ADAM WRIGHT

Head Coach
Fourth Season at UCLA
UCLA '01

Adam Wright, who has coached the UCLA men's water polo team to NCAA Championships in 2014, 2015 and 2017, had his role expanded to include the UCLA women's water polo team, Director of Athletics Dan Guerrero announced July 20, 2017. Wright, who enters his fourth season as the head coach of the UCLA women's water polo team in 2021, sports an overall record of 66-17 (.795).

He guided the Bruins to a 19-2 overall record and a 2-0 mark in the MPSF in a shortened 2020 season with the Bruins ranked No. 2 in the final CWPA poll. The Bruins defeated No. 1 and defending NCAA Champion USC on the year with a 7-5 win to capture the Triton Invitational title, snapping a six-year reign for the Trojans in that tournament.

Wright led UCLA to a 24-7 overall record in 2019 and a 4-2 mark in league play. The Bruins reached the semifinals of the NCAA Championship, falling 8-7 to eventual champion Stanford in overtime.

Wright began his stint with the women's program in 2018 as the Bruins went 23-8 overall and 2-3 in league play. The Bruins again reached the semifinals of the NCAA Championship but were forced to play without Olympian and three-time first-team All-American Maddie Musselman and fell to eventual champion USC, 10-6.

"UCLA Water Polo could not be in better hands," said Guerrero. "Adam's winning record as the men's coach speaks for itself, but just as impressive is the culture he is able to create through his exceptional leadership abilities, as well as his talent for helping student-athletes develop into well-rounded individuals. I fully expect both programs to thrive, individually and together, under Adam's oversight."

Wright is the third coach in UCLA water polo history to coach both the men's and women's teams. The other two – Guy Baker and Adam Krikorian – are both in the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. While coaching both programs from 1995-2000, Baker won seven national titles (four with the women and three with the men). Krikorian coached both programs from 2000-09 and won a total of 11 national titles as head coach (eight women's championships and three men's championships).

"I am extremely honored to serve as the head coach for both UCLA men's and women's water polo teams," said Wright. "It is an incredible opportunity to coach the most storied program in women's water polo. The foundation is already in place for both teams, and I am really looking forward to this new challenge."

Prior to his tenure as head coach, Wright was a four-year letterwinner at UCLA from 1997-2000, helping lead the Bruins to back-to-back NCAA titles in 1999 and 2000. He totaled 128 goals in his four seasons and was a two-time All-American. Following his collegiate career, he served as a key member on the USA National Team, participating in the 2004, 2008 and 2012 Olympic Games. He helped lead Team USA to a seventh-place finish in 2004 (Athens) and to a silver medal in 2008 (Beijing). Wright continued training with the USA National Team while serving as UCLA's head coach and retired as a player after competing at the 2012 Olympics in London.

Wright got his coaching start as an assistant coach with the varsity boys and girls water polo teams at Wilson High School (Long Beach, Calif.) from 2001-04. He helped coach the boy's program to four consecutive CIF Division I championships and Moore League titles and also guided the girl's team to two Moore League titles.

As a senior at UCLA in 2000, Wright scored 39 goals before earning honorable mention All-America acclaim and second-team All-MPSF honors. In 1999, he secured third-team All-America and second-team All-MPSF honors. That season, Wright led UCLA in assists (27) and was second in total points (48) and steals (39).

In his first two seasons, he scored 43 goals - 26 as a freshman and 27 as a sophomore. He gained second-team All-America honors in 1998 and was an honorable mention All-America and All-MPSF selection as a freshman in 1997.

Wright graduated from UCLA in 2001 with degrees in history and sociology.

Following his collegiate career, Wright competed in the European League (Italy and Russia for Bissolati Cremona, Civitavecchia SNC, Nuoto Catania and Dynamo Moscow from 2004-08. He has competed for the U.S. National Team in all major tournaments from 2001-11, helping lead Team USA to the gold medal at the 2003 and 2007 Pan American Games as well as the 2005 ASUA Cup (Mexico City).

Wright is married to Kerry Norris, a former UCLA women's soccer player. He and his wife reside with their daughter, Rome, and son, Zsolt, in Los Angeles.

CHRISTOPHER LEE

Assistant Coach
Third Season
Penn '04

Christopher Lee enters his third season as an assistant coach with the UCLA women's water polo team in 2021. He was hired on August 1, 2018 to replace Dustin Litvak, who was named the head men's water polo coach at Princeton in June of 2018.

Lee, who most recently served in the same role with California in 2017 and 2018, brings nearly two decades of high-level coaching experience to the Bruins.

"We are very fortunate to add a coach the caliber of Chris Lee to our women's water polo program," said Wright. "His experiences, both collegiately and internationally, will undoubtedly help to enhance our culture and positively impact the growth and development of our players."

Over five years and two stints at Cal, Lee helped the Golden Bears to four National Collegiate Water Polo Championships semifinal-round appearances. Individually, players from those teams accounted for 43 ACWPC All-Academic Awards and 31 All-America nods.

A veteran of the Southern California water polo scene, Lee guided the men's and women's teams at Occidental College (2015, 2016) between stints with the Golden Bears. He also turned in three seasons each with the Pomona-Pitzer men's (2009-2011) and women's squads (2010-12), helping the Sagehens to SCIAC championships on both sides.

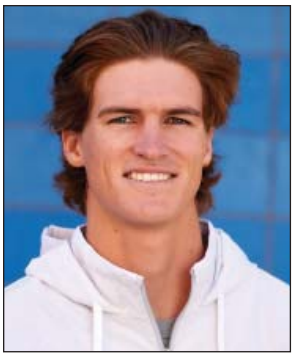

Lee entered the world of coaching at Pennsylvania in 2000, when he took over the women's water polo team as an undergraduate student. Eight seasons (2000-04, 2005-08) later, the Quakers had claimed four Mid-Atlantic Division championships (including the program's first in 2004) and made Lee the league's Coach of the Year four times. For good measure, Lee took over the men's side in 2006 and did not miss a beat, helping his alma mater to a Mid-Atlantic title in 2007 and earning Coach of the Year honors in 2006 and 2007.

"I want to thank Adam and Kodi for welcoming me to the coaching staff here at UCLA," said Lee. "I have so much respect for what they have accomplished, both as players and coaches at UCLA, as well as their careers with the (United States) national team."

Also a veteran of international competition, Lee has served the United States Women's Senior National Team since 2011 in various roles. As a video analyst, he operated at head coach Adam Krikorian's right hand on the way to gold medals at the 2012 London and 2016 Rio de Janeiro Olympic Games and fulfilled the same duties at the FINA World Championships in 2011, 2013, 2015 and 2017. Most recently, Lee worked as an assistant coach for the 2018 FINA World League Super Final gold medalists in Kunshan, China.

"I'm sad to be leaving Berkeley," Lee added. "But I am excited for this incredible opportunity to work with this great group of student-athletes. I look forward to being a part of the rich history and tradition of UCLA Athletics."

Lee has also overseen the growth of up-and-coming youth in the sport with the Olympic Development Program and as an assistant coach for the USA Women's Cadet National Team (2011-15), which claimed gold at the 2015 Junior Pan American Games in Kingston, Jamaica.

JAMES ROBINSON

Assistant Coach
Second Season
UCLA '17

UCLA head women's water polo coach Adam Wright announced the hiring of James Robinson to the post of assistant coach on Sept. 11, 2019. He enters his second season with the Bruins in 2021.

"James Robinson set the bar for the type of student-athlete we look to bring into UCLA's Water Polo culture," Wright said. "James always demonstrated that he put his love for our program before himself. His time here as a Bruin student-athlete was one of the most successful periods in UCLA's men's water polo history. James had a huge impact on our program's ability to be successful each day, each game and each year because of his commitment to not only understanding our system but more importantly buying into the culture we were building and making it better. As a staff we never had to question whether James was prepared or not, and this gave us the ability to lean on him to help mentor other players in our program."

Robinson spent six months in 2018 coaching the Sacred Heart boy's team in Auckland, New Zealand. During that time, he also coached in the Sea Wolf Water Polo Club. Robinson returned to UCLA on January 2, 2019, to serve as a student-athlete academic mentor in the Academic and Student Services office.

"He has experienced every possible facet of UCLA's water polo program from redshirting to being a three-time NCAA champion," Wright added. "I am sure his experiences will play a vital role in helping mentor the student-athletes of our women's water polo team. More importantly, he understands the type of culture we are looking to build upon and I have no doubt that his impact on our team will help keep moving the needle forward for our program."

He worked UCLA's men's water polo summer camp entering his senior season, the year the Bruins won their 11th NCAA Championship in 2017. It marked the third team Robinson was a part of that won a national title. After redshirting the 2013 campaign, he won his first title as a redshirt freshman in 2014 and repeated in 2015 as the Bruins went 30-0. After falling in overtime at California in the NCAA Semifinals in 2016, he and the Bruins bounced back to win the school's 114th NCAA Championship with a 7-5 win at USC.

After winning the title in December of 2017, he left for Australia to play professionally for six months with the Hunter Hurricanes in Newcastle, Australia. The Hunter Hurricanes Water Polo Club competes in the Australian National Water Polo League (NWPL), Australia's premier domestic water polo competition. Also on that team were UCLA Bruins Gordon Marshall, Aleksandar Ruzic, and Matt Farmer. The Hurricanes' women's team also sported UCLA's Rachel Fattal.

A combined four-time All-Academic selection by both the ACWPC and the MPSF, Robinson scored 44 goals in his career, including a career-high 16 as a sophomore in 2015 and also contributed 48 assists, 35 steals, 14 field blocks and drew 10 exclusions.

A product out of Palos Verdes High School, he was named the Bay League MVP and the Daily Breeze Player of the Year in 2012 after setting the PVHS single-season scoring record with 135 goals.

Robinson graduated from UCLA in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in political science.

UCLA'S FORMER HEAD COACHES

Guy Baker

Guy Baker led the UCLA men's and women's water polo programs to seven national titles in a 10-year span. He left the water polo programs in January 2001 to become head coach of the U.S. Women's Water Polo National Team, a position he held through the spring of 2009.

Baker established UCLA as the dominant men's program of the 1990s with four men's NCAA championships (1995, 1996, 1999, 2000) and three national collegiate women's titles (1996, 1997, 1998). He earned National Coach of the Year honors four times (1995-96 men, 1997-98 women) and coached the Women's National Team at the 2004 and 2008 Olympics.

Baker led the 2006-07 Women's National Team to gold medals at the 2007 World Championships, the 2007 World League Super Final and the 2007 Pan-American Games, where the team secured its qualifying spot for the 2008 Olympic games. Baker's combined record at UCLA was 265-97 overall and 64-28 in league games.

Three of his athletes were each named National Player of the Year twice – Coralie Simmons, Sean Kern, and Matt Swanson. In all, Bruin athletes secured All-America honors 52 times and eight players competed in the Olympics under Baker.

Adam Krikorian

Adam Krikorian served as head coach of the men's water polo team from 1999-2008 and as head coach of the women's program from 1999-2009. Krikorian now serves as the head coach of the U.S. Women's Water Polo National Team. He guided Team USA to its first-ever Olympic gold medal in women's water polo in 2012 in London and followed that with another gold in 2016 in Rio.

As head coach of both UCLA water polo programs, he helped lead the Bruins to 11 national championships (three men's, eight women's). He coached the men's water polo team to NCAA titles in 1999, 2000 and 2004. As head coach of the women's program, Krikorian guided UCLA to the 2000 National Collegiate Championship and NCAA titles in 2001 and 2003 before reeling off five consecutive NCAA championships (2005-09).

Between the two UCLA water polo programs, Krikorian coached six Peter J. Cutino Award recipients, seven National Player of the Year selections and 12 Olympians. He led the UCLA men's and women's teams to national championships in the same academic year on three occasions (1999-00, 2000-01 and 2004-05).

Krikorian assumed head coaching duties of the U.S. Women's Water Polo National Team following the 2009 collegiate spring season and helped guide Team USA to the gold medal at the 2009 FINA World Championships in Rome.

Krikorian was a four-year water polo letterwinner at UCLA (1992-95), helping lead the men's program to the 1995 NCAA Championship at the conclusion of his senior season (the program's first national title since 1972).

Brandon Brooks

Brandon Brooks served as head coach of the women's water polo team from 2010-2017. During his head coaching tenure, Brooks led UCLA to four MPSF Championships and three runner-up finishes at the NCAA Championships.

He compiled an overall coaching record of 202-41 and was named the 2012, 2015 and 2017 MPSF Coach of the Year. As an assistant coach for both the UCLA men's and women's teams from 2006-09, Brooks helped lead the Bruin women to three NCAA Championships. He also served as the undergraduate assistant coach when the men's team won the 2004 NCAA title.

As a student-athlete at UCLA, Brooks was a four-time All-American goalkeeper and led the Bruins to back-to-back NCAA championships in 1999 and 2000. He also excelled internationally with the USA Men's National Team as a two-time Olympian and 2008 Olympic silver medal winner.

The Bruins captured the National Collegiate Championship in 1996.

The 2006 team defeated USC on a last-second shot for its second-straight title.

1996

In only the second year of existence, UCLA women's water polo captured the National Collegiate Championship, making Bruin water polo the first water polo program to win national titles in both men's and women's competition. Under the guidance of head coach Guy Baker, the Bruins lost only one game during the 1996 campaign, an 8-7 heartbreaker to California in the championship game of the Western Regional Qualification Tournament. But the Bruins turned the tables on the Golden Bears in the season's final match and handed Cal an 8-4 defeat for the national title. Goals were scored by Jennifer McFerrin (3), Catharine von Schwarz (2), Megan Oesting, Coralie Simmons, and Katie Tenenbaum. Goalkeeper Nicolle Payne stopped 15 of Cal's shots on goal.

1997

The Bruins brought home their second consecutive national championship and gave head coach Guy Baker four titles in a row (men's 1995, women's 1996, men's 1996, women's 1997). UCLA lost just one game during the year, a 4-3 heartbreaker at the hands of California in the third game of the season. The Bruins stormed through the rest of the spring, logging a 29-game win streak. UCLA captured its second title in a row with a 6-3 victory over California. The title did not come easily, as the Bruins held on to a shaky 3-2 lead heading into the final quarter of play. But UCLA outscored Cal, 3-1, in the final seven minutes, ensuring the national championship. Payne saved 11 attempts and earned her second consecutive Most Valuable Tournament Goalkeeper award. Goals were netted by Amanda Gall (2), Coralie Simmons (2), Serela Mansur, and Katie Tenenbaum.

1998

In their fourth year of varsity status, the Bruins took home a third consecutive national title under head coach Guy Baker. UCLA lost only one game the entire season to top-ranked Cal in the first place match of the Santa Barbara Tournament. But the defeat would not go unanswered, as the Bruins would defeat the Golden Bears 7-3 in the national championship match. While Cal was held scoreless for two quarters, the Bruins came on strong, notching at least one goal in every quarter. In Payne's last match as a Bruin, the goalkeeper recorded 13 saves and was named Tournament MVP. Goals were scored by Coralie Simmons (3), Robin Beauregard, Amanda Gall, Erin Golaboski, and Catharine von Schwarz.

2000

The 2000 season brought the Bruins back to championship status after a one-year hiatus in 1999. Sparked by the return of Catharine von Schwarz from the U.S. National Team, the Bruins finished 30-5 (8-1 MPSF) and won their fourth national championship in five years. The championship was the first under new head coach Adam Krikorian, who took over full-time after the 1998 season. In the title game of the 2000 Collegiate Nationals, UCLA downed defending champion USC, 11-4. The Bruins jumped out to a 3-1 first quarter lead and never looked back. Catharine von Schwarz netted a hat trick and became the first UCLA female student-athlete to win four team championships. Elaine Zivich added a goal and was named Tournament MVP. Goals were also scored by Kelly Heuchan (2), Serela Kay, Jenny Lamb, Jessica Lopez, Eleanor Murphy and Ashley Stachowski. Goalkeeper Jaime Hipp grabbed 10 saves to secure the victory for the Bruins.

The 1998 Bruins went 35-1 en route to the program's third-straight national title.

The Bruins captured the inaugural NCAA women's water polo title in 2001. Seniors Coralie Simmons and Kristin Guerin led the Bruins to their fourth title in five years. Throughout the season, UCLA dominated opponents, posting an 18-4 overall record and going 9-1 in MPSF action. The Stanford Cardinal proved to be the toughest challenge for the Bruins, handing them each of the four losses, including an 8-5 loss in the MPSF Championship game. UCLA rebounded from the loss at the MPSF Championships to defeat Loyola Marymount 11-1 in the NCAA semifinal match. In the title game, UCLA defeated Stanford 5-4. The win came off of a Coralie Simmons goal with 1:28 remaining in the game. Goals were scored by Simmons (2), Robin Beauregard, Kelly Heuchan, and Ashley Stachowski. Jaime Hipp recorded six saves. For her efforts, Simmons received MVP honors and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Beauregard, Heuchan, Hipp, Kristin Guerin, Jenny Lamb, and Elaine Zivich.

The first NCAA women's water polo title went to UCLA in 2001.

The Bruins continued their championship tradition by taking the 2003 NCAA Championship. All-Americans Robin Beauregard and Jamie Hipp provided veteran leadership as head coach Adam Krikorian won his third national championship. UCLA posted an overall record of 23-4, including an 8-2 MPSF mark. Ranked No. 1 nationally entering the MPSF Tournament, the Bruins picked up a No. 3 seed due to losses to Stanford and USC. The Bruins easily dispatched Hawaii before narrowly defeating USC, 7-6, in sudden-victory overtime. In the MPSF title match, UCLA fell to Stanford. The Bruins earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, where they defeated Loyola Marymount in the semifinals. UCLA advanced to the championship game against Stanford for the third consecutive time. The Bruins fell behind 2-0 at halftime, but stormed back with four straight goals to win the match, 4-3, and capture the title. Goals were scored by Jessica Lopez, Kelly Rulon, Lauren Heineck, and Robin Beauregard, and Jaime Hipp finished with six saves. Senior Robin Beauregard was named Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Touranment.

UCLA's 2005 squad enjoyed what was considered by many at the time to be the greatest season in collegiate women's water polo history. Led by Cutino Award winner Natalie Golda, the Bruins posted a perfect 33-0 mark to win the NCAA Championship. UCLA's 33-0 record marked the best NCAA finish and longest single-season winning streak. The team outscored its opponents 394-134, and 121 -31 in the first quarter. Few teams held their ground against UCLA in the first quarter, much less the entire game. This championship team started three Olympians – Natalie Golda, Kelly Rulon, and Thalia Munro. The Bruins entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 seed at the University of Michigan's Canham Natatorium. After defeating Wagner in their first match, the Bruins downed Hawai'i, 7-6, in the semifinals. Kristina Kunkel scored the winning goal with 1:43 left in the fourth quarter. UCLA concluded its remarkable season by winning the 2005 NCAA Championship, defeating third-seeded Stanford, 3-2. UCLA led the entire way against the Cardinal, as Brittany Rowe led the Bruins with two goals in that game.

2006

The 2006 Bruins returned nearly every player aside from Natalie Golda, the 2005 Cutino Award winner who helped lead UCLA to a 33-0 record in 2005. The Bruins had the talent, experience, and determination necessary to win their second consecutive NCAA title, their fourth in the last six seasons. While not nearly as dominant as the 2005 version, the 2006 women's water polo team outscored its opponents by a 369-134 margin. UCLA allowed just 4.1 goals per game, the best average in the nation. The Bruins finished their 2006 campaign with a 29-4 overall record and an 11-1 MPSF mark. UCLA earned the No. 3 seed entering the NCAA Tournament at UC Davis. In game one, UCLA dispatched No. 6 seed Hartwick College, 15-2. Then next day, goalkeeper Emily Feher made nine saves in the cage and Kelly Rulon added three goals to lead UCLA past Stanford, 8-5, in both teams' fourth meeting of the spring. UCLA concluded its stellar season in the most exciting fashion. Sophomore Courtney Mathewson's last-second five-meter shot found the back of the cage, handing UCLA a 9-8 victory over USC and their second NCAA title in as many seasons.

2007

UCLA's 2007 squad will be most remembered as the team that won UCLA's 100th NCAA team championship. The women's water polo team initiated the "race" to 100 when the Bruins captured the 2006 NCAA title. Equally impressive, the Bruins' 2007 title marked the program's third consecutive NCAA championship. Led by seniors Molly Cahill, Emily Feher, Kacy Kunkel and Kelly Rulon, the 2007 team had little trouble taking care of business. UCLA suffered two regular-season losses to Stanford, but defeated the Cardinal when it mattered most. The Bruins downed Long Beach State on the first day of the MPSF Tournament before edging USC, 10-9, in the semifinals. UCLA punched its ticket to the NCAA Tournament with a 9-3 rout of Stanford. After a 22-0 victory over Pomona-Pitzer in round one, the Bruins defeated USC, 7-6, to set up a pivotal rematch with Stanford in the NCAA Championship. UCLA built a 4-1 lead after three quarters and held off a furious Stanford rally to win, 5-4. Along the way in 2007, senior Kelly Rulon broke the UCLA career scoring record, totaling 237 goals.

2008

For the second time in four years, the UCLA women's water polo team posted a perfect 33-0 record en route to capturing the NCAA championship. Duplicating the Bruins' perfect record from 2005, UCLA secured the 2008 NCAA title with a 6-3 victory over crosstown rival USC. Seniors Kamaile Crowell, Gabrielle Domanic, Jillian Krauss, Courtney Mathewson and Brittany Rowe became the first female student-athletes in school history to capture four NCAA titles in four seasons. Kraus and Mathewson earned Co-MPSF Player of the Year honors by season's end, and Mathewson was the recipient of the Peter J. Cutino Award, the sport's most prestigious honor bestowed upon the top male and female player. In his 10th season at the helm, head coach Adam Krikorian earned ACWPC Coach of the Year accolades for the fourth consecutive season, and Mathewson captured ACWPC Player of the Year honors. Aside from the leadership of UCLA's five seniors, the Bruins received substantial contributions from juniors Brittany Fullen, Anne Belden, Katie Rulon and Tanya Gandy. Fullen finished her junior campaign having started as the goalkeeper in all 33 matches and totaled a school single-season record 237 saves.

The 2008 NCAA champions posted the second undefeated season in program history, going 33-0.

2009

UCLA won its fifth consecutive NCAA title in 2009, downing rival USC 5-4 in the title match, but did not score any goals in the second half. Playing lockdown defense against a USC squad that had beaten them twice, the Bruins prevailed behind the stellar play of senior goalkeeper Brittany Fullen (12 saves). One day earlier, the Bruins won an equally thrilling contest, using a last-second goal from sophomore Megan Burmeister to edge Stanford,12-11. UCLA entered the 2009 campaign riding a 41-game win streak before losing six games during the year. In his final season as head coach, Adam Krikorian made sure the Bruins peaked at the right time. Senior Tanya Gandy was named the NCAA Division I Player of the Year after shattering UCLA's single-season scoring record with 79 goals. Fellow seniors Anne Belden, Katie Rulon and Fullen were named All-NCAA Tournament Team selections in addition to earning Second-Team All-America honors.

UCLA women's water polo posted its fifth-straight NCAA title in 2009.

Guided by former UCLA head coach Adam Krikorian, Team USA won back-to-back gold medals for the first time in women's water polo history. The defending gold medalists, Team USA romped to a 12-5 win over Italy in the 2016 Rio Games for its fifth consecutive Olympic medal in women's water polo.

Krikorian assumed head coaching responsibilities of the U.S. Women's Water Polo National Team in the summer of 2009 after winning his fifth consecutive NCAA Championship at the helm of the UCLA women's program. In his 17 years with the Bruins' water polo programs as both a player and a coach, Krikorian won an unprecedented 15 national titles - 11 as a head coach, three as an assistant coach and one as a student-athlete.

Team USA has long been a power in women's water polo, but the Americans had never translated their success at other major competitions to the Olympics, claiming bronze in 2004 and silver in 2000 and 2008. Like in Beijing, the U.S. women were ranked No. 1 and were gold medal favorites. But this time, they would not be denied what had long eluded them.

Maggie Steffens scored five goals on the day capping a binge of seven-straight goals for the U.S. that turned a 2-1 deficit with 6:44 left in the second period into an 8-2 lead with 7:20 remaining in the fourth quarter. Spain scored the final three goals of the match, but the Americans had built an insurmountable lead.

The U.S. was 8-for-17 on shots (compared to Spain's 5-for-28 performance) and dominated the game despite losing out on time of possession, 16:58 to 15:02. U.S. goalkeeper, Betsey Armstrong, finished with eight saves, including a huge stop on a penalty shot in the fourth period.

Mathewson recorded one shot in seven minutes of action against Spain. Rulon played 15 minutes, winning one sprint for Team USA.

Mathewson, a former Cutino Award winner (2008), won four national titles at UCLA (2005-08) and made her first Olympic appearance in the 2012 London Olympics.

Rulon, the 2007 Cutino Award winner, also won four national championships at UCLA (2003, 2005-07) and was part of the bronze-medal winning team in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

Under the tutelage of former UCLA men's and women's head water polo coach Guy Baker, the U.S. women's water polo team earned a silver medal at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing. Aided by former UCLA standouts Natalie Golda and Jaime Hipp, the U.S. team earned its third medal since the sport's Olympic inception in 2000.

In the gold medal match against Hungary, Team USA rallied from an early 4-0 deficit to tie the match, 5-5, before halftime. Golda scored one goal in the match, helping reduce the Americans' deficit to 5-3. The U.S. team advanced to the gold medal match after sinking Australia, 9-8, to assure itself of finishing the Olympics with a medal.

The 2008 Games in Beijing marked the second Olympic appearance for Golda and the first for Hipp. Baker served as the U.S. women's team's head coach in the first three Olympiads of the 21st Century.

In 2004, seven players and Baker represented the UCLA women's water polo program at the Olympics in Athens, Greece. Six former and current Bruins helped lead Team USA to the bronze medal, and one former Bruin (Kelly Heuchan) competed for Australia, which finished fourth.

Then-current Bruins Natalie Golda, Thalia Munro, Amber Stachowski, Kelly Rulon and Gabrielle Domanic (alternate) competed alongside Payne and Beauregard. Baker helped lead the U.S. team to its second medal in as many Olympics.

In the 2004 bronze medal contest, the U.S. team defeated host Australia by a 6-5 margin. UCLA's athletes scored three of Team USA's six goals in that contest – Beauregard, Golda and Stachowski each netted one goal.

The new millennium brought women's water polo to the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia. In a wild gold medal contest between Australia and Team USA, Australia scored a controversial last-second goal to win, 4-3, and send the U.S. team home with the silver medal. Bruins Coralie Simmons, Nicolle Payne, Beauregard, and Coach Baker helped lead Team USA on its quest for a gold medal. While competing at UCLA, both Simmons and Beauregard spent the year away from campus. Simmons led Team USA with nine goals in the Olympics, and Beauregard added six.

In 2012, Krikorian guided Team USA to its first-ever gold medal. Four-time NCAA champions Kelly Rulon and Courtney Mathewson were key players for the U.S. in London. Rulon's medal was the second in her career, as she has previously won bronze in 2004.

Of the eight players to find the back of the net against Italy in the 2016 gold medal match, three were Bruins. Redshirt senior Rachel Fattal led the charge with two goals while former Bruin and two-time gold medalist Courtney Mathewson netted one in the opening minutes of play. In the fourth quarter, incoming freshman Maddie Musselman rocketed a penalty shot past the Italian keeper to give Team USA an 11-4 lead.

Adam Krikorian

One of the team's leading scorers, Musselman tallied 12 goals throughout the Olympic Games, including a game-high four goals against China in pool play. Overall, Mathewson notched seven for Team USA while Fattal scored four. Rounding out the Bruins' scoring efforts, defender KK Clark put away two of her own. In the cage, Hill recorded six saves in three games. The U.S. finished the Rio Games with a goal differential of 41 after scoring 73 goals and allowing just 32 in six games played.

Since women's water polo was added to Olympic program in 2000, the United States has never missed the podium. It won silver in 2000 and 2008 and bronze in 2004 before capturing back-to-back gold medals in London and Rio.

In addition to Team USA Head Coach Adam Krikorian, five UCLA Bruins were on the United States Olympic Team in 2016.

The USA National Team program has a rich history of selecting UCLA players and coaches, who have helped Team USA to a number of gold medals all over the world.

Last summer, the USA Women's National Team won the 2018 FINA World Cup title for the third straight time, maintaining its hold on all major FINA championships, following an 8-5 win over Russia on Sept. 9, 2018. The World Cup gold joins titles in 1979, 2010 and 2014. Three Bruins were a part of the squad, which includes head coach Adam Krikorian (UCLA player from 1992-95) as well as attacker Rachel Fattal (UCLA player from 2013-15 and 2017) and defender Alys Williams (UCLA player from 2013-15 and 2017).

In the summer of 2017, the USA Water Polo Women's Senior National Team successfully defended its title at the FINA World Championships, defeating Spain in the gold-medal game, 13-6. The win capped an unbeaten run through the schedule for the Americans, who were led by tournament MVP Maddie Musselman. The UCLA sophomore-to-be scored a team-high 16 goals over six contests. Bruins Rachel Fattal (2013-15, 2017) and Alys Williams (2013-15, 2017) also factored in prominently for the Adam Krikorian-led Team USA.

The FINA World Championships win marked yet another highlight in a busy summer for Team USA. Musselman and Williams were part of the roster that needed a shootout to overcome Greece and claim the Kunshan Cup in China by a score of 11-8 (June 3). Just over a week and six games later and with Fattal added to the mix, the Americans claimed their fourth straight gold at the FINA World League Super Final with a 12-6 win over Canada in Shanghai. For good measure, USA began July by taking the Vodafone Cup with a 10-8 win over host Hungary in Miskolc.

In the summer of 2016, the USA Women's Water Polo Senior National Team won its third consecutive gold medal at the FINA World League Super Final. The U.S. defeated Spain in the championship match, 13-9, in Beijing, China to capture its 10th overall WLSF title. UCLA alumna Courtney Mathewson (2005-08) was named Tournament MVP.

Three summers ago, the USA Senior National Team won gold at the FINA Intercontinental Tournament, the FINA World League Super Final, the Pan American Games, and the FINA World Championships. Rachel Fattal earned MVP honors at the latter event, scoring 18 goals en route to gold.

In the summer of 2014, the USA Senior National Team won three international events: the FINA World League Super Final, the Kinishi Cup and the FINA World Cup.

Bruins Sami Hill, Rachel Fattal, Alys Williams, KK Clark and Jillian Kraus scored a total of 17 goals in the tournament as the United States marched to the gold medal. Fattal led all Bruins with nine goals, including three against Italy in the championship match. Hill added seven saves in the final.

At the Kinishi Cup, Bruins scored 12 goals for the USA. Hill was a mainstay in the cage, making 14 saves against Italy and 11 vs. Hungary in group play, while Fattal scored five total goals to help lead the Americans to the championship. In addition to Hill and Fattal, UCLA was represented by Clark, Willaims, Kraus and Courtney Mathewson.

At the FINA World Cup, the USA won another gold medal on the backs of Hill, Fattal and Mathewson. Hill recorded 16 saves in the championship victory over Australia. Fattal (10 goals) and Mathewson (six goals) were major forces on offense for the Stars and Stripes. Clark, Williams and Kraus were also key players in the USA's drive to an undefeated tournament.

In the summer of 2013, the U.S. Women's Junior National Team won the gold medal at the FINA Junior World Championships in Greece by defeating Spain, 9-7. UCLA players participating were Fattal, Emily Donohoe, Kodi Hill and Williams. Fattal was named the MVP of the tournament after scoring 15 goals.

Later that summer, the Senior National Team placed fifth at the FINA World Championships in Spain. Players representing UCLA were Fattal, Mathewson, Kraus, Kelly Rulon and Clark.

In December 2013, Fattal, Sami Hill, Williams, Kraus, Clark, Mathewson and Priscilla Orozco beat Canada in a best-of-three series to qualify for the 2014 World Cup.

In 2009 UCLA players Brooke Martin and Natasha Schulman played for the 2009 USA Junior National Team and Sami Hill redshirted the 2012 season to train with the U.S. Senior National Team.

In the summer of 2007, former UCLA attacker Tanya Gandy and Team USA finished fourth at the FINA Women's Junior World Championships in Porto, Portugal. Gandy scored 19 goals in seven games.

The Senior National Team won the Holiday Cup in December 2006. Former Bruins Natalie Golda and Jamie Hipp and then-current Bruin Emily Feher competed in the Senior National Team event. Golda scored in every one of six games for Team USA, while Hipp contributed 21 saves in the cage. Team USA had also won the 2006 FINA World Championships in Italy.

At the 2006 Pythia Cup in Greece, Gandy and Brittany Fullen, then a sophomore on the Bruins' roster, competed for the U.S. Junior National Team. Gandy registered eight goals and Fullen totaled 14 saves in the cage over three games, leading Team USA to the silver medal.

Rachel Fattal

In December 2001, the U.S. Junior National Team captured the nation's first FINA Junior World Championship in a 10-9 overtime win. Amber Stachowski led the United States with four goals and Thalia Munro added one. UCLA players accounted for 48 percent of U.S. scoring with 38 of Team USA's 80 goals.

In the 2003 FINA Junior World Championships, Feher, Lauren Heineck, Kristina Kunkel and Kelly Rulon all saw significant playing time for the United States. In 2004, the Junior National Team won the gold medal at the Pan-American Games.

UCLA players have been key members of the Senior National Team in previous years. Each player has contributed to Team USA's international success. At the 2003 FINA World Championships, Robin Beauregard scored the game-winning goal in the United States' 8-6 victory over Italy in the title game. The victory over Italy gave the U.S. women's water polo team its first-ever gold medal.

Following the FINA World Championships, Team USA headed to the Pan American Games in hopes of earning an Olympic berth. The Senior National team went on to compete in the 2004 Athens Olympics, placing third.

Team USA, featuring Bruins Rachel Fattal, Maddie Musselman and Alys Williams, won gold at the FINA World Championships in 2017.

Dirks Pool at Spieker Aquatics Center has served as the home for UCLA women's water polo since 2010.

Dirks Pool at Spieker Aquatics Center

The UCLA women's water polo team begins its 12th season playing at Dirks Pool at Spieker Aquatics Center in the spring of 2021. Over the past 11 seasons, UCLA has logged a 61-9 (.871) record at its state-of-the-art home facility. In 2021, UCLA is slated to play four regular-season games at Spieker Aquatics Center.

Spieker Aquatics Center opened in September 2009, in time for the start of the men's water polo season that fall. PCL Construction broke ground on the facility in July 2008. The athletics department offi cially opened Spieker Aquatics Center on Sept. 26, 2009, as the men's water polo team defeated UC Irvine, 10-4, after a dedication ceremony that evening.

In the spring of 2017, UCLA hosted the MPSF Tournament (April 28-30), using Dirks Pool at Spieker Aquatics Center. The Bruins took full advantage of their home court and won the Conference Tournament by beating second-ranked Stanford, 6-3, on April 30, 2017. The Bruins also hosted the MPSF Tournament in May 2009, taking advantage of the home setting to win the title at the three-day event.

UCLA's men's water polo team won its 10th NCAA title in school history at Spieker Aquatics Center in 2015.

The Bruins can also use the pool at Sunset Canyon Recreation Center when hosting larger events.

Entering its 12th full season as UCLA's home pool, Spieker Aquatics Center features a 52-meter by 25-yard all-deep water pool with a dividing bulkhead, allowing races to take place at varying distances (meters, versus yards). The pool also has four platforms on a diving tower, at heights of three, five, seven and one half, and 10-meter platforms, as well as one and three-meter springboards. In addition, the aquatics center features a warming pool for divers directly behind the tower.

Adjacent to Sunset Canyon Recreation Center on the northwest portion of campus, the Spieker Aquatics Center was made possible thanks to a generous lead gift from former student-athlete Tod Spieker and his wife, Catherine. Tod, a 1971 UCLA graduate and All-American, swam for the Bruins from 1968-71 and still competes successfully in Master's Swimming.

The main pool, Dirks Pool, is named after Carolyn Dirks, who provided the lead gift for the swimming pool. Dirks Pool has also been used for special use events and Masters Swim meets. The signature feature of the Spieker Aquatics Center is the diving tower, which sits at the west end of the pool.

The east end of the pool houses the new scoreboard, an LED, state-of-the-art piece of electronics, making scores, statistics and messages easily visible to all in attendance.

Next to the scoreboard is the "Wall of Champions", showcasing all of UCLA's water polo, swimming and diving national championship teams, and individual student-athletes' achievements, record-holders and Olympians.

Separate men's and women's locker rooms house enough lockers for all team members, with shower space and bathroom stalls and sinks for each team. Equipment needed for meets and matches have storage capacity on the facility's south side.

When walking through the public entryway to the center, visitors first notice the Donor Wall. All donors who generously made gifts to the Spieker Aquatics Center are recognized on this wall. Additionally, over 50 former UCLA water polo players, swimmers and divers made gifts to "name" a locker. Those names will forever be part of the locker rooms in the new facility.

The state-of-the-art facility brings together all three of UCLA's intercollegiate aquatic sports – water polo, swimming and diving – to one venue. The aquatics center features event lighting and permanent seating with the possibility of additional temporary seating for larger events.

The Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) was established in 1992-1993 to serve the competitive needs of member institutions from the Big West, Pacific-10 (now the Pac-12) and Western Athletic Conferences, as well as other selected universities in the western United States; and to provide championships competition for Division I intercollegiate Olympic sports in a conference setting. The founding principles on which the MPSF was originally formed were to provide enhanced competition and championship opportunities for sports without conference affiliation; to contain the costs of competition; and to ensure the survival of endangered sports. The federation has also served as an incubator for emerging women's sports and as a safe harbor for sports impacted by conference realignments. Since its inaugural season, the federation has seen its charter conference membership grow by the addition of the Mountain West and West Coast Conferences and their respective member institutions, as well as the addition of women's water polo, women's gymnastics, women's lacrosse and men's and women's swimming and diving. As a testament to its viability, the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation continues to successfully navigate the ever-changing sea of college sports by fostering contraction and expansion of its sports portfolio to meet the dynamic needs of its members. As the MPSF is in its 29th season during the 2020-2021 academic year and continues its legacy of championship competition, it affirms the vision of its founders and the relevance of its founding principles.

In 2020-21, the MPSF will sponsor competition in 10 intercollegiate Olympic sports, while serving 85 teams from 41 universities across 12 states. MPSF teams compete primarily at the NCAA Division I level in men's and women's water polo, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's and women's gymnastics, men's and women's swimming and diving, women's lacrosse, and men's volleyball. MPSF teams are eligible to compete in the NCAA Championships with men's and women's water polo and men's volleyball conference champions earning automatic qualification.

The MPSF added one NCAA team championship during the shortened 2019-20 athletic year, as the Stanford men's water polo team brought the total to 96 NCAA titles for the conference since its 1992 inaugural season of competition. The federation turned in a high of five national championships during the 2007-08, 2008-09, and 2015-16 years, and has won at least four in 13 of the last 16 years. With the Cardinal winning the men's water polo national championship last year, the MPSF stayed perfect with all 47 NCAA titles in the sport since the inception of the conference (28 men, 19 women). In terms of conference titles, Oklahoma Men's Gymnastics currently owns an all-sports combined MPSF record eight-straight championships. The Sooners also own a record of 18 overall MPSF team titles.

Al Beaird has been the federation's only executive director, taking the reins after being selected by the MPSF Administrative Committee in December 1997 after a national search. Beaird's position was established as a result of the federation's continued growth and emerging tradition of NCAA and national championship caliber play, including 82 NCAA team championships during his tenure. Beaird, who formerly served on the athletics staff at his alma mater, UC Davis, where the integration of student and athlete is a long-rooted philosophy, oversees the administration of all federation sports. He has worked closely with administrators and coaches from more than 50 different universities over the course of his administration. Beaird presided over the transition of the federation from what was initially a scheduling alliance to what is now nationally recognized as one of the most successful NCAA Division I Olympic sports conferences. Beaird directs all aspects of MPSF competition, including championships, officiating, rules compliance, scheduling, media relations, broadcasting, sponsorships and NCAA Relations, while also shaping conference legislation, facilitating annual meetings and providing direction and communication for the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Administrative and Executive Committees. In 2004, Beaird completed a four-year term, three years as chair, on the NCAA Men's Water Polo Championships Committee and one year as chair of the inaugural NCAA Men's and Women's Water Polo Rules Committee. Beaird feels privileged to work with coaches and student-athletes who compete at the highest levels, including those who compete on USA national teams as coaches or players in international and Olympic competition. Beaird has been called upon to serve as liaison to the national governing bodies for amateur athletics in the United States and the United States Olympic Committee. Beaird received his undergraduate degree in physical education from UC Davis before attaining his Masters of Business Administration from California State University, Sacramento. Beaird, who lives in Woodland, California, is married and has two daughters.

Aubrie Monahan (holding trophy) and the Bruins took the top spot at the 2017 MPSF Women's Water Polo Championships.
