BILLY MARTIN

Head Coach
26th Season
Redlands '89

Head coach Billy Martin, who is in his 26th year as head coach of the UCLA Bruins, takes an overall record of 576-118 (.830) into the 2019 season. This year marks Martin's 36th on staff, as he served as an assistant coach for 10 years prior to taking over for Glenn Bassett in 1994. He is only the fourth head coach in UCLA tennis history, following legends Bill Ackerman (1921-50), J.D. Morgan (1951-66) and Bassett (1967-93). Only two active coaches at UCLA have served longer at their current positions, as Martin follows Cyndi Gallagher (women's swimming - 31 years) and Valorie Kondos Field (women's gymnastics - 29 years). He became just the third active head coach to be inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame, joining Al Scates and Kondos Field, in 2005. Perhaps the most amazing accomplishment in Martin's career is his ability to contend for a championship each and every year, as only twice has he had a team finish out of the top five at the season-ending NCAA Championships.

Martin's finest season at UCLA came in 2005 when he led the squad to its first NCAA title since 1984. UCLA's 4-3 come-from-behind victory over top-seeded and undefeated Baylor that year marked the Bruins' 16th NCAA Championship in men's tennis and the school's 97th NCAA title overall. The win snapped Baylor's 57-match winning streak, the second longest in NCAA history. It also avenged the team's 4-0 loss to the Bears in the 2004 NCAA Final.

In addition to the team's dramatic run to the title in 2005, Martin has had several near misses at the NCAA Championships, including 2013 when the top-seeded Bruins were narrowly edged by No. 2 Virginia, 4-3 in the championship match in Champaign, Ill. Under Martin, UCLA has reached the NCAA Final on three other occasions (1996, 1999 and 2004). After reaching the final in just his third year as head coach, Martin was named the 1996 ITA National Coach of the Year, as the Bruins finished with a 27-1 overall record.

Another significant highlight in Martin's career is his outstanding success in the highly-competitive Pac-12 Conference, where he owns a 157-27 (.853) record. The Bruins swept through the conference regular-season and tournament schedules in 2018, earning the head coach Pac-12 Coach of the Year recognition. The honor marked the fifth of Martin's career (1996, 2012-14, 2018). Under Martin's direction, UCLA has captured 14 regular-season conference titles, including four in a row from 2004-07. UCLA has never finished out of the top three in the Pac-12 standings during Martin's tenure. The Bruins have also won four conference-tournament titles under Martin (2013, 2014, 2016, 2018).

In addition to his numerous team accomplishments, Martin takes great pride in helping his players achieve their individual goals as well. In 2006, he helped Benjamin Kohlloeffel become the 10th player in school history to capture the NCAA Singles Championship. Kohlloeffel notched a straight-set win over Virginia's Somdev Devvarman in the title match that year, becoming the first Bruin player since Martin in 1975 to win the title. Kohlloeffel's victory put his coach in an elite category, as Martin joined Georgia's Manny Diaz as the only other active head coach to earn the career "triple crown" by leading their schools to three different titles at the NCAA Championships (team, singles and doubles). In 2014, Martin helped Marcos Giron become the school's 11th NCAA Singles Champion when Giron downed Pepperdine's Alex Sarkissian in straight sets in the 2014 championship match in Athens, Ga. Last season, Martin coached three-time All-American Mackenzie McDonald to the NCAA Singles crown. The Bruin junior dispatched top-ranked Mikael Torpegaard of Ohio State in straight sets to become UCLA's 12th NCAA Singles Champion. McDonald was named the 2016 ITA National Men's College Player of the Year and earned his second straight Pac-12 Player of the Year nod (2015, 2016).

Martin's first NCAA doubles title came when he coached Justin Gimelstob and Srdjan Muskatirovic to the championship in 1995. His second came in 2016, when McDonald and sophomore Martin Redlicki coasted past No. 8 Arthur Rinderknech and Jackson Withrow of Texas A&M, 6-4, 6-1, in the NCAA doubles final. Then, in 2018, Redlicki teamed with Evan Zhu to defeat Martin Joyce-Torpegaard of Ohio State in a thriller, 6-7 (8), 7-6 (4), 1-0 (9), to give Martin his third NCAA title-winning duo.

In all, a total of 32 players have achieved All-America status under Martin's direction.

Inducted into the ITA Men's Collegiate Tennis Hall of Fame in 1996, Martin's playing career is full of highlights. To this very day he is still regarded as one of the best junior players in the history of the sport. He captured the 1973 and 1974 singles titles at Junior Wimbledon, the Junior U.S. Open and Junior Orange Bowl tournaments. Inside Tennis Magazine ran an article that named him "Junior Player of the Century." Due to his tremendous success as a junior player while growing up in Illinois, Martin was inducted into the USTA Midwest Section Hall of Fame in December of 2010. He was also inducted into the Southern California Tennis Association Hall of Fame in August of 2011.

Although Martin played just one season at UCLA before turning pro, the 1975 season was a special one, as he guided the team to a perfect 19-0 dual-match record en route to an NCAA team championship during his freshman year.

After capturing the 1975 NCAA singles championship, Martin turned professional and enjoyed a fine career. He reached the Wimbledon singles quarterfinals in 1977 and was selected Rookie of the Year in his first professional season.

Martin defeated top pros such as Ken Rosewall (twice), Stan Smith, John Newcombe, Roscoe Tanner and Harold Solomon. In 1975 he won the Arkansas International singles title. He also won doubles championships in 1977, '79 and '81 in Laguna Niguel, CA, Brussels, Belgium and Bristol, England, respectively.

Martin attended UCLA for three years, working on his undergraduate studies before completing his bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Redlands in 1989. He earned his MBA from USC in 1991.

During the summer, Martin runs the Bassett-Martin Tennis Camp, one of the country's most successful camps for youngsters. Martin also directs the UCLA Summer Tennis Camps held on the UCLA campus.

Martin and his wife, Justine, have two children, William and Travis. William played college tennis at Saint Mary's, while Travis played at UCLA.

RIKUS DE VILLIERS

Assistant Coach
Sixth Season
Fresno State '11

Rikus de Villiers was elevated to the position of assistant coach with UCLA men's tennis by head coach Billy Martin in June 2018.

Already a familiar face to the program, de Villiers served in the role of volunteer assistant coach for five of the six seasons prior to his promotion. He replaced Grant Chen, who was named head coach at SMU.

De Villiers joined the UCLA staff in the fall of 2012 and immediately aided the Bruins in their run to the final round of the NCAA Championships the following spring. Over the course of his five seasons on staff, UCLA registered an overall record of 124-28 (.816) and dropped just two regular-season Pac-12 matches (32-2). The Bruins also secured three Pac-12 Tournament titles during de Villiers' time as a volunteer. He coached American Ryan Harrison on the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP) World Tour during his time away from the program in 2015-16.

Prior to joining UCLA, de Villiers played collegiate tennis from 2008-2011, spending one season at Pepperdine before transferring to Fresno State. The Durban, South Africa native came into his own with the Bulldogs, earning All-Western Athletics Conference (WAC) recognition each year. It was a breakout 2011 for de Villiers and the Bulldogs, who advanced to the NCAA Championships Second Round after claiming the WAC's automatic bid to the tournament. Individually, de Villiers was named to the All-WAC Singles and Doubles First Teams. De Villiers and partner Remi Boutillier earned a second trip to the NCAA Doubles Championships and finished the season ranked No. 18 in the Campbell/ITA doubles rankings. De Villiers reached a career-best No. 83 on the singles list.

A multiple-time winner at the African Championships as a junior player, de Villiers picked up his first ATP point at just 14 years old.

WIL MARTIN

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
Saint Mary's '15

Equipped with NCAA Division I playing experience and a rich coaching pedigree, Wil Martin joined UCLA men's tennis as volunteer assistant coach in 2018.

Son of long-time UCLA head tennis coach and ITA Hall of Famer Billy Martin, Martin has made a name for himself in the California tennis landscape. He played collegiate tennis at Saint Mary's prior to his return to the Southland, where he replaced the promoted Rikus de Villiers on staff.

A shoulder injury derailed a promising beginning with the Gaels for Martin, who won five of his first seven singles matches in the 2011-12 season. He sat out the entirety of the subsequent campaign, as well as most of the following fall before seeing his resilience pay off in the 2014 dual-match season. Martin was a stalwart, finishing third on the team in both singles wins and doubles triumphs with eight and nine, respectively. He remained a consistent doubles force through the 2014-15 season, his final one with the team.

Martin attended Loyola High School in Los Angeles for three years before relocating to Ojai, Calif., where he attended Nordhoff High School and trained at Weil Tennis Academy.
