AVERY ANDERSON

Director of Track & Field and Cross Country
1st Season at UCLA
7th Season overall
UCLA '05

UCLA track and field alumnus Avery Anderson was named the new Director of Track and Field and Cross Country by UCLA Athletics on July 6, 2017. As Director, Anderson oversees all aspects of the planning, development, and administration of the track and field and cross country programs at UCLA.

Anderson returns to his alma mater after spending nearly 20 years coaching at the NCAA Division I level. His coaching career began at CSUN, where he served as a volunteer assistant track and field coach from 1999-2001 while competing as a professional decathlete. He served in the same role at UCLA from 2001-2002 and at Kansas State from 2002-2004 before returning to CSUN for the next 13 years working in various coaching roles. Most recently, he served as the Director of Track and Field and Cross Country for CSUN from 2011-2017.

Anderson's tenure with the Matadors was marked by staggering levels of success. During his time with CSUN, Anderson led his student-athletes to 13 Big West/WAC Conference Team Titles, 91 individual conference championships, and 21 NCAA All-America honors. He also coached the only individual male NCAA Division I champions in CSUN history, in any sport, long jumpers Dashalle Andrews and Reindell Cole.

Additionally, Anderson presided over three Big West Outdoor Championships on the women's side (2011, 2015, and 2017). The women's victory in 2017 extended CSUN's record for most conference team titles on either the men's or women's side. Anderson was recognized for his coaching prowess when he received the 2015 and 2017 Big West Conference Women's Track and Field Coach of the Year awards.

In addition to his evident coaching expertise, Anderson returns to Westwood with the invaluable experience of being a two-sport student-athlete with the Bruins, as he competed in both football and track and field and understands the winning tradition of UCLA Athletics. He was a member of the NCAA runner-up 4x100m relay squad his senior season and helped UCLA take home four Pac-10 Championships. As a wide receiver from 1991-1995, Anderson competed in football for the Bruins at the highest level. His most notable season came when he helped lead UCLA to a 1993 Pac-10 title and later played in the 1994 Rose Bowl.

Anderson went on to play for the Indianapolis Colts during the 1996-97 season. When a back injury ended his football career, he decided to return to track and field as a decathlete. He soon became a prominent decathlete as he set the CSUN complex decathlon record to qualify for the 2000 U.S. Olympic Trials. After finishing seventh at trials, he went on to compete internationally for the United States in 2001 in the U.S. vs. Germany decathlon competition in Germany.

In addition to receiving a Bachelor of Arts in political science from UCLA, Anderson earned his Master's of Public Administration with honors at CSUN. His advocacy for academic success was on display during his tenure at CSUN, as his program achieved a total of 12 NCAA APR Public Recognition Awards.

Anderson is married to the former Bridget Pearson, who coaches the pole vaulters for CSUN and additionally assists with the multi events. She is also a UCLA track and field alumna. The couple have two children: a son, Andy, and daughter, Avery.

DEVIN ELIZONDO

Assistant Coach
1st Season
UCLA '98

UCLA alumnus Devin Elizondo enters his first season with the Bruins as an assistant coach for cross country and track and field. As he returns to Westwood, Elizondo brings a wealth of distance running acumen and an extensive resume of coaching experience that will certainly benefit the Bruins' distance program.

Elizondo previously served as head cross country coach and assistant track and field coach at UC Davis from 2014-2017. In his first cross country season at the helm, he led the Aggie women to their first Big West Conference title since 2011 and was named the conference Women's Cross Country Coach of the Year. In 2015, Elizondo guided both the men's and women's teams to third-place finishes at the Big West Championships, the highest finish for the men since 2013 and the fifth consecutive top-three finish on the women's side. During his tenure at Davis, Elizondo helped coach 20 All-Big West runners (six men, 14 women) and six all-region honorees in cross country.

His coaching career began at the Brentwood School in Los Angeles. There, he served as the head track and field coach and assistant cross country coach for both boys and girls. With Elizondo on the coaching staff, the boys' cross country team qualified for six state championship meets and achieved five top-five finishes. The girls' program also enjoyed success, as the girls advanced to two state meets and sent an individual runner on two other occasions during Elizondo's time at Brentwood.

Elizondo graduated from UCLA in 1998 with a degree in history and enjoyed great success as a distance runner for the Bruins. He was a member of three Pac-10 track and field championship teams and also helped lead the cross country team to a pair of third-place conference finishes. Elizondo was the UCLA cross country team's Most Outstanding Freshman in 1994 and was selected to the All-District IX First Team in 1995.

Elizondo has also had an extensive history of youth outreach in Southern California involving athletics. He joined the LA84 foundation in 2007 and worked to organize cross country and track and field clinics at over 1,600 high schools in the Southern California Area. He has also been heavily involved in Runner's Workshop since 1994, a summer cross country camp at which Elizondo regularly creates lecture series and workouts for campers.
