IT'S WORTH NOTING...

~ Villanova raced out to a 10-0 lead in its season opener against Mount St. Mary's and never looked back as it went on to post a 91-51 triumph over the 2021 NEC representative in the NCAA Tournament. The win was the 18th straight on opening night for the Wildcats and improved Jay Wright's record in season-openers to 20-1.

~ Junior guard Justin Moore notched a new career high against the Mountaineers, with 27 points on 9-of-15 shooting from the field. In addition, the preseason second team All-BIG EAST selection contributed seven assists, two steals and zero turnovers.

~ The last time Collin Gillespie played under the bright lights of a regular season game at Finneran Pavilion on March 3, he suffered a season-ending left knee MCL injury that required surgery. His return to regular season action came off seamlessly as he delivered a 13-points, five assists, two steals and zero turnovers in 30:44 minutes.

~ Head Coach Jay Wright now has 613 career victories, including 491 at Villanova. The 2021 inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame is the Wildcats' all-time leader in program victories.

~ Senior forward Brandon Slater was anointed a starter in the preseason and he played a major role in Tuesday night's win. The native of Centreville, Va., connected on 5-of-7 attempts from beyond the 3-point arc, to finish with a career high 17 points. As a unit, Villanova drained 16-of-30 from deep (.535) against the Mountaineers.

~ The other new addition to the Villanova starting lineup is 6-7 forward Eric Dixon. The redshirt sophomore contributed seven points and two rebounds across 22:41 in the opening night victory.

~ This marks Villanova's second all-time visit to UCLA and its first since Jan. 13, 2001. The Bruins prevailed 93-65. The first meeting between the two teams came in the 1971 NCAA Final, won by UCLA 68-62 in Houston.

~ Villanova next sees action on Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. when it host Howard University at Finneran Pavilion (FS1 and VU Radio Network)

Back to a Full Finn

Career highs in points from junior Justin Moore (27) and Brandon Slater (17) helped power Villanova to a 91-51 victory over Mount St. Mary's in the regular season opener for both teams Tuesday at Finneran Pavilion.

The Wildcats also forced 18 turnovers which resulted in a 27-5 advantage in points off turnovers.

"We played pretty well," stated Villanova head coach Jay Wright. "They're a team that was in the NCAA Tournament last year with a lot of veteran players. They do a really good job. We have respect for them. We thought we played well. That was a good start for us."

The Wildcats missed their first shot but converted their next four and raced out to an early 10-0 lead as Moore scored six of those points. Part of that surge was fueled by a defense that began the season in top form, employing a ¾ court trap to help force four turnovers by the Mount.

"I thought Justin did a great job," stated Wright. "In the second half they adjusted on him and he still found people while still staying aggressive. That's been part of his learning process. He had a lot of games last year where he had great streaks and then because he's such an unselfish player, he would think 'I'm on a streak, now I have to get everyone else involved. We've been trying to teach him to stay aggressive even though you want to get everyone else involved. If it's there you've got to take it."

Villanova pushed its advantage to 17-4 before Mount St. Mary's began to get its offense going. The Mount used a 9-5 mini-run midway through the period to shave its deficit to 22-13 as the game dipped below the nine-minute mark.

However, Jermaine Samuels led the Wildcats on a 23-8 burst over those final minutes of the first period to give Villanova a 45-21 lead at intermission.

"We started well defensively," Wright said. "We want to do that every game but it just doesn't work that way. Sometimes the other team has a lot to do with that. And sometimes we don't start as aggressively as we would like defensively. I thought we did a good job of that today."

"We trusted in each other," added Moore. "We weren't looking for me specifically. We were just trying to come out, play together and set the tone defensively. That helped us get into our offense."

In the first half the Wildcats drained eight-of-18 from beyond the 3-point arc (.444) thanks to Moore (four), Brandon Slater (two) and one each from Collin Gillespie and Samuels. Moore (17 points) and Samuels (13) combined for 30 of those 45 first half points.

Just as vital was a defensive effort that limited the Mount to 9-of-23 shooting (.391) and forced nine turnovers. Villanova held a 16-3 advantage in points scored off of turnovers in the first 20 minutes.

Slater, who finished with a career best five 3-pointers to go with those 17 points, helped Villanova add to its lead over the final 20 minutes. Wright leaned on a 10-deep bench, including the college debuts of Jordan Longino and Nnanna Njoku, to help bolster the cushion.

"I thought the ability to use our depth kept us strong in the second half," stated Wright. "It helped us keep our defensive intensity up. That's something that has affected us in the past when we didn't have the depth. We would play hard for a while and we would lose our defensive intensity because we were a little fatigued. We were able to keep fresh bodies out there and I think it really helped."

A Daunting Slate

In 2021-22 Villanova encounters a pre-BIG EAST slate that may be its most rugged lineup of opponents in recent memory.

"I think it's the toughest since we've been here," stated Villanova head coach Jay Wright.

A look to the left column of this page where the preseason rankings of the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Top 25 polls are listed, reinforce the point.

In November alone, Villanova will meet no fewer than three consensus Top 20 squads: at No. 2/2 UCLA, vs. No. 18/17 Tennessee at the Hall of Fame Classic on Nov. 20, and either No. 19/20 North Carolina or No. 7/7 Purdue in the Hall of Fame Classic second game on Nov. 21 at Mohegan Sun Arena.

Next month, Villanova visits No. 8 Baylor on Dec. 12 and meets Syracuse (receiving votes in both polls) in the Jimmy V Classic on Dec. 7 at Madison Square Garden.

Of those five games, none will be played on a Villanova home court. The Wildcats will also compete in the annual series of local rivalries known as the Philadelphia Big Five. VU is at La Salle (Nov. 28) and Penn (Dec. 1) before hosting Saint Joseph's (Dec. 4) and Temple (Dec. 29).

"When Collin and Jermaine came back, we decided that we owed it to them to put the most challenging schedule we could together," noted Wright. "This will definitely be a great test."

Nagging Pains

If the close to the 2020-21 campaign dealt the Wildcats a substantial injury blow with the Gillespie knee injury on March 3, the runup to the 2021-22 has had its own share of nettlesome health setbacks.

The tough news began with graduate student Dhamir Cosby-Roundtree. Cosby-Roundtree, who missed all of 2020-21 due to recurring tibia issues, will not play in 2021-22 either as the leg injuries continue to bother him.

Cosby-Roundtree does remain on the official roster though he will not be in uniform this season.

"We're excited that Dhamir is going to remain a valued contributor to our program this season while pursuing his master's degree," said Wright.

Cosby-Roundtree has appeared in 105 career games for the Wildcats, starting 17 games. As a sophomore in 2018-19 he averaged 5.1 points and 5.8 rebounds per outing. He underwent surgery on his right shin at the conclusion of the 2019-20 season and then underwent another procedure on his left tibia in December 2020. Cosby-Roundtree sat out the 2020-21 season due to the injuries.

A few days after that announcement on Sept. 29 came news that junior Bryan Antoine, who stepped forward in a big way after Gillespie's injury, would be sidelined for 6-8 weeks by a patella injury to his right knee.

"The injury is a slight patella tendon issue that does not require surgery," stated Wright. "Bryan continues to have an amazing attitude and we're proud of his resilience."

There were other offseason setbacks too.

Guard Jordan Longino missed 10 days or practice in early October. Fellow freshman Nnanna Njoku missed both of Villanova's closed scrimmages vs. Rutgers and Duke due to a concussion. A third rookie, guard Angelo Brizzi, missed a chunk of time due to illness in late September.

Notes: The first meeting between the programs came on Nov. 21, 1986, when the Wildcats knocked off the Bison 71-61 in the opening round of the NIT Season Tipoff at the Pavilion .. In 1998-99, Nova defeated Howard at the Pavilion in post-Christmas clash. That Villanova team would go on to post a 21-11 overall record and reach the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Raveling Honored by USBWA

Villanova alumnus George Raveling, a member of the class of 1960, received the 2021 Dean Smith Award from the United States Basketball Writers Association on Oct. 25.

Villanova's Jay Wright presented the honor to Raveling.

"I'm from Washington, D.C.," Raveling said, "but I tell people I'm from Philadelphia. That's how much Philadelphia, the Big Five and Villanova mean to me."

Main Man

Graduate student Jermaine Samuels picked up right where he left off at the conclusion of 2020-21 on Tuesday night, connecting on 7-of-8 field goal attempts (17 points) to go with six rebounds in 24:56 of action in the win over Mount St. Mary's.

The native of Franklin, Mass., is in his fifth season with the Wildcats after electing to utilize the NCAA's year of additional eligibility in the aftermath of COVID-19. In 116 career games, the 6-7 Samuels has scored 892 points, an average of 7.7 points per game.

NEWS AND NOTES

Highly Rated Recruits

Villanova has announced the signing of a trio of prep standouts to national letters of intent. Guards Mark Armstrong (South Orange, N.J.) and Brendan Hausen (Amarillo, Tex.) along with forward Cam Whitmore (Severn, Md.) are set to join the Wildcats in the fall of 2022.

"We're excited to welcome Mark, Brendan and Cam to the Villanova family," stated Wildcats' head coach Jay Wright.

Armstrong, 6-2, is an elite guard from St. Peter's (N.J.) Prep who made a verbal pledge to Villanova in April 2021. In a 2020-21 campaign limited to 11 games due to COVID-19, Armstrong averaged 14.1 points per game and moved past the 1,000 point plateau in January. His is listed at No. 39 in the Class of 2022 by 247sports.com.

"Mark is part of a wonderful family that we're happy to welcome to Villanova," stated Wright. "As a consummate point guard, Mark really understands how to run a team. He makes everyone on the team around him better. We believe he has what it takes to become a great Villanova guard."

Hausen, 6-4, is best known for his shooting accuracy. The Texan is listed at No. 95 in the Class of 2022 by 247sports.com after a strong junior season. As a junior he averaged 17.6 points per game, which included 90 3-pointers. He is Amarillo High School's all-time leading scorer and gave his verbal commitment to Villanova in September.

"Brendan is a pure shooter, tough competitor, and proven winner," stated Wright. "As we got to know Brendan and his great family through the recruiting process, we saw a young man who brings all the qualities we value in a Villanova Basketball player. We're fired up to have Brendan at Villanova."

Whitmore, 6-6, attends Archbishop Spalding High School in Maryland, the alma mater of former Wildcat Derrick Snowden (2000-04). This forward checks in at No. 20 in the 247sports.com rankings of the class of 2022 after earning Baltimore Catholic League Player of the Year honors in 2020-21. He averaged 22.0 points and 11.7 rebounds per contest as a junior and committed to the Wildcats in September.

"Cam comes from a wonderful family that we have enjoyed getting to know," Wright stated. "Cam really fits Villanova. On the court, he has the skills and talent to become a complete player who does everything well. We're extremely excited to welcome Cam to the Villanova Basketball Family."

In 20 seasons as Villanova's William B. Finneran Endowed Head Coach, Jay Wright has guided the Wildcats to new heights, including NCAA national championships in 2016 and 2018. The Bucknell University graduate (1983) was enshrined on Sept. 11, 2021 in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Villanova has posted 233 victories in the past eight seasons, an average of 29.1 per year. In 2020-21 the Wildcats overcame three COVID pauses and a season-ending knee injury to co-BIG EAST Player of the Year Collin Gillespie to post an 18-7 overall record. Along the way, the Wildcats captured their seventh BIG EAST regular season crown since 2013 and were ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 every week of the '20-21 campaign.

In January 2020, Wright was named the Associated Press men's college basketball Coach of the Decade.

In 2017-18, the Wildcats amassed a school record 36 victories and secured Villanova's third NCAA national championship with a 79-62 victory over Michigan on April 2, 2018. Jalen Brunson became Villanova's first consensus National Player of the Year in the modern era, joining Paul Arizin as the only VU players to earn that distinction. In 2016, Villanova defeated North Carolina 77-74 when Kris Jenkins drained a 3-pointer at the buzzer to cap a 35-5 campaign with an NCAA national title.

Villanova products have made their mark in the NBA in the past two decades, including six-time NBA All-Star Kyle Lowry. Saddiq Bey became the most recent first round NBA Draft choice as the 19th overall selection in the 2020 Draft on his way to the Detroit Pistons. On the coaching side, former Wildcats staff members Joe Jones (Boston University), Baker Dunleavy (Quinnipiac), Ashley Howard (La Salle), and Kyle Neptune (Fordham) are now Division I head coaches.
