AVERY ANDERSON

Director of Track & Field and Cross Country
3rd Season at UCLA

UCLA track & field alumnus Avery Anderson was named the Director of Track & Field and Cross Country by UCLA Athletics on July 6, 2017. He enters his third year at the helm. As director, Anderson oversees all aspects of the planning, development, and administration of the track & field and cross country programs at UCLA.

The 2019 track & field season saw Anderson earn Pac-12 Men's Coach of the Year and USTFCCCA Men's Coach of the Year (West Region) honors. He directed the men to a second-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships (best since 2005), as UCLA scored 140 points (highest since 2004) and garnered a trio of Pac-12 champions in Simon Litzell (javelin), Robert Brandt (10K) and Sondre Guttormsen (pole vault).

On the women's side, Alyssa Wilson scored 26 points between the discus (1st), hammer (2nd) and shot put (2nd) at the conference meet, the highest of any male or female athlete, en route to being named the Pac-12 Women's Athlete of the Meet. Wilson went on to earn USTFCCCA West Regional Field Athlete of the Year honors and was a three-time NCAA Outdoor First Team All-American, collecting top-eight finishes in three events. Elleyse Garrett, the Pac-12 pole vault champ, was a Second Team All-American.

For the men, UCLA saw Dotun Ogundeji (shot put, discus), Nate Esparza (shot put), Sean Lee (high jump) and Robert Brandt (10K) notch first team honors at the NCAA Championships. Between the indoor and outdoor seasons, the Bruins broke five school records in 2019 – Guttormsen (pole vault, indoor); Brandt (3000m; 5000m, indoor); Wilson (hammer, outdoor).

In his first year at the helm, Anderson helped UCLA muster USTFCCCA All-America performances in several events during the outdoor season, including first team selections in Robert Brandt (10K), Kendall Gustafson (heptathlon), Jessie Maduka (triple jump) and Alyssa Wilson (shot put, hammer). The UCLA track & field program also saw two student-athletes (Simon Litzell, javelin; Marian Spannowsky, javelin) earn second team honors, while Justin Stafford (hammer) and Alyssa Wilson (discus) took home honorable mention plaquidts in their respective events.

Anderson's indoor All-Americans included: Ashlie Blake (first team, shot put), Jessie Maduka (first team, triple jump), Nate Esparza (second team, shot put), Dotun Ogundeji (second team, shot put) and Alyssa Wilson (second team, shot put).

During the 2018 track & field season, UCLA notched 26 Pac-12 All-Academic honorees, and the Bruins saw 24 student-athletes qualify for the NCAA West Regional Championships.

At the Pac-12 Championships, the Bruins collected an individual title in the women's triple jump, as Jessie Maduka's mark of 13.59m (44-7) gave the Bruins their first victory in the event since 2004. UCLA also saw Simon Litzell win a Pac-12 title in the javelin, as he threw a collegiate-best 74.46m (244-3).

Anderson returned to his alma mater after spending nearly 20 years coaching at the NCAA Division I level. His coaching career began at CSUN, where he served as a volunteer assistant track & field coach from 1999-2001 while competing as a professional decathlete. He served in the same role at UCLA from 2001-2002 and at Kansas State from 2002-2004 before returning to CSUN for the next 13 years working in various coaching roles. Most recently, he served as the Director of Track & Field and Cross Country for CSUN from 2011-2017.

Anderson's tenure with the Matadors was marked by staggering levels of success. During his time with CSUN, Anderson led his student-athletes to 13 Big West/WAC Conference Team Titles, 91 individual conference championships, and 21 NCAA All-America honors. He also coached the only individual male NCAA Division I champions in CSUN history, in any sport, long jumpers Dashalle Andrews and Reindell Cole.

Additionally, Anderson presided over three Big West Outdoor Championships on the women's side (2011, 2015, and 2017). The women's victory in 2017 extended CSUN's record for most conference team titles on either the men's or women's side. Anderson was recognized for his coaching prowess when he received the 2015 and 2017 Big West Conference Women's Track & Field Coach of the Year awards.

In addition to his evident coaching expertise, Anderson returns to Westwood with the invaluable experience of being a two-sport student-athlete with the Bruins, as he competed in both football and track & field and understands the winning tradition of UCLA Athletics. He was a member of the NCAA runner-up 4x100m relay squad his senior season and helped UCLA take home four Pac-10 Championships. As a wide receiver from 1991-1995, Anderson competed in football for the Bruins at the highest level. His most notable season came when he helped lead UCLA to a 1993 Pac-10 title and later played in the 1994 Rose Bowl.

Anderson went on to play for the Indianapolis Colts during the 1996-97 season. When a back injury ended his football career, he decided to return to track & field as a decathlete. He soon became a prominent decathlete as he set the CSUN complex decathlon record to qualify for the 2000 U.S. Olympic Trials. After finishing seventh at trials, he went on to compete internationally for the United States in 2001 in the U.S. vs. Germany decathlon competition in Germany.

In addition to receiving a Bachelor of Arts in political science from UCLA, Anderson earned his Master's of Public Administration with honors at CSUN. His advocacy for academic success was on display during his tenure at CSUN, as his program achieved a total of 12 NCAA APR Public Recognition Awards.

Anderson is married to the former Bridget Pearson, who is in her first season at UCLA as a volunteer assistant after coaching for 12 seasons at CSUN. She is also a UCLA track & field alumna. The couple have two children: a son, Andy, and daughter, Avery.

DEVIN ELIZONDO

Assistant Coach
3rd Season at UCLA

UCLA alumnus Devin Elizondo is in his third season with the Bruins as an assistant coach for cross country and track & field. As he returns to Westwood, Elizondo brings a wealth of distance running acumen and an extensive resume of coaching experience that has certainly benefited the Bruins' distance program.

In his first season in the coaching realm at UCLA, Elizondo helped the Bruin men's cross country team place third at the Pac-12 Championships and later take 21st at the NCAA Championships, led by an 88th-place finish from Robert Brandt. In 2018, Elizondo coached Erika Adler, Christina Rice and Colin Burke to All-Region honors, before Adler ultimately qualified for the NCAA Championships.

Under the direction of Elizondo, the UCLA track & field program has seen Brandt shatter indoor school records in both the 3000m (7:50.27) and 5K (13:40.82). Brandt won the Pac-12 outdoor title in the 10K (29:08.11) and ultimately went on to qualify in both the 5K and 10K at the 2019 Outdoor Championships, earning Second- and First-Team All-America honors, respectively.

Elizondo previously served as head cross country coach and assistant track & field coach at UC Davis from 2014-17. In his first cross country season, he led the Aggie women to their first Big West Conference title since 2011 and was named the Big West Women's Cross Country Coach of the Year. In 2015, Elizondo guided both the men's and women's teams to third-place finishes at the Big West Championships, the highest finish for the men since 2013 and fifth consecutive top-three finish on the women's side. During his tenure at Davis, Elizondo helped coach 20 All-Big West runners (six men, 14 women) and six all-region honorees in cross country.

His coaching career began at the Brentwood School in Los Angeles. There, he served as the head track & field coach and assistant cross country coach for both boys and girls. With Elizondo on the coaching staff, the boys' cross country team qualified for six state championship meets and achieved five top-five finishes. The girls' program also enjoyed success, as the girls advanced to two state meets and sent an individual runner on two other occasions during Elizondo's time at Brentwood.

Elizondo graduated from UCLA in 1998 with a degree in history and enjoyed great success as a distance runner for the Bruins. He was a member of three Pac-10 track & field championship teams and also helped lead the cross country team to a pair of third-place conference finishes. Elizondo was the UCLA cross country team's Most Outstanding Freshman in 1994 and was selected to the All-District IX First Team in 1995.

Elizondo has also had an extensive history of youth outreach in Southern California involving athletics. He joined the LA84 foundation in 2007 and worked to organize cross country and track and field clinics at over 1,600 high schools in the Southern California Area. He has also been heavily involved in Runner's Workshop since 1994, a summer cross country camp at which Elizondo regularly creates lecture series and workouts for campers.

AUSTIN O'NEIL

Assistant Coach
3rd Season at UCLA
2nd Season as Assistant Coach

Former Bruin Austin O'Neil is in his third season on the UCLA cross country and track & field coaching staffs and second as an assistant coach. He was promoted to assistant coach before the 2017-18 school year after serving as a volunteer assistant in his first season on staff.

In his first season as an assistant for track & field, O'Neil coached a USTFCCCA All-American in Robert Brandt (10K in 2018) as well as Christina Rice, who holds UCLA's freshman record for the 10K (34:14.52; fourth all-time). In cross country, O'Neil helped Erika Adler qualify for the 2018 NCAA Championships, where she finished 136th (21:22.5).

O'Neil was a four-year letterwinner for the Bruins in both track & field and cross country, earning USTFCCCA All-America honors on the DMR course as a senior. The Stevenson, Ranch, Calif., native qualified for the NCAA Track & Field Championships as a junior and a senior, finishing seventh in the DMR at the 2016 Indoor Meet and racing in the 1500m at the 2015 outdoor championships. He also raced in the 2016 NCAA Division I Cross Country Championships, finishing with a time of 31:41.8 in the 10K.

During his senior season at UCLA, O'Neil posted the No. 6 mark in school history in the 3000m steeplechase, clocking in at 8:44.86 to win the Bob Larsen Distance Carnival. He also placed second at the Pac-12 Championships and qualified for the NCAA Championships, placing 15th.

In 2016, O'Neil earned indoor All-America honors with a seventh-place finish in the DMR. In 2015, he was an NCAA qualifier in the 1500m.

As a member of the Bruin cross country team, O'Neil earned All-Pac-12 honors in 2016 and earned a 12th-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships. In 2015, O'Neil is a two-time All-Academic conference honoree in track & field, as well as in cross country.

O'Neil is a two-time All-Academic conference honoree in track & field, as well as in cross country.

ROB BEAMER

Volunteer Coach
4th Season at UCLA

Robert (Rob) Beamer enters his third season as a volunteer coach for the UCLA cross country and track & field programs, specializing in the distance events. Beamer is also a graduate student in the fully employed MBA program at the UCLA Anderson School of Management.

In his first year on the cross country staff in 2016, Beamer helped the Bruins send both their men's and women's squads to the NCAA National Championships, where they finished 15th and 28th, respectively.

Before coming to UCLA, Beamer served two coaching stints (2006-08; 2011-15) for the UCSB track & field program, where he primarily coached the distance runners, sprinters, throwers and vaulters. In 2012, he was part of the staff that coached the Gauchos men to a Big West Conference title and a first runner-up showing for the women.

In between his two coaching assignments with the Gauchos, Beamer coached the men's rowing team while a graduate student at the University of Notre Dame, serving as head coach of the novice program and an assistant to the varsity. During his tenure at ND, he coached the novice Irish to a gold medal finish at the Head of the Occoquan regatta (2010), and second place finishes at the head of the Rock (2009, 2010), while the varsity earned a score of top finishes including two silvers at the 2009 Head of the Charles and a first place finish in the petite finals at the 2010 ACRA National Championships.

Prior to coaching at the collegiate level, Beamer served as the head coach of cross country and track & field at Bishop Diego High School in Santa Barbara, Calif. While at Bishop, he coached athletes Patrick Torrellas (400m) and Christina Nowak (high jump) to school records in their respective events.

Beamer earned all-conference (West Coast) honors as a two-sport athlete at the University of San Diego.
