FOR STARTERS

#5/4 UCLA (3-1) heads to Las Vegas, Nev., for two games in the South Point Thanksgiving Shootout at the South Point Hotel and Casino. The Bruins will face Kansas State (4-0) on Friday, Nov. 24 at 1:15 p.m. and will then take on Creighton (3-1) on Saturday, Nov. 25 at 3:30 p.m. Both games will be streamed live and you can listen to Dave Marcus call all of the exciting action on uclabruins.com.

SERIES HISTORY VS. KANSAS STATE

This is the fourth overall meeting between Kansas State and UCLA with the Bruins winning all three previous games. It is the first meeting between the two teams since UCLA beat the Wildcats in Los Angeles, 83-70 on Dec. 19, 1980. The Bruins won a tight affair, 64-60, in Manhattan, Kan., on Feb. 2, 1979 and opened the series with a 123-62 shellacking of K-State at UCLA on Jan. 23, 1978.

SERIES HISTORY VS. CREIGHTON

This is the first-ever meeting between Creighton and UCLA. However, the Bruins have a little familiarity with teams out of the Big East Conference, sporting an overall record of 5-1 against Big East teams. That record includes going 2-0 vs. St. John's, 2-0 vs. DePaul and 1-1 vs. Seton Hall.

SCORING RECORDS FALL

UCLA scored a school-record 129 points in its 60-point (129-69) season-opening home win over San José State on Nov. 10. The Bruins snapped a record that was set 47 years ago and then equalled 42 years ago, bettering the previous mark of 125 set in 1971 (against Utah State) and 1976 (against Oregon State). Freshman guard Kayla Owens made a 3-pointer to put UCLA over the 125-point mark with 1:21 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Bruins opened with 38 points in the first quarter (38-26), which was the most points scored by UCLA since the NCAA switched to quarters two full seasons ago (2015-16). The Bruins also scored 35 in the third quarter, which is the second-most points scored in a single quarter.

BIG MACS ON CAMPUS

UCLA's roster features a school-record five McDonald's All-Americans in 2017-18 as freshman forward Michaela Onyenwere (2017) joins redshirt freshman guard Lindsey Corsaro (2016), junior forward Ashley Hearn (2015), redshirt junior forward Lajahna Drummer (2014) and senior point guard Jordin Canada (2014) as current Bruins that have played in the McDonald's All-American Game.

CANADA NAMED PAC-12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

In a vote by the Pac-12 media, UCLA senior point guard Jordin Canada (Los Angeles, Calif.) was named the Pac-12 Player of the Week as announced by the league office on Nov. 20. In the Bruins' only game of the week, she recorded her second double-double of the year in leading UCLA to an 82-68 win over No. 3 Baylor. She scored 20 points and added 13 assists while shooting 50 percent from three-point range (3-for-6) against the Bears. The 13 assists were tied for the 8th-most in UCLA history. The win was UCLA's 32nd-straight home victory (second longest in the country to UConn) and the 10th-straight home win over a ranked team. It also marked UCLA's first win over a top-three opponent since beating No. 2 Stanford on Jan. 4, 2008. This marks the 55th all-time selection for UCLA and second-career weekly honor for Canada.

HOME SWEET HOME

UCLA had its 32-game home winning streak (second longest in the nation) snapped by No. 1 UConn on Nov. 21 in the 78-60 loss to the Huskies. The loss to the Huskies also snapped a nine-game home winning streak over ranked teams. The winning streak finished as the second-longest in UCLA history, falling short of the record-setting 36 in a row from 1974-79. The Bruins have won 31 straight at home against unranked teams. The last loss at home to an unranked team was to California, 72-57, on Jan. 25, 2015. Additionally, the Bruins have won 19 straight home Pac-12 Conference games, a UCLA record. The Bruins have gone 34-2 at home the last three seasons. The only two losses at home are to No. 1 UConn (78-60 on Nov. 21, 2017) and to No. 2 South Carolina (68-65 on Nov. 22, 2015).

BRUINS IN BULK

The bulk of UCLA's production from last year returns as four starters are back for the 2017-18 season in senior point guard Jordin Canada, senior guard Kelli Hayes, junior guard Kennedy Burke and senior forward Monique Billings. In all, UCLA returns 82% of its blocks from last year, 79% of assists, 74% of steals, 73% of scoring and 69% of rebounding.

PERSONNEL UPDATE

The Bruins regained the services of redshirt junior forward Lajahna Drummer, redshirt guard Chrissy Baird, redshirt freshman Lindsey Corsaro and sophomore forward Ally Rosenblum for the 2017-18 season. The quartet missed most of last year due to undisclosed injuries. Drummer and Corsaro received medical hardship waivers. All but Baird have already played this season. But Corsaro left the Presbyterian College game (Nov. 12) with an undisclosed injury and does not have a specified return date. Neither does Baird. Freshman guard Michaela Onyenwere broke her nose in practice before the upset win over No. 3 Baylor (Nov. 18) but played against the Lady Bears and hasn't missed a game. She is playing with a protective mask. Junior forward Ashley Hearn has left the team for personal reasons, but is expected to return around the time Pac-12 play begins. Junior guard Japreece Dean (transfer from Texas Tech) is expected to be cleared to play at Seton Hall on Dec. 17. She is currently satisfying the NCAA's "one academic year of residence" for four-year transfers. Dominique Williams would have been a senior point guard this season but medically retired from the sport in the off-season and is currently an undergraduate assistant coach for the Bruins.

WELCOME TO PAULEY PAVILION

The complete renovation of UCLA's historic arena, Pauley Pavilion, took 33 months (from 2010-12) and cost just under $136 million. New Pauley Pavilion seats 13,800 fans – 1,000 more than the “old” Pauley Pavilion. Other key features of the renovated facility include a custom-designed video board, additional LED hustle boards, major increases in restrooms and a wider variety of concession stands. Here are a few key features, at a glance:

- New Pauley Pavilion houses a 16-foot by 12-foot, LED, High Definition Daktronics Video board perched above center court with all four sides visible to fans.
- In addition, there are LED hustle boards in each of the corners that track player statistics, as well as an LED ribbon board encircling the top of the arena.
- New Pauley Pavilion now has 154% more restrooms throughout the building, including on the event level.
- The pavilion's North side hosts a grand lobby that highlights the theme “Champions Made Here” as well as the multi-purpose Pavilion Club for game-day hospitality.
- Additional dining options include California Pizza Kitchen, Subway, Jersey Mike's, Jamba Juice, Pavilion Market, Joe Brewin Coffee Stand, the outdoor South Plaza and traditional fare.
- Not only does New Pauley Pavilion have a wider variety of concession stands, the arena now features a UCLA team store in the Northeast corner, operated by ASUCLA.
- New Pauley Pavilion includes nearly 100 monitors throughout the building, many of which are used to show the game telecast. Other monitors can be used as menu boards at numerous concession points.
- The renovation established 70,000 additional square feet of usable space than existed in the building's previous configuration. Additions include two state-of-the-art locker rooms with cherry wood lockers and adjacent lounge areas, a 24-seat film room, weight room and sports medicine room.
- Teams that called Pauley Pavilion home prior to the renovation (m/w basketball, m/w volleyball, and gymnastics) will continue to compete there. In addition, the 2013 NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships and NCAA Men's Volleyball Championships took place in Pauley.

THE MO OSTIN BASKETBALL CENTER

In 2014, UCLA Athletics announced its efforts to raise private funds for a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility. Named after legendary music industry executive and philanthropist Morris “Mo” Ostin, the Mo Ostin Basketball Center is currently being constructed near Pauley Pavilion at the south end of the Los Angeles Tennis Center and officially opened on Oct. 26, 2017, less than three-and-a-half years after the campaign's launch.

The new The Mo Ostin Basketball Center is a comprehensive basketball practice facility located near Pauley Pavilion. Highlights of the new building design include:

- State-Of-The-Art basketball practice facility dedicated to honoring current and former UCLA Basketball student-athletes
- Practice gyms for both men's and women's programs
- Locker rooms for both men's and women's basketball programs
- Men's and women's basketball training area, weight room and film room
- Exclusive use for both men's and women's basketball programs and their student-athletes

HEAD COACH CORI CLOSE

Cori Close was named head women's basketball coach at UCLA on April 21, 2011, and is currently 126-79 (.615) overall. She enters her seventh season at the helm of the Bruins' program in 2017-18. She posted her 100th victory in a 95-47 win over Southern (Nov. 18). Close was named the 2016 United States Marine Corps/WBCA NCAA Division I Region 5 Co-Coach of the Year (with Arizona State's Charli Turner Thorne).

Close guided the Bruins to a 25-9 overall record in 2016-17, including a fourth-place finish in the Pac-12 with a 13-5 record (the No. 1 conference in the country in RPI for the second straight season). She also guided the Bruins to their first back-to-back Sweet Sixteen appearances in program history.

In 2015-16, Close led the Bruins to a 26-9 overall record and a third-place finish in the Pac-12 with a 14-4 record and guided the Bruins to the Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 1999.

She led the Bruins to their first WNIT Championship in school history in UCLA's first-ever appearance in the postseason tournament with a 62-60 win over West Virginia in Charleston, W.Va., on April 4, 2015. It marked UCLA's first postseason title of any kind since winning the Pac-10 Tournament in 2006.

This is the first head coaching assignment for Close, who has worked as associate head coach or assistant on teams that have advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 16 seasons, won at least 20 games in 16 of the previous 18 seasons and won or shared a total of 11 conference championships.

Close, who served on the Bruin coaching staff in 1994 and 1995, returns to Westwood after spending seven seasons as associate head coach at Florida State University. Considered one of the top offensive minds in the game, Close helped guide the Seminoles into a nationally-recognized program in her time. FSU ranked among the nation's top 30 teams in scoring, field goal percentage and three-point field goal percentage her last two seasons.

Florida State advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of coach Close's seasons in Tallahassee and won at least 20 games in all but one. Point guard play and offensive efficiency were strong points under Close's direction. FSU shot at least .418 from the field in each of the last seven seasons and hit over 37% of its three-point attempts the last two seasons, including a school-record 212 made three-point shots in 2010.

In addition to her on-court tasks, Close was also instrumental in recruiting (she coached four first-team All-ACC Freshman team selections and five players selected in the WNBA draft while at FSU) while also working with the school's marketing department in their efforts to promote the program.

In 2010-11, Florida State posted a 24-8 record, finished third in the Atlantic Coast Conference with an 11-3 mark, was ranked No. 20 in the final ESPN/USA Today poll and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after matching the program's best tournament seed ever at No. 3. The 2010 FSU squad captured a share of the ACC regular season championship, set a school record with 29 wins and advanced to the Elite 8 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. Jacinta Monroe was selected in the first round of the WNBA draft, No. 6 overall, the highest of any FSU player.

The 2009 Seminole squad also won a share of the conference regular season crown and earned the highest seed into the NCAA Tournament in school history, at the time, at No. 3. The 2008 FSU team earned its highest regular season ranking ever in the polls to that point in time, at No. 18. In 2007, Florida State advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history and earned its highest ranking to that point, at No. 19, in the season's final national poll. In Close's initial season in Tallahassee, FSU posted its first 20-win campaign in 14 seasons.

Close joined the FSU staff after serving nine seasons (1995-2004), the last three as associate head coach, at her alma mater, UC Santa Barbara, class of 1993. Some of her duties included overseeing skill development of the players, on-court offensive coaching, recruiting and scheduling.

As UCSB's player development coordinator, Close's work led to such achievements as a 98 percent graduation rate, seven WNBA players, 15 professional players overseas, 12 Big West Conference MVPs, nine district All-Americans and one second-team All-American. Close was responsible for all offensive tactics, offensive instruction and game-time decisions which helped result in eight NCAA appearances, including three second round games and a trip to the Sweet 16, one NIT consolation championship and 10 Big West Conference regular season or tournament championships. The Gauchos landed three top-10 ranked recruiting classes during her tenure.

Close was also instrumental in fostering support and increasing revenue streams for the UCSB basketball program. She developed and implemented a comprehensive marketing plan, designed fundraising initiatives, coordinated speaking, community service and radio/television appearances and created a Fastbreakers booster program. Her efforts were rewarded in the women's hoops program becoming the largest revenue producer in the department of athletics.

Close began her collegiate coaching career at UCLA while serving in the role of the restricted earnings coach on the first staff of then-new head coach Kathy Olivier in the 1994 and 1995 seasons. She earned her Master's Degree in educational administration during her time at the University.

As a player, Close was a four-year starting point guard at UC Santa Barbara and captained the 1992 and 1993 teams which each advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. A native of Milpitas, CA, she was a 1993 first-team all-Big West selection and the MVP of the 1993 Conference Tournament. Close was the first player in school history to record more than 1,000 points and 500 assists for a career and ranked among the top 10 in seven Gaucho statistical categories. She averaged a school-record 8.3 assists per game in 1993 which was among the top 10 marks in the nation that season. On April 30, 2005, Close was inducted into the UC Santa Barbara Athletics Hall of Fame.
