HEAD COACH VELAIDA HARRIS

Overall Record (2nd Season)

Overall: 6-25 (.194)

Conference: 3-17 (.150)

Velaïda Harris was hired as the new head coach of the Wildcat women's basketball team in July of 2018. Harris is the sixth head coach in Weber State women's basketball history.

Harris brings more than 25 years of coaching experience to Weber State, including nine seasons coaching at the Division I collegiate level, with six years in the state of Utah.

Harris is also the first African-American woman to ever to be a collegiate head coach of any sport in the state of Utah at the Division I level.

Harris comes to Weber State after spending this past season as an assistant coach at the University of Rhode Island where she worked primarily with Rhode Island's perimeter players. She was also heavily involved in recruiting.

Prior to Rhode Island, she spent six years on the staff at the University of Utah from 2009-15. She began her career with the Utes as the director of basketball operations under head coach Elaine Elliott. She earned a promotion to assistant coach and then added the responsibility of recruiting coordinator under head coach Anthony Levrets.

Prior to coaching at Utah, Harris spent two seasons at the University of Oregon. She was the director of operations for the Ducks in 2007-08 and was promoted to assistant coach the following season. During her time at Utah and Oregon, Harris recruited several regions of the country. At Utah, she was responsible for the Midwest, South and Southeast. With Oregon, she recruited the West Coast, Midwest and Canada. She also handled recruiting the junior college ranks.

At both schools, she served as the academic liaison for the staff. Utah and Oregon both had a 100 percent graduation rate. Harris also coached two WNBA players, two Olympians and 16 players who went on to professional careers overseas.
