BRUINS HOST BEARCATS TO OPEN 2018 SEASON

UCLA (0-0) will open the 2018 season by hosting Cincinnati (0-0) in the Rose Bowl on September 1 at 4:00 p.m. PT. The game will be televised by ESPN. The Bruin IMG Radio Network will broadcast the contest, which will also be aired over Sirius/XM, 97.3 FM, uclabruins.com and tunein.com and the TuneIn App. This will be the Bruins' first meeting with Cincinnati.

The Bruins are 65-29-5 all-time in season-openers. It will be the second straight campaign in which UCLA has started the season at home (last year defeated Texas A&M 45-44 in Rose Bowl). The last time that happened was in the 2008 (win over Tennessee) and 2009 (win over San Diego State) seasons. The Bruins own victories in their last six season-openers played at home (2017 - Texas A&M, 2015 - Virginia, 2013 - Nevada, 2009 - San Diego State, 2008 - Tennessee, 2006 - Utah) and in 12 of the last 13 season-openers played at home (2004 lost to Oklahoma State, 2002 win over Colorado State, 2000 win over Alabama, 1999 win over Boise State, 1998 win over Texas, 1995 win over Miami, 1994 win over Tennessee). Bruin teams have won 10 straight non-conference games played in the Rose Bowl.

First-year head coach Chip Kelly was named UCLA's head football coach on Nov. 25, 2017. Kelly owns a collegiate record of 46-7 compiled in four seasons as the head coach at the University of Oregon (2009-12). During that span, his Duck teams captured first place or a share of first in the North Division of the conference (three outright conference championships 2009-11) and four BCS bowl games. Kelly guided Oregon to appearances in a National Championship Game (2010), two Rose Bowls (after 2011 and 2009 seasons) and the Fiesta Bowl following the 2012 season. He also has served as the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers (2016) and the Philadelphia Eagles (2013-15). Kelly was named the 2009 and 2010 Pac-10 Coach of the Year, 2010 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, 2010 Walter Camp Coach of the Year, 2010 Sporting News Coach of the Year, 2010 AFCA Coach of the Year Award and 2010 Associated Press Coach of the Year.

UCLA HEAD COACH CHIP KELLY

Chip Kelly was named UCLA's head football coach on Nov. 25, 2017. Kelly holds 27 seasons of coaching experience at both the professional and collegiate levels, most recently serving as head coach of the San Francisco 49ers (2016). He also served as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles (2013-15) following four seasons as head coach at the University of Oregon (2009-12) where he posted a record of 46-7.

Kelly's lone season in San Francisco saw the 49ers improve from the league's 21st-ranked rushing attack in 2015 (1,544 yards) to the 4th-best ground game in 2016 (2,019 yards). Running back Carlos Hyde was the biggest beneficiary of the improvement, gaining 988 yards in just 13 contests (76.0 yards per game).

Over Kelly's three seasons in Philadelphia, the Eagles ranked third in the NFL in points per game (26.9) and total offense (392.8 yards per game), as well as fourth in rushing yards per game (131.3). Sixteen Pro Bowlers were selected from his teams, including eight in 2014. The Eagles won 10 games in each of his first two seasons, as his 2014 offense scored a franchise-record 474 points to surpass his 2013 team's previous-record total of 442.

The Eagles showed a marked improvement in Year 1 under Kelly, as their 10 wins followed a four-win 2012. He became just the second head coach in league history to win a division title in his first season in the NFL, as the Eagles captured an NFC East Division Championship. He was also named the Maxwell Club NFL Coach of the Year.

Kelly began his head coaching career at the University of Oregon in 2009, leading the Ducks to a 10-3 record and a trip to the Rose Bowl. He finished his time at Oregon with a overall record of 46-7 as head coach (2009-12), including a 33-3 mark in conference play. In his four seasons in Eugene, the Ducks averaged 44.7 points per game. Kelly became the first coach in school history to guide the program to three consecutive undisputed conference championships (2009-11) and its first three 12-win seasons (2010-12).

Oregon made an appearance in a BCS Bowl game in each of Kelly's four seasons, including a trip to the National Championship game following the 2010 campaign. Kelly was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year in back-to-back seasons in 2009 and 2010, and Associated Press Coach of the Year in 2010.

The 2012 Ducks finished second in the nation in scoring (49.6 points per game) and fifth in total offense (537.4 yards per game) with freshman quarterback Marcus Mariota under center. They would conclude the season with a Fiesta Bowl victory over Kansas State. A January bowl game was also the end result for Oregon the year prior, as the Ducks defeated Wisconsin in a Rose Bowl thriller, 45-38. Kelly's offense notched Top-5 finishes in points per game (46.1, third) and total offense (522.8 yards per game, fourth) in 2011.

In 2010, the Ducks led the nation both points per game (46.1) and total yardage (530.7 per game) en route to a BCS National Championship Game appearance. In addition to his Pac-10 Coach of the Year and Associated Press Coach of the Year awards, Kelly garnered Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, Walter Camp Coach of the Year, The Sporting News Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Coach of the Year accolades.

Kelly's first season as a head coach (2009) culminated in a Rose Bowl appearance and the Pac-10 Coach of the Year award, as his offense ranked sixth in the country in both points per game (36.1) and rushing yards per game (231.7). He was promoted to the top spot after his offenses led the Pac-10 in a number of categories during his two seasons (2007-08) as offensive coordinator under Mike Bellotti.

Kelly had spent the previous 13 years at his alma mater, the University of New Hampshire, before being named offensive coordinator at Oregon. As offensive coordinator at UNH, Kelly protégée Ricky Santos earned the Walter Payton Award as the most outstanding player in FCS in 2006. The quarterback previously finished second in 2005. Kelly also coached the Wildcats' offensive line (1997, 1998) and running backs (1992, 1994-96). The New Hampshire offense averaged better than 400 yards of total offense per game in seven of his eight seasons on staff.

Kelly began his coaching career guiding defensive backs and special teams at Columbia University in 1990. He moved to outside linebackers and safeties in 1991 before his first stint at UNH as running backs coach in 1992. He also spent one season at Johns Hopkins University as defensive coordinator in 1993.

THE ROSE BOWL - HOME OF BRUIN FOOTBALL

The nation's most famous college football stadium – The Rose Bowl – is now in its 37th season as the home of the UCLA Bruins football team. The stadium is recognized as both a United States National Historic Landmark and a California Historic Civil Engineering landmark. Thanks to a generous donation in 2017 from prominent UCLA alum Tod Spieker and his family, the playing surface will be called Spieker Field at the Rose Bowl for at least the next 25 years.

The Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but has been utilized as a venue for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games' cycling events and was the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also played host to five NFL Super Bowls – XI in 1977, XIV in 1980, XVII in 1983, XXI in 1987 and XXVII in 1993. It was a venue for the 1994 World Cup and the 1999 Women's World Cup soccer tournaments, including the championship games. The USA women's soccer team victory over China in the 1999 event drew over 90,000 fans. In addition, the 1983 Army-Navy game was played in the Rose Bowl.

On Jan. 1, 2018 and Jan. 1, 2015, the Rose Bowl served as the site of one of the College Football Playoff semifinal games. In 2014, the Rose Bowl hosted the final BCS Championship contest. It had also played host to the BCS Championship game in 2002, 2006 and 2010.

Considered an ideal concert venue, the Rose Bowl has hosted shows by such groups and artists as Taylor Swift, Beyonce, Jay-Z, Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, One Direction, U2, 'N Sync, Eagles, Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Michael Jackson, Metallica, Guns and Roses, Depeche Mode and Journey.

The iconic stadium is in the process of completing the final touches on a $181 million dollar renovation, and now features a new video board, improved exiting, wider aisles in the end zones and the Terry Donahue Pavilion. The Pavilion area houses the press boxes, broadcast booths, premium seating, boxes and suites. In December of 2015, the radio and TV booths were renamed "The Keith Jackson Broadcast Center". Jackson, the former sportscaster, coined the phrase "The Granddaddy of Them All" for the Rose Bowl Game. Also added are field level entrances and exits, and additional concession stands and restroom facilities.

Since 2007, UCLA and its opponents have dressed in new locker rooms located underneath the south concourse of the stadium. The locker area features all of the latest amenities to benefit the players, coaches, sports medicine and equipment staffs. In addition, a new media interview room and working press area were included in the upgrades. In 1998, new individual chairs were installed in the seating areas between the end zones. Also, improved seating areas for the physically challenged were installed, as well as a new sound system.

Completed in 1922 at a cost of $272,198, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California football game that year which was won by the Golden Bears 12-0. The stadium was originally horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 persons when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end zone was enclosed prior to the 1929 game to increase seating capacity to 76,000. Further enlargements took place in 1932 (83,677) and 1949 (100,807). A record crowd of 106,869 fans witnessed the 1973 Ohio State – USC Rose Bowl contest. With the current seating configuration for home games, the capacity is 80,616 for general admission contests and 88,565 for reserved ticket games.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts in its vast history. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, The UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide connection.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 feet from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. The square footage of the grass on the floor of the stadium is 79,156.

NON-SATURDAY REGULAR SEASON GAMES

UCLA will tangle with Colorado (road) and Utah (home) in a pair of Friday night affairs this season. The Bruins had games in 2017 on Sunday (win over Texas A&M) and Friday (loss at Utah, home win vs. Cal). The game vs. A&M was the first college game played on a Sunday in the Rose Bowl. In 2016, UCLA played a Thursday night affair on Nov. 3 at the University of Colorado (loss). In the 2015 season, in back-to-back weeks, the Bruins took the field on Thursday night at Stanford (loss) and in the Rose Bowl versus California (win). In 2014, on Thursday night at Arizona State, the Bruins bested the Sun Devils and on Friday of Thanksgiving week, at home, in the Rose Bowl against Stanford, the Cardinal dropped the Bruins. In 2013, the Bruins won at Utah on a Thursday night and at home versus Washington on a Friday night. The last time UCLA had previously played a Friday game during the regular season was in 2011 at Arizona State. The most recent previous home game to have been played on Friday had been against Arizona on Oct. 27, 1978. In 2012, UCLA opened the season with a win at Rice on a Thursday evening. In 2011, it played at Arizona on a Thursday evening. In the 2010 season, the Bruins played three non-Saturday games - Oct. 21 at Oregon (Thur.), Nov. 18 at Washington (Thur.) and Nov. 26 at Arizona State (Fri.). Prior to 2010, the last time the Bruins played a regular-season non-Saturday game was Friday, Nov. 28, 2008 at Arizona State, dropping a 34-9 decision. The Bruins also played a Monday night game that year, defeating Tennessee, 27-24 in overtime on Labor Day night (Aug. 30). Before 2008, UCLA had not played on a week night since Thurs., Sept. 30, 1993, a 52-13 victory at San Diego State. The Bruins also played at San Diego State on Thurs., Sept. 26, 1991 (won, 37-12).

2017 GAME RECAPS

GAME ONE: UCLA 45, Texas A&M 44

Sept. 3 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, California (AP) -- Josh Rosen faked to spike the ball to stop the clock and instead threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Jordan Lasley with 43 seconds remaining and UCLA overcame a 34-point deficit to stun Texas A&M 45-44 on the first Sunday college football game ever played at the Rose Bowl.

Rosen was 35 of 59 for 491 yards on the night and four fourth-quarter touchdowns. He threw for 292 yards and the four scoring passes all in the final 15 minutes to overcome a 27-point margin. "My career at UCLA, we've had a lot of times where the chips didn't fall in our favor, and I think it's time that finally it did," Rosen said.

UCLA scored touchdowns on five straight possessions after trailing 44-10 with 4:08 to play in the third quarter. Rosen threw scoring passes of 9 and 42 yards to Darren Andrews before finding Theo Howard for a 16-yard score on a broken play with 3:08 remaining.

UCLA got the ball back with 2:39 to go and drove 66 yards in 10 plays, including an 11-yard throw and catch to tight end Caleb Wilson. Rosen capped the remarkable comeback with a fade to the far corner of the end zone after faking the spike. JJ Molson kicked the winning extra point.

"We were an inch away from losing that game probably 10 times," said Rosen, who threw for the third-most yards in a game in school history. "I mean, for God's sakes, I mean, that field goal would have put us out, and we just had an incredible surge and effort just to put probably a centimeter of a finger on the ball. I mean, the things that had to go right to win this game were incredible."

Texas A&M quarterback Kellen Mond was stopped short of the first-down marker on a scramble with 20 seconds left to close out the biggest FBS comeback since 2006.

"It was a lot of fun, huh? Glad you stuck around?" UCLA coach Jim Mora said. "We knew that this was not going to be an easy game, but we didn't know we were going to be down 28 points at halftime. I was just so impressed by the way that they managed their emotions at halftime and then coming back in the second half."

Wilson had a school-record 15 receptions for 203 yards, and Andrews had 12 catches for 143 yards. Rosen's 491 yard passing effort was the third-highest in school history and tied him with Cade McNown for the most 300-yard passing games in school history with 11.

GAME TWO: UCLA 56, Hawai'i 23

Sept. 9 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Josh Rosen was 22-for-25 for 329 yards passing and found Darren Andrews for three of his career-high five touchdown passes as UCLA defeated Hawaii 56-23 on Saturday.

With the 329-yard performance, Rosen moved past Cade McNown and into sole possession of the UCLA record for most 300-yard passing games in a career with 12. The five scoring passes were the most by a Bruin quarterback since Ben Olson tossed five in a 2007 win over Stanford.

Andrews became the first UCLA receiver to haul in three scoring passes in a game since Mercedes Lewis caught three in a 2004 game versus Arizona. Theo Howard, who finished with a career-best seven catches, had his first 100-yard game (110).

Howard and Caleb Wilson each caught a touchdown pass. Demetric Felton and Bolu Olorunfunmi each had 1-yard touchdown runs for the Bruins, who have scored touchdowns on 12 of 14 possessions with Rosen at quarterback dating back to the third quarter of their 45-44 comeback win over Texas A&M on Sunday.

UH's Dru Brown threw for 227 yards, with a 4-yard touchdown pass to Diocemy Saint Juste and a 2-yard score to John Ursua, as Hawaii saw its winning streak end at five games. Brown also threw an interception that was returned 30 yards for a touchdown by UCLA freshman cornerback Darnay Holmes.

GAME THREE: UCLA 45, at Memphis 48

Sept. 16 - Memphis, Tenn.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — UCLA came in after earning its first national ranking of the year, but the Memphis Tigers came away with the win. The Bruins' fourth-quarter comeback was denied by the Tigers and Memphis beat the No. 25 Bruins 48-45 on Saturday.

Memphis quarterback Riley Ferguson threw for 398 yards and six touchdowns, and Jacobi Francis broke up a late fourth-down pass attempt by Josh Rosen to lead Memphis. Francis' breakup with 56 seconds left sent the Tigers faithful into a celebration.

Rosen finished 34 of 56 for 463 yards and four touchdowns for the Bruins. But there also were two key interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown and the other stopped a late Bruin drive.

UCLA gave up big plays and turnovers, key ones that thwarted drives and led to Memphis scores, including a 60-yard interception return by linebacker Tim Hart in the third quarter.

"There's a formula for winning," UCLA coach Jim Mora said. "You can't turn the ball over, and you can't give up explosive plays and we did both."

"I just made some stupid mistakes," Rosen said. "I made about 10 points worth of really bad plays. ... I just can't make really, really, silly mistakes like that. It's just trying to play hero ball. It's not needed. You've got to play within the system."

Both teams managed to answer the opponents' scores through the game. Memphis held a couple of 10-point leads, but UCLA went ahead 45-41 on Rosen's 22-yard pass to Austin Roberts with 11:51 left. Memphis responded with a four-play, 81-yard drive, the final 3 yards coming on Ferguson's pass to Phil Mayhue with 9:56 left.

From there, it was up to the Tigers' defense, which despite giving up 633 yards, did not allow another touchdown.

The Bruins did have a successful rushing attack against the Tigers, including Bolu Olorunfunmi gaining 77 yards on 13 carries. The Bruins finished with 170 yards rushing after gaining 195 on the ground in their first two games.

Darren Andrews caught an NCAA-leading sixth touchdown pass of the season, a 65-yard catch-and-run. It was one of 10 catches on the day for Andrews who became the third Bruin to record two 10-catch games in a season.

GAME FOUR: UCLA 34, Stanford 58

Sept. 23 - Stanford, Calif.

STANFORD, Calif. – In a game that saw each team surpass 500 yards of total offense, UCLA dropped its Pac-12 opener on the road to Stanford, 58-34.

Bruin quarterback Josh Rosen passed for 480 yards, including a career-high 158 to Jordan Lasley and 145 to Caleb Wilson, while Soso Jamabo added a career-best 100 rushing yards. Bryce

Love and the Cardinal rushing attack proved too strong, however, as the Pac-12's leading runner ran for 263 yards and a score.

Beginning the initial drive of the game on its own 48-yard line after a big kickoff return, the Cardinal opened the scoring with a field goal. A muffed punt by the Cardinal's Quenton Meeks was pounced on by the Bruins' Johnny Den Bleyker at the Stanford 15 and J.J. Molson would eventually knot the game at 3-3 with a 27-yard answer.

The teams would trade field goals before the Bruins finally broke through on their first full drive of the second frame. Rosen completed three consecutive passes, capped by a 48-yard strike to Lasley to reach the 12-yard line. Following his first incompletion of the stretch, Rosen hit Darren Andrews for the game's first touchdown and the receiver's seventh of the season.

A Harrison Phillips block of a Molson 23-yard attempt shifted momentum in favor of the home Cardinal. Love runs of 27 and 32 yards keyed Stanford's push to their first touchdown of the contest. The next Bruin drive would go three and out, as K.J. Costello, the Cardinal's third quarterback of the game, took over and re-established the Stanford advantage with a nine-yard scoring run to provide a 20-13 lead. A Cardinal field goal just before the clock hit zeroes sent the game to the half with the Stanford leading 23-13.

The Bruins came out firing in the second half, as Rosen completed five consecutive passes to get the Bruins to the Stanford 12. Three Jamabo runs from there led to a UCLA touchdown to cut its deficit to 23-20.

With Stanford pinned on its own eight-yard line, the Bruins looked poised for another shift in momentum. A 22-yard Costello pass to JJ Arcega-Whiteside set up a 43-yard Connor Wedington run to nix those plans, and Costello completed 15-yard pass to Trenton Irwin for the score.

Down 30-20 near midfield, Christian Pabico had the ball stripped and recovered by the Cardinal defense, setting up a 4:49 scoring drive that culminated in a short scoring run to push the lead to 17. The Bruins would not go away, though, as two long passes to Lasley—including a 39-yarder for a score—put UCLA down by a 37-27 score with the fourth quarter nearing.

A 6:18 drive ate into the clock and the Bruins' hopes for a comeback, as Costello eventually found Dalton Schultz for a three-yard touchdown pass and a 44-27 lead. UCLA once again answered thanks to a Rosen strike to Eldridge Massington at 6:59 of the final quarter, but a two-play, 70-yard Stanford drive—including a 69-yard Love scamper—buried the Bruins.

"It's an incredibly disappointing feeling for all of us," UCLA coach Jim More said. "A lot of things were going right and then all of a sudden it goes wrong. I still believe great things will happen for us and they will."

GAME FIVE: UCLA 27, Colorado 23

Sept. 30 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Josh Rosen completed 28 of 45 passes for 372 yards to lead UCLA past Colorado, 27-23, in a white-out game at the Rose Bowl Stadium on Saturday evening.

UCLA claimed a 14-10 lead midway through the second quarter, pushed its advantage to 21-10 just after halftime and came away with the victory.

Rosen threw for one touchdown, connecting with eight different receivers. Darren Andrews caught eight passes for 96 yards, while Jordan Lasley had seven receptions for 146 yards, his third 100-yard game of the season. On the defensive end, Kenny Young led all players with 12 tackles.

Rosen, who has thrown for at least 300 yards in all five games this season, helped UCLA ice the contest in the game's final seven minutes. He directed the Bruins' offense during a 15-play drive that took over six minutes and concluded with JJ Molson kicking a 31-yard field goal at the 26-second mark in the final quarter.

Trailing 27-23 in the game's final seconds, Colorado moved the ball down to UCLA's 37-yard line in two plays, but quarterback Steven Montez's last-second heave sailed out of the end zone as time expired. UCLA's 15-play drive in the final six minutes of the fourth quarter came after the Buffaloes had trimmed the Bruins' margin to 24-23 on a 33-yard field goal at the 6:46 mark.

The Bruins trailed twice in the first half, but secured the lead for good – 14-10, midway through the second quarter – after an eight-play, 75-yard drive. Jalen Starks capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

After forcing Colorado to punt the ball on a three-and-out at the start of the third quarter, UCLA used a five-play, 58-yard drive to establish a 21-10 advantage. Rosen's 21-yard strike to Caleb Wilson put the Bruins on the Colorado three-yard line before Soso Jamabo punched it in from two yards out for his third touchdown of the season.

The Buffaloes answered with a 10-play, 75-yard drive, capped by a two-yard rushing touchdown by Philli Lindsay, which cut UCLA's advantage to 21-17. With fewer than two minutes to play in the third quarter, Colorado kicked another 33-yard field goal to slice the Bruins' cushion to 21-20.

GAME SIX: UCLA 30, Arizona 47

Oct. 14 - Tucson, Ariz.

Tucson, Ariz. - Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate rushed for 234 yards and two touchdowns and threw for another touchdown to lead the Wildcats to a 47-30 win over UCLA.

Bruin running backs accounted for all four touchdowns, including two by Bolu Olorunfunmi, who rushed for a career-high 102 yards on 10 carries. Jalen Starks (career-high 63 yards) and Soso Jamabo (33) had the other two touchdowns.

Untimely turnovers hurt the Bruins, who dropped to 3-3, 1-2 in the Pac-12. Quarterback Josh Rosen threw three interceptions, two in the red zone and a pick six.

Arizona jumped out to a quick lead, taking just four plays to score after the opening kickoff. Tate ran it in from 45 yards out at 13:44 to put Arizona up 7-0. UCLA got on the board with 2:23 to play in the first quarter, as Starks ran it in from less than a yard out for his fourth touchdown of the year, trimming Arizona's lead to 10-7.

The Wildcats (4-2, 2-1) used a 53-yard pass from Tate to Shun Brown to quickly move down the field on their next possession, and Nick Wilson's one-yard touchdown rush increased Arizona's lead to 17-7 with 39 seconds remaining in the first.

The Bruins were driving towards a score on their next possession, but an interception by Jace Whittaker in the red zone killed the drive. Whittaker struck again later in the quarter, to even more damaging results, intercepting Rosen again and returning it 42 yards for a 24-7 Arizona lead.

UCLA's running backs got the Bruins back to within 10 at 24-14, thanks to big gains by Starks, a second-effort two-yard gain on fourth-and-one by Olorunfunmi, and a Jamabo nine-yard touchdown run. However, Arizona drove 75 yards on its next possession, ending with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tate to Wilson with 11 seconds remaining for a 30-14 halftime advantage.

Late in the third quarter, Olorunfunmi used two big gains of 24 and 47 yards to set up a four-yard touchdown run to cut Arizona's lead to 33-22. But Tate used his speed once again to break another run on the next play, taking what was nearly a loss of yardage and turning it into a 71-yard touchdown run and 40-22 Wildcat lead.

Arizona penalties helped the Bruins get down the field quickly on its next drive, culminating in Olorunfunmi's second touchdown of the game, a one-yarder with 1:04 left in the third quarter. The Bruins were successful on the two-point conversion once again, trimming the lead to 40-30.

Another big play, a 44-yard touchdown pass from Tate to Tony Ellison, got Arizona down to the six, and Wilson rushed it in to give the Wildcats the final score, 47-30.

UCLA will next face Oregon on Saturday, Oct. 21 at 1pm at the Rose Bowl for Homecoming.

GAME SEVEN: UCLA 31, Oregon 14

Oct. 21 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. - Josh Rosen completed 21 of 35 passes for 266 yards and two touchdowns as the UCLA football team earned a 31-14 win over Oregon on Saturday at Rose Bowl Stadium. The Homecoming win marked the 600th victory in program history.

UCLA outscored the Ducks 17-0 in the second half after being tied with Oregon at halftime, 14-14.

Christian Pabico caught four passes for 99 yards with a touchdown, while Theo Howard had five receptions for 60 yards and Darren Andrews had five catches and a touchdown. Bolu Olorunfunmi and Soso Jamabo combined for 142 yards on the ground on 30 carries with one touchdown each. The UCLA defense came up with two turnovers during the game as Jaleel Wadood forced a fumble and Colin Samuel picked off a pass.

After JJ Molson kicked a 42-yard field goal on the opening drive of the second half, UCLA pushed its lead to 24-14 with 3:14 left in the third quarter. Olorunfumi scored on a 22-yard rush, leaping over an Oregon defender to cross the goal line for his fourth scoring rush of the season.

The Bruins pushed its lead to 31-14 at the 9:03 mark in the fourth quarter as Rosen found Andrews for a one-yard touchdown, his eighth scoring reception of the season, in the back of the end zone to complete a 10-play, 40-yard drive.

UCLA scored twice in the first quarter to jump out to a 14-0 lead. Jacob Tuioti-Mariner recovered a Ducks fumble on their own 45-yard line and used an 11-play drive capped off by a Jamabo four-yard run for the game's opening touchdown.

UCLA found the end zone on its next drive as Rosen connected with Pabico for a 33-yard touchdown pass to highlight a seven-play 65-yard drive that took just under three minutes. It marked Pabico's first career touchdown reception.

Oregon was able to tie the game at 14-14 with a pair of second-quarter touchdowns. UO used a 15-play, 75-yard drive to cut the score to 14-7 with 10:34 remaining in the quarter as Braxton Burmeister ran into the end zone from seven yards out.

The Ducks then tied the game with just 37 seconds left until halftime when Burmeister recorded his second rushing touchdown of the afternoon from the four-yard line to cap off another 15-play drive that took over five minutes off the clock.

GAME EIGHT: UCLA 23, Washington 44

Oct. 28 - Seattle, Wash.

SEATTLE, Wash. — No. 12 Washington rushed 58 times for 333 yards as the Huskies defeated UCLA at Husky Stadium, 44-23.

The Bruins (4-4, 2-3) were led by receiver Darren Andrews, who caught eight passes for 73 yards and one of two receiving touchdowns. Jordan Wilson caught the other. Redshirt freshman Devon Modster recorded the first passing touchdown of his career, finding Andrews from four yards out.

After holding the Huskies on their first drive, UCLA started its opening possession on the Bruin 29-yard line. Thanks in large part to a Husky roughing-the-passer penalty and 16-yard strike from Josh Rosen to Andrews, the Bruins were able to drive 46 yards to set up a 42-yard JJ Molson field goal that gave the Bruins the first points of the contest.

Washington's first scoring drive went much the way of the Bruins', as a 15-yard personal-foul penalty and an 18-yard Coleman run counted for more than half of the Huskies' yardage leading to Tristan Vizcaino's 31-yard tying field goal.

A 35-yard Jake Browning strike to Coleman accompanied six Gaskin rushes on the Huskies' next scoring drive, with Browning capping the nine-play drive with a one-yard run of his own to give Washington its first lead at 10-3.

The Bruins took a page out of the Huskies' book the next time out, as Soso Jamabo and Bolu Olorunfunmi each rushed three times to help the Bruins down to the Husky eight-yard line, from there Rosen found Wilson for the tight end's second touchdown of the season. Olorunfunmi ran for 24 yards on three carries. The Molson extra point was missed, however, as Washington maintained the lead.

An 82-yard Salvon Ahmed kick return put Washington in prime scoring position and Coleman ran in from a yard out two plays later. They would conclude first-half scoring with a 26-yard Vizcaino field goal at 3:50 of the frame to send the game to the break with the Huskies leading, 20-9.

The Bruins were unable to capitalize on a Darnay Holmes interception of Browning on the Huskies' first drive of the second half and Washington returned to the run its next time out. The home Huskies tallied 27-unanswered points and surged into a 37-9 advantage.

With Modster under center, the Bruins chipped away at the Husky lead with an 81-yard drive. The redshirt-freshman signal caller completed six of seven passes, including throws of 21, 19 and 14 yards to Andrews, Wilson and Christian Pabico, respectively. The Huskies would answer, though, as Gaskins controlled the middle of the field before Coleman once again scored in the redzone.

The Bruin defense would put an end to scoring when Osa Odighizuwa rumbled 51 yards after picking up a Kamari Pleasant fumble to give the Bruins a 14-7 fourth-quarter advantage.

The eight catches by Andrews moved the senior into a tie for fourth place on the Bruins' all-time catch list. He is knotted with Danny Farmer at 159. Next on the list is Kevin Jordan, in third place with 179. Andrews joined Jordan as the only Bruin receivers to put together three straight 40-catch seasons.

GAME NINE: UCLA 17, Utah 48

Nov. 3 - Salt Lake City, Utah

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah - Devon Modster went 8-12 in his first career collegiate start and completed all seven of his first-half attempts for 101 yards and a score, while Zack Moss accumulated 153 yards on 23 carries and two touchdowns for the Utes and Tyler Huntley went 15-22 for 243 yards and four touchdowns as the UCLA football team dropped a 48-17 contest on Friday at Utah from Rice-Eccles Stadium.

Bolu Olorunfunmi led the ground game with 63 yards on a career-high 16 carries, while Darren Andrews had led all UCLA receivers with 66 yards on three receptions and a score.

The Utes scored the first points of the game as they were able to pounce on a Mossi Johnson fumbled punt at the UCLA 16-yard line. Four plays and 1:36 later, Moss pounded it in from three yards out for a 7-0 lead.

The Bruins responded as Modster hit Andrews streaking down the sideline for 42 yards down to the Utah 25-yard line, setting up a 37-yard field goal by J.J. Molson to cut into the early in the second quarter.

Utah would then use 10 plays to maneuver 73 yards, with Moss rushing for 31 yards, leading to Huntley finding Darren Carrington for a 25-yard score at 6:08 in the quarter for a 14-3 lead.

UCLA cut the lead to 14-10 as Modster completed all three of his passes on the 10-play 73-yard drive, including a spectacular one-handed grab by Theo Howard along the sideline. On the next play, Modster would hit Andrews from 24 yards for a touchdown.

The Utes would make it a 17-10 game at halftime when Matt Gay hit a 25-yard field goal with seven seconds left in the half.

Utah wasted no time getting on the board in the second half, as Huntley hit Troy McCormick for a 75-yard strike and a two-score advantage. Another 10-play drive would consume 4:25 of the third quarter as Moss capped off the drive with a 20-yard score for a 31-10 advantage.

Huntley would later cap off another quick, three-play drive with a 13-yard pass to McCormick in the end zone in the middle of the third quarter for a 38-10 lead.

After a Utah field goal in the first minute of the fourth quarter, redshirt freshman Matt Lynch marched the Bruins 75 yards down the field in nine plays and ended the drive with a five-yard score to Eldridge Massington with 9:59 left in the final quarter.

The Utes would push the lead to 48-17 as Huntley tossed his fourth touchdown of the game with 3:27 left on the clock to Cody Ippolito from two yards out.

GAME 10: UCLA 44, Arizona State 37

Nov. 11 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. - UCLA kept its perfect home record intact against Arizona State on Saturday evening, posting a 44-37 victory.

Saturday marked the return of junior quarterback Josh Rosen, who missed last week's game at Utah after suffering an injury at Washington on Oct. 28. Rosen finished the game 26-for-46 for 420 yards and a touchdown. It marked the 16th 300-yard passing game of his career, increasing his own school record. Rosen also moved into third place in the UCLA record books in both career passing yards and completions.

Bruin wideout Jordan Lasley had a career-high 162 yards receiving on the evening, hauling in a crucial 22-yard touchdown pass from Rosen early in the fourth quarter to give UCLA a 41-34 advantage. Lasley also hauled in a 59-yard reception in the second quarter to set up an eventual UCLA field goal.

Arizona State got off to a quick start in Saturday's contest, jumping out to an early lead with a pair first-quarter touchdowns. The Sun Devils' first strike came with 8:34 remaining in the quarter when quarterback Manny Wilkins hit wideout N'Keal Harry for a seven-yard TD pass. ASU scored again just five minutes later, this time on a two-yard TD run from Demario Richard, as the Sun Devils moved out to a 14-0 advantage.

UCLA defensive back Nate Meadors tallied the Bruins' first score of the game, as he intercepted a tipped pass from Wilkins, taking it in from 27 yards out to cut the lead to 14-7. It was Meadors' first career touchdown and second-career interception. UCLA then tied things up on a one-yard TD run from Rosen just after the start of the second quarter.

Arizona State scored once more prior to halftime when Wilkins notched a rushing touchdown of his own, a 16-yard scamper with 7:55 to play in the half, to give the Sun Devils a 21-14 advantage. UCLA managed to cut the lead to 21-20 prior to halftime following a pair field goals from kicker JJ Molson.

Following the intermission, running back Soso Jamabo gave UCLA its first lead of the game when he capped a 6-play, 59-yard drive with a 22-yard touchdown run, putting the Bruins up 27-21. It marked Jamabo's sixth touchdown in seven games this season.

In addition to Rosen and Jamabo, Bolu Olorunfunmi also rushed for a touchdown on Saturday, his fifth of the season, giving UCLA a 34-24 advantage on a two-yard run with 5:41 to play in the third quarter. That scoring drive also included a 56-yard reception by Olorunfunmi, the longest reception of his career. His 15 carries (for 79 yards) in the game were also a career high.

Down by 10 late in the third quarter, the Sun Devils would show some resilience. A 22-yard field goal from Brandon Ruiz cut the lead to 34-27, and ASU would tie the game moments later when Eno Benjamin blocked a UCLA punt and ran it in from nine yards out to tie the game at 34-34.

The Bruins, however, would remain steady down the stretch, getting that crucial touchdown from Lasley to start the fourth quarter, and following it up with another Molson field goal, his third of the game, to take a 44-34 lead. The Sun Devils scored just three points in the fourth quarter on a 23-yard field goal from Ruiz with 3:57 to play in the game.

On the defensive end of the field, sophomore linebacker Krys Barnes tied a career high with 12 tackles, and senior defensive lineman Jacob Tuioiti-Mariner had a personal-best 10 tackles and two sacks and tied a career high with two tackles for loss. Redshirt sophomore defensive lineman Chigozie Nnoruka (eight) and senior defensive back/wide receiver Mossi Johnson (seven) also posted career highs in tackles.

The Bruins have just two regular-season games remaining. UCLA is scheduled to face crosstown rival USC on Nov. 18 at the Los Angeles Coliseum (5:00 p.m./ABC) and Cal at the Rose Bowl on Nov. 24 (7:30 p.m./FS1). UCLA can go undefeated at home this year with a win over the Bears. The Bruins' last undefeated campaign in Pasadena was a 6-0 mark in 2005.

GAME 11: UCLA 23, USC 28

Nov. 18 - L.A. Coliseum
LOS ANGELES, Calif. - LOS ANGELES - UCLA quarterback Josh Rosen threw for 421 yards, 204 to Jordan Lasley, and the Bruin defense held USC to 153 rushing yards, a season-low total for the defense, but UCLA's effort was just short, as No. 12 USC held on for the 28-23 victory at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Turnovers in the red zone and a few costly penalties left UCLA without much-needed points earlier in the game, but the Bruins did not quit. Down 21-7 late in the third quarter, UCLA closed to within five on a Lasley touchdown with 2:43 to play. But the Bruins missed the two-point conversion and were unable to recover the onside kick, and USC was able to get the first down it needed to run out the clock.

Rosen's 421 yards were the most ever by a UCLA quarterback against USC and just two yards shy of Matt Barkley's all-time record in the series, set in 2011. Lasley's 204-yard game was the fourth-best receiving performance in UCLA history.

USC (10-2) struck first on a 72-yard punt return for a touchdown by Michael Pittman, but the Bruins answered right back with a seven-play, 80-yard drive that culminated in an 11-yard touchdown pass from Rosen to Lasley.

A long kickoff return gave USC good field position on its next possession, and it took six plays and two and a half minutes to go 56 yards for the touchdown, a two-yard rush by Ronald Jones that put USC ahead, 14-7. The Bruins appeared to tie the game early in the second quarter on a Bolu Olorunfunmi touchdown run on a reverse, but the play was nullified by a clipping penalty, which set the ball back 15 yards to the USC 30. The Bruins ended up with no points on that drive after J.J. Molson missed a 47-yard field goal attempt.

A Jaleel Wadood interception on fourth and 8 on the UCLA 30 gave the Bruins their first break of the game late in the second quarter. UCLA got down to the USC 17, but Rosen was strip sacked, and USC regained possession on their own 40 with 36 seconds to play in the half. The half, however, ended without a score, as the Bruins chased Sam Darnold out of the pocket, and he was tackled in bounds shy of the first down as time expired in the half with USC up 14-7.

UCLA's opening drive of the second half saw the Bruins drive down to the USC 15, only to have Rosen throw an interception in the end zone. USC scored on a one-yard touchdown run by Darnold on the ensuing possession to take a 21-7 lead.

But much like the Trojans' first touchdown, UCLA answered with one of its own. Rosen and Lasley linked up for their second touchdown of the game, a nine-yard pass that cut USC's lead to 21-14 with 2:57 to play in the third. A 26-yard Molson field goal with 10:19 to play in the game put UCLA down by just 4, 21-17.

USC answered with a touchdown drive to increase its lead to 28-17, and on its next possession, UCLA was on the verge of turning it over on downs with under four minutes to play, but a holding penalty by USC gave the Bruins new life with a first down on the USC 38. Rosen found Lasley four plays later for their third touchdown of the game, a 27-yard TD pass with 2:43 to play that cut the deficit to five points, 28-23. But after USC recovered the onside kick, the Bruins ran out of time to attempt a comeback.

GAME 12: UCLA 30, Cal 27

Nov. 24 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. - JJ Molson connected on a 37-yard field goal attempt with four seconds left in the fourth quarter to lead UCLA past California, 30-27, in the regular-season finale for both teams at the Rose Bowl on Friday night.

With the game tied 27-27, back-up quarterback Devon Modster drove the Bruins down the field to the 20-yard line in the game's final 2:22. Molson's game-winning field goal helped the Bruins become bowl eligible. In addition, UCLA secured its fourth win over Cal in their last five meetings and secured a perfect 6-0 season at the Rose Bowl.

"We are obviously excited as a program," UCLA interim head coach Jedd Fisch said. "We also feel that we owe this win to Coach Mora. We wanted to make sure that we were able to end his legacy as the head coach at UCLA, as a guy that led five of his six teams to bowl games. So, we are very respectful of that. In turn, we are extremely excited to move forward and to be 1-0 in this capacity."

UCLA's final possession in the game's last two minutes came after California had overcome a 10-point fourth quarter deficit. The Golden Bears kicked a field goal with 8:35 to go, reducing UCLA's cushion to 27-20. Minutes later, California drove 77 yards on a 12-play drive, capped by a game-tying six-yard touchdown pass from Ross Bowers to Jordan Veasy.

Jordan Lasley caught a career-high 12 passes for a team-leading 227 yards and had one touchdown reception in the regular-season finale. Lasley, who finished with 204 receiving yards at USC last week, had a 17-yard touchdown catch midway through the second quarter to put the Bruins ahead, 17-6.

Lasley became the first-ever Bruin to record back-to-back 200-yard receiving contests. In addition, his 431 receiving yards between the USC and Cal games are the most by any Bruin in back-to-back contests. He became the first UCLA player to ever record three double-digit reception games in one season. Kenny Young recorded a career-best 15 tackles in the contest.

In all, UCLA quarterbacks Josh Rosen and Devon Modster combined for 393 passing yards as the Bruins closed their home slate with a 6-0 mark at the Rose Bowl in 2017. Modster finished with career highs in pass completions (14), attempts (18) and passing yards (191).

After securing a 7-3 lead against California late in the first quarter, the Bruins never trailed the rest of the way. The visiting Golden Bears tied the contest, 17-17, early in the third quarter before UCLA answered with a touchdown and a field goal. Cal running back Patrick Laird finished with 178 rushing yards on 32 carries. Bowers finished the game having completed 25 of 41 pass attempts for 242 yards.

Cal kicker Matt Anderson converted four of five field goal attempts, connecting on kicks from 32, 34, 37 and 20 yards against the Bruins.

GAME 13: UCLA 17, Kansas St. 35

Dec. 26 - Chase Field

PHOENIX - Kansas State quarterback Alex Delton ran for 158 yards and accounted for four touchdowns, leading the Wildcats to a 35-17 Cactus Bowl victory over UCLA on Tuesday night.

Delton replaced starter Skylar Thompson late in the first quarter and scored on runs of 68 yards, 3 yards and 1 yard. Alex Barnes added 117 yards and a touchdown for the Wildcats, who rushed for 345 yards.

Kansas State struggled in the first half against UCLA's potent offense, but shut down the Bruins in the second. UCLA played without quarterback Josh Rosen, who's recovering from a concussion, but built a 10-point halftime lead.

The Bruins' offensive success didn't carry over into the second half and their defense had a hard time containing Delton, saddling interim coach Jedd Fisch with a loss in his last game before Chip Kelly takes over the program. "We handled a ton of adversity this year and a ton of change," Fisch said. "After the (USC) week, they continued to play as hard as possible."

Kansas State made a quarterback change in the first quarter of the Cactus Bowl after Thompson threw an interception. Delton had an immediate impact, bursting up the middle for a 68-yard touchdown run. Snyder opted to go for it on fourth-and-goal from the 1 in the third quarter, and Delton came through again, bulling his way through a massive pile — with some help from his teammates.

Kansas State's Denzel Goolsby recovered Bolu Olorunfunmi's fumble at the Bruins 24-yard line on the next play from scrimmage, and Delton hit Dominique Heath for an 8-yard touchdown to give the Wildcats the lead. "That was possibly the play of the ballgame," Coach Bill Snyder said.

UCLA turned it over on downs — after a successful fake punt — and Kansas State turned its fourth-down try into a touchdown, with Alex Barnes putting the Wildcats up 28-17 with a 41-yard run.

Kansas State ended UCLA's comeback hopes with an eight-minute drive capped by Delton's final TD run. "They wore us down," Fisch said.

Rosen, expected to leave for the NFL after his junior year, was in uniform and warmed up before the game, but Devon Modster trotted out to the huddle. The Bruins still had their big-play game going even without Rosen, building a 17-7 halftime lead on two long TD passes by Modster. UCLA's offensive roll ended with halftime. The Bruins had 100 total yards and three first downs in the second half. "I just threw too many incomplete passes," said Modster, who threw for 295 yards. "That's pretty much it."
