Men's Basketball Opens 2012-13 Season at No. 13 UCLA

James Madison will begin its 2012-2013 regular season on the West Coast, taking on UCLA in historic Pauley Pavilion this Thursday, Nov. 15 at 11 p.m. (EST). In addition to opening the season, the game also opens participation in the 2012 Progressive Legends Classic, a four-game event sponsored by The Gazelle Group.

Beginning his fifth year at JMU, head coach Matt Brady will look jump start the season by knocking off the No. 13 Bruins in Pauley Pavilion, which underwent a massive renovation and celebrated a grand opening on Nov. 9 against Indiana State. It will be the first meeting between UCLA and JMU.

The Dukes are looking to rebound from last year's injury-plagued season, when significant roster shuffling throughout the year led to a 12-20 overall record. JMU had a 5-13 mark in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish eighth in the league. After a 7-4 start, key injuries piled up as the Dukes went 5-16 the rest of the way.

JMU, which was selected to finish sixth out of 11 conference teams in the CAA Preseason Poll, will be led by a bevy of senior playmakers. Guards A.J. Davis, Devon Moore, and Alioune Diouf will lead a seasoned backcourt this year, while Andrey Semenov, Rayshawn Goins and Gene Swindle are all featured senior members of the frontcourt. Diouf is a true senior, while the remaining five are all redshirt seniors. Davis was a Second Team All-CAA selection this preseason.

Last season, Goins missed the entire season with a shoulder injury. Two years ago, he posted six double-doubles in 31 games, including his first at the Division I level at No. 3 Kansas State. He also ranked seventh in the CAA for offensive rebounds per game (2.7).

Moore also missed time last year, first due to ineligibility until a Dec. 19 game at home vs. Citadel, then later on after a wrist injury suffered January 21 vs. Hofstra. In the 24 games he did play, Moore averaged 8.8 points and 4.2 assists per game. He posted a .425 field goal percentage last season, good for fourth best on the team among players who attempted at least 100 shots.

This is the fourth season Brady and the Dukes will play a top-25 team to open the season. JMU is 0-3 in those games, dating back to a Nov. 17, 2008 loss to No. 20 Davidson. While this will be the first game of the season for the Dukes, UCLA will have already played both Indiana State and UC Irvine.

At a glance, the Bruins seem to be the opposite of a veteran JMU team. UCLA fields only one senior, former North Carolina guard Larry Drew II, who sat out the 2011-2012 season because of NCAA transfer rules. He dished five assists in UCLA's season opener against Indiana State last Friday.

Instead, the Bruins will rely on a talented crop of freshmen contributors this season. Guard Jordan Anderson scored 21 points in his collegiate debut last week, and fellow freshman Kyle Anderson tallied 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Both are members of a 2012 recruiting class ranked No. 1 in the nation. However, the centerpiece of the class was prized recruit and high school player of the year Shabazz Muhammad, who was ruled ineligible by the NCAA last weekend because of a violation of amateurism rules.

Following the West Coast game, JMU will play three subregional games in quick succession Nov. 19-21 to continue the Progressive Legends Classic. The Dukes will play away at Duquesne in Pittsburgh on the 19th and stay in town to play Youngstown State and North Dakota State on the 20th and 21st, respectively.

FASHIONABLY LATE?

JMU will be the last of 347 Division I teams in the nation to begin its season with the Nov. 15 game at UCLA. Three teams (Northern Kentucky, South Dakota, Wagner) begin their season on Wednesday, Nov. 14.

JMU VS. RANKED TEAMS

The Dukes enter the UCLA game with a 1-30 record all-time against ranked opponents. However, the one win came the only other time JMU played a ranked school from the Golden State. The Dukes defeated No. 19 California 90-75 on Dec. 29, 1992 in East Rutherford, N.J.

MATT BRADY OPENING VS RANKED TEAMS

The UCLA game will be the fourth ranked opponent for head coach Matt Brady at JMU with each coming in a season opener. The Dukes fell to No. 21 Davidson (99-64) in 2008, No. 16 Ohio State (72-44) in 2009 and No. 3 Kansas State (75-61) in 2010. The three losses to ranked teams have come by a combined margin of 25.7 points per game.

JMU IN SEASON OPENERS

JMU is 23-20 all-time in season openers, 5-5 in the last 10 years, and 2-3 in the last five seasons. The win over Canisius to begin the 2011-12 season was the only opening win for Matt Brady in his first four seasons at JMU with the others being the ranked losses to Davidson, Ohio State and Kansas State.

TRIO TO HIT 1,000

JMU opens the season with three players on pace to reach 1,000 career points. Devon Moore could become the 26th 1,000-point scorer with 71 more points. Andrey Semenov sits at 823 points while A.J. Davis is right behind with 815. Davis scored 305 of his points in two seasons at Wyoming. He would need 490 points to reach 1,000 at JMU.

FIFTH-YEAR SENIORS

The Dukes feature six seniors on their roster with five being fifth-year seniors. They boast the most fifth-year seniors among all 347 Division programs in the nation as well as the most in school history.

DUKES HIT THE VEGAS STRIP

While the Dukes previously played in Las Vegas during the 1983-84 and 1990-91 seasons, the neutral games at the MGM Grand Garden Arena will be the first time for the Dukes to play on the Vegas strip. The games are being used as a dry run for the Pac 12 Conference, which will host its championship in the arena in March. JMU's games will be the first college basketball ever held at MGM Grand Garden Arena.

CAA SCORING EXPERIENCE

JMU boasts four different players who have scored at least 9.5 points per game in a season during their collegiate careers. That number leads the CAA.

JMU IN PRESEASON CAA POLL
After an eighth-place finish in the CAA last year, JMU was picked sixth in the 2012-13 preseason poll of coaches, media and sports information directors. The Dukes have been picked in the top six - fifth in 2011-12, fourth in 2010-11 and fifth in 2009-10 - each of the last four years but have not finished the season as high as fourth since a tie for first in 1999-2000.

JMU PLAYERS PRESEASON ALL-CAA
In addition to the sixth-place team prediction, guard A.J. Davis was named to the Preseason All-CAA Second Team.

COACHING STAFF HAS NEW LOOK
JMU's coaching staff has a different look entering the 2012-13 season as Matt Brady hired Mike Deane and Bill Phillips as assistant coaches to replace Corey Stitzel and Louis Rowe. Deane was Brady's head coach when he was a senior point guard at Siena. Lucious Jordan was hired as director of operations to fill the role previously held by Phillips. Sam Dowell serves as graduate assistant coach after working four years as a student manager.

TEAM GAMES PLAYED RECORD
JMU is scheduled for a minimum of 32 games this season, which will tie for fourth in program history, prior to any possible additional postseason play.
