WEDNESDAY'S EXHIBITION GAME

UCLA will host Stanislaus State on Wednesday, Oct. 30, in an exhibition game before the regular-season schedule gets underway on Nov. 6. The Bruins have not faced Stanislaus State in any preseason contests in recent history. The Bruins' exhibition game, UCLA's only preseason tuneup before the regular season starts, will mark the first game under the direction of first-year UCLA head coach Mick Cronin. Following the exhibition game, UCLA will open its schedule with five consecutive home games before heading to the Maui Jim Maui Invitational from Nov. 25-27.

KEY NOTES ABOUT UCLA

- The Bruins' roster features 15 student-athletes, including 13 players who were on the team last season. Looking at last season's primary 11 rotation players, UCLA has returned eight of those student-athletes. UCLA's returning nucleus includes a pair of fifth-year seniors (Prince Ali, Alex Olesinski), junior Chris Smith, redshirt sophomores Jalen Hill and Cody Riley and sophomores Jules Bernard, Kenneth Nwuba and David Singleton. The Bruins have added incoming freshmen Jaime Jaquez Jr. and Jake Kyman, a pair of 6-foot-6 guards from the Southern California area.
- In addition to Jaquez Jr. and Kyman, the Bruins have welcomed back guard Tyger Campbell and forward Shareef O'Neal, a pair of talented young players who missed the 2018-19 season due to medical reasons. Campbell, a 5-foot-11 guard who grew up in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, tore his ACL in his left knee in October 2018. As a senior at La Lumiere School in Indiana (2017-18), Campbell averaged 15.5 points and 7.2 assists per game. O'Neal, a 6-foot-9 forward from Los Angeles, was sidelined for the entire 2018-19 season after recovering from heart surgery in December.
- UCLA's roster includes 10 freshmen and sophomores but does feature seven student-athletes who have played in at least 30 college games. Prince Ali, a 6-foot-4 senior, has played in 88 career games, making 48 starts. Ali and senior Alex Olesinski enrolled at UCLA in the summer of 2015 and have entered the season as UCLA's most experienced players (Olesinski has played in 73 games). Chris Smith, a 6-foot-9 junior who grew up in Fort Worth, Texas, has played in all 66 games for the Bruins the past two seasons, making 12 starts last season.
- Mick Cronin enters his first season as The Michael Price Family UCLA Men's Head Basketball Coach. Hired as the Bruins' head coach in April 2019, Cronin spent the previous 13 seasons as head coach at the University of Cincinnati, his alma mater. He guided Cincinnati to the NCAA Tournament the past nine seasons and helped the Bearcats capture the America Athletic Conference's regular-season title in 2014 and 2018. Cincinnati also won the AAC Tournament championship in 2018 and 2019. Cronin is entering his 17th season as a college basketball head coach.

HEADED BACK TO MAUI

The Bruins will be playing in the Maui Jim Maui Invitational this November for the sixth time. Most recently, UCLA played in the eight-team tournament in Nov. 2015, defeating UNLV in a first-round matchup before dropping consecutive games to Kansas and Wake Forest. UCLA won the tournament in 2006, with consecutive victories over Chaminade, Kentucky and Georgia Tech. This season, the Bruins will open against BYU on Monday, Nov. 25. UCLA's second game will take place against either Kansas or Chaminade, while the Bruins will conclude the tournament on Wednesday, Nov. 27.

LIMITING THE OPPOSITION

As Cincinnati's head coach, Mick Cronin led the Bearcats to at least 20 victories in each of the past nine years. He guided his 2017-18 team to an overall mark of 31-5 (highest single-game win total as a head coach). For six straight seasons (2012-13 through 2017-18), Cincinnati ranked in the top 20 in the nation in opponents' field goal percentage. In fact, Cronin's Cincinnati squad in 2017-18 ranked No. 2, nationally, in that category, having limited the opposition to a 37.4 field goal percentage. In each of the past eight seasons, Cincinnati ranked in the top 45, nationally, in total blocked shots.

MORE NUMBERS: While serving as Cincinnati's head coach, Mick Cronin's 2017-18 team ranked No. 2 in the nation in opposing field goal percentage (.374) and No. 8 in opposing 3-point field goal percentage (.309). In addition, that Bearcats' squad ranked No. 2, nationally, in fewest points allowed per game (57.5). Cincinnati's 2016-17 squad ranked No. 9, nationally, in opposing field goal percentage (.388) and was No. 8 in fewest points allowed per game (61.3).

FIFTH-YEAR SENIORS

Prince Ali enters his fifth and final season in Westwood, having played in 88 games over three seasons. He has averaged 7.5 points and 2.3 rebounds per game in his career, shooting 42.6 percent from the field and 34.1 percent from 3-point range. Ali has scored 663 career points, needing to tally 337 more points to reach the 1,000-career-point milestone. Alex Olesinski also begins his fifth and final season with the Bruins, having played in 73 games for UCLA in three previous seasons. Olesinski has averaged 2.9 points and 2.9 rebounds per game and has shot 46.7 percent from the field.

REPRESENTING THE BRUINS: Both Ali and Olesinski joined head coach Mick Cronin at the Pac-12 Conference's annual men's basketball media day in San Francisco on Tuesday, Oct. 8.

NEWS AND NOTES

• The Bruins are set to return 47.6% of their scoring production from last season. UCLA lost its top three scorers from last season's roster (Kris Wilkes 17.4 ppg, Jaylen Hands 14.2 ppg, Moses Brown 9.7 ppg), as all three student-athletes chose to pursue a professional career. UCLA will return 56.6% of its rebounding production from one year ago.

• Prince Ali, UCLA's top returning scorer from last season's team, will enter his senior campaign having scored 663 career points. Ali is one of 10 returning players in the Pac-12 to have scored at least 648 career points at the same Pac-12 program. Oregon State's Tres Tinkle stands atop that list, having registered 1,661 career points with the Beavers.

• Prince Ali ranks fifth in the Pac-12 among returning players in career 3-pointers made (all at the same Pac-12 program). Ali has made 85 career 3-point baskets, trailing Oregon's Payton Pritchard (200), USC's Jonah Mathews (178), Oregon State's Tres Tinkle (134) and Colorado's Lucas Siewert (91) on that list of returning Pac-12 players.

• Looking at UCLA's 15-man roster, 10 of the team's student-athletes either grew up in the Southern California region or attended high school in the Los Angeles area. Cody Riley (listed as Kansas City, Kan.), moved to the Los Angeles area when he was in middle school and attended Sierra Canyon High School (Chatsworth, Calif.).

• The largest single-game point total of any returning UCLA player belongs to senior Prince Ali, who registered a career-best 23 points in a home victory last season against Hawai'i (Nov. 28, 2018). The largest single-game rebound total of any returning Bruin belongs to sophomore Jalen Hill, who had 20 boards in a win against Presbyterian last year (Nov. 19, 2018).

ROLLER COASTER

Looking back at last season, the Bruins overcame deficits of 19 points (Feb. 23) and 17 points (Jan. 10) in the second half against Oregon. Back on Jan. 10, UCLA trailed by nine points in the game's final minute, tying the contest (80-80) to force overtime before winning in the extra session, 87-84. Utah overcame a 22-point deficit against UCLA on Saturday, Feb. 9. The Bruins led Utah at halftime, 49-32, and pushed their advantage to 69-47 with 12:10 remaining. Utah's rally in the final 10 minutes was capped by a deep 3-pointer at the buzzer by Parker Van Dyke, giving the Runnin' Utes a 93-92 victory.

FINISHING STRONG

Jules Bernard closed his freshman campaign by scoring in double figures in eight of UCLA's final 11 games. He had scored at least 10 points in just two of the Bruins' first 22 contests. The 6-foot-6 guard finished his freshman year having averaged 7.6 points and 3.1 rebounds per game (33 games). In the team's final 11 games, Bernard averaged 11.5 points per game and shot 56.0 percent from the field (42-for-75). In addition, he shot 41.7 percent from 3-point territory in the team's final 11 games. Bernard scored a season-high 20 points in the Bruins' overtime victory against Oregon on Saturday, Feb. 23.

STANDING TALL

The Bruins enter their 2019-20 season with six student-athletes who stand at 6-foot-9 or taller. Senior Alex Olesinski and sophomore Jalen Hill lead that group, standing at approximately 6-foot-10. UCLA has four players who are 6-foot-9, including junior Chris Smith, sophomores Cody Riley and Kenneth Nwuba and freshman Shareef O'Neal. Last season, the Bruins had eight players who measured at least 6-foot-8 in height.

STREAKING

UCLA has made at least one 3-pointer played in its last 655 games. That 3-point streak began after the Bruins went 0-for-14 from 3-point territory in a 78-63 loss at No. 2-ranked Stanford on Feb. 3, 2000 (Maples Pavilion). UCLA has made at least three 3-pointers in 202 of 207 games since the start of the 2013-14 season. The Bruins made a school single-game-record 19 three-pointers (on 31 attempts) at Colorado on Jan. 12, 2017 (UCLA won that game, 104-89).

LOOKING AHEAD

UCLA is set to open its 101st season of men's basketball against Long Beach State on Wednesday, Nov. 6. The Bruins have compiled an all-time record of 16-1 against Long Beach State. The two schools faced off last season, with UCLA securing a 91-80 victory in Pauley Pavilion in the Bruins' second game of the year (in Pauley Pavilion). The Bruins led at halftime, 45-41, as then-freshman Moses Brown finished his second collegiate game with 17 points and 10 rebounds. UCLA and Long Beach State have played each other in five of the previous seven seasons, with the Bruins winning all five contests.

DOUBLE-FIGURE REBOUNDS

Four players on the Bruins' roster have had at least one career game with 10 or more rebounds (Jalen Hill, Cody Riley, Alex Olesinski and Chris Smith). In addition, Prince Ali had a career-best nine rebounds in a game versus Utah on Jan. 11, 2018. Hill leads the group with five games of at least 10 rebounds, including a career-best 20 boards versus Presbyterian on Nov. 19, 2018. Riley has twice registered at least 10 rebounds, while Olesinski and Smith have accomplished that feat in one game (Olesinski and Smith have each registered career highs of 10 rebounds).

LOOKING AT JALEN HILL: Entering his sophomore season, Jalen Hill has registered three career double-doubles, with two of those taking place in the final three games last March. Hill's first career double-double (10 points, 10 rebounds) came in a thrilling comeback victory at Oregon on Jan. 10, 2019. He has registered a career-best 12 points in three games (versus Utah on Feb. 9, 2019; at Utah on March 9, 2019; and versus Stanford on March 13, 2019).

TOP-10 IN 3-POINT PERCENTAGE

David Singleton finished his freshman season ranking No. 6 on the school's single-season list for highest 3-point field goal percentage (46.7%). In order to qualify for that top-10 list, players must have made a minimum of one 3-pointer per game and at least 30 total 3-pointers during a season. Singleton made 35 of 75 shots from 3-point distance, logging the second-highest percentage of any Pac-12 player. Cal's Matt Bradley finished the 2018-19 season having shot 47.2% from 3-point range (50 of 106).

MO OSTIN BASKETBALL CENTER

UCLA officially opened the Mo Ostin Basketball Center with a grand opening ceremony on Oct. 26, 2017. The state-of-the-art facility not only has provided the men's and women's basketball teams with vital resources, but has also freed up facility access for other programs and student-athletes. With approximately 35,000 gross square feet of space, the facility stands near Pauley Pavilion's southwest corner, along the south end of the Los Angeles Tennis Center.

The Mo Ostin Basketball Center was designed by award-winning architectural design firm Kevin Daly Architects, in partnership with globally acclaimed high-performance design firm AECOM. The practice facility features two separate courts – Russell Westbrook Court for the men's team and Ann Meyers Drysdale Court for the women's team. The building also houses the Kevin Love Athletic Performance Center, which is raised over the main entrance, has its own skylights and includes separate offices for the athletic performance staffs of the men's and women's basketball teams.

UCLA's facility also features separate conference rooms for the men's and women's basketball teams that each overlook their respective courts. The Mo Ostin Basketball Center includes locker rooms for the student-athletes, a film room, an equipment room, a training room, a nutrition center, an alumni locker room and locker rooms for the coaching staffs. Portions of the facility's hallways include "By the Numbers" displays and an Under Armour uniform presentation. Adjacent to both courts is a "Champions Plaza" patio with a wall that honors student-athletes from past men's and women's teams.

The Bruins' state-of-the-art facility is named after legendary music industry executive and philanthropist Morris "Mo" Ostin, who generously committed $10 million to the project. Ostin, who holds a B.A. in Economics from UCLA, serves as Chairman Emeritus of Warner Bros. His influence is reflected throughout the building, from a state-of-the-art sound system, acoustics and videoboard to the design of the donor display in the lobby, which was modeled after a sheet of music.

MICK CRONIN

The Michael Price Family UCLA Men's Head Basketball Coach

Record at UCLA
0-0 (1st season)

Overall Record
365-171 (17th season)

Mick Cronin has entered his first season as UCLA's head coach, having been named the 14th head coach in the history of the Bruins' basketball program on April 9, 2019. Cronin, 48, spent the previous 13 seasons as head coach at his alma mater, the University of Cincinnati. Prior to his 13 seasons at Cincinnati, he served as the head coach at Murray State for three years.

Cronin led Cincinnati to consecutive NCAA Tournaments the past nine years. He guided Cincinnati to a pair of back-to-back 30-plus win seasons in 2017 and 2018, and coached the Bearcats to the American Athletic Conference (AAC) Tournament title in 2018 and 2019. After having led Cincinnati to a 31-5 overall mark in 2018, he was named Sporting News National Coach of the Year. In addition, he was also named a semifinalist for the 2018 Naismith Trophy National Coach of the Year Award. Cronin enters the 2019-20 season having compiled the most head coaching victories at the NCAA Division I level (365) among active head coaches under the age of 50.

LOOKING BACK AT 2018-19

Cronin helped Cincinnati to a 28-7 overall record last season, marking the third consecutive year in which the Bearcats won at least 28 games. In fact, through the previous three seasons, Cronin registered a record of 89-18 at Cincinnati (winning percentage of .832). The Bearcats went 14-4 in American Athletic Conference play last season, finishing second in the conference standings behind Houston (16-2). Cincinnati captured the AAC Tournament title for the second consecutive season, taking down Houston in the championship contest, 69-57. Despite having lost AAC Player of the Year Gary Clark (Houston Rockets), Jacob Evans III (Golden State Warriors) and Kyle Washington (NBA G League), the Bearcats proved naysayers wrong by winning 13 of their final 16 conference games en route to the second-place league finish. Jarron Cumberland captured AAC Player of the Year acclaim, as Cincinnati registered 11 victories by five points or fewer.

PRIOR TO BECOMING A HEAD COACH

Cronin became a head coach at Murray State (Murray, Kentucky) at the age of 32, prior to the 2003-04 school year. The son of longtime high school coach Hep Cronin, Mick Cronin served as an assistant varsity coach and head junior varsity coach at Woodward High School while he was completing his undergraduate studies at Cincinnati. He served as the video coordinator and later as an assistant coach for head coach Bob Huggins at Cincinnati (assistant coach from 1997 through 2001). He joined the coaching staff at Louisville prior to the 2001-02 school year, serving as the program's associate head coach for Rick Pitino. After two seasons on the staff at Louisville, Cronin became the head coach at Murray State. In three seasons at Murray State, Cronin led the Racers to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances and a combined record of 69-24. Cronin compiled a 42-10 record in the Ohio Valley Conference during his three seasons at Murray State.
