KNIGHTS INSIGHTS

- Bellarmine is beginning its fourth season in Division I and the Atlantic Sun Conference. The program transitioned from Division II in 2020-21. Schools that transition enter a four-year probationary period, with the most notable parameter being that they are not eligible to compete in the NCAA Tournament during the trial phase.
- This is Bellarmine's first-ever game against an opponent from the Pac-12. The Knights are in the second of six straight road contests to begin the season. They play their home games in venerable Freedom Hall, former home of Louisville.
- This is Bellarmine's fifth game against an AP-ranked opponent in the D1 era. Louisville was ranked in both 2020-21 (No. 2) and 2021-22 (No. 10), as was Ohio State (No. 21) in the latter. Most recently, the Knights opened last season at eventual national champion LSU (No. 16). The Knights are seeking their first win versus a ranked team.
- Bellarmine opened the season against another opponent from California in San Jose State. The Knights fell 81-65 on Thursday. The Knights never recovered from a second quarter in which they were outscored 19-8.

- Six-foot-6 center Gracie Merkle, the reigning ASUN Freshman of the Year and the 2023-24 ASUN Preseason Defensive Player of the Year, did not make the trip to The Golden State due to injury. San Jose State outscored Bellarmine 44-14 in the paint.
- Hayley Harrison was a big bright spot for Bellarmine in its opener. The junior guard poured in a game- and career-high 23 points while hitting 7-of-15 shots, including 3-of-8 from downtown. She tied for team-high rebounding honors with six and had two steals.
- Junior guard Hope Sivori, a transfer from Western Kentucky, scored 10 points in her Bellarmine debut. Sophomore forward Paetynn Gray, a transfer from Monroe College, also saw her first action as a Knight and grabbed five rebounds. Both of the new additions started.
- Claire Knies was a third scorer in double figures against San Jose State with 12 points. The senior guard sank all six of her free-throw attempts and also nailed a pair of 3-pointers.
- There were a whopping 66 combined free throws between BU (30 attempts) and SJSU (36 attempts). There were 59 fouls called.

COACHING AWARDS

1998 GLVC Coach of the Year
1997 GLVC Coach of the Year

HEAD COACH CHANCELLOR DUGAN

On June 22, 2012, Chancellor Dugan became the sixth head coach in Bellarmine University women's basketball history and ranks third on the program's all-time wins list.

Dugan will enter her 12th season with the Knights in 2023-24.

Under Dugan, Gracie Merkle in 2022-23 became the first Bellarmine athlete in any sport to be named ASUN Freshman of the Year. The 6-foot-6 center was a unanimous ASUN All-Freshman Team selection and was recognized as second-team ASUN All-Conference.

Bellarmine's first season in Division I and the ASUN came in 2020-21, marking a return to both that NCAA level and that conference for Dugan, who had a long stint at Florida Atlantic University prior to her arrival with the Knights. Bellarmine's inaugural season was highlighted by a four-game winning streak in ASUN play and All-Conference accolades for Tasia Jeffries.

Over eight years in Division II before Bellarmine transitioned to D1, Dugan built a record of 143-85 overall and 87-59 in the Great Lakes Valley Conference. She guided the Knights to their first-ever GLVC Tournament title in 2016, along with appearing in the conference tourney in all eight seasons. Sarah Galvin was an All-American in the 2016-17 campaign, and the Knights amassed 15 All-GLVC awards.

Bellarmine went 18-11 in 2019-20, its final season in D2. The Knights defeated archrival Southern Indiana 66-59 in the GLVC Tournament quarterfinals, marking the fourth time in five years the team captured at least one conference tourney victory.

In 2018-19, Bellarmine advanced to the GLVC Tournament finals for the second time under Dugan, notably defeating No. 15 Lewis 78-77 in the semifinals. The Knights earned a berth in the tournament after a late-season surge in which they won five of six games during a critical stretch just ahead of the postseason.

Despite a slew of injuries and an underclassmen-heavy rotation, Dugan led Bellarmine to a 16-12 overall record and 11-7 GLVC mark in 2017-18, including an 84-70 victory over No. 6 Drury that marked the Panthers' lone league loss.

In 2016-17, Dugan guided Bellarmine to a berth in the NCAA II Tournament for the second season in a row. At 22-8, the Knights completed their first back-to-back 20-win season in a dozen years. The Knights tied for second in the GLVC East and earned a first-round bye in the GLVC Tournament. Bellarmine was nationally ranked for the vast majority of the season, and Galvin earned All-America honors.

In 2015-16, Dugan's squad returned to the prominence not witnessed in the program since the 1990s, tying the program record for best win percentage in a season (85.7) after finishing 24-4. The Knights' 15-3 mark in the GLVC tied its best output among its 18-game conference seasons. Dugan guided Bellarmine to an unprecedented GLVC Tournament championship after her squad upset No. 10 Drury, 80-77, in the semifinals and claimed the title with an 89-78 victory over No. 22 Quincy in the finals. That set the stage for a Selection Sunday in which it was announced that Bellarmine earned its first NCAA II Tournament berth since 2008. The Knights entered the Big Dance ranked 20th in the nation.

Dugan made an immediate impact on the team in her first season. Inheriting a program coming off two losing seasons, she turned the Knights around in 2012-13 and led the team to a 19-11 record that included a 10-1 start to her tenure.

Dugan, a Sacred Heart Academy graduate, spent 13 seasons as head coach at Florida Atlantic before taking the helm at Bellarmine. At FAU, she led the Owls to their respective conference postseason tournament each year. In 2005-06, FAU captured the ASUN Championship title and earned the conference's automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to her stint at FAU, Dugan was head coach at GLVC rival Southern Indiana, where she coached the Screaming Eagles to four NCAA II Tournament appearances in eight seasons from 1991-99, including an appearance in the 1997 NCAA II Tournament national championship game. Dugan guided USI to a 30-2 record in 1997 that included 29 straight wins.

In 1997-98, Dugan picked up GLVC Coach of the Year honors for the second consecutive season, leading USI to another regular-season title and capturing the inaugural GLVC Tournament at Roberts Stadium in Evansville, Indiana.

Dugan's players have accumulated a combined four conference Player of the Year, one Defensive Player of the Year and two Freshman of the Year awards (GLVC, TAAC/Atlantic Sun, Sun Belt).

A four-year letter winner for Eastern Kentucky University (1978-82), Dugan was a three-year starter and finished her junior and senior seasons as the Lady Colonels' leading rebounder and second-leading scorer. She earned a bachelor of science in physical education from Eastern Kentucky and a master of arts in physical education from Morehead State University.

STEADY IMPROVEMENT

Bellarmine's nine wins last season marked its most in three years in Division I. The Knights captured five victories in 2020-21 — their first in the NCAA's highest level after rising from Division II — and followed with four in 2021-22 before making a five-win improvement last year. BU will look to make the same headway in ASUN play after notching five conference wins apiece in its first and third seasons in the league, which stand as the D1-era high.

BULK IS BACK

The Knights return 82 percent of their scoring, 82.1 percent of their rebounding, 81.4 percent of their assists, 80.1 percent of their steals and 83.7 percent of their blocks from last season. Sheniqua Coatney, who is now a graduate assistant with Bellarmine, is the biggest loss statistically after the power forward averaged 8.6 points, 5.3 rebounds and 1.6 assists last year.

FINAL OF FOUR

Bellarmine is in the final year of a four-year transitional period from Division II to Division I. The most important aspect of this probationary stage ending after this season is that the Knights will be eligible for the NCAA Tournament starting in 2024-25. Under the NCAA's much-derided current system, teams in the transitional phase are prohibited from receiving NCAA Tournament berths even, for example, if they win their conference tournament and earn the automatic bid that would normally come with it.

'MERKLE MANIA' TAKES HOLD

Gracie Merkle's 2022-23 campaign may have been the most accomplished debut season in program history. The 6-foot-6 center became the program's first player in the Division-I era to earn a conference superlative award after she was named ASUN Freshman of the Year. In addition, Merkle was a second-team All-ASUN selection while setting a new conference record with nine ASUN Freshman of the Week laurels on top of three ASUN Player of the Week notices. The product of Mt. Washington, Kentucky, led the nation in field-goal percentage (.702) while topping the ASUN in that category along with rebounding (11.0) and double-doubles (19). Merkle ranked second in the conference in blocked shots (2.3) and third in scoring (15.1).

HYPE MACHINE IS HUMMING

Not surprisingly after her awards-laden freshman campaign, Merkle has been showered with more praise leading into 2023-24. She was voted ASUN Preseason Defensive Player of the Year by the conference's coaches as well as being a unanimous Preseason All-ASUN Team selection. Merkle is the first player in program history to be acknowledged with a ASUN preseason superlative award. She's the second to be recognized on the Preseason All-ASUN Team after guard Breia Torrens in 2020-21.

BIGGER EQUALS BETTER

Bellarmine's focus on beefing up its interior heading into the 2022-23 campaign paid major dividends. After ranking last in the ASUN in rebounding margin in 2021-22 (minus-7.5), the Knights skyrocketed up to second in the league last season (plus-4.9). BU topped the conference in combined rebounding (40.1 per game) after ranking second in both offensive (12.5) and defensive rebounds (27.6). In addition, the Knights ranked third in the ASUN in blocked shots (4.55) after finishing eighth (2.75) the year prior.

INSIDE-OUT IMPACT

Last season, guard Hayley Harrison transferred to Bellarmine from UT Martin while forward Cam Browning transferred from Belmont. The duo succeeded in adding an immediate, impactful presence on the outside and the inside. A shooting guard, Harrison started 29 games and ranked second on the team in scoring (10.3) while topping the Knights in assists (2.2), total steals (36), 3-pointers made (38) and free-throw percentage (77.8). In her BU debut, Harrison drilled three of her four shots from 3-point land in scoring 19 points against would-be national champion LSU. Now a redshirt junior, she also piled up 21 points apiece against St. Bonaventure and Louisville. Last season, Browning, a power forward, suffered a season-ending injury right before ASUN play, but her positive influence on the Knights was evident in nonconference action. In 13 games, including 11 starts, the Louisville native was contributing in a variety of ways on the court, averaging 8.0 points, 7.2 rebounds, 2.3 assists and a little over one steal and one block per game. She had a 20-point, four-block outing against St. Bonaventure, a 15-point, 12-rebound effort versus Morehead State and an 11-rebound performance against Georgia State.

WELCOME ABOARD

A pair of transfers have joined Bellarmine this season. Junior guard Hope Sivori came via Western Kentucky and sophomore forward Paetynn Gray arrived after a season at Monroe College in New York. Sivori played three seasons at WKU, garnering acclaim from the outset after being named 2021 Conference USA Freshman of the Year and to the C-USA All-Freshman Team after averaging 9.6 points, 4.2 assists and 3.5 rebounds over 23 games. She played against Bellarmine that season and piled up 15 points, 11 assists and five rebounds. The Louisville native and product of Mercy Academy averaged 7.2 points and 1.6 assists as a sophomore and averaged 8.0 points while knocking down a career-high 52 3-pointers as a junior. In the latter, she helped the Lady Toppers advance to the C-USA Tournament championship game and earn a berth in the WNIT. In her season at Monroe, Gray appeared in 29 games with 20 starts and logged 20.6 minutes per game while averaging 5.6 points, 4.7 rebounds and 1.3 assists per outing. The native of Austin, Texas, blocked a team-high 36 shots and ranked third with 40 steals while her 34 3-pointers made and her 37.0-percent shooting from deep was second on the team.

BRIDGING ERAS

From a player standpoint, Ashlee Harris is Bellarmine's final link to the Division-II era. The senior guard was a freshman in 2019-20, the Knights' final season in D2. The Louisville native has missed the last two seasons due to injury but has returned for a fifth year at Bellarmine. In 2020-21, Harris appeared in 18 games and logged 22.0 minutes per contest, averaging 5.2 points. She had 14 points and five rebounds against Stetson and had a six-steal game against Western Illinois.

SEASONED SOPHOMORES

Merkle wasn't the only freshman last season to play extensive minutes. Guards Miyah Brown and Jayla Butler also saw plenty of action. Brown appeared in all 31 games with 11 starts and was fifth on the team in minutes at 23.4 per game. She ranked second on the team in total steals (35), was third in rebounding (3.5), assists (1.7) and free-throw attempts (73) and fourth in scoring (5.0). Brown scored in double figures in four games, including a season-high 18 points behind a season-best eight made free throws in nine attempts against Liberty in the regular-season finale, and had an 11-rebound game against Jacksonville. Butler appeared in all 31 games with 23 starts and logged 17.2 minutes per game, averaging 4.2 points and 2.6 rebounds. She scored season-high 14 points against Austin Peay and added 11 with season bests of nine rebounds and four steals against North Florida.

FREEDOM HALL

The 2023-24 campaign marks the fourth season in which the Bellarmine University women's and men's basketball teams will be competing in venerable Freedom Hall.

A multiyear partnership between Bellarmine and Kentucky Venues was announced in early November of 2020. The Knights squads now call Freedom Hall — one of college basketball's most storied venues — their home.

With the COVID-19 pandemic limiting seating capacity for the 2020-21 season, Bellarmine began looking for alternate venues for its home basketball games.

Bellarmino Director of Athletics Scott Wiegandt said at the time that "Freedom Hall was a natural choice as it's steeped in rich basketball tradition and is minutes from our campus."

"We then saw the obvious benefits of making Freedom Hall a more long-term home for our basketball programs," Wiegandt said. "It has long been considered one of the best places in the world to watch a basketball game and the venue gives us ample room to grow into our new D-I status."

Freedom Hall is a 18,252-seat arena. By comparison, Knights Hall, the previous home of the Bellarmine basketball teams, seats 2,196.

The basketball floor mirrors the one in Knights Hall, which remains in use as the home of Bellarmine volleyball and wrestling and as a practice space. Bellarmine also added branding throughout Freedom Hall that ensures players and fans feel at home.

Located in the Kentucky Exposition Center and operated by the Kentucky Venues, Freedom Hall completed numerous upgrades recently that enhance the fan experience, including new lighting in the concourse and arena, renovated suites, state-of-the-art display on the center-hung digital scoreboard and a cutting-edge sound system.

When the partnership was struck, Dr. Susan M. Donovan, Bellarmine's President, said the agreement underscored the commitment Bellarmine made in its strategic plan to strengthen the university's connections to the region through partnerships and collaboration, remarking that "We're pleased to partner with an institution like Kentucky Venues that the public funds and benefits from."

Freedom Hall, which opened in 1956, was the home of the University of Louisville Cardinals for more than five decades, and it has hosted the Final Four six times.

The arena also was home to the Kentucky Colonels of the American Basketball Association and was the site of Louisville legend Muhammad Ali's first professional boxing match in 1960.
