THIS WEEK - The top-ranked UCLA gymnastics team (13-5) will travel to Stanford, CA for the Pac-10 Conference Championship. The meet will take place at Maples Pavilion on Saturday, Mar. 23 at 6:00 pm. The Bruins have won two of the last three Pac-10 titles and nine championships overall. Tickets to the Championships are $10 for adults and $6 for youth.

ROTATION ORDER - UCLA will begin the meet on a bye before vault and end on floor exercise, the preferred "Olympic order". Rotation order for the championship meet was determined by blind draw a year prior to the meet.

TV - Fox Sports Net will televise the meet on a tape-delayed basis. It will be aired Friday, Mar. 29 on Fox Sports West2 at 12:00 pm and on Saturday, Mar. 30 on Fox Sports West at 3:00 pm. Check your local listings for other broadcast dates and times.

PAC-10 HISTORY - With nine Pac-10 titles (1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1999, 2000), UCLA has won the most conference championships. Oregon State (1991, 1992, 1994, 1996) and Stanford (1998, 2001) are the only other teams to win the title. Bruins dominate in the individual championships as well, with a conference-best 43 individual champions. The Bruins have been especially dominant in the all-around. The last five Pac-10 all-around champions have been Bruins - Mohini Bhardwaj in 2000 and 2001, Heidi Moneymaker in 1999, Stella Umeh in 1998 and Leah Homma in 1997. UCLA has won eight of the last nine all-around titles and 11 overall. The Bruins also have a four-year win streak on the vault, with Bhardwaj winning in 2000 and 2001, Moneymaker in 1999 and Lena Degteva in 1998. UCLA gymnasts have won 10 titles on bars, nine on floor, seven on vault and six on beam.

DANTZSCHER RETURNS AS DEFENDING FX CHAMP - Sophomore Jamie Dantzscher will defend her Pac-10 floor exercise title. She won the crown last year with a perfect 10, only the third 10 on floor in Pac-10 Championship history. Dantzscher enters the meet as the top-ranked floor performer in the nation with an RQS of 10.0. She has scored a 10 on floor seven consecutive times. Other returning champions are Stanford's Caroline Fluhrer (vault), Lindsay Wing (beam) and Lise Leveille (beam).

THE CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS - One look at the national rankings is all that is needed to see that the Pac-10 Conference is one of the toughest in the nation. Five of the seven teams in the conference are ranked in the Top 20 nationally, with UCLA No. 1, Stanford No. 10, Arizona No. 12, Oregon State No. 14 and Arizona State No. 16. Only one other conference, the SEC, has as many teams ranked in the Top 20. In the individual rankings, there are three Pac-10 gymnasts ranked in the all-around (Arizona's Randi Liljenquist at No. 7, UCLA's Yvonne Tousek and Onnie Willis at No. 10 and 11, respectively).

CONFERENCE AWARDS TO BE HANDED OUT - Conference awards for Gymnast of the Year, Freshman of the Year and Coach of the Year will be handed out at the conclusion of the meet. Last season, UCLA's Mohini Bhardwaj earned Gymnast of the Year honors, giving the Bruins five consecutive Gymnast of the Year awards (Bhardwaj in 2001, Heidi Moneymaker in 2000, Kiralee Hayashi in 1999, Stella Umeh in 1998 and Leah Homma in 1997). In all, Bruins have won this award 10 times in 15 years.

UCLA ATOP NATIONAL RANKINGS - Thanks to an impressive away score of 197.0 at Alabama Mar. 16, the Bruins moved up to No. 1 in the national rankings with a regional qualifying score of 197.08. The Bruins are also ranked first nationally on bars (49.420), second on beam (49.290), third on vault (49.325) and ninth on floor (49.310). The RQS is compiled by taking the top six scores, three of which must be away scores, dropping the high and averaging the remaining five marks.

Individually, five Bruins are ranked this week - Jamie Dantzscher, who is first on bars and floor and second on vault; Yvonne Tousek, who is fifth on bars, 10th in the all-around, 16th on floor and 20th on beam; Onnie Willis, who ranks eighth on vault and 11th in the all-around; Doni Thompson, who holds the ninth spot on bars; and Alyssa Beckerman, who is ranked 12th on beam.

BRUINS HAVE NATION'S TOP MARKS - UCLA gymnasts have recorded the nation's highest individual and team scores this year. Individually, Jamie Dantzscher has the nation's top all-around total this year with a 39.9 and is tops on vault, bars and floor with perfect 10s. Onnie Willis also shares the nation's top marks on vault and floor with a perfect 10. As a team, UCLA has posted the nation's highest overall total (198.35), as well as the highest totals on vault (49.7) and floor (49.725).

BRUINS EARN ROAD SCORE OF 197.0 AT ALABAMA - Competing in front of 10,077 Alabama fans, UCLA lost a dual meet to the Crimson Tide, 197.65-197.0. However, with the high away score, the Bruins moved up to No. 1 in the national rankings. Kristin Parker led the Bruins with a second-place all-around finish (season-high 39.425), and Doni Thompson tied for first on bars with a 9.95.

PERFECT 10S KEEP COMING FOR DANTZSCHER - Sophomore Jamie Dantzscher extended her streak of perfect 10s on floor to seven consecutive meets after her winning performance at the UCLA Invitational on Mar. 3 (she did not compete on floor in UCLA's last meet at Alabama). Dantzscher has scored a 10 in all but two meets this year for a grand total of 10, including three in on Mar. 3 (vault, bars and floor). In her career, she has scored 12 perfect 10s on floor, three on bars and two on vault to set a new school record with 17 career perfect marks. Dantzscher's consecutive 10 streak on floor is an NCAA record.

Dantzscher has proven to not just be a one-event wonder. The 2000 Olympian averages 39.610 in the all-around and on Mar. 3 set a new career-high and national season-best with a 39.9 (three 10s and a 9.9). The score was the fourth-highest in NCAA history, and she became only the third gymnast ever to score three perfect 10s in one meet. Dantzscher averages 9.93 or better on vault, bars and floor. She has also conquered her onetime nemesis, the balance beam, scoring a career-high 9.9 twice.

PARKER'S PRESENCE INTEGRAL TO VAULT LINEUP - After sitting out three meets due to injury, junior All-American Kristin Parker has returned to the vault lineup and has provided much-needed results. Since her return the Bruins have jumped up to third in the national rankings on vault and set season-highs twice. In her four meets back, Parker has scored 9.85 each time out and has led UCLA to team scores of 49.15 (Feb. 23), 49.45 (Mar. 1), a school-record 49.7 (Mar. 3) and 49.325 (Mar. 16). With Parker in the vault lineup, the Bruins have scored 49+ on vault seven of eight times and averaged 49.26. Without her in the lineup, UCLA has averaged just 47.756.

ANTOLIN ALSO KEY TO VAULTING SUCCESS - Another key to UCLA's recent success on vault is sophomore Jeanette Antolin. The five-time U.S. National Team member rejoined the Bruin squad on Feb. 13 and competed for the first time this season on Feb. 17, placing second on vault with a 9.7. At Washington on Mar. 1, she claimed her first individual victory of the year, winning the vault with a career-high 9.95. She equaled that mark two days later at the UCLA Invitational and again stuck her vault at Alabama for a score of 9.9 (tied for second). Antolin has also competed once on bars, recording a 9.775 at Washington.

BECKERMAN CONTINUES TO POST TOP MARKS - Sophomore Alyssa Beckerman has been on fire the last six meets, scoring no lower than 9.875 on floor and no lower than 9.8 on beam. Beckerman, who missed most of the 2001 season after undergoing wrist surgery, has been UCLA's anchor on beam since unexpectedly stepping in for an injured teammate in the season's second meet at Georgia. The 2000 U.S. Olympic alternate and U.S. balance beam champion averages 9.803 on beam with four individual wins and five scores of 9.9+. Her career-best is 9.95. On floor exercise, she stepped in for an injured teammate on Feb. 10 against Stanford and recorded a 9.875 on her first collegiate floor routine. She has been in the floor lineup ever since and averages 9.883 with a high of 9.9.

UCLA'S 1-2-3 ALL-AROUND PUNCH - No school in the nation can match the combined strength of UCLA's top 3 all-arounders - 2000 Olympian Jamie Dantzscher, two-time Olympian Yvonne Tousek and defending NCAA all-around champion Onnie Willis. The three Bruins have posted the highest all-around marks for any trio on any team this season - Dantzscher with a 39.9, Tousek with a 39.725 and Willis with a 39.65. Tousek and Willis have scored 39.4+ four times each, and Dantzscher has broken the 39.7 barrier three times. The Bruins also have two other strong, consistent all-arounders in Kristin Parker (season-high 39.425, career-high 39.675) and Malia Jones (season-high 39.325, career-high 39.425).

BRUIN SQUAD FILLED WITH OLYMPIANS, NATIONAL TEAM MEMBERS - The 2002 Bruin squad is filled with former U.S. and Canadian Olympians and National Team members. In all, UCLA boasts five Olympians and eight former national team members. UCLA's Olympians are Jamie Dantzscher, Kristen Maloney and Alyssa Beckerman from the U.S. and Yvonne Tousek and Michelle Conway from Canada. In addition to those five, Jeanette Antolin, Doni Thompson and Onnie Willis were once members of the U.S. National Team. Many of the Bruin gymnasts have World Championships experience, as Tousek competed at the 1995, 1996, 1997 and 1999 Worlds, Thompson competed in 1995, and Antolin, Dantzscher, Maloney and Conway competed in 1999. Beckerman made the World Championships team in 1999 but could not compete due to injury.

NUMBER CRUNCHING - On floor, Onnie Willis has hit 31 of 32 routines throughout her career for an average of 9.88 … Doni Thompson has hit 39 of 41 (95%) uneven bar routines in her career, including all 11 this year, for a career average of 9.829 … Yvonne Tousek has averaged a 9.86 on her last 11 beam routines, dating back to last season … Kristin Parker has hit 22 consecutive vaults for an average of 9.865 … In addition to her mastery on floor, Jamie Dantzscher has also scored big on bars, recording a 9.975 or better in eight of 10 meets this year.

DANTZSCHER HAULING IN EVENT TITLES - Jamie Dantzscher has been running away with most of the event titles this year, already taking in 26 first-place finishes out of a possible 41 (63.4%). She is well ahead of the pace of Mohini Bhardwaj's school-record total of 29 victories in 2000. Dantzscher also has 32 Top 3 finishes (78%). Onnie Willis ranks second in the individual victories department with seven. Alyssa Beckerman leads the team with four beam victories.

INJURIES SIDELINE SEVERAL BRUINS - Sophomores Kristen Maloney and Carly Raab have been unable to compete so far this season due to injuries. Maloney, a 2000 U.S. Olympian, had surgery in August to remove a rod in her shin and has not yet been cleared to compete, and Raab is out for the year after suffering an ACL injury. In addition, freshman Christie Tedmon suffered four broken metatarsals on her left foot while dismounting the balance beam in the season opener and will sit out a minimum of six to eight weeks.

BRUINS DEDICATE SEASON TO SEPT. 11 VICTIMS, HEROES - The UCLA gymnastics team has dedicated its 2002 season to the victims and heroes of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks. Bruin gymnasts created a banner that reads: "Tribute – To the victims and those devoted to the relief effort: Your courage, strength, compassion and humanity fuel our fire and rekindle our passion for gymnastics. We dedicate our season to you and commit to take every day as a gift." The banner was placed at Ground Zero in New York City.

HEAD COACH VALORIE KONDOS FIELD - In her 12th season as head coach of the Bruins, Valorie Kondos Field has positioned her team as the premier program in collegiate gymnastics. In the past six years alone, Kondos Field has led UCLA to three NCAA titles and one runner-up finish, five Regional titles and three Pac-10 Championships. She has been voted the national coach of the year by her peers four times in the past six years.

KONDOS' KORNER - UCLA head coach Valorie Kondos Field will continue her weekly diary for UCLABruins.com. You can read her latest entry at www.uclabruins.com.
