STELLA SAMPRAS WEBSTER

Head Coach
25th Season
UCLA '91

Head coach Stella Sampras Webster enters her 25th season at the helm of the UCLA women's tennis program in 2020-21, compiling an impressive overall record of 453-166 (.732). Sampras Webster is only the third head coach in UCLA women's tennis history, following legendary coaches Bill Zaima (1972-76, 1986-96) and Gayle Godwin (1977-86). The second-longest-tenured active coach at UCLA, she has led the women's tennis program to both of its NCAA team championships.

Sampras Webster and the Bruins captured the 2014 NCAA title in Athens, Georgia with a thrilling 4-3 victory over North Carolina in the final. It marked the 111th NCAA championship for UCLA, as the Bruins finished the 2014 campaign with a 27-2 overall record, which included a 9-1 mark in the highly-competitive Pac-12 Conference. UCLA did not surrender the doubles point in any match that year, going a perfect 29-0 in doubles play. The 2014 season marked the second NCAA championship for Sampras Webster, as she also led UCLA to the title in 2008. UCLA's 2008 title was the first NCAA championship for the program, following up on the team's 1981 AIAW national crown.

The 2012 ITA National Coach of the Year, Stella Sampras Webster is also responsible for helping the Bruins to their first Pac-10 championship in 2008, as UCLA ended the conference season with a 7-1 record that year. For her efforts, she was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year at the end of the season.

Few college coaches can match Sampras Webster's ability to continually put their teams in the title hunt year in and year out. Prior to her first title in 2008, she also had a pair of second-place finishes at the NCAAs in 2004 and 2007. In all, Sampras Webster's teams have finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships in 20 of her 23 completed seasons in Westwood. UCLA has also finished in the top five nationally on 14 occasions (1997, 2000, 2002-04, 2007, 2008, 2011-15, 2018, 2019). The 2020 Bruins, who had their season cut short by the coronavirus pandemic, held a record of 12-1 for the best start in program history since the 2014 NCAA champions. They also matched the 2014 team in reaching the final round of the ITA National Team Indoor Championship.

The 2000 ITA West Region Coach of the Year, Sampras Webster has recruited and coached some of the top players in collegiate tennis. Under her tutelage, a total of 32 players have achieved All-America status. Two of the most notable during Sampras Webster's tenure are Riza Zalameda and Robin Anderson. Zalameda was a four-time All-American and the Most Outstanding Player at the 2008 NCAA Championships. Anderson, who like Zalameda was named the Most Outstanding Player at the NCAAs in 2014, also achieved All-America status each of her four years.

Three Sampras Webster-coached duos have won NCAA doubles championships, including Zalameda and partner Tracy Lin in 2008. Seeded first, Zalameda and Lin did not lose a set in the tournament. Daniela Bercek and Lauren Fisher captured the initial title, overcoming an unseeded starting position in 2004. Most recently, Gabby Andrews and Ayan Broomfield accomplished the feat in 2019. The fifth-seeded pair won three third-set, 10-point tiebreakers en route to the top spot. Elysia Bolton and Jada Hart finished atop the Oracle/ITA doubles rankings in 2020, but were unable to compete for the championship due to the shortened season.

A 1991 graduate of UCLA with a degree in Psychology, Sampras Webster enjoyed a successful four-year career as a Bruin player from 1987-91 and competed on the pro circuit for a season prior to joining Zaima's staff. An NCAA doubles champion as a freshman in 1988 with Allyson Cooper, Sampras Webster was also the NCAA doubles runner-up as a senior in 1991 with Kimberly Po. A four-time All-American, Sampras Webster was only the second player in UCLA history to obtain this status. She also won the 1989 and 1991 Pac-10 doubles championship and the 1990 Rolex Regional doubles title. Sampras Webster completed her UCLA career ranked No. 3 nationally in doubles and No. 42 in singles. Team accomplishments were most important to Sampras Webster, who helped lead the Bruins to four straight NCAA top-three finishes.

As a professional, Sampras Webster's highest international singles ranking was No. 248, and her best in doubles was No. 142. Her professional highlights include competing in both singles and doubles at the U.S. Open and Lipton Championships. She advanced to the U.S. Open second round in doubles and also competed in doubles at Wimbledon. She also won three satellite tournament titles and competed in Team Tennis for the Wichita Advantage in 1992.

Lauded for her "achievements and contributions to the game of tennis across Southern California," Sampras Webster was inducted into the Southern California Tennis Association Hall of Fame in 2017. Then, on Oct. 5, 2018, she became just the fourth active head coach to gain entry into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame.

Born in Potomac, Md., Sampras Webster moved to the Los Angeles area as a child and graduated from Palos Verdes High School. A top-three player in Southern California and among the top 10 in the country as a junior, Sampras Webster claimed the CIF doubles title as a freshman and the singles title as a senior in 1987. She capped her high school career by being named her school's Athlete of the Year.

The second-oldest of four children of Sam and Georgia Sampras, Stella considers the support of her entire family most significant. Younger brother Pete demonstrated his level of support for Stella and the Bruin program when he personally endowed a scholarship and assisted with the important fund-raising effort in Stella's first fall at the helm. Pete won a record 14 Grand Slam singles titles during his playing days, including seven Wimbledon championships.

Sampras Webster and her husband, Steve, were married on January 3, 2002 in Dana Point, Calif. They are the proud parents of twin girls Sophia and Savannah.

RANCE BROWN

Associate Head Coach
24th Season

Associate head coach Rance Brown enters his 24th season on the UCLA women's tennis coaching staff in 2020-21. He served as an assistant to Bill Zaima during the 1996 season, and has been Stella Sampras Webster's top assistant for 23 seasons. The 2000 and 2012 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year, Brown was promoted to the position of associate head coach effective at the beginning of the 2008-09 season.

During Brown's tenure in Westwood, UCLA has continually been among the top teams in the nation. In addition to NCAA titles in 2008 and 2014, the Bruins have finished runner-up at the NCAA Championships four times (2004, 2007, 2012 and 2015). The Bruins have made the NCAA tournament in each of his 22 completed seasons as an assistant. The 2020 team, led by the top-ranked doubles tandem of Elysia Bolton and Jada Hart, went 12-1 and reached the final round of the ITA National Team Indoor Championship in the coronavirus-shortened season.

Brown has especially excelled in the area of recruiting, bringing in a number of highly-ranked junior players to the program over the years. He was also instrumental in the success of NCAA singles champion Keri Phebus, who became the first women's tennis player inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007. Three NCAA doubles championships have also been won during his time, with 2019 titleholders Gabby Andrews and Ayan Broomfield recently following in the footsteps of Tracy Lin/Riza Zalameda (2008) and Daniela Bercek/Lauren Fisher (2004).

Brown has been named the ITA Southwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year on five occasions (1999, 2000, 2007, 2010 and 2012). A total of 31 All-American Bruins have been named over the course of his tenure.

Brown spent the summer of 2008 as the coach of the USTA Summer Collegiate Team, traveling to professional tournaments with some of the top women's college players in the nation. He also guided USA Team's contingent of Bruins at the 2015 Summer Universiade (World University Games) in Gwangju, South Korea and the 2019 event in Naples, Italy. Brown went on to represent his home country at the 2019 Master'U BNP Paribas tournament in Grenoble, France, where he served as an assistant coach for the title-winning Americans.

In addition to his efforts with the UCLA program, Brown was among the first graduating classes of the USTA High Performance Coaches' Program. He also worked at the Riviera Country Club, heading up the club's Elite Junior Tennis Program along with professional coach Erik Kortland. Prior to his appointment at Riviera, Brown headed up one of the most successful junior tennis programs in the country, serving as Director of Tennis at the Newport Beach Marriott Hotel and Tennis Club in Orange County for more than 20 years.

Brown received his Associate of Arts degree from Golden West Junior College, where he played for two years. He helped lead the team to two conference team titles and notched one conference doubles title. He played the 1981 season at Long Beach State and competed professionally at Challenger Level tournaments before devoting his time to coaching.

GIANCARLO "GC" CAVA

Volunteer Assistant Coach
Seventh Season

Giancarlo "GC" Cava goes into his seventh season as volunteer assistant coach for UCLA women's tennis in 2020-21. Cava replaced alumna Laura Gordon in 2014 and the Bruins have advanced to or past the second round of the NCAA Championships in each completed season since.

Cava's first dual-match season came in 2015 and his appointment paid immediate dividends. Coming off its 2014 NCAA title, UCLA again reached the championship match in 2015 before falling short. Over his time on staff, the Bruins have put together a 96-35 (.733) overall record and a 38-11 (.776) conference mark. Honda Award winner Robin Anderson and Jennifer Brady each played one year under Cava, while Catherine Harrison and Kyle McPhillips are among others who have thrived under his tutelage. The combination of Gabby Andrews and Ayan Broomfield won the NCAA doubles championship in 2019 and Elysia Bolton and Jada Hart finished the coronavirus-shortened 2019-20 season atop the Oracle/ITA doubles rankings.

Immediately after his own collegiate career ended, Cava became a teaching professional at Riviera Country Club, a role that lasted until 2018—a span of 12 years. From 2008-2012, he also served as the head pro of Riviera's junior program, leading summer camps and supervising the junior program during the school year.

Cava played collegiately from 2003-06 at UC Riverside, where he manned Court 6 to the tune of three singles wins and also came out on top of four doubles decisions in his debut season. It was in the 2005-06 campaign that his tennis career took a turn. Cava assumed a role of player-coach, oftentimes guiding his teammates in singles play after participating in doubles. The Highlanders saw dramatic improvement to their team's on-court performance during Cava's time on campus, winning eight more matches in 2005-06 than they did in 2003-04.

A Southern California native, Cava is an avid CrossFit athlete and trainer.
