CARRIE FORSYTH

HEAD COACH
22ND YEAR
UCLA, 1994

Having led the Bruins to a pair of NCAA Championships, while coaching players to 104 All-American awards and six conference Golfer of the Year accolades, Carrie Forsyth begins her 22nd season leading the UCLA women's golf program in 2020-2021.

Under Forsyth, the Bruins have won NCAA Championships in 2004 and 2011, and have finished runner-up three more times in 2005, 2008 and 2009. UCLA has finished in the Top 10 at the NCAA Championships in 14 of the last 20 Championships held, including 2016 and 2018 when it won the stroke-play competition. In addition to the pair of national championships, Forsyth has also led the Bruins to eight NCAA Regional crowns, including back-to-back wins three times (2002, 2004-2005, 2008-2009, 2011-2012, 2014).

The Bruins have claimed five Pac-10/12 Conference titles, winning the league championship in 2017 and 2018. In 2017, UCLA was the only team to finish in red figures and won by 21 strokes. A year later, the Bruins again were the only squad to score under par, winning by 12 shots. UCLA also won back-to-back-to-back Pac-10 titles in 2004, 2005 and 2006. The Bruins have placed in the Top 3 of the conference on 15 occasions. Five Bruins have won the conference individual championship: Charlotte Mayorkas (2004), Tiffany Joh (2007), Alison Lee (2014), Lilia Vu (2017) and Patty Tavatanakit (2018). Vu defeated the field in 2017 by six shots, with Tavatanakit besting Vu in a playoff in 2018.

Six Bruins have been named Pac-10/12 Golfer of the Year, including four of the last six (Vu, 2018; Bronte Law, 2015 and 2016; Alison Lee, 2014). Joh was the league GOY in 2008, while Mayorkas earned the award in 2004. Seven have received Pac-10/12 Freshman/Newcomer of the Year: Tavatanakit (2018), Vu (2016), A.Lee (2014), Erynne Lee (2012), Joh (2006), Hannah Jun (2004) and Yvonne Choe (2002).

Forsyth is a six-time Pac-10/12 Conference Coach of the Year, earning the award in 2018, as well as in back-to-back seasons twice (2011-2012; 2004-2005) and in 2002. Forsyth was also named the WGCA Region Coach of the Year in 2018, the fourth time she has been bestowed the award (2012, 2010, 2004). In 2004, she was named the WGCA National Coach of the Year, while in 2011, Forsyth earned Golfweek National Coach of the Year plaudits.

The Bruins have received a total of 104 All-American awards during the last 21 seasons, 54 WGCA/NGCA honors and 50 Golfweek accolades. In 2018, Vu was the second Bruin to be named PING WGCA Player of the Year, joining Law in 2016. Law was also the second Bruin to earn Golfweek POY honors (A.Lee - 2014). In 2016, Law became the second Bruin recipient of the ANNIE Award, joining Lee. Also on the national level, Tavatanakit was the 2018 WGCA Freshman of the Year, joining A.Lee (2014) and E.Lee (2012) as Bruin recipients.

Along with its six conference Players of the Year and seven league Freshman/Newcomers of the Year, UCLA has received 56 All-Pac-10/12 First or Second Team honors since 2000. A total of 24 players have won 65 individual tournament titles during Forsyth's tenure, as the Bruins have won 72 events as a team.

Over a dozen Bruins who were under Forsyth's tutelage at UCLA are currently members of the LPGA, Symetra and European Tours. In 2014, Mo Martin (2001-2005) became the first Bruin to win a major with her victory at the Ricoh British Open. Later that year, Alison Lee won the LPGA Qualifying Tournament to become the second player in school history to earn her tour card while being a UCLA student. The first was Stephanie Kono in 2011. In the summer of 2019, Tavatanakit won three times on the Symetra Tour and was named the Rookie of the Year.

On Dec. 6, 2011, Forsyth was inducted into the NGCA Coaches Hall of Fame. She married James Forsyth on July 26, 2003, and the couple resides in Santa Clarita with their twin sons and daughter.

Through the Years

During the 2019-2020 abbreviated season due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Bruins posted three second-place finishes, a third-place showing and two fourth-place appearances in eight events. Emma Spitz won her first career event at the Bruin Wave Invitational. She was named a finalist for the ANNIE Award and a First Team WGCA and Golfweek All-American. Emilie Paltrinieri earned WGCA Third Team All-American honors and Golfweek A-A Honorable Mention plaudits. (No season-ending Pac-12 Conference awards were given).

In 2018-2019, the Bruins finished 20th at the NCAA Championships, winning a pair of tournaments (Golfweek Conference Challenge, Dual Match Versus Denver). UCLA secured seven individual titles, led by three from Tavatanakit (ANNIE Intercollegiate, Dual Match vs. Denver, NCAA East Lansing Regional). Wu won twice (Dual Match, PING/ASU Invitational), as did Galdiano (Golfweek Challenge, Stanford Intercollegiate). Tavatanakit was a First Team WGCA and Golfweek All-American, Galdiano was a Third Team Golfweek All-American and an Honorable Mention WGCA All-American and Wu was an Honorable Mention Golfweek All-American. Galdiano and Tavatanakit were also First Team All-Pac-12.

In 2017-2018, the Bruins defended their Pac-12 Championship, beating the field by 12 strokes to win their seventh league title. In addition to the team victory, Tavatanakit defeated Vu in a playoff to take home medalist honors. Tavatanakit became the sixth Bruin golfer to take home the Pac-12 individual title and second in a row (Vu). UCLA was the No. 1 seed for the NCAA Tournament and won the stroke-play portion of the NCAA Championships, its seventh victory of the year, which tied a single-season school record. The Bruins swept the major Pac-12 awards, with Vu being named Golfer of the Year, Tavatanakit Freshman of the Year and Forsyth earning league Coach of the Year accolades. Vu, who won four times on the season to give her a school-record eight for her career, was also named PING WGCA Player of the Year, while Tavatanakit, who also won four times, the most ever for a UCLA first-year player, was named WGCA Freshman of the Year. Tavatanakit and Vu were named WGCA and Golfweek First Team All-Americans, Galdiano earned Second Team WGCA and Golfweek All-American and First Team All-Pac-12 honors and Wu was a Second Team All-Pac-12 honoree.

In 2016-2017, UCLA won four times at the Stanford Intercollegiate, the Gifford Great 8 Collegiate Match Play, the Anuenue Spring Break Classic and the Pac-12 Championships. The Bruins also had two players combine to win five individual titles. Before she turned pro, Law won the Stanford Intercollegiate in October for the third year in a row. Then, Vu turned in one of the most dominant stretches ever in college golf, winning four straight events (Bruin Wave Invitational, Anuenue, Silverado Showdown and Pac-12), a first in school history. Vu would earn WGCA and Golfweek First Team All-American honors, as well as First Team All-Pac-12 accolades, Galdiano was named a Second Team Golfweek All-American, Honorable Mention WGCA All-American and All-Pac-12 First Team and Wu was recognized on the All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention squad.

In 2015-2016, the Bruins won five stroke-play events, including the NCAA Championships, finishing as a semifinalist in the match-play portion. Among UCLA's other four victories were its own Bruin Wave Invitational. Law, the winner of the ANNIE Award, as well as the WGCA, Golfweek and Pac-12 Golfers of the Year, led the team with a 70.6 scoring average, shooting 40 shots under par, while Vu, the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year, was eight shots under par for the year with a 71.7 scoring average.

In 2014-2015, UCLA featured the Pac-12 Golfer of the Year in Law, who was also named First Team WGCA All-American and All-Pac-12, leading the conference and ranking seventh nationally with a 71.9 stroke average. She was also a two-time Pac-12 Golfer of the Month in 2014-2015, while Erynne Lee was named to the WGCA All-American team. The Bruins placed fourth at the Pac-12 Championships, and after starting slow at the NCAA Championships, rebounded to finish in 15th place. Off the course, the Bruins won the Don Shepard Award for highest team GPA at UCLA for the third straight year.

Between the 2010-2011 and 2013-2014 seasons, the Bruins won 40 percent of their tournaments, taking home 19 titles in 47 events. In 2013-2014, UCLA won four times, including five individual victories. Three of those were by Pac-12 individual champion Alison Lee, who among her many awards earned were Pac-12 Golfer and Freshman of the Year, the ANNKA award (nation's top player), Golfweek Player of the Year and WGCA Freshman of the Year. The 2011-2012 campaign saw the Bruins tie a school record with seven victories. It was another Lee, Erynne, who was named Pac-12 Freshman of the Year, in addition to NGCA FOY. UCLA also won seven tournament titles in 2008-2009 and 2003-2004.

In 2011, the Bruins won the NCAA team title for the second time under Forsyth's leadership. The entire five-player lineup of Kono, Ani Gulugian, Lee Lopez, Tiffany Lua and Glory Yang were named All-Americans.

The Bruins posted the postseason trifecta in 2004, winning the NCAA, Regional and Pac-10 Championships.

Red, White and Blue Bruins

Outside of UCLA, Forsyth has coached a pair of U.S. Women's Amateur champions in Jane Park and Maria Jo Uribe, and two other players, Joh and Brianna Do, have won three U.S. Women's Amateur Publiclinks titles. In 2010, Kono and Lua played on the victorious United States Curtis Cup Team.

In 2016, as women's golf returned to the Olympics, Uribe represented Colombia at the Rio Games, finishing in a tie for 19th.

Before Coaching

Forsyth served as the head coach at CSUN from 1996-1999, where she was named the 1998-1999 Big Sky Coach of the Year. In her three seasons, the Matadors improved their team scoring average by 31 strokes.

In 1990, the former Carrie Leary entered UCLA as a walk-on player and earned a scholarship after her first year. As a freshman she played in 11 tournaments, including the Pac-10 and NCAA Championships. She graduated with honors from UCLA in 1994 with a degree in psychology and also served as the Bruins' student assistant coach during the 1993-1994 season.

As an amateur, Forsyth competed in four U.S. Women's Amateur Public Links Championships and advanced to the quarterfinals in 1991. She also competed in three U.S. Amateur Championships and was an alternate qualifier for the 1992 and 1994 U.S. Women's Open Championships. Forsyth played on several LPGA mini-tours and competed in the 1995 LPGA Tour Qualifying School.

Forsyth enjoyed a fine junior career before coming to UCLA. She won over 30 events as a member of the Southern California Junior Golf Association, including a third-place individual finish at the 1983 Junior World Championship. She graduated from Canyon High School in 1989 and lettered on the boy's golf team for four years, earning MVP honors as a senior.

ALICIA UM HOLMES
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
15TH YEAR
UCLA, 2002

Alicia Um Holmes, voted 2014 WGCA Assistant Coach of the Year, enters her 15th season as UCLA associate women's golf coach in 2020-2021.

"Alicia is one of the best and most qualified assistant coaches in the country," said Bruin head coach Carrie Forsyth. "Her talents are many, and her attitude is outstanding. She is a vital member of our coaching staff and a caring and supportive mentor to our players. She deserves much of the credit for our program's excellence on the course, in the classroom, and in the community."

For the past several years, Um Holmes has been credited with organizing UCLA's very successful fund-raiser, the Bruin 18 Invitational, which has netted in excess of several hundred thousand dollars. In 2013, she helped organize, along with Coach Forsyth, the Pac-12 Women's Golf Championship, a resounding success according to many coaches and fans. In addition, Um Holmes and Forsyth have teamed up with Pepperdine to stage the highly-popular Bruin Wave Invitational. Finally, the two coaches have successfully hosted the UCLA Golf Camp, which has seen increasing attendance and revenue over the last decade.

In the summer of 2006, Um Holmes was credited with gaining verbal commitments from future multiple All-Americans Maria Jose Uribe and Glory Yang. Uribe won the 2007 U.S. Women's Amateur title and left UCLA with three career victories, including a pair of NCAA Regional titles. Yang advanced to the second round of the 2007 U.S. Women's Amateur Championship and won her first collegiate tournament in September of 2010. She also earned All-America and all-conference honors for the second straight year in 2009.

During her playing days, Um earned All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention accolades when she tied for 12th place at the 2002 Pac-10 Championship as a senior. She was a member of the UCLA team that won the program's first regional championship in 2002. That season, the Bruins finished 21st at the NCAA Championship. She also served as team captain for the 2001-2002 season. Um played three seasons for Forsyth and one year for Hall of Fame Coach Jackie Steinmann before graduating with a degree in economics in March 2002. She was named to the Director's Honor Roll six times.

In her UCLA career, Um made 37 starts, played 107 rounds and averaged 77.2. Her best season was her senior year when she averaged 75.7 in 32 rounds with three Top 20 finishes. She also recorded her career low round that season -- a two-under par 69 in the third round of the Stanford Invitational.

Since her graduation and prior to her appointment at UCLA, Um worked in the hospitality and golf industries as well as for an information systems company. For the 2005 calendar year, she competed on the West Coast Ladies Golf Tour, qualified to play on the Futures Tour and participated in the LPGA Qualifying School.

Um played three years at Newbury Park High School before spending her senior year at Westlake High and graduating in 1997. She won the 1996 SCGA Jr. Match Play Championship and played in the 1997 and '99 U.S. Women's Amateur Championships.

In June of 2008, Um married Steve Holmes and the couple resides in Simi Valley.

HISTORY

CHRISTY ERB

With a late, dramatic comeback, UCLA won its first NCAA Championship in women's golf in 1991 at the Ohio State University Golf Club in Columbus. The Bruins overcame a six-shot deficit on the final two holes to tie San Jose State after 72 holes. The Bruins and the Spartans began the first-ever NCAA title sudden death playoff, and on the first extra hole, UCLA's LaRee Sugg sank a 25-foot birdie putt to win the championship. Individually, Christy Erb (+3, 291) finished second overall, while Sugg (T-13) and Lisa Kiggins (T-16) also placed inside the Top 20.

The Bruins won five tournament titles during the 1990-1991 season, including the Pac-10 Championship at the Eugene Country Club. Kiggins was the individual medalist, with Debbi Koyama placing third and Sugg tying for fourth. Kiggins won three times, which is tied for the fifth most wins in a single season in UCLA history, finishing in the Top 10 eight times and the Top 20 on 11 occasions.

Kiggins was a WPGA First Team All-American, while Sugg and Koyama were Second Team All-Americans. The trio were also named First Team All-Pac-10, with Elizabeth Bowman earning Second Team accolades. Erb, who also picked up an individual title, was a Honda Sport Award nominee. Head coach Jackie Tobian-Steinmann was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year for the second year in a row.

SUSIE MATHEWS

Not even rain could stop the Bruins from winning the 2004 NCAA Championship at the Grand National Golf Course in Auburn, Ala., concluding the tournament at 4-under (1,148) to win by three shots over Oklahoma State. Three UCLA golfers, Susie Mathews (3rd, -8), Charlotte Mayorkas (4th, -4) and Gina Umeck (T-16), finished inside the Top 20.

UCLA not only won the NCAA title, but it also claimed Pac-10 and NCAA Regional Championships. Mayorkas was the medalist at Pac-10s, leading a 1-2 finish with Hannah Jun, who won the Regional title with a score of 7-under, as Mayorkas tied for third. All told, the Bruins won seven times as a team in 2003-2004, tying the school single-season record for victories, finishing in the Top 5 12 times.

Mayorkas had a historic season, winning four times with 10 Top 10 finishes, both of which are tied for the school's single-season record. Mayorkas was the Pac-10 Golfer of the Year, a WPGA First Team All-American and one of two Bruins to be named a Honda Sport Award nominee along with Susie Mathews, who was also a First Team All-American. Jun, the Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year, was a Second Team All-American, while Krystal Shearer was Honorable Mention All-American. Carrie Forsyth was named the WPGA National and Regional Coach of the Year, as well as Pac-10 COY.

TIFFANY LUA

Twenty years after their first National Championship and seven years after their second, the Bruins claimed their third NCAA title in 2011 at the Traditions Club in Bryan, Texas. UCLA, which recorded six tournament victories and 10 Top 5 finishes during the season, won by four strokes over Purdue. Tiffany Lua was the top Bruin, tying for fourth at 1-under 287.

Lua was also the top Bruin at the Pac-10 Championship, tying for first place before eventually losing medalist honors in a playoff. Stephanie Kono added a T-1 showing at the Notre Dame Regional, one of two UCLA golfers to finish in the Top 10 (Ani Gulugian, T-8). In addition to Kono's victory, Lua won at the Landfall Tradition, while Lee Lopez was first at the Bruin Wave Invitational.

Kono, who recorded 15 under-par rounds on the year, was a First Team WPGA All-American. Lopez and Lua were both named Second Team WPGA All-American, Glory Yang was Honorable Mention WPGA All-American and Gulugian was Honorable Mention Golfweek All-American. All five All-Americans were also named to the All-Pac-10 teams (First Team - Kono, Lopez and Lua; Second Team - Gulugian and Yang). Head coach Carrie Forsyth earned Pac-10 Conference Coach of the Year honors.
