WE (DON'T) LOVE LA

Since joining the league in 2011-12, Utah has struggled against the LA schools and have been swept four five times out of nine opportunities where they've faced both USC and UCLA on the same road swing. Utah has also swept the LA schools twice on the road (2015-16 & 2018-19). In the two instances where the Utes have taken the split (2013-14 & 2014-15), Utah's win have come against the Trojans.

WESTWOOD ON TAP

With Utah's last trip to Pauley Pavilion coming up this weekend, the Runnin' Utes are 4-10 all-time on the road against UCLA and 2-7 inside Pauley during the Pac-12 Era. The Utes have lost three-straight in LA against UCLA with their last win inside Pauley occurring in 2019 behind a buzzer-beater from Parker Van Dyke that helped Utah erase a 22-point deficit for the win.

Since joining the league, Utah has only swept the in-season series against UCLA once (2018-19). The Utes only played UCLA once in 2015-16 - a 75-73 victory in favor of Utah in Westwood.

FOREVER IN HISTORY

Utah guard Deivon Smith became the first Runnin' Ute ever to record multiple triple-doubles in a single-season Thursday night when he posted a line of 14 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists. He also just the fourth player this season to record multiple triple-doubles through games on Feb. 8.

- First Pac-12 player since Andre Iguodala to have multiple triple-doubles in a season (3; 2003-04)
 - Jason Kidd had 4 in 1993-94
 - Sixth player in Pac-12 history to have multiple triple-doubles in their career
- Smith recorded just the sixth triple-double in Utah history
- 40th time since 1996-97 a player has had multiple triple-doubles in a season
- Since 1996-97, there have only been 35 instances where a Runnin' Ute dished out 10-plus assists in a single-game
- Smith has dished out 10-plus assists three times since Jan. 11, 2024
 - UCLA (11), at Stanford (11), Arizona (10)

OVERTIME NOTES

Thursday's triple overtime loss had a few firsts for the Utes...

- First 3OT or 4OT game played at home or inside the Jon M. Huntsman Center ever
- Utah is now 4-3 in 3OT games - was previously 4-2 on the road
- Utah is now 60-47 (.561) all-time in overtime games and 26-15 (.634) all-time at home in overtime games
- Head coach Craig Smith is now 1-2 in OT games since taking the helm at Utah

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Utah saw its 12-game win-streak at home snapped on Thursday, Feb. 8, in a 30T loss to #8/8 Arizona, 105-99. The 12-0 mark at home for Utah was the best record at home since going 16-0 in 2014-15.

Both wins those two years came against WSU.

UTES HAND TDS THEIR FIRST LOSS

Utah took care of business at home on Dec. 9 when it took down then-No. 14/13 BYU in front of a sold-out crowd inside the Jon M. Huntsman Center. The Runnin' Utes led for 38:41 minutes of the game and had a lead as high as 16 points in the second half. Despite leading for nearly the entire game, it didn't come easily as the visiting Cougars cut the lead down to one possession with less than a minute to go but a resilient Utah team prevailed as the clock struck zero to solidify the 73-69 victory over rival BYU. Gabe Madsen led all players with 17 points and 4 rebounds on 5-of-9 shooting from 3-point range while Utah native Branden Carlson added 15 points on 8 rebounds. BIG BEN

Making his first start of the season, Ben Carlson showed up in a big way for the Utes. The 6-9 forward recorded his first-career double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds on 6-of-8 shooting with 2 assists and a steal vs. Southern Utah. The 15 points was a new career-high for the Woodbury, Minn., product while his 10 rebounds was just one shy of tying his career-high.

VETERANS FOR 20

Gabe Madsen's 20 second-half points against Washington State was the second time this season a Ute has score 20 points in a half since Branden Carlson's 20-point second half performance against Wake Forest at the Charleston Classic opener. Madsen's 20-point second-half was also the first time a Runnin' Ute had 20 points in a Pac-12 play since Carlson posted 21 points in the first half against Wazzu last season.

Carlson followed up against Washington with 27 second-half points to give him a new career-high 34 points at the end of the game. The 7-footer closed the night shooting 14-of-23 from the field (3-5 3FGM) with 7 rebounds and a career-high 7 assists as well.

DOUBLE-TROUBLE

Through games on Feb. 8, Utah floor generals Rollie Worster and Deivon Smith are just 1-of-8 guards in the country to average at least 9.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and 5.5 assists.

TAMED HUSKY

After another sluggish latter portion to the first half, the Utah men's basketball team rebounded in the second half for the second game in a row after dropping 60 points in the second frame against Washington to complete the sweep of the Washington schools at home for the eighth time since joining the Pac-12. Utah's 15-point deficit was erased thanks to big man Branden Carlson, who scored 27 of his career-high 34 points in the second half while also posting 7 rebounds and a career-high 7 assists. The 7-footer was dominant in the second half, scoring 19 of Utah's 28 points in the final 9:31 minutes of play.

Gabe Madsen picked up his first-career double-double with 11 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. Utah's point guard duo of Rollie Worster and Deivon Smith were both all over the stat sheet with Worster posting 14 points on 6 rebounds with 5 assists and 2 steals while Smith had 9 points, 7 rebounds and 6 assists. Cole Bajema, who played against his former team, added 11 points with a trio of triples.

CRAIG SMITH ERA AT HOME

In the third year of the Craig Smith Era, the Runnin' Utes are 17-2 at home in non-conference play after defeating Bellarmine to close out non-con action. Dating back to last season, Utah has won nine-straight home non-conference games.

ALL BRUIN'D OUT

The Utah men's basketball team completely dominated UCLA at home, handing the Bruins their second-worst defeat in program history with a 90-44 throttling inside the Jon M. Huntsman Center. With the game in favor of Utah 33-27 at the 18:12 mark in the second half, Utah opened up a 49-6 blitzkrieg against the Bruins that lasted 13:03 minutes despite UCLA calling three separate timeouts during that stretch. Branden Carlson and Deivon Smith both finished with double-doubles as well while Utah had five players reach double-figures. Carlson finished with 12 points and a career-high 14 rebounds while Smith dished out a career-high 11 dimes to go with 11 points. His 14 rebounds were the most against a conference opponent since Tyler Rawson had 15 against Washington State on Feb. 17, 2018. The win snapped a seven-game losing skid against the Bruins for Utah and its first win since 2019.

OVERTIME THRILLER

The Utah men's basketball team had an emotional rollercoaster Thursday (Feb. 8) night in its 105-99 triple-overtime loss to #8/8 Arizona at home. Branden Carlson and Gabe Madsen fueled Utah's comeback in the second half to outscore the Wildcats 51-35 with the two combining to score 28 points (14 points each) on 10-of-15 shooting - five of which came from 3-point range. The game ultimately came down to free throws, which has been Utah's achilles' heel as of late. The Utes were just 10-for-21 from the line while Arizona went 24-for-32 in the game but more importantly, the Wildcats were 9-of-15 in the OT periods while Utah was just 4-of-6.

Carlson finished with a game-high 27 points on 15 boards, knocking down 11-of-19 from the floor. Keba Keita filled up the box score with 18 points, 7 rebounds, 3 assists, 2 steals and 2 blocks while Madsen chipped in with 17 points and five boards on 5-of-10 from 3-point range. Deivon Smith capped off his night with a late triple-double scoring 14 points to go with 11 boards and 10 assists for his second of the season.

LAST TIME OUT

Despite its second-poorest shooting performance from beyond the arc this season (4-for-21), the Utah men's basketball team had three opportunities with 1:56 left to play to tie or steal the win on the road but ultimately fell 68-64. The Utes fought hard in the second half, erasing USC's lead each time it went on any sort of run to keep the lead in the single-digit range and put them within striking distance. However, a tough night on the defensive boards saw USC convert 10 offensive rebounds into a 14-4 edge in second-chance points.

His accomplishments last season also included all-region, all-state, all-tournament team and tournament MVP honors.

As a sophomore, the 6-8 forward led Alta HS to the quarterfinals of the state championships before finishing 19-7 overall while winning their region with a 10-2 mark. Johnson saw action in 26 games that season, averaging 13.6 points, 6.3 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 1.6 steals for the Hawks.

Johnson also helped his AAU team, Utah Prospects, to the Adidas National 3SSB Championship this past summer and scored 16 points in the title game to earn tournament MVP honors. Utah Prospects captured the 2023 tournament title after taking runner-up honors the previous year. Prior to joining the Runnin' Utes, Johnson will serve his mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints after graduation.

Katoa will join the Runnin' Utes next fall after graduating from Layton High School the spring of 2024. He spent most of his prep career playing for Utah Prep, formerly known as Real Salt Lake Basketball Academy (RSL Academy). The 6-4 guard is a four-star prospect according to ESPN and is a three-star recruit according to 247Sports, Rivals and On3. The Layton native is expected to return for his senior season this winter at LHS.

He saw action in seven games with Utah Prep before tearing his ACL last season. In that short span, Katoa averaged 13.3 points and 4.0 rebounds. As a sophomore, Katoa helped the team post a 20-8 overall record averaging 14.4 points, 6.3 rebounds, 2.8 assists, 2.6 steals and 2.0 blocks per MaxPreps. Katoa had a solid freshman season where he averaged 10.6 points, 2.4 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.6 steals with then RSL Academy.

Katoa is the youngest in a family of Division I athletes that starts with both his parents. His father was a tight end (1988-90) at BYU while his mother was a distance runner (1990) for the Cougars. Katoa's second oldest sister Mariah started her volleyball career at BYU (2011) before finishing her career at Weber State (2012-14). His sister Eliza was a member of the Utah volleyball team (2014-16) and beach volleyball squad (2017) while his brother Taylor was member of the USC football team (2017, 2020-22). In addition, his sister Lia competed in the throws events at Weber State (2022-23) for two seasons before transferring to BYU.

DEFENSE IMPROVEMENT

Per the Stat Train, Utah's 71 points per game allowed improvement from 2021-22 to 2022-23 was tied for the fifth-best among the Power 6 teams. The Utes held opponents to just 63.8 points per game last season compared to the 70.9 points per game in year one (2021-22).

KEITA FLASHES

Sophomore Keba Keita had a solid showing in the season-opener off the bench, recording his first-career double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds off the bench against Eastern Washington. The 6-8 center gives the Utes a new dimension coming off the bench with his high motor and athleticism.

CROWD WORK

Utah's game against then-No. 14/13 BYU at home drew 15,468 fans to the Jon M. Huntsman Center – which was the fourth-largest crowd in program history. That total was the eighth time in program history a game between the heated in-state rivals has landed in the top-16 top single-game attendance list. Utah is 12-4 all-time in these sellout games since the Jon M. Huntsman Center opened up in November of 1969.

CARLSON PRESEASON HONORS

Prior to the start of the 2023-24 campaign, Utah big man Branden Carlson was named a Preseason All-Pac-12 First-Team selection ahead of league's media day session. Carlson becomes the first Ute to earn preseason first-team honors back-to-back seasons.

The 7-0 center was also 1-of-20 players around the country named to the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award Watch List once again. Carlson was joined by three other players from the Conference of Champions in Aday Mara (UCLA), N'Faly Dante (Oregon) and Oumar Ballo (Arizona). Of the four, Mara was the lone player not named to the Preseason All-Pac-12 First-Team. However, the freshman did earn All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention accolades. The Pac-12, Big 10 and Big East lead the Power 6 leagues with four players each on the watch list while the SEC and Big 12 checking in with three players each.

PAC-12 OPENERS

After sweeping the Washington schools last week to open Pac-12 Conference play, Utah is 14-9 all-time in conference opening game(s). The last and final season of the Conference of Championships saw Utah square off against Washington State for the first time ever to start a season and just the second time it has opened league play with a school from the Evergreen State.

Head coach Craig Smith is 12-7 all-time in conference opening game(s) at the Division I level and 10-2 at home in conference opening game(s) after the sweep of the Washington schools.

CARLSON JOINS RUNNIN' UTES ELITE IN 1000 POINTS CLUB

With 8:42 on the clock of the second half, Branden Carlson cemented his name into Runnin' Utes basketball lore when he became the 41st player to join the 1,000 points club at Stanford on Dec. 31, 2022. Since joining the Pac-12 (2011-12), Carlson is just the sixth Runnin' Ute to join the 1,000 points club.

Utah's win over Colorado on Feb. 11 moved it to 17-9 overall and 10-5 in Pac-12 play. The 10 league victories compared to last season's four is the largest margin of increase year-over-year in conference play since Utah went from eight wins in 1993-94 to 15 wins in 1994-95.

WORSTER WOWS

Utah floor general Rollie Worster set the tone early for Utah in its season-opener leading the team with 15 points, 5 rebounds, 8 assists and a career-high 6 steals. Worster continues to flirt with the triple-double after nearly missing out three other times late in the season last year. The biggest stat for Missoula, Mont., product was that he did everything while not committing a single turnover.

EXACTE & KEITA ENTER RECORD BOOK

Wilguens Junior Exacte closed out his freshman season shooting .947 from the free throw line – which put him at the top of the freshman records at Utah. The Montréal native passed a host of recent freshmen that have cracked the top-5 for the top spot – namely Pelle Larsson (2020-21), Rylan Jones (2019-20) and Both Gach (2018-19).

Keba Keita also saw himself inserted into the Utah men's basketball record books at the end of year after finishing his freshman season with a .609 shooting clip – which ranks third-best all-time among freshmen. He joins a decorated group of freshmen in the top-5 that include Jakob Poeltl (2014-15), Mikael Jantunen (2019-20), Alex Jensen (1994-95) and Hanno Möttölä (1996-97).

LONG RANGE

Utah Center Branden Carlson finished the 2022-23 season with 41 made 3-pointers. The 7-footer was just 1-of-6 players last season listed at the center position to knock down 40 or more triples.

OPENING TREND

After its decisive 101-66 victory over Eastern Washington, Utah is now 90-26 overall in home-openers and 81-13 all-time when those home-openers have also served as the season-opener. Craig Smith is 7-3 all-time as a Division I head coach in season-openers and 5-1 when those season-openers have been played at home.

YEAR-OVER-YEAR

With the win against Oregon State on the road, Utah doubled its total victories in league play from last year (4-16). The last time the Runnin' Utes doubled its total wins in league play year-over-year was when it went 7-9 (1989-90) in WAC play and followed with a 15-1 record in conference play in 1990-91.

FRESH FACES

This year's Runnin' Utes features a mix of veterans and fresh faces – including four veteran transfers in Hunter Erickson (BYU/SLCC), Cole Bajema (Michigan/Washington), Deivon Smith (Mississippi State/Georgia Tech) and Lawson Lovering (Colorado). Utah also added a quartet of freshmen in Jayden Teat, Jake Wahlin, Ayomide Bamsile and Jerry Huang.

Meanwhile, the Utes also saw movement on its bench with the promotion of Tramel Barnes to the assistant coach role over the summer. With the new NCAA rule in place, Smith added two bench coaches in Tyler Larson and Jayden Olson while hiring Matt Lopez as his director of scouting and video operations.

Larson came to SLC from the Sant Cruz Warriors after a successful professional career overseas while Olsen joined the Runnin' Utes staff from Williston State College where he served as the director of athletics. Prior to that, Olsen spent six seasons at North Dakota State– four of which as the associate head coach. Lopez joined the staff after spending the 2022-23 campaign at Arkansas and the previous two seasons at South Dakota.
