Ochoa

Assistant Coach
3rd Year
Pacific '18

Andres Ochoa completed his second season on the UCLA men's soccer coaching staff in 2021.

Ochoa's first full season at UCLA (fall 2021) saw the team post an 11-7-1 overall record and secure an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament. The Bruins' 11 victories were an eight-win improvement over the 2020-21 season, representing the largest year-to-year turnaround in modern program history. The Bruins had several high-water marks over the course of the year – including a win over then-No. 1 Oregon State on Nov. 7 and a dramatic golden goal against UC Santa Barbara in the first round of the NCAA Tourney – and eventually reached the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2015. The Bruins received plenty of individual accolades at the end of the year, with seven receiving All-Pac-12 recognition, four making All-Far West Region, and a pair earning national All-Freshman honors. Three Bruins joined MLS clubs after the 2021 season: Ahmed Longmire (No. 10 overall - Nashville SC) and Ben Reveno (second round - New England) via the MLS SuperDraft and Justin Garces via a Homegrown contract with Atlanta United FC.

Ochoa arrived in Westwood in February 2021, helping the Bruins navigate the 2020-21 campaign which was shortened and moved to spring due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

He spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons as an assistant coach at Pacific. Between the conclusion of the 2019 season and his arrival in Westwood, he completed his master's degree and played professionally in Italy and Mexico.

The Guadalajara, Mexico native was a volunteer assistant coach on Ryan Jorden's staff at Pacific in 2018, and played under Jorden from 2014-17.

During the duo's one season together on the sideline in Stockton, Pacific posted a 12-5-2 overall record and qualified for the NCAA Tournament. Ochoa was promoted to assistant coach before the 2019 campaign, serving as an instrumental figure in the transition to a new coaching staff.

Ochoa also has coaching experience at the club level, serving as a head coach with Central Valley Surf from 2017-19.

A four-year starter as a student-athlete at Pacific, he finished his career with 72 career appearances and 18 points (3 goals, 12 assists). Two of his three collegiate goals were game-winners, including a double-overtime golden goal against Loyola Marymount in 2017. Ochoa helped the Tigers to a pair of NCAA Tournament berths as a player before helping Pacific return to the postseason for the third consecutive time as a coach in 2018.

After earning his B.A. at Pacific, he completed his M.A. in sport management and coaching at the Soccer Management Institute in Rome in 2020.

While in Rome, he also played with ASD Aranova in the Eccellenza league. During his club career, he has also made stops with FC Wichita in the National Premier Soccer League (NPSL), the Portland Timbers U-23s in the Premier Development League (PDL), and Atlético Capitalino FC in the Liga de Balompié Mexicano.

Juan Cervantes

3rd Year

Former Bruin goalkeeper Juan Cervantes joined the UCLA men's soccer coaching staff as a volunteer assistant in September 2020.

Cervantes helped the Bruins to an 11-7-1 overall record and an NCAA Tournament berth in 2021. UCLA's 11 victories were an eight-win improvement over the 2020-21 season, representing the largest year-to-year turnaround in modern program history. Under his tutelage, senior goalkeeper Justin Garces set single-season career highs across the board en route to Pac-12 All-Conference Team honors. Garces ultimately signed as a Homegrown Player with Atlanta United FC just before the 2022 MLS SuperDraft.

Cervantes re-joined the program ahead of the 2020-21 season, helping the team navigate the COVID-19-shortened campaign.

Despite being just four years removed from his UCLA playing days at the time of his hiring, Cervantes brought a lengthy coaching resume with him to Westwood.

He most recently was an assistant coach at Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he served as the goalkeeping coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2019-20 season. The Gardena, Calif. native has made a number of other coaching stops at various levels, including collegiate (Santa Monica College), high school (Loyola and Santa Monica) and club/academy (Beach Futbol Club).

Cervantes totaled 30 games played at UCLA, 27 of them starts. He made four starts as a freshman in 2012 as the Bruins won the Pac-12 Championship and then was the starter for the 2015 squad which reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Following his collegiate career, Cervantes continued to play, maintaining a roster spot with the United State Beach Soccer National Team from 2017-19, culminating in a spot at the 2019 FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup in Paraguay alongside fellow UCLA alumni Ryan Futagaki, Jason Leopoldo, and Oscar Reyes.

Bruins in the Conference

Men's soccer is in its 22nd year as a Pac-12 (formerly Pac-10) Conference sanctioned sport. Six teams comprise the Pac-12 Men's Soccer Conference - UCLA, California, Oregon State, Stanford, Washington and 2005 addition San Diego State.

The Pac-12 branched out of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) after the 1999 season to form its own conference. Since 2000, the conference has had at least two teams advance to the NCAA Tournament in every season but one. In 2002, UCLA and Stanford faced each other in the Championship match, marking the first time two schools from the same conference have battled for the NCAA men's soccer title.

2020-21 Pac-12 Standings

School	Pac-12		Overall
	W-L-T	Pts.	W-L-T	Pct.
Oregon State	7-1-2	23	14-2-4	.800
Washington	6-1-2	20	18-2-2	.864
UCLA	5-4-1	16	11-7-1	.605
Stanford	2-4-4	10	6-6-6	.500
San Diego State	2-7-0	6	8-7-2	.529
California	1-6-1	4	3-9-3	.300

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Pac-12 Conference renewed its undisputed claim as the Conference of Champions® in 2019-20. Beyond the courts and fields, the Pac-12's accomplishments extend into the classrooms across 12 campuses, and outside its traditional geographic footprint into new corners around the world.

The only conference to win 500 NCAA Championships, the Pac-12 captured three of the seven national championships contested in 2019-20 before all sports competition was canceled due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic adding to a legacy that includes 193 NCAA team titles claimed since 1999-2000 and 333 since 1981-82, the start of women's sports sponsorship, an average of over eight per year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 54 of the last 60 years, with the exceptions coming no lower than third.

The Pac-12 has won the most or tied for the most NCAA titles for 15-consecutive seasons, winning at least six every year from 1999-2000 to 2018-19, winning a record 14 in 1996-97. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA championships in a single year.

Spanning over a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 has claimed 529 NCAA Championships (305 men's, 193 women's, 31 combined), over 200 more than the next league.

UCLA Hall Of Fame Inductees

Jose Lopez
Hall of Fame
Class of

In 1993, Jose Lopez became the first-ever soccer player inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame.

Lopez was a four-year letterman from 1970-73 and a two-year team captain who led his teams to the NCAA Championship games in 1970, 1972 and 1973 and to the NCAA Quarterfinals in 1971. His 1970 and 1973 teams held undefeated regular season records, and his teams never lost a home game in his four years as a Bruin.

After earning two all-conference honors and being selected to play in the 1973 Senior Bowl, Lopez became the No. 1 draft choice in professional soccer by the Los Angeles Aztecs of the North American Soccer League in 1974. In his rookie season, he helped the Aztecs win the NASL title, and in his second year he was selected the Aztecs' Midfielder of the Year. Lopez has played with and against soccer legends like Pele, Franz Beckenbauer and George Best.

Lopez also played three years on the Bruin baseball team and was a placekicker on the 1969 freshman football team.

The 1973 graduate (B.A. in Spanish) was a volunteer assistant coach for the Bruins from 1995-2007 and had previously aided the program with videotaping from 1987-1994. He taught AP Spanish Language and Literature at Santa Monica HS for many years.

Paul Caligiuri
Hall of Fame
Class of

One of the all-time greats in UCLA and U.S. soccer history, Paul Caligiuri was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1997.

Caligiuri was a two-time NSCAA All-American (1985 and 1986) and the 1986 Soccer America Player of the Year. He led UCLA to the 1985 NCAA title, the program's first-ever in soccer.

Caligiuri followed his successful collegiate career with a legendary career as a member of the U.S. National Team. In the 1990 CONCACAF World Cup Qualifying Tournament, he scored the historic goal against Trinidad & Tobago that earned the U.S. a World Cup berth for the first time in 40 years, a goal that is known as "The Goal Heard Round The World". Caligiuri played in the 1990 and 1994 World Cups, as well as the 1988 Olympics, and logged 114 caps with the U.S. National Team.

A trailblazer for American soccer players, Caligiuri was the first U.S.-born player ever to play in the top-flight division in Germany, playing with SV Meppen and then St. Pauli in the German Bundesliga. He returned to the U.S. in 1996 and played six seasons with the Columbus Crew and Los Angeles Galaxy before retiring in 2001. In his last professional game, he and the Galaxy won the 2001 U.S. Open Cup title.

Caligiuri was the head men's soccer coach at Cal Poly Pomona from 2002-08. He was elected into the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame in 2004 and the AYSO Hall of Fame in 2002.

Cobi Jones
Hall of Fame

Perhaps the most recognizable figure in U.S. Soccer, Cobi Jones went from walk-on freshman in 1988 to UCLA Hall of Famer in 2002.

Jones eventually won a scholarship with his outstanding play and blossomed into one of UCLA's all-time greats. He was a catalyst to UCLA's 1990 NCAA Championship run and was selected by the NSCAA as a second-team All-American in 1991 after setting a UCLA record with 18 assists. The three-time All-Far West performer was twice named UCLA's Offensive MVP (1989, 1991) and finished his career with 23 goals and 37 assists. His 37 assists rank second on UCLA's career list.

Since leaving UCLA, Jones has enjoyed a successful professional and international soccer career. He became the youngest player to reach 100 caps for the U.S. National Team and was one of only two players to play in every game of the 1994 and 1998 World Cups for the United States. Jones, who has a team record 164 National Team caps, also played in the 2002 World Cup.

After playing professionally in England and Brazil, Jones returned to the U.S. to play for Major League Soccer in the league's inaugural season. After playing in the league with the Los Angeles Galaxy for 12 seasons, Jones retired in 2007 a nine-time MLS All-Star and 2002 and 2005 MLS Champion.

Brad Friedel
Hall of Fame
Class of

Brad Friedel, who is recognized as one of the best goalkeepers in the world, entered the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2003. Friedel played keeper for three seasons (1990-91-92) on UCLA soccer squads that amassed a record of 50-8-7 during his tenure.

As a freshman, Friedel was named the Soccer America Freshman of the Year, first-team All-Far West and UCLA team MVP while leading the Bruins to the NCAA Championship. The following season, he was named All-Far West and All-American. In 1992, Friedel received a myriad of awards, including All-Far West and All-America honors, UCLA team MVP, ISAA Goalkeeper of the Year and the prestigious Hermann Trophy, given to the nation's top collegiate soccer player.

Friedel, who still holds UCLA's school record for career goals against average (0.60), recorded 82 international caps for the U.S. National team before retiring from international play in 2005 and has participated in two Olympiads (1992, 2000). In 2000, he started all six games to help lead the U.S. to a semifinal appearance, its highest ever finish at the Olympic Games. Friedel has also been a member of three U.S. World Cup teams (1994, 1998, 2002) and played a major role in leading the 2002 U.S. World Cup team into the quarterfinals, its best showing in 72 years. Friedel twice earned Man of the Match honors in the first round of play, including a 2-0 shutout of Mexico. Friedel's stellar play led to his selection as the 2002 Chevy Male Athlete of the Year for U.S. Soccer.

Professionally, Friedel has played with Columbus of the MLS and for Liverpool, Blackburn, Aston Villa and Tottenham Hotspur in the English Premier League. In 2002, he became the first American player picked for the English Premier League team of the year when he was voted the top goalkeeper by his peers. He was also selected the MLS Goalkeeper of the Year in 1997.

Friedel is the co-founder and director of Premier Soccer Academies, the first full-scholarship youth soccer academy in the United States.

UCLA Hall Of Fame Inductees

Sigi Schmid
Hall of Fame
Class of

The winningest coach in UCLA Soccer history, Sigi Schmid was elected into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2004. Schmid led UCLA to NCAA titles in 1985, 1990 and 1997 and was the national Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1997.

Schmid was a former four-year starter (1972-75) at midfielder for the Bruin soccer team and was selected All-Far West in 1975. He played in two NCAA title games and in the NCAA semifinals during his playing career.

After graduating in 1976 with a B.S. in Economics, Schmid became a UCLA assistant coach in 1977 and in 1979 before beginning a most successful 19-year career as head coach in 1980. Schmid coached the Bruins to a 322-63-33 record, 16 consecutive post-season appearances and three national titles.

He was also an assistant coach on the 1994 World Cup team and the head coach of the U-20 National Team at the 1998 World Youth Championships. Many of Schmid's former Bruins have gone on to World Cup and Olympic success, including fellow Hall of Famers Paul Caligiuri, Cobi Jones, and Brad Friedel. In 1996 Schmid was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame as one of the first members of the American Youth Soccer Organization (AYSO).

In April 1999, Schmid left UCLA to become the head coach of the Los Angeles Galaxy, where he coached until 2004. Schmid led the Galaxy to the title of every major club championship in the United States, including the 2002 MLS Cup Championship. He was named the 1999 MLS Coach of the Year.

Schmid returned to the helm of the U-20 National Team in 2005 and led the squad on a historic run at the World Youth Championships. With four UCLA players in the starting lineup, the U.S. went undefeated in group play and did not give up a goal until losing in the quarterfinal match. Schmid's team finished 2005 with a 9-2-1 international mark and a 14-3-4 record overall.

Over his time in the MLS, Schmid compiled a 240-183-125 record during the MLS regular season. Additionally, he reached the MLS Cup Playoffs in 13 seasons, while recording 28 MLS Cup Playoff wins, the second-most in MLS history. Schmid is one of two coaches in MLS history to guide two different teams to MLS Cup titles and he is one of three to coach in four total MLS Cup Finals.

Schmid passed away on Dec. 25, 2018 at the age of 65.

Dennis Storer
Hall of Fame
Class of 2006

The late Dennis Storer was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2006, a year before his passing.

Storer came to UCLA from Britain in 1966 and began an extraordinarily successful career as a UCLA faculty member, as well as the head coach of Men's Soccer and Rugby programs.

In soccer, Storer was named UCLA head coach after soccer was elevated to NCAA status in 1967. Storer's soccer teams compiled a remarkable 103-10-10 record while he was at the helm from 1967-73. Although the soccer team did not field any scholarship players under Storer, UCLA had three NCAA runner-up finishes, three West Coast Championships and five All Cal titles.

In rugby, Storer's teams compiled an outstanding 362-46-2 record against collegiate, major club and international teams during the period of 1966-1982 and included three National Championships ('68, '72, '75). UCLA Rugby also won every All-Cal title and 16 Southern California division championships. While at UCLA, Storer also served as U.S. National Coach in rugby from 1976-82, and 14 of the first U.S. National team players were Bruins.

Storer was widely recognized internationally as a coach and a great sportsman, as well as for his commitment to helping underprivileged youth. From 1968-82, Storer also served as Director of UCLA's National Youth Sports Programs, and during 1982-84 he served as British Olympic Association Executive Director and Attache in USA for the L.A. Olympics. Dennis was honored by Queen Elizabeth II with an OBE in 1994 for services in British/American Education, Sport and Commerce. He became a Fellow of the Royal Society in 1999. Storer, a former captain in the Royal Engineers of the British Army, was also well-known as a television commentator for both soccer and rugby, covering international rugby from England and World Cup soccer from Mexico.

Storer passed away at his home in Los Angeles on Sept. 8, 2007 after a battle with cancer. He was 75 years old.

Carlos Bocanegra
Hall of Fame
Class of
2013

An impact player from day one, Carlos Bocanegra helped lead UCLA to the 1997 NCAA Championship and 1999 College Cup.

He earned All-MPSF first-team honors three straight years, was selected one of 11 Soccer America Collegiate MVPs in 1998, and was an All-American and Player of the Year candidate in 1999.

As a freshman in 1997, he was named to Soccer America's All-Freshman team and was rated by Soccer News as the No. 10 defender in the nation on its Elite Eleven team. Bocanegra was the only freshman to be named to the All-MPSF Pacific Division first team and was named to the Final Four All-Tournament team as UCLA won its third NCAA Championship. Additionally, he led a UCLA defense that shut out 14 opponents, including four of five in the NCAA tournament.

After earning first-team NSCAA All-Far West honors in 1998, Bocanegra was selected as a nominee for the Hermann Trophy and the Missouri Athletic Club Player of the Year Award in 1999. He was named a second-team NSCAA All-American, first-team All-American by College Soccer Online and first-team NSCAA All-Far West selection as he led UCLA to the College Cup that same season.

Bocanegra turned pro after his junior year and was selected the No. 4 overall pick in the MLS SuperDraft. He was the MLS Rookie of the Year in 2000 and a two-time MLS Defender of the Year.

He moved on to a successful career overseas, playing for Fulham in the English Premier League from 2003-08, Rennes and Saint-Etienne in the French Ligue 1, Rangers FC in the Scottish Premier League and Racing de Santander in Spain. He currently plays for Chivas USA of the MLS.

A fixture on the U.S. National Team and the U.S. team captain since 2007, Bocanegra was a key member of two World Cup teams, starting two games in the 2006 and playing every minute for the U.S. in the 2010 World Cup.

He earned his 100th international cap in 2011.

Bocanegra is currently the technical director and vice president of Atlanta United, helping the club win the 2018 MLS Championship in just their second year of existence. He was elected to the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2020.

Chris Henderson
Hall of Fame
Class of

U.S. National Team standout Chris Henderson is the eighth men's soccer player to earn induction into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame.

Henderson was selected to Soccer America's All-Freshman team in 1989, and as a sophomore in 1990, he earned first-team NSCAA All-America honors while leading the Bruins to their second NCAA title.

He was one of just three collegiate players to earn a spot on the 1990 U.S. World Cup team and was the youngest player in the tournament. Henderson, who totaled 79 caps for the U.S. National Team, was also a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic team and an alternate for the 1994 and 1998 World Cup squads.

After playing professionally in Europe, Henderson played in Major League Soccer from 1996-2001 and retired as the league's all-time leader in games played with 317. He still shares the MLS single-game assist record with four, and his 80 regular-season assists rank No. 10 all-time. The two-time MLS All-Star won the 2000 MLS Cup with the Kansas City Wizards and was named the MLS W.O.R.K.S. Humanitarian of the Year in 2004.

He has been the Sporting Director for the Seattle Sounders FC since 2008 and helped guide the club to four Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles, including three consecutive from 2009-11.

NCAA Champions

The 1985 Bruin squad won its first NCAA title with a record-setting eight overtime 1-0 victory over American University in the NCAA Championship game at the Kingdome in Seattle, WA on Dec. 14.

UCLA lost just one game in 1985 - a 2-1 loss against Fresno State in September. The Bruins, however, never looked back, winning or tying the remaining 13 games of the regular season. In the NCAA playoffs, UCLA, as the Far West's top seed, defeated California, 3-1, in the first round, UNLV, 1-0 in overtime, in the second round, and SMU, 2-0, in the quarterfinals.

In the Final Four, the Bruin defense, led by Paul Krumpe, Eric Biefeld, Paul Caligiuri and goalkeeper David Vanole, was masterful, allowing just one goal in 256 minutes. UCLA's offense, led by Dale Ervine with four post-season goals and Mike Getchell with four assists, was opportune. After first defeating Evansville, 3-1, in the semifinals, UCLA advanced to the finals for the first time since head coach Sigi Schmid's playing days.

The championship game turned out to be one for the ages, as the Bruins and American University battled it out for a record 166 minutes, five seconds. Both defenses were impenetrable despite the two teams combining for 47 shots. American dominated in the first half, outshooting UCLA 10-2. All-American forward Michael Brady came closest to scoring in the first stanza, but his shot from 25 yards out went just wide right. Vanole also made critical saves during that shot barrage and had six total saves in the game.

The Bruins controlled possession in the second half and gained a big advantage in the second half when Eagle defender Serge Torrelles was ejected for violent conduct, but UCLA was unable to capitalize.

Fatigue, coupled with a slippery Astrourf field, played a major factor in the game. Short sudden death overtime periods of five minutes each prevented any opportunity of establishing rhythm. Finally, nearly four hours after the initial whistle blew, opportunity struck.

And for this Hollywood team, it was only fitting that the hero was seldom-used defender Andy Burke. Injured for most of the season and nearly redshirted, Burke was making his first NCAA Tournament appearance of the year, entering during overtime. In the 167th minute, he worked himself free to receive a pass from Krumpe, caught the American goalkeeper cheating to the near post and scored on a far-post shot from 13 yards out. The goal was his first ever as a Bruin.

Recalled Schmid, "Andy hadn't played much that year. Before the game, his dad had read an article in the Wall Street Journal that talked about how the last guy, the most unexpected person, is the one who makes the biggest contribution sometimes. He had relayed that message to Andy the day before, and the next day Andy went out and made the biggest contribution."

"Anytime you win a championship, it obviously takes a special place," he continued. "This one ranks right up there with all of the other championships. The first one is always a little special, though, because it's the first one. As a player, I played in three Final Fours but never won it, so it was especially satisfying to win it the first time as a coach."

Much like the 1985 national championship team, the 1990 squad won UCLA's second NCAA championship with defense, posting 300 minutes of shutout soccer in a span of two days at the Final Four.

The season began rather ignominiously for the Bruins, who gave up a goal just 30 seconds after kicking off opening day. The defense improved as the season went along, ultimately proving to be the team's best asset in the NCAA playoffs.

The Bruins blazed into the post-season having outscored opponents, 14-3, in the final three regular season games. After a first round bye, they defeated San Diego, 2-1, on a Joe-Max Moore goal in overtime. In the quarterfinals, UCLA, behind redshirt freshman goalkeeper Brad Friedel, shut out SMU, 2-0, to advance to the Final Four.

Once in Tampa, FL for the Final Four, however, UCLA's, as well as its opponents', offense vanished. Despite being outshot, 33-14, by its semifinal opponent North Carolina State, UCLA held ground and kept the game scoreless after regulation play and two 15-minute overtime periods. This was done even while playing the final 28 minutes down a man after senior defender Ray Fernandez was ejected. In the penalty shootout, UCLA scored on penalty kicks by Tim Gallegos, Moore, Sam George, Chris Henderson and last-minute substitute Mark Sharp. The Wolfpack converted three kicks, with Friedel deflecting a shot by Scott Schweitzer for the game-saver.

The Bruins advanced to the championship game the next day against a more rested Rutgers squad, one that had earlier in the season handed UCLA its only loss of the year. 2-1. As in the semifinals and in UCLA's last championship match appearance, a defensive battle ensued. Each squad recorded 22 shots in the game, and each had chances to score late in the contest. The Bruins' Billy Thompson hit the near post in the 84th minute, and he was unable to connect on the rebound, shooting high. Near the end of the first overtime, Rutgers nearly went ahead, but Alexi Lalas' header hit the crossbar.

In the penalty shootout, Rutgers' Lino DiCuollo connected in the first round, and Rutgers appeared to be in control after Bill Andracki stopped George's shot. UCLA pulled even when Steve Rammel was saved by Friedel and Moore converted. Dave Mueller also missed, and Tim Gallegos connected to give UCLA the advantage. Maurice Mazzocchi scored for Rutgers in round four, but Henderson put UCLA back ahead, 3-2. A Chris Beach make tied the score at 3-3, setting the stage for a Bruin freshman for the last kick of the round.

Freshman Jorge Salcedo, who had missed three times in high school in penalty kick shootouts, stepped up to the mark with a chance to win the championship for the Bruins. Salcedo studied Rutgers' keeper Andracki prior to his turn and noticed a trend.

"I usually go to the left," Salcedo said after the game. "But on the first four shots, I saw the goalkeeper was guessing. I waited and hit it to the opposite side."

Salcedo coolly made his shot, giving UCLA its second NCAA title.

NCAA Champions

"You Gotta Be a Soldier" — UCLA's adopted theme for 1997 was most appropriate considering the rash of injuries to key starters the Bruins had to endure at the Championships. Despite playing without co-captain and Player of the Year candidate Sasha Victorine for most of the season, senior All-MPSF defender Kevin Coye for the bulk of the playoffs and team MVP Pete Vagenas for the Final Four, head coach Sigi Schmid's troops prevailed and reeled in the third NCAA Men's Soccer Championship in school history.

UCLA cruised through the post-season, allowing just one goal in the MPSF Conference Championship match and five NCAA games. The Bruins posted a 3-0 NCAA first-round win over Santa Clara and shut out Washington in the second round, 1-0. In the quarterfinals, Clemson jumped ahead, 1-0, before UCLA rallied to win, 2-1.

The Bruins faced top-ranked and undefeated Indiana in the semifinals in a rematch of the 1994 NCAA Semis which saw the Hoosiers pick apart redshirt freshman goalkeeper Matt Reis to win 4-1. But Reis gained redemption for that night in 1994 and was more than outstanding, stopping everything shot his way. Indiana could not find a way to figure out Reis, who made a school record-tying 11 saves on 25 shots on goal.

Over 131 scoreless minutes after kickoff, a UCLA corner kick found its way to Josh Keller, who then passed it to Ryan Lee. The freshman took a shot that was deflected by an Indiana defender. However, the deflection went right to Indiana native McKinley Tennyson, Jr., who tapped it into an empty net for the 1-0 win in sudden death overtime.

A matchup with a powerful Virginia team playing in its home state loomed next for UCLA in the Championship game. With playmaker Vagenas unable to play, Schmid was forced to adopt a more defensive, counterattacking style that frustrated Virginia the entire game. Although the Cavaliers had their chances in the game - they had 15 shots on goal, nine of which were stopped mostly in spectacular fashion by Reis - they could not capitalize. One of those saves came early in the second half, when Reis slid out of the box about 22 yards out and beat a streaking Jason Moore to the ball.

Virginia stepped up its pressure near the end of regulation, but the Bruins picked their opportunities to counter and took advantage of a miscue in the 80th minute. After Keller's sliding pass to Bruno beat Cavalier defender Scott Vermillion, the Bruins had just one defender to beat by the penalty area for the game's first goal. Bruno hooked a no-look pass to an open Seth George, who beat goalkeeper Brock Yetso for the go-ahead goal.

Two minutes later, Virginia played with fire again while trying to equalize. With most of the Cavaliers up front, the Bruins again took advantage. After Tennyson fired a shot that Yetso stopped, no Cavalier defenders were there to clear, and George, the tournament's Offensive MVP, easily hit the deflection into the empty net to put the game away.

A new era in UCLA soccer could not have gotten off to a better start than it did in 2002. Under first-year head coach Tom Fitzgerald, the Bruins captured its first Pac-10 championship and its fourth NCAA title, making Fitzgerald only the second coach in NCAA soccer history to win a Division I title in his first year with the program.

The Bruins made it to the College Cup thanks to a blistering offense that scored 14 goals in three games but then won the championship thanks to a stingy defense that shut out Stanford in the title game.

A 13-3-3 regular season record and the team's first-ever Pac-10 Championship led to a No. 3 seeding in the NCAA Tournament and home field advantage until the College Cup. The Bruins' path to the College Cup ran through two teams that had beaten them earlier in the season. UCLA first disposed of Loyola Marymount, 4-2, in the NCAA second round, avenging a 2-0 loss in September. California, who had earlier defeated UCLA, 1-0 in a controversial overtime decision, was the Bruins' next victim, by a 3-2 mark in the third round. A 7-1 drubbing of Penn State in the quarterfinals landed the Bruins in the College Cup for the second time in four years. Matt Taylor recorded a hat trick in the contest, and Tim Pierce added two goals of his own, while Cliff McKinley tied an NCAA Tournament record with three assists.

UCLA's prolific offense would next face top-seeded Maryland in the semifinals, and like in the other two matchups against top-ranked teams during the season, the Bruins were up for the challenge. UCLA got on the boards first with a Taylor goal off an Adolfo Gregorio assist in the 75th minute, but Maryland came back to equalize in the 81st minute. Just one minute later, McKinley was taken down in the penalty box by Maryland keeper Noah Palmer, and Gregorio scored the ensuing penalty kick and game-winning goal.

In the championship game, UCLA had another matchup with conference rival Stanford, the two teams' third meeting of the year. This game would be no different, as the Bruins won by the same 1-0 score they had won by in the previous two matchups.

Both teams had good scoring opportunities in the game. Stanford had a header cleared off the line by Jimmy Frazelle in the early minutes, and Ryan Futagaki had a hard shot ricochet off the left post in the 31st minute.

But all things changed in the 89th minute. Ty Maurin was fouled near the left corner with the Bruins on the attack and earned a free kick for UCLA. Futagaki's perfectly-placed free kick found Aaron Lopez, who one-timed the ball past Stanford goalie Robby Fulton into the top right corner with 1:02 remaining on the clock for the championship-winning goal.

Lopez was named the MVP of the College Cup, and teammates Zach Wells, who earned the shutout in the title match; Gregorio, Taylor and Scot Thompson received All-Tournament acclaim.

NCAA Tournament Results

Since 1968, UCLA has participated in the NCAA Tournament 44 times (including 33 consecutive years from 1983-2016), winning national championships in 1985, 1990, 1997 and 2002.

In 1985, the Bruins defeated American University in eight over-times for their first NCAA championship. In 1990, the Bruins defeated Rutgers in a penalty kick shootout for their second title. In 1997, Bruin forward Seth George scored two goals in the last 10 minutes of the game to defeat Virginia 2-0 in the championship game. An Aaron Lopez goal with 1:02 to play in regulation gave the Bruins the 2002 title, 1-0 over Stanford.

UCLA has also finished second five times (1970, '72 '73, '06 and '14), third four times (1984, '94, '99, '11) and fourth once (1974). UCLA has advanced to collegiate soccer's Final Four 14 times and has a record of 13-11. The Bruins' all-time NCAA record is 73-41.

UCLA's National Team Connection

Jonathan Bornstein

With such national soccer stars as Cobi Jones, Brad Friedel, Paul Caligiuri, Frankie Hejduk and Carlos Bocanegra having once donned a UCLA uniform, it has become obvious that UCLA Soccer breeds national and international caliber players. Past and current UCLA players have made over 2,400 appearances for various U.S. National Teams.

UCLA's influence on U.S. World Cup teams is most notable. In all, 15 Bruins have participated in the last seven World Cups. Three of those players — Friedel, Jones and Joe-Max Moore — have participated in three World Cups apiece, and Jones set a U.S. record for career World Cup appearances with 11, a record that has since been broken by Landon Donovan.

UCLA had a nation's-best three players named to the 2010 U.S. World Cup Team - two-time World Cupper and team captain Bocanegra and first-timers Jonathan Bornstein and Benny Feilhaber. The U.S. squad made history by becoming the first U.S. team to ever win their group in a World Cup.

In 2006, the Bruins once again led all colleges with four selections - three-time team member Frankie Hejduk, two-time team member Eddie Lewis and World Cup rookies Carlos Bocanegra and Jimmy Conrad. An injury took Hejduk out of the World Cup a day after being selected to the team, but the other three Bruins played and even started alongside each other in the United States' final game.

A collegiate-best five former UCLA players were on the historic 2002 World Cup team - Friedel, Hejduk, Jones, Lewis and Moore. All five played major roles in the United States' best World Cup showing in 72 years, as the U.S. advanced all the way to the quarterfinals and won an elimination game for the first time in World Cup history. Friedel emerged as one of the top goalkeepers in the world, shutting out Mexico in the second round and twice earning Man of the Match honors in the first round of play. In his first World Cup start, Lewis contributed an assist in the win over Mexico. Friedel, Jones, Moore and Hejduk also started for the U.S. team at the 1998 World Cup.

Five former Bruins captured the country's attention as part of the 1994 U.S. World Cup team which advanced to the second round for the first time in World Cup history. Caligiuri started in all four games for the U.S., and Jones appeared in four with one start. Other former Bruins on the team were Friedel, Moore, Mike Lapper and assistant coach Sigi Schmid. In the first round of the 1994 World Cup, the U.S. team tied Switzerland 1-1 then upset Colombia 2-1 at the Rose Bowl in what was then the biggest win in U.S. soccer history.

In 1989, Caligiuri, who made over 100 international appearances for Team USA, became one of the United States' most famous players after scoring the historic goal in the CONCACAF qualifying round. His 35-yard dipping volley gave the U.S. a 1-0 victory over Trinidad & Tobago and placed the U.S. in the 1990 World Cup for the first time since 1950. At the 1990 World Cup, he started all three of the U.S. team's games and scored the country's first World Cup goal in 40 years. Three other Bruins played in the 1990 World Cup — Chris Henderson, Paul Krumpke and David Vanole.

UCLA soccer players have made their mark in the Olympic Games as well. Three Bruins - Feilhaber, Patrick Ianni and Marvell Wynne - were on the 2008 U.S. team, while a fourth - Hejduk - was an alternate. Four Bruins - Friedel, Hejduk, Pete Vagenas and Sasha Victorine were key contributors on the U.S. team that finished a best-ever fourth at the 2000 Games in Sydney. In 1996, former Bruins Hejduk and Chris Snitko competed for the United States in Atlanta, and the 1992 Olympic team included six former Bruins — Friedel, Henderson, Jones, Lapper, Moore and Zak Ibsen — on its roster, the most from any collegiate institution. Other UCLA Olympians include Caligiuri, Krumpke and Vanole (1988) and Jeff Hooker (1984).

Several Bruins were instrumental to the United States' gold medal win at the 1991 Pan American Games. Friedel tended goal for the U.S., while Moore nailed the game-winning goal in overtime in the gold-medal match against Mexico. Jones scored one goal and an assist against Canada. A Bruin-dominated U.S. team won a bronze medal at the 1999 Pan Am Games. Team captain Vagenas was the team's leading scorer with two goals, including the game-winner against Cuba. Bocanegra and Victorine also contributed a goal apiece in the tournament. Also on the team were Steve Shak, Ryan Futagaki and Nelson Akwari.

A number of U.S. National Team players began their National Team participation after coming to Westwood, including World Cup players Conrad, Lewis, Hejduk, Jones, Moore, Lapper, Krumpke and Vanole.

In 2005, the U.S. Under-20 National Team, coached by Schmid and featuring Bruins Chad Barrett, Feilhaber, Ianni and Wynne in the starting lineup, made history at the World Youth Championships by becoming the first U.S. team and only the 12th team ever to record three consecutive shutouts at the WYC. The Under-20s advanced even further in 2007, making it all the way to the quarterfinals after posting wins over Poland, Brazil and Uruguay. Bruins Sal Zizzo and Tony Beltran started in all five games for the U.S., and goalkeeper Brian Perk earned an overtime victory in the round of 16 against Uruguay.

Also in 2007, three other Bruin players participated in the Pan American Games - U.S. captain Greg Folk and three-game starters Michael Stephens and Chance Myers.

UCLA in Professional Soccer

Once again proving it is one of the top producers of soccer talent, UCLA has EIGHT former athletes on Major League Soccer (MLS) rosters in 2022, including No. 1 overall draft picks Abu Danladi and Frankie Amaya.

Overall, 80 Bruins have played in MLS in the league's 20-plus years of existence, more than any other school in the nation by far. Every starting UCLA goalkeeper from 1990-2003 played in the league. Some of the most successful MLS players came from UCLA, including 2009 MLS Cup MVP Nick Rimando, 2006 MLS Rookie of the Year Jonathan Bornstein, 2005 Defender of the Year Jimmy Conrad, two-time Defender of the Year and 2000 Rookie of the Year Carlos Bocanegra, 1999 MLS Goalkeeper of the Year Kevin Hartman, and 1997 Goalkeeper of the Year Brad Friedel.

UCLA alumni have won MLS titles in 13 of the last 20 years, with a total of 30 former Bruins winning the MLS Cup all-time – Sal Zizzo with Atlanta United in 2018; Chandler Hoffman, Brian Perk and Brian Rowe with the LA Galaxy in 2014; Chance Myers and Benny Feilhaber with Sporting Kansas City in 2013; Kyle Nakazawa, Brian Perk, Brian Rowe, Michael Stephens with the LA Galaxy in 2012; Sean Alvarado, Chad Barrett, Frankie Hejduk, Perk and Stephens with the LA Galaxy in 2011; Marvell Wynne in 2010 with the Colorado Rapids; Rimando and Tony Beltran in 2009; Hejduk and head coach Sigi Schmid with the Columbus Crew in 2008; Patrick Ianni and Zach Wells with the Houston Dynamo in 2006 and 2007; Mike Enfield, Hartman, Cobi Jones and Pete Vagenas with the Los Angeles Galaxy in 2005; Rimando in 2004 with DC United; Adam Frye, Hartman, Jones, Matt Reis, Vagenas and Sasha Victorine in 2002 with the Schmid-coached Galaxy; Conrad and Zak Ibsen in 2001 with the San Jose Earthquakes; Tahj Jakins in 2000 with the Kansas City Wizards; and Josh Keller and Ante Razov with the Chicago Fire in 1988.

Bruins have also been very prominent in MLS drafts. Four times since 2006, a Bruin has been the No. 1 draft pick – Frankie Amaya in 2019 (Cincinnati), Abu Danladi in 2017 (Minnesota) Chance Myers in 2008 (Kansas City) and Marvell Wynne in 2006 (New York). Other No. 1 picks were Tahj Jakins (1997, Colorado) and Steve Shak (2000, New York/New Jersey). Two Bruins were Top 3 picks in 2008 - No. 1 Myers and No. 3 Tony Beltran (Real Salt Lake). A school record-tying five players were chosen in the 2010 draft, including a record-tying three in the first round. UCLA also had five draft picks in 1996, 2000 and 2004.

Other former MLS Bruins have been successful overseas as well. Four Bruins played in the English Premier League in 2007-08 - Friedel (Blackburn), Bocanegra (Fulham), Lewis (Derby County) and Benny Feilhaber (Derby County). Friedel became the first American player picked for the 2002 English Premier League team of the year when he was voted the top goalkeeper by his peers. Several others played in Europe before returning to the U.S. to play in MLS. Paul Caligiuri, the first American-born player ever to play in the top-flight division in Germany, first played abroad with SV Meppen and also played with St. Pauli in the German Bundesliga. Hejduk also played in the German Bundesliga with Bayer Leverkusen, and Jones (Coventry City), Joe-Max Moore (Everton) and Adolfo Gregorio (Darlington) enjoyed stints in England.

Westwood has also been a German pipeline, with three Bruins recently playing in the German Bundesliga - Feilhaber with Hamburg SV, Kamani Hill with VfL Wolfsburg and Sal Zizzo with Hannover 96.

Administrator Biographies

Martin Jarmond

Director of Athletics
3rd year
UNC-Wilmington, '01

Martin Jarmond, a nationally recognized leader in college athletics, has built an impressive track record of competitive excellence, innovative strategy and student athlete success.

A two-time recipient of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Award with 20 years in sports administration spanning three conferences, Jarmond is guiding UCLA to new heights through his culture of an E.L.I.T.E. mind-set — Energy, Leadership, Integrity, Toughness and Excellence. Jarmond's results-driven strategies combined with a relentless work ethic to elevate UCLA Athletics creates an exceptional experience for student-athletes and fans alike.

Jarmond was hired on May 19, 2020, as UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics, becoming the ninth athletic director in school history. Jarmond made an immediate impact on the Bruins, jumpstarting the Voting Matters Initiative, the first of its kind in the country which assisted student-athletes in discovering the tools needed to exact meaningful change through civic duty. Jarmond engineered a partnership between UCLA and Nike/Jordan Brand, becoming only the fifth Jordan brand school in the nation and the first partnership with Nike in UCLA history. The six-year agreement between UCLA and Nike provides for 22 of the 25 UCLA varsity sports with Nike apparel, while football, men's basketball and women's basketball don Jordan Brand. Jarmond exhibits a strong commitment to mental health awareness and his emphasis on diversity and inclusion was recognized in a 2021 SBJ award for being a national leader in diversity and inclusive hiring. He was the Pac-12 Conference representative to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for 2021-22.

Through Jarmond's instrumental leadership, UCLA Athletics is at the forefront of a rapidly changing collegiate athletics landscape. In the burgeoning area of Name, Image and Likeness (NIL), Jarmond launched new support for student-athletes, including "Westwood Ascent" a comprehensive NIL program designed to support UCLA's student-athletes to build their personal brand and maximize their NIL opportunities. In addition, the launch of Westwood Exchange, a free business registry designed for companies, donors, fans and alumni that want to connect directly with UCLA's student-athletes interested in capitalizing on their NIL, ranked in the top 3 in the country.

In June of 2022, Jarmond worked closely with campus leadership while playing a critical role in UCLA Athletics applying and being accepted for future membership in the Big Ten Conference. One of the most important announcements in the history of UCLA Athletics, the Bruins will join the Big Ten Conference in 2024.

Comprehensive work by Jarmond and his staff throughout the pandemic, ensured all Bruin teams could compete safely during their 2020-21 seasons. UCLA teams captured four conference titles and the men's water polo team brought national title No. 119 home to Westwood. The men's basketball team embarked on a remarkable journey which led to an appearance in the 2021 NCAA Final Four and the program's first national semifinal appearance since 2008. UCLA finished 13th nationally in the 2020-21 Learfield IMG College Director's Cup. These athletic achievements were balanced by record numbers of student-athletes earning spots on the conference all-academic squads, with 49 individuals earning a perfect 4.0 GPA for the Winter Quarter, and 131 student-athletes earning their UCLA degrees. For the first time ever, the Bruins produced multiple winners of the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Four student-athletes were recognized by CoSIDA as Academic All-Americans.

Jarmond came to UCLA from Boston College, where he served as the school's Director of Athletics for three years. During his time there, he orchestrated the Eagles' first-ever strategic plan, a comprehensive five-year goal to advance the program by fostering student-athlete formation, strengthening competitive excellence, increasing external engagement and enhancing facilities. The strategic plan was supported by BC's first-ever athletics-only capital campaign, at the time, the largest campaign of any Atlantic Coast Conference institution at $150 million. Jarmond hired high-impact coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, volleyball, swimming & diving, men's soccer, women's soccer and fencing. Jarmond served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee and on the John McLendon Minority Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors.

Prior to joining Boston College in 2017 and becoming the youngest athletic director of any Power Five institution at age 37, Jarmond previously served as deputy director of athletics at Ohio State, moving up the ranks after arriving as an associate athletic director for development in 2009. During his time at Ohio State, he was the lead administrator for a variety of sports, including football and men's basketball, and directed external and internal relations and day-to-day operations. He also had responsibility for football scheduling, served on the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee, and was a member of the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee. As Ohio State Athletics' chief advancement officer, Jarmond helped raise more than $120 million between 2010-2012.

Jarmond was also an assistant athletic director for development for seven years at Michigan State, where he served on the athletic director's executive leadership team. He was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team and a liaison between Michigan State's university development and alumni association leadership. Jarmond led the efforts to implement Scholarship Seating in football and Courtside seating in men's basketball.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jarmond, 42, earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. A two-year captain of the men's basketball team, he led his team to the program's first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2000 and earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic honors in 2001. He holds both a M.B.A. and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University. Jarmond is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist. They have three daughters: Scarlett, Savannah and Serena.

Gavin Crew

Associate Athletic Director
7th Year

Gavin Crew was named Associate Athletic Director for Sports and Administration in April 2016. He has spent over a decade with the Bruins, from 2001-2005 and 2008-present.

Crew oversees seven sports in his role - men's soccer, men's volleyball, women's swimming & diving, men's cross country, women's cross country, men's track & field (indoor and outdoor) and women's track & field (indoor and outdoor). Additionally, he supervises the Camps & Clinics office.

In his first stint in the UCLA Athletics Department, he oversaw the expansion of the Camps & Clinics office to a year-round business operation, managing the growing demand for athletic camp operations in Westwood. From 2005-2008, Crew worked with Excel Sports Officiating to help train and work with officials, umpires and referees in all sports and at all levels. Upon his return to UCLA in 2008, Crew once again oversaw the camp office and added championship coordinator to his plate. In addition to continuing the growth of the camp operation into a $3 million revenue generator for the Athletic Department, he has also executed several major NCAA, Pac-12 and MPSF Championships on campus, including the 2013 NCAA National Collegiate Gymnastics Championship, 2013 NCAA National Collegiate Men's Volleyball Championship, 2015 Pac-12 Track & Field Championship, 2014 and 2016 NCAA Women's Basketball 1st/2nd Rounds, 2015 NCAA National Collegiate Men's Water Polo Championships, and the 2016 NCAA National Collegiate Women's Water Polo Championships.

Crew graduated with a degree in Political Science from UCLA in 1999.

Originally from Irvine, Calif., Crew lives in the Silver Lake neighborhood with his wife, Cassidy.

Chancellor
16th Year
Stanford '77

A champion of high-quality, accessible public higher education, Gene Block has served as chancellor of UCLA —overseeing the university's three-part mission of education, research and service—since 2007.

Under Chancellor Block's leadership, UCLA has greatly enhanced its position as a national leader in enrolling undergraduates who come from low-income backgrounds, have been traditionally underrepresented in higher education or are among the first in their families to go to college. During his tenure, UCLA has also become the most applied-to university in the nation, has advanced in rankings in nearly every discipline, has significantly deepened its international partnerships and engagement with alumni, and now receives more than $1.6 billion annually in research grants.

An expert in neuroscience, Chancellor Block holds faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA and the UCLA College. His research focuses on the neurobiology of circadian rhythms.

Before becoming UCLA chancellor, Block spent 29 years at the University of Virginia, where he was most recently vice president and provost. He has served on the executive boards of several leading organizations, including the Association of American Universities and National Collegiate Athletic Association. He is currently chair of the Association of Pacific Rim Universities and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.
