Team Notes

- UCLA's all-time record against Washington moved to 42-34-2.
- The Bruins tallied 5.0 tackles for loss (TFL). It was the squad's second straight game, and fourth overall this season, with at least 4.0 TFLs. Jalen Woods paced UCLA individually with 2.0 TFLs.

Individual Notes

- DB Cole Martin recorded an interception late in the second quarter. It was Martin's first interception as a Bruin, and second of his career. It was UCLA's fourth interception of the year as a team.
- WR Mikey Matthews had a 37-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter. It marked his second touchdown grab of the year, and third of his career. In addition, the 37-yard completion was tied for his longest of the year, and was the third-longest of his career. The play was UCLA's second-longest scoring pass this season.
- DB Jamir Benjamin had a 13-yard scoop-and-score off a punt in the fourth quarter. The fumble was forced by DB Kanye Clark. It was UCLA's first touchdown return on a fumble since Alex Johnson did so against USC in 2023.
- DE Jacob Busic made his 40th career start, second-most on the UCLA roster.
- DB Key Lawrence made his 25th career start. He's started all 11 of UCLA's games at safety this year.
- LB Isaiah Chisom made his 20th career start.
- OL Eugene Brooks made his 10th career start.
- RB Karson Cox made his collegiate debut.
