

UCLA Football Notes

Oct. 14, 2023 at Oregon State

- After tonight's loss to the Beavers, UCLA now leads the series over Oregon State 41-21-1. This was UCLA's first trip to Corvallis since the 2015 season.
- After tonight's loss, UCLA is 9-4 overall (7-4 Pac-12) in its past 13 true road contests — losing at Utah and at Oregon State in 2023 and 2021 and Oregon in 2022 — dating back to a Sept. 25, 2021 win at Stanford.
- Logan Loya caught his third scoring pass of the season (10 yards) in the second quarter. He also has touchdown catches against San Diego State (24) and Washington State (11).
- Jordan Anderson made his first start at safety as a Bruin. He made 34 starts while at Bowling Green before transferring to UCLA this year.
- Longest starting streaks on defense: LB Darius Muasau and DL Gabriel Murphy have each started the past 19 straight games. DL Jay Toia is next with 14 consecutive starts.
- With the second quarter turnover (OSU fumble) forced by UCLA in tonight's game at Oregon State, UCLA has forced at least one turnover in each of its past nine games and in 20 of its past 22 contests. The last time it had a streak as long was over the last six games of 2020 and first three contests of 2021.
- Oregon State's total of 23 points was the most scored against the Bruins in the first half of play this season. Previous high was 14 by Utah.
- Longest starting streaks on offense: C Duke Clemens has started the past 27 games; OT Garrett DiGiorgio is next at 19.
- Collin Schlee ran for 80 yards on 16 carries. It is the most by a Bruin QB since Dorian Thompson-Robinson totaled 88 yards on 14 carries in 2022 against California.
- With the total of 284 rushing yards against Oregon State, UCLA now has run for at least 200 yards in three games this season (also San Diego State 276, North Carolina Central 413).
- UCLA's turnovers led to 17 Oregon State points. Coming into the contest, UCLA's turnovers in the first five games had led to a total of 20 opponent points.
- Oregon State is only the second team this season to record at least 100 yards rushing. The Beavers finished with 133 ground yards. Utah ran for 102 yards earlier this season. North Carolina Central is the only team to have rushed for a TD against the Bruin this season.
- Oregon State became just the second team this season to surpass the 300 yard total offense mark. The Beavers finished with 415 yards on the night. Coastal Carolina, with 345 yards of offense, is the other opponent.
- Carson Steele ran 22 times for 110 yards against Oregon State. It marks the second 100-yard game of Steele's first season at UCLA. He ran for 141 yards on 30 carries in last week's win over Washington

State. He rushed for his third touchdown of the season against the Beavers after scoring against San Diego State and North Carolina Central.

- T.J. Harden registered his third rushing TD of the season in the third quarter. He also had rushing TDs against San Diego State and North Carolina Central.

- North Carolina Central is only team to score against Bruins in the fourth quarter this season.

- Laiatu Latu is moving up the school career sacks list
